PORTAGE DU FORT, Que., April 26.—A young Indian named John Jacobs of Caughnawaga, Que., was drowned while running the rapids here on a raft of square timber, the property of Messrs. R. H. Klock & Co. The water here is very high and the running is not very favorable. The dangerous places are at the mountain side and the government bridge. It was at the latter place the young man was drowned, the crib having struck a pier. The body was found at Schneaux's boom, some miles below here.

The Samoan Question.

LONDON, April 26.—Commenting on the Samoan question, the Globe expresses doubt that the Government of the United States would seriously object to England's annexation of Samoa. "American opinion," it says, "shown over the Hawaiian affair would be greatly opposed to the idea of getting mixed up in Pacific politics. German patriotism is already up in arms, the newspapers urging the Emperor to take the Islands without more ado, but whatever course is eventually taken it is absolutely essential that it should have the united sanction of the three powers."

Great Northern Strike.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 26.—The conference of the American Railway Union representatives with President Hill yesterday was of a sensational character. President Hill declared he would not agree to the schedule submitted by the men, and Vice-President Howard created a scene by his criticism of the action of the road towards its employes. The conference will be resumed, but the outlook is doubtful for a peaceful settlement of the strike.

The Victims of the Earthquake.

ATHENS, April 26.—The latest reports show that 258 persons were killed and 150 severely injured during the recent earthquakes. The government is still sending bread, tents and blankets to the thousands of families which have been rendered homeless.

Eight Hours for Miners.

LONDON, April 26.—In the House of Commons Mr. Roby, member for Lancashire, presented a bill providing for an eight-hour working day for miners. The bill passed its second reading by 281 to 194.

Two Negro Murderers Hanged.

JACKSON, Miss., April 26.—Henry Singleton and Horace Smith were hanged in the penitentiary here. Both were negroes and both murdered fellow convicts in the penitentiary.

YOUNG'S POINT.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The water in the lake and river is extremely low for this season of the year, being over four feet lower than on a corresponding date last year. The steamboat employees and owners anticipate very low water this coming summer unless some action is taken immediately to stop the flow, as nearly all of the dams controlling the water supply, have very few if any stop-logs in them yet.

Quite a number of buildings are being erected in our pretty little village this spring. To begin with Mr. Robert Quinlan is erecting quite a large and commodious house on his lot purchased from Mr. Robert Young on the Douro side of the river. Mr. J.E. Kearney, of the Lakeview House, is erecting a pretty and artistic cottage on a lot owned by him directly across the bridge, which will have a pretty appearance facing the river. Mr. Richard Heard, our obliging and energetic blacksmith is also building a large shop on his lot in close proximity to his residenr which will be much more convenient for him, than the shop he has been occupying since he came here. When these buildings are completed it will add much to the appearance of our progressive little village.

The steamer Mary Ellen made her first trip this season to Lakefield Wednesday, being ten days earlier than she ran last year so the Captain informs your correspondent. She is greatly improved in appearance, having been repainted inside and out, Mr. Ralph Carton, Peterborough, doing the work in a stylish and artistic manner. The colours have been somewhat changed on her since last year,as her hull is now painted black, as are also the ribbons around the cabins. The outside of her cabins and also the wheelhouse and captain's cabin are painted white with red trimmings. The interior of the ladies' cabin has been beautifully grained and presents a handsome appearance. There also extends around the hurricane deck a very handsome awning, which, as well as being ornamental, will also be useful to protect the passengers from the sun. The crew are the same as last year with the exception of the engineer. Capt. Scollard will again act in the capacity of master with Ed. Young as mate, and Mr. E. Morshau as engineer. Mr. P. P. Young has indeed reason to feel proud of his staunch little steamer.

The Excelsior quarry at Eels' creek, owned by Messrs. Brockie & Morrison, is again in full blast. The steamer "Mary Ellen" left here on Monday morning early with a large scow to bring down the first consignment of paving blocks, to be shipped to Toronto for street purposes. A large number of blocks are to be shipped from the quarry during the coming summer.

The many friends of Mr. James Chalmers will regret to learn that he is dangerously ill. He received a paralytic stroke on Friday, and although he has rallied somewhat, but slight hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Mr. David Godfrey, who has been confined to his bed with an attack of inflammation of the lungs, is gradually recovering.

Mr. C. Young, who has been suffering from an attack of bronchitis, is rapidly approaching recovery.

Miss J. Phelan, of Lakefield, returned home after a couple of weeks' visit with her sister here.

Mr. James Johnston having received his certificate as mate of a passenger steamer, has received a position on the steamer Columbian, of Bobcaygeon. He leaves in about two weeks to assume the duties of his new position.

It is only of late years that rheumatism has been treated as a blood disease. But that this is a correct theory is proved by the extraordinary success attending the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in this painful and very prevalent malady. It seldom fails of radical cure.

Dr. Grant's "Hairene" keeps the scalp cool, clean, and healthy. Obtain from your druggist.

Mr. Ishoo, a native of Persia, who has been a student of Knox College for the past three years, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening.

It is with regret we learn that our sister town of Ida has an outbreak of diphtheria.

Mr. G. W. Green, of Millbrook, was in town this week.

Rev. Mr. McKay announced that on next Sabbath evening his sermon will be especially appropriate to young people.

Mrs. Geo. Seney is able to take a drive these warm days. We hope she will be much restored by these outings.

Our cheese factory is being tastily fitted up inside for the boom of the approaching season. Mr. Casey, the maker, will board at the Seney House.

The township council has sustained the petition asking that Mrs. Rosenberg's grant be continued.

Mr. Wm. Brown has engaged with Foster Shield for the summer.

Mr. Geo. Morrison, of Omemee, visited Rev. John Ewing last week.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Farmers busy seeding, and never was the land in a more favourable condition. Barley and oats are largely being tried.

There is little or no sickness here, and there is very much sympathy felt over the affliction of Prof. Seward, of Peterborough, as he was very popular here.

Division court sittings held last Tuesday. There were six defended suits.

Mr. Ishaoo, a Persian student of Knox College, Toronto, preached and le tured to very large congregations on last Sunday and Monday. The collection (all he asked) amounted to about $14. Mr. Ishaoo soon returns to work in his native land.

Mr. G. Mulligan is actively engaged over his "May" musical festival (60 voices) for the 24th May, assisted by Mr. A. D. Sturrock, a noted baritone, of Toronto, (and orchestral accompaniment). Besides this attraction there is already subscribed by our citizens large amounts towards valuable prizes for contests in all kinds of athletic and aquatic sports. Omemee is noted for always carrying out the programme advertised on the 24th May, and therefore merits some of the patronage of Peterborough and other neighbouring towns and villages, but more particularly Peterborough, seeing that a greater part of the trade of Emily township has gone there for the last 40 years. Hope to see half of Peterborough here.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. H. B. McFee was in Peterborough Saturday last.

The young man from Jacksonville had better engage a jockey after this.

The Rev. Mr. Cattanach has returned to our midst again fully restored to health.

We are sorry to learn of Mr. Percy Rutherford losing a valuable horse in the recent fire in Millbrook while attending the I. O. F. literary and musical entertainment.

We greatly regret to chronicle the death of three of Mr. John Buckham's children with that dread disease, diphtheria. Everything was done for their recovery, Dr. Gray, of Baillieboro, being the attending physician. Dr. King was also called in from Peterborough. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of this neighbourhood in their sad bereavement.

We are glad to state that Mrs. Andrew Goodfellow is recovering her health.

When Ponce de-Leon sought to find
The fountain giving back lost youth,
It may be that he had in mind
That draught which seems to make a truth
Out of the fable ages old.
For drinking it the old grow young;
It is, indeed, a draught of gold,
Surpassing all by poets sung.

The draught meant is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, of course. It is a most potent rejuvenator of the weakened and debilitated system. It drives out all poison, all impurity, enriches the blood, and makes the old and worn out feel young and vigorous. Ponce-de-Leon didn't discover it, but Dr. Pierce did, and he rightly named it when he called it a "Golden Discovery."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure permanently constipation, indigestion and headaches. All dealers.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair had been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually "topped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterward, using in all about a quater of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seem to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $80, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $30, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

BAPTIST.

The Christian Endeavour Society of the of the Murray street Baptist church was re-organized at a well attended meeting on Monday evening, and the constitution of the society was changed, allowing it to become a Baptist Young People's Union of Christian Endeavour, which gives the society representation in the Baptist Young People's Union and the Christian Endeavour. The officers elected were:—

President—Mr. A. G. Stantley.
Vice-pres.—Miss L. Perrin.
Rec.-sec.—Mr. F. Griffin.
Cor.-sec.—Miss Smith.
Treasurer—Miss A. Croly.

The society commences a new era both in members and nature of work.

ST. PAUL'S.

There was a good meeting at St. Paul's society Monday night, Mr. W. Nelson in the chair. Papers bearing on the topic were read by Miss E. Christie and Miss Mahood. The officers for the ensuing term were elected; they form the executive and will select members for the various committees this week.

SMITH TOWNSHIP.

The following societies in Smith have recently formed local unions; Bridgenorth E. L. of C.E., North Smith Presbyterian C.E., and Gilmour Baptist C.E. This is a good move and will prove helpful to all. The following officers were elected:

Hon. President—Rev. Mr. Bathston.
President—Mr. Jas. Roberts, Selwyn.
Vice-President—Mrs. Cleworth, Bridgenorth; Mr. Fred Sanderson, North Smith; Miss M. E. McEwen, Gilmour Memorial.
Secretary-Treasurer—Mr. Geo. Scott.

A short but interesting programme of music and speeches was given, when all partook of refreshments. The executive decided to have three union rallies during the year. The next one will be held in Selwyn Baptist church in June.

CHARLOTTE STREET EPWORTH LEAGUE

of Christian Endeavour held their regular devotional service on Monday evening last. Bro. H. Stevens took up the topic, "When and how to prepare for the future", which was brought out in a very clear and practical manner, showing the many ways which, if followed by young Endeavourers, would prove not only beneficial to them, but to others as well. Bro. G. I. Tovey also made a few very appropriate remarks, which was to the point, "Following Jesus afar off." The evening was a very pleasant and profitable one. The attendance was fair. The league cottage prayer meeting this coming Friday evening will be held at the residence of Mrs. Murray, Rubidge street.

GEORGE STREET METHODIST.

Along the line of missionary work it is the intention of the George street Methodist E. L. of C. E. this year to devote the monthly subscriptions to home missions with the exception of $18.00 to the general fund. Last year we sent $50.00 for the training of a little Chinese girl in the Home at Fort Simpson, B. C. Her name was Jessie, and we all took a great interest in her. She wrote us several letters and was so full of gratitude towards us. She hoped to be able before long to go back to her own country and tell her brothers and sisters of the precious Saviour she had found and the many things she had learned. We have found that when the members know just where their money is going there is more interest shown in the missionary work.

MARK STREET METHODIST.

The meeting of Mark street Epworth League this week was very interesting. The topic was "Gladness in His Service." Miss Minnie Frise spoke from the words, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength." It was a good meeting in every way and all present were impressed with a spirit of joyful hope, as they asked themselves the question, "Who wouldn't serve Christ?" and rejoice in Him as our leader. Our society has subscribed for the "Onward," which we find is a great help.

The Mission Band is to take charge of our next missionary meeting.

To Corresponding Secretaries of County:

DEAR FRIENDS,—It is very desirable that we should know the name of your society, the name and address of yourself—the corresponding secretary—and the name of the church with which your society is connected. We have this information from the great majority of the societies in the county, but there are a few still unreported. You will find herewith a list of the the societies thus reported. If your society is not in the list kindly answer the questions given below on a postal card, and forward to me as soon as possible. If you notice any mistake in the list here given kindly let me know and I shall correct it at once.

And now about this C. E. column, keep your society in communication with other societies in the county by sending Endeavour news items, elections of officers, specialties in your meetings, methods in social gatherings and in your committee work, etc. Now do not think that your contribution will not be of interest however small—send it along to the C. E. editor—you will find his address in this column.

Yours in C. E.,
R. A. WARD,
Secy.-treas.

AN ESSEX FARMER.

A Total Wreck with Kidney Disease—All the Symptions of Bright's Disease Present—Dodd's Kidney Pills make him Perfectly Well again

LEAMINGTON, April 23—Sherman Buchanan, a farmer living near here, recently passed through a terrible ordeal. He was attacked by kidney disease, which made him a perfect wreck. He suffered agonizing pains and his digestive organs were seriously impaired. All the symptions of Bright's disease were present. After several doctors had treated him ineffectually, Mr. Buchanan used several boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. Dodd's was the first kidney in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, 50c. or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

On Friday night last the members of Epworth League of Christian Endeavour in connection with the Methodist church of this place, entertained the members of Christian Endeavour of the Presbyterian church at the Methodist parsonage. They report having spent a very sociable and profitable time. We wish both societies success and trust that with Christ as their guide much good will be accomplished in our village.

Mr. Alex. Anderson is able to attend to his business again after a severe attack of la grippe.

Mr. Walter Pryce is home at present on a visit.

Mr. Harry English is at present off work on account of a sore leg. We hope to see him well again in a short time.

Brutal Treatment of Insurgents.

BUENOS AYARS, April 26.—A number of letters addressed to President Saens Pena describing the brutal treatment of the Brazilian insurgent refugees by the officers of the Portugese warships are printed in the Nacion. The letters state that the refugees were starved, beaten and kicked and three of them were badly wounded with cutlasses for some slight or fancied infraction of the ship's rules.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, April 26, 1894.

Local security market is quieter.

The circulation in London of a rumor that the Indian mints will be reopened within a few weeks has caused some speculation in silver.

The difference between May and July wheat narrowed to 1⅞ and 1¾c from 2½c to-day, the close showing a gain of ⅝c for the former and a loss of ⅛ to ¼c for the latter. Corn was strong, closing ¼c. Oats were active, May gaining 1½c for the day.

On Wall street the Wormsers are bullish, especially on Atchison, which they believe will be taken out of receivers' hands within four months. Earnings of St. Paul for third week of April decreased $110,845. Missouri Pacific decreased $27,000 same time.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Receipts of grain continue very small. One load of oats sold at 41½c. Wheat nominal at 62c for white and 58c for goose. Barley is quoted at 42c and peas at 64c to 64½c. Eggs unchanged, with fresh selling at 10½ to 11c in case lots. Hay offered freely, 45 loads old selling at $10 to $10.75 for timothy and at $8 for mixed.

Activity was lacking throughout New York's market, but the tendency of prices was plain enough. One highly important element in bear calculations was missed when London refused to take alarm. Had foreign holders of stocks sold heavily yesterday and to-day the possibilities of local demoralization would have been greatly enhanced. But this week is the opening of the new account in London, and the temper of the financial markets there is vastly more cheerful than our own. Chicago Gas stock furnished the only real excitement of the day, and in that the stir lasted for barely half an hour.

GENTLEMEN.—Two years ago my husband suffered from severe indigestion, but was completely cured by two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters. I can truly recommend it to all sufferers from this disease

Comfort In . . Corsets.

The physical discomfort endured by ladies who have to wear an ill-fitting pair of Corsets is a punishment that need not be borne any longer.

FIRST.—Avoid all dealers who carry old stock so long that they are forced to reduce the price of their "torture packs" to the bare cost of the material in order to get rid of them; or who send out girls totally ignorant of the harm they do by taking measures regardless of the form or figure.

SECOND.—Consult MRS. ENSIGN at her private parlours on Simcoe St., who will personally fit you with a pair of Corsets conducive to health and comfort, and will give you just exactly the support and beauty of figure you so much need and admire.

Sheriff's Sale of Land.

COUNTY OF PETERBOROUGH TO WIT.

BY VIRTUE OF SEVERAL WRITS OF Fieri Facias issued out of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice for Ontario, and to me directed and delivered at the suits of William Cluxton and others, plaintiffs, and against the lands and tenements of Frederick Ernest Burnham, defendant, I have seized and taken in execution and will offer for sale at my office, in the Court House, in the town of Peterborough, on Friday, the 18th day of May, 1894,

at 11 o'clock a.m., all the estate, right, title and interest of the said Frederick Ernest Burnham of, in and to all and singular those certain tracts of lands and premises hereinafter described, viz:—

1. Park Lot No. 4, in Township Lot 13, Con. 13, Township of Monaghan, (except the south 33 feet thereof now forming part of King street west), now in the Town of Peterborough.
2. Park Lot 5, in Township Lot 13, Con. 13, Monaghan, (except the small part thereof now forming part of Charlotte street as extended west), now forming part of the Town of Peterborough.
3. Lots Numbers 1 and 2 south of Simcoe street and west of George street, in the Town of Peterborough, containing one-half acre each more or less.
4. 84 feet more or less frontage on Water street, being part of Town Lot Number One, south of London street and east of Water street, described as follows:—commencing at a point on the east side of Water street 63 feet south of the north-west corner of said lot, thence south along Water street to a point 45 feet north of the south-west corner of said lot, thence easterly in a line parallel with the north limit of said lot, thence northerly along the east limit of said lot to a point 63 feet south from the north-east corner of said lot, and thence westerly in a line parallel with the north boundary of said lot to the place of beginning.
5. Lot 5 (less that part thereof sold to the Midland Railway of Canada), Lot 6 and the south half of Lot 7 south of Antrim street and west of George street in the Town of Peterborough.
6. Lot No. 22 as shown on Registered Plan No. 49 for the Town of Peterborough, situate on the West side of Park street, at its junction with Brock street together with a right of road 10 feet wide along the south side thereof.

A Government
BOMBSHELL
THROWN INTO THE
LIFE INSURANCE CAMP!

The following statement comes from the government Blue Book. It covers a period of sixteen years, and is sworn to as correct by representatives of each Company:

Statement of Premiums received and Cash Profits paid back [to Policy Holders from 1877 to 1892, both years inclusive]:—

COMPANY.	Premiums Received.	Dividends Paid to Policy Holders.	Ratio of Dividends to Premiums, %
CANADA LIFE	$16,366,307	$2,946,433	18.18
Confederation Life	6,165,432	637,925	10 35
North American	2,327,082	32,857	1.41
Ontario Mutual	3,878,066	433,284	11.17
Sun Life	5,527,720	355,280	6.43

Never in the history of Life Insurance has the struggle for business been keener. Never has the conflict been hotter. Never have the Companies felt as they feel now, the necessity for throwing all the energy at their command into the field. The most intelligent and best men have to be employed. All kinds of plans of insurance are submitted. Each Company determined in securing the supremacy in the good will of the public, in establishing their name, the utterance of which, shall convey to the minds of the people the essential characteristics of

UNDOUBTED SECURITY,
RIGID ECONOMY,
GOOD INVESTMENTS,
LARGEST PROFITS

WHY?

Because millons of dollars are being paid annually for Life Insurance, and the Companies that can show these features have attained a position which will guarantee their future success, for money will flow freely into the best investments.

The Canada Life Policy Holders can look at the above statement with a smile of satisfaction, yet sympathise with their friends who are not so favourably situated.

They can throw their Life Policies down in the face of opponents and successfully challenge the production of more profitable policies, they can stand the onslaught of Agents who will almost cover them with literature and estimates of Tontine, Semi-Tontine, Return Premiums, Reserved Dividends, Annuity and Endownment plans of insurance, and with a quiet assurance feel that

As The Canada Life is Making the Most Profits, She Can Pay the Largest Profits.

READER. If you want Life Insurance choose the Canada Life and join the throng of contented policy holders who are insured with the Company carrying about 45 per cent. of the total insurance in force of the above named Companies

$25,000 WORTH OF DRY GOODS

MUST BE SOLD IN 35 DAYS, AT

HALL, GILCHRIST & CO'S GREAT STOCK REDUCING SALE

COMMENCING SATURDAY, APRIL 28th, 1894.

There is just a little over a month until our buyer leaves for the European markets. We must, therefore, in 35 days, raise $25,000 for him to take along to pay for Fall and Winter Goods. Another great reason for this sale is that our stock is $20,000 too large and must come down. You all know what it means to you when we say IT MUST COME DOWN.

To accomplish our ends we know full well that we must reduce our prices, (even though our prices have been the lowest) we have, therefore, at this early stage of the season's trade, decided to offer all our New Imported Goods at prices such as might be quoted in July or August. Our space will only permit us to specify a few of the many Bargains offered. We ask everyone to carefully read our list of attractions and call and prove to yourself that this is the Greatest Bargain Sale ever offered in this place:—

Death of Rev. Mr. Carmichael.

Rev. James Carmichael, who has been pastor of the Presbyterian church, Norwood, for about twelve years, died on Wednesday from hæmorrhage of the lungs, resulting from a severe attack of coughing. He died about ten minutes after the attack. He was well known and most highly respected both in Peterborough and Norwood, but in the latter place especially, where his earnest and able ministry has won him esteem, respect and love. His death will be a decided loss to his flock and to the Presbytery of Peterborough, in which he was an active and intelligent worker. The remains will be removed to the family burial plot, Markham, for interment.

An April Wedding.

Yesterday a very pleasant event took place at the residence of Mr. T. J. Armstrong, 164 Aylmer street, the occasion being the marriage of his daughter, Miss Adelaide Vesta Armstrong, to Mr. George Thomas Wright, of Toronto. The interesting ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. MacWilliams, of St. Andrew's. The groom was ably assisted by his brother, A. E. Wright, while the bridesmaids were Miss Florence Davidson and Miss Florence Wright, sister of the groom. There were present a few relatives and intimate friends of both parties. The presents were quite handsome and numerous. An elaborate dinner was prepared and was heartily enjoyed by all present. The happy couple took the afternoon train on the C.P.R. for Toronto Junction, where they purpose making their home. Their many friends will unite in wishing them prosperity and happiness.

On June 6th, fifty years will have passed since the Young Men's Christian Association was born. Its founder, Mr. George Williams, still lives to see the world-wide fruit of his thought and act. Surely he builded greater than he knew. At present there are 5,258 Associations scattered over the world, with a membership of 467,515 young men. The men who have been trained in this service and the great movements which have grown out of it in blessing to the church and the world is truly beyond our conception.

Cricket Club Minstrels.

A very successful practice—the best of the series—was held in the opera house last night. There were about 35 present, and all entered into the spirit of the practice with an enthusiasm which promises a most successful entertainment about the middle of May. After the general practice the banjo and guitar club had a very satisfactory rehearsal, and later the six end men had a special practice. Everything indicates that the entertainment about the middle of May will be superior to any previous minstrel entertainment ever presented here, either amateur or professional. There will be another big practice on Friday evening.

China Hall stock-taking sale will close in a week. Attend the sale before it closes and take advantage of the reduced prices. Everything in the store reduced to cost price.—MACFARLANE WILSON.

Prayer Meeting.

The women's prayer meeting will be held this evening at eight o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Blackstock, 101 Rubidge street. A warm welcome extended to these services, which are conducted by the members of the meeting.

A Beautiful Lily.

There is displayed in the show window of Mr. Harry Long's confectionery shop a rarely beautiful specimen of a rare variety of lily. It is named the arum dranuculus, and popularly designated the "snake" lily from the fact of its strong, straight stem being spotted in resemblance of the skin of a snake. The stem rises about three feet in height and expands into a splendid flower, in shape like a huge hastate leaf, ten or eleven inches in length from its cordiform base, which is about five broad, to its apex. The upper part of the flower, if flower it can be called, is a deep, rich purple hue, and the colour seems to overflow the crenulated margins of the calyx and stain the underside of the same to the width of about half an inch from the edge. The remainder of the underside is a dark green of the same shade as the palmate leaves which the plant carries. From the base of the calyx or spath, rises a fleshy pistil about ten inches in length and seven-eighths of an inch in diameter at the thickest part which lessens to a point which is slightly recurved, the whole pistil, if that is its proper description, presenting the curves of H. garth's line of beauty. In general features this lily resembles in many points except size an indigenous member of the arum family,—the common, but when closely examined, really beautiful wild turnip or arum triphyllum. This rare plant is worthy of the inspection, and is sure to excite the admiration, of every lover of flowers.

$714.28½ PER DAY

Is the Daily Business Hall, Gilchrist & Co. Must Do.

Within the next 35 days Messrs. Hall, Gilchrist & Co. must equip their buyer for invading the foreign markets to purchase goods, with $25,000 cash. In order to secure that amount in thirty-five days their daily sales must foot up $714.28½ per day. This is big money for a retail business, but this is rendered possible by two or three circumstances—the magnitude of their establishment, its many departments all magnificently stocked, and above all the magnificently low prices—which, as will be seen by reference to Messrs. Hall, Gilchrist & Co.'s half page advertisement, have been still further reduced for the purposes of this special sale. It will pay to read this announcement, he—and especially she—will notice that never before in the history of trade in this town have such great and bona fide bargains been presented to the people. The cut in prices prevails in every department and every department is loaded with seasonable goods. Run your eye over the list of reductions in staple goods and see if there is not very many things it will pay you to buy at the almost gift prices. Study carefully the reduction list in dress goods and parasols and also in silk velvets and velveteens, and you will find something to pay you for the perusal. In corsets and underwear you will find everything of top value and bottom price; hosiery, gloves and laces present great attractions that cannot fail to please fastidious, as well as close buyers; in the lines of millinery and mantles and ladies' jackets there are also wonderful bargains; carpets and curtains present a rich mine of values at specially easy prices. This sale, which affords a chance of a lifetime for bargains, begins on Saturday. Kindly study Hall, Gilchrist & Co's. mammoth advertisement, and you will make money if you will profit, as you will be sure to do, by the facilities it offers of procuring the highest grades of goods at the lowest prices.

NEWS NUGGETS.

The electric cars are running again.

—No arrests yesterday or last night.

—Additional local matter on eighth page.

—Mr. Andrew O'Connor, of Campbellford, died yesterday, aged 75.

—Campbellford's town council will be asked to pass a curfew by-law.

—Lord and Lady Aberdeen are being royally entertained in Kingston.

—For biliousness or liver trouble, Madill's Stomach and Liver Pills are a sure cure.

—An auction sale of unclaimed goods will be held in the custom house on April 28th.

—An effort is being made to organize a ladies branch of the E. B.A. in Peterborough.

—A convention of the Grand Branch of the Emerald Beneficial Association will be held in Peterborough on May 1st.

—The directors of the Horticultural Society met this afternoon at four o'clock in J. Stevenson's office, Water street.

—The police are still busy serving notices to citizens to clean their premises before May 1st, on pain of prosecution.

—The Billeting Committee of the Bay of Quinte Conference meets this evening in the offie of Mr. A. L. Davis at 7.30 o'clock.

—City Lodge, No. 404, I. O. O. F., will elect their officers for the ensuing term this evening. A large attendance of members is requested.

—The citizens were not aware of how greatly they were dependent on the electric cars until the accident in power house deprived them of the use of the system.

—A lecture will be given to-morrow evening at 7.15 in the Y. M. C. A. rooms for all boys and young men. Subject, "The Dawn of Manhood," by Mr. J. H. Burnham. All welcome.

—At a united meeting of the session and managers held last evening in St. Andrew's Sunday school rooms, it was unanimously agreed to invite Mr. G. W. Mulligan to lead St. Andrew's choir.

—The Charlotte street Epworth League cottage prayer meeting to-morrow evening will be held at the residence of Mrs. Moore 154 Rubidge street, and not at Mrs. Murray's, as elsewhere announced.

—You don't have to take a gallon of Short Stop before you cure your cold. "Part of a bottle knocked my cold out," says a grateful customer. Get it at Jas. Lynch's drug store, 168 Hunter street.

—Two whiskey informers, who gave their names as Richard White and James Caddick, have "pulled" eight shop keepers in Kingston for alleged violation of the law by selling in quantities less than three half pints.

—The charge of assault laid against Joseph Goselin by Mrs. Breault, was dismissed at the police court this morning; as was a counter charge laid by the defendant of abusive language by the two small sons of the plaintiff.

—The officials of the Peterborough Steam and Navigation Company who went down the river yesterday to locate a beautiful summer resort, decided to postpone their decision until a later date. Quite an enjoyable afternoon was spent.

—Three complaints against two liquor sellers of Campbellford for violation of the law, have been sent to the license inspector. Two of the charges are for selling during prohibited hours, and the other for having a bar-room open on Saturday night.

—A resident in the neighbourhood of Trent Bridge informs us that the fishery laws are violated there openly nearly every day of the week. Fish are being shot and speared, and those engaged in the work take them to Havelock and sell them.—Campbellford Herald.

—The team of the Peterborough Lodge No. 111 I.O.O.F. that is going to Millbrook next Tuesday to institute a lodge there will initiate this evening two or more candidates in their lodge rooms over the express office. There will be a large attendance. The team will also practice in third degree.

Map peddlers are swindling farmers. If the person importuned doesn't subscribe promptly for the map, the canvasser requests him to sign a certificate that the agent has visited his place, taken the statistics of his products, etc., and the certificate turns out to be an order for the map at a price far in excess of the value.

—The Collegiate Institute drill corps are now holding regular out-door parades in preparation for an exhibition which they, together with the young ladies of the Collegiate, intend giving in the near future. The boys are in need of accoutrements and Mr. Garvin thinks that, by giving an exhibition of their skill, enough money could be raised to furnish them with dummy rifles, etc.

—The catalogues of the Horticultural Society are now ready for distribution, and can be obtained from Mr. P. Henry in M. L. Henry & Co's. store, George street. The society are anxious to have the catalogues circulated before flowers, vegetables, and seeds are purchased, as by perusing the prize list the citizens can ascertain just what variety there will be a reasons for growing.

—A furniture polisher from Peterborough got a little too much Belleville tangleleg on board yesterday afternoon and commenced to create a disturbance. When officer Cook attempted to arrest him he made a vigourous resistance, but was finally overpowered and taken to the police station in a wagon, where he was fined $10. He and his chum soon left the city.—Intelligencer.

—On Tuesday the quarterly meeting of the teachers and officers of St. Andrew's Sunday school was held in the manse. Much important business was transacted, classes were re-arranged, additional teachers were selected, etc. The mission week of the school was also discussed. It was agreed to continue to support a native missionary in India. It was also deemed necessary to augument the library. This school is in excellent condition, its growth being very great.

The Evolution

Of medicinal agents is gradually relegating the old-time herbs, pills, draughts and vegetable extracts to the rear and bringing into general use the pleasant and effective liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs. To get the true remedy see that it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only. For sale by all leading druggists.

For dyspepsia or indigestion try Madill's Dyspepsia Powders. Many have been cured by them.

Miss Melville has a nice stock of children's bonnets and tam-o-shanters in silk and lawn. Prices to suit all. 424 George street. Stamping done.

It's Not So

Notwithstanding reports to the contrary, still it is not true that Short Stop cures a cold too quickly. The fact is, Short Stop cures nautrally and without nauseating the stomach, by acting promptly on the bronchial tubes and lungs. For sale by Jas. Lynch, druggist, 168 Hunter street.

It Will Pay You.

If you want furniture, it will pay you to visit A. Clegg's. Do not imagine that he keeps only expensive goods. THE DEPUTY REGISTRAR'S NEW VERSION.

The deputy registrar, Mr. Grundy, is out with a new edition, the fourth of his versions of the state of affairs at the Peterborough registry office. This time he is not alone, but has collaborated in authorship with that Baron Munchausen of literature, the Empire. It appears that he has supplied the Empire with an "abstract," for which, it would be interesting to know, if the Empire has paid the statutory fee. Before the Public Accounts Committee Mr. Grundy was a most unwilling witness, but now he is going to the other extreme.

THE RURAL DEANERY.

Clergy of the Northumberland and Peterborough District Meet in Session.

The flag was flying all day yesterday from the battlemented tower of St. John's church in token of the sitting of the rural deanery of Northumberland and Peterborough. Rev. Rural Dean Cooper, of Campbellford presided, and at a celebration of the Holy Communion, which took place at 8.30 o'clock in the morning, he also officiated.

The deanery assembled in the residence of Rev. J. C. Davidson, rector of St. John's, at 10 o'clock and continued in session until 4 p. m. The subject of study in the morning was the Epistles to St. Timothy and a paper in introduction, which was read by Rev. Herbert Symonds, of Ashburnham, threw a great deal of light on the subject.

An essay on the "Doctrine of the Epistles" was given by Rev. Joseph Gibson, of Norwood, and one on "Practical teachings of the Epistles," by Rev. George Warren, of Lakefield. Both papers dealt with the subjects at issue in a broad and intelligent manner, which was most satisfactory to those present.

The afternoon was devoted to the routine business of the deanery, and a discussion of a well written paper on "Forms of Service," by Rev. C. B. Kenrick. A service was held at eight o'clock at which Rev. George Warran, of Lakefield, delivered the sermon. Ven. Archdeacon Allen, of Millbrook, was present during the session and took part in the business of the meeting.

OBITUARY.

The Late James Chalmers.

The hosts of friends and acquaintances, in both town and county, of Mr. James Chalmers, of Young's Point, will regret to learn that that venerable gentleman died at his residence to-day from the effects of a six-weeks' illness resulting from an attack of la grippe. Mr. Chalmers had reached the ripe age of eighty-one years. He was a native of Edinburgh, Scotland, but has been a long a resident of Canada, the last twenty years having been passed at Young's Point. He leaves behind him a widow and three children—Mrs. Fair, of Kansas; Mrs. W. Amrstrong, Chatham; and Mr. George J. Chalmers, Young's Point. Mr. Chalmers was well known and highly respected during his long and useful life in this vicinity. In religion he was a member of the Church of England. The funeral will leave Young's Point on Saturday morning at 8 o'clock a.m. and proceed via Peterborough to the English Church cemetery, third line, Cavan.

PERSONAL.

Mr. R. B. Roger is in Campbellford for the day.

Mr. C. N. Bastedo, of Toronto, is at the Grand Central. Mr. Bastedo is purchasing furs.

Mr. George Matthews, of Lindsay, was in town to-day looking after his pork packing interests.

Mr. R. Maitland Ray and bride arrived in town this afternoon and have taken up their residence in Peterborough.

Rev. Dr. Sexton, who has been the guest of Rev. Mr. Torrance, King and Rubidge streets, since Saturday last, left for St. Catharines to-day.

A Handsome New Bill Board.

Mr. Walter Stocker has just completed the erection of what is probably the finest bill board in the province. It fronts on George street, being on the lot formerly used as a marble yard, next Howden's meat market, in the block between Brock and Murray streets. It presents a surface of 1600 feet of planed lumber, and the whole work was arranged by Walter himself, with the exception of that which occupied the last couple of days, when he had an assistant.

Store Awnings, Window Awnings.

Hotel awnings, office awnings, verandah awnings, steamboat awnings, factory awnings, and summer awnings of all kinds and patterns in white or coloured duck manufactured and fitted in proper manner to any desired frames on the most reasonable terms by ALFRED KINGSCOTTE, the Tent, Sail and Awning Maker, Water street, opposite the market.

Poison in Tea.

In England tea has been discovered contaminated with lead, undoubtedly from being wrapped in packages containing lead. This is a matter which is being enquired into, inasmuch as lead is a dangerous poison and its presence in so many packages of tea may well cause grave public alarm. Mason & Co., grocers, have no confidence in package teas, as their English blends surpass all teas placed on the market.

Housekeepers, Attention!

We have added to our extensive lines of hardware a complete line of tinware, which we will sell at bottom prices. "RAISIN' A RACKET"

BOOTS AND SHOES

TO TAKE THE PLACE OF

A Queen's Birthday Demonstration!

The boy said: "This Shoe business is altogether too briak," when his mother chastised him with a slipper. That's what other shoe dealers think of us, for we not only command the largest and finest shoe trade in Peterborough, but our popularity extends for a hundred miles around.

The loyal people of Peterborough needn't feel disappointed if the boys didn't get up a big demonstration for the Queen's Birthday. We have put on foot A THUNDERING RACKET IN BOOTS AND SHOES, and propose to keep it going until after the 24th, without asking the council or the merchants to guarantee us against loss.

We're always busy. No dull times with us. But, for the present, we have turned on enough extra power on our Electric Battery of Low Prices to "raise a Thundering Racket" in Boots and Shoes, and to keep it booming for over a month.

Last week we bought for 55c. on the dollar the large Wholesale Stock of a City Manufacturer who had stuck on the rock of hard times and was shivering in his boots for ready cash. This stock, we are determined, shall not remain long on our hands. GO, IT MUST! and that the public may see that there's nothing in the way of its going off fast enough, "we touch the button" and give you a few random shocks from OUR MAGNET OF OUTRIVALLED PRICES:—

HEALTHY EXERCISE—fresh air and proper food, help to keep a woman in good condition. It's insufficient for some, weakened or borne down as they are by the ailments and irregularities peculiar to their sex.

They're easily helped, though; there's a remedy in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—that will build up and cure every enfeebled woman. It's the prescription of a physician; has been tested in thousands of cases, and never found wanting.

The only risk that's taken is that of the manufacturers who promise to refund the money if no benefit is experienced.

This "Prescription" reaches the origin of the trouble. Dizziness, fainting spells, and nervous disorders, such as sleeplessness, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, depend upon the irregularities and displacements of the special structures, the "Prescription" cures by regulating and correcting these functions and organic changes.

COXEY'S MEN IN A FIGHT

The Train-Stealing Crew Chased by United States Marshals.

ONE DEPUTY BADLY WOUNDED

The Marshals Come Up With the Army and a Fight Ensues for the Possession of the Train—The Officers Forced to Abandon the Rescue.

BILLINGS, Mont., April 26.—The first bloodshed resulting from the clashes between the law and the industrial army movement was witnessed here.

About eleven o'clock this little city was thrown into excitement by the announcement that the train-stealing contingent of the Coxey army was rushing into the city on a Northern Pacific train from the west at a high rate of speed, closely followed by a train load of United States deputy marshals. This was verified a few minutes before noon when the train of box cars ran into town. The Coxeyites were overtaken by the special train of the marshals just as they entered the limits of the city.

After their arrival it was learned that the marshal's train overtook the Hogan contingent just as they were pulling away from Columbus (formerly known as Stillwater), and attempted to arrest the progress of the train but the leaders would not yield to the demands of the marshals and instructed their men to go ahead, which was done.

The two trains came on until this city was reached when a stop was ordered, a conflict between the two bodies resulting. As near as can be learned, Marshal McDermott ordered the leaders of the captured train to surrender, and when he refused to do so a few of the marshals before receiving the command to do so, fired upon the crowd of industrials. The shots were quickly returned. A number of shots were exchanged before Marshal McDermott could regain control of his men.

During the firing one of the deputies was seriously wounded and one of the men on the rear platform car was shot in the groin. McDermott decided that his men were not equal to the odds against them, and ordered his men to cease firing, which they did. The captured train soon after pulled out from the depot and McDermott notified the authorities that his force was inadequate to capture the 500 men who were determined to retain possession of the train.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—In the opinion of government officials here none of the so-called army movements of the unemployed is so formidable as that along the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad. Telegrams received here state that bands ranging from 50 to 800 men are congregated at as many as twenty-five stations of that road from the Pacific coast to Minneapolis with the avowed intention of coming to Washington, by peaceable means if possible, but by forcible means if they must. Already one or two trains have been seized, and constant threats are being made of seizing others.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 26.—It is stated this morning at the Northern Pacific headquarters in this city that the Montana commune of Coxeyites have surrendered to the infantry at Forsyth.

The Murder of Donovan.

CORK, April 26.—The revival of agrarian crime in the murder of Caretaker Donovan, on one of the farms of the Earl of Cork, and Orrery, at Glenlara, county Cork, last Friday night has created great excitement throughout the county. All the priests in the diocese of Cork have denounced the murder from all their altars and the most uncompromising champions of home rule and the old land league are foremost among those who are engaged in searching for the murderers. Two men named Duffy and Shilly have been arrested on suspicion.

Riotous Strikes in Poland.

WARSAW, April 26.—A great strike of miners, iron workers and others prevails in the Petrikau district of Poland, and serious riots have occurred. Two thousand troops occupy the town of Sosnowica, where the disturbances have been most violent, and additional troops are now on their way there. In the fights that have occurred sixteen have been killed and a large number wounded. The soldiers have been obliged to fire into the mobs repeatedly. The prison at Sosnowica is filled with rioters.

Refused the Anarchists' Request.

LONDON, April 26.—The London anarchists sent a letter to Herbert Gladstone, first commissioner of works, asking permission to erect platforms in Hyde Park similar to those put up by the labor leaders in 1893 for the May-day celebrations of the "International Solidarity of Labor." Mr. Gladstone replied in the most curt manner possible refusing to grant the request or to give any explanation of his refusal.

East Hamilton Elections.

HAMILTON, April 26.—At a meeting of the Central Temperance Executive Committee, yesterday, it was decided to withdraw Ald. Morris from the contest in East Hamilton for the Provincial Legislature. This will leave J. T. Middleton (Reform), and C. R. Smith (P.P.A) in the field. It is not likely the Conservative party will nominate a man in either East or West Hamilton, simply backing up the P. P. A. candidates.

An English Murderer Wanted.

HALIFAX, April 26.—The chief of police has received communication from police at Colchester, England, offering a reward of £50 for the capture of Arthur Blatch, who is wanted for the murder of Alfred Welch at Colchester,. Blatch is 36; 5 feet 8 inches high; great smoker and fond of fishing and shooting.

Noted German Dead.

BERLIN, April 26.—Baron Hans von Unruuhe-Bomst, one of the founders of the Free Conservative party, is dead. He was born in Berlin August 26, 1825, and served the state in some capacity continually from 1847 to 1893. He had represented the third district of Posen in the Reichstag since 1867.

Grand Trunk Traffic.

MONTREAL, April 26.—Grand Trunk Railway return of traffic for week ending April 21, 1894: Passenger train earnings, 1894, $111,391; 1893, $128,649. Freight train earnings, 1894, $225,068; 1893, $228,329. Total, 1894, $336,459; 1893, $356,978. Decrease, 1894, $20,519.

THE NEFF CASE.

The Hamilton Doctors are Puzzled About this Remarkable Cure—They Could not Cure this Case of Kidney Disease, but Dodd's Kidney Pills have Done so.

Hamilton, April 16.—The doctors of this city are showing great interest in a remarkable cure reported from Port Colborne. Harvey H. Neff, of the latter town, had an aggravated form of kidney disease, consequent on an attack of typhoid fever. Physicians could not cure the kidney disorder, but Mr. Neff has regained his health after taking five boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's was the first kidney remedy in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

S. P. SMITH, of Towanda, Pa., whose constitution was completely broken down, is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He writes:

"For eight years, I was, most of the time, a great sufferer from constipation, kidney trouble, and indigestion, so that my constitution seemed to be completely broken down. I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and, in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 129 pounds; I now can brag of 150 pounds, and was never in so good health. If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a traveling advertisement. I believe this preparation of Sarsaparilla to be the best in the market to-day."

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

How the Ottawa Free Press Views the Tories' Way of Doing Things.

OTTAWA, April 26.—Sir John Thompson, before the orders of the day were called, asked attention to a matter affecting the privileges of the House. On Monday when the House was discussing a motion by Mr. Charlton for certain papers relating to trade and commerce between the United States and Canada, while Dr. Landerkin was speaking, an occasion presented in the debate in which Mr. Speaker thought it his duty to call Dr. Landerkin to order. It was not his (Sir John's) intention to enter into the particulars of the discussion, but it was his duty to refer to one portion of it. Mr Speaker suggested to Dr. Landerkin that he should confine himself to the subject before the House. Dr. Landerkin seemed to entertain a different opinion, and Mr. Speaker thought it necessary on two occasions afterwards to call him to order, and a motion was made, in order to give Dr. Landerkin greater freedom of discussion, to adjourn the House. In accordance with the well-established rule of Parliament it would have been quite impossible to entertain a motion to adjourn the House, and therefore give Dr. Landerkin greater freedom than he would have in discussing the question before the House. If Dr. Landerkin was not confining himself to the question before the House at that time a motion to adjourn the House would not have put him in order. Accordingly Mr. Speaker had ruled the motion to adjourn out of order. Subsequently to that, as he had already explained, Mr. Speaker had found it necessary to call Dr. Landerkin to order on two occasions, one time especially when that hon. gentleman was not only not discussing the matter before the House, but when he appeared to impute treasonable motives to a member of the House. On the following day a publication was made in the city of Ottawa commenting on the incidents which he had just mentioned. He now took the first occasion which presented itself. He thought it his duty to call the attention of the House to that publication as being a gross breach of the privileges of this House. The publication to which he referred was made in a paper called the Ottawa Free Press, of Tuesday evening, April 24, and it went on at length to impute to the Speaker of the House the grossest partisanship in connection with his rulings of Monday evening. The article read as follows:

"It is evident from the proceedings in the House of Commons yesterday evening that the Reformers need not expect fair or even decent treatment from the present Speaker. The Ministers have, it seems, decided not only to use their partisan majority to prevent enquiry by parliamentary committee, but they propose to utilize a subservent presiding officer to burk free discussion in Parliament. The gag is to be applied whenever a Liberal member says anything, even in self-defence, which is calculated to disturb the sensitive nerves of the Thompsonian Ministers. Since the present session began Speaker White has gone out of his way to prove himself before all things a Tory partisan, and the Reformers should recognize that fact and govern themselves accordingly. If the House of Commons is to be transformed into a bear garden, on the partisan Speaker must rest the responsibility. His conduct in rushing to the rescue of the Controller of Customs last night, after the latter had made himself as offensive as he could, ought to be fully discussed when the House in committee is passing the salary of its Speaker. It is only a few days since Speaker White appeared as principal orator at the convention of North Renfrew Tories called to nominate a candidate for the Ontario Assembly. Fancy the 'first Commoner' of Canada acting as a partisan heeler in a local election campaign."

Sir John Thompson then moved, seconded by Sir Adolphe Caron:

"That the article published in the newspaper called the Ottawa Free Press, dated 24th April, 1894, and read by the clerk of the House at the table is a scandalous, false and malicious libel upon the honor, character and integrity of the Speaker of this House, and a contempt of the privileges and of the constitutional authority of the House."

Hon. Mr. Laurier was disposed to agree with the Premier.

The motion carried.

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper moved that Joseph Pope and certain other witnesses should be examined under oath before the Public Accounts Committee respecting the Behring Sea Arbitration Act.

The motion passed after considerable repartee.

Mr. Laurier asked when and with whom was the contract made of which the Minister of Public Works spoke on Monday last as follows: "The Government have resolved to ask Parliament, as has been announced, to ratify a contract that has been made with a firm for a fast service between a Canadian port and an English port?"

Sir John Thompson in reply said that it only amounted to a provisional contract as yet. The Government's intention was to bring down the papers when the subsidy would be asked for; meantime he did not consider it advisable that the correspondence should be made public.

Mr. Lister asked if there was any regulation as to the size of the mesh for gill nets. He also wished to know if such regulation would continue in force during the present season.

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, answering, said that the mesh for whitefish and salmon trout, gill nets under the regulations was 4¼ inches extension measure; herring gill nets 3 inches, and sturgeon gill nets 12 inches. The regulations would be enforced during the present season.

After recess this bill was read a third time:

Mr. Masson—To incorporate the Duluth, Nepigon and James Bay Railway Company.

Mr. Brodeur resumed the debate on Mr. Taylor's motion for papers in connection with Manitoba schools. He charged Mr. Craig, member for East Durham, with being the author of the agitation against separate schools and the use of the French language, and added that if Sir Oliver Mowat had been as prejudiced as the Dominion Government the separate schools of Ontario would have been virtually abolished.

Mr. Macdowall followed. Mr. Legris spoke in French, after which the House adjourned.

SCROFULA CURED BY B.B.B.

MRS. JAS. CHASE.

Worst Kind of Scrofula.

DEAR SIRS.—I had an abscess on my breast and scrofula of the very worst kind, the doctors said. I got so weak that I could not walk around the house without taking hold of chairs to support me. The doctors treated me for three years, and at last said there was no hope for me. I asked if I might take B.B.B. and they said it would do me no harm, so I began to take it, and before three bottles were used I felt great benefit. I have now taken six bottles and am nearly well. I find Burdock Blood Bitters a grand blood purifier and very good for children as a spring medicine.

R. Bryce-Gemmel, M. D., F. C. S., Consulting and Analyticul Chemist, 288 Boylston St., Boston, Mass., says:

After a careful examination of Skoda's German Soap,
I find it composed of ingredients of a chemically pure and healing nature. It cannot be too highly recommended, both for medicinal and toilet use. I also find perfectly pure and possessing high medicinal qualities. It can be used with perfect safety on the most delicate skin, and is an excellent ointment for general every-day use.

Mr. Raymore, whose picture appears above, and who for many years, was engaged in the manufacture of toilet soap, writes, under date of Feb. 4, 93: "I am surprised at its soft and purifying qualities. It is pure, unadulterated, and free from alkali, which most soaps contain."

Miss Alice L. Welton, a graduate of the Victoria General Hospital Training School for Nurses, Halifax, N. S., says: "Truly Skoda's Soap is soft as velvet and pure as gold. It makes the skin soft, white and beautiful."

"BE GOOD TO YOURSELF."

"Good-bye! Good-bye!" the driver said,
As the coach went off in a whirl
(And the coachman bowed his handsome head);
"Be good to yourself, my girl!"

Ah, many a fond good-bye I've heard
From many an aching heart;
And many a friendly farewell word,
When strangers came to part;

And I've heard a thousand merry quips,
And many a senseless joke,
And many a fervent prayer from lips
That all a-tremble spoke;

And many a bit of good advice
In smooth proverbial phrase;
And many a wish—of little price—
For health and happy days;

But, musing how the human soul
(What'er the Fates may will)
Still measures by its self-control
Its greatest good or ill,

Of benedictions, I protest,
'Mid many a shining pearl,
I like the merry coachman's best:
"Be good to yourself, my girl!"

INDIANS OUTWITTED.

Laban Whitaker was a boy of nearly twelve when his father, Deacon Whitaker, moved up from Salem to the banks of the Merrimac, at what is now Concord, N.H. The new country was fertile and on a broad plain in a bend of the great river a prosperous little hamlet was growing up.

There were no fenced enclosures for pasturage purposes in early Penacook. The cows of the settlers ran at large in the woods and meadows and the boys took turns in guarding them through the day and driving them up at night. As two boys watched at a time, and as there were about a dozen lads in the settlement, it consequently became Laban's turn once a week to be out with the cows.

It was not hard work and when it was not stormy weather Laban rather liked it. The danger attending it was just sufficient to give a certain zest to the employment. For it was in the time of the French and Indian war. Two or three years before this a band of Indians had lain in ambush in the forest and shot down seven of the settlers as they were passing from the town to a garrison a few miles distant. Since then, although other settlements had felt the scourge, Penacook had not been molested. Still the settlers were not unconscious of the danger that any day might sweep down upon them.

One bright June day Laban and another boy named Ezra Kimball went out together to watch the cows. Both boys had their flint-lock muskets, and with them went Rover, a large brindled mastiff, that belonged to the Kimball lad.

The cows fed farther than was usual that day, and when the long afternoon drew to a close the boys were a mile from home. They had no thought of danger, however, as they drove their lowing charges through the bushy glades and along the forest paths toward the little settlement.

Before them was a little dell through which a brook meandered with low, musical gurgles. Alders lined the valley, and the trunk of a fallen tree of huge dimensions lay beside the narrow path.

"Indians! Indians!" rose from the white lips of Ezra Kimball as he sprang backward. He had caught a glimpse of red legs behind the alder bushes.

Instantly a dozen savages rose up from their hiding place behind the fallen tree trunk and the copse of alders. Before Laban could spring out of the way or in any way shrink from the encounter, he was seized.

A stalwart brave leaped after Ezra, who had taken to his heels through the bushwood. The pioneer boy heard his red foe just behind him. How should he escape his clutches? He had but a moment to think, but it was long enough to save him.

He allowed himself to fall suddenly an inert body across the wildwood path. It was done so quickly that the Indian could not turn or evade the stumbling-block in his way. He pitched headlong over it and fell prostrate upon the earth. With a sharp, fierce yelp Rover rushed upon the fallen savage, throttling and tearing him in a terrible manner. In the excitement Ezra sprang to his feet and dashed off.

"Run to the fort and arouse the settlers!" shouted Laban after him.

But Ezra did not need the incentive. A few shots were fired after him, but he escaped without a scratch to alarm the settlement.

Not so fortunate was Laban. He was led away through the wilderness. His captors traveled all that night, never halting till they were miles from the little settlement on the Merrimac.

Those were dark days for Laban Whitaker, but he manfully repressed his grief and appeared content. Little prospect was there of his ever being able to return to his home. Many a time he awoke from his sleep with a shudder at the thought of the life before him. He resolved to seize the first opportunity to escape. But oh, the hopeless waiting!

Taught cunning by the crafty savages, he made the best of his situation. He went hunting and fishing with the Indian lads and rapidly became a favorite in the village. The red squaws plaited rich mats for his wigwam and made handsome leggings and moccasins for their young paleface brother.

The months sped by, summer and autumn passed and the cold northern winter set in. One December day, when the ground was frozen hard and the lake was one sheet of glittering ice, a band of warriors returned from a foray they had made among the white settlements to the southward. There was great rejoicing in the village over the scalps and the plunder. It made the white boy's heart throb as he recognized among the spoils familiar articles of household use, shears, knives, a housewife and a pair of candlesticks, such as he had often seen in his home at distant Penacook. But what gave him the greatest start was that he saw, dangling from one huge redskin's belt, a string of shining steel skates.

Evidently none of the Indians had ever seen any of these articles before. They crowded around the lucky warrior whose prize they were and examined them with the greatest curiosity. What were they? What was their use? The warrior could not tell.

"Does the young paleface know?" questioned the braves as they gathered about the young captive.

Laban touched the skates reverently and answered that he knew their use very well.

"Speak, my son!" cried the old chief who had adopted him. "Tell my nation what are these pieces of smooth steel fastened together with strips of leather."

"They are wings with which to fly," said the boy with a solemn air. "The Great Spirit has sent them as gifts to the red men."

"How can one fly with these things?" asked the old chief incredulously.

"Come with me to the lake and I will show your braves how to use the mysterious wing," returned the lad with greater interest than he really cared to show. In his excitement he trembled. The hand shook in which he held the "mysterious wings."

The idea was received favorably. The whole village rushed down to the shore where the lake lay stretching its gleaming length miles and miles away to the southward.

When the ice was reached Laban fitted a pair of skates upon the feet of each of four of the young braves. The sharpest and strongest pair he bound upon his own feet. Then seizing a musket from the hands of a warrior standing near, he bade the braves stand upon their feet and follow him.

They endeavored to do as he directed, but only stumbled over each other, making the greatest confusion possible. The crowd of warriors, women and children regarded the scene with amazement and concern. Scarcely able to control his countenance, Laban berated the crestfallen braves for their carelessness.

"You did not do as I told you," he said. "Now stand up and watch me and you will see better how to do it."

He darted off swift as a swallow over the ice, that had not a break or a cranny in it, now skating in a circle, now in a straight line, now retreating, now advancing, his motions watched with the greatest interest by the savages.

He had tested his skill and the sureness of his skates. They were buckled securely. They were staunch and strong. He was ready for the supreme effort.

Dashing up to where the four young Indians were waiting, trembling and expectant, he shouted:

"Now forward! Forward where the Great Spirit calls you! Away! away! Follow me!"

Like an arrow shot from a bow the young paleface flew over the gleaming ice. The sharp steels seemed to strike fire, so rapidly did they glide along that smooth, frozen highway. In attempting to follow him the unlucky braves again stumbled, and struggled in a ridiculous heap upon the slippery floor of the lake. In the excitement few noticed the vanishing figure of Laban Whitaker. When it was too late a few of the savages discharged their muskets after the fugitive, but the bullets fell far short of the mark. While they still gazed in amazement the lad disappeared behind a point of land and they never saw him more.

"Great Spirit called paleface, not Indians. White man's wings, not Indian's," said the old chief, resignedly. But the squaws of the village, after the old Indian fashion, made lamentation as for the dead.

Some six weeks afterward a thin, haggard boy, dressed in the furs of the Indian, and carrying a musket and a pair of skates, staggered out from the forest and approached the little hamlet on the Merrimac. Dogs barked at the approach of the strange visitant, and the settlers gathered in small groups wondering what the Indian lad might want.

But as he drew nearer they saw it was no Indian but a white boy, and the wonderment was still greater until he cried out "Don't you know Laban Whitaker?"

A SIOUX LULLABY.

(Wash-tai ok-shela is a Sioux term of endearment, meaning "Good little boy.")

Wash-tai ok-shela. The sand hills are sleepy;
The ponies are slumbering down in the draw;
The dogs and the moonlight are guarding the tepee,
The wind from the north land blows gusty and raw.

Wash-tai ok-shela rest warm in the blanket
We stole from the soldiers who fell yesternight.
Whose blood rushed toward hell as the parching earth drank it,
To herald the soul that was lost in the fight.

Wash-tai ok-shela, thy brother lies yonder,
Away on the sandhills where last night we fought,
But the coyotes may sniff and complain as they wander—
We buried him deeply and theirs he is not.

Wash-tai ok-shela, O peace in thy turning
To climb on my breat to kiss me and crow,
You do not know of that bullet wound burning
And how I am dying, O, you do not know.

Wash-tai ok-shela, the sand hills are sleepy,
Dream ye of blood that must flow for last night,
Dream of the mother who dies in her tepee,
Dream of revenge, and thy sleep be it light.

For Daily Remembrance.

Strive with thy thoughts unclean before they overpower thee. Use them as they will thee, for if thou sparest them they take root and grow, know well, these thoughts will overpower and kill thee. Beware, disciple, suffer not, e'en though it be their shadow, to approach. For it will grow, increase in size and power, and then this thing of darkness will absorb thy being before thou hast well realized the foul monster's presence.—Light On The Path.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. Harry Dale, of Rice Lake, has started a commodious hennery which is situated on Sheep Island, at the mouth of the Otonabee, and has about twenty houses erected with runways attached thereto for the different classes of fowl. He also has quite a number of broze and black turkeys and pea fowl. In all he has eight hundred birds. He cannot raise geese or ducks on account of their being particularly fond of the water and being apt to wander off to some other part of the lake.

The steamer "Daisy" took a large consignment of freight destined for Harwood and the head of the lake Monday, being in the way of planed lumber and window and door sashes for Mr. Aaron Cox, town, which will be used in fitting up the old postoffice, Bowamton, in the county of Northumberland, also agricultural machinery from the works of the P. Hamilton Manufacturing Co., town.

A drive of logs, the first of the season, arrived at Harwood the other day from the head of the larke for the Harwood Lumbering Company's mills. Captain Wm. Johnston was foreman and Mr. Wm. Battice tail-boss. Mr. Zach. White, manager of the mills, reports things brisk.

The new American steamer will arrive at Hastings, via G. T. R. from Belleville, where she will be launched. She is considered a beauty, and will be captained by Robert Londerville, who has been engaged by the American syndicate, whose headquarters are Idyl Wild.

Mr. "Din" Corkery has moved into his new and commodious summer hotel, "Lakeview," which has been refitted in the latest modern style and, at the same time, most elegantly, and is running in full blast. Quite a number of our American cousins have engaged rooms in advance and will be occupied when the fishing season commences.

Mr. Chas. Gilchrist, fishery inspector, of Port Hope, late of Harwood, was in the village Sunday last on official business—particularly looking after the boys fishing "on the side."

Mr. Wm. Batten is busily engaged painting the exterior of the Lakeview summer resort hotel, and when finished will be a credit to the artist, as well as proprietor Corkery.

Mr. Frank Arkles, formerly manager of the Idyl Wild summer resort, Rice Lake, is notified to vacate the same by May 1st, when the American syndicate take possession. It will be managed by Mr. Geo. Braithwait, of Gore's Landing.

Miss Mary Pratt, of Harwood, has returned home after an extended visit to friends and relatives in Napanee.

The steamer Sunbeam is busily engaged towing a block of logs which drifted ashore at Campbelltown, belonging to Mr. Frank Burnitt, of Birdsall's.

A representative of the EXAMINER paid Rice Lake and the river Trent a visit the last day or two.

The steamer Daisy arrived in port yesterday with a barge of lumber from the Dickson Co.'s mill, Harwood—sixty thousand feet in all.

Mr. D. Breeze, fishery inspector for this district, captured two fish nets, one on Saturday night and the other on Sunday. The boys that own them "might" call on the inspector, when he will be pleased to make it most interesting for them.

The officials of the Peterborough Steamboat and Navigation Company who went down the river yesterday to locate a beautiful summer resort, decided to postpone their decision until a later date. Quite an enjoyable afternoon was spent. Among those who took in the trip were:—President Commodore Calcutt, of the Peterborough Steamboat and Navigation Company, accompanied by Vice-President T. E. Bradburn, Secretary R. S. Davidson, and Directors Messrs. Harry Winch, W. H. Robertson and Adam Hall. Among the invited guests were Councillor Cahill, Chas. McGill, town treasurer; Harry LeBrun, R. B. McKee, Edward Brown, Alex. Elliott, W. B. Bamford, C.P.R., all of whom are interested in the Company. Mr. A. P. Poussette was aboard also.

The steamer Daisy commences her up trips from Harwood and points along the river to Peterborough on Saturday.

Messrs. F. J. Cameron, O.L.S., and R. T. Hartley are engaged in laying out the grounds at the end of George street for a landing stage of the P.S. & N. Co.

Dr. Grant's "Hairene" prevents baldness.

Dr. Low's Worm Syrup has removed tape worms from 15 to 30 feet long. It also destroys all other kinds of worms.

LAKEFIELD.

From Our Own Correspondent

The school board meets next Wednesday evening.

The Golden City made her first trip to Stony Lake on Wednesday.

The Mary Ellen brought down a scow load of paving blocks from Eel's creek quarry on Wednesday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. Bell spent most of last week up at their cottage, Stony Lake.

Large numbers of our citizens were out watching the reflection of the fire at Allendale and guessing where it was.

The Lakefield band made its first appearance on the streets a few evenings ago and showed the careful training of Bandmaster Scrimger.

Dr. Douglas and family leave for England next week, sailing from Quebec on the Parisian next Friday.

Reeve Casement and Dr. Bell called on Mr. and Mrs. Lundy at their island home last week, and found them enjoying the fine spring weather. They had passed a pleasant winter, fishing through the ice, skating, snow-shoeing, etc., and did not regret remaining. Mr. Lundy has his island in fine shape.

The water up the lakes is down to summer level and it is still falling. The low water, bright warm days (with no flies) of the past two weeks has afforded a grand chance to island holders to clean up, and several have taken advantage of it. Quite a number of new cottages are going up. Mr. Moore has the contract of 4, and Mr. Baptie of 3, while several are enlarging or improving those already up, and there is every prospect of a successful season on Stony Lake.

It will repay any lover of flowers to pay a visit to Carter's greenhouses at present and see the large display of plants in bloom. Mr. Carter has also arranged for a fresh supply all summer of those plants he may run short of.

At the regular meeting of Court Lakefield, No. 43, C. O. F., last Thursday evening, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing term of six months:

Bro John Richardson	C R

IN COATS.

There is more length to the new Coats for 1894 than has been used in Men's Dress since the 60's.

THE DOUBLE BREASTED FROCK is the most fastidious garment man has put on in a generation. It adds to the stature of the man and conceals defects of figure. It is short waisted, snug fitting, long tailed and beautifully moulded to the figure. The Skirts are hollow at the top and form a beautiful curve, which is the most distinctive thing about the new styles.

Then there is the THREE BUTTON CUTAWAY Coat which is a high favourite. It is popularly described as the "Pigeon Wing" on account of its sloping tails. The sleeves are of moderate size and are closed with a vent for three buttons. If properly made it will cling rather closely to the hips.

The new CUTAWAY SACK COAT for business wear is one of the most popular of the season. It has caught the fancy of the young men. All the pockets should have flaps. The collar rolls low and is not faced with Silk.

Any of these garments made up to order to please the most fastidious dresser and with faultless devotion to the fashion plates

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Cruse and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

The bicycle club's first run of the season will take place this evening, starting from the Palace Restaurant club rooms. It is expected that the turn-out will number 25 or 30 strong. The start will be made at 7.15 sharp.

The Gun Club holds its regular weekly shoot this afternoon at 6 o'clock. As the Campbellford gun club's challenge has been accepted for a shoot on the 24th, it behooves every member of the team to turn out for practice.

The Shamtock Lacrosse Club had a splendid practice at Riverside Park last evening. Fully 30 of the boys turned out and for an hour or so tossed the ball about and also indulged in a short run. Disappointment was expressed at the failure of all the members of the first team to materialise.

The club run of the bicyclists to-night will not be characterized by anything in the way of "scorches," but the trip to Lakefield and return will be made at a medium pace, so that even the new riders need feel no timidity about starting.

Arrangements have been about completed for a junior team of the Peterborough Lacrosse Club playing a match with the Millbrook club on the 24th May on the grounds of the latter.

The Trent River gun club, Campbellford, has elected the following officers:—

President—E. Nancarrow.
Vice-President.—C. B. Burk.
Captain—J. Mitchell.
Sec.-Treas—J. E. Warren Burk.
Patron—E. G. Burk.

The Campbellford bicycle club's list of officers is appended:—

Hon. President—E. G. Burk.
President—E. W. Gaudrie.
Vice-President—F. J. Smith.
Secretary-Treasurer—W. Nell.
Captain—C. B. Burk.
1st Lieut—J. T. Benor.
2nd Lieut—E. T. Morton.
Bugler—Geo. Benor.

The Peterborough lacrosse club had a fine practice last evening, 25 or 30 young men turning out. They expect to be in good shape for their match here on the 24th of May. Those wishing to join the club are requested to apply to Geo. Heap, secretary, or J. T. McCabe, manager, for season tickets. Sides will be chosen on Friday evening, when all members are requested to be present.

The Peterborough Lacrosse Club having refused to meet the Ontarios in Campbellford on May 24th, and being unwilling to play two games on one day, the Ontarios have decided to play a home game, and have secured the well known Tecumseh club, winners of the Toronto league, to play here on that day.—Port Hope Times.

The Gun club have devised an invention which will enable them to leave their trap on the grounds at Riverside Park instead of having them removed to the brewery every night for safety. The contrivance consists of a box which fits securely over each of the traps, and is locked in a manner which will prevent any possibility of their being carried off. The scheme is the result of the work of Messrs. R. Tivey, T. Rutherford, Sam Ray and others.

HELP FOR THE HEATHEN.

The Eighth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to Missions—Hundreds of Delegates Assembled in St. James' School House—Reception of Reports—A Choral Service in the Cathedral.

In St. James' school house on Church street, Toronto, yesterday, the eighth annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to Missions, diocese of Toronto, was opened. The attendance was very large, much larger than at any previous convention held by the association. Between fifty and sixty of the delegates came from places outside of Toronto. The roll call of delegates followed the opening services, and then lunch was served.

An address of welcome, brightly worded, was delivered at the opening of the afternoon session by the president, Mrs. M. E. Williamson, who occupied the chair. It was explained by Mrs. Williamson that the annual meeting was held to show what work had been accomplished during the year, to confer as to what might have been done, and to impress upon the members the reasons why the work was done. Mrs. G. A. Smith, Peterborough, replied.

The diocesan secretary's report stated that although there had been a long season of depression, the association had reason to thank God for the prompt response to almost all appeals. There had been need for funds to carry on more fully the missions on the Sarcee, Piegan and Blood reserves.

The report of the diocesan treasurer announced that the receipts of the year amounted to $7,909.00. Ten new adult branches and four new junior branches had been formed during the year. The adult branches now numbered 88, and the junior branches 36. The total senior membership was 3,000, and the total junior membership 909. One hundred and ninety-six bales of merchandise had been sent out to the missions, and the total amount expended in cash for freight and materials was $1,830.53.

The president delivered the annual address, and was followed by Miss Brown, missionary at the Piegan reserve, Alberta, who spoke of missionary life and work among the Indians.

Tea was served for the delegates and members in the school house at 6 p.m. At 7 p.m. an informal conference was held, and at 8 p.m. the cathedral was filled for the choral service arranged. The service was sung by Rev. H. Manning and Rev. Frank DuMoulin, assisted by Rev. Canon Sweeny and Rev. Dr. Mockridge. Rev. Canon DuMoulin preached an effective sermon from the text:—"Fervent in spirit, serving the Lord." Included was a brief history of the missions. A collection was taken up in aid of missionary objects.

The meeting was resumed this morning at ten o'clock. In the evening a public missionary meeting will be held in the Pavilion in the Horticultural Gardens, when the Bishop of Toronto will preside.

The delegates present from Peterborough are Mrs. G. A. Smith, president of the local branch; Mrs. James Best, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Miss Halliday and Miss Chamberlain president of the South Ward branch.

HIS NECK BROKEN.

A Huntingdon Farmer Instantly Killed.

A deplorable accident occurred last night in the outskirts of the village of Madoc, in which a Huntingdon farmer lost his life. James Fleming, of the above township, living about five miles from Madoc, and visited the village yesterday. During the day, as was his custom, he took considerable intoxicating drink, and when ready to leave for home was in a very bad state. However, he mounted his waggon, which, by the way, had no box on it, simply a board from the front to the back axle, and started, in company with his brother and another neighbour, who also had waggons. When just outside the village Fleming was seen to topple from his seat on the springing board and lurch forward into the road. His brother hastened to his side and found, to his horror, that he was dead. Medical aid was at once summoned and an examination revealed the fact that his neck was broken and that death had been instantaneous. His eye was swollen and his face cut near the jaw, and it was supposed by some that his head got between the spokes of the wheel and in this way his neck was broken. Deceased, who was about forty years of age, leaves a wife and three children to mourn his untimely death.—Intelligencer.

CUT TO THE BONE

Mantles and Capes.

Tell your friends, tell your neighbours, tell even your enemies—about our WONDERFUL SALE now going on.

Every new Mantle, every new Cape, every new Wrap—must go—hence and forthwith—and "stand not upon the order of going,"—but go at once.

To cut once—and cut deeply—is better than to hack away, little by little—so this blow is to the bone. Read how facts and figures go hand-in-hand:—

Our $15 00 Mantle.....	goes for	$11	65
Our 13 00 Mantles & Capes	"	9	50
Our 11 00 " "	"	8	40
Our 8 75 " "	"	6	25
Our 8 00 " "	"	5	75
Our 6 75 " "	"	5	25
Our 4 00 " "	"	3	00

We sold yesterday a $12.50 Mantle, handsomely embroidered, full sleeves, for $4.00.

There's no likelihood that the pick of Paris and Berlin Mantles will ever again be so absurdly low. Not a coat in the lot but is to-day worth twice or may be thrice times the price.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

A BLOW AT THE

Dress Goods.

Dress Goods are the vertebræ of our dry goods stock. As the marrow to the vertebræ, so are our MATCHLESS VALUES. Bettering our best is our effort all the time.

1894 stands pre-eminent for sales and attractive bargains in Dress Goods. The splendid success of our sales justifies our policy of marvelously low prices during the pinching hard times, and our new scale of prices is drawing the crowds:

20 pieces 45 inch Serge, all colours, worth 50c., for 40c.

10 pieces 40 inch Gray and Fawn Detieges, worth 60c., for 35c.

8 pieces 46 inch Satin Cloth, imported to sell at 80c., now 60c.

10 pieces Coloured Cashmeres, worth 50c., for 35c.

6 pieces Coloured Diagonal Serge, worth 40c., sale price 25c.

12 pieces Coloured Serge, all wool at 25c

10 pieces Printed All Wool Delaines, 30 to 36 inches, worth from 40c. to 60c., for 25c.

This is a time for few words. We put all our eloquence into prices and qualities.
"It's Fair's Way."

Customers are heard to say:—"Fair's getting a great run on Carpets." Carpet cutting is certainly more rapid than we expected. This is just the way we want it. We deal in Rich Carpets and Rugs. The fourth floor is loaded with Floor Coverings. We are leaders in prices and new colourings. Prices cut to the bone.

April and May are the months for carpet cleaning. Perhaps your carpet is worn out. Sweeping won't help it. A carpet bought now will save you 20 per cent. "It's Fair's Way."

MILLINERY STIR.

Just now there's more interest than usual going on in our Millinery Department. There is a marked increase in sales, and our new revised prices seems to "startle the oldest inhabitant." The special attractions in our Millinery Parlours are the new designs in Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets for Ladies, Children's Hats, &c. Novelties in beautiful soft roses with foliage in all colours, and other flowers, together with New Ribbons, Feathers and Trimmings.

But the popular prices all round is what is doing the effective selling of the season, and nobody accuses us of charging too much.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

NO HOUSE BUYS BETTER.
NO HOUSE SELLS LOWER.

The rush is now on. Join the crowd.

TURNBULL'S

Gloves
.. AND ..
Hosiery.

The time of year is now upon us when we begin to think of new Gloves and Hosiery. We would like to call your attention to our magnificent stock fresh from the German factories. There are several points about our Gloves we want you to notice. First, by buying from a factory direct they are at bottom prices, and having them made to order we pay particular attention to the cut and have the fingers made to fit the hand, which you will have noticed is often not the case in ordinary goods; also our colours were selected to match the shades of dress goods being worn this season, and every pair is properly sized the same as Kid Gloves. A full range of Lisle Thread Taffata Gloves and Silk in black and colours. We have one job line we are clearing at 25c., worth from 30 to 50c.

In Hosiery there is a growing demand for coloured goods. We have imported and placed in stock a choice range of all the best shades made extra long, perfectly fast dyes. Also the new striped goods which are coming in again. In Black Cotton we commence them at 5c. a pair. They are shaped and seamless and indestructible fast dye. A job line of Black Cashmere in ribbed and plain at 21c. for Children's and 26c. for Ladies. These goods are less than cost of manufacture but we bought them at a sacrifice and are giving our customers the benefit.

Owing to the fact that we were likely to have a close season on account of the low prices and scarcity of money we bought lightly and consequently have no large lots of our own to sacrifice, and are open to secure bargains from wholesale houses who are overstocked and can therefore afford to offer new goods at much closer prices than usual.

See the special lines we will have ready for our bargain day Wednesday, May 2nd. Wool Delaines at 15, 20, 25 and 28.

Gingham, 1 yard wide, good patterns for Aprons, only 8½c.

Armure Dress Cloth, summer shades, at 27c., worth 60c.

Self Coloured Striped Dress Goods, only 27c., regular price 50c.

Black Henrietta, 45 inches wide, fine finish, good weight, at 44c. a yard, regular price 70c.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

Sir John Thompson Talks About the Manitoba School Case.

DEFENCE OF HIS POSITION

Hon. Mr. Laurier Urges a Speedy Settlement of the Question—Mr. Devlin's Opinion of the P. P. A.—Mr. Charlton's Sabbath Day Observance Bill.

OTTAWA, April 27.—In reply to Mr. Davin in the Commons Hon. Mr. Daly said it is not proposed to establish a buffalo breeding ranch at Fort Smith, on Great Bear river, or Fort Vermillion, on Peace river, but a bill which is to be introduced in the Senate contains provisions for the protection of the buffalo and other fur-bearing animals in those portions of the Northwest territories of Canada, which are not included within the provisional districts of Assiniboia, Alberta and Saskatchewan. The bill will also apply to the district of Keewatin. Among other things it contains a provision forbidding absolutely the killing of buffalo for a period of five years.

Mr. Davin asked whether it is the intention of the Government to satisfy the claims of the officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the Northwest mounted police force, and of the volunteers attached to the said Northwest mounted police force, for an issue of medals and scrip on the same basis as that on which medals and scrip have been granted to the militia of Canada.

Hon. Mr. Ives—One hundred and seventy members of the force have received medals under the provisions of the order in council authorizing the giving of the medals to such members of the force as were actually under fire. The Government have not the intention of issuing medals to other members of the force or to issue scrip to any portion of the force.

Mr. Smith (Ontario) asked if it was the intention of the Government to arrange for the presence of veterinary surgeons representing Canada at the examination of the lungs of Canadian cattle slaughtered at the port of debarkation in Great Britain, the President of the Board of Agriculture of Great Britain having stated in the Imperial House of Commons that the removal of the embargo on Canadian cattle will depend on the result of the examinations of such cattle, to be made during the next few days.

Hon. Mr. Foster said that Mr. William Hunting, F.R.C.V.S., had been appointed to represent Canada in any examination of lungs that might take place.

In answer to Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. McMullen Hon. Mr. Foster said that the examinations would no doubt commence with the first shipment and proceed until the British minister of agriculture should be convinced that the cattle were free from disease.

Mr. McMullen suggested that the Government should buy lots in different districts and make an immediate shipment. It was highly desirable that the market should be opened as rapidly as possible.

Hon. Mr. Foster said the shipment of specimen lots would hardly meet the necessities of the case. The shipments must be in the ordinary course of trade.

Sir John Thompson resumed the debate on the motion of Mr. Tarte for papers respecting the Manitoba schools, and ordinances adopted by the Legislature of the Northwest Territories in 1892. He did not intend, he said, to at present enter into an exhaustive defence of the Government's action on the question, for the simple reason that statements that might be made might easily affect the result of the consideration that the subject was receiving. As members of the House had already become aware through the press and observations made in the House, the Executive here had made a request to the Lieutenant Governor of the Territories to convey to the Legislature of the Territories the great desire felt by His Excellency and his advisers that the Legislature of the Northwest Territories should reconsider the whole subject of education in the Territories, with a view of giving redress to any grievances which existed there in regard to education, and with a view likewise of giving any safeguards which were needed in order to make any portion of the people of the Territories feel that their rights were safeguarded and preserved.

Before discussing the matter as regards the Territories he desired to say a few words on the subject of the educational question in Manitoba. Mr. Tarte had introduced that subject in the early part of his remarks upon the motion, and strongly challenged the position of the Government and himself (Sir John) in relation to it. As regards his own position, which Mr. Tarte had said was that he had made a direct promise that remedial legislation would be given if the litigation testing the validity of the action failed, he had a few words to say. He had explained last session and had shown the report presented by himself to His Excellency three years ago containing no promise whatever because the fact was that the report was a report upon petitions for redress, and he was merely indicating as he was bound to do what course might properly be followed, in his opinion by the executive at Ottawa as regards these petitions. There were at the same time before the council, and sent to him for a report, petitions of different classes, petitions asking for disallowance, and in that report it would be seen that all that was reported was this: That as regards the petitions for disallowance on the ground that the Act was beyond the competence of the Provincial Legislature, it was unnecessary to take proceedings by way of disallowance, because if the contention was established that the acts were ultra vires, the decision of the courts would be finally conclusive on that point, but he had stated with regard to the other class of petitions asking for remedial legislation, that if litigation ended unsatisfactorily to the petitioners, the time would come when His Excellency in council would have to take that into consideration. The time did come when these petitions for remedial legislation had to be taken into consideration. The litigation had resulted, in the highest Court of Appeal, adversely to the petitioners. Having taken this other class of petitions into consideration they found important legal questions involved which they thought it extremely prudent, under the statute then in force on the subject, to refer for the opinion of the courts of the country, and that litigation was yet in progress. So far as the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada was concerned, a majority of the court had negatived the right of the petitioners to a certain appeal, and had negatived the power of the Governor-General to entertain the appeal for remedial legislation at all. It was impossible for him to understand how there could be any further responsibility on the Government in the matter. He had only to say this, that as a considerable body of the petitioners representing the religious minority in Manitoba had taken steps to appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council upon that subject, therefore he would forbear discussing the features of the question further.

Now, with regard to the question of the Territories, he would speak of the complaints and requests, on behalf of the minority, for redress under the ordinance of 1892, which was passed late in December of that year. The first petition from the Territories was received late in November, 1893, so that the Government's time would lapse before anything could be done towards disallowance. First, there was a complaint that harm had actually been done by the ordinance of 1892, and the regulations made under it. The complaint was urged that the safeguards for the future which supporters of Roman Catholic separate schools in the Territories had were removed by the provision of that ordinance. He then called the attention of the House to the fact that the regulations referred to had been adopted before the ordinance was issued in 1892, and consequently it was absolutely beyond the power of the executive, here to give redress by way of disallowance. He had to remonstrate against the assertions which had been made in this House that separate schools had practically ceased to exist in the Northwest territories. Separate schools received public aid there still. He denied the assertion that no person was qualified under the ordinance of 1892 to teach in the territories unless, in addition to educational qualifications, that person had passed some protracted term at the normal schools of the Territories, and therefore that persons whose profession was religion, and who lived in communities, were not able to conform to this new regulation and attend the normal schools. In the first place, this regulation did not apply to teachers at present authorized to teach, and as regards those who sought authority hereafter to teach in the territories, there were certain limitations to the rule. An exception was made in the case of those who from their calling in life were unable to attend the Normal schools, but had other certificates to the standard. There was a further exemption on behalf of those who had obtained such certificates in Manitoba and in Ontario, and he believed it was under the consideration of the Board of Education that the exemption should also apply to Quebec. This regulation, moreover, was passed in 1891 and not in 1892.

As regards the question of a uniform set of books for Protestant and Roman Catholic schools alike, the Premier showed the House that the first step towards finally settling a uniform set of books was adopted by the Roman Catholic division of the Board of Education before the Act of 1892 was passed.

The school books in use in the territories were the same as those in use in the Ontario Separate schools.

Sir John went on to say that it was only in October that he received a letter complaining of the ordinance, and the first petition in November. It therefore seemed to him plainly the obligation of the executive to decline to disallow under these circumstances, there being no time to receive the views and replies of the parties concerned. He wished particularly to call the attention of the House to the difference which existed between disallowance as regards the Northwest Territories, and the provinces. With respect to the language question he submitted that present information did not warrant the House in interfering. French was not abolished in the Northwest schools, but an English education was compulsory, and surely in a mixed community this would prove a benefit.

In conclusion, Sir John ridiculed the reports that there had been differences of opinion in the executive on the question.

Hon. Mr. Laurier said that he was glad that at last the Government had rendered a decision upon the question, and had not again sheltered themselves behind a decision of the Supreme Court. He urged upon the Government the necessity of a speedy settlement of the question one way or the other.

Mr. Devlin charged Hon. Clarke Wallace and Dalton McCarthy with having raised the cry in Ontario against separate schools in Manitoba and the Northwest. He spoke of the P. P. A. as an insidious secret organization in full sympathy with the Conservative party, and whose aim was the destruction of all Catholic rights and liberties. He asked any Protestant in the House to point to a single grievance or injustice which had been done the Protestant minority of Quebec.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Charlton moved the second reading of his bill regarding the better observance of the Lord's day.

The Mosquito Matter.

NEW YORK, April 27.—A special from San Salvador says: The government of Nicaragua is trying to keep on good terms with both America and England in the Mosquito reservation matter, and at the same time is trying to sell that territory to the English. Nicaragua is in dire financial straits. The military and civil employes are unpaid. The entire coast appears to be the scene of disturbances, but the troops refuse to march unless paid.

SAMOAN DIFFICULTIES

The Vexed Question to Be Finally Settled by Great Britain.

WILL ASSUME A PROTECTORATE

Germany Will Be Satisfied With This Solution of the Difficulty—The United States Will Offer No Objection—Cruelty to Native Chiefs.

LONDON, April 27. — The movement looking to a British protectorate over the Samoan Island is no longer disguised, but is going on in a manner which would seem to indicate that Great Britain believes she will be supported by Germany in the matter. To all appearances some secret understanding exists between Germany and England in regard to Samoa, and it would seem that the understanding included the United States. Color is given to this assertion by the United States ambassador, the Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, who in an interview yesterday spoke in the highest terms of Sir John Thurston, Governor of the Fiji Islands, and British commissioner for the Western Pacific. Mr. Bayard is quoted as saying:

"The presence and counsels of a man of such ability would in my opinion offer a happy solution to the present difficulties."

A gentleman who has just returned from Samoa, and who is the oldest British resident there, as well as the owner of the harbor of Pango-Pango, in an interview confirmed the report that the British project of a protectorate over the Samoan Islands was impending. The gentleman referred to also asserted that the present situation of affairs in Samoa was impossible. There was no government, he claimed, and some of the most powerful chiefs of the islands had been sent to work, in chains, on the high roads by the the American lawyer who is chief justice, referring to Chief Justice Henry Ide.

It is believed that Pango-Pango will doubtless be selected as the landing place of the proposed Pacific cable, and as the junction for the branch lines to New Zealand and the Fiji Islands. Some arrangement, it is said, is therefore necessary by which the British flag shall float over the spot where the cable lands.

SYMPATHY FOR THE NEGROES.

English Baptists Enter a Protest Against American Treatment.

LONDON, April 27.—At the sitting of the Baptist Union in Bloomsbury Chapel, Holborne, the Rev. Mr. Asked of Liverpool moved the adoption of a protest against sending a greeting to the United States and also against the wrong done to colored people, which he declared reflected upon the administration of justice in the United States and upon the honor of its people.

He said that the treatment of colored people in America was a scandal that had no parallel in the history of the world. The members of the mobs which lynched these poor negroes were generally half drunk, half insane and always bestial. The church must not remain silent while the press spoke out.

Dr. Clifford, who seconded the motion, said that the facts could not be impeached although in some cases they were, perhaps, exaggerated. He hoped that the proposed resolution would stimulate American Christian, to secure elementary rights and justice to the negroes. Dr. Clifford added that at the same time he had a deal of sympathy for the brethren in America, and the English Baptists should show them kindly consideration owing to the circumstances surrounding the question. The resolution was adopted by acclamation.

MEYER, THE ACCUSED POISONER.

Second Trial of This Notorious Case Commences in New York.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The second trial of Dr. H. C. F. Meyer, charged with causing the death of Ludwig Brandt, or Baum, by administering to him doses of antimony and arsenic in order to collect the insurance money on his life, has commenced before Recorder Smith in the Court of General Sessions. The principal actors in the case were all present in court and Assistant District Attorney McIntyre made his opening address. Each minute detail in the lives for the last four years of the four central figures in the case was detailed by him in such a manner as to leave scarcely a second unaccounted for. From the outline he gave the bulk of the testimony to be given at this trial will be entirely new.

A Jealous Husband's Deed.

LEBANON, Ind., April 27. — Edward Workman, eldest son of the Rev. T. C. Workman, a prominent divine of the Methodist Episcopal Church, shot and fatally wounded his wife and himself on the streets in this city. The cause of the tragedy was jealousy. Workman claimed that his wife accepted the embraces of other men. A few days ago he found a letter she had received from a prominent man soliciting her company to Indianapolis. This enraged him and he left his home. He met his wife on the street and began firing a revolver at her. The first shot struck her right arm and the second one entered her head. She fell face downward. Workman then shot himself twice in the head. Both will die.

MYSTERIES OF THE MAHATMAS.

Stevens, the Cyclist World-Girdler, Claims to Have Discovered Their Secrets.

LONDON, April 27.—Mr. Thomas Stevens, the American, who rode around the world on a bike, and on horseback through Russia, is soon expected home from India. In a private letter to a friend in London he says he has been investigating the mysteries of the Mahatmas, and that by the aid of his camera and his ingenuity he has discovered the secrets of those miracles of the Fakirs which have puzzled the world ever since Marco Polo told of the wonderful things done by the magicians of Kubali Kahn. According to tradition and the repeated tales of travelers the Togi or Fakirs of India have secret knowledge of certain forces of nature by which they can produce phenomena as inexplicable to western sciences as the miracles of the Bible. Mr. Stevens has put these oriental modern miracles to a practical test and claims to have secured some remarkable results. He hopes to return to America during the ensuing summer.

ONTARIO CROPS AND LIVE STOCK.

An Interesting Summary of Agricultural Intelligence.

Following is a bulletin sent out by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, from information sent in by correspondents under date of April 16th:

Fall Wheat.—This crop had entered a most crucial period as correspondents wrote, and much uncertainty existed regarding its future prospects. Early in March fine bright weather prevailed, and the protecting covering of snow disappeared, revealing the fields of wheat in a promising condition in most quarters. The latter part of March and the early portion of April, however, was a season of alternate freezing and thawing, and the cold nights and warm days not only resulted in much "heaving," but also browned the tender blades and left all but well-drained fields with an appearance anything but satisfactory. The situation at the time correspondents wrote was as follows: Fall wheat has been seriously set back by spring frosts and absence of warm rains. Should another week or two of unpropitious weather prevail much of the crop will have to be plowed up or resown; but as the roots are vigorous timely showers and genial weather may carry the fields forward towards an average yield. Where the fields entered the winter with a good top they are still vigorous and verdant, and those who practice under-draining rejoice in an encouraging outlook. The great fall wheat counties along Lake Erie send rather discouraging reports, and in the eastern portion of the province, where the acreage is small, the prospects are equally poor for a good crop. In the Lake Huron group the county of Huron gives a cheerful report, while Lambton and Bruce are rather the reverse. The Georgian Bay counties reports are equal in tone, and on the whole the chances are hardly as good as usual. In the West Midland group favourable reports prevail over those of a less encouraging character, and the same may be said of the Lake Ontario counties. So far there has been an almost complete exemption from injury by worms or insects.

Rye.—What little of this crop is grown came through the winter in fair condition, although injured in places by ice. The area of winter rye is inconsiderable, taking the province over, but here and there in the central and eastern counties some stout advocates of this crop are to be found.

Clover.—The reports concerning this crop are not favourable. A few correspondents speak of good fields and encouraging prospects on high and well-drained lands, but east and west there has been a good deal of "heaving," more particularly during the spring, and a liberal application of the land roller will not fully remedy matters. Old meadows have suffered most in this respect, and the newer fields are rather patchy and thin owing to the drouth which prevailed last autumn. A few correspondents allude to the injurious effects still traceable from the visitation of grasshoppers last summer. At present the chances appear to be rather against a good yield of hay and clover this year, although timely rains may make up for past drawbacks.

Vegetation.—Up to the time reports were sent in there had been but little actual growth in field and forest. In fact, at the close of the second week of April, vegetation appeared to be but little ahead of what it was two or three weeks earlier. A good spring rain was hoped for by correspondents as something that would start growth and bring the season well forward.

Live Stock.—Taken altogether the reports concerning the condition of live stock may be considered satisfactory. Horses do not appear to have been as well cared for as in former years, owing to low prices, yet, though rather on the thin side, as a class they have come through the winter with but little sickness, barring an occasional attack of distemper. Horned cattle as a rule are healthy, though lean; reports of disease were very scattering. Tuberculosis was referred to by some correspondents, but the cases alluded to were not regarded as serious. Sheep are in particularly good trim, and lambing is proceeding most satisfactorily, save that a few correspondents complain of an unusually large proportion of singles being dropped. Swine are also in generally good condition. Some form of distemper is here and there reported, and a disease "resembling rheumatism" has shown itself in a few places, while in the neighbourhood of Dereham township hog cholera broke out recently and carried off 200 hogs; but, notwithstanding these local and occasional occurrences, the swine industry has seldom presented a more favourable bill of health. There was plenty of fodder with which to carry stock through the winter, taking the province all over.

Farm Supplies.—There is not much unanimity of opinion regarding the quantity of hay, grain or fat and store cattle on hand. In the three western districts of the province the bulk of correspondents report a surplus of hay and wheat, and, in some counties, there are more oats than are needed for feeding and seeding. In the Lake Ontario counties there is but little hay to spare, and in the eastern and northern, hay, wheat and oats are in store in only moderate quantities. A great deal of hay was pressed and exported during the fall and winter, and large quantities of wheat were fed to live stock, more especially to swine. Fat cattle are hardly as usual, and buyers appear to be shy in most quarters, as several correspondents state that fewer beeves than usual have been sold for May shipment. Store cattle are plentiful with some, and scarce with their neighbours; in fact the cattle industry appears to be in a most unsettled condition, except in the case of fresh cows, which are in better demand than ever for the dairy.

AN ESSEX FARMER.

A Total Wreck with Kidney Disease—All the Symptoms of Bright's Disease Present—Dodd's Kidney Pills make him Perfectly Well again

LEAMINGTON, April 23—Sherman Buchanan, a farmer living near here, recently passed through a terrible ordeal. He was attacked by kidney disease, which made him a perfect wreck. He suffered agonizing pains and his digestive organs were seriously impaired. All the symptoms of Bright's disease were present. After several doctors had treated him ineffectually, Mr. Buchanan used several boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. Dodd's was the first kidney in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, 50c. or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

ALLAN'S RAMBLE.

Come out in the broad fresh air, come along,
And breathe the pure ozone;
I feel like a prison'd lark set free,
I can jump for joy alone.
Come out to the country road, come along,
Away from the city's hum;
The birds are all piping to song again,
Now that the spring is come.

Come thro' the old pasture field, come along,
Listen to the bull-frog's croak;
There's music in his solemn "morrhum,"
As he sits by the freshet brook.
See on that dry hillside, come along,
The horses are at the plough.
I guess they're as glad as we are too,
That spring is coming now.

Come to the woods brown and bare, come along,
Where the moss grows warm and bright,
We'll some greenlet p'haps 'neath the leaves,
Pushing sturdily up to the light.
We'll see—here the squirrel nests, come along,
By the nut and acorn shells;
We'll find the bursting shiny bud,
In shelter'd sunny dells.

Come rest on this roadside rock, come along,
I'm aweary with feeling so gay;
Watch the bubbles rise in the oozy mud,
Ground thaws set in to-day.
'Sh, peep round that low red stump, come along,
A chipmunk's hiding there,
And down by that old pine log
There's a ground hog hole, I declare

Let's ramble with rabble and rout, come along,
Over fences, along the creek's banks;
Hurrah! hurrah! in this soft zephyr wind,
We'll follow the freshet's pranks.
How it skirls and whirls with straws, come along,
With bubbles and froth and fun,
How it rushes away with melted snows,
Now that the winter's done

We're roaming far, we're roaming free, come along,
Over the sweet scented earth;
We're gay with merry laugh and shout,
The welkin rings with mirth.
What do we care for mud, come along,
As we hardily trudge away,
Plashing through meadow, and marsh and woods,
This blazing fair spring day.

When Ponce de-Leon sought to find
The fountain giving back lost youth,
It may be that he had in mind
That draught which seems to make a truth
Out of the fable ages old,
For drinking it the old grow young;
It is, indeed, a draught of gold,
Surpassing all by poets sung.

The draught meant is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, of course. It is a most potent rejuvenator of the weakened and debilitated system. It drives out all poison, all impurity, enriches the blood, and makes the old and worn out feel young and vigorous. Ponce-de-Leon didn't discover it, but Dr. Pierce did, and he rightly named it when he called it a "Golden Discovery."

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $80, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $30, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

WE PROTEST!

We emphatically protest against being confounded with people who quote prices for worthless goods, which you are asked to take at about three pairs for a quarter.

This sort of thing makes us a little tired. The bait is too poor to catch sensible people. Get solid comfort from John McNaughton. An admiral selection to choose from.

FOR LADIES AND MISSES.

Shoes for the Street, Shoes for the Party, Shoes for the House, Slippers for the Bedroom. All "just sweet."

FOR MEN AND BOYS.

H. LEBRUN & CO.

Our Boys' Suits ar very popular and fast sellers. One mother from near Lakefield, who prides herself on being a good judge of Boys' Clothing, says she "never buys from us without first examining the 'Great Bargains' offered by our neighbours," but she always decided that "our every day value in any line of Clothing beats them all."

Mothers and fathers are invited to bring in their boys and examine our Suits and learn our little prices. 3,000 Boys' Suits, at LESS than wholesale price, to select from.

As Lacrosse and Baseball will be boomed this summer, we have decided to give with Every Boys' Suit, his choice of a Lacrosse Stick and Ball, or a Bat and a Ball.

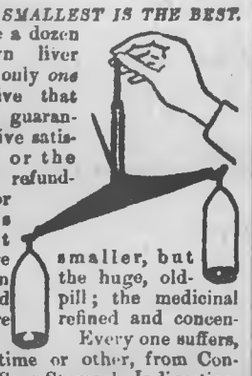
IT PAYS TO AVDERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

THE SMALLEST IS THE BEST.



There are a dozen well-known liver pills, but only one so effective that it can be guaranteed to give satisfaction, or the money be refunded. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are smaller, but better than the huge, old-fashioned pill; the medicinal agents are refined and concentrated. Every one suffers, at some time or other, from Constipation, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Biliousness, Bilious and Sick Headaches. You're relieved and cured of these troubles, if you take "P. P. P."

These Pellets are easy to take, and act in a natural way without shocking the system. They're easy to carry, because they are put up in little glass vials. They're the cheapest, because guaranteed to give satisfaction. Remember, that Dr. Pierce's Pellets are pleasant to take, pleasant in action, perfect in effect. Keep this in mind and you solve the problem of good health and good living.

If you're suffering from Catarrh, the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy ask you to try their medicine. Then, if you can't be cured, they'll pay you $500 in cash.

STRIKE IN THE COAL MINES.

It is Beginning to Have Its Effect on Different Industries.

PITTSBURG, April 27.—The coal mines strike is beginning to have an effect upon the different industries. Railroad companies, it is claimed, have been appropriating coal which had been billed to different mills, and there is already a coal famine at certain manufacturing plants. The anthracite coal sales agents here have decided to make no changes in the prices.

A Famine in Fuel.

HAMILTON, Ont., April 27.—Coal dealers here have been notified of an advance of 75 cents a ton on soft coal, caused by the big strike of miners in the United States. It is said there are only ten to twelve days' supply of soft coal in the United States, and when that is done factories, railways and all users of soft coal will require to stop work. The anthracite miners threaten to strike if members of the combine sell that coal for factory purposes, and in consequence dealers will refuse to fill orders for anthracite coal after June. It is said the railway companies are already taking possession of coal shipped by private firms on their lines on account of the scarcity of fuel for locomotives.

Renounced the Lutheran Faith.

LONDON, April 27.—A despatch to the Chronicle from Rome says that Princess Frederick Charles of Prussia desires to renounce the Lutheran faith and become a member of the Roman Catholic church. The despatch adds that Emperor William has given his consent to her becoming a Catholic. Princess Marie Anne, otherwise Princess Frederick Charles, is the widow of Prince Frederick Charles, who died in 1885. The prince's father was the brother of Emperor William's grandfather. The second daughter of the princess is the wife of the Duke of Connaught.

Welsh Disestablishment Bill.

LONDON, April 27.—Herbert H. Asquith, Home Secretary, moved in the House of Commons last evening the disestablishment of the church in Wales. For more than a century, Mr. Asquith said, the vast majority of Welshmen had regarded the Church of England in Wales as an aggressive and sectarian power. To them it had been a symbol of national discord. The bill with which the Government proposed to correct this objectionable state of affairs would cover with its provisions Monmouthshire as well as Wales proper.

Two Soldiers Get Three Years.

HALIFAX, N.S., April 27.—Judge Johnston sentenced Manigan and Mills, two soldiers, who pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking glass and stealing jewelry. His Honor said he would display some leniency to the men owing to their pleading without trial. He regretted to see Her Majesty's soldiers, who ought to be upholders of public peace, committing such an act. He sentenced them each to three years in the Maritime penitentiary, Dorchester.

The Inter-Imperial Conference.

CAPETOWN, April 27. — The Hon. J. Gordon-Sprigg, treasurer of the government of Cape Colony, speaking at a banquet of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, referred to the coming inter-Imperial conference at Ottawa, Canada. The Cape government, he said, concurred in the objects of the conference, but its participation in the conference depended altogether upon the character of the reply received from Ottawa in answer to a recent communication on the subject.

Fatal Accident on a Steamer.

LIVERPOOL, N. S., April 27.—A sad accident happened at Port Mounton on board of steamer Aid, Captain Brooks, by the premature discharge of dynamite. The driver, Edward Gabriel, was instantly killed and Captain Brooks, sen., seriously injured. Neddie Gabriel was a promising young man and a general favorite. His sudden death has cast a gloom over the town. Captain Brooks was engaged in taking off the schooner Irene which was driven ashore here the last gale.

Habeas Corpus for the Count.

HALIFAX, April 27.—A writ of habeas corpus in favor of Count de Villeneauve, now held in custody in the common jail on charge of forgery, was argued before Justice Bosse. The prisoner was represented by Mr. Fitzpatrick. Attorney-General Casgrain, representing the French Government, opposed the motion, as did also Mr. James Dunbar, Q.C., on behalf of the crown. Justice Bosse reserved his decision until Tuesday next.

Perfect health is seldom found, for impure blood is so general. Hood's Sarsaparilla really does purify the blood and restores halth.

De Jong Sentenced to Four Years.

AMSTERDAM, April 27.—The trial of Hendrik De Jong, called the Dutch "Jack the Ripper," who was charged with murdering Miss Jusis, a young English woman, and a Dutch girl named Maria Schmitz, with both of whom he went through the ceremony of marriage, is ended. The charges of murdering the women were dropped for want of evidence, but De Jong was sentenced to four years in prison for swindling.

Dismissed the Sheriff.

ST. JOHN, N.B., April 27. — Sheriff Irvine, of Carleton county, is no longer sheriff. He has only served seven months. Irvine, who formerly represented the county at Ottawa, was appointed on the recommendation of Henry Connell, M.P.P., then a member of Blair's Government. Connell has since quarrelled with Blair, and the Premier dismissed his sheriff.

Refuse to Close Their Pool Rooms.

MONTREAL, April 27.—The pool room men of Montreal have refused to obey the chief of police orders to close up their establishments. They declare they will not do so until compelled by law. The chief has entered actions against them and the suits will be pushed.

East Durham Conservatives.

MILLBROOK, Ont., April 27.—At a convention of Liberal Conservatives held here yesterday Mr. W. A. Fallis of Cavan was nominated as candidate for the next provincial election.

Westport Farmer Killed.

WESTPORT, Ont., April 27.—Daniel Mercley, a prominent farmer living two miles from this place, was kicked and instantly killed by a horse yesterday morning.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, April 27, 1894.

Local security market was fairly active and irregular.

The clearings of Toronto banks this week were $4,977,344, as compared with $4,884,982 last week and $5,507,021 the corresponding week of last year.

There is a report that New York Central will reduce dividends to 4 per cent. per annum.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Receipts of grain were nil. Wheat nominal at 62c for white and 58c for goose. Barley is quoted at 42c, peas at 64c to 64½c and oats at 41c to 42½c.

The Chicago wheat market was dull. The scalping fraternity did most of the business and they were not particular which party they sided with, showing a willingness to assist either the longs or the shorts to liquidate their May wheat. The closing was unchanged.

Except for sugar certificates the New York stock market was all but motionless. Judging by the market one might suppose that the whole tariff controversy at Washington rested on the sugar schedule. The most that can be said of the full railway returns for March which are now coming to hand is that they show steady maintenance of working economies, varying greatly, however, according to circumstances.

Parents Must Have Rest.

A President of one of our Colleges says: "We spent many sleepless nights in consequence of our children suffering from colds, but this never occurs now: We use Scott's Emulsion and it quickly relieves pulmonary troubles."

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair had been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually "topped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterward, using in all about a quater of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seem to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

Fashions for Men.

IN COATS.

There is more length to the new Coats for 1894 than has been used in Men's Dress since the 60's.

THE DOUBLE BREASTED FROCK is the most fastidious garment man has put on in a generation. It adds to the stature of the man and conceals defects of figure. It is short waisted, snug fitting, long tailed and beautifully moulded to the figure. The Skirts are hollow at the top and form a beautiful curve, which is the most distinctive thing about the new styles.

Then there is the THREE BUTTON CUTAWAY Coat which is a high favourite. It is popularly described as the "Pigeon Wing" on account of its sloping tails. The sleeves are of moderate size and are closed with a vent for three buttons. If properly made it will cling rather closely to the hips.

The new CUTAWAY SACK COAT for business wear is one of the most popular of the season. It has caught the fancy of the young men. All the pockets should have flaps. The collar rolls low and is not faced with Silk.

Any of these garments made up to order to please the most fastidious dresser and with faultless devotion to the fashion plates

Comfort In .. Corsets.

The physical discomfort endured by ladies who have to wear an ill-fitting pair of corsets is a punishment that need not be borne any longer.

FIRST.—Avoid all dealers who carry old stock so long that they are forced to reduce the price of their "torture packs" to the bare cost of the material in order to get rid of them; or who send out girls totally ignorant of the harm they do by taking measures regardless of the form or figure.

SECOND.—Consult MRS. ENSIGN at her private parlours on Simcoe St., who will personally fit you with a pair of Corsets conducive to health and comfort, and will give you just exactly the support and beauty of figure you so much need and admire.

A Government BOMBSHELL

THROWN INTO THE

LIFE INSURANCE CAMP!

The following statement comes from the government Blue Book. It covers a period of sixteen years, and is sworn to as correct by representatives of each Company:

Statement of Premiums received and Cash Profits paid back to Policy Holders from 1877 to 1892, both years inclusive:—

COMPANY.	Premiums Received.	Dividends Paid to Policy Holders.	Ratio of Dividends to Premiums, %
CANADA LIFE.....	$16,268,307	$2,946,433	18.18
Confederation Life.....	6,165,432	637,925	10 35
North American.....	2,327,062	32,857	1.41
Ontario Mutual.....	3,978,066	433,284	11.17
Sun Life.....	5,627,720	355,280	6.43

Never in the history of Life Insurance has the struggle for business been keener. Never has the conflict been hotter. Never have the Companies felt as they feel now, the necessity for throwing all the energy at their command into the field. The most intelligent and best men have to be employed. All kinds of plans of insurance are submitted. Each Company determined in securing the supremacy in the good will of the public, in establishing their name, the utterance of which, shall convey to the minds of the people the essential characteristics of

UNDOUBTED SECURITY,
RIGID ECONOMY,
GOOD INVESTMENTS,
LARGEST PROFITS

WHY?

Because millons of dollars are being paid annually for Life Insurance, and the Companies that can show these features have attained a position which will guarantee their future success, for money will flow freely into the best investments.

The Canada Life Policy Holders can look at the above statement with a smile of satisfaction, yet sympathise with their friends who are not so favourably situated.

They can throw their Life Policies down in the face of opponents and successfully challenge the production of more profitable policies, they can stand the onslaught of Agents who will almost cover them with literature and estimates of Tontine, Semi-Tontine, Return Premiums, Reserved Dividends, Annuity and Endownment plans of insurance, and with a quiet assurance feel that

As The Canada Life is Making the Most Profits, She Can Pay the Largest Profits.

READER. If you want Life Insurance choose the Canada Life and join the throng of contented policy holders who are insured with the Company carrying about 45 per cent. of the total insurance in force of the above named Companies

Auxiliary to Missions.

The second day's sessions of the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to Anglican Missions, diocese of Toronto, drew together again the many hundreds of delegates. Papers on appropriate subjects were read by the diocesan treasurer, Miss Osler, and discussions on interesting topics were held. A public missionary meeting was held at the Pavilion in the evening, when the Bishop of Toronto presided. The principal features of the programme were the following addresses:—Diocesan Missions, by the Bishop of Toronto; North-West and British Columbia Missions, by Rev. Canon Sweeney; Foreign Mission, by Rev. Dr. Mockridge; Algoma Missions, by Mr. A. Sullivan. All were illustrated by lime-light views.

Victoria License Commissioners.

At a meeting of the East Riding of the county of Victoria License Commissioners held in Lindsay the other day the following licenses were granted:—Fenelon Falls—J. Twomey, Henry Brooks, John Aldus. Bobcaygeon—Mrs. Seena, A. Goulais, G. Hunter. Omemee—I. W. Wilson, Wm. Cardwell. Cambray—D. McIntyre, Mrs. Lucinda Tamblyn. Glenarm—John Campbell. Cameron—Mrs. E. Simpson, beer and wine. CUT THIS OUT and send it to us, enclosing a three cent stamp and the names of ten ladies, and we will send each one a sample of one of the best montly papers published, and we will send it to you FREE for six months. Mention EXAMINER, and address MEDICAL ADVISER, Bowmanville, Ont.

PERSONAL.

Mr. E. J. Richardson, of Madoc, is in town.

Mr. Will Davis has been spending a few days in Tweed.

Mr. T. B. Collins, of Millbrook, was in town yesterday.

Miss Callaghan, of Campbellford, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Mary Baker has returned to Tweed after spending some time visiting friends here.

Messrs. A. T. Elliott and A. A. Smith, B.A., Millbrook, was in town during the week.

Mrs. B. Morrow is the guest of her sister, Miss E. O'Brien, Melbourne street, Lindsay.

Serveant-Major Peters goes to Toronto this evening and, on his return, will be accompanied by his family.

Mr. W. Bryce, of Keene, who is a graduate of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute, where he took a course, has passed his second year examinations at Toronto University with flying colours.

Mr. W. J. Morrow, an old Peterborough boy, who is now representing Adams & Burns, called on us yesterday, and, as should be anticipated, he reported business as booming.—Lindsay Watchman.

Mr. W. F. Stuart and his son, DeWitt Talmage Stuart, leave to-day for Cobourg where they will give a lecture in the Division street Methodist church this evening. DeWitt Talmage Stuart will give his favourite pieces.

Mr. W. B. Trip, of Peterborough, who recently met with a severe accident in that town, spent a few days last week visiting old friends in Lindsay. While working on the eave of a building, some twenty feet high, the scaffolding gave way and fell to the ground. Mr. Trip had the misfortune to fracture his left arm, sprain his left ankle, hurt his knee, and received a cut on the forehead fully two inches long and was an inmate of the Nicholls Hospital for a week. He was pretty well broken up and his many Lindsay friends were pleased to see him so greatly improved.—Watchman.

Rev. Father Conway of Norwood, Ont., is in the city, says the St. Catherines Journal, visiting relatives. The rev. gentleman has many friends here, and is most kindly remembered by our older citizens, he, over a quarter of a century ago, being one of the priests of St. Catherines church under the late Dean Grattan. Father Conway is about to take a trip to Ireland, and a few days ago his parishioners in Norwood, who greatly love their venerable pastor, presented him with a well-filled purse and an address expressive of their regard, reverence and gratitude for his painstaking and conscientious discharge of the manifold and arduous duties of his sacred office. The rev. gentleman will sail on the Furnessia from New York on May 5th, and The Journal joins with his many friends in wishing him a pleasant voyage and a safe return.

A Sad Visit.

Mrs. Stephen Yates, of Chelmsford, after an absence of eight years, arrived in Lindsay on a visit about two weeks ago, accompanied by her three children, aged respectively 10, 8 and 5 years. They reached the town on Saturday as happy a party as ever came there. On the following morning, the eldest child, a boy, was taken down with diptheria and died on Friday evening. On Monday after the oldest girl died, and on the following day the other girl passed away, the three thus dying within five days.

Not as Young as He Used to Be.

An old spaniel belonging to Col. Rogers, of the Peterborough Canoe Company, was placed in a tight fix when he was tackled by a fox terrior and another small canine yesterday on Water street. These two little whelps loiter around the Cavanagh house corner all day looking for mischief, and they indulged themselves to their hearts' content yesterday, when they waylaid the colonel's spaniel. The latter is an old dog and, not being as quick on his pins as he was in his younger days, could neither run away from his small tormenters nor catch them. As soon as the spaniel attempted to make off he would be seized by a hind leg in the twinkling of an eye, and when he turned to seize the offender he would find himself again attacked in the rear by the other assailant. The small dogs amused themselves and quite a crowd of spectators for over an hour.

A Legal Item.

From the Globe's report of the legal proceedings in Single Court at Osgoode Hall on Thursday the following is taken:

Wright v. Membray Medicine Co.—Judgment on appeal by the defendants from the report of the junior judge of the counties of Leeds and Grenville, to whom all matters in question in the action were referred for inquiry and report, under sec. 101, O.J.A., and upon motion by the plaintiff for judgment upon the report. Defendants' appeal allowed as to the first item in question, viz, $75, allowed to the plaintiff for three weeks' salary during the time he was with his wife at Brockville when she was ill. Defendants' appeal dismissed as to the other items. Judgment for plaintiff for $42.64, with County Court costs, and with a set-off to the defendants of the excess of their costs over County Court costs. No costs of the appeal to either party. Fisher (Brockville) for the plaintiffs. W. R. Riddell for defendants.

Another New Invention.

The firm of Hall, Gilchrist & Co. have just invested in a carpet sewer, which for doing the work required with neatness and dispatch, beats anything yet out. The two edges of the lengths which require to be sewed together, are placed side by side and held in position by clamps which hang from the ceiling and act also as a support to the two lengths. The machine, which resembles a trolley more than anything else, is then placed in position and worked along over the two edges by means of a crank which is turned by the operator. As the carpet is stretched to its full limit while the sewing takes place no unseemly little puffs and wrinkles are left and, moreover, a length which it would take a sewing woman three quarters of an hour to sew, is completed by the machine in from two to three minutes. It is a great time-saver and is particularly useful when a carpet is wanted in a hurry. There are only a half a dozen of the machines in use in the province, so the enterprise which Hall, Gilchrist & Co. have exhibited in acquiring one becomes all the more appreciable. It is manufactured by the Singer Sewing Machine Company and was ordered through the local agent here.

We invite the young gentlemen of Peterborough to examine our special tailor made Spring Overcoats and Suits before leaving their measure. GRAFTON & Co.

Dunn—will appear in Lindsay on next Monday evening, April 30th. A special train will leave G. T. R. station (at single fare rate) at 5.15, leaving Lindsay on return at 11 p. m.

—We are evidently "in" it as far as the electric light is concerned. Hamilton pays $110 a lamp per annum while in Ottawa we are offered a price of $65. The difference is noticeable. There might be something in the desire for civic electric lighting if we paid the Hamilton figure.—Ottawa Exchange. Peterborough is "in it" too, evidently, as the town puts up $75 per light per annum.

—A short time ago the books (1100 volumes), chairs, tables, etc., belonging to the Mechanics' Institute were seized for rent, and the directors having made several unsuccessful efforts to have the debt removed, it was decided at a meeting held on Tuesday evening to let the law take its course. Bailiff Anderson will therefore, sell the books, etc., by public auction on Saturday, May 5th, at 3 p.m.—Norwood Register.

—The Manufacturers Committee of the council met last night and again considered the question of exempting the machinery of the different manufactories in town from taxation. It was decided to defer action until a report could be secured showing what effect such action would have in regard to the town's finances. The members differed in opinion as to whether the treasury could stand the shortage which would result in the way of lessened taxes unless the rate was raised.

—The magic lantern views which were shown at the Salvation Army last night proved as great a success as when they were formerly exhibited here. The recitation of Mr. Sydney Geovette of "Curfew," which was illustrated by views, was greatly enjoyed. Little Miss Green recited "Father, dear father, come home" in a manner which secured her much applause. Ensign Hay and Mr. Power, of Bowmanville, were also present, as was Capt. Burrows, of Toronto. The latter, who is in town on a furlough, will assist Captain Cameron in conducting the services on Tuesday.

—Now is the time to cut black knot from the cherry trees and plum trees. Directly the warm weather begins, the spores which propogate this fungus disease are ripening and spreading the evil. The branches should be burned as soon as they are cut to prevent the spores from ripening and spreading the disease. Wherever orchards are isolated there will be but little trouble in keeping trees free from this scourge. If the knot is on a large limb of a valuable tree, kerosene or linseed oil may be tried and will usually give good results if persistently applied, but as a general rule there is nothing so satisfactory as the knife and the saw.

THE BOYS IN RED.

The New Field Exercise Practiced—Fancy Rifle Drill.

A dozen or so non-coms. turned out for drill in the armoury last night under Sergt.-Major Peters, and a couple of hours steady work was gotten in. Many of the new movements in the field exercise were explained and practiced. Wednesday, all those wishing to become proficient in the fancy rifle drill, which is performed to music and adds not a little to the attractiveness of a battalion, are requested to fall in at the armoury at 8 o'clock. It is hoped that a large attendance of the rank and file will turn out, as this physical drill as it is called is one in which it is well all should be proficient.

The Sergeant-Major is in great hopes of working the battalion up to a high state of proficiency this season if he can only secure the regular attendance of the men. The commissioned officers, he states are always on hand, but it is difficult, as was stated before, to secure the regular attendance of the men.

MILLS BROS.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

There will be no game of baseball played on the P.A.A.A. grounds in Ashburnham on Saturday as announced in a contemporary. No baseball diamond will be laid on the grounds this year.

Millbrook's lacrosse club has organized and elected the following officers:

Hon. President.—John Allen.
President—A. Raper.
Vice-President—Harry Richards.
Captain—J. A. Vance.
Sec.-Treas.—L. F. Clarry.
Committee—W. D. Leach, John Natrass and Walter Coombe.

The Bicycle Club turned out fairly strong last night for its first regular club run. The trip was to Lakefield and back and was greatly enjoyed by those who participated. The club officials would permit no scorching and quite a few dismounts were made both going and returning, in order to give the younger riders breathing spells and rests. The members kept in a body throughout. The only mishaps reported were occasioned by the giving way of a saddle and an upset, when one of the riders undertook to climb the bank. All are looking forward with pleasure to the next run. About an hour was spent in Lakefield and the members arrived back in town at about eleven o'clock.

There will probably be a lot of records established this season for covering the distances between Peterborough and the neighbouring towns and villages on wheels. Mr. Gus Hay and Mr. Bob Richardson came in from Lakefield the other day in 45 minutes.

With only two exceptions the divisions of all districts between Sarnia and Montreal in the relay ride have been agreed upon, and district committees are getting their riders into training, and are mapping out relay divisions. In assigning districts the character of roads and number of probable eligible riders in the vicinity have been taken into consideration, as well as the contiguity of other clubs desiring to assist. The complete list of districts will be published as soon as the two undecided divisions are settled. C. M. Chislett, of Port Hope, will cyclemeter the road from Port Hope to Colborne early next week. The publication of the various distances between the towns will be of considerable benefit in the future.

On Saturday night we will give the boys a reduction of 25 cents off Lally's best lacrosse sticks. Ten per cent off regulation lacrosse balls. The Peterborough Bookstore, A. H. STRATTON & Co.

Mr. George J. Horkins has been asked to be official timekeeper at the Campbellford bicycle races on the 24th.

Mr. G. L. Hay, secretary of the Peterborough Bicycle Club, has been requested to accept the office of consul of the Canadians Wheelmen's Association for this district.

The following teams have entered for the football tournament on the 24th May at Norwood: Brooklin, Allandale, Havelock, Norwood town team and Norwood High School team. The Hastings team was invited but cannot come, but another is being secured.

Before sailing for France to begin his career as a professional cyclist, Champion Arthur Zimmerman issued a challenge to race any amateur rider in America for any amount from $1,000 to $10,000 a side. The representative of John S. Johnson announced yesterday that the Minnesota record-breaker had decided to accept Zimmerman's challenge. To show that Johnson means business, his representative has deposited $250 with a sporting paper to stand as a forfeit. Johnson agrees to make a match with the champion for a stake of $1,000 a side. The race is to be from one to ten miles, and is to take place as soon as Zimmerman returns from his European tour. The track upon which the race is to be run is to be mutually agreed upon. The only concession Johnson asks is that the stakeholder be allowed to name the referee.

THE GUN CLUB.

The gun club held its first practice last night since the acceptance of the Campbellford gun club's challenge, and there was a fair turn-out of marksmen, although not as many as the captain would like to have seen, as he is anxious to see his team do well on the 24th. Out of fifteen shots the following scores were made:—

R. Tivey	11	W. Dayman	8
S. Ray	10	T. Rutherford	11
C. James	11	A. Webb	7
H. Neil	9	F. Ferguson	12

Messrs. Dayman and Webb then dropped out, and the remaining six members took ten shots each, with the following result:

S. Ray	3	R. Tivey	7
T. Rutherford	6	H. Neil	5
F. Ferguson	7	C. James	3

THE CRICKET CREASE.

During the latter part of the week a good deal of work has been done on the P.A.A.A. grounds, and the cricket crease has now been patched and rolled to an extent which fits it for use. The wickets will accordingly be pitched Monday afternoon and the members of the club will begin practice on that day. This year the evenings on which the cricketers will have exclusive use of the grounds will be Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week. The practices cannot be conducted too regularly, as the first match of the season comes off on the home grounds on May 26th, which just leaves a month for the local men to get into form. The first eleven from Trinity School, Port Hope, come to Peterborough on that date and the return match will be played on June 13th in Port Hope. The second eleven from the school come up on June 16th, and the local team go down to the school on June 2nd for the return.

LINDSAY.

There was a rousing meeting of lacrosse enthusiasts at M. A. Robinson's parlours on Tuesday evening. About thirty stick handlers were present, and the Lindsay lacrosse club was organized for the season of 1894. The following officers were elected: Hon. president, Hon. Senator Dobson; hon. vice-president, John Kennedy; president, J. D. Flavelle; first vice-president, Thos. McConnell; second vice-president, Geo. Lytle; manager, A. Robinson; secretary, H. Little; treasurer, F. W. Phillipo; captain, Thos. Sadler; managing committee, R. Anderson, R. P. Gamon and H. Macgachen. The club starts the season with the best of prospects. Some half dozen first-class new players are available, including such well-known men as Phillipo of Port Perry, Watson of Orillia, and Gamon of Collingwood, and from all appearance the national game will boom in Lindsay during the coming summer. New uniforms to consist of white jerseys and hats and blue kickers. Practice will start at once.—Watchman.

A project has taken deep root to form an amateur athletic association in Lindsay, composed of the bicycle, cricket, football, baseball and lacrosse clubs. It is proposed to fit up the skating rink as a gymnasium and to provide bathing facilities, etc.

Poison in Tea.

In England tea has been discovered contaminated with lead, undoubtedly from being wrapped in packages containing lead. This is a matter which is being enquired into, inasmuch as lead is a dangerous poison and its presence in so many packages of tea may well cause grave public alarm. Mason & Co., grocers, have no confidence in package teas, as their English blends surpass all teas placed on the market.

OBITUARY.

The Late John Edmison.

On Thursday, April 26th, 1894, a highly respected resident and native of Smith township, Mr. John Edmison, passed away to his rest. He has been ill for some time from some chronic ailment of an undefined character. Mr. Edmison was of English extraction, his father having come from Northumberland county to Canada about seventy years ago. He settled in the township of Smith, being one of the earliest residents. He occupied the farm lot 11, in the third concession—the old homestead, upon which deceased was born, lived and died. Deceased was 57 years of age. About twenty-five years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Charlotte, daughter of the late Wm. Sherwood of North Monaghan, to which union three children were born—John H., at present attending Toronto University, and two daughters, living at home, who with the widow are left to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. It is a little remarkable that Mr. Edmison's death, though he was one of a family of ten, all married and with large families, was the first break in the family ranks of that generation. Deceased was a farmer and devoted his entire time to his calling. He did not seek position, though he has filled the office of school trustee and was a justice of the peace. In politics he was a staunch Liberal, taking a prominent part in active politics. His last work in this line was attending the Liberal convention of West Peterborough on April 18th. In religion he was a member of the Presbyterian Church and a member of St. Andrew's congregation, town. As a husband, father, friend, neighbour and citizen he possessed qualities of character and lived a life which commanded respect as wide as the large circle of his acquaintance. The funeral takes place from the family residence, the old Edmison homestead, on Saturday at two o'clock p.m., to the Little Lake cemetery.

It is only of late years that rheumatism has been treated as a blood disease. But that this is a correct theory is proved by the extraordinary success attending the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in this painful and very prevalent malady. It seldom fails of radical cure.

DIED.

EDMISON.—At the family residence, Lot 11, in the third concession of the township of Smith, on Thursday 26th of April, 1894, John Edmison, aged 57 years.

Funeral on Saturday afternoon, April 28th, at 2 p.m., from the late residence to Little Lake Cemetery.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

BOOTS AND SHOES

TO TAKE THE PLACE OF

A Queen's Birthday Demonstration!

The boy said: "This Shoe business is altogether too brisk," when his mother chastised him with a slipper. That's what other shoe dealers think of us, for we not only command the largest and finest shoe trade in Peterborough, but our popularity extends for a hundred miles around.

The loyal people of Peterborough needn't feel disappointed if the boys didn't get up a big demonstration for the Queen's Birthday. We have put on foot A THUNDERING RACKET IN BOOTS AND SHOES, and propose to keep it going until after the 24th, without asking the council or the merchants to guarantee us against loss.

We're always busy. No dull times with us. But, for the present, we have turned on enough extra power on our Electric Battery of Low Prices to "raise a Thundering Racket" in Boots and Shoes, and to keep it booming for over a month.

Last week we bought for 55c. on the dollar the large Wholesale Stock of a City Manufacturer who had stuck on the rock of hard times and was shivering in his boots for ready cash. This stock, we are determined, shall not remain long on our hands. GO, IT MUST! and that the public may see that there's nothing in the way of its going off fast enough, "we touch the button" and give you a few random shocks from OUR MAGNET OF OUTRIVALLED PRICES:—

"Not In It!"

Don't count us in any combination to raise the price of Groceries for Spong is NOT IN IT.

All stories to that effect are utterly and wickedly false, because Spong is NOT IN IT.

SPONG buys and sells for Cash, and intends to keep on doing so, and Spong can afford to be—NOT IN IT.

We give and take no credit and can sell just so much cheaper than stores that have to give and have to take credit; therefore Spong is positively NOT IN IT.

All attempts to rope SPONG into a combination to raise the price of Groceries will fail. SPONG goes on his own peculiar way same as ever, and will continue as the "Original Cheap Cash Store," and "Heavy Weight Grocer,"—and don't you forget it.

HIS PROMISE.

The wind came sighing in from the breast of the ocean, stretching away under the northern sky.

The steady wash of the surge as it came slowly in could not rouse the man who lay upon his face under the sheltering rocks.

He was not asleep, for at times his frame trembled, and now and again he half started up and looked across the sea, and then dropped his head again.

He was a young man and a sailor—he showed that in every line of his face and motion of his form—young and strong, with sunburned features and blue eyes, a man framed by nature to make the world better because he had done his part in it.

But there was great agony now in that brave young face as from time to time he lifted it.

There came a light step along the gravel, and he started up quickly as a girl walked down the beach—a fair young girl, with the sunny hair and glorious eyes which since the days of Eve had make slaves and thralls of the children of men.

And truly there was something in the manner of Millicent Durand which had given her rare power over the stronger nature of man, and this young sailor, lying there upon the sand, loved her with an unutterable affection—a depth of love it was hard for her to understand.

"Richard Dean," she cried, "why are you lying here alone?"

"Richard," she said again, "what is it? Why do you look at me so?"

"I don't know what to say to you, Milly," he answered slowly, "because I don't like to give you pain, but sometimes it seems to me that it would have been better, far better, if I had gone down with the schooner last autumn, instead of living to endure this great anguish."

"I don't know what you mean, dear Richard. You and I were always friends, and you know that I would bear almost anything sooner than give pain to those I love. What does it all mean?"

"I'll tell you, Milly, and try to tell it in such a way that you will understand that, if I suffer, I have no hatred for those who love me, although they have broken my heart. An hour ago I was on the point, sitting under the trees, and I heard—I couldn't help it, Milly—I heard what Harry Watson said to you."

A flush stole up into the white cheek of the girl as she turned away her head.

"I heard Harry tell you that he loved you, and I heard you say that you loved him, and then I stole away, not to hear more.

"I love you as man never loved woman in all time. I love you so well that for a moment it seemed to me that I hated Harry Watson, because he robbed me of my jewel.

"But I knew him to be good and true, a kind son, a tender brother, and he will make you happier perhaps than poor Dick Dean ever could."

"Oh, Dick," she said softly. "I never dreamed that you"——

She stopped suddenly.

"I have been to blame, and while you loved me as a sister loves a brother I fool that I was, thought the feeling deeper.

"There, there; I am a man, Milly; I'll fight it down in time; give me awhile to draw breath and understand my loss. When are you to be married?"

"After this trip," she said softly, "When the Hesperus comes back."

"And I am first mate of the Hesperus and Harry second. And we're been friends so long that—but it isn't possible that I could ever hate Harry Watson or do him any wrong, but I wish he were in another schooner."

"Dick," cried Milly suddenly, "you are going out with the man I love in the same ship."

"There will come an hour of dark temptation to you, a dreadful hour, when you will have to choose between good and evil.

"When that time comes and the tempter whispers in your ears, promise me, in the name of the love you bear me you will think of me."

He drew his breath hard.

"I'll try, Milly," he said quickly. "There's my hand on the bargain."

"And take this," she said, forcing a ring into his hand. "Take it, wear it on your finger night and day, and when you see it, remember that you are pledged to do right by Harry Watson."

He took the ring and looked at it in a strange, dazed way, and then thrust it forcibly upon his finger.

"I'll do it," he cried. "Heaven help me to keep this vow."

So the Hesperus sailed in a hour, and as they swept out between the piers Dick Dean saw Millicent Durand standing there, with her fingers on her lips in token of remembrance.

She was so engrossed with him that for a moment it seemed to the second mate looking on jealously that she had no eyes for him.

Harry Watson was a noble young man, but he had one vice, jealousy, and the last glance he gave Milly as the Hesperus swept on was one of anger.

"I'd like to ask you something, Dick Dean," he said, coming up to the first mate.

"Stand by to set the for's'l," replied Dick, who was a seamen from top to toe. "Cast off that tackle, lively. Heave hearty, men."

"But I want to speak"——

"I haven't got time to palaver now until we get the schooner under way, and even then it would be better to let the matter drop. Ready there in top! Let fall, sheet home and hoist away."

A few moments more and the good schooner was bowling along before a ten-knot breeze, with the wind over the quarter, her best point of sailing.

Then Dick walked slowly forward, and Harry came up to him again.

Dick turned upon him like a tiger.

"Now, look here, Harry," he said. "You and I have been good friends, but I know what you want to say, and you'd better not say it. I give you fair warning that it isn't safe."

"What are you going to do about it?" demanded Harry defiantly. "I'd have you know that I understand how you have sneaked and crawled to undermine me"—

A cry like that of a wild beast burst from the lips of the young sailor.

He gasped for breath, and for a moment it looked as if he would strike Harry, but he seemed to recollect himself, and turning on his heel he sprang to the companion and rushed into the cabin.

All through that trip these two, who had been dear friends, did their duty by the ship; but, working side by side, they never spoke.

So they worked in sullen silence, and after a month of absence the schooner was standing in for her own port, perhaps twenty miles away, in one of the darkest nights that ever fell upon the ocean, and with a gale blowing which threatened at any moment to take the sticks out of her.

The Captain lay in the cabin stunned by the fall of a block, and Dick worked the schooner. And there was a loud exultant ring in his voice as he gave the word of command.

Two miles out of port a rocky point ran out to sea—a point on which the bones of many a good craft had been laid.

But Harry was thinking of Milly—of Milly, who waited and watched for his coming, and he thought, with a pang at the heart, that perhaps after all he had wronged her and Dick.

Then came a great crash, an awful yell from the men, and the schooner was on the rocks and the great breakers beating against her with cruel force.

"Send up a rocket," cried Dick in a hoarse, strained voice. "Ha! They see us! There goes a light!"

And there flashed up on the beach a bonfire. In its light men were seen darting here and there, and then, pushed by eight strong rowers, the lifeboat darted out.

They brought up the injured captain and laid him on the deck, and he was the first they lowered into the boat as it came up.

The men went down one by one until only Harry and Dick remained upon the deck.

"Go!" commanded Dick. "She'll only bear one more, and it won't be Dick Dean. You suspected me of loving Milly. I did, longer than you think, more than you know. Get into the boat!"

"I will not!" cried Harry.

"She said, 'In that dreadful hour, when you have to choose between good and evil, think of me and do right.' Take him, men."

He caught Harry suddenly by the shoulders and dropped him into the boat.

It shot away instantly, for it could not have borne another without filling.

Next day they found him lying upon the shining sand with his head pillowed on one brawny arm and a smile upon his face, which only good men wear—men who die at peace with all the world.

And Harry Watson, coming with his children to the grave of his dead friend, speaks softly the story of that night when the Hesperus was wrecked on that point.—St. Paul Globe.

THE NEFF CASE.

The Hamilton Doctors are Puzzled About this Remarkable Cure—They Could not Cure this Case of Kidney Disease, but Dodd's Kidney Pills have Done so.

Hamilton, April 16.—The doctors of this city are showing great interest in a remarkable cure reported from Port Colborne. Harvey H. Neff, of the latter town, had an aggravated form of kidney disease, consequent on an attack of typhoid fever. Physicians could not cure the kidney disorder, but Mr. Neff has regained his health after taking five boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's was the first kidney remedy in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

S. P. SMITH, of Towanda, Pa., whose constitution was completely broken down, is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He writes:

"For eight years, I was, most of the time, a great sufferer from constipation, kidney trouble, and indigestion, so that my constitution seemed to be completely broken down. I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and, in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 129 pounds; I now can brag of 159 pounds, and was never in so good health. If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a traveling advertisement. I believe this preparation of Sarsaparilla to be the best in the market to-day."

YA-HONK!

"Ya-honk!" up north, out on a bay
The rocking flock of wild geese lay.
The gander, swimming round them all,
His voice—"Ya-honk! Ya-honk!"—let fall.
He looked above and saw the snow
Come rifting to the earth below.
He felt his wives were better far
Where warmer winds and waters are.
"Ya-honk! Ya-honk!"—they know him well;
His meaning none hath need to tell.
He counts them all with anxious eye,
Then southward, like the storm, they fly.
While ever and anon the note
Falls from his red and panting throat—
"Ya-honk!"

"Ya-honk! Ya-honk!"—his eye is red,
His bill is yellow, and his head
Is strong and broad; his breast is white,
The gray upon his back is light;
His neck is wondrous straight and long;
His wings are mighty—loud—and strong;
His voice is masculine and harsh;
It falls on forest, farm and marsh—
"Ya-honk!"

"Ya-honk? Ya-honk!"—'tis in the night
He takes his wild and weird flight.
He leads his wild wives thro' the sky
With winkless and unerring eye;
He guides them sure from dark to dawn;
He comes—"Ya-honk! Ya-honk!"—he's gone!
The listening hunter cries "Yo, ho!"
He, scornful, drops his voice below—
"Ya-honk!"

"Ya-honk!"—he leads them with that cry!
They, faithful, follow him or die.
"Ya-honk! Ya-honk! Ya-honk!"—he calls,
None faithless from his rude rank falls.
They urge their wings—the wind's outstript;
The cobwebs from the moon are whipped;
They fondly follow him who leads,
Who sows the swamps with sounding seeds—
"Ya-honk! Ya-honk!"

"Ya-honk! Ya-honk!"—to-night afar
They rest their wings where waters are.
They rock and rest in some still lake
Which they for months will not forsake,
But when the spring comes back again.
And people splash through April rain,
Go listen on the inland shore,
You'll hear them surging north once more,
But fear not, if you are alone,
To hear a voice fall like a stone—
"Ya-honk!"

Fear and Grape.

The Seckel among pears and the Delaware among grapes are especially liable to be injured by overbearing. Not only is the fruit made smaller, but it is liable to become diseased by mildew on the grape and scab on both leaf and fruit of the pear. These diseases are mainly due to weakness due to overbearing. The smaller the fruit, the greater proportion of its bulk is the seed, which is always most exhaustive of vitality. Thorough thinning of these varieties will insure the healthfulness of vine or tree and a larger, well developed fruit. The Seckel pear when small is one of the poorest in quality as when fully developed it is one of the best.

The Art of Letter-writing.

Among numerous other sins of which our untoward generation is guilty, it is undoubtedly suffering the fine art of letter writing to die out.

We hurry and flurry through life at too dashing a pace to avail ourselves of its rarest privileges. We are becoming too impatient even for the mechanical labor of writing. We are bitten by the electric tarantula, and we must waltz not walk. One of these days we expect to be able to think into the mental ear of our absent friends. At the very least we disdain to stop short of the special telephone, and we are planning to invest in an improved phonograph and persuade our correspondents to procure its duplicate. Then we shall express our sentiments freely and send the sheets on by pneumatic tube delivery. Go to! We cannot pause to write

Yet let us pause to think. Our days and weeks and years pass, but never come again; and psychographs are not on the market. We go and come, buy and sell, gain and lose, but if, with all our getting we fail to gain and hold true friendship, we are poor indeed. We need not delude ourselves with the notion that friendship will live and thrive on husks. Assurance, in one form or another, is its vital breath. The ninety-nine easy-going, nominal friendships may exist indefinitely after a fashion, being too automatic to require much sustenance. The hundredth, the rare and highly vitalized regard, exacts a ceaseless interchange with its object.

Friends, so they be friends indeed, have much in common; perhaps not in material things, but surely in spiritual interests. If they have no message for each other as days pass and lengthen to weeks, or if having a message they are not impelled to send it through intervening space, their association is a travesty on friendship.

Russia and Bulgaria.

A claim has been made on Bulgaria by Russia for 3,200,000 rubles for the expenses of the occupation of the country by the Russian army from 1878 to 1880. Bulgaria, which has already paid 2,000,000 rubles under this head, begins to find that the advantages of the occupation were by no means commensurate with the cost. She has not paid the claim, but has put in counter claims, more or less doubtful, which she has against Russia.

The government of the Czar, whose policy of patience and persistence generally succeeds in the long run, has made no reply to the counter claims, but is pressing for the settlement of her little bill. It will not be paid, and Russia will say nothing. But it will be another argument which she will hold in reserve against the day, yet distant, when she proceeds from words to action.

Virtues of Oil.

Many housekeepers know how hard door-latches often work, and sometimes even "with impetuous recoil and jarring sound." A drop or two of sweet oil on the tip of the forefinger touched to the face of the latch will immediately and effectually cure it. It is a good practice to pass around once a week to all the doors and oil the latches. One drop will completely oil half a dozen.—Jenuess Miller Magazine.

Photography.

A photographic camera has been specially devised for registering the distances of lightning flashes. The slide holding the plate is inclined at a considerable angle to the axis of the lens. Consequently, there will only be one point where the flash comes into focus, and from the position of this point upon the plate it is possible to determine the distance of the lightning flash.

MRS. JAS. CHASE.

Worst Kind of Scrofula.

DEAR SIRS.—I had an abscess on my breast and scrofula of the very worst kind, the doctors said. I got so weak that I could not walk around the house without taking hold of chairs to support me. The doctors treated me for three years, and at last said there was no hope for me. I asked if I might take B.B.B. and they said it would do me no harm, so I began to take it, and before three bottles were used I felt great benefit. I have now taken six bottles and am nearly well. I find Burdock Blood Bitters a grand blood purifier and very good for children as a spring medicine.

RODE WITH WILD NOLAN

A MEDAL THAT HE WON IN FOUR GREAT FIGHTS.

One of the Last Three Survivors of the Charge of the Six Hundred Dies in New York—How He Dashed "Into the Mouth Hell."

A veteran of the Crimea, a survivor of the glorious charge of the Light Brigade at Balaklava, William Hibbert by name, died in New York on Saturday, April 14, of pneumonia, after an illness of one week. Mr. Hibbert was a native of Nottingham, England, and reached his sixty-fifth birthday the day before his death.

HIS GLORIOUS MEDAL.

At the age of twenty, fired with the patriotic fervor that inspired all England at that time, Hibbert enlisted in the Royal Enniskillen Dragoons, serving with them throughout the Crimean campaign, and being discharged as a corporal at the expiration of his term of enlistment.

He came to this country over twenty years ago. He was twice married, and leaves a grown-up daughter, Mrs. Fanny Antill, by his first wife, at Nottingham. His second wife, whom he married in New York ten years ago, survives him.

Hibbert's last illness was very pathetic. On the day before his death, his birthday, he seemed a little better, and sat up in his shabby bed, propped by pillows. His worn eyes were pleased with the bright sunlight that had come at last, after days of storm. His mind wandered back over the exciting scenes of his life and he was glad to welcome a sympathetic visitor. All day long this stocking weaver and one of Balaklavas famous Six Hundred sat upright, propped with pillows, in his shabby bed. Every now and then he brushed back the disheveled hair, long and white, from his wan forehead, and mopped away the big drops of perspiration that gathered there.

Glory in Obscurity.

The plain place which Hibbert called home, the place where he had lain down to die, was the top floor of a building just below Thirty-first street, in Sixth avenue. For years he had gone up and down the narrow stairways there, to and from his work, stocking making. He was to the folks who saw him just a plain, white-bearded old man, with a keen eye and quiet ways. They never knew that that eye of the old man's had looked through smoke into the belching mouths of the Russian cannon at Balaklava, and that under his unpretentious old coat he wore the precious medal which told he was one of the seventy four heroes who came back out of that awful charge of the Light Brigade.

He never displayed the treasure which any soldier in Britain would give his arms for. He just went on knitting in Parker's shop on the floor below, and on Saturday night carrying his earnings, about $20 a week, up to his frugal wife. They used the hall landing for a sort of kitchen and washroom and general storehouse, and were pretty comfortable there. The only other member of the family was a particularly zealous pug dog, who always followed close at the old man's heel when he went on the street. The prints upon the wall are pictures of the famous charge, and pointing, with his shaky finger, he said, in a voice scarcely audible:

"There, ye see? There's where we was goin' in. That's Nolan—Capt. Nolan, him as brought the message that they had all the row about. History never found out who sent the message for us to charge them guns, but Lucan never sent it. Everybody always thought Raglan sent it to Cardigan; that was his brother-in-law. Oh!" and old Hibbert sighed and shook his head, "it was a pity, a sinful, terrible thing. I can remember. It is as plain as if I saw it now, and Nolan rode up and gave the order.

"Cardigan turned to him and cried: 'Nolan, who sent that order?' No answer. Then he asked again: 'Who sent that order?' But there was no answer. Third time he asked him, and all the answer Nolan made was—he pointin' to the breastworks: 'There's the enemy. Go!' Then he dashed on.

"Cardigan just threw back his head and said, 'Well, here's the last.' For an hour and a half after that nobody knew what was happening, except that we was runnin' right into hell, as the poem said. Three miles away. It looked like a lifetime journey, and the men began to fall away as the shells yelled an' tore among us. Every time one toppled off his horse around me, I thought I was goin' next. The man, who expected to come out of that would have been crazy. The four men next me, in front, behind and on both sides were killed, and as I spurred on alone I saw a shell coming straight towards me, straight, straight. 'Hibbert, ye're gone,' said I. But I give just one jab o' the spur into that mare, and she leapt like a shot. She swerved, I should think, a dozen feet, and the shell took her nigh hind leg. I went tumbling. When I picked myself up there was a horse without any rider. I got into the saddle, and went on with the rush. It was terrible."

As the old man went on with his story his pale face took on color, and his wife, tears in her eyes, came over and said, "Please don't let him talk so much."

"Be quiet," said the veteran, "I'll be through in a minute. Well, sir, as I said, I spurred this big horse on, and I passed Capt. Williams.

"'Hello, Bill,' says he, 'where's that mare o' yourn?'

"'Gone,' says I. "A shell struck her. I found this fellow runnin' loose.'

"The Captain looked at me, and says, 'Bill, if I get back out o' this alive you'll have a special mention for that.' That was the last I saw of him.

"Well, when we got up to about three hundred yards of the works, they couldn't train the guns on us, and we just fought the Russians back an' cut 'em down an' spiked the guns. That was what we went for ye see. We all 'had little spikin' mallets," and as he said this the old fellow's hand intuitively sought his belt, but there was no mallet there, nothing save the thick plaid shawl which was pinned tight about him.

"There," he said, after coughing feebly, "there's the picture of the comin' back. Ye can see it was awful, only seventy-four come out. An' Nolan was the first that had been killed. I saw his body. The ball had cut straight through his chest. That's a good picture of him up there, a dashin' devil of a chap, an' the wildest Irishman an' the best soldier that ever lived. An' that other picture, that's Cardigan."

Close beside the bed lay the old soldier's waistcoat. He reached out and drew it to him, then tenderly unfastened from the breast of it the heavy silver trophy which told the story of the share he had borne in the struggles of Britain's arms in the horrors of the Crimea. Sebastopol, Inkerman, Alma and Balaklava were the fateful, glorious names upon the silver crossbars. The lettering and chasing had worn away with the years that the old man had carried the Queen's emblem next to his heart. But engraved around the edge of the medallion were these words: "Wm. Hibbert, 48th R. I. Dragoons."

When he went back to England Hibbert left the army and settled down to the old stocking trade which he had learned as 'prentice. Then he married. After his wife died he commuted his pension, and, taking what he could get in a lump sum, came to America. For fifteen years he kept at the steady grind in Parker's shop, paying his debts promptly, they say, his word always as good as his bond, living manly, as a man should live who rode behind Wild Nolan and bore away from the bloody ramparts of Balaklava the brief boon of life and a fame that will outlast war.

"Oh, many a man, sir," said the old soldier, "has looked at that badge and passed it by. They didn't know what it meant. But I know. That's all."

His lips and the weak half-whispering voice trembled, and the tears stood in his fine old blue eyes as he stroked the worn medal softly with one white hand.

"When the Virginia regiments were up here some of the gentlemen saw me when I went into a public-house to get a bit o' beer. An' they saw this on my vest, and they took me and introduced me to the General, and his name was Lee, and he said it was the proudest moment of his life when he shook hands wi' me; an' I give him me likeness, an' he said as how every meeting they had they was always for havin' that piece spoke about the charge, an' always after this, w'en it was spoke, they'd give three roarin' cheers.

"Then I went aboard the Blake, too, and I got to know Admiral Hawkins. 'E asked my likeness, too"—the old man, with his soft Nottingham accent, said "lahkness." "They wanted me to go back to England, but it's too late now. There's only three left of the seventy-four, sir. Ah'm fahncyin' 't'll be only two before I see you again, sir. Thank ye for good wishes, though."

The veteran, courtly and gentle, waved his weak hand in farewell, and the pug dog sprang to the bed and pressed close to Hibbert's pallid, seamed old face as it fell back upon the pillow.

A Queer Case From South Kensington.

An extraordinary affair, says the Pall Mall Gazette, occurred in South Kensington last week. A nurse was wheeling a perambulator containing a young child along Gloucester Road, about noon, when suddenly a well-dressed man, who said he was the father of the baby, carried it to another nurse who was waiting in a four-wheeler hard by The first nurse raised a hue and cry, and the cab was followed until a sergeant and a constable compelled the driver to pull up. It was then ascertained the child was actually with its father, but the officers decided to accompany the cab to Weymouth street, W., whither it was bound. From thence the child, with the nurse, was taken by the police to Marylebone Lane police station, and detained pending the arrival of the mother, who, it appears, is the daughter of Sir Donald Stuart, Bart. On hearing the parties, the inspector of police on duty ordered delivery of the child to the mother, despite the protests of the father, who is Mr. S. O'Neil Murphy, of the New Orleans Club.

A FINE MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT

Presented by the Pupils of the Congregation de Notre Dame—A Good Exposition of Musical Proficiency—The Programme — Complimentary Remarks—A Prize Presentation.

Last evening a very interesting musical entertainment was presented by the musical pupils of the Convent Congregation de Notre Dame in the form of a musical review. The programme, of progressive excellence, was absolutely enjoyable, besides furnishing practical evidence of the excellence and thorough character of the musical instruction imparted by the good sisters of the musical staff.

The occasion was honoured by the presence of His Lordship Bishop O'Connor and the cathedral clergy—Ven. Archdeacon Casey, and Rev. Fathers Scollard, O'Connel and Collins. The handsome little music hall was well filled with the parents and friends of pupils and the friends of the institution. The following is the programme presented :—

Entree—Grand Chorus—"Our Hearts are Light" ..... Rossini
Accompanied by M. Muncaster, H. Manson, S. Kelly, G. Lawrence, M. O'Brien, A. Manson, F. Coughlin, V. Clancy.
"Skipping Redowa" .....
M. Blanchard, L. LeGros, K. Arsenault, M. O'Brien.
"The Prettiest Little Song of All" .....
Solos by K. Overend, J. Lynch.
Rondo .....
R. Nimmo, H. Manson, G. Muncaster, E. Stanger.
Vocal Solo—"Home Rule" .....
J. Riley.
"Dancing of the Sprites" .....
J. Morrow, J. Riley, E. Fitzgerald, M. Muncaster.
Vocal Solo—"Esmeralda" .....
V. Belleghem.
"Starlight Reverie" .....
M. Henderson, L. Simons, L. Pearse, A. Sullivan.
Vocal Solo—"Land of the Leal" .....
A. F. McCollum.
"Last Rose of Summer" .....
J. Blanchard, D. Jackson, B. Pollock, A. Doris.
Grand Chorus—"The Harp of Tara" .....
"Moonlight on the Hudson" .....
M. Overend, F. Nimmo, S. Stanton, N. Muncaster.
Vocal Solo—"The Angel's Call" .....
A. Simons.
"Spinnlied" ..... Litolff
B. Primeau, M. Pollock, V. Belleghem.
Vocal Solo—"Answered" .....
M. Dineen.
"Old Black Joe," (pianoforte) ..... Gimbel
V. Belleghem.
"Grande Valse di Canto," (vocal solo) .....
L. Jackson.
"Harmonious Blacksmith" ..... Handel
M. Pollock.
"Home, Sweet Home" ..... Mazurette
B. Primeau.
Finale—Solos and Chorus—"God Bless the Friends we Love" .....
Solos by M. Overend and B. Primeau.

While it is obviously impossible to make any special reference to the work of one of any of the contributors to the programme, it may be mentioned that some of the instrumental and vocal numbers would bear high praise, on their merits. A very pleasant unity of time marked the concerted instrumental selections, and some of the solo selections displayed very proficient execution, combined with just expression. Several of the vocal numbers were given with a correctness of method and sympathy that distinguished them as deserving of great praise.

COMPLIMENTARY REMARKS.

On the conclusion of the programme, His Lordship, on behalf of those present, thanked the sisters and pupils for the very pleasant evening's entertainment they had provided — another proof, as he pointed out, of the great care bestowed by the good sisters upon, especially, the musical education of their pupils, and also of the attention given by the pupils to their studies. They showed great progress since the last review. The accomplishments acquired would enable the pupils in after-life to make home happy and brighten the social gathering.

Ven. Archdeacon Casey endorsed the laudatory remarks of the bishop and referred to the high musical reputation Peterborough enjoyed, a circumstance he attributed to the fact that for years past the good sisters had been imparting sound and practical musical knowledge. Reference was made to the high moral training that accompained their musical education, and pointed out the benefits of music in making home attractive and neutralizing the allurements of the outside world, where the influences were not always for good.

A PLEASANT PRESENTATION.

Dr. Brennan, chairman of the Separate School Board, endorsed the encomiums of the previous speakers, and made some admirable remarks upon the power of music and its association with history. He then stated that a gentleman (but his native modesty prevented him saying that it was himself) had offered a prize for the best essay on a historical subject. This prize had been worthily won by Miss Kate Macpherson, who came forward and was presented with a finely bound volume of the Marquis of Lorne's Administration in Canada.

The assemblage then dispersed, all much delighted with the evening's musical treat.

A FIFTH VERSION ATTEMPTED.

The deputy registrar is at it again. Yesterday evening a debate arose in the Legislature in Toronto over a telegram from Mr. Grundy, deputy registrar of Peterborough, to Chairman Awrey of the Public Accounts Committee. On Wednesday last, when the committee had decided to close up its work for the session, Mr. Grundy telegraphed asking to be again examined on the subjects on which contradictory evidence had been given. Mr. Awrey replied that it would be impossible during the present session. On the previous day Dr. Mallory, registrar of East Northumberland, had telegraphed Mr. Awrey asking that certain witnesses be examined in refutation of the evidence given by his ex-employees. Although there was then one day for receiving evidence, Mr. Awrey replied that the committee could not possibly examine the witnesses. Dr. Willougby complained that the chairman should have consulted the committee, but as he treated Registrar Mallory and Deputy Grundy alike there was no ground for a charge of partiality. In fact, Dr. Mallory's request had precedence, having been made one day earlier than that of Mr. Grundy. As the work of the committee was practically completed there was no other course open to the chairman.

RAILWAY NOTES.

What is Going on in Local Railway Circles—W. R. Callaway in Town.

The G. T. R. shipped about 60 navvies out to the gravel pit just beyond Lindsay for the summer last night. The gravel will be used for local ballasting.

The Grand Trunk gravel pit about five miles on the other side of the town will be re-opened for the season in the course of a week or so. Fifty or sixty men will find work there for the summer months.

Asst. Supt. Webster, of the Grand Trunk, is expected in town daily on a tour of inspection.

The warehouses of Mr. John J. McBain, at the G. T. R., are being brightened up with a coat of brilliant red paint.

Mr. W. R. Callaway, District Passenger Agent of the C.P.R., has been in town for the last couple of days and as a result of his visit the company's ticket office on George and Charlotte streets will be considerably improved in appearance. Mr. T. E. Boddy, the up-town agent, thought his quarters were looking a trifle dingy and wrote Mr. Callaway to stop off next time he was going through Peterborough.

The three alcoves on the side of the ticket office have been filled in with sign boards, which will be painted and neatly lettered. The present signs will also be repainted and the wood-work around the doors and windows will be brightened up with the paint brush. Bronze lettering for the windows has also been promised. The interior of the office will be painted and grained and the ceilings kalsominced.

Seeing Sovereigns.

Wonderful as are the parts which a modern reporter will play, in order that newspaper readers may gratify their curiosity, he never did anything bolder than the part a German violinist played to gratify his personal curiosity.

In 1808, Napoleon held, at Erfurt, the Congress of Princes. In the evenings the Emperor amused his guests with music and a drama played by a French troupe brought from Paris. Spohl, the violinist, was intensely curious to see this assemblage of royalties, and betook himself to Erfurt, thinking he might wriggle himself into some corner of the house. He discovered, however, that the public were excluded, blue blood alone being allowed to enter. The fact that the whole house was reserved for sovereigns and their suites would have discouraged a less determined man. But Spohl was persistent. Having a friend who was second horn player in the orchestra, he persuaded him to feign illness, and to ask the bandmaster to allow his friend, the violinist, to take his place.

The request was granted, and Spohl set himself to work to acquire his friend's part. On taking up the horn, he discovered that he had set himself a difficult task. It took him a day and a half to produce the simple notes. On the evening of the performance, the muscles of his face were strained and stiff, his lips swollen and black and he could hardly get through his part, which fortunately was not very elaborate.

One thought cheered Spohl as he took his seat in the orchestra, he would enjoy a fine view of the princes, and especially of Napoleon, who was to sit in the centre stall of the first row. But to his dismay he learned that the Emperor had issued a formal order directing the musicians to play with their backs to the audience, and under no circumstances to turn their heads. The violinist was equal to the emergency. Pulling out a pocket-mirror, he placed it before him in a proper position, and thus obtained an excellent view of the audience of sovereigns.

Composition of Our Body.

The table shows thirteen elements in the chemical composition of a human being—oxygen, hydrogen, carbon, nitrogen, phosphorus, calcium, sulphur, chlorine, salt, iron, potassium, magnesium and silica. The weight of these several gases and solids varies with the size of the man. In the man of the average of 154 pounds, there will be 111 pounds of oxygen, the other elements scaling down to only two grains, the last in the table being silica.

The following, which will make an excellent companion piece to the article reviewed above, is from the pen of Justus Liebig, the greatest chemist of the century: "Science has demonstrated the fact that man, the being which performs the greatest wonders, is formed of condensed air solidified and liquid gases, that he lives upon condensed, as well as upon uncondensed air, and that by means of the same mysterious agent he moves or causes to be moved the heaviest weights with the velocity of the wind.

"But the strangest part of the matter is that thousands and millions of these tabernacles of condensed air are going on two legs, destroying other forms of condensed air which they may need to build up their own wasted tissues, or for shelter or clothing, or, on account of their egotism and fancied power, destroying each other in pitched battles, using implements which are but another form of condensed air, the material of which they themselves are formed or composed.

"Chemistry supplies the clearest proof that, so far as concerns this, the ultimate and most minute composition and structure, some of which are so infinitesimal as to be beyond the comprehension of our senses, man is, to all appearances, at least, composed of materials identified with those which compose the structural being of the ox or dog, or even the lowest animal in the scale of creation."

CUT TO THE BONE

Mantles and Capes.

Tell your friends, tell your neighbours, tell even your enemies—about our WONDERFUL SALE now going on.

Every new Mantle, every new Cape, every new Wrap—must go—hence and forthwith—and "stand not upon the order of going,"—but go at once.

To cut once—and cut deeply—is better than to hack away, little by little—so this blow is to the bone. Read how facts and figures go hand-in-hand:—

Our $15 00 Mantle.....	goes for	$11	65
Our 13 00 Mantles & Capes	"	9	50
Our 11 00	"	8	40
Our 8 75	"	6	25
Our 8 00	"	5	75
Our 6 75	"	5	25
Our 4 00	"	3	00

We sold yesterday a $12.50 Mantle, handsomely embroidered, full sleeves, for $4.00.

There's no likelihood that the pick of Paris and Berlin Mantles will ever again be so absurdly low. Not a coat in the lot but is to-day worth twice or may be thrice times the price.

Dress Goods.

Dress Goods are the vertebræ of our dry goods stock. As the marrow to the vertebræ, so are our MATCHLESS VALUES. Bettering our best is our effort all the time.

1894 stands pre-eminent for sales and attractive bargains in Dress Goods. The splendid success of our sales justifies our policy of marvelously low prices during the pinching hard times, and our new scale of prices is drawing the crowds:—

20 pieces 48 inch Serge, all colours, worth 50c., for 40c.

10 pieces 40 inch Gray and Fawn Debieges, worth 60c., for 35c.

6 pieces 46 inch Satin Cloth, imported to sell at 80c., now 60c.

10 pieces Coloured Cashmeres, worth 50c., for 35c.

6 pieces Coloured Diagonal Serge, worth 40c., sale price 25c.

12 pieces Coloured Serge, all wool at 25c

10 pieces Printed All Wool Delaines, 30 to 36 inches, worth from 40c. to 60c., for 25c.

This is a time for few words. We put all our eloquence into prices and qualities.

"It's Fair's Way."

Customers are heard to say:—"Fair's getting a great run on Carpets." Carpet cutting is certainly more rapid than we expected. This is just the way we want it. We deal in Rich Carpets and Rugs. The fourth floor is loaded with Floor Coverings. We are leaders in prices and new colourings. Prices cut to the bone.

April and May are the months for carpet cleaning. Perhaps your carpet is worn out. Sweeping won't help it. A carpet bought now will save you 20 per cent. "It's Fair's Way."

MILLINERY STIR.

Just now there's more interest than usual going on in our Millinery Department. There is a marked increase in sales, and our new revised prices seems to "startle the oldest inhabitant." The special attractions in our Millinery Parlours are the new designs in Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets for Ladies, Children's Hats, &c. Novelties in beautiful soft roses with foliage in all colours, and other flowers, together with New Ribbons, Feathers and Trimmings.

But the popular prices all round is what is doing the effective selling of the season, and nobody accuses us of charging too much.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

NO HOUSE BUYS BETTER.
NO HOUSE SELLS LOWER.

The rush is now on. Join the crowd.

Gloves

.. AND ..

Hosiery.

The time of year is now upon us when we begin to think of new Gloves and Hosiery. We would like to call your attention to our magnificent stock fresh from the German factories. There are several points about our Gloves we want you to notice. First, by buying from a factory direct they are at bottom prices, and having them made to order we pay particular attention to the cut and have the fingers made to fit the hand, which you will have noticed is often not the case in ordinary goods; also our colours were selected to match the shades of dress goods being worn this season, and every pair is properly sized the same as Kid Gloves. A full range of Lisle Thread Taffata Gloves and Silk in black and colours. We have one job line we are clearing at 25c., worth from 30 to 50c.

In Hosiery there is a growing demand for coloured goods. We have imported and placed in stock a choice range of all the best shades made extra long, perfectly fast dyes. Also the new striped goods which are coming in again. In Black Cotton we commence them at 5c. a pair. They are shaped and seamless and indestructible fast dye. A job line of Black Cashmere in ribbed and plain at 21c. for Children's and 26c. for Ladies. These goods are less than cost of manufacture but we bought them at a sacrifice and are giving our customers the benefit.

Owing to the fact that we were likely to have a close season on account of the low prices and scarcity of money we bought lightly and consequently have no large lots of our own to sacrifice, and are open to secure bargains from wholesale houses who are overstocked and can therefore afford to offer new goods at much closer prices than usual.

See the special lines we will have ready for our bargain day Wednesday, May 2nd. Wool Delaines at 15, 20, 25 and 28.

Gingham, 1 yard wide, good patterns for Aprons, only 8½c.

Armure Dress Cloth, summer shades, at 27c., worth 60c.

Self Coloured Striped Dress Goods, only 27c., regular price 50c.

Black Henrietta, 45 inches wide, fine finish, good weight, at 44c. a yard, regular price 70c.

MANHOOD FRANCHISE

Hon. Mr. Ross' Registration Bill Creates a Protracted Discussion.

MR. MEREDITH'S AMENDMENTS

Bill to Exempt Gas Fixtures Withdrawn—Sir Oliver's Bill to Facilitate the Local Administration of Justice Carried — Ship Canal Bill.

TORONTO, April 28.—Mr. Joseph Tait moved the House into committee yesterday on the bill respecting the Toronto Street Railway Company with regard to the running of Sunday cars.

Hon. Mr. Gibson favored the adoption of Mr. Meredith's suggestion to make the lists as correct as possible and moved an amendment providing that there might be a new registration of manhood franchise voters prior to the taking of the vote, the expense to be borne by the parties concerned. The amendment was agreed to and the bill was reported.

Georgian Bay Ship Canal.

Mr. Gilmour moved the House back into committee on the bill to incorporate the Georgian Bay Ship Canal and Power Aqueduct Company.

Hon. Mr. Fraser drew attention to the fact that the bill authorized the issue of stock to the amount of sixty-five millions. This was enormous power to grant to a company, and it was most unusual. He moved to amend the bill by providing that the amount of stock should be twenty millions. The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. Fraser then proposed an amendment providing that the power of expropriation with respect to the power aqueduct should not be exercised in any city, town or village, except with the consent of the municipality, but in case of a refusal to grant such power, the right to appeal to the Lieutenant-Governor in council might be. This was also agreed to.

Mr. Clarke's amendment providing that before the company entered into any contract with municipalities, plans and surveys must be filed with the Commissioner of Crown Lands, was defeated.

Exemption of Gas Fixtures.

Mr. O'Connor's bill for the exemption of gas pipes and wires ot companies, came up for third reading. Mr. Balfour moved to refer the bill to the committee of the whole House in order to add an amendment declaring that the law should remain as it stood, at present, but that a municipality through a by-law might avail itself of the provisions of the bill. The bill was allowed to stand.

The bill to grant the optional ballot for separate school elections was passed through committee without objection, and reported with amendments.

Afternoon Session.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt's bill to make further provision respecting the voters' lists was read a third time.

Local Administration of Justice.

On the motion for the third reading of the bill to facilitate the local administration of justice in certain cases, Mr. Meredith moved that the bill be referred back to committee of the whole with instructions to amend the same so as to extend the provisions of the bill to all cases where the proceedings were begun and were carried on at the city of Ottawa or London, as the case may be, and the solicitor for the party moving resides there. The House divided and the motion was defeated by 40 to 25.

Dr. Gilmour's bill to incorporate the Georgian Bay Ship Canal and Power Aqueduct Company was read a third time. An amendment by Mr. Clarke was defeated on a division of 45 to 24.

O'Connor's Bill Withdrawn.

On the motion for the third reading of the bill to exempt gas fixtures, Mr. Balfour proposed an amendment that the bill should not be operative in any municipality of the province until given effect to by by-law in the city council, except where contracts existed between the municipality and gas, electric, water or telephone companies. On the termination of such contracts the municipality might by by-law put the law into operation. The House divided and the amendment carried by 34 to 32.

The spirit of the bill being practically destroyed by this amendment the promoters withdrew it.

Third Readings.

The following bills were read a third time: To amend the Act providing against frauds in the supplying of milk to cheese or butter manufactories—Mr. Bush. To amend the Separate School Act—Mr. Conmee. To amend the Act to regulate travelling on public highways and bridges—Mr. Harty. To amend the Ontario Election Act—Mr. Tait.

Bonus to Iron Industry.

Hon. Mr. Hardy moved the House into committee on the resolution to set apart $125,000 in order to provide for payment of a bonus equivalent to $1 a ton on iron, ore mixed and smelted, the sum paid not to exceed $25,000 a year for a period of five years.

Mr. Meredith objected to any such resolution being considered until the scheme under which the money was being voted had been explained to the House.

Hon. Mr. Hardy replied that regulations would be framed and submitted to the House for adoption. The regulations would have to be of an elaborate character, and would take some time to make out. He agreed to make an addition to the resolution providing that no money should be paid until regulations had been drawn up and approved by the House.

Mr. Meredith asked what would be done in case there were more than 25,000 tons produced any year. Hon. Mr. Hardy replied in that case the judgment would be made on a pro rata basis.

The amendment was declared carried on division.

Officers' Fees.

Hon. Mr. Ross' bill respecting the fees to certain public officials was allowed to go through the committee. Mr. Meredith intimated that on the motion for third reading he would place on record the Oppositions' view regarding the bill.

Manhood Franchise Voters.

Hon. Mr. Ross moved the House in committee on the bill to provide for the registration of manhood franchise voters.

The bill created a good deal of discussion lasting through the afternoon and until the House adjourned.

Mr. Meredith moved an amendment to the bill, the effect of which was to make the present list which has been prepared and framed in the presence of both parties, prima facie evidence of the right of the voter to be registered. If it transpired that those parties were not qualified to vote, the names might be stricken off.

The amendment was lost by 32 to 20.

Mr. Meredith moved, as an amendment to the first clause of the bill, that where it was shown to the satisfaction of the registrar that a person claiming to be registered under the provisions of the Act was prevented by illness, absence from the city, or other sufficient cause from appearing in person to be registered, his personal attendance might be dispensed with, and on proof of the other necessary qualifications entitling him to be registered, he should be registered.

The chairman of the committee, Mr. Stratton, ruled the amendment out of order.

The Speaker ruled otherwise, and the amendment was put, being defeated by 41 to 30.

This clause came in for special consideration:

The taking by an agent, or at his request, of the photograph of any applicant for registration by means of what is known as the instantaneous process, or by any similar method, shall not be deemed an interruption of the proceedings or a not permissible precaution.

On the motion to report progress, Mr. Meredith made a long statement of his views with regard to the bill.

Sir Oliver Mowat replied with the answer that the Government's desire was to purge the lists of thousands of names that wrongfully appeared upon them.

The committee reported progress and the House adjourned until Monday afternoon.

Supplementary Estimates.

The supplementary estimates were brought down yesterday. The total sum asked is $198,957, which includes a sum of $3,500 balance of accounts due in connection with the Ontario exhibit at the World's Fair, and a sum of $1,500 stated to be the balance of Architect Waite's fees in connection with the new Parliament buildings. There are also sums aggregating $23,100 for grants in connection with the development of the mining industry in various ways, and the grant of $1,500 to the sufferers from the Huntsville fire is also included.

SUICIDE AT THE FALLS.

A Buffalo Woman Ends Her Life in the American Rapids.

NIAGARA Falls, Ont., April 28.—Mrs. Mary Finnigan, of Buffalo, 50 years of age, committed suicide here by jumping into the American rapids from Willow Island about a mile from the falls. Her body was carried down to a point near the Cataract house, where, by a peculiar turn, it swung into an eddy and a portion of her dress caught firmly on to some bolts that projected from a submerged cribbing about twenty-five feet from the shore.

Jack McCloy, the guide, made a most daring journey with a rope around his waist and reached the woman, but she was dead.

Big Hotel Burned.

SARANAC LAKE, N.Y., April 28.—Another Adirondack hotel, making the third within ten days, has gone up in smoke with a big loss. This time it is the Mountain View hotel at Bloomingdale, which was filled with city guests. The fire started in the kitchen about noon and a fierce wind fanned the flames. A prompt alarm was given in each room and the guests were enabled to save all their effects. The hotel is a total loss and was owned by a man named Wardner. Eighteen cottages caught fire, but none were destroyed. Estimated loss, $3,000.

Beat the Railroad Record.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The hotel special from Jacksonville, on the Florida Central and Peninsular road, arrived in Jersey City, making the run of 1,000 miles in 24 hours and 27 minutes and beating all previous records by nearly six hours. The actual running time of the train was 22 hours and 30 minutes, one hour and 47 minutes having been lost by stops for water and exchanging engines. It consisted of six coaches and baggage car and carried 248 passengers.

Whitewayites Will Petition.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., April 28.—The Whiteway leaders in St. Johns, at a caucus, decided to set afoot petitions in this city and all over the island for presentation to the Governor and Imperial Ministry demanding dissolution of the Legislature, meeting on Monday or Tuesday to pass a resolution with the same object. Neither party finally decided on candidates for Bay de Verde. The Government met last night to make final arrangements.

Serious Shooting Accident.

OSHAWA, April 28.—A serious shooting accident happened at the lake here yesterday. Arthur Burnham, son of Judge Burnham, Whitby, with two companions, were out on the lake shooting gulls. While young Burnham was drawing the gun towards him in some way it was exploded, the whole charge taking effect in the thigh of his left leg, making a very ugly and serious wound. It is thought he will recover.

BRITISH CABLE NEWS

Provisions of the Welsh Disestablishment Bill Outlined.

SCOTCH LOCAL GOVERNMENT

The Bill Introduced in the Commons by Sir George Trevelyan—The London Anarchists—Musson vs. The Canada Atlantic Appeal Case.

LONDON, April 28.—Mr. Asquith's remarks in introducing the Welsh disestablishment bill referred to the fact that twelve parishes in English dioceses would be disendowed and disestablished, but on the other hand fourteen Welsh parishes in the diocese of St. Asaph would be transferred to some English dioceses. The treatment of a number of boundary parishes involved delicate questions, and would be considered, therefore, by special commissioners. If the bill should be passed in the present year it would become effective on January 1, 1896. All public and private rights in patronage would then become extinct. No Welsh bishops would sit in the House of Lords. Ecclesiastical law in Wales would cease and the courts would be deprived of their power. Existing doctrines and ordinances would continue, although without force of law. The power to hold synods would be preserved, and the church would be empowered to appoint a body to hold property in its behalf. And the Government proposed to appoint three permanent commissioners to carry out the provisions of the bill.

Musson vs. The Canada Atlantic.

LONDON, April 28.—The appeal from the judgment of the Quebec Court of Queen's Bench in the case of Musson vs. The Canada Atlantic Railway, has been decided by the Privy Council, dismissing the appeal with costs. The case arose out of a dispute about the indemnity for depreciation in value of certain property belonging to the late Mr. Wm. Norris, adjoining the railway track at Coteau Landing. Two arbitrators had awarded $8,000, while the third was in favor of awarding $9,750. Mr. Justice Taschereau, on an appeal to the Superior Court, had increased the majority award to $6,000. The railway company appealed to the Court of Queen's Bench with the result that that tribunal restored the award of $8,000. The Privy Council has now confirmed that award as above.

Scotch Local Government Bill.

LONDON, April 28.—In the House of Commons the Scotch Local Government bill was introduced by Sir George Trevelyan, Secretary for Scotland. The Government accepted an amendment to the bill offered by Mr. Renshaw, Conservative, which provides for the selection of fifteen non-Scotch members of the committee, the aim being to create a committee representing as closely as possible the balance of the parties of the whole House. Mr. Trevelyan's motion to include all the Scotch members in the committee was adopted with Renshaw's amendment by a vote of 232 to 207.

London Anarchists Committed.

LONDON, April 28.—The anarchists, Francis Polti and Giuseppe Farnara, alias Emile Carnot, were again arraigned in the Bow street police court and committed for trial. A friend of Polti named Piassi was put in the witness box, and stated that Polti spent his leisure hours in filling copybooks with anarchist maxims taken from an anarchist paper printed in New York. Experts testified that the powders found in Polti's lodging were of the most powerful and dangerous of that class of explosives.

NOW ON IN EARNEST.

All Points on the Great Northern Railway West of St. Paul Tied Up.

ST. PAUL, April 28.—Precisely at noon the Great Northern strike went into effect at St. Paul and Minneapolis and at all points on the line from this city to the coast. The Eastern Minnesota is also involved. Within five minutes after the committee had arrived at the decision to call all the men out the order had been sent out by President Debs and the fight is now on in the dead earnest. The company claims that it has sufficient men now in its service who will remain at work while the American Railway Union asserts just the contrary.

"The committee takes the ground," said Mr. Debs in an interview, "that having appealed against a wrong that was inflicted upon them the men should not be asked to arbitrate. A positive and definite injustice has been done them and they ask to have this rectified. It does not admit of arbitration."

THE COAL MINERS' STRIKE.

President McBride Estimates That Over 152,000 Men Are Now Out.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 28.—The following estimate of the number of miners now out on the strike given out by President McBride yesterday, shows that the miners are gaining strength: Alabama, 8,000; Tennessee and Kentucky, 6,000; Indiana, 5,000; Ohio, 26,000; West Virginia, 4,500; Illinois, 28,000; Iowa, 1,300; Indian Territory, 2,000; Missouri, 4,500; Pennsylvania, 65,000; Colorado, 1,500; Michigan, 800. Total, 152,000.

In this estimate McBride does not include the accessions in the Indian Block field and in Illinois. The principal addition is made in Pennsylvania, where he estimates 65,000 men are now idle.

I say, Tom, my wife got a bar of Wright's Coal Tar Soap last week; she says it is the best she ever used for washing. I tried it in my bath on Saturday night and I tell you it beats them all for a toilet soap. You just try it.

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair had been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually "topped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterward, using in all about a quater of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seem to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1894.

BRILLIANT FINANCING.

The Ontario Opposition have developed a financial shrewdness which, upon mature consideration, gives them superior claims for the office they have been so vainly struggling for over twenty years. The Brockville Recorder is in possession of information that shows what great heads the Opposition possess. Our contemporary says:

The Recorder is in possession of a typewritten letter from this freak, who, however, neglects to sign his name, through the address is given. It is dated Sunnybank, Dovercourt Road, Toronto, April 19th, 1894, and was sent to a Brockville firm whose specialty is the manufacture of pills. It starts out by the assertion that the writer is getting up a very interesting election pamphlet (In the Opposition interests) the object of which is to help out of office the present incapable occupants, referring, of course, to Sir Oliver's Government. After showing how badly they have managed the affairs of the province generally, the inventor of this double back action, self-supporting campaign nickel-in-the-slot machine, says: "There will also be many other election matters, fees, nepotism, etc., election cartoons (pictures, so to speak,) twenty-five or fifty pages, one hundred pages of printed matter, of which a synopsis is given, including mineral development policy, that should have been, and which must come; immigration policy, the lethargy that has been, and the vigor that must be; bombast book-keeping of Provincial Government shown up, etc., etc." In fact, anything you want in the way of fault-finding with honest administration will be found in the pages of the wonderful document to be printed—at the expense of the advertisers.

Now comes in the financeering part of the scheme, and the plan of how to increase their income and at the same time help Mr. Meredith and his friends, is gradually opened up to the advertisers who are supposed to be waiting about anxious to jump at any fake that may be offered them. Fifty pages are to be devoted to advertising, and the expense of the entire issue of 200,000 copies and mailing of the same (less those to be mailed to interested parties) will be borne by the advertisers. No one is to make any profit but the bloated printer. It is asserted that this scheme will enable the advertiser to place his pills very cheaply before the entire population of the province. Even the long suffering Tory candidate is to be made to contribute to the distribution of the advertisements, for the genius of Sunnybank, Dovercourt Road, adds that "To further reduce expense, candidates in the field, in sympathy with this pamphlet, will be asked to mail and pay the postage to their constituents." It is thought that the candidates will prove such strong rivals to the legitimate bill-posters that the latter will be called in and deprived of their jobs. What an opportunity for a candidate! It's a good thing the Conservative conventions have been held in most places, for with the widened field for glory and philanthropy opened up by this new plan, it is altogether probable, had they been delayed till now, the rush of candidates would have been overwhelming. This typewritten letter concludes by assuring the intended advertising victim that "never was there a better chance of placing your business successfully before the public, as the pamphlet will be of such statistical importance, that it will be preserved, read and re-read for a long time after the elections are over (vide facts for Irish electors), not like the newspaper read or partially so to-day and cast into the fire to-morrow. I shall be glad to further correspond with you on the matter of advertisements."

The twin medical Opposition statesmen, Dr. Willoughby and Dr. Ryerson, must be at the bottom of this great scheme. Though it is contrary to medical etiquette to encourage anything like irregular medical expedients, they evidently recognize that the "eternal fitness of things" suggests no impropriety in there being practical sympathy between quack medicines and quack politics.

Check your indigestion with K. D. C. the Great Checker.

THE Toronto News rather patronizingly remarks: "Pardee, eloquent in debate and wise in counsel, is gone; Fraser, the talented and brave, is going. Sir Oliver, as he sees his colleagues dropping away by one, must begin to feel that intense loneliness that comes with old age when a long line of headstones are all that remain to remind one of the friends of youth and and early manhood." The News and Opposition will find that there is plenty of fight left in the old man yet—that his right hand has not lost its cunning nor his head its level. He has no need to be lonely so far as his cabinet colleagues are concerned. He has capable and loyal associates left, men like Hon. A. S. Hardy, Hon. G. W. Ross, Hon. J. M. Gibson, Hon. John Dryden, and Hon. R. Harcourt. Can the opposition organs select from the very flower of their party more than one man—and he is Toronto's "hired man" now and not available—who can come within gunshot in the way of ability and reliability of of the least of these. "Lonesome," why bless your heart, Sir Oliver isn't lonesome—he has a host of friends who will be very much in evidence when the day of polling comes in the next Provincial election. The News pathetically speaks of a "long line of headstones" being "all that is left of the friends of early manhood." When these headstones are monuments of honourable achievement in the public service, they are not unpleasant things to look back upon. No; Sir Oliver needn't feel "lonesome" in his "old age." When he takes a retrospect he sees the past quarter of a century bristling with evidence of a political life spent with a wisdom and ability in the service of his native province, that has won public confidence to a continuous degree that has never been equalled by any other statesman. There's not the slightest need of fretting about Sir Oliver being lonesome or deserted. He is still able to try a fall with such intellectual stalwarts as Dr. Ryerson and Dr. Willoughby and Mr. Marter, who seem to be the most promising of the champions who will lead the Opposition in the coming contest.

COL. A. D. SHAW, whom many Canadians will remember as United States consul in Toronto and afterwards consul at Manchester, England, addressed a meeting of the Patrons of Husbandry at Watertown, New York, the other day. In his speech he cited the experience of Ontario as an illustration of what can be done by good management for the development of an industry. He said that twenty years ago the Ontario product of butter and cheese was at the foot of the list. Now, by the adoption of the co-operative system of dairying and under the fostering care of the Provincial government, it occupied the foremost place in dairy products on the continent, and had won for Canadian goods the first place in the greatest market in the world. He said that the Province of Ontario easily bore off the premier honours in agricultural products at the Chicago fair. "Sir Oliver Mowat, Premier of Ontario," Col. Shaw said, "through the past twenty years has organized a very efficient system of technical and experimental education for the youth of the country, and the grand results which have followed his wise statesmanship have been of vast value to Ontario, and will secure him a lasting and honoured place in the history of his splendid public career."

AT a recent meeting in Drumbo, at which Hon. John Dryden was a speaker, Mr. Thomas Elmes, of Princeton, made an attack on the Mowat Government, specially singling out Mr. Dryden for censure. After the meeting the Minister personally challenged Mr. Elmes for his unfair reflections on his character. On cool consideration Mr. Elmes appears to have been conscious that he had exceeded the bounds of fair debate, and wrote Mr. Dryden accordingly, stating that the circumstance would be a warning to him in the future to keep strict watch over his tongue, and asking Mr. Dryden's forgiveness. Mr. Elmes' manly course, remarks the Globe, in acknowledging his error could frequently be followed with advantage by other politicians who make wild statements on platforms that they would never think of making under any other circumstances.

QUEEN'S University has conferred the degree of LL.D. upon Lord Aberdeen, and McGill will do likewise on Monday Next. His Excellency is an M.A. of University College, Oxford, and his new academic honours have been well merited. As a doctor of laws in two provinces he will continue to be a good administrator.

"But evil is wrought by want of thought,
As well as want of heart."

By want of thought mothers allow daughters to become frail and puny. Overstudy in girls induces uterine disorders and weaknesses, and blights their future happiness as wives and mothers. Joined to proper hygienic care, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a priceless remedy in such ailments, its value becoming even more apparent every year. Using it, the wan, debilitated school girl gains colour, flesh and spirits, losing those deathly headaches, tormenting backaches, languor, dejection and other symptoms of functional irregularities and nervous debility. It never harms the most delicate girl.

World's Dispensary Medical Association:
GENTLEMEN.—I cannot sufficiently express to you my gratitute for the benefit your medicine has conferred upon my daughter. Of late she has suffered no pain whatever. It is simply marvelous. You have just reason to call it your "Favorite Prescription," and to stake your reputation as a physician on it. A favourite prescription it is, indeed, to you and to thousands in this land, and I believe will be to suffering women the world over. Yours gratefully,

Fashions for Men.

IN COATS.

There is more length to the new Coats for 1894 than has been used in Men's Dress since the 60's.

THE DOUBLE BREASTED FROCK is the most fastidious garment man has put on in a generation. It adds to the stature of the man and conceals defects of figure. It is short waisted, snug fitting, long tailed and beautifully moulded to the figure. The Skirts are hollow at the top and form a beautiful curve, which is the most distinctive thing about the new styles.

Then there is the THREE BUTTON CUTAWAY Coat which is a high favourite. It is popularly described as the "Pigeon Wing" on account of its sloping tails. The sleeves are of moderate size and are closed with a vent for three buttons. If properly made it will cling rather closely to the hips.

The new CUTAWAY SACK COAT for business wear is one of the most popular of the season. It has caught the fancy of the young men. All the pockets should have flaps. The collar rolls low and is not faced with Silk.

Any of these garments made up to order to please the most fastidious dresser and with faultless devotion to the fashion plates

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $80, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $80, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

PUBLISHER OF DONOHOE'S.

What the Great American Catholic Monthly Owes to Paine's Celery Compound.

The name of Donohoe's Magazine, founded by Mr. Patrick Donohoe, of Boston, in 1870, is known and respected throughout the English-speaking world.

Within the past year it has achieved almost marvellous success, and stands today peerless in its field, doing splendid work for greater religious tolerance and better economic conditions. This success has been won under the direction of its new publisher, Hon. Daniel P. Toomey, who, in addition, is at the head of one of Boston's book publishing companies and is a representative from that city in the legislature of Massachusetts.

Mr. Toomey writes as follows in a candid and interesting letter:

"I believe in Paine's Celery Compound. If I tell you why, you may perhaps wish to publish my words. But even that does not deter me from writing you the truth. I have no sympathy with the man who helps tear down 'the bridge that carried him over.' Neither do I sympathize with the man who hides facts just because their publication may promote the success of others. Paine's Celery Compound helped me. That's the fact of the case.

"Finding myself run down and getting into a state of nervousness, recently I took the advice of a medical friend, and bought Paine's Celery Compound. Its use gave me strength, energy and buoyancy. Business cares were made lighter than before.

"I believe in the efficacy of Paine's Celery Compound!"

Mr. Toomey's experience is like that of thousands of others.

Brain workers, those who suffer from debility, exhaustion, mental depression, sleeplessness, find Paine's Celery Compound a certain rejuvenator of the vital portions. Hard study among students is a direct cause of debility. Energetic action cannot be kept up in the brain and stomach at the same time. If the mind be intently occupied with profound thought the nervous power will be concentrated in the brain and the stomach being deprived of it, indigestion and disease ensue. Hence the weak digestion and sallow complexion of literary men and their constant complaint of ill health.

It is also true that a hopeful man or woman can do more work and get well faster than one in despair. From the first taking of Paine's Celery Compound a feeling of confidence in recovery comes over the invalid. New blood and fresh nervous energy give a hopeful outlook. Paine's Celery Compound hastens convalescence wonderfully.

In the spring and early summer, if ever, there is need of food for the nerves and brain. Paine's Celery Compound makes the weak strong; makes people well. Try it.

Four Negro Murderers Lynched.

NEW ORLEANS, April 28.—Nine men have met violent deaths in Madison parish in the last week, and eight of these have been lynched by infuriated citizens. On Wednesday the Boyce assassins were hunted down by bloodhounds and finally located in the back horn woods. Sheriff McClelland sent for volunteers to increase his posse and a force of 200 men finally found the assassins in a negro cabin. The posse surrounded the house and found the four darkies huddled up in a loft of a small crib in the rear of the cabin. The four were Pomp Claxton, the leader of the assassins, Sheli Claxton, Scott Harvey and Tory McCloy. They were arrested and sent under guard to Tallulah. Just before reaching Tallulah a mob overpowered the guards and took the prisoners to the Crescent place, where the murder had been committed, and strung them up to trees where their bodies were found this morning.

Weakened at the Scaffold.

FAYETTESVILLE, Ark., April 28.—Sam Vaughn was hanged here for the murder of Andrew Gage. Thomas Hamilton, who was paid to kill Gage by Vaughn, is serving a life sentence in the penitentiary. Owing to his heavy weight, Vaughn's head was almost severed from his body. Vaughn's wife and two children spent the night with him and their parting was extremely pathetic. After they left, Vaughn's physical and mental condition appeared to collapse and he had to be carried to the scaffold and held in position while the noose was being adjusted. Sheriff Lake asked him if he wished to speak, but there was no response further than the faint articulation of "Boys, oh, boys."

The Cold Shoulder for Mrs. Jeff. Davis.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 28.—One of the sensations of the Confederate reunion being held here, is the cold shoulder which has been given to the widow of Jefferson Davis. One of the purposes of the association was to see that each Southern state contributed a pension of $500 for her support. The committee in charge of the subject, in reporting that the movement be dropped, stated that as Mrs. Davis had selected New York State for her residence, she thereby lost her identity with the Southern States. This report was adopted and Mrs. Davis' name will be stricken from all further consideration.

Chicago's Smallpox Spreading.

CHICAGO, April 28.—The Health Department officers have declared that smallpox is epidemic between Ashland avenue and Halstead street and South 47th street. Twenty-two cases have been discovered within the past twenty-four hours. On the recommendation of the Health Commissioner the Board of Education has decided to close the public schools for one week.

Nellie La Fontaine Disappears.

TORONTO, April 28.—For over a month officers have been searching for the girl Nellie La Fontaine, who is an important witness in the Andrews trial, which has been set for the Criminal Assizes next Thursday. The girl has disappeared and as her evidence will be the chief feature of the case, it is likely the trial will be postponed until she can be procured.

Montreal Grocery Burned.

MONTREAL, April 28.—A fire broke out in the wholesale grocery store of Laporte, Martin & Co., corner Seigneur and Notre Dame streets. It was a five-storey building, and was completely destroyed, only one wall left standing. The loss is put down at $150,000 on building and stock, of which $121,500 is covered by insurance.

Rev. Dr. McKnight Dead.

A Total Wreck with Kidney Disease—All the Symptions of Bright's Disease Present—Dodd's Kidney Pills make him Perfectly Well again

LEAMINGTON, April 23—Sherman Buchanan, a farmer living near here, recently passed through a terrible ordeal. He was attacked by kidney disease, which made him a perfect wreck. He suffered agonizing pains and his digestive organs were seriously impaired. All the symptions of Bright's disease were present. After several doctors had treated him ineffectually, Mr. Buchanan used several boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. Dodd's was the first kidney in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, 50c. or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

Germany Wants a Piece of Samoa.

BERLIN, April 28.—In the course of Baron Marschall von Bieberstein's recent audience with the Emperor at Carlsruhe, the Kaiser said that Germany would be willing to share with England a protectorate over Samoa, but he declared that the lives of German sailors had paid for Samoa and therefore Germany would never relinquish her rights in spite of the apathy of the Reichstag in the matter of colonial questions.

It Will Now Be Portugal and Argentine.

BUENOS AYRES, April 28.—The Government has renewed its demand for the restoration to the custody of the Argentine authorities of the thirty Brazilian refugees forcibly taken off the Argentine gunboat Donato by the Portuguese. The complications between the Government of Portugal and the Argentine Republic, arising from the Donato incident, are daily growing more serious.

Europe's Fatal Scourge.

VIENNA, April 28.—Cholera prevails in East Galicia; 28 cases and 11 deaths at Koona, in Russia; 55 cases and 33 deaths in one month, and at Plook 6 cases and 5 deaths. Cholera also prevails in the Province of Finisterre, France.

One Better Than Thirteen.

William F. Goetchins, Esq., contractor and builder, office 552 Seventh Avenue, New York City, writes: "I have suffered from dyspepsia for a number of years and was confined to my house for five months. Have had thirteen New York and Mount Vernon doctors (will name them if necessary) attending me but failed to get any benefit. I tried K.D.C., and am pleased to say the effect was magical, I have tried probably every know remedy for dyspepsia, and found none to benefit me, until I took K.D.C. I recommend K.D.C. as the dyspeptic's best friend. Try it and prove what I say."

Athens Visited by a Heavy Shock of Earthquake.

TOWN OF ATALANTI LEVELLED

Two-Thirds of the Buildings in This Place Reduced to Ruins—Not a House in Thebes Left Standing—Serious Damage to Other Towns.

ATHENS, April 28.—A heavy shock of earthquake was felt here last evening. It lasted fifteen seconds. The weekly Epitaphion procession was in progress, and the cathedral was crowded. The windows of the cathedral rattled ominously, and several objects fell to the floor. Women screamed and somebody shouted that the building was falling. A terrible panic was averted only by Premier Tricoupi's presence of mind. He addressed the congregation calmly, saying there would be no danger if they would only leave the cathedral slowly. The congregation dispersed without disorder. Despatches indicate that the earthquake was felt throughout Greece.

The town of Atalanti, 3,000 inhabitants, which had been but slightly injured by previous shocks, was nearly levelled to the ground. Two-thirds of the buildings were reduced to heaps of ruins and the rest were badly damaged.

The destruction of Thebes was complete. Not a house in the town is left standing. Iamia suffered less although scores of houses were damaged so badly as to be uninhabitable. Part of the prison collapsed and about sixty convicts were caught in the wreck. The number of dead and injured is unknown. Many of the prisoners, however, escaped unhurt. Larissa, Volo, Chalcis and Patras were shaken more severely than Athens. Stone walls were split and roofs were rent in hundreds of buildings in the four towns. Terror reigns on the Island of Syra and Zante. Repeated shocks have been felt there in the last two days. Small villages have been half ruined and hundreds of families have been driven to live in the fields unsheltered and unfed. The towns of Zante and Syra have not been damaged greatly although a few buildings in each were partly destroyed.

A Government BOMBSHELL THROWN INTO THE LIFE INSURANCE CAMP!

The following statement comes from the government Blue Book. It covers a period of sixteen years, and is sworn to as correct by representatives of each Company:

Statement of Premiums received and Cash Profits paid back to Policy Holders from 1877 to 1892, both years inclusive:—

COMPANY.	Premiums Received.	Dividends Paid to Policy Holders.	Ratio of Dividends to Premiums, %
CANADA LIFE	$16,368,307	$2,946,433	18.18
Confederation Life	6,165,432	687,925	10.95
North American	2,327,062	32,857	1.41
Ontario Mutual	3,878,086	433,294	11.17
Sun Life	5,527,720	355,230	6.43

Never in the history of Life Insurance has the struggle for business been keener. Never has the conflict been hotter. Never have the Companies felt as they feel now, the necessity for throwing all the energy at their command into the field. The most intelligent and best men have to be employed. All kinds of plans of insurance are submitted. Each Company determined in securing the supremacy in the good will of the public, in establishing their name, the utterance of which, shall convey to the minds of the people the essential characteristics of

UNDOUBTED SECURITY,
RIGID ECONOMY,
GOOD INVESTMENTS,
LARGEST PROFITS

WHY?

Because millons of dollars are being paid annually for Life Insurance, and the Companies that can show these features have attained a position which will guarantee their future success, for money will flow freely into the best investments.

The Canada Life Policy Holders can look at the above statement with a smile of satisfaction, yet sympathise with their friends who are not so favourably situated.

They can throw their Life Policies down in the face of opponents and successfully challenge the production of more profitable policies, they can stand the onslaught of Agents who will almost cover them with literature and estimates of Tontine, Semi-Tontine, Return Premiums, Reserved Dividends, Annuity and Endownment plans of insurance, and with a quiet assurance feel that

As The Canada Life is Making the Most Profits, She Can Pay the Largest Profits.

READER. If you want Life Insurance choose the Canada Life and join the throng of contented policy holders who are insured with the Company carrying about 45 per cent. of the total insurance in force of the above named Companies

Young Women's Christian Association.

Miss Becket will address the gospel song service this evening. Cordial invitation is extended to all young women. Come early and enjoy the good music.

Children's Service.

The monthly service for children will be held in St. John's church to-morrow at 9.30 a.m. This is a very bright service entirely musical, as appropriate for adults as for children.

Tuesday, May 1st, Mr. Calcutt's steamer and scow will be at Roach's Point, near Keene, for the purpose of putting horses and cattle on Sugar Island for pasturage. No charge will be made for carrying the stock across.

Rev. Dr. Sexton on Prayer.

This distinguished lecturer has kindly consented to give his address on "Modern Scientific and Philosophical Objections to the Efficacy of Prayer" at the Y.M.C.A. Hall on Sunday evening after the church services at 8.30 p.m. No doubt there will be a crowded house to hear the doctor on this practical and popular subject. This will be as usual a mixed meeting and all are welcome.

To-Day's Market.

It was surprising what a large market there was this morning, as the weather was anything but pleasant. There was a good demand for potatoes for shipping purposes. Butter was plentiful and dropped to 18 and 20 cents per pound, at which price there was a good sale. Eggs were largely bought by shippers at from 9 to 10 cents a dozen. There was lots of "green garden stuff" brought in, but it was all eagerly bought up, the supply not being equal to the demand.

Widely Circulated and Carefully Read.

The following illustration will prove how widely and eagerly the EXAMINER is read. On Wednesday afternoon a local was inserted in the paper to the effect that Street Inspector Pope had captured a rabbit in his garden. Just a few hours after the issue of the paper a little girl was around after her pet. It appears that it and its mate were highly prized by her, as they had been a gift from the late Rev. Father Rudkins. The EXAMINER is more highly prized than ever in her home since it led to the recovery of her pet.

REMOVAL! REMOVAL!

W. H. Meredith, Merchant Tailor, will remove on Friday, 27th, to his new store, No. 393 George street, second store north of the old stand, late Crafton & Co. Customers will find increased facilities to handle the work and additional stock of the newest Cloths and Suitings.

Men's Strong Suits, well made, tailor cut, sold everywhere for $6.75. Our price 20 per cent less—or $5.40.

Men's All-wool Tweed Suits in sacks or frocks, $6.00 at Grafton & Co's. Well worth $7.50.

MEETING OF DIRECTORS.

P. and A. H. Society Officials Meet and Take Action—The Park to be Opened Monday.

At a meeting of the directors of the Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society yesterday afternoon in Mr. J. Stevenson's office the following members were present:—Dr. Burnham and Messrs. John Burnham, Adam Hall, T. E. Bradburn, J. H. Roper, J. H. Cobb and Secretary P. Henry.

The directors accepted the grant of $400 from the town council and agreed to endeavour to make this sum pay the expenses of running the Court House Park for the summer. The consensus of opinion, however, appeared to be that another grant would have to be applied for before the close of the season.

The following sums were appropriated:—For repairing the old seats and buying new ones, $25; for purchasing vases for ornamental purposes, $25; for pruning and transplanting trees and building rustic seats around some of them, $30. Mr. Frank Mason has again secured the contract for tending the park for the summer for $300, and it will thus be seen that the directors have only a working balance of $20 left to their credit. This is not much to meet the thousand and one small incidental expenses which arise in the course of a season in the way of repairs to hose, etc.

At the conclusion of the business meeting the directors adjourned in a body to the park and gave directions regarding which of the trees should be removed and which transplanted. It was decided to throw the park open to the public on Monday next.

Few of the citizens are aware of the debt of gratitude which is due the directors for interesting themselves in the park, as in event of their deciding to abandon the work, the pretty little square would doubtless soon sink to the level of the other town parks.

PERSONAL.

Mr. D. Fitzgerald is in Belleville.

Miss Lou Howell is visiting friends in Cobourg.

Mr. W. H. Annesly, of Millbrook, was in town yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Cameron is registered at the Queen's hotel, Belleville.

Mr. J. H. Sherin, of Lakefield, is registered at the Grand Central.

Mr. R. B. Rogers is in Chisholm's Rapids and Trenton to-day on business.

Rev. Sparham Sheldrake, of Lakefield, was in town to-day and registered at the Oriental.

Mr. R. J. Kidd, who formerly taught school and afterwards ran a boot and shoe business in town, is now living in Akrona, Michigan.

Rev. C. M. Daly, of Queen's College, Kingston, and well known in town where he was a resident, has received the call to the Mill street Presbyterian church, Port Hope.

Mr. J. Murphy has not yet recovered from the effects of the fall he sustained the night of the Dickson Company's fire in Ashburnham. It will be remembered that the hose wagon upset and he was dragged a considerable distance on the ground.

Miss Ruby R. Preston, of Toronto, is in town on a visit for a few months. She will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Cranfield, 76 Lake street. Miss Preston is a pianiste of artistic ability and doubtless her highly developed talents will be often at the service of music loving citizens who enjoy her acquaintance.

Mr. Henry Morrow, an old and respected resident of the south ward, Lindsay, with his daughter, Miss Fanny, moved to Peterborough on Tuesday, where they will reside in the future. Mr. R. F. Morrow, dentist of that town, is a son of the old gentleman and it was at his solicitation he moved to Peterborough.—Lindsay Post.

A TOKEN OF APPRECIATION.

Presentation and Address to Miss Frise by Her Class Last Evening.

Last evening the boys' class of Miss M. Frise, spent a social evening at the residence of their teacher, McDonnel street, and a very pleasant time was enjoyed. During the evening the following address, accompanied by a lemonade set and fruit dish, was presented to Miss Frise by her class:—

DEAR TEACHER,—We, the members of your Sunday school class, desire to take advantage of the opportunity presented by this social gathering to intimate to you in a simple way the esteem in which you are held by us. We recogaize in you those natural talents and spiritual gifts that eminently fit you for the work in which you are engaged, and regret to have to admit that your efforts in our behalf are very much hampered by the lack of that sympathetic assistance due to you by us. But while we are often indifferent and perhaps, at times, even troublesome, you are always indulgent and patient, you faithfully try to teach us those things which are for our good, and we trust that the lessons you impart will not be in vain. We ask you to accept this gift, not because of any value it may have, but as a slight token of our appreciation of your kind interest in us and as a memento of the pleasing relation that exists, and we trust, may long exist, between us.

Signed on behalf of the class.

WALTER ALEXANDER,
R. S. DONELL.

Miss Frise appropriately replied to the address and expressed her thanks in a few feeling words.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Gardening is now in full swing.

—No arrests yesterday or last night.

—Additional local matter on eighth page.

—The Madoc Cheese Board organised to day.

—That gold-headed cane still waits an owner at the police station.

—Court House Park will be opened to the public on Monday next.

—Another case of forestalling was up before the magistrate this afternoon at four o'clock.

—Messrs. Hodgson Bros., Belleville, made the first shipment of cheese Friday and to-day.

—The tramps are forgetting Peterborough; there hasn't been one of the genus in the cells for two or three days.

—Town Clerk Armstrong will remain in his office this evening to issue dog tags to those who have not yet applied for them.

—Hiawatha Encampment, Otonabee Lodge, I.O.O.F., met last night but transacted no business of special importance.

—Mr. Joe Nelson, of the C.P.R. Hotel, badly sprained his ankle last night in descending from the Grand Central bus.

—In the Carleton county jail for the past three months the prisoners have been fed at the very low rate of 4¼ cents per day.

—Oshawa will build an electric railway from the G. T. R. to a point near the town hall. The road will be in operation within five months.

—The rain which fell during the day was of that warm variety which should bring the foliage on with a rush, especially if followed by warm weather.

—Mr. G. W. Mulligan having accepted the position of choirmaster in St. Andrew's will again sing and lead this choir to-morrow.

—The office of Doctors Rose & Morrison boasts a bright new carpet, which adds not a little to the attractiveness of their model dental apartments.

—The corporation labourers have been engaged the last week in removing the loose stones from the streets which were heaved up by the frost during the season.

—Fenelon Falls is having a system of waterworks placed on its main street, the water to be for the use of citizens who pay for it. It is being put in by a private individual.

—The band had almost its full membership out for practice last night. The boys are coming on in fine form and will reflect great credit on Peterborough in their out of town trips this year.

—A meeting of the Charity Committee was held last night, but, as Mr. Pope had no report to make of any new cases for consideration, the committee adjourned after a very brief session.

—You don't have to take a gallon of Short Stop before you cure your cold, "Part of a bottle knocked my cold out," says a grateful customer. Get it at Jas. Lynch's drug store, 168 Hunter street.

—The Lakefield cheese factory commenced making cheese on Monday last, the first of the season. Mr. F. E. Kline is the maker this season, and under his skilful management the factory will no doubt have a very successful season.

—The town snow ploughs should not be left exposed to all weathers on a vacant lot on Water street. Surely the municipality possesses a shed of some description under which these implements can be stored away out of the sun and rain.

—Members of Otonabee and Peterborough Lodge, I.O.O.F. will assemble tomorrow evening at their respective lodges and march in a body to the George Street Methodist church, where a service in commemoration of the 76th Anniversary of the order will be preached by Rev. Mr. Young.

—Court Chemong, I. O. F., met and initiated eight new members last night. D. H. C. R. Ward, who is spending a few weeks in town in the interests of the Order, was present and took part in the discussion regarding the entertainment of the delegates to the big I. O. F. convention here this summer.

—Mr. Frank Smith, blacksmith, Murray street, boasts of having the largest and at the same time the heaviest Newfoundland dog in this section. It tips the beam at 176 pounds. The dog is considered a most valuable one and is greatly admired, especially by the little ones, as he is most affectionate.

—Mr. W. J. Green, secretary of the Peterborough Agricultural Society, was engaged yesterday in putting locks and fastenings on the various gates of the grounds. He finds that neighbours in and about that vicinity are making a pastime field out of the grounds and he intends putting a stop to it.

—How's this for Saturday night? Jos. Armstrong & Co. will give away to-night 100 blouses and 100 ladies' waterproofs—almost. For instance, blouses at 29 cents each and waterproofs at $1.29 each, worth from $3 to $3.50. Sale begins at 7 o'clock sharp and closes at 9. Two hours of the biggest bargains in these lines ever given in Peterborough.

—The police will start out Monday on the still hunt for dogs without tags. Any canines so found will be destroyed and the owners, if discovered, subjected to a fine. Town Clerk Armstrong states that the call for tags this year has been limited. Negligence, rather than an endeavour to evade the law, is thought to be the reason for the non-payment of the dog tax.

—A traveller from New Zealand, who is spending a few days in town, makes the rather astonishing statement that he is the owner of two acres of land there, which last year produced 210 bushels of wheat It sounds as though the number of bushels had increased in proportion to the distance he has travelled, or probably New Zealand acres are like Irish miles—considerably larger than ours.

—The cricket club minstrel practice was a huge success last night, about thirty of the boys turning out. As eight of these were new men it will be observed that there were quite a number of absentees. The management is emphatic in stating that it insists on each and every man turning up at each and every practice. All participating are asked to be present on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings next week.

—The gas company will not allow the refuse from the works to run into the river this year as last, but will contrive some other method for its disposition. The change is made at the request of Col. Rogers, of the Peterborough Canoe Company, who last year found it almost impossible to place his canoes in the water owing to the greasy coating which floated thereon, and rendered a great deal of cleansing necessary after the canoe was drawn ashore.

—A citizen who is an ardent fisherman, was subjected to a great temptation. He and a friend were netting suckers at the locks yesterday, when the net brought up amongst a squad of suckers a fine black bass that would weigh (in a piscatorial way of speaking) four or five pounds. But he resisted the temptation and thinking it was the close season, restored the bass to the water. It was a toss up he says whether his heart or the game law was more nearly broken.

Dr. Eseljay don't ask you to take pills.

MISS SOPRANI AND MR. TENORI.

Last Sunday the members of one of our church choirs were considerably annoyed and alarmed, owing to the fact that the leading tenor was suffering from hoarseness and severe coughing. At the conclusion of the services, the leading choir lady, Miss Soprani, had a brief conference with Mr. Tenori, as follows:—

"Oh! Mr. Tenori, I am grieved to find you suffering from such a horrible cold this morning. Too bad we could not sing that lovely new quartette, we must have it at the evening service, and I will doctor you for it."

"Glad to sing anything, Miss Soprani, if you show me how to get rid of this disagreeable cold. What remedy do you prescribe?"

"A very simple and effective one, Mr. Tenori. Just drop in to your druggists on your way home and procure a bottle of Harvard Bronchial Syrup, and use it frequently during the afternoon, and you can depend upon being in good voice for the evening service. Now do not forget my advice, the name is 'Harvard'; it has always cured me in a few hours when suffering from hoarseness and cough."

Mr. Tenori acted according to instructions, and in the evening was able to take his part in the new sacred quartette, giving general satisfaction. Moral: Singers should always be provided with Harvard Bronchial Syrup that cures so quickly.

Great Stock Reducing Sale

COMMENCING

SATURDAY, APRIL 28.

There is just a little over a month until our buyer leaves for European markets. We must, therefore, in 35 days raise $25,000 for him to take along to pay for fall and winter goods. Another great reason for this sale is that our stock is $20,000 too large and it must come down. You all know what it means to you when we say

IT MUST COME DOWN

To accomplish our ends we know full well that we must greatly reduce prices (even though our prices have been the lowest). We have therefore at this early stage of the season's trade decided to offer all our new imported goods at prices such as might be quoted in July or August.

Our space will only permit us to specify a few of the many bargains offered. We ask every one to carefully read our list of attractions and call and prove to yourself that it is the great est bargain sale ever offered in this place.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Cricket and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

All the rollers with the exception of two in the canoe chute at the locks have been carried away by the ice. The top and bottom rollers are the only ones intact, and the consequence is that when a canoe essays to shoot the chute, it bumps along betwen the roller supports in a manner which if not dangerous is hard on the paint and varnish on the canoe. A birch bark canoe would have the side ripped out if a trial was made to take it through, and the consequences might be disastrous.

The police authorities throughout the Dominion have been warned that sharpers are going about working a new game. This time it relates to bicycles. One man usually works alone, and his plan is to find the names and addresses of bicycle riders. He then represents himself as an agent of the maker of the wheel which his intended victim rides, and tells him that a number of wheels have been stolen and that his is one of the number. He produces his authority for taking the wheel and frequently gets the machine, which, of course, he sells frequently in the same town. Hundreds of people have been victimised in Chicago, Detroit, Rochester, Buffalo and other cities

The Campbellford and Belleville cricket clubs have a match on early in May. It is probable the winner may aspire to a match with Peterborough.

The members of the Baseball Club are requested to meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock sharp, for the transaction of business of importance, in the rooms over the Palace Restaurant. The question of what grounds will be used during the season will come up for discussion as will the question of a four club league in the district. It is thought that if Cobourg, Port Hope, Lindsay and Peterborough formed a league that some interesting games would result.

The Collegiate Institute football club did not go to Keene to-day as intended on account of the inclemency of the weather. The match is, therefore, postponed until a later date in the season.

Mr. Jack Drain, of Workworth, who is a good catcher and first baseman, may spend the summer here. The baseballists are anxious to have him.

LACROSSE.

The members of both lacrosse clubs turned out for practice in full force on their respective grounds last night, but although quite a few players were out the boys do not turn up with the regularity which should be one of their chief characteristics. The Belleville papers report their local team turning out to practice fifty strong. Belleville will have a strong club this year.

BASEBALL.

The Cobourg World says: On Wednesday evening a meeting was held for the purpose of re-organizing the champion club for this year. Mr. C. N. Gill was voted into the chair and the election of officers was the next piece of business attended to.

Hon. President—George Guillet, M.P.
Hon. Vice-President—C.C. Field, M.P.P.
President—Geo. Mitchell.
Manager—Dr. Fairbanks.
Secretary—Arthur Hayden.
Treasurer—A. R. Hargraft.
Captain—A. Mulhall.
Committee of Management—F. Gowans, T. Mulhall, A. R. Dundas, J. A. Warner, Geo. Stephens, G. T. Bickle.
Patrons—W. H. Shoenberger, Capt. Walker, E. H. Osler, Col. Cornell, M. Atkinson, W. J. Crossen, Dr. Douglas, H. B. Cruso.

It was then resolved that the club join the Canadian Baseball Association. It was proposed that a league be formed including Port Hope, Bowmanville, Oshawa and Cobourg. Bowmanville and Oshawa have already expressed a wish that this league should be completed at once, and as only Port Hope is to be heard from definitely, there is not much doubt that they will come in, as it is understood they are now forming a club with that intention. Such a league no doubt would be a financial success. The town being all easy of access by the G.T.R. very little time would be spent in getting to and from the games." Peterborough enthusiasts would like to see the baseball club from this town enter such a league as is proposed. The local team will be strong this year.

THE GUN CLUB.

Mr. Sam. Hay, secretary of the Gun Club, received a communication from Mr. J. C. Warren Burke, hon. sec. Trent River Gun Club, Campbellford, to the effect that the local team would be expected in Campbellford on the 10 a.m. train on the 24th of May according to the challenge which had been sent and accepted. The marksmen will adjourn to the traps at once, as the match will take place in the morning in order that the games may be taken in during the afternoon. Three traps will be used and the Standard Keystone Target Company's rules will govern. The match will be shot off by four squads of four men each, and the return shoot will take place in Peterborough probably on the First of July.

PUBLIC SCHOOL CADET CORPS.

A March Out Next Wednesday—The Officers of the Corps.

This organization consists consists of six companies, the Central furnishes three corps, and one from each ward. A and B companies (entrance and junior fourth) will parade at 6.45 p.m. on Wednesday next with rifles and march through the principal streets. A band will head the corps, and the following officers and non-commissioned officers will be present:

"B" company.—Captain G. Evans; 1st lieutenant, W. Cluxton; 2nd lieutenant. F. Hamilton; right marker, E. Hall; left marker, V. Ferguson; drummer, W. McNeil.

The corps is attending drill every evening and will celebrate the Queen's Birthday in accordance with paragraph 202, Revised Infantry drill.

Poison in Tea.

In England tea has been discovered contaminated with lead, undoubtedly from being wrapped in packages containing lead. This is a matter which is being enquired into, inasmuch as lead is a dangerous poison and its presence in so many packages of tea may well cause grave public alarm. Mason & Co., grocers, have no confidence in package teas, as their English blends surpass all teas placed on the market.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

As some fishermen appear to be rather puzzled as to the close season for fish, they will be interested in knowing that the dates are as follows: Maskinonge, from April 15th to June 15th; bass, from May 10th to June 30th, both days inclusive; spreckled trout, from Sept. 15th until May 1st. By this they may govern themselves, making no mistakes, as Inspector Breese is on the warpath.

The baseball season has already opened. In town the game shows no abatement in popularity, as numbers of ball tossers are to be seen practicing on the Riverside Park daily, large crowds witnessing the games throughout. Some fairly good playing is done in and about the box. The Peterboroughs will evidently hold their owe this coming season.

The Americans succeeded in securing the first rendezvous of the Lake Yacht Racing Association for "Sodus," a point situated on the north shore, half way between Rochester and Oswego, opening on July 4th and continuing the week. Cobourg, the only Canadian claimant for the meet, withdrew out of courtesy in favour of the yatchtsmen on the other side. It is anticipated that the next meet will be held on Rice Lake, Ont, which is looked upon as a most favourable point, being admirably situated.

The steamer "Daisy" took the "City" scow down to Harwood yesterday. It will be loaded at the Dixon Company's mills and towed to Peterborough.

The steamer Daisy arrived in port this morning with passengers who attended the Peterborough markets with quite a cargo of produce. She left again at 4 p.m.

The boys in general connected with Calcutt's Brewry, 8 in number, drove down to the Locks last night and succeeded in netting a barrel full of suckers in short duration, time being one hour. Quite a number or ladies from town and vicinity were to be seen at the same time with their rod and line apparently enjoying themselves hauling in members of the finny tribes. They landed quite a number and remained until night set in upon them.

Mr .E. DuFresne had the misfortune of slipping off a flotilla, while engaged in painting the hull of the new steamer, "City of Peterborough" yesterday afternoon and was well saturated with aqua pura. He was rescued by fellow workmen engaged on the boat.

The grand promenade deck of the new steamer is being covered with oiled canvas.

Fishery inspector Breese took a trip down the river yesterday in his new steam launch, and states the lunge are off their beds and have gone into deep waters, and the bass are on them in thousands in the different creeks. He says the change made recently in the fish law for this district does not protect bass, as they will continue spawning till May 10th, at which date the law comes into force. Thus the bass are at the mercy of those desirous of destroying them in large quantities. Catfish and eels gobble up the spawn in large quantities in these creeks which are particularly noted as a resort for that tribe. The inspector cannot prosecute offenders till May 10th.

Mr. Neeland, dentist, of Port Hope, purchased one of English's famous Will-of-the Wisp steam launches, which is considered one of the fastest boats of her size Canada, and will be shipped next week to her destination.

Posters are out for the first excurison of the season to Jubilee Point summer resort. It is under the auspices of the Queen's Own Lodge, L. T. B,, No. 48, Peterborough. The steamer Daisy will also run from Keene, Harwood and Gore's Landing in connection.

Mr. R. M. Roy will probably launch his new steam launch, the "Rob Roy," next week. The boiler and engine have arrived and the caulking will be done early in the week.

It is only of late years that rheumatism has been treated as a blood disease. But that this is a correct theory is proved by the extraordinary success attending the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in this painful and very prevalent malady. It seldom fails of radical cure.

BOOTS AND SHOES

TO TAKE THE PLACE OF

A Queen's Birthday Demonstration!

The boy said: "This Shoe business is altogether too brisk," when his mother chastised him with a slipper. That's what other shoe dealers think of us, for we not only command the largest and finest shoe trade in Peterborough, but our popularity extends for a hundred miles around.

The loyal people of Peterborough needn't feel disappointed if the boys didn't get up a big demonstration for the Queen's Birthday. We have put on foot A THUNDERING RACKET IN BOOTS AND SHOES, and propose to keep it going until after the 24th, without asking the council or the merchants to guarantee us against loss.

We're always busy. No dull times with us. But, for the present, we have turned on enough extra power on our Electric Battery of Low Prices to "raise a Thundering Racket" in Boots and Shoes, and to keep it booming for over a month.

Last week we bought for 55c. on the dollar the large Wholesale Stock of a City Manufacturer who had stuck on the rock of hard times and was shivering in his boots for ready cash. This stock, we are determined, shall not remain long on our hands. GO, IT MUST! and that the public may see that there's nothing in the way of its going off fast enough, "we touch the button" and give you a few random shocks from OUR MAGNET OF OUTRIVALLED PRICES:—

All stories to that effect are utterly and wickedly false, because Spong is NOT IN IT.

SPONG buys and sells for Cash, and intends to keep on doing so, and Spong can afford to be—NOT IN IT.

We give and take no credit and can sell just so much cheaper than stores that have to give and have to take credit; therefore Spong is positively NOT IN IT.

All attempts to rope SPONG into a combination to raise the price of Groceries will fail. SPONG goes on his own peculiar way same as ever, and will continue as the "Original Cheap Cash Store," and "Heavy Weight Grocer,"—and don't you forget it.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

LOSS OF POWER and vital force follow loss of flesh, or emaciation. These come from impoverished blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery enriches the blood, stops the waste of strength and tissue, and builds up healthy flesh. Nasty Cod liver oils add fat but not wholesome flesh. Thin, pale, puny and scrofulous children are made plump, rosy and robust by the "Discovery." They like it, too.

In recovering from "Grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength.

If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.

For a perfect and permanent cure of Catarrh, take Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

RELEASED FROM SUFFERING.

Strong Testimony of a Reliable Witness Added to the Already Long Chain of Evidence—Why Suffer When the Means of Cure are at Hand.

Mrs. Mary Olmstead, who lives near Wheatley, Essex Co., Ont., is one of the best known and most highly respected residents of that section. To a reporter of the Leamington Post, she lately told the following story of long years of suffering and restoration to health:—

"About six years ago I was stricken with sciatic rheumatism, which first made its appearance in my left knee, but gradually took possession of all my limbs. Within three months I was unable to leave my bed and day and night suffered excruciating pain. My limbs were swollen to twice their natural size and drawn out of shape. My feet were also badly swollen and my right arm was in the shape of a semi-circle. For three long years I suffered in this manner, being unable to put a foot to the floor. I could only be moved around by being wheeled in a chair. During all this time I kept doctoring with medical practitioners, which cost my husband much money, but I am unable to say that I received any benefit. My agony kept increasing and my system growing weaker, till many times death would have been a welcome relief. After reading in the newspapers about the many cures effected by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I decided to try them. I had taken half a dozen boxes of the pills before I began to feel an improvement. I continued taking the pills, however, and never had a relapse, and to-day I am as hearty and healthy as I was before the rheumatism came on. I am now able to knit and sew as fast as any young person, while for years my fingers were as stiff as needles. I owe my recovery entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and will always have a good word for them."

Rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, nervous prostration and diseases depending on humours in the blood, such as scrofula chronic erysipelas, etc., all disappear before a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pills. They give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions and build up and renew the entire system. Sold by all dealers or sent post paid at 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y. Do not be persuaded to take some substitute.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Tea and Green Coffee Duties—The Insolvency Bill.

OTTAWA, April 28.—In Committee of Ways and Means yesterday, in discussing the tea duties, Hon. Mr. Foster explained that it was proposed to permit tea and green coffee, when imported direct from the country of production to come in free. The item also included all tea and green coffee purchased in bond in any country where tea and coffee were subject to customs duties, providing satisfactory proof has been given that such green coffee and tea is entered for home consumption in that country. The object of this was to keep out coffee which was prohibited from entering Great Britain as being unfit for use. All other teas and green coffee would be subject to the duty of 10 per cent. ad valorem.

Mr. Mills objected to this tax, claiming that it meant a discrimination between traders, and would disorganize the wholesale trade, especially with importers who brought their tea and coffee from Amsterdam.

Hon. Mr. Foster said Mr. Mills complained that some one man's business might be interfered with. If he had his way, he would take every vestige of protection from the tariff, and thus disorganize the whole trade of the country. He (Mr. Foster) claimed that the Government had put no tax on tea. Ninety per cent. of the tea and coffee would come into Canada as a direct importation or through a country in bond. Any of the other tenth part of the importation brought in indirectly would be brought in because the importer got an advantage by bringing this tea in indirectly and paying the 10 per cent. ad valorem. Therefore the consumer paid no tax on tea and coffee. Hon. Mr. Foster said that the reason why the tariff relating to tea was changed was not that any extra revenue might be raised, but that direct trade with the country of production might be encouraged.

The item was carried.

In discussing the item of putty Col. Denison said he thought that putty should be admitted free when used for polishing glass as well as for polishing marble, as under the old tariff.

Hon. Mr. Foster said that when the free list came up for consideration it would be seen that the Government had provided for free duty for polishing purposes.

Hon. Mr. Foster, in reply to Mr. Mulock, said the duty on common window glass was for revenue purposes only. The item fixing the duty at 20 per cent. ad valorem was passed.

Sir Richard Cartwright said that spectacles and eye glasses ought to be free instead of a duty of 30 per cent. ad valorem. These articles ought to be made as cheap as possible.

Hon. Mr. Foster explained that the object of the 30 per cent. duty was to catch the costly rims and not the glasses.

The item passed.

Mr. Mulock asked that the duty on rubber boots and shoes be further reduced. The duty had under the new tariff been reduced from 35 to 30 per cent. ad valorem, but this reduction, he claimed, was not sufficient. The item, however, passed committee.

These bills were read a third time: Mr. Bowman—Respecting the Ontario Life Assurance Company. Mr. Robillard—Respecting the Ottawa Gas Company. Mr. Scriver—To incorporate the Dominion Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

In the Senate.

OTTAWA, April 28.—The special committee of the Senate having charge of the insolvency bill met yesterday. The interpretation clauses of the bill were passed over and the first part, dealing with the application and non-application of the Act. A number of representatives from several Boards of Trade were present to watch the progress of this bill. Senator Scott moved that the Act should only apply to traders and that the word "farmers" be struck out. There was a good deal of discussion over this motion, which was defeated. Farmers, ranchers and graziers, who are not traders, will come under this Act. The change also permits a farmer being put into insolvency, which was not provided for in the bill as first framed. Mr. Bowell said he would have to refer the latter question to the Cabinet.

The Boards of Trade delegates in the evening met and passed this resolution: "That no insolvency legislation will be acceptable that does not substantially secure to creditors the right to say who shall be liquidator or assignee of estate in all cases."

Capital Gossip.

OTTAWA, April 28.—S. Waggoner, Canadian immigration agent, who was operating in New England States last year, is in the city. Speaking to a reporter, he said he would visit the same sections this year, but would not be able to start until July. He has received many letters from settlers who took up land in the Northwest last year and he is highly pleased with them. "They all say," said Mr. Waggoner, "that the winter in the Canadian Northwest is not as severe as in Vermont and New Hampshire States. Last year a great deal of advertising was done and I am anxious to get to work as soon as possible in order to get settlers out in good time to settle before next winter and possibly do a little fall ploughing. There should be a large number of families in the Northwest this year, as those already settled are inducing their friends to follow them."

The exchequer court has adjourned to meet again in Quebec on June 27. The crown case in the suit against Larkin, Connolly & Co. is not concluded, and the engineers will have to be re-examined.

Next Thursday evening the Liberal members will present the Reform Club with the handsome photograph of the Opposition, now on exhibition in room No. 6.

The trouble over the pay sheets of the Ottawa Field Battery and Captain Bliss' connection with same were ventilated before the county court judge, and Bliss was acquitted on both charges.

THE NEFF CASE.

The Hamilton Doctors are Puzzled About this Remarkable Cure—They Could not Cure this Case of Kidney Disease, but Dodd's Kidney Pills have Done so.

Hamilton, April 16.—The doctors of this city are showing great interest in a remarkable cure reported from Port Colborne. Harvey H. Neff, of the latter town, had an aggravated form of kidney disease, consequent on an attack of typhoid fever. Physicians could not cure the kidney disorder, but Mr. Neff has regained his health after taking five boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's was the first kidney remedy in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

"Backache means the kidneys are in trouble. Dodd's Kidney Pills give prompt relief."

"75 per cent. of disease is first caused by disordered kidneys.

"Might as well try to have a healthy city without sewerage, as good health when the kidneys are clogged, they are the scavengers of the system.

"Delay is dangerous. Neglected kidney troubles result in Bad Blood, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and the most dangerous of all, Brights Disease, Diabetes and Dropsy."

"The above diseases cannot exist where Dodd's Kidney Pills are used."

S. P. SMITH, of Towanda, Pa., whose constitution was completely broken down, is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He writes:

"For eight years, I was, most of the time, a great sufferer from constipation, kidney trouble, and indigestion, so that my constitution seemed to be completely broken down. I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and, in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 129 pounds; I now can brag of 159 pounds, and was never in so good health. If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a traveling advertisement. I believe this preparation of Sarsaparilla to be the best in the market to-day."

Comfort In .. Corsets.

The physical discomfort endured by ladies who have to wear an ill-fitting pair of Corsets is a punishment that need not be borne any longer.

FIRST.—Avoid all dealers who carry old stock so long that they are forced to reduce the price of their "torture packs" to the bare cost of the material in order to get rid of them; or who send out girls totally ignorant of the harm they do by taking measures regardless of the form or figure.

SECOND.—Consult MRS. ENSIGN at her private parlours on Simcoe St., who will personally fit you with a pair of Corsets conducive to health and comfort, and will give you just exactly the support and beauty of figure you so much need and admire.

Life Insurance Company.

HEAD OFFICE, - TORONTO

PRESIDENT AND MANAGING-DIRECTOR,

E. F. CLARKE, Ex-Mayor of Toronto

New! Commodious! Comfortable!

An examination of the report of the business for 1893 shows that THE EXCELSIOR has made SOLID PROGRESS in all the points essential to success, viz:—

Gain in Insurance in Force over that 1891 72 per cent.

Gain in Cash Income over that of 1891 61 per cent

Gain in Assets over that of 1891, 27 per cent.

Gain in Reserve on Policy Holders Account over that of 1891, 114 per cent

THE EXCELSIOR offers Security which is unsurpassed by any other Company doing business in Canada. The following are the ratios of Assets to Liabilities of the different Canadian Companies as given in the Government Report for 1891:—

Excelsior Life, ...415% North American Life, 126%
Dominion Life, ... 301 " London Life, ... 116 "
Federal Life, ... 144 " Sun Life, ... 114 "
Manufac'rs' Life, 144 " Confederation Life, ... 113 "
Temp'ce and Gen'l, 144 " Canada Life, ... 112 "
Ontario Mutual 102%

The Excelsior Life challenges any other Company to show, in the same period of its history, as low a death rate; 2nd, as low a ratio of expenses. See our Life Rate Endowment and our Life and Endowment Annuity Bonds before insuring elsewhere.

MRS. JAS. CHASE.

Worst Kind of Scrofula.

DEAR SIRS,—I had an abscess on my breast and scrofula of the very worst kind, the doctors said. I got so weak that I could not walk around the house without taking hold of chairs to support me. The doctors treated me for three years, and at last said there was no hope for me. I asked if I might take B.B.B. and they said it would do me no harm, so I began to take it, and before three bottles were used I felt great benefit. I have now taken six bottles and am nearly well. I find Burdock Blood Bitters a grand blood purifier and very good for children as a spring medicine.

PERSONATION PENALTY

Mr. Meredith's Amendment to Hon. Mr. Gibson's Bill Defeated.

IMPRISONMENT FOR DEBT

Mr. White's Amendment to Lessen the Power of Division Court Judges Declared Lost on Division—Police Magistrates—Sunday Car Question.

TORONTO, April 27.—Mr. Tait's bill regarding the Toronto Street Railway Company was sent back to Committee of the Whole House to enable further amendments to be made to it.

Toronto Sunday Car Question.

Hon. Mr. Gibson announced that those interested in the safeguarding of the vote upon the Sunday car question and representatives of the Toronto Street Railway Company had met together and agreed upon certain provisions to be added to the bill. The amendments applied to the class of voters eligible to vote on the Sunday car question.

Mr. Meredith said that as the vote on the question would not take place till 1896, the lists to be used at the next election would be used. It seemed to him there ought to be a provision that the parties to his controversy—for it was a controversy—might require a new list to be prepared, provided they paid the expenses connected therewith.

Hon. Mr. Gibson said there would be no difficulty if the city of Toronto consented to pay the expenses of revision, but this it had refused to do.

Mr. E. F. Clarke concurred in the remarks of Mr. Meredith, and urged the fullest possible opportunity be afforded manhood franchise voters of expressing their opinion upon this question.

The bill stood in order to allow Mr. Meredith to prepare an amendment.

Personation at Elections.

Hon. Mr. Gibson moved the third reading of the bill to punish persons guilty of personation at elections.

Mr. Meredith contended that the proposed payment to the County Crown Attorney of $4 for every returning officer whom he furnished with forms was even more objectionable now the proposed provisions of the bill had been extended to every city, town and incorporated village than it was when the measure was only applicable to four cities. He moved in amendment that the bill be not now read a third time, but that it be referred back to Committee of the Whole to strike out the provision in section 10 and 11 for the payment of $4 to County Crown Attorneys for supplying returning officers with forms.

Hon. Mr. Gibson opposed the amendment, arguing that a fee was a moderate one, and would be fully earned by the officials in question.

The House divided and the motion was defeated by 48 votes to 28. Mr. McNaughton voted with the Government.

The bill was read a third time.

Mr. Gibson's bill to amend the Registry Act was read a third time.

Imprisonment for Debt.

On the motion for the third reading of Hon. Mr. Gibson's bill to amend the Division Courts Act, Mr. White (Essex) moved an amendment to the effect that a Division Court judge should not exercise any greater powers of imprisonment than was exercised in similar cases in the higher courts in regard to debtors.

Hon. Mr. Gibson declined to assent to the amendment, He admitted there was a good deal to be said on the question, but the matter might be left over until another session.

Mr. Meredith agreed that the amendment ought not to be pressed this session. While the law should be amended in the direction indicated, they ought not to so alter it so as to render it impossible to reach the class of respectable "dead beats," who had the means, but would not pay their debts.

The amendment was declared, lost on division, and the bill was read a third time.

Police Magistrates' Votes.

On the motion for the third reading of the bill respecting police magistrates, Mr. White (Essex) moved to add an amendment prohibiting all police magistrates in receipt of salaries from voting.

Sir Oliver Mowat pointed out that there was nothing in the law preventing police magistrates from taking part in elections.

The House divided and the amendment was defeated by 47 votes to 25.

The bill was then read a third time.

Third Readings.

These bills were then read a third time: Respecting writs of execution—Mr. Garrow. In respect to the Queen Victoria Niagara Falls Park.—The Attorney-General. To amend the Street Railway Act—Mr. Balfour. Respecting witness fees—Mr. Whitney. To amend the Game Protection Act, 1893—Mr. Gibson (Hamilton). To amend the Agricultural and Arts Act—Mr. Awrey.

The House rose at 1 o'clock.

Division Courts Act.

Sir Oliver Mowat's bill to amend the Division Courts Act was read a third time.

Sir Oliver Mowat moved that the House meet at 10 o'clock on Saturday if they did not get through business on Friday.

Hon. Mr. Hardy moved the House into committee on the bill respecting ditches and watercourses. This was considered for about an hour and then reported with amendments.

On motion of Mr. Hardy the House went into committee on the bill to consolidate and amend the drainage laws. This matter was discussed till the House rose at 6 o'clock.

Public Accounts Committee.

Before the Speaker left the chair Mr. Awrey presented the report of the Public Accounts Committee, reviewing the evidence that had been taken before that body.

After recess the House resumed in committee the consideration of the drainage bill, which was reported with amendments.

Municipal Amendment Act.

Hon. Mr. Hardy then moved the House into committee on the Municipal Amendment Act. This measure incorporates the provisions of the various bills affecting changes in municipal law, which passed the Municipal Committee.

Mr. Meredith moved to add an amendment to the clause providing for the payment of aldermen to the amount of $300 per annum in cities with over 100,000 population.

The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. Whitney moved to make the clause authorizing cities and towns to bonus smelting furnaces applicable to all municipalities.

The amendment was defeated and the bill was reported.

The Assessment Amendment Act passed through committee and was reported.

Sale of Law Stamps.

Mr. Meredith enquired whether any appointment had been made to the office for the sale of law stamps at Osgoode hall.

Sir Oliver Mowat said that no appointment had yet been made. The work had to be done by somebody, but the Government had not considered the matter.

The House adjourned.

RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, April 28, 1894.

General trade in the city is quiet and the same is the case in the country. Farmers are very busy getting in their seed.

Wall street reports railroad stocks weak, with Cammack credited with sales. Sentiment bullish on Sugar, and 110 is talked of. Gold is likely to go to Germany next week.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Receipts of grain were more liberal. Oats firm, 400 bushels selling at 42c. One load of barley sold at 42c. Wheat nominal at 62c for white and 58c for goose. Peas are nominal at 64c to 64½c.

Scalpers ruled the Chicago wheat market. The opening was steady, but weakened on lower cables, closing ½ to ¾ lower. Corn closed lower at a loss of ⅝c for the day. Oats were weak and ½ to ⅝c lower.

The bank clearings for the five principal cities are: Montreal, $769,634: decrease, 1.2. Toronto, $4,977,544; decrease, 9.6. Halifax, $1,010,551; increase, 7.2. Hamilton, $547,615. Totals, $13,305,335; decrease, 3.9. Winnipeg not included in last year's report.

Bradstreets to-day says: The general business situation throughout the United States is less favorable, as shown by reports from more than fifty important industrial distributing centres. Already the record of furnaces banking fires, factories closing doors, lake vessels laying up and mills throughout the central and central western states shutting down as a consequence of a lack or prospective lack of fuel, is attracting attention.

There are Sarsaparillas and Sarsaparillas; but if you are not careful in your purchase, the disease you wish to cure will only be intensified. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla and no other. It is compounded from the Honduras root and other highly concentrated alteratives.

Unsightly pimples, blotches, tan, and all itching humours of the skin are removed by using Dr. Low's Sulphur Soap.

Dr. Grant's "Hairene", is guaranteed to stop falling hair. For sale by all druggists.

Hanged the Hanging.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Thos. Crumpton, colored, convicted of the murder of another negro in a drunken quarrel, was hanged in the district jail. Two strands of the three-inch rope broke, causing the hanging to be a bungle. Guards had to catch Crumpton and raise him slightly while a rope was passed about his body in order to relieve the strain upon the single remaining strand of the original rope. The man probably died of concussion, as his neck was not broken and he gave no signs of strangulation. His heart did not stop beating for five minutes.

May Day Processions Forbidden.

VIENNA, April 28.—The Government has forbidden May Day processions throughout Austria, and employers have notified their workmen that absence from duty on that day without permission will be regarded as a breach of contract, and will subject the offender to dismissal.

Failures for the Week.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Bradstreet's reports 30 business failures throughout the Dominion of Canada this week, against 31 last week and 35 in the week a year ago. R. G. Dun & Co. reports the decrease in liabilities of firms failing still continues. The failures this week have been 180 in the United States, against 216 last year and in Canada 26 against 23 last year.

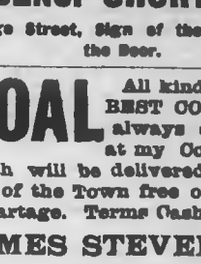
THE CHEMICAL HAIR GROWER



Fastens the hair and makes it grow, restores the colour when turning grey, thoroughly eradicates Dandruff, and is a clean, pleasant preparation to use. It is elegantly perfumed and is not a dye, but gradually restores the natural colour, and the price is reasonable—50c. per Bottle.

Corn Sowing

Is a process conducted by the agency of tight boots all the year round. Corn reaping is best conducted through the agency of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, the only safe and sure-pop corn cure. Putnam's Extractor is now widely imitated. Beware of all poisonous and sore producing substitutes; they are dangerous to use and are sold simply because they afford the dealer larger profit.

RAILWAY NOTES.

What is Going on in Local Railway Circles.

The Grand Junction train from Belleville and way stations brought in over 200 passengers this morning.

A grand convention of the different brotherhoods of railway employees and the Switchman's Mutual Aid Association will be held in New York on May 27th and following days to consider a policy to be pursued in the matter of an arbitration law and the formation of organizations in the different States and in Canada and Mexico. The local brotherhood will send a delegate.

A G.T.R. conductor who rises very early tells the following story: The other morning on the regular train was a pretty miss and a fly young man. Beside the miss was a vacant seat. The fly young man went up and, indicating with a wave of the hand the empty place, said: "I beg pardon, but is this seat engaged?" The answer he got was short and direct: "No sir, but I am," and he sought another place to get rested. —Post.

Mr. Bert Wallace is acting agent at the G.T.R. while Station Master Hayden is away in Woodstock closing up his private business affairs.

Mr. M. Minore, formerly of Peterborough and an operator on the C.P.R., who has been located at Kemptville Junction for the past ten months, has been transferred back to Peterborough again for a short time. He is on relief duty and takes the night operating.

The C.P.R. station is now brilliantly lighted up both inside and out, a large number of incandescent lights having been placed in position within the past few days. The improvement is a noticeable one.

The Grand Trunk railway will issue a new time table in a few days with considerable changes. An extra fast day express will be put on between Montreal and Toronto, thus greatly reducing the time between the two cities.

Port Hope has organized a baseball club with the following officers:—Hon. President, A. Winslow; Pres.. Mr. B. P. Ross; Vice.-Pres. Geo. Glass; Sec.-Treas. J. Hamly. The manager and committees will be appointed at a later date. The first practice will be held on the Athletic grounds on Monday evening.

The Grand Trunk authorities have not enforced the regulation they adopted two years ago, of compelling passengers to enter a car at one end and leave it at the other. Is this was generally observed it would avoid a considerable amount of confusion, annoyance and delay.

COMMODIOUS NEW PREMISES.

One of Peterborough's Enterprising Merchants Moves into Pleasanter Quarters

Mr. W. H. Meredith, Peterborough's well-known merchant tailor, has found it necessary to move into more commodious quarters on account of the large increase in his trade, and henceforth he will be found just two doors north of his former premises on George street.

The new store has been thoroughly renovated and a large plate glass window placed in the rear, which enables additional light to be thrown on Mr. Meredith's great bargain counters. A new stairway has been thrown up to the second story, where the work rooms of the tailoring department are found. The premises are lighted throughout with electricity and gas.

Not only will the change give Mr. Meredith increased room and better surroundings, but it also allows him to make a much better display of the large and well assorted stock of tweeds, pantings and suitings which he al keeps on hand, and of the extensive line of ties and furnishings which he carries in stock.

Mr. Meredith's tweeds this year are of quality unsurpassed, and as usual he is furnishing the boys' suits which are as right in price as they are in fit, which is saying a good deal, as Mr. Meredith's fits are known throughout the district.

LITERARY.

A carefully conducted religious paper is a necessity in every well regulated home. Its silent influence for good is incalculable, and the cost of such a paper should never prevent its being made a welcome visitor. For the Presbyterian family circle no periodical can take the place of The Canadian Presbyterian. In size, contents and editorial management it is a model journal. The weekly bill of fare presented in the several departments is timely and attractive. Let us mention a few of the leading features of this valuable publication. The wise and witty "Knoxonian" writes for every issue; the "Missionary World" gives the reader an idea how the barriers of heathendom are being assailed by the Soldiers of the Cross; articles on important subjects by "Our Contributors" who are among the most thoughtful writers in the church form a suggestive feature; in "Pastor and People," "The Family Circle," and "Our Young Folks," the varied tastes and interests found in a Christian home are consulted and a large amount of entertaining and helpful reading is provided; the Christian Endeavour column and the Sabbath school department each receive special treatment; while in "Ministers and churches" will be found, from week to week, the story of ministerial and congregational activity. We cordially commend the paper to our Presbyterian readers. It is now offered at the special rate of $1.00 for the remainder of the year. Address, Canada Presbyterian, 5 Jordan street, Toronto, for free sample copy.

IT SAVES BABIES!

THOUSANDS OF MOTHERS SAY SO.

LACTATED FOOD,
Babys Best Friend.

The mothers of Canada owe a debt of gratitude to the manufacturers of Lactated Food, because, in the majority of cases, this marvellous article of diet has saved the lives of their dear ones. Lactated Food is a delicious diet, it agrees with the weakest and most sensitive stomach and is strengthening and satisfying.

Lactated Food saves babies' lives. Thousands of mothers have given testimony to this effect and make it a point to recommend the wonderful food to their friends. Babies who have become weak, cross, peevish, and sleepless quickly rally when fed on life-giving Lactated Food. When mothers feed the little ones on this health giver they sleep sweetly, and become bright, cheerful and happy. Lactated Food wards off cholera infantum, diarrhœa and dysentery and makes teething easy at all seasons.

Meanings of Names.

Tobv, a Hebrew name, means The Goodness of The Lord.

Manfred, the German name, signifies A Great Peace.

Denis is Greek, meaning Belonging to the God of Wine.

Bridget is one of Celtic origin, and means the Shining One.

Blanche is of French origin and signifies the Fair One.

Edmond is from the Saxon, meaning A Happy Peace.

Chloe comes from the Greek, and signifies a Green Herb.

Godwin is German or Saxon, The Man Victorious in God.

Bernice comes from the Greek, the One who Brings Victory.

Mabel, a favorite Latin and French name, means Lovable.

Jonathan was a Jewish name, meaning the Gift of the Lord.

Vivian, a Latin word, may be translated the Loving One.

Hercules, from the Greek, was the Glory of Hera or Juno.

Heredity and Good Teeth.

A few years ago the person who passed forty without a set of the falsest of false teeth in his mouth was an exception to the universal rule. To-day the person under forty thus unfortunate is the exception. One wonders whether this is because dentistry has made marvellous strides in the last decade or so, or because rather more private attention is given the teeth now than formerly. Undoubtedly these two things are both factors in the change. There is also another condition not so generally understood. The best dental authorities tell us that no part of the human body is more subject to the laws of heredity than the teeth. And also that a woman invariably loses something of the substance of her own teeth with the birth of each child, so that the mothers of large families are apt to be left pretty badly off in this respect.

A New Invention.

A new explosive cartridge, invented by Dr. Ochse, formerly with the Messrs. Krupp, is a sealed glass tube or ball containing acidulated water into which two platinum wires are led. For use a current of electricity is sent through the wires, decomposing the water into hydrogen and oxygen. Upon the ignition of the mixed gases an explosive force of 5800 atmospheres per square inch is developed.

Dr. Grant's "Hairene" cures hot and itching scalps. For sale by all druggists.

Suffering the Tortures of ECZEMA

And yet lives in ignorance of the fact that a single application of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, will, in the majority of cases, afford instant relief, permit rest and sleep and point to a speedy, permanent, and economical cure, when the best physicians and all other remedies fail. CUTICURA Works Wonders, and its cures of torturing, disfiguring, and humiliating humors are the most wonderful ever recorded.

CUT TO THE BONE

Mantles and Capes.

Tell your friends, tell your neighbours, tell even your enemies—about our WONDERFUL SALE now going on.

Every new Mantle, every new Cape, every new Wrap—must go—hence and forthwith—and "stand not upon the order of going,"—but go at once.

To cut once—and cut deeply—is better than to hack away, little by little—so this blow is to the bone. Read how facts and figures go hand-in-hand:—

Our $15 00 Mantle.....	goes for	$11	65
Our 12 00 Mantles & Capes	"	9	50
Our 11 00	"	8	40
Our 8 75	"	6	25
Our 8 00	"	5	75
Our 6 75	"	5	25
Our 4 00	"	3	00

We sold yesterday a $12.50 Mantle, handsomely embroidered, full sleeves, for $4.00.

There's no likelihood that the pick of Paris and Berlin Mantles will ever again be so absurdly low. Not a coat in the lot but is to-day worth twice or may be thrice times the price.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

A BLOW AT THE

Dress Goods.

Dress Goods are the vertebræ of our dry goods stock. As the marrow to the vertebræ, so are our MATCHLESS VALUES. Bettering our best is our effort all the time.

1894 stands pre-eminent for sales and attractive bargains in Dress Goods. The splendid success of our sales justifies our policy of marvelously low prices during the pinching hard times, and our new scale of prices is drawing the crowds:—

20 pieces 46 inch Serge, all colours, worth 50c., for 40c.

10 pieces 40 inch Gray and Fawn Debieges, worth 60c., for 35c.

6 pieces 46 inch Satin Cloth, imported to sell at 90c., now 60c.

10 pieces Coloured Cashmeres, worth 50c., for 35c.

6 pieces Coloured Diagonal Serge, worth 40c, sale price 25c.

12 pieces Coloured Serge, all wool at 25c

10 pieces Printed All Wool Delaines, 30 to 35 inches, worth from 40c. to 60c., for 25c.

This is a time for few words. We put all our eloquence into prices and qualities.

"It's Fair's Way."

Customers are heard to say:—"Fair's getting a great run on Carpets." Carpet cutting is certainly more rapid than we expected. This is just the way we want it. We deal in Rich Carpets and Rugs. The fourth floor is loaded with Floor Coverings. We are leaders in prices and new colourings. Prices cut to the bone.

April and May are the months for carpet cleaning. Perhaps your carpet is worn out. Sweeping won't help it. A carpet bought now will save you 20 per cent. "It's Fair's Way."

MILLINERY STIR.

Just now there's more interest than usual going on in our Millinery Department. There is a marked increase in sales, and our new revised prices seems to "startle the oldest inhabitant." The special attractions in our Millinery Parlours are the new designs in Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets for Ladies, Children's Hats, &c. Novelties in beautiful soft roses with foliage in all colours, and other flowers, together with New Ribbons, Feathers and Trimmings.

But the popular prices all round is what is doing the effective selling of the season, and nobody accuses us of charging too much.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

Gloves
.. AND ..
Hosiery.

The time of year is now upon us when we begin to think of new Gloves and Hosiery. We would like to call your attention to our magnificent stock fresh from the German factories. There are several points about our Gloves we want you to notice. First, by buying from a factory direct they are at bottom prices, and having them made to order we pay particular attention to the cut and have the fingers made to fit the hand, which you will have noticed is often not the case in ordinary goods; also our colours were selected to match the shades of dress goods being worn this season, and every pair is properly sized the same as Kid Gloves. A full range of Lisle Thread Taffata Gloves and Silk in black and colours. We have one job line we are clearing at 25c., worth from 30 to 50c.

In Hosiery there is a growing demand for coloured goods. We have imported and placed in stock a choice range of all the best shades made extra long, perfectly fast dyes. Also the new striped goods which are coming in again. In Black Cotton we commence them at 5c. a pair. They are shaped and seamless and indestructible fast dye. A job line of Black Cashmere in ribbed and plain at 21c. for Children's and 20c. for Ladies. These goods are less than cost of manufacture but we bought them at a sacrifice and are giving our customers the benefit.

Owing to the fact that we were likely to have a close season on account of the low prices and scarcity of money we bought lightly and consequently have no large lots of our own to sacrifice, and are open to secure bargains from wholesale houses who are overstocked and can therefore afford to offer new goods at much closer prices than usual.

See the special lines we will have ready for our bargain day Wednesday, May 2nd. Wool Delaines at 15, 20, 25 and 28.

Gingham, 1 yard wide, good patterns for Aprons, only 8½c.

Armure Dress Cloth, summer shades, at 27c., worth 00c.

Self Coloured Striped Dress Goods, only 27c., regular price 50c.

Black Henrietta, 45 inches wide, fine finish, good weight, at 44c. a yard, regular price 70c.

MR. DRYDEN AT WHITBY

The Minister of Agriculture and the Work of His Department.

A NEW DEPARTURE PROPOSED

The Legislature to be Asked for a Grant for the Establishment of Experimental Stations—The Good Work Done by Farmers' Institutes.

WHITBY, April 30.—The South Ontario supporters of the Mowat administration met in convention in the town hall here on Saturday, and unanimously chose as their candidate for the Ontario general elections their present able representative, the Hon. John Dryden, Minister of Agriculture. The meeting was an earnest and enthusiastic one, and thoroughly representative of the riding.

In accepting the nomination Mr. Dryden spoke of some new departure he has in view in the work of his department which will be of general interest to the country.

After briefly reviewing the work he had accomplished since he accepted the portfolio of agriculture, Mr. Dryden said, referring to the fruit exhibit at the World's Fair:

"If there was one thing we excelled in that people did not expect, it was in fruit. Our exhibit astonished everybody. It astonished the people of California and the Southern States, and was the best advertisement we ever had. In future we are going to have customers from the Southern States for our fruit. They made arrangements there and then with some of our fruit men for a supply in seasons when their own fruit was not to the fore. And let me point out that it was not the size or appearance of our fruit that attracted them, but its superior quality. I expect a good market in this direction in the near future.

"Some people are disposed to talk as though the limit had been reached and nothing further remained to be done as regards agricultural development. It is they who desire to make the Department of Agriculture an appendix to some other department. Such are unable to appreciate the importance of the work or to sympathize with it. The limit has not been reached; far from it; the field is just opening up. The period of depression is the very time when new ideas and new methods must be brought to bear. The farmer who looks to make his money by growing wheat at 60 cents a bushel makes a big mistake.

"There are four branches of agriculture to which we should particularly direct our attention at the present time, namely, fruit growing, stock raising, dairying and poultry raising—these must be the mainstay of our people. What do I propose as regard fruit growing? What is the difficulty here? How many of our people, for example, could tell what varieties of apple trees they ought to plant if they purposed laying out an orchard?—not many. But there are some varieties that would be more successful than others in your district if you only knew of them. I therefore propose to ask the Legislature this session for a grant of $1,000 so that I may establish experimental stations in various parts of the country—five or six to commence with. We shall select the right kind of men to manage the experiments, and pick out and plant the trees. They will have to make reports to us, and our committee will go and examine them. The work will be controlled by a committee composed of the president of the Agricultural College, the Horticulturist and three men chosen by our Fruit Growers' Association. I trust that in the very near future we shall have some valuable information in reference to this matter to scatter broadcast throughout the province.

"I want to make still further improvement in connection with our Farmers' Institute. These institutes have done good work in the past; they have aroused considerable enthusiasm and put spirit into our young men. But they have reached that stage when in order to continue their usefulness they must branch out into new lines. I purpose, therefore, appointing a first-class man to take special charge of and direct institute work. I cannot say anything more definite at present as to the new departure, but I anticipate great benefit will result from it."

Concluding Mr. Dryden said: "During my term of office I have put forth my best effort in the advancement of agriculture. Without boasting I may say I have accomplished something, but there is yet much to be done. I cannot continue this good work without your consent. I have the consent of those gathered here—that is one thing—but I must get the consent of my constituents. When I go abroad I sometimes meet men who say when they hear that I am fiercely and bitterly opposed in my own riding, 'Why, if you come up here we will elect you.' But my answer is, if I cannot get the consent of my own people then I want nothing further to do with it—I will relinquish my task."

Hon. A. S. Hardy made a telling speech in Mr. Dryden's behalf. He referred to him as a cool, calm, level-headed man, who knows what he wants and what the country wants. "I do not hesitate," he said, "to say that more has been done during the past four years that Mr. Dryden has been minister to push along, to elevate, to send bounding along the cause of agriculture than at any previous time. Mr. Dryden came to a new department and has accomplished original work by original methods. No man has attempted as much or succeeded in accomplishing as much as the present Minister."

OTTAWA GOSSIP.

Sudden Death of an Official—New York Guards to Visit the Capital.

OTTAWA, April 30.—Mr. John Hawley, of the Militia Department, was found dead in bed shortly after nine o'clock on Saturday morning. He retired to bed at about the usual hour and gave no intimation then that his passing away was so near. At six o'clock Saturday morning a room mate conversed with him for a short time, but when shortly after nine he was called to breakfast life was found to be extinct.

The famous old guard of New York, claimed by many to be the crack military organization of the United States, thinks of visiting Ottawa. A telegram was received here from Theo Butterfield, of R. W. and O. railway, to that effect, and a reply was sent him that if they came here they would get a hearty and generous welcome.

Hon. Mr. Laurier has received a letter from prominent Liberals of Prince Albert asking him to allow his name to be submitted to the Liberal convention called for next month as a candidate for the House of Commons at the next general election. The Liberal leader, while appreciating the compliment, was obliged to decline.

Lieut.-Gov. Chapleau, who has been here for the past few days, a guest at Government House, left last night for Quebec by special train.

The first vice regal drawing room given in the Senate chamber by His Excellency the Governor-General and Lady Aberdeen, which came off Saturday evening, was in every respect a brilliant success.

OVER THE NIAGARA RIVER.

A New York Delegation Goes to Washington in Connection With This Scheme.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—A delegation of New Yorkers were at the Capital on Saturday hoping to be accorded a hearing by the House commerce committee in support of the Lockwood bill to construct a bridge over the Niagara river at Grand Island to Fort Erie, Ont. They were introduced to the committee by Representative Daniels of Buffalo, and a brief informal talk followed for a few minutes. The committee could not hear them, however, owing to previous engagements, and next Friday has been set aside as the day upon which they should come before the committee and be heard at length.

Gold in the Rainy River Valley.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—United States Consular Agent Wiley at Port Arthur, Ont., reports great excitement in the Lake Superior regions over the Rainy River gold discoveries. Five thousand people are waiting for the ice to break up in order to go in. Nearly all the new claims taken up on the American side are contested. Consequently the greatest part of the mining work and attention of capitalists will be attracted to the Canadian side of Rainy Lake and up the Seine River, where quartz veins carrying free gold have been located. Sam Gilman, a son of the Governor of Minnesota, has sold a half interest in a Canadian claim for $4,000 cash. Capitalists from New York, Idaho, California and other States are here.

Strike in St. John, N. B.

ST. JOHN, N. B., April 30.—There are forty-eight men out on strike in Miller & Woodman's shingle mill, for an increase from $1.74 to $2 per day. Woodman says that owing to the state of the market in the United States he cannot give an increase and will keep the mill closed. Manager Parks posted a notice in the Courtney Bay cotton mills to the effect that the mill will be ready to start on May 7 if the employes are willing to resume work at reduced rates.

Cargoes for English Ports.

TOLEDO, Ohio, April 30.—Eight Canadian vessels are being loaded here with corn for direct shipment to Europe. The fleet will return for another cargo immediately, and in all about 3,000,000 bushels of corn will be shipped abroad this way during the spring. In the early summer it is expected that about 5,000,000 bushels of wheat will be taken to Europe in the same way.

Springhill Coal Strike Over.

HALIFAX, April 30.—The Springhill strike is over. A committee from the Miners' Association and the managers met in conference on Saturday. The men submitted their grievances and after full discussion a modus vivendi was arrived at and work was resumed at all shops this morning. The men are largely gainers by the strike as most of their demands were conceded in part or in whole.

Burglars in Pickering.

PICKERING, April 31.—The employes of the Spink mills were surprised yesterday morning to find that burglars had forced an entrance into their office and had blown open the safe. The papers were strewn around the floor. The postage drawers were broken open, and a few coppers taken from there was all the booty the intruders got for their trouble.

Nine Toronto Men in Jail in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N.Y., April 30.—William Dingman, alias "Dink," of Toronto, and eight others are under arrest charged with burglary and larceny. The gang made a business of breaking into railroad cars on the Lake Shore, Erie, and Western, New York and Pennsylvania and other roads and reaped a plentiful harvest for a time. Dingman confessed.

FAMOUS HOTEL BURNED

The Building Where Jeff. Davis and His Associates Met Laid in Ruins.

ONE VICTIM TO THE DISASTER

John Riley, a Banker, Falls From the Fourth Storey to the Pavement Beneath—Another Man's Fearful Jump—Three Hotel Employes Missing.

NEW ORLEANS, April 30.—The imposing front of the St. Charles hotel, with its spacious portico surmounted by a dome of majestic dimensions and classic architecture in the centre of the block, is all that is left standing of the most famous hostelry in the United States; within whose walls Jefferson Davis, Judah P. Benjamin and the other leading figures of the Confederacy formed the first plans for the establishment of a new republic before they started for Richmond, where no less than six congressional committees have sat trying to solve what became known as the Louisiana question after the war, and where Presidents, Kings and notabilities from every nation on the face of the globe who have visited New Orleans have been sheltered.

The fire, which raged within its walls all Saturday night, started in the kitchen. The flames ate their way along the woodwork with amazing rapidity, and, owing to the inability of the firemen to get at them, it soon became manifest that their efforts would prove futile. The hundred or more guests had about all retired, and though many had been awakened the night clerk sent messengers to every room occupied, and thus there was no possibility of any of them having been cut off from escape, as the flames did not reach the main portion of the structure for fully half an hour after the fire was discovered. Panic seized them, however, and they rushed about frantically, most of them in their night clothes, and although there was ample opportunity to get down the broad stairway it took the efforts of the cooler heads to prevent the most impetuous from throwing themselves from the second, third and fourth storey windows. The only man who did jump from a window was an unknown man, who dropped from a third-storey window to a shed, but was not injured, as he got up and walked of.

John Riley, a banker, occupied a room on the fourth story of the rear portion of the building. A spiral stairway led from this part of the building to the court below. Riley gained the stairway after passing through the flames which swept past his floor, but tumbled and fell. He caught hold of some broken bannisters at the third storey after he had rolled partly off the stairway. He attempted to pull himself up but was unable to do so, and fell with a crash upon the stone pavements beneath. He lived scarcely a minute.

Three employes of the hotel are missing. The hotel register was saved and all the guests are accounted for.

The total loss on the fire will reach half a million dollars and may go over that amount.

Incendiarism in Rat Portage.

RAT PORTAGE, April 30.—Lumber lying in the yard of the Western lumber mill, belonging to the Ontario & Western Lumber Company, caught fire on Saturday and none of the lumber can be saved. The yard contained ten million feet of lumber and this all went up in smoke. The damage amounts to $200,000. The fire is beyond doubt the work of an incendiary. The lumber is well insured. The surrounding buildings were saved.

Fire in Georgetown.

GEORGETOWN, Ont., April 30.—On Saturday fire broke in the large dry goods establishment of Wm. McLeod & Co. The firemen were promptly on the scene and, aided by the excellent works' service, soon had the fire under control. The building was slightly damaged and the stock suffered from smoke. Loss covered by insurance.

Dry Goods Establishment Destroyed.

ASHLAND, Wis., April 30.—Fire destroyed the Vaughnan library building, the lower floor being occupied by F. J. Potts dry goods establishment. The upper stories of the building were used for offices and sleeping apartments. The sleepers were aroused and it is thought that everybody escaped. The loss is $120,000.

Barns and Contents Burned.

FOREST, Ont., April 30.—The barns, stables and sheds with all their contents, on A. Rodgson's farm, Lake Road, Boequinet, have been destroyed by fire; loss, $1,200; insurance, $600. The fire is supposed to have been started by children playing with matches.

A $100,000 Fire.

WINCHESTER, Va., April 30.—Winchester had a $100,000 fire yesterday morning of incendiary origin. The fire started on Main street opposite the Taylor hotel and burned the heart out of the best business block in the town.

READY TO GO TO WORK.

Some of the Great Northern Strikers Prepared to Accept the Schedule.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 30.—Despatches to the Great Northern general offices say that the engineers and firemen at Wilmar, St. Cloud and Barneaville have reported to their superintendents. It was learned also that all brakesmen on the three branches centreing at Crookston have announced their willingness to go to work to-day.

The strikers at St. Cloud are indignant at the action of the Brotherhood of Engineers, who decided to go to work at the old schedule of wages. This was followed by the Brotherhood of Firemen reaching the same conclusion.

Injunction Against Nuns.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., April 30.—A preliminary injunction was granted by Judge Barker here restraining six Catholic nuns from teaching in the public schools at Gallitzin, Cambria county. The injunction was applied for by two citizens of that place, who allege that the nuns are engaged in proselyting their pupils. They distribute catechisms among the children and teach them during school hours. A school rule is for the pupils to call their teacher "sister," and the black garbe and religious emblems are worn by the nuns in the school room. Judge Barker will hear a motion to dissolve the injunction May 8.

PEGGING AWAY.

"THE people of Peterborough" says the Fenelon Falls Gazette, (though politicians would be a fitter term), "are pegging away in the hope of bringing about a resumption of work on the Trent Valley Canal, and we are told that "the prospects are that the Government will be obliged to take some action." In accordance with resolutions passed by the Board of Trade and the town council, Mayor Kendry has sent a circular to the municipalities, along the route of the canal, calling a meeting in Peterborough on Wednesday next, May 2nd, for the purpose of making arrangements to send a monster demonstration to Ottawa to inform the Government that "the shilly-shallying that has been going on for years will be no longer tolerated." This is tall talk and ought to be effective, but just as stilted language was indulged in years ago, with but small effect. Anxious as we are to see the canal completed, we very much fear that it will be the same in the future—that is, it the immediate future—as it has been in the past. The Government have learned by experience that they can break their promises with impunity, and will make them by the bushel, as they well know that the most glaring breach of faith will not turn the Tory members of the deputation against them. Then, again, Mr. Foster in his budget speech said that the Government could now begin to retrench, as all the great public works were finished, or words to the same effect; and although Sam Hughes moved the other day for the report of the commission appointed to enquire into all matters concerning the Trent Valley Canal, he at the same time urged on the government the propriety of taking over all the waters tributary to the canal and Mr. Haggart said the department had under consideration the advisability of doing so. These waters are now controlled by the Ontario Government and by the time the preliminaries and negetiations which must necessarily precede their transfer can be completed, it will be too late to resume work on the canal this side of the next general election, which some think will take place in considerably less than a year. Sam knows how to "run with the hare and hunt with the hounds," and don't you forget it."

IT IS STRAIGHT ROBBERY.

Under the old tariff the average tax on imported wall paper was about 60 per cent. Under the new, as first proposed, this was reduced to 35.

But no sooner had Mr. Foster delivered his speech outlining the proposed changes than the wall paper men invaded the Capital with a demand for greater consideration than has been accorded them. The result of this commission was seen Thursday when, at the instance of the Finance Minister, further changes were made that will make the duties from 35 to 100 per cent. And this enormous burden of taxation is enforced on 5,000,000 consumers for the benefit of manufacturing concerns that employ less than 200 men! Could greater iniquity be conceived?—Toronto News (Conservative).

THE Empire is after the scalp of the Minister of Education, on the ground that politics is allowed to influence the administration of the Education Department. Of course partizan politics is meant. The education of the youth of the country is a sufficiently important a matter to receive the undivided attention of the most capable educational specialists, such as the present incumbent, the country can produce. The children of the day are the men of the future, and their education certainly demands the services of a strong department, and it has had such services, as shown by the test of results. The foundations of our present excellent system of education were laid broad and deep by the late Chief Superintendent, Dr Ryerson; but since the schools have been placed in charge of a department under a responsible Minister of the Crown, they have achieved the very front rank amongst the schools of civilization. And especially marked has been the progress of the past ten years. It is capable of easy proof that our public schools, for instance, are better conducted, better housed, the teachers better trained, the discipline more humane than it was ten years ago when the present Minister of Education, Hon. G. W. Ross, accepted the charge of promoting their interests. The brilliant manner in which our school system stood the test of competition with those of the most advanced nations at Chicago, is a proof of the educational achievements of this province. It is not necessary to recall the favour with which Dr. Ryerson regarded the Department of Education being placed under a Minister of the Crown, to point the assertion that under no other plan could the educational affairs of Ontario be so efficiently managed, and any demand for the degradation of our splendid system of administering educational matters is the expression of factions if not fatuous opposition.

THE weekly cost of each patient in the Toronto Insane Asylum, according to the official report, is $2.74 per week, and this includes the salaries of trained nurses and skilled medical attendants. The average cost of maintaining inmates in Toronto House of Industry, where there is none of this special expenditure, is $3.57. Now, what does Mr. Marter say to that? Here is a civic institution conducted by a corporation, under the head of a mayor after Mr. Marter's own heart, politically, which is conducted on a much more extravagant scale—about a third more per head, and yet Mr. Marter and his allies are "plugging" away at the management of public institutions. All this talk of extravagant management of our provincial institutions is itself the greatest extravagance. Out of a list of 78 leading asylums of the United States, there were only found three more cheaply maintained than those of Ontario. Besides in the United States the municipalities have to contribute towards the support of the inmates sent from them. In Ontario the province pays the whole cost of maintenance, and they whose friends are forced to seek shelter, have the consolation of knowing that the unfortunates are well and comfortably maintained, and at the same time economically. Does the Opposition grudge the expenditure upon the comfortable maintenance of the poor who have to seek the shelter of our beneficiary institutions? Of course the cost of our asylums and other institutions could be reduced, by putting patients upon starvation rations. But such a course is repugnent to every idea of Christianity. The Opposition might find better employment than trying to bring about a bogus system of retrenchment that would rob a poor lunatic of the only thing within his capacity of enjoyment—his creature comforts.

"But evil is wrought by want of thought,
As well as want of heart."

By want of thought mothers allow daughters to become frail and puny. Overstudy in girls induces uterine disorders and weaknesses, and blights their future happiness as wives and mothers. Joined to proper hygienic care, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a priceless remedy in such ailments, its value becoming even more apparent every year. Using it, the wan, debilitated school girl gains colour, flesh and spirits, losing those deathly headaches, tormenting backaches, languor, dejection and other symptoms of functional irregularities and nervous debility. It never harms the most delicate girl.

World's Dispensary Medical Association:
GENTLEMEN.—I cannot sufficiently express to you my gratitute for the benefit your medicine has conferred upon my daughter. Of late she has suffered no pain whatever. It is simply marvelous. You have just reason to call it your "Favorite Prescription," and to stake your reputation as a physician on it. A favourite prescription it is, indeed, to you and to thousands in this land, and I believe will be to suffering women the world over. Yours gratefully,

A MOST EXCELLENT DISCOURSE.

Rev. Dr. Sexton on Modern Objections the Efficacy of Prayer.

The Rev. Dr. Sexton, at the close of his service in St. Paul's church last evening, made his way to the rooms of the Y.M.C.A., and delivered a profoundly interesting address on the "Modern Scientific and Philosophical Objections to the Efficacy of Prayer." There was a large attendance.

The Doctor commenced by stating that the subject was a very large one, and that in his own church he had devoted five evenings to this question, so that all he could do on the present occasion was to give a kind of summary of the arguments to be employed. Modern thought, he said, had come into conflict more frequently and with greater violence on the subject of prayer than on any other topic. Many men who believed in the existence of God, and had some hope of a life after death, and even went so far as to consider themselves Christians in a sort of sense, yet held that prayer could not be efficacious at least in the domain of the material or the physical. We met with two singular and opposing facts in reference to this question. It was contended by one class of men that all our knowledge was limited to nature and nature's laws, and that prayer was consequently a superstition having relation to the unreal or imaginary, and that its practice was a delusion to be condemned; and another class held that communion with God was of so lofty a character as to transcend all prayer and praise, and that the really religious man rose into a sphere in which there was that his will was completely lost in God. The first view was held by scientists, the last by mystics. The one class maintained that all that occurred happened by virtue of law, which was fixed and unalterable, and that prayer was therefore vain and futile, and the other that the truly pious man rose above the region of desire into a holy indifference, a lofty exaltation, the atmosphere of which was too rare to be breathed by common mortals, and where communion with God was too lofty for either prayer or praise. Neither of these views accorded with Christian teaching or with the example of the divine Master. There were two kinds of prayer, the prayer of faith and the prayer of form. One was an earnest request for something expected to be granted, the other simply a compliance with a sense of duty. And there was a tendency for one to pass into the other. Our ancestors prayed more in faith than men did to-day. They prayed sometimes for very improbable—not to say impossible—things, but they had no doubts regarding the efficacy of their petitions. But then came men of science, who denied inspiration and communion with God, and the prayer of faith too often passed into the prayer of form. Repetition of forms of prayer, which was too common in our day, was not praying, but on a par with counting beads, performing curious genuflexions and superstitious mummeries, not much removed from the praying mills of certain heathen nations. A foolish prayer text had been proposed a few years ago by an English scientist, which in its very nature was most blasphemous and impossible to be carried out. It was also held by people who called themselves advanced Christians that whatever answer or supposed answer came to prayer, was but a reaction in the mind of the person offering the petition, an exaltation of mind, in fact a kind of spiritual intoxication. This was not according to the teaching of Scripture, where we were instructed to pray both for temporal and spiritual blessings, and told that God would hear and answer us when we did so.

THE FIXITY OF NATURAL LAW.

The first and most important objection offered to the efficacy of prayer in our day was the one based upon what was called the fixity of natural law. The futility of prayer, it was said, rested on the scientific fact that like causes under the same circumstances always produced like effects, that law reigned in an unvarying order, and that there was not room for even the dispersion of the slightest mist by prayer since that would be a violation of a law of nature and consequently a miracle. Science appeared to extend the domain of fixed law, and thus to push the supernatural further from us. But all this arose from a mistaken conception of what was meant by law and still more so as to what was called its fixity. Laws were not things or entities. They were not even powers or forces. Laws could do nothing. As a matter of fact they had no actual existence, but were simply human conceptions. By a law was merely meant an order of antecedence and sequence. A thousand things had occurred in our day which at one time would have been deemed contrary to law. (The doctor here quoted a number of scientific illustrations of this fact.) Nor were laws fixed in the sense that most people supposed. Contingency, not fixedness, was the order of the Kosmos. All and law was but the expression of a will behind it. Man himself was higher than la v, for he could bend these laws to his purpose and bring out of them results that would not otherwise arise. If man could do this, how much more could God. They who asserted that God could not bring about results in the domain of nature without infringing the laws of the universe, said in fact that God could not do what man did every day of his life and what scientific men did more than any others.

A whole series of objections to the utility of prayer, was based upon the attributes of God. It was said that to make requests of the Almighty to change his plans at the biddings of human beings was incompatible with His greatness, His unchangeableness, His wisdom and His love. These objections, however, were all the result of a very superficial view of the character of God. To make a contrast between the infinite greatness of God and the finite littleness of man was altogether beside the question, for Deity himself had stooped to take the human form, and had told us in the Bible that the meanest and most insignificant things were not beneath his notice. There was no great or small with Him. And as to man he had been created in God's image.

GOD WAS UNCHANGEABLE

but man was not, and the relation of a changeable thing to an unchangeable one became changed by virtue of that unchgeableness of the thing to which the changeable one was related. This was a plain mathematical truth. His wisdom and His love were not affected for it was through that very love that infinite wisdom had made prayer one of the conditions of divine communion. A father who withheld a desired boon from his child simply because the child would not ask for it, was thereby teaching the child a lesson—the lesson of asking—and as such displaying both wisdom and love. This was how God acted towards his children.

Then it was said we wasted time in praying that might be better spent in working. The motto "Laborare est orare" was heard on all hands, and it was utterly false. Labour was not worship. Both were good but they must not be confounded. Our fathers advised ora et labora, which was grand and noble teaching. The greatest workers in the world had been praying men, for prayer was a stimulus and an aid to the best and highest work.

The address lasted over one hour in the delivery, and was listened to by the large audience with the greatest attention.

A PATRIARCH OF THE PRIESTHOOD.

Sketch of Rev. Fathers Conway's Life.

The Irish World publishes an interesting summary of the history of the Roman Catholic Church in Canada, and concludes it by the following paragraphs, in the main, a sketch of the life of Rev. Father Conway, who is now on the ocean, enroute for a visit to his native land—the Emerald Isle—and whom the World describes as the oldest priest in Canada and the patriarch of the Ontario priesthood. Here is the extract:

"The original headquarters and hunting grounds of the Hurons, to which I have referred, are now comprised in the diocese of Peterborough, under the administration of Bishop O'Connor. It represents a section of Ontario reaching from Lake Nipissing and Georgian Bay southward to Lake Ontario. With the rapid development of the country progressing since the building of the Canadian Pacific railway, the missionary work of the diocese has been pushed with vigour by about fifty priests, one-half of whom are regularly stationed, and the others attending to a hundred stations and missions scattered over the vast and historic territory.

"One of the active workers for the past forty years in the development of the Church in Ontario is the Rev. Patrick Conway, at present stationed at Norwood, in the Peterborough diocese. He was born in Drumod, Leitrim county, Ireland, and was educated in France. He comes of a family noted for the number of representatives given to the priesthood and to the cause of Irish patriotism, and in his youth he was equally noted as an athlete and a brilliant scholar. He concluded his theological course at Baltimore and was ordained in 1854. He was assigned as assistant to his uncle, Dean Gratton, of St. Catharines, Ontario, where his remarkable physical strength and endurance, no less than his brilliant attainments, especially fitted him for missionary and administrative work. He was a favourite with Bishop de Charbonnel and his successor, Archbishop Lynch, under whose administration he was Chancellor of the Archdiocese. When Bishop Jamot in 1882 was assigned to the newly created diocese of Peterborough, Father Conway consented to accompany him as chancellor, in which capacity he served until a few years ago, when he came near losing his life by being thrown from his horse. The less onerous charge of the Norwood parish has since enabled him to recover his health and, though he is fast approaching the allotted three score and ten, his active movements and erect figure are more suggestive of forty than that of sixty-six. In the conferences of the priests he is known as the "Patriarch." Last summer he attended the celebration of the silver jubilee of Father Sullivan, of Thorold, Ont. At high mass, in honour of the event, which was celebrated by Father Sullivan; Father Conway, who had prepared him for his first communion, was deacon and the subdeacon was a priest whom Father Sullivan had prepared for his first communion in a church where Father Conway had been pastor thirty years before, so that priests representing three generations participated in the same mass. He is a strict total abstainer, a fact to which he attributes largely the health and vigour which are still his in spite of his advanced years, and his popularity amongst the people is not confined to his own congregation, but is shared by the whole community. The Irish World learns that he is about to make a visit to his native land next month and wishes him a cordial Godspeed and safe return."

A Total Wreck with Kidney Disease—All the Symptions of Bright's Disease Present—Dodd's Kidney Pills make him Perfectly Well again

LEAMINGTON, April 23—Sherman Buchanan, a farmer living near here, recently passed through a terrible ordeal. He was attacked by kidney disease, which made him a perfect wreck. He suffered agonizing pains and his digestive organs were seriously impaired. All the symptions of Bright's disease were present. After several doctors had treated him ineffectually, Mr. Buchanan used several boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. Dodd's was the first kidney in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, 50c. or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

IN COATS.

There is more length to the new Coats for 1894 than has been used in Men's Dress since the '60's.

THE DOUBLE BREASTED FROCK is the most fastidious garment man has put on in a generation. It adds to the stature of the man and conceals defects of figure. It is short waisted, snug fitting, long tailed and beautifully moulded to the figure. The Skirts are hollow at the top and form a beautiful curve, which is the most distinctive thing about the new styles.

Then there is the THREE BUTTON CUTAWAY Coat which is a high favourite. It is popularly described as the "Pigeon Wing" on account of its sloping tails. The sleeves are of moderate size and are closed with a vent for three buttons. If properly made it will cling rather closely to the hips.

The new CUTAWAY SACK COAT for business wear is one of the most popular of the season. It has caught the fancy of the young men. All the pockets should have flaps. The collar rolls low and is not faced with Silk.

Any of these garments made up to order to please the most fastidious dresser and with faultless devotion to the fashion plates

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest; without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $80, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $80, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

A Government BOMBSHELL
THROWN INTO THE
LIFE INSURANCE CAMP!

The following statement comes from the government Blue Book. It covers a period of sixteen years, and is sworn to as correct by representatives of each Company:

Statement of Premiums received and Cash Profits paid back to Policy Holders from 1877 to 1892, both years inclusive:—

COMPANY.	Premiums Received.	Dividends Paid to Policy Holders.	Ratio of Dividends to Premiums, %
CANADA LIFE	$16,368,307	$2,946,483	18.18
Confederation Life	6,165,432	637,925	10.35
North American	2,327,062	32,857	1.41
Ontario Mutual	3,378,066	433,294	11.17
Sun Life	5,527,720	355,280	6.43

Never in the history of Life Insurance has the struggle for business been keener. Never has the conflict been hotter. Never have the Companies felt as they feel now, the necessity for throwing all the energy at their command into the field. The most intelligent and best men have to be employed. All kinds of plans of insurance are submitted. Each Company determined in securing the supremacy in the good will of the public, in establishing their name, the utterance of which, shall convey to the minds of the people the essential characteristics of

UNDOUBTED SECURITY,
RIGID ECONOMY,
GOOD INVESTMENTS,
LARGEST PROFITS

WHY?

Because millons of dollars are being paid annually for Life Insurance, and the Companies that can show these features have attained a position which will guarantee their future success, for money will flow freely into the best investments.

The Canada Life Policy Holders can look at the above statement with a smile of satisfaction, yet sympathise with their friends who are not so favourably situated.

They can throw their Life Policies down in the face of opponents and successfully challenge the production of more profitable policies, they can stand the onslaught of Agents who will almost cover them with literature and estimates of Tontine, Semi-Tontine, Return Premiums, Reserved Dividends, Annuity and Endownment plans of insurance, and with a quiet assurance feel that

As The Canada Life is Making the Most Profits, She Can Pay the Largest Profits.

READER. If you want Life Insurance choose the Canada Life and join the throng of contented policy holders who are insured with the Company carrying about 45 per cent. of the total insurance in force of the above named Companies

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

Monday, April 30.—Yesterday morning and this morning, with ice on both, and the index to-day registering only thirty-one degrees above zero. Will soon again have rain, a large double halo around the sun, which, as our guide says, is a very rarely seen phenomena encircling the sun to-day, foreboding another change. THOS. TELFORD.

Auction Sale of Lots.

Six lots lying immediately north of the Park street Baptist church, and near the Edison Works are to be offered for sale by public auction on the ground on Saturday evening next at 6 p.m. The sale is made at this hour to give working people a chance. Each lot has a frontage on Stewart street of 33½ feet and runs back to Park street, so that they can have an entrance at the rear. The terms are easy and the lots will be sold for what they will fetch, as it is a peremptory sale. 4d101

REMOVAL! REMOVAL!

W. H. Meredith, Merchant Tailor, will remove on Friday, 27th, to his new store, No. 393 George street, second store north of the old stand, late Crafton & Co. Customers will find increased facilities to handle the work and additional stock of the newest Cloths and Suitings.

Don't Miss Seeing Them.

Mrs. General Tom Thumb and company pleased a large audience at the Grand yesterday afternoon. The performance throughout is one which greatly pleases the young folks and well deserved the large patronage accorded it. At the conclusion a reception was held on the stage, and the children given an opportunity of conversing with the little wonders. The evening performance closed the engagement of the company.—London Advertiser, April 13th. They appear at the Opera House, afternoon and night, May 3rd. Matinee prices, 15 and 25c., night prices, 25c, 35c. and 50c.

Algoma Missions.

Geo. Buskin, of the Algoma and North-West Evangelical and Colportage Mission, is making his tenth annual visit to Peterborough in the interest of the mission, which is enlarging in its operations of Christian usefulness, having supplied in the district last year 850 Scriptures and Scriptural books in six languages and conducted there twenty-six religious services and distributed religious tracts and magazines and also done work to nearly a similar extent outside the district. He has also prepared and published three small Scriptural books in Indian and French with English on opposite page, numbering 11,000 copies and reprinted 3,000 copies of former editions with some improvements therein, all of which are necessary for the work of Christian instruction. The missionary gratefully acknowledges $25.50 contributed last year in Peterborough for the work and again respectfully asks a renewal of former Christian support to assist him in continuing and enlarging the work.

Men's Strong Suits, well made, tailor cut, sold everywhere for $6.75. Our price 20 per cent less—or $5.40.
Men's All-wool Tweed Suits in sacks or frocks, $6.00 at Grafton & Co's. Well worth $7.50.

CUT THIS OUT and send it to us, enclosing a three cent stamp and the names of ten ladies, and we will send each one a sample of one of the best montly papers published, and we will send it to you FREE for six months. Mention EXAMINER, and address MEDICAL ADVISER, Bowmanville, Ont.

NEWS NUGGETS

—Ashburnham council to-night.
—School Board to-morrow night.
—Additional local matter on eighth page.
—Omemee holds its spring show next Wednesday.
—Omemee is another village that wants a curfew by-law.
—The Fire, Water and Light Committee meets to-morrow evening.
—The meadowlarks and bobolinks have now made their appearance.
—The cattleyard on the C.P.R. track on Lake street, Ashburnham is in need of repair.
—A citizen was fined $5 and costs Saturday afternoon for forestalling on the market.
—Hundreds who were out walking yesterday through the country lanes returned to town laden with wild flowers.
—There is some talk, the Cobourg Sentinel-Star says, that most of the lumber at Harwood will be shipped by way of Peterborough this year.
—A case of driving at an immoderate rate of speed was before the magistrate this morning. The offender was taxed two dollars and costs.
—You don't have to take a gallon of Short Stop before you cure your cold. "Part of a bottle knocked my cold out," says a grateful customer. Get it at Jas. Lynch's drug store, 168 Hunter street.
—The licensees of butchers, eatinghouses, busses and liverymen fall due to-night, and Chief Roszel calls the attention of those interested to the fact that a personal interview with him this evening is desirable.
—The Otonabee flour mill, Ashburnham, is undergoing a thorough cleaning up, quite a squad of men being engaged in putting things in shape. It is anticipated that the mill is to be put in running order at an early date.
—The dates of the annual examinations for teachers' certificates and matriculation have been fixed as follows:—Third Class Teacher's examination, Tuesday, July 3rd to Friday, July 6th. Junior Leaving and Pass Matriculation, Tuesday, July 3rd to Thursday, July 12th. Honour Matriculation and Senior Leaving, July 12th to July 24th.
—Ye who have dogs to register prepare to register them now or forever hold your peace if they are killed. City Clerk Armstrong will remain in his office this evening to give one more chance to those who have not yet secured their dog tags. Saturday evening over fifty dogs were registerday, but there are still plenty running around without a tag yet.
—Mr. H. Calcutt, brewer, Ashburnham, on account of the advancement of trade, has added a new delivery wagon in order to accommodate the public in general. He finds business booming up, consequently the demand. The wagon was constructed by Mr. R. Mein, Hunter street east, the painting and lettering being done by Messrs. John Gibbs & Son and is exquisite, reflecting credit to workmen as well as artists. The wagon will be placed on the road between the towns and villages in and about the counties of Peterborough, Victoria and Hastings.

About Ended.

The annual stock-taking sale at China Hall is about ended, as it closes on the 20th inst. While it lasts you can buy anything in the immense stock at cost price, and in the case of slightly damaged or mismatched goods, for half price. We have some splendid bargins left, call and inspect.—MACFARLANE WILSON.

Store Awnings, Window Awnings.

Hotel awnings, office awnings, verandah awnings, steamboat awnings, factory awnings, and summer awnings of all kinds and patterns in white or coloured duck manufactured and fitted in proper manner to any desired frames on the most reasonable terms by ALFRED KINGSCOTTE, the Tent, Sail and Awning Maker, Water street, opposite the market.

An Old Orangeman Passes Away.

Richard Cook, an aged and well known carpenter residing on George street in the vicinity of the C. P. R. station, died early yesterday morning, of general debility. He has been a member of Young Canadian No. 49, L. O. L., for over 20 years, and the members will accordingly turn out in his honour at the funeral, which will take place from his late residence to-morrow afternoon. Mr. Cook leaves a wife and large family to mourn his loss. He had travelled extensively in Europe and the East and was well versed in modern languages.

It Will Pay You.

If you want furniture, it will pay you to visit A. Clegg's. Do not imagine that he keeps only expensive goods. You will find in his warerooms the largest assortment of medium and cheap furniture between Toronto and Montreal. Bedroom suites, hardwood, $11 and up; chairs, 6 for $2 and up; good hardwood sideboards, oak finish, bevelled mirrors, $9 and up. Extension tables, the best value ever offered, $6.50 and up. P suites, odd chairs, couches, h s, mattresses, bed springs, pill , window shades, cornice poles, etc., etc. Remember the place, A. CLEGG'S, 427 George street

Court House Park.

In the article in reference to Court House Park maintenance there was an error in the figures supplied. These figures showed that when the contemplated improvements were made there would be a balance in hand of over $20. But the correct figures, treated in the same manner show that instead of a credit balance of $20 the Horticultural Society will, at the close of the season, be about $60 in debt on account of park maintenance. If the town council had made the usual grant of $500, the society could have gotten through nicely with the season's work in Court House Park. It is obviously unfair that private enterprise should suffer financially for expenditure altogether in the public interest.

An Incipient Blaze.

A fire occurred at 2.30 this afternoon in the cellar of Gough Brothers' store, and although no damage was inflicted by the flames, yet a large quantity of valuable stock has been so permeated with smoke as to so greatly reduce its value and to cause a loss of several hundred dollars, which is however covered by insurance. It appears that a pile of paper and rubbish beneath the cellar stairs became ignited through the supposed dropping of a match by one of the clerks who was getting up some boards from the basement. The fire brigade responded most promptly to the alarm and the flames were quickly extinguished. The dimensions of the crowd which gathered in front of the premises at a moment's warning was something astonishing.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Jas. H. Wainright was in Omemee last week.

Mr. John Dobson, Lindsay, is registered at the Snowden.

Mr. Sam. Hughes, M.P., Lindsay, passed through on Saturday.

Messrs. T. R. S. Barlee and Samuel Reynolds, Lakefield, are in town.

Mr. G. H. M. Baker, of the Rathbun Company, Lindsay, is in town on business.

Messrs. Robert Roddy and W. S. Given, of Millbrook, were in town yesterday.

Mr. R. A. P. Halliday and wife and Mr. R. C. Strickland and wife, of Lakefield, registered at the Oriental Saturday.

Mrs. J. Stirling, of Peterborough, accompanied by a few of her friends from the same place, was in town on Saturday last visiting friends.—Omemee Mirror.

Charles Bennett (one of our village boys), got home from Queen's College yesterday, where he graduated with honours, and His Excellency the Governor-General was prisent to give him his parchment, which entitles him to write B. A. after his name. Charlie was always a good student and a faithful teacher. His many friends will be pleased to hear of his success and we are sure that all will join heartily in congratulating him.—Omemee Mirror.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Cresse and the Diamond Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

The international lacrosse match between England and Ireland was played recently at Manchester before a large crowd of spectators. It resulted in a draw, each team scoring five games.

The meeting of the baseball club which was to have been held this evening has been postponed. The new date will be announced.

The baseballists will turn out for practice to-morrow evening at Riverside Park.

Lacrosse practice to-night. The Peterborough's in the P.A.A.A. grounds and the Shamrock's at Riverside Park.

The only entry from Canada in the Grand Circuit races at Buffalo up to date, is from Mr. Thomas Crooks, of Hamilton, Ont.

One of the strongest English cricket teams that has ever appeared in this country, will make a tour of the United States and Canada this fall. Two matches will be played in Philadelphia and one each in seven cities, including Toronto and Montreal—in all likelihood one in Peterborough.

RAILWAY NOTES.

What is Going on in Local Railway Circles.

Advertising, remarks an exchange, is the coupling pin that unites persistence and success.

The Omemee Mirror ironically remarks: Mr. Van Horne, of the C.P.R., insists that wheat will be $2 a bushel within eighteen months. We have the utmost faith in Mr. Van Horne as a railway manager, but are somewhat inclined to the opinion that wheat won't go above $1.99 within the time mentioned.

Poison in Tea.

In England tea has been discovered contaminated with lead, undoubtedly from being wrapped in packages containing lead. This is a matter which is being enquired into, inasmuch as lead is a dangerous poison and its presence in so many packages of tea may well cause grave public alarm. Mason & Co., grocers, have no confidence in package teas, as their English blends surpass all teas placed on the market.

Emerald Beneficial Society.

The annual convention of the Emerald Beneficial Society will open its session in town to-morrow, the delegates arriving on the 11.40 a.m. train. Immediately upon arrival the members of the convention will march in a body to the Balmoral Hotel, where accommodation has been arranged for them. It is thought that about 60 delegates will be in attendance as there are 29 or 30 branches of the order established in the province, although more remote ones may be represented by proxy. The first session will open at 2 p.m. in the E. B. A. hall on George street. The local delegates are Dr. McGrath and Mr. W. J. Devlin. The session will continue for several days.

The Wabash Railway Trains

running every day in the year between Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are the finest known to the railway service; they are complete and solid vestibuled from end to end, the entire train being a moving palace of connected apartments, all furnished with the most luxurious elegance and perfection of commodation known to the car builders' art. They include free reclining, palace, sleeping and dining cars of the latest and best patterns. Call on or write any railway agent for tickets and all information, or address J. A. RICHARDSON, Canadian passenger agent, north-east corner King and Yonge streets, Toronto.

West Peterborough Licenses.

The West Riding Commissioners, Messrs. Robert Graham and M. Halpin (Mr. R. R. Hall having resigned.) These licenses were granted:

Smith.—Louis G. Fobert, Bridgenorth; Thomas Eastwood, Buckhorn; Wm. Macfarlane and James Kearney, Young's Point.

Lakefield.—R. J. Munro, tavern; Wm. Leahy, tavern, and Wm. Bowman, tavern.

Ashburnham.—Patrick Hogan, Geo. Lipsett, Mrs. Ann Swanson (wine and beer), tavern; J. C. Sullivan and Wm. Collins, shop.

Peterborough.—Taverns—Geo. Graham, Wm. Snowden, E. Phelan. David Lackie and A. P. Morgan. An extension of license was granted the other taverns in Peterborough, pending the appointment of a commissioner to succeed Mr. Hall and in order to give more consideration to what licenses are to be cut off as per the provisions of the town by-law.

Great Stock Reducing Sale

Now Going On.

There is just a little over a month until our buyer leaves for European markets. We must, therefore, in 35 days raise $25,000 for him to take along to pay for fall and winter goods. Another great reason for this sale is that our stock is $20,000 too large and it must come down. You all know what it means to you when we say

IT MUST COME DOWN

To accomplish our ends we know full well that we must greatly reduce prices (even though our prices have been the lowest). We have therefore at this early stage of the season's trade decided to offer all our new imported goods at prices such as might be quoted in July or August.

Our space will only permit us to specify a few of the many bargains offered. We ask every one to carefully read our list of attractions and call and prove to yourself that it is the great est bargain sale ever offered in this place.

THE REGISTRY OFFICE MATTER.

For some weeks it has been evident that Mr. Grundy, deputy registrar has been pursuing a course of action designed to damage Mr. Morrow, the registrar, and to supply the Opposition with ammunition for the coming political campaign. The course pursued by him has been one approved by the Toronto Empire in order to make a point against the Mowat Government. But the Empire would not be so anxious to champion Mr. Grundy if it knew the estimate of the Peterborough public of his character and peculiarities, which in addition to the figure he cut before the Public Accounts Committee, have made him the laughing stock of the entire community, especially when his peculiar actions suggested the ideas that the results of the trouble he has got himself into have for the moment unbalanced a mind that has not always been regarded as distinguished for mental strength or clearness, or qualities of the highest order. The EXAMINER has treated Mr. Grundy in this matter with a degree of fairness and consideration which the public are inclined to regard in the light of weakness and misplaced kindness. But this is only natural when it was felt that Mr. Grundy, conscious of the underhand game he was playing, became so "rattled" before the Public Accounts Committee that he was not in a condition to be responsible for what he was saying. But his letter in a Toronto paper to-day, is so far as Mr. Stratton, whom Mr. Grundy seeks to identify with the Registry Office, is concerned, is as utterly false as any previous statements which Mr. Grundy has retracted and which have been disproved by sworn evidence are. All that Mr. Stratton has to say is that he cannot be expected to hold himhimself responsible for the ravings of the disordered and diseased imagination and interested aspirations of any disappointed office-seeker. But every statement in Mr. Grundy's Empire letter is absolutely and utterly false in connection with the following statements. Mr. Stratton desires us to say that on Saturday evening, April 21st inst., when his attention was called to the published reports of the statements made by Mr. Grundy before the Public Accounts Committee, he at once stated that anything attributed to him of an improper character by Mr. Grundy was utterly, so far as he was concerned, without foundation. He at once did what any honourable man, unjustly and falsely accused, would do: went to his solicitors' office to verify, by documentary evidence and record, the position he took, which such examination fully verified. On Monday morning Mr. Stratton wrote to his solicitors, Stratton & Hall, to Mr. Morrow, the registrar, and Mr. Grundy, the letters which have already appeared in these columns. He delivered to Mr. Morrow and Mr. Grundy, in person, the letters addressed to them. Mr. Morrow went into his private room and wrote his reply, while Mr. Grundy prepared his. Mr. Grundy was not influenced in the slightest degree by Mr. Morrow nor Mr. Stratton. He as willingly and as readily desired to correct any wrong statement he had made under the excitement of examination in Toronto as any man could possibly do and in addition Mr. Grundy voluntarily expressed to Mr. Stratton his regret at what he had said. He also asserted that had Hon. Mr. Harcourt excited him any further he would not have been responsible for his statements. After receiving the replies of the registrar and his deputy, Mr. Stratton was proceeding to his office, when he thought it would be desirable to have these letters strengthened by declarations, and meeting Mr. Hall, who was on his way to the county court clerk's office on business, suggested the matter to him and requested Mr. Hall to return to the registry office and draft the declarations. Mr. Stratton telephoned to his office for the letter to a reply from his solicitors (Stratton & Hall) in order that their accuracy might be declared to at the same time by Mr. Grundy, if on reading them, he thought they were correct. He read Mr. Morrow's letter and said it was correct. He read Messrs. Stratton & Hall's letter and said it was correct. The declaration, which was then prepared by Mr. Hall, was read over carefully by Mr. Grundy, (Mr. Morrow being in the outer office.) After examining the books of the registry office, Mr. Grundy suggested a change in the declaration, which was accordingly made, and which the declaration shows, he signed the declaration. Mr. Morrow asserts that he knew nothing of the contents of the letter of Mr. Grundy or the declaration till he saw them in print in the EXAMINER. Mr. Stratton wishes to be distinctly understood that he never applied personally at the registry office for the registration of any instrument or document, but that all his transactions of this kind have been done through his solicitors. The declaration of Mr. Hall and also that of Mr. Morrow should be sufficient proof on that score. The statement made by Mr. Stratton in reference to the conversation Mr. Grundy sought with him, and already published in the EXAMINER, is as accurate a verse of the conversation as it is possible to give, notwithstanding anything which Mr. Grundy may invent to the contrary.

We feel that an apology is due the public for devoting so much of our space to this subject, but no matter how untrustworthy a man may be, no matter how peculiar have been his business methods, a sworn statement by a man like Mr. Grundy, distorting facts and making baseless charges requires as explicit and forcible reputation as possible. A man who will stoop to the baseness of which Mr. Grundy has been guilty, in this matter; who will as he did do, crawl out of his bed at daylight and sneak to the train, to supply information against his employer to a Conservative M.P.P., on his way to Toronto: and who after such treacherous conduct has the truckling "gall" (this is not a dictionary word, but it fits the case) to remain in the position which he has done his best and worse to discredit, the nest he has tried so hard to foul—a man who will be guilty of all this, who will sink to the depths of leaving unchallenged that he had only $400 a year to maintain a wife and seven children, when it is known that within the last few years he has had at his command (no matter how obtained) about $20,000,—a man of this stamp has placed himself beyond the pale of sympathy, or even contempt.

With regard to Mr. Grundy's denial of his ever having been afflicted with brain trouble, we have his own statement for it. We are informed by Mr. Morrow that there is no writing in the books of the registry office in Mr. Grundy's handwriting from Dec. 3rd, '93, till April 26th, '94. It is a well-known fact Mr. F. W. G. Haultain was in the registry office when Mr. Morrow was appointed. When Mr. Grundy returned to the office after his absence from the office he stated himself that his head or brain was affected. That he was away from Peterborough on leave of absence is a well-known fact, and there can be no doubt of his health having been affected by some trouble which rendered him unfit for duty, and if he can be believed in anything it is more than probable that his statement to Mr. Morrow as to his brain being affected is the correct one. This is not mentioned as a reproach but to show that his (Grundy's) statements are entirely unreliable. So far as his statements in regard to his financial relations with Mr. Morrow are concerned, that is an affair between themselves. If Mr. Grundy chose to accept Mr. Morrow's accommodation note, which, Mr. Morrow says, he obtained from time to time, in advance, it is a pure matter of business, conerning only the two parties themselves.

We do not like to write in such a strain, but it is the only one the circumstances call for. A political party must be in desperate straits when it will stoop to employ such despicable tactics and such despicable instruments. Sewer politics are not creditable to men who claim to be statesmen.

A LIVE DAY IN NORWOOD ON THE TWENTY-FOURTH.

Cheerful and Practical Co-operation of the Citizens.

Norwood is preparing a drawing programme for a Queen's Birthday celebration. Nearly all the principal business men of the village are taking a hand in the work, and already the enthusiasm over the event is catching like "la grippe." Public meetings have been held in the town hall to discuss and arrange the various attractive details, and the Norwood sports are working for a monster demonstration that will "down' anything of the kind hitherto attempted. So far the programme will include a calithumpian procession on the streets, which leaves its haunts somewhere in the vicinity of Grover's woods, at noon and proceed to the agricultural show grounds. Then there will be a Wild West show on the grounds, for which Joe. McKelvey has in training his bucking ponies and wild steers. An exciting foot ball tournament will also take place, in which six crack clubs will give an exhibition of their prowess. The day is to wind up with a grand concert in the evening in the town hall. Among the names of the citizens' committee are the following:—Messrs. John Finley, chairman; John Rorke, secretary; Arch. R. Anderson, M. McGregor, W. A. Richardson, J. R. McKelvey, James Pengelly, Chas. Searight, M Doherty, J. Harper, Thos. Fraser, John McMillan, Samuel McGloughlin and others. Posters will be out in a few days giving full details.

A FOUL-SMELLING DUMP.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

MR. EDITOR,—A notice has been put up (and not a moment too soon) at the Water street "dump" forbidding the depositing of filth. It would be well for the police department to keep an eye on this spot during the night as the residents are often awakened from their sleep by the noise occasioned by the "dump" being utilized. Next morning a heap of ill smelling garbage remains as the result of this midnight visit of the scavenger cart.

Ashes, upon which the kitchen slops for the winter have been emptied, do not emit any too pleasant an odor and a load of ashes, such as described most certainly comes under the head of filth, yet load after load has been deposited at the river bank in this spot all spring and it has the appearance very much of "closing the stable door after the steed is stolen" to placard the spot at this late day. If the medical health officer would suggest to the town authorities the advisability of spreading a few cartloads of earth over the smelling heap and his advice was followed it would have a beneficial effect.

The fine for an infraction of the rules of the placard is $20 and the residents in the vicinity propose to keep an eye on all who use the dump and lay informations, if necessary in order to preserve the atmosphere of this hitherto healthy locality from being permeated with the germs of disease.

Yours truly,
INVALID.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

"RAISIN' A RACKET"
—IN—
BOOTS AND SHOES
TO TAKE THE PLACE OF
A Queen's Birthday Demonstration!

The boy said: "This Shoe business is altogether too brisk," when his mother chastised him with a slipper. That's what other shoe dealers think of us, for we not only command the largest and finest shoe trade in Peterborough, but our popularity extends for a hundred miles around.

The loyal people of Peterborough needn't feel disappointed if the boys didn't get up a big demonstration for the Queen's Birthday. We have put on foot A THUNDERING RACKET IN BOOTS AND SHOES, and propose to keep it going until after the 24th, without asking the council or the merchants to guarantee us against loss.

We're always busy. No dull times with us. But, for the present, we have turned on enough extra power on our Electric Battery of Low Prices to "raise a Thundering Racket" in Boots and Shoes, and to keep it booming for over a month.

Last week we bought for 55c. on the dollar the large Wholesale Stock of a City Manufacturer who had stuck on the rock of hard times and was shivering in his boots for ready cash. This stock, we are determined, shall not remain long on our hands. GO, IT MUST! and that the public may see that there's nothing in the way of its going off fast enough, "we touch the button" and give you a few random shocks from OUR MAGNET OF OUTRIVALLED PRICES:—

"Not In It!"

Don't count us in any combination to raise the price of Groceries for Spong is NOT IN IT.

All stories to that effect are utterly and wickedly false, because Spong is NOT IN IT.

SPONG buys and sells for Cash, and intends to keep on doing so, and Spong can afford to be—NOT IN IT.

We give and take no credit and can sell just so much cheaper than stores that have to give and have to take credit; therefore Spong is positively NOT IN IT.

All attempts to rope SPONG into a combination to raise the price of Groceries will fail. SPONG goes on his own peculiar way same as ever, and will continue as the "Original Cheap Cash Store," and "Heavy Weight Grocer,"—and don't you forget it.

ONCE IN A WHILE.

Once in a while the sun shines out,
And the arching skies are a perfect blue;
Once in a while 'mid clouds of doubt
Faith's fairest stars come peeping through.
Our paths lead down by the meadows fair
Where the sweetest blossoms nod and smile;
And we lay aside our cross of care,
Once in a while.

Once in a while within our own
We feel the hand of a steadfast friend;
Once in a while we hear a tone
Of love with the heart's own voice to blend.
And the dearest of all our dreams come true,
And on life's way is a golden mile;
Each thirsting flower is kissed with dew,
Once in a while.

Once in a while in the desert sand
We find a spot of the fairest green;
Once in a while from where we stand
The hills of paradise are seen.
And a perfect joy in our hearts we hold,
A joy that the world cannot defile;
We trade earth's dross for the purest gold,
Once in a while.

A TIGER'S PLAYTHING.

In India once I went out on a hot, dusty plain near the Ganges, with my rifle and one native servant, to see what I could shoot. It was a dismal place. Here and there were clumps of tall grass and bamboos, with now and then a tamarisk tree. Parrots screamed in the trees, and the startled caw of some Indian crows made me pause and look around to see what had disturbed them.

The crows almost at once settled down again into silence, and, as I saw no sign of danger, I went on carelessly. I was alone, for I had sent back my servant to find my match-box, which I had left at the place of my last halt, but I had no apprehensions, for I was near the post, and the district was one from which, as was supposed, the tigers had been cleared out some years before.

Just as I was musing on this fact, with a tinge of regret because I had come too late to have a hand in the clearance, I was crushed to the ground by a huge mass, which seemed to have been hurled upon me from behind. My head felt as though it had been dashed with icy or scalding water, and then everything turned black.

If I was stunned by the shock, it was only for an instant. When I opened my eyes I was lying with my face in the sand. Not knowing where I was or what had happened, I started to rise, when instantly a huge paw turned me over on my back, and I saw the great yellow-green eyes of a tiger looking down upon me through their narrow black slits.

I did not feel horror-stricken; in fact, so far as I can remember, I felt only a dim sense of resignation to the inevitable. I also remember that I noticed with curious interest that the animal looked rather gratified than ferocious.

I do not know how long I lay there, stupidly gazing up into the brute's eyes, but presently I made a movement to sit up, and then I saw that I still held my rifle in my hand. While I was looking at the weapon with a vague, harassing sense that there was something I ought to do with it, the tiger picked me up by the left shoulder and made off with me into the jungle; and still I clung to the rifle, though I had forgotten what use I should put it to.

The grip of the tiger's teeth upon my shoulder I felt but numbly, and yet, as I found afterward, it was so far from gentle as to have shattered the bone.

Having carried me perhaps half a mile, the brute dropped me, and, raising her head, uttered a peculiar, soft cry. Two cubs appeared at once in answer to the summons, and bounded up to meet her. At the first glance of me, however, they sheered off in alarm, and their dam had to coax them for some minutes, rolling me over softly with her paw, or picking me up and laying me down in front of them, before she could convince them that I was harmless.

At last the youngsters suffered themselves to be persuaded. They threw themselves upon me with eager though not very dangerous ferocity and began to maul and worry me. Their claws and teeth seemed to awaken me for the first time to a sense of pain. I threw off the snarling little animals roughly and started to crawl away. In vain the cubs tried to hold me. The mother lay watching the game with satisfaction.

Instinctively I crept toward a tree, and little by little the desire for escape began to stir in my dazed brain. When I was within a foot or two of the tree the tiger made a great bound, seized me in her jaws and carried me back to spot whence I had started.

"Why," thought I to myself, "this is just exactly the way a cat plays with a mouse."

At the same moment a cloud seemed to roll off my brain. No words of mine can describe the measureless and sickening horror of that moment, when realization was thus suddenly flashed upon me.

At the shock my rifle slipped from my relaxing fingers, but I recovered it desperately, with a sensation as if I had been falling over a precipice.

I knew now what I wanted to do with it. The suddenness of my gesture, however, appeared to warn the tiger that I had yet a little too much life in me. She growled and shook me roughly. I took the hint, you may be sure, and resumed my former attitude of stupidity, but my faculties were now alert enough and at the cruelest tension.

Again the cubs began mauling me. I repelled them gently, at the same time looking to my rifle. I saw that there was a cartridge ready to be projected into the chamber. I remembered that the magazine was not more than half empty.

I started once more to crawl away, with the cubs snarling over me and trying to hold me, and it was at this point I realized that my left shoulder was broken.

Having crawled about four or five feet, I let the cubs turn me about, whereupon I crawled back toward the older tiger, who lay blinking and actually purring. It was plain that she had made a good meal not long before, and was, therefore, in no hurry to dispatch me.

Within about three feet of the beast's striped foreshoulder I stopped and fell over on my side, as if all but exhausted. My rifle barrel rested on a little tussock. The beast moved her head to watch me, but evidently considered me past all possibility of escape, for her eyes rested as much upon her cubs as upon me.

The creatures were tearing at my legs, but in this supreme moment I never thought of them. I had now thoroughly regained my self-control.

Laboriously, very deliberately, I got my sight and covered a spot right behind the old tiger's foreshoulder, low down. From the position I was in, I knew this would carry the bullet diagonally upward through the heart. I should have preferred to put a bullet in the brain, but in my disabled condition and awkward posture I could not safely try it.

Just as I was ready one of the cubs got in the way, and my heart sank. The old tiger gave the cub a playful cuff, which sent it rolling to one side. The next instant I pulled the trigger—and my heart stood still.

My aim had not wavered a hair's breadth. The snap of the rifle was mingled with a fierce yell from the tiger, and the long-barred body straightened itself up into the air and fell over almost on top of me. The cubs sheered off in great consternation.

I sat up and drew a long breath of thankful relief. The tiger lay beside me, stone dead.

I was too weak to walk at once, so I leaned against the body of my vanquished foe and rested. My shoulder was by this time setting up an anguish that made me think little of my other injuries. Nevertheless, the scene about me took on a glow of exquisite color. So great was the reaction that the very sunlight seemed transfigured.

I know I fairly smiled as I wrapped the cubs on the mouth with my rifle barrel. I felt no inclination to shoot the youngsters, but I would have no more of their over-ardent attentions. The animals soon realized this and lay down in the sand beyond my reach, evidently waiting for their mother to reduce me to proper submission.

I must have lain there half an hour and my elation was rapidly subsiding before the agony in my shoulder, when at last my man, Gunjeet, appeared, tracking the tiger's traces with stealthy caution.

He had not waited to go for help but had followed up the beast without delay, vowing to save me or avenge me before he slept.

The cubs on his approach had run off into the cover, so we set out at once for the post. When I got there I was in a raging fever, which, with my wounds, kept me laid up for three months.

On my recovery I found that Gunjeet had gone the next day and captured the two cubs, which he had sent down the river to Benares, while the skin of the old tiger was spread luxuriously on my lounge.

You will not wonder that the sight of a cat playing with a mouse has become somewhat distasteful to me since that experience, I have acquired so keen a sympathy for the mouse!

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair had been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually "topped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterward, using in all about a quater of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seem to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

Comfort In .. Corsets.

The physical discomfort endured by ladies who have to wear an ill-fitting pair of Corsets is a punishment that need not be borne any longer.

FIRST.—Avoid all dealers who carry old stock so long that they are forced to reduce the price of their "torture packs" to the bare cost of the material in order to get rid of them; or who send out girls totally ignorant of the harm they do by taking measures regardless of the form or figure.

SECOND.—Consult MRS. ENSIGN at her private parlours on Simcoe St., who will personally fit you with a pair of Corsets conducive to health and comfort, and will give you just exactly the support and beauty of figure you so much need and admire.

INTO THE FROZEN NORTH

FIVE DIFFERENT EXPEDITIONS ARE HEADING ARCTIC POLE-WARD.

Great Results Looked For—The Routes to Be Followed by the English, Norway and American Parties—A Map Showing All of Them.

There will be five exploring parties in the arctic regions this season, the largest number ever in the field in one year, except when the circumpolar stations were maintained (1880-82) to make meteorological observations. The mission of two of these parties is to explore and to map almost wholly unknown land areas and coast-lines. The other three will try to attain the north pole, and to tell us of the geographic and other conditions to be found there. The cuts and descriptive matter are both from Harper's Weekly.

Peary's Plans.

The American flag is at the head of three of these enterprises, while Norway and England send out the other parties. First on the list is Lieutenant R. E. Peary, U.S. A., who saw the sun rise, in the latter part of February, above the hills south of camp in Inglefield Gulf, Northwest Greenland. We have no reason to doubt that between March 15 and 20 Peary, with eight or nine men and many dogs and sledges, clambered to the top of the ice-cap and fairly started on the journey to the north-east coast of Greenland. Over the lofty surface of the inland ice he must make his way for six hundred and fifty miles before he reaches Independence Bay, where his explorations will begin. Peary's laudable ambition is to fill up the big gaps in our knowledge of North Greenland. At Independence Bay he will divide his men into three parties, one of which will survey the entire northern coast of the mainland. Another party will try to solve the mystery of the lofty rounded islands he saw to the north in 1892. It is likely that they form an archipelago extending for a considerable distance north of the mainland. The third party will travel southeast along the coast to survey the wholly unknown shore-line between Independence Bay and Cape Bismarck, the most northern point reached by the Koldewey expedition in 1870. If Peary completes these coast surveys, all the shore-line of the largest island in the world will then be mapped, except the coast of Melville Bay, in West Greenland, and about two hundred miles of the east coast north of the sixty seventh parallel.

Peary himself will doubtless superintend the survey of the northern islands, a work of special difficulty, unless good sledging is found in the channels separating them. If the ice conditions in the Arctic Sea are at all favorable, two or three men will start toward the pole, and travel as far as they can; but all the parties are to return to Inglefield Gulf early next fall, in time to go home on the steamer that will be sent for them.

Robert Stein's Plans.

Mr. Robert Stein, who for nine years has been in the service of the United States Geological Survey, has chosen a most promising field for the expedition he is organizing. Just west of north Greenland, on the other side of Baffin Bay, is the large mass of Ellesmere Land, virgin ground for the discoverer, for many an explorer has passed it by unnoticed, and we know it only on the eastern and a part of the southern coast fringe. Mr. Stein and nine or ten men will soon go north on a whaler, and build a house on the coast of this land at the entrance to Jones Sound. From this depot a boat and sledge part will start west through the sound and up the west coast. There may be rich geographical prizes here, for nobody knows how far Ellesmere Laud may stretch to the west, nor what islands may extend the Parry archipelago further north in that untraversed western sea, nor whether Ellesmere Land is really itself an island, cut off from Grinnell Land on the north by Hayes Sound, as the natives assert. These and various scientific researches will keep the party very busy for eighty days. Then the party will come home, leaving perhaps two or three men at the house to keep the station and to carry on scientific observations until reinforced in 1895 by a second party, that will begin explorations toward the pole, designed by Mr. Stein to cover a series of years. His plans for this year's work have been approved by the highest authorities.

Where Dr. Nansen May Be.

The expeditions whose quest is the north pole are entering the Arctic area from the FIVE ROUTES TO THE NORTH POLE.

Euro-Asiatic side. Dr. Nansen and his little party on the Fram left Christiania on June 24 last. He has been heard from only once since he entered the Kara Sea. The natives along Russia's Arctic shores have been stimulated by promises of re-

"A wolf in sheep 's clothing"—the substitute offered by the "cutter" as being just as good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If you don't want to be bitten, insist upon having Ayer's Sarsaparilla, even if it is a little dearer. Depend on it, it will be cheaper for you in the end.

I can highly praise Burdock Blood Bitters because it had a fair trial in my case with wonderful success. My symptoms were dropsy, backache and sleeplessness, and all these disappeared after using two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters. I cannot praise its healing powers too highly.

wards to take to the white settlements any news they may hear of Nansen. The fact that nothing has been heard from him indicates that he succeeded in crossing the Arctic Ocean to the new Siberian islands, where he intended to force his vessel into the ice. Nansen believes a current near these islands moves north across the pole, having its outlet in the polar stream that flows south along Greenland's east coast. He depends upon this current to carry the Fram to or near the pole, and then south to the open sea east of Greenland. Nearly every Arctic authority believes this venture is one of the most foolhardy ever undertaken, though all admire Nansen for his undoubted pluck and the brilliant work he has already done. While one or two geographers, like Dr. Supan, think Nansen's project is justifiable, most authorities have little faith in his theory of currents, or the ability of his vessel to withstand ice pressure. He is provioned for five years, and if he loses his vessel he will try to haul his whale-boat over the ice to the open sea.

Jackson Has Four Years' Supplies.

Frederick G. Jackson's plan, on the other hand, commends itself to every one, for he will take the Franz-Josef Land route, which for years has been in great favor among Arctic experts as offering a good chance to reach the pole. A wealthy Englishman has contributed the entire cost of the expedition which will leave England late in July on a specially built steamer. After landing the six or seven members of the party, late in August, on the south shores of Franz Josef Land, the vessel will return to England, and the explorers will put up a Russian log house and make themselves as snug as possible for the winter. This camp will be the main depot, from which in the spring the party with dogs and sledges will start north through Austria Sound, following the steps of the Austrians who discovered this land mass, and caching supplies every thirty or forty miles. It has long been thought that beyond Petermann Land, the most northern of these islands yet seen, the archipelago may extend far north, and perhaps to the pole. Jackson hopes that this is the case, and if so he will plant his supply depots along the coast within easy reach of one another. This will, of course, involve a number of journeys to the main supply depot, but Jackson is in no hurry. He will be provisioned for four years, and proposes to take all the time necessary to reach the pole if that elusive goal can be reached by this route. He is not depending, however, upon having land the whole way, and he will have collapsible boats for the navigation of stretches of open water. The advantages of Jackson's plan are that his base of operations is within easy reach of Europe, that he may find an almost continuous coast-line leading far toward the pole, and that at any rate, he may be able to map the entire Franz-Josef Land region, now only partly known.

Walter Wellman's Dash.

For the first time since Parry started for the pole with boats and sledges over the terrible rough sea ice north of Spitzbergen, in 1827, the same route and methods are to be tested this year by Walter Wellman, an enterprising journalist. Mr. Wellman and several comrades started early in March for Norway, where a steamer has been engaged to take them to the edge of the Arctic ice, landing on the way a depot of supplies on the coast of Northwest Spitzbergen. It would, perhaps, be difficult to improve upon Wellman's equipment. His toboggan sledges, there is little doubt, are most suitable for the ice he will meet, and he has everything that experience suggested to facilitate his journey. About three months after the party have landed the steamer will be at the ice edge again to take them home. If they fail to connect with the steamer they will depend upon their boats to take them to the supply depot established in Spitzbergen, where they will be compelled to winter. At this writing Wellman's enterprise can be regarded only as a dash toward the pole; but when it is recalled that Parry, with a wretched and cumbrous equipment, and before the days of successful Arctic sledging, attained by this route a latitude that was not equaled for a half-century later, it will not be very surprising if Wellman makes a high Northing, even though very rough going, and the persistent southern drift of the ice wiping out many of his hard-won miles are factors against him.

WALTER WELLMAN.

My Toothache!

Is an exclamation heard every hour in the day. Toothache is the most common ailment of young or old, and in the aggregate inflicts more suffering than perhaps any other single complaint. A one minute cure is just what every person should possess. WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The Closing Meeting—Farewell to Six Ladies Who go Out to the Mission Field—Some Quaint Thankofferings.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Toronto Diocese has come to a close after a most successful session. The election of officers resulted in the re-election of the old Board of Management, with with a few exceptions. The officers for the coming year are: Hon. President, Mrs. Sweatman; President, Mrs. Williamson; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. DuMoulin; Diocesan Treasurer, Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, 44 Dewson street, Toronto; Dorcas Secretary, Mrs. Banks; Treasurer, Mrs. Grindlay, 561 Jarvis street; Convenor Dorcas Committee, Mrs. Cayley; Convenor Literature, Mrs. E. G. Heilliwell; Secretaries junior branches, Mrs. Forsyth Grant and Miss Tilley; Secretary-Treasurer Literature Committee, Mrs. Hodgins, 96 Pembroke street; Treasurer "extra-cent-a-day" fund, Mrs. T. W. Howard; editor Leaflet, Mrs. Williamson.

The farewell to missionary workers was probably the most impressive feature of the whole meeting. Six ladies who are about to set out to engage in mission work in widely separated fields of labour were introduced to the meeting and were received with a degree of warmth that must have shown them that the interest taken in their work by the members of the auxiliary was deep and earnest. These out-going missionaries are:—Mrs. Young, who returns to Athabasca; Miss Brown, who returns to the Piegan Reserve; Miss Paterson and Mrs. Kennedy, president of the Bolton Auxiliary, who go to Japan to work with Rev. J. C. Waller, formerly of Toronto; Miss Trent, who goes to Japan to work with Rev. Cooper Robinson, also formerly of Toronto, and Miss Margaret Durtnell, who goes to the Lesser Slave Lake district in the N.W.T.

THE "FLIRTATION" ALLEGATION.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavour are not Merely Flirting Organizations.

Mr. R. W. Dillon, in writing to the Globe, has the following to say regarding assertions that "flirting" is indulged in at the Christian Endeavour meetings:—

"A friend writes from Woodstock stating that in his neighbourhood there are some people who object to a Young People's Society for that very ancient and, we had hoped, extinct objection now, that it resolves itself into a flirtation society, and asks me to deal with the matter here. Our friend would possibly silence these objections best by getting the testimony of the pastors and churches in his locality that have Young People's Societies. I think I need not deal with the question further than to say that in the commonly accepted meaning of "flirtation" it is not true. That young people enjoy friendly and social intercourse in these societies, and that such intercourse does ripen sometimes into marriage is true and a truth for which we ought to be devoutly thankful. I know of no better place to find such "affinities" than in a Christian Endeavor Society. For some time past philosophers have been bewailing the fact that the present is not a marrying generation—that the young woman finds marriage is not the only goal in life and is therefore more independent in her choice; that the wants and tastes of the average young man are greatly increased so that he cannot find money to marry on. Statistics in the future may show that the Endeavour movement, amongst other things has promoted domestic unions of the right sort. Possibly there is something consoling for all who object to Young People's Societies on this basis, "that in heaven they neither marry nor give in marriage," otherwise they would raise serious objections to heaven itself as a place of abode."

THE BUCHANAN CASE.

Equal to a Resurrection Almost Helpless from Kidney Disease—A Burden to Himself and His Friends—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Chatham, April 30.—The story of Sherman Buchanan, living near Leamington, is worthy of notice. He says he was almost helpless, bloated and a wreck with kidney disease. His digestive organs were powerless and he was rapidly becoming a burden to himself and his friends. Naturally he lost all hopes of recovery, but a happy thought suggested Dodd's Kidney Pills, and these cured him. Dodd's was the first Kidney remedy in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

THE TRIPLE LINK.

ONE OF THE LARGEST SOCIETY PARADES PETERBOROUGH EVER WITNESSED.

The Members of Peterborough and Otonabee Lodges Turned Out Yesterday in Large Numbers to Attend the Annual Church Parade of the Order—A Most Eloquent Sermon.

The ushers at George street Methodist church had their resources taxed to the utmost last night to find seating room in the edifice for all who sought admission. It is estimated that there were fully 2,500 present, it being the occasion of the deliverance of the annual sermon to the Oddfellows. The members of Peterborough and Otonabee Lodges turned out to the number of about 400, and headed by Canton No. 10, Patriarchs Militant, marched to the church in a body. The marshalls under whose guidance the members marched, were Past Grand Angus McIntosh and Captain Miller. It was the largest turn-out of any society membership that Peterborough has seen for many a day, and George street was lined with spectators who were unanimous in their praise of the fine appearance presented by those who participated in the march.

Rev. W. R. Young chose as his text for the evening's discourse a text which was peculiarly appropriate. It was taken from Ecclesiastics IV chap., 12 verse: "A three fold chord is not quickly broken." Addressing himself to the congregation in general the speaker delivered himself of the opinion that the Almighty never intended that man should live alone. He instanced the Garden of Eden as illustrative of the point to which he referred. Wherever man was found, the truth taught at creation, that if it is not good for man to live alone, was recognized. A happy family life, he thought, seemed to embody everything that was pure and holy. Could any words be more than those used in connection with home life—mother, father, husband, wife, brother, etc.

In the earliest ages men congregated together in tribes for the sake of companionship and mutual protection. Then later there were states and kingdoms formed and then commenced the formation of societies. There were church societies, political socities, phisolophical societies, benevolent societies, social societies, and in fact societies which touched every phase of human life and afforded ample scope for the developement of all the desirable sides of a man's character. It was therefore plain he thought that man craved companionship. Hermit life was not natural to man. Chaplain Searles, of Auburn State Prison, had stated that there were cells in that place of confinement when the prisoners in certain cases were subjected to complete solitude. They were not allowed to even see the face of a gaoler for months at a time. Men who were innured to privatations of every description would be broken in spirit completely by a term in one of these cells and prisoners would beg for the whip and the scourge rather than undergo the horrors of solitary confinement.

The Order of Oddfellows exists to satisfy this craving for companionship. It also exists for purposes of mutual aid. A good deal had been said about man's independence, and a man could probably boast of his independence of man if he possessed riches and lands, fine houses and equipages, but without society all these would lose half their value. The Word of God, said he, gives no uncertain sound on the VALUE OF FRIENDSHIP.

Was it not written "Bear ye one another's burdens?" In the society to which he was speaking at that moment a fair example might be had of the following of this Divine precept. In the fourth chapter of Ecclesiastes the following three verses all bore directly on the value of companionship:—

9 Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but, how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

The object and aims of the Independent Order of Oddfellows were simple and complete—the care of the sick and relief of the unfortunate and also the developement of every social and moral virtue of the members. One of the Order's symbols, as typified by the first of the triple links, was the cardinal virtue, "truth." There were different kinds of truth. There was mathematical truth, scientific truth, political truth—when you could find it—and religious truth. Religious truth was necessary in Oddfellowship, as one of the answers given by applicants for intiation was "I believe in God." There was therefore no room for atheists, agnostics or secularism in this grand Order. In another part of their creed appears the assertion, "I believe in the immortality of the soul and in the brotherhood of man." The brotherhood of man was the fundamental principle of Christianity and he must be a chronic pessimist who in this world of sunshine can find no friendship. True friendship is not controlled by the environments of a man's life. True friends remain the same through storm and sunshine and do not hesitate to kindly reprove faults when perceptible. He is who is forever chanting your virtues and glossing over your faults.

It has been said, continued Mr. Young, that love kills friendship, but he did not find it so. Stripped of its poesy, love was but a feeling of high regard in which the truest friendship was typified.

It has also been said that the lodgeroom was inimical to home life, but such a state was most erroneous. If a man was fonder of his lodgeroom than his home there was something radically wrong with either the man or the home. The lodgeroom should not be made to shoulder the blame. Again referring to love, the speaker stated that the highest and most perfect illustration we have of the divine passion was that of Christ dying through His love for the ungodly.

Addressing himself more personally to the members of the order present, Mr. Young earnestly exhorted them to value the spotless virtue of purity the highest of any which their rules required them to observe. In concluding the speaker stated that in the way of charity the Independent Order of Oddfellows could be proud of its record but he warned them to bear in mind that the end of misery was not yet.

During the evening the choir rendered two anthems in a manner which was most pleasing. Mr. Shaw's singing of the solo "Hosanna" was also greatly appreciated.

Upon their return to their rooms the members held a short meeting, at which Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., moved a vote of thanks to Rev. Brother Young for his most excellent sermon; to the board of managers for their courtesy in putting the church at the disposal of the Order, and to the members of the choir for the sweet music which they had rendered during the evening. The resolution, which was prefaced by a few appropriate remarks by Mr. Stratton, was passed unanimously on a standing vote. A number of short speeches were also made by other members in regard to the many good points made in the sermon by Rev. Mr. Young, who it appears, is a brother Oddfellow.

CHURCH CHIMES.

George street church Christian Endeavour meets this evening.

St. John's will hold no service on either Wednesday or Friday of this week.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew meets on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in Rev. Mr. Kearick's rooms, Hunter street.

The offertory next Sunday in St. John's Church, outside the envelope subscription, will be devoted to the Domestic Mission Fund.

The sacrament will not be administered at midday next Sunday in St. John's, but will be postponed until Whitsunday, a week later.

The ordinance of baptism was administered to seven applicants for membership into the Baptist church last night by Rev. Mr. Trotter.

The literary meeting of the Charlotte Street Christian Endeavour Society will be held this evening. A good programme has been provided.

Rev. Mr. Trotter, of the Baptist Church, is in Toronto attending the commencement exercises which began this morning in McMaster University.

At the conclusion of the Wednesday evening prayer service in the George street Methodist church this week, the Board of Trustees will hold a meeting.

In the anthem, "Some Sweet Day," which was sung in the Baptist church last night the solo was Mrs. (Dr.) Scott and the duet by Dr. Scott and Mrs. McKee.

At the morning service in the Charlotte Street Church yesterday the regular anthem was replaced by the singing of a trio, entitled "The Golden Shore," by Messrs. Steers, Squires and Stephens.

Regular quarterly services will be held in George street Methodist church next Sunday. A love feast will be held at 9.30 o'clock in the morning and the sacrament will be administered after evening service.

Ascension Day falls on May 3rd. Although it is not one of the days upon which the world has set its seal, yet the church still commemorates it as one of its holiest days. Holy Communion will be administered in St. John's at 7.30 in the morning, and a service held at 8 o'clock in the evening at which a sermon will be delivered.

Mr. M. G. Mulligan having accepted the position of leader of St. Andrew's choir, led yesterday. St. Andrew's is to be congratulated on having secured the services of so efficient a leader and singer. The anthems were beautifully rendered both morning and evening. During the morning offertory the choir, sitting in their seats, sang with effect "Knocking! Knocking!" In the evening Mr. Mulligan sang in fine voice and expression a beautiful piece entitled "Zion."

Rev. Mr. Davidson announced yesterday that the committee appointed to endeavour to increase the envelope subscriptions of the members of the congregotion had met with great success in their efforts, fifty new subscribers through this medium being secured, while a number of the older subscribers had increased the amount of their subscription. This, he explained, meant that so many additional people were now brought into nearer contact with the church—more in touch, as it were. He made the announcement with the greatest pleasure and was sure it would be received with gratitude.

Yesterday morning the congregation in St. Andrew's was again very large, the church being well filled. The Rev. Mr. MacWilliams preached an instructive and interesting sermon to parents fron Gen. 18: 19. His divisions were: 1. Wise parental government commended; 2. Wise parental government begets virtuous children; 3. Wise parental government is a condition of promised blessing to the parents. In the evening the congregation was also good, but a number were absent with the Oddfellows. Mr. MacWilliams said that he had had three funerals during the week therefore he would speak to them from I Cor. 15: 56-57. After the sermon Mr. Buskin, missionary to Algoma, spoke briefly of his work, soliciting help. Plates were passed at the door and a goodly sum was contributed by the people as they passed out.

ANOTHER GREAT SERMON AT ST. PAUL'S BY THE REV. DR. SEXTON.

Yesterday at St. Paul's church the service was conducted in the morning by Rev. E. F. Torrance, M.A., who preached an excellent sermon on the "Parable of the Sower," and in the evening the pulpit was again occupied by the distinguished visitor to our town, the Rev. Dr. Sexton. The sermon on this occasion was based upon Psalm xviii. 35, and was entitled "Human Greatness and Divine Gentleness." These two points were dealt with at great length. Contrasted with the physical universe man, said the Doctor, was remarkably small and insignificant. We now knew of the existence of a hundred million of stars, and these stars were huge suns, many of them millions of times larger than our sun, with their worlds revolving around them possibly inhabited by beings similar to, or perhaps superior to, ourselves. That it might be noted how small was our earth, Jupiter was larger than all the other planets revolving around our sun, and the sun itself would make a thousand Jupiters; five hundred and fifty million Jupiters. Then yet the star called Arcturus would make what was man 72 inches in height moving at the rate of 4 miles an hour in a universe like this! Why the earth itself if it were swept out of existence to-morrow would no more be missed from God's universe than one grain of sand removed from the ocean shore. And yet man was great, greater than suns and stars, despite their magnitude. It was he who constructed the telescope that brought these suns into the field of vision, his mind went out to those and he would live when suns and stars would have passed away. Moreover, he was a child of God, capable of knowing right and wrong, exercising the power of love, and of obeying the will of God.

The gentleness of God was seen everywhere in nature and in providence. The mightiest forces were often locked up in the smallest objects. In a single drop of water there was enough electric force to produce a thunderstorm. The earth was moving on its axis at the rate of a thousand miles an hour; in its orbit at the rate of sixty-eight thousand miles an hour; and in yet another direction, with the sun and all his worlds, at the rate of seventy-two thousand miles an hour. Yet all this was so gently done that we were not conscious of a motion at all. And, in the providence of God, how gently had he dealt with us! How often had we made vows but to break them, and resolutions that were never kept a week!

The gentleness of God did not always make men great; sometimes it made them remarkably small. It depended upon how it was received. You might do a favour to one man and he would be grateful, but a favour done to another would make him your enemy. So it was with all the blessings we received from God. They might make us love Him or drive us further away from Him. We ought to see to it that this gentleness of God should make us great.

BRITISH CABLE GOSSIP

Lord Rosebery's Policy Said to Be Different From Mr. Gladstone's.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT BILL

Welsh Members Satisfied With Its Provisions—Herbert Gladstone's Very Radical Proposal—The Puritan Movement in Glasgow.

LONDON, April 30.—Lord Rosebery's policy is finally assuming the semblance of definite shape. The Premier's speech at the meeting of the city Liberal Club forewarns his party and the country that the new course of the Government will be vastly different from Mr. Gladstone's. This makes it perfectly patent that the Government has decided upon a new departure so far as the Irish question is concerned at least, and this view is generally accepted in spite of the efforts of the Gladstonian journals to miminize the effect of the Premier's remark. In regard to the Welsh disestablishment bill it might be said that the bill as it stands pleases the Welsh fairly well, though more advanced Welsh members have some minor improvements to suggest most of which will doubtless be accepted as reasonable. No opposition inside the ranks of the majority has been discovered, and it is certain that the bill will pass a second reading by at least the normal strength of that majority.

Sticklers to Precedent.

Herbert Gladstone's proposal to remove a portion of the grating in front of the ladies' gallery in the House of Commons has created as great a disturbance among the members as a suggestion to unseat the Queen from the throne. No legislative body in the world, not even the House of Lords, is such a slave to precedent as the British House of Commons in all matters affecting its private affairs. Lord Randolph Churchill is loudest in protest, but so much opposition has developed privately that the proposed change has been abandoned, and the fiction will continue to exist for the present that no woman can enter the House of Commons.

Advancing in Moral Tone.

The puritan movement in Glasgow, which started a few weeks ago with the refusal to allow a public exhibition of certain pictures, has been in no way checked by the storm of ridicule with which it was first received. It is now being urged that a good many improper plays are performed at the local theatres in the course of every year, and the time has arrived to establish some kind of a censorship. These representations having met with little popular favor, the puritans have made an attack on the running of street cars on Sundays. The city council was called upon to put a stop to this desecration of the Sabbath, but it declined to interfere, and public indignation meetings are now being held.

Fate of a Human Ostrich.

America has been wonder stricken by the great variety of performances of human ostriches, but the palm must be given to a Londoner who died a martyr to his profession. The autopsy brought to light a bullet, twenty or thirty pieces of cork, twenty pieces of tin-foil, a piece of string eight inches long with corks tied to each end, and a piece of leather nine inches long with hooks in it. One hook and a piece of tin-foil had perforated the man's intestines and caused death. He had been accustomed to swallow chains, sovereign purses, coins, pipe stems, newspapers and so on. The jury's verdict was death from misadventure.

Cecil and the Cyclists.

The Sunday bicyclists in England have become a vast army. Lord William Cecil, rector of Hatfield, proposes to bring the church into direct relations with this new class of the population. As an inducement to cyclists to visit his church he has provided special seats for their use, with a due equipment of prayer and hymn books, and has made arrangements whereby all machines are to be kept under lock and key while the riders are at their devotions. Notices to this effect have been posted at all the inns. Lord Cecil is the second son of Lord Salisbury.

THE WILSON TARIFF BILL.

President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle Object to Income Tax.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—For more than two weeks the President has been in daily and nightly consultation with the leaders of the party, including some who are not at all friendly to the administration, and has impressed upon them the necessity of taking some decided step at once on the tariff question in order to relieve the suspense and break the effect of the concentration of the army of the unemployed of the country upon the capital.

In order to perfect a bill that can receive the support of the forty-four Democrats in the United States Senate the odious income tax feature is to be practically smashed, if it can be smashed, and to accomplish this President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle are now employing every means in their power. But it is not at all certain that the administration will be able so to amend the bill that it will receive Democratic support, and their work must for a time at least be carried on entirely outside of the members of the Committee on Finance.

One statement has been made in connection with the alleged amended bill that has not been denied and will probably not be. This is that the Finance Committee has decided to change the sugar duty from specific to ad valorem, the result of which is said to be a substantial concession to the sugar refiners, as it gives them an increased differential rate of duty.

THE MINERS' STRIKE.

Coal Supply Becoming Exhausted—Only One Mine Running.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—At the end of the first week of the great coal miners' strike but one mine is in operation in the district east of the Alleghanies. That mine, which is in the Phillipsburg region, near Osceola, employs but 100 men. Threats are made that if they do not quit they will be visited by delegations from the other mines and compelled to do so. The supply of coal is fast becoming exhausted. The miners claim that the strike can last but a few days longer, but the operators in the Beech Creek and Clearfield district say that they will make no attempt to start their mines unless work is resumed in other regions, or until it is learned that orders are being taken and filled in the other districts.

Mantles and Capes.

Tell your friends, tell your neighbours, tell your enemies—about our WONDERFUL SALE now going on.

Every new Mantle, every new Cape, every new Wrap—must go—hence and forthwith—and "stand not upon the order of going,"—but go at once.

To cut once—and cut deeply—is better than to hack away, little by little—so this blow is to the bone. Read how facts and figures go hand-in-hand:—

Our	$15 00	Mantle.....	goes for	$11 65
Our	13 00	Mantles & Capes	"	9 50
Our	11 00	"	"	8 40
Our	8 75	"	"	6 25
Our	8 00	"	"	5 75
Our	6 75	"	"	5 25
Our	4 00	"	"	3 00

We sold yesterday a $12.50 Mantle, handsomely embroidered, full sleeves, for $4.00.

There's no likelihood that the pick of Paris and Berlin Mantles will ever again be so absurdly low. Not a coat in the lot but is to-day worth twice or may be thrice times the price.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

A BLOW AT THE

Dress Goods.

Dress Goods are the vertebræ of our dry goods stock. As the marrow to the vertebræ, so are our MATCHLESS VALUES. Bettering our best is our effort all the time.

1894 stands pre-eminent for sales and attractive bargains in Dress Goods. The splendid success of our sales justifies our policy of marvellously low prices during the plucking hard times, and our new scale of prices is drawing the crowds:—

10 pieces 45 inch Serge, all colours, worth 50c., for 40c.

10 pieces 40 inch Gray and Fawn Debiages, worth 60c., for 35c.

pieces 46 inch Satin Cloth, imported to sell at 80c., now 60c.

10 pieces Coloured Cashmeres, worth 50c, for 35c.

pieces Coloured Diagonal Serge, worth 40c., sale price 25c.

8 pieces Coloured Serge, all wool at 25c

10 pieces Printed All Wool Delaines, 30 to 36 inches, worth from 40c. to 60c., for 25c.

This is a time for few words. We put all our eloquence into prices and qualities. "It's Fair's Way."

Customers are heard to say:—"Fair's getting a great run on Carpets." Carpet cutting is certainly more rapid than we expected. This is just the way we want it. We deal in Rich Carpets and Rugs. The fourth floor is loaded with Floor Coverings. We are leaders in prices and new colourings. Prices cut to the bone. April and May are the months for carpet cleaning. Perhaps your carpet is worn out. Sweeping won't help it. A carpet bought now will save you 20 per cent. "It's Fair's Way."

MILLINERY STIR.

Just now there's more interest than usual going on in our Millinery Department. There is a marked increase in sales, and our new reduced prices seems to "startle the oldest inhabitant." The special attractions in our Millinery Parlours are the new designs in trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets for Ladies, Children's Hats, &c. Novelties in beautiful soft roses with foliage in all colours, and other flowers, together with New Ribbons, Feathers and Trimmings.

But the popular prices all round is what is over the effective selling of the season, and nobody accuses us of charging too much. That, "It's Fair's Way."

NO HOUSE BUYS BETTER.
NO HOUSE SELLS LOWER.

The rush is now on. Join the crowd.

Gloves

.. AND ..

Hosiery.

The time of year is now upon us when we begin to think of new Gloves and Hosiery. We would like to call your attention to our magnificent stock fresh from the German factories. There are several points about our Gloves we want you to notice. First, by buying from a factory direct they are at bottom prices, and having them made to order we pay particular attention to the cut and have the fingers made to fit the hand, which you will have noticed is often not the case in ordinary goods; also our colours were selected to match the shades of dress goods being worn this season, and every pair is properly sized the same as Kid Gloves. A full range of Lisle Thread Taffata Gloves and Silk in black and colours. We have one job line we are clearing at 25c., worth from 30 to 50c.

In Hosiery there is a growing demand for coloured goods. We have imported and placed in stock a choice range of all the best shades made extra long, perfectly fast dyes. Also the new striped goods which are coming in again. In Black Cotton we commence them at 5c. a pair. They are shaped and seamless and indestructible fast dye. A job line of Black Cashmere in ribbed and plain at 21c. for Children's and 26c. for Ladies. These goods are less than cost of manufacture but we bought them at a sacrifice and are giving our customers the benefit.

Owing to the fact that we were likely to have a close season on account of the low prices and scarcity of money we bought lightly and consequently have no large lots of our own to sacrifice, and are open to secure bargains from wholesale houses who are overstocked and can therefore afford to offer new goods at much closer prices than usual.

See the special lines we will have ready for our bargain day Wednesday, May 2nd. Wool Delaines at 15, 20, 25 and 28.

Gingham, 1 yard wide, good patterns for Aprons, only 8½c.

Armure Dress Cloth, summer shades, at 27c., worth 60c.

Self Coloured Striped Dress Goods, only 27c., regular price 50c.

Black Henrietta, 45 inches wide, fine finish, good weight, at 44c. a yard, regular price 70c.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

The House Has a Busy Day in Discussing Items of Supply.

RESPECTING FEES OF OFFICIALS

Third Reading of Mr. Ross' Bill Carried on Division — Railway Subsidies Granted—The Opposition Succeed in Prolonging the Session.

TORONTO, May 1.—In the Legislature yesterday the Municipal Amendment Act was moved back again into Committee of the Whole, and an amendment by Mr. Clarke (Toronto) to strike out the addition made to the clause for the payment of aldermen, under which the assent of the people must be first obtained, was agreed to and the bill reported.

Hon. Mr. Hardy moved the third reading of the Act respecting ditches and watercourses. An amendment was made enabling counties east of the county of Frontenac to pass a by-law making the territory liable for the assessment for the construction of a ditch 100 rods. The bill was then reported.

The bill to consolidate and amend the drainage laws was sent back to Committee of the Whole for further amendment. A number of amendments were made and the bill was reported.

Mr. Balfour's bill to amend the Street Railway Act was allowed to stand.

Fees of Certain Officials.

Hon. Mr. Ross moved the third reading of the bill respecting the fees of certain public officers.

Mr. Wood (Hastings) moved, in amendment, that the bill be referred back to committee to amend it by providing that the surplus incomes which the bill proposed to apply to provincial purposes should be paid over to the council of the county or city for the use of any such county or city.

Hon. Mr. Ross opposed the motion. It was quite obvious, he argued, that since the Provincial Treasury was put to considerable expense in inspecting these offices, a reasonable proportion of the fees collected should be contributed to help to defray that expense. Sir Oliver Mowat added, as a further reason, that the revenues of the province were not sufficient to meet the sums the Legislature voted for municipal and other purposes. If we could have what we expend in relieving municipalities we would have plenty of revenue. The reason we have not plenty of revenue is on account of the large amount voted to municipalities.

The House divided and the motion was lost by 34 to 20.

Mr. Whitney moved that the bill be amended by fixing the maximum net income paid to the several officials dealt with by the bill, and providing that the whole of the residue from such offices shall be applied to public uses.

Mr. Meredith could not understand why the Government would not assent to the amendment of the bill, so as to fix a maximum sum which the occupants of the offices dealt with in the bill should receive as salary.

Hon. Mr. Ross replied, contending that the difficulty in fixing a maximum salary was that the official, having once obtained this, would cease to take any further interest in the fees coming to the office.

On a division the amendment was lost by 34 to 23.

Mr. Meredith said he would make one more effort to amend the bill before the Opposition ceased their exertions. He said that unless some system of auditing the accounts of registrars were adopted, the province would have very little control over the disbursements, and it would be quite possible for this class of officials to evade the law requiring those in receipt of incomes of over $1,000 not to practice their profession. He moved to amend the bill by providing for a proper audit of the accounts of the offices to which the bill related, and requiring the disbursements to be properly charged against the receipts of the office, so that uniformity in proportion to the Government work of the office might, as far as possible, be established.

Hon. Mr. Ross maintained that the amendment was unnecessary. Under the law at present the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council could make regulations governing these offices, whilst the accounts were subject to the revision of the inspector, who was empowered to take evidence and examine witness on oath in regard to items of expenditure.

Mr. Meredith contended that the power given to the inspector, to which reference had been made, was to enquire whether the expenditure had actually been made.

The amendment was defeated on division by 36 to 22, and the bill was read a third time.

Evening Session.

After recess Hon. Mr. Harcourt moved the House into committee on resolutions granting railway subsidies to the following railways: Irondale, Bancroft and Ottawa Railway, 15 miles, a cash subsidy of $3,000 per mile; Northern Pacific and Junction Railway Company, 1¼ miles, cash subsidy of $7,500; Ottawa, Arnprior and Parry Sound Railway Company, 35 miles, $3,000 per mile; Ontario and Rainy River Railway Company, 35 miles, $3,000 per mile.

The resolutions were considered and reported, and incorporated in a bill which was read a first time.

Several Divisions.

On the motion to concur in the vote of $42,150 to the Treasury Department, Dr. Willoughby moved to strike out the sum of $1,750, the salary of Provincial License Inspector Stewart. The motion was defeated by 43 to 24, and the item was concurred in.

On the motion for concurrence in the sum of $14,975 to defray the inspection of public institutions, Mr. White (Essex) moved to strike out the salary of $2,400 to be paid to Mr. James Noxon, as additional inspector. The motion was lost on the same division.

On the motion for concurrence in the vote for the Department of Agriculture, Mr. Monck moved to strike out $2,000 salary and disbursements of Clerk of Forestry. The motion was lost on the same division.

A motion by Mr. McCleary, condemnatory of the inspection of registry offices and the system under which registrars received remuneration, was also defeated.

On concurrence in the vote for legislation, Mr. Preston moved an amendment declaring that, by the rules of the House, no clerks or messengers should be employed unless by the approval of Mr. Speaker or the recommendation of the clerk, and claiming that the executive had systematically disregarded such rules, and unsurped the authority of the House in making an excessive number of appointments, it appearing that there were in 1893 79 messengers, or nearly one for each member of the House, thereby greatly and unnecessarily increasing the cost of legislation. The motion was lost on division.

In concurrence of $23,430 for the payment of allowances to surrogate judges and local masters in commutation of fees. Mr. Whitney moved, condemning these allowances as in many cases excessive. The motion was lost on division.

Concurrence of the vote for the School of Pedagogy was carried on division by 44 votes to 24.

Concurrence in the item of $71,500 for Toronto Insane Asylum was carried, an amendment by Mr. White being lost on division.

The vote of $129,354 for the London Insane Asylum was concurred in, an amendment moved by Mr. Kerns being defeated.

The vote for the colonization of roads was concurred in. Mr. Reid moved an amendment providing for expenditure by municipal authorities, which was defeated.

In concurrence in the expenditure under the Crown Lands Department, Mr. Campbell (Algoma) moved to reduce the amount from $125,300 to $60,000. This was defeated.

On the vote of $179,190 for miscellaneous purposes, Mr. Hudson moved that the existing practice with regard to the payment of gratuities to employes on leaving the public service is unsatisfactory, and in many cases imposes an unnecessary burden on the revenue, and should be discontinued.

Mr. Clancy moved an amendment to reduce the amount by $5,000 set apart to pay gratuities during the year, and a further sum of $1,000 proposed to be paid to Henry Butwell, late foreman of brick-making at the Central Prison. This was defeated.

Mr. Wrey moved, in amendment to Mr. Hudson's amendment, that the payment of small gratuities was preferable where any officer was dispensed with for public reasons to the retirement of officers under the superannuation allowance. This was carried by 42 to 28.

The resolution as amended was then carried by 42 to 29.

In reply to Mr. Meredith Sir Oliver Mowat said no appointment had been made to the office of crown attorney for Carleton county.

The House adjourned till to-day,

AN AWFUL FATALITY.

Terrible Ruin and Devastation Caused by a Landslide at St. Albans, Que.

QUEBEC, May 1.—Word has been received here that on Friday night the inhabitants of St. Albans, in the county of Portneuf, heard a terrible noise resembling thunder. The soil was vibrating and a panic ensued. Upon investigation it was discovered that the ground staying the formation of a waterfall, about three miles from the church, had given way, burying a wood pulp mill and seven houses, one of them occupied by a family named Gauthier, numbering four persons, all of whom perished. Smoke was seen to ascend from under the ruins, showing what an awful death the occupants met.

Whole farms have been destroyed with their stock and farm produce. The old bed of the St. Anne river is now levelled, and the river now runs miles from where it coursed before. Three bridges were carried away—the St. Alban bridge, St. Casimir bridge and St. Anne bridge. The people around the scene of the disaster are still terror-stricken. The old residents of the place never heard or witnessed such a thing before, although several landslides have occurred in the neighborhood during the last fifty years.

Wreckage has been floating down since Friday night, the river St. Anne being filled with it. Lumbering operations are entirely suspended, and 3,500 people visited the flooded district on Sunday. The damage has been estimated in round figures at $500,000.

OBJECT TO THE REGULATIONS.

The Understanding Arrived at in the Behring Sea Case Unsatisfactory.

OTTAWA, May 1.—The Government is dissatisfied with the agreement reached by Secretaries Carlisle and Gresham, representing the United States, and Sir Julian Pauncefote and Mr. Dawson, representing Great Britain, regarding the Behring Sea regulations and license forms.

This places Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Ambassador, who is understood to have agreed to them, as framed, in an embarrassing position. The gravamen of the objections is directed against that section of the regulations that permits sealing vessels armed with sealing equipment to be seized even though they are not caught in open violation of the law or have no sealskins aboard.

A Vitriol Fiend.

MONTREAL, May 1.—Charles Maxwell, a commercial traveler, was arrested yesterday on the charge of making a ruffianly attack upon a woman named May Maxwell, with whom he had been living. Maxwell had been arrested for assaulting the woman and after paying his fine left the court-room, and, meeting the woman on the street, threw a bottle of vitriol on her face, inflicting severe injuries.

Suicide at Decew Falls.

THOROLD, Ont., May 1.—John Long, farmer and contractor of Decew Falls, about three miles from here, committed suicide at his home by shooting. The supposed reason is business difficulties. He leaves a wife and two children.

COXEY AT THE CAPITOL

His Army Will Remain There Till Congress Accedes to His Demands.

HE IS DETERMINED TO SPEAK

Permission or No Permission He Says He Will Have His Say From the Steps of the Capitol—He Will Not Defy Constitutional Law.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Gen. Coxey, commander in-chief of the army of invasion, was at the Capitol yesterday, and immediately upon his arrival went to the room of the sergeant-at-arms to have a conference with that official. Col. Bright was not in his office, and while awaiting his return Coxey talked freely about his programme.

"We will have our parade to-morrow," said Coxey, "and we will come upon the Capital grounds. Not, I will say, as a parade, but as private citizens. I have learned that there is a statute preventing parades of any kind on these grounds, and we have kept the law up to this time and do not propose to break it now. We will march to the grounds, it being our programme to reach them at noon, when we will disband, and, after making a speech, we will assemble at the peace monument and march back to our camp."

In the further course of his talk, Coxey said his army would remain until his two bills were passed, and under the very roof of the capitol. He again made the prediction that his bills would be passed within two weeks after he had made his formal demand. When the suggestion was made that he might run afoul of a snag if he attempted to make his speech on the steps, Coxey only replied with a smile, that he intended to speak. His object in coming to the capital was, he said, to formally ask for permission, and if it was not granted he would exercise the right that belongs to every American. Subsequently Coxey saw the sergeants-at-arms of the Senate and House. The conference was in private. Coxey made his request, and the only reply of the officials was to point to the law which forbids the acts Coxey contemplates. Coxey, receiving no satisfaction from these officials, left with the intention of asking the Speaker of the House and the Vice-President for permission to speak, declaring that permission or not he intended to mount the steps and address the people.

THE MURDER OF GIBBS.

Buffalo's Sensational Tragedy Promises Some Interesting Developments.

BUFFALO, N.Y., May 1.—The murder of Lawyer Gibbs on Saturday evening continues to be a mystery. The general accepted theory is that Lawyer Gibbs was enticed to the spot by appointment and there murdered by some woman he had wronged, or by some woman's husband or lover. A story is current that a young, good-looking and prominent society woman met Gibbs a few days previous to his death and gave him an excited tongue-lashing on Main street.

Gibbs was well-known. He was a native of the city, had spent about all his life here and for half a dozen years had been engaged in newspaper work as reporter, city editor and in other journalistic capacities; had formed a very extensive line of acquaintances, and for the past five or six years has been a lawyer, devoting his legal business principally to real estate questions. And yet, while he had so many acquaintances, there were few if any who could truthfully call him friend.

Traces of a woman's foot prints have been discovered by the police on the soft ground. But a later discovery shows that the murderer, man or woman, must have crossed the lawn in front of the house nearest to the spot where the murder was committed, running to the rear and then over a wall and fence and out through another house yard into Bryant street, showing that the murderer was perfectly familiar with the locality and knew the way. The fence climbing and route of escape discredits the theory that it was a woman who did it.

Five Killed in a Collision.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 1.—A freight train and a passenger train on the Koslow and Voronasch railway came into collision near Marganieff. Both engines and fourteen carriages were wrecked and five persons were killed.

Notorious Brigand Captured.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 1.—Sixto Cereda, leaded of a band of brigands that has been terrorizing the people of the district around Capala, Sinaloa, has been captured. Four of Cereda's band were killed by the captors. Cereda will be shot.

Cholera Increasing in Spain.

LISBON, May 1.—Forty-five fresh cases of cholera were reported to the health authorities yesterday. There were reported also sixty-four recoveries from the disease and 284 patients under treatment

Burned Herself in Her Bed.

BROOKLYN, May 1.—Mrs. Lizzie Probiecek, thirty-one years old, a widow, sprinkled her bed with oil, set it on fire, lay down in it, and was burned to death. Cause, despondency.

Suspension of an Archbishop's Stipend.

LONDON, May 1.—The correspondent in Rome telegraphs that the questions involved in the suspension by the French Government of the stipend of the Archbishop of Lyons because of his opposition to the law relating to the accounts of church wardens are assuming a very threatening phase. The French Government believes that the Pope himself incited the archbishop to his opposition of the law, and accuses his holiness of being ungrateful in view of the Government's recent policy toward the Vatican.

Demands of German Workingmen.

BERLIN, May 1.—Resolutions were passed at all the May day meetings held throughout Germany to-day, demanding full equality before the law, unfettered liberty to combine in trades unions or other organizations, the abolition of child labor, special protection to female labor, and that such labor shall not be exploited, and the thorough organization of workingmen.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

The Claims of British Columbia Sealers for Compensation.

DEPTH OF CERTAIN CANALS

A Motion to Make Them the Same Depth as the Sault Ste. Marie Canal Creates an Interesting Discussion — Respecting Postage Rates.

OTTAWA, May 1.—It is now generally agreed that the House will not adjourn to-morrow until Monday as was intimated. Thursday being Ascension day neither the Senate nor House will sit, and the upper chamber will stand adjourned until Monday. It is believed the tariff resolutions will be got through this week, but the fact that Thursday is a holiday will make it necessary to expedite matters on the other two government days.

In the House yesterday Sir Richard Cartwright quoted a resolution passed by the British Columbia Legislature, expressing the hope that the Imperial Parliament would not give legal effect to the Behring Sea arbitration unless the British Columbia sealers be compensated in respect to vessels which have been seized, and that British Columbia sealers be compensated for illegal exclusion from Behring Sea during the years 1891, 1892 and 1893. He asked whether a copy of the resolution was telegraphed to the Imperial Government, whether any such basis of the catch of seals as is above referred to was arrived at, what steps, if any, have been taken to secure prompt payment of the several claims above enumerated; whether, pending action on the part of the United States, the Government of Great Britain is prepared to make any compensation to parties aggrieved.

Sir Hibbert Tupper replied that the Government had received and transmitted to her Majesty's Government the resolution of the British Columbia Legislature, dated 11th April. No basis of the catch had been arrived at. It had been at one time thought that such claims under the modus vivendi for 1892 and 1893 might, with advantage, be pressed, but when that subject came up at Paris it was found inexpedient under the terms of the convention to advance these claims against the United States. A number of these claims had been filed with the Canadian Government by the parties interested, and they would be further consulted as to the basis and means of substantiating them for the purposes of consideration by her Majesty's Government. The claims under the modus vivendi of 1891 were included in this category, inasmuch as Great Britain had awarded the sealers $100,000 in respect of the losses for that year, and this amount had been paid. Every step which it had been possible for the Canadian Government to take had been taken periodically since 1886 to press for the payment of the claims of sealers for compensation for losses through the seizure of their vessels. The British Government had informed the Canadian Government that her Majesty's ambassador at Washington had been instructed to proceed with the discussion of the terms of the convention with regard to a settlement of the damages and give effect to the award.

Hon. Mr. Haggart, in reply to a question by Mr. Somerville, said the Government had notified Charles E. Hickey, superintendent of the Williamsburg canal, that he must either resign his position or give up his profession as a doctor of medicine.

Hon. Mr. Ouimet, in reply to Sir James Grant's query, said it was not the intention of the Government to proceed at present with the erection of a new geological museum building at Ottawa.

Col. Denison moved, "That whereas the canal now in course of construction by the Government of the Dominion at Sault Ste. Marie is to have a depth of 20 feet, which is the depth of navigable water from Port Arthur to Port Colborne, it is in the opinion of this House expedient that the same policy should be adopted as regards the St. Lawrence and Soulanges canals, now being constructed, together with the other St. Lawrence canals, and the channel of the river, where necessary, should be deepened to a uniform depth of 20 feet."

In making the motion Col. Denison said if these canals were deepened Winnipeg will be brought to within 400 miles of the sea, because ocean vessels could then go to Port Arthur. The deepening of the canals would give the farmers of Ontario and Manitoba an advantage over their American rivals, because they could load their produce at home direct for Liverpool. He did not expect the motion to be adopted this year, but wished to keep the question before the House.

Messrs. McKay (Hamilton), Sproule, Coatsworth, Davin and Martin (Winnipeg) spoke in favor of the resolution.

Hon. Mr. Daly said that the reason that the Government could not entertain the project was because of the enormous cost it would entail. It would take at least $140,000,000, and was, therefore, out of the question.

Mr. Cockburn said the House was not asked for money for the scheme, but to pronounce an opinion as to the feasibility of the proposals.

Hon. Mr. Haggart thought it was cheaper to have ocean vessels tranship their cargoes at Montreal to lake vessels. The expenditures on land alone to get to Port Arthur would be $130,000,000, and then all the harbors at the lake ports would have to be deepened at an enormous expense. He moved the adjournment of the debate.

Mr. Mulock said the proposition was a wild-cat scheme.

The debate was adjourned.

Mr. Coatsworth moved the resolution: "That it is expedient to reduce the general rate of postage on letters from three to two cents." He thought that the change made a year or so ago, charging two cents for city letters and three cents for all others, had not resulted in benefit, either to the Government or the people. He thought it class legislation to allow newspapers to be mailed free.

Dr. Sproule thought that the best way to make a two-cent postage pay was to cut off the expense of a free delivery in cities.

Dr. Landerkin supported the motion and went further. He desired a decrease in the cost of registration.

Mr. Prior said he thought the letter carriers ought to receive more pay than they got.

Col. Denison said the people of Toronto practically paid for the delivery of their letters.

Sir Adolphe Caron said it would be impossible for him to discuss the salary of postmen under this resolution. He was not responsible for the policy of free postage on newspapers, but he for one would not like to reverse that policy. He would like to see the rates of postage reduced, but Canada was a young country and she was under heavy expense in building up great national works. The proposition of Mr. Coatsworth would represent a loss of $800,000 per annum. No change in registration charges could be made at present.

Capital Gossip.

The evening party at Government House, for which invitations have been sent out, has been postponed until to-morrow evening.

The Supreme Court is sitting to-day, and the case respecting powers of the province in regard to prohibition is up for argument.

The senate committee on the insolvency bill is in session to-day. A large delegation of Toronto commercial men has arrived full of suggestions. It may be explained that the bill as drafted was merely designed as a skeleton on which to frame the ideas of the commercial world, and when the bill is formally passed it will as nearly as possible represent the general idea of the traders.

Great pressure is being brought to bear from Manitoba and the Northwest and other points to induce the Government to remove the duty from dressed lumber, placing it in the same category as rough lumber. Some of those who are interested in the lumber business are pressing the Government not to give way to the request of the farmers of the west. There are one or two planing mills in Winnipeg whose owners oppose the change, and of course the manufacturer in this case as in all the others will win.

The eastern field parties of the geological survey have been assigned their fields for the coming summer, but the western parties will not be given instructions until the estimates are passed, as their work cannot be defined until the amount of money which Parliament will vote towards the work is made known.

At the Exchequer Court the case of the Queen vs. the St. John Gas Light Company came up for trial. The Government claim that the tar and ammonical water emptied by the Gas Light Company into the water of St. John harbor is dangerous and destroying to the fish and contrary to the terms of the charter. Messrs. J. G. Forbes, Q.C., and L. A. Curry for the plaintiff, and J. D. Hahen, M. P., for the defendants.

Col. Cotton, D.A.G., is to investigate some matters in connection with the military at Belleville.

"But evil is wrought by want of thought,
As well as want of heart."

By want of thought mothers allow daughters to become frail and puny. Overstudy in girls induces uterine disorders and weaknesses, and blights their future happiness as wives and mothers. Joined to proper hygienic care, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a priceless remedy in such ailments, its value becoming even more apparent every year. Using it, the wan, debilitated school girl gains colour, flesh and spirits, losing those deathly headaches, tormenting backaches, languor, dejection and other symptoms of functional irregularities and nervous debility. It never harms the most delicate girl.

ROBERTSDALE, HUNTINGDON Co., PA. World's Dispensary Medical Association:

GENTLEMEN.—I cannot sufficiently express to you my gratitute for the benefit your medicine has conferred upon my daughter. Of late she has suffered no pain whatever. It is simply marvelous. You have just reason to call it your "Favorite Prescription," and to stake your reputation as a physician on it. A favourite prescription it is, indeed, to you and to thousands in this land, and I believe will be to suffering women the world over. Yours gratefully,

WORKS, NOT WORDS.

A National Reputation Built Up by Marvellous Works.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

Its Life Saving Results in and Around Our Homes

As sensible and thinking people, we are not inclined to lavish praise and honour on those who simply talk loudly and boastingly about their philantrophy and charitable dispositions. When we hear such individuals claiming special recognition and distinction, we are forced to say "Show us your mighty works and good deeds and your monuments of generosity amongst our own people; then, and only then, are you deserving of the standing you claim as a benefactor of your fellow-citizens."

The boastful philanthropist, who has no good home work to support his assertions, has his counterpart in the ordinary patent medicine man who claims that his decoctions and pills are blessing humanity. When through the press a medicine boasts of wonderful cures, a discerning and intelligent public demand a record of home cures and testimonials. Foreign and outside testimony is thrown aside, because it often worthless and spurious. Our Canadian people demand proof from amongst the hundreds and thousands who live around them. Testimony, even though it be sworn to, coming from obscure parties in the United States or other foreign countries will not sink very deeply into the hearts of intelligent and educated Canadians.

Scores of patent medicines are now brought before the notice of the pudlic every day, all loudly proclaiming their power over disease. Amid the conflict that is being waged for popularity and supremacy in our land, there is one grand and tested medicine that stands high above all others; it stands on the impregnable rock of honesty and true worth, and never yet has it failed in its mission to suffering humanity. This medicine is the popular and tried Paine's Celery Compound, earth's best and grandest discovery in medical science.

In order to maintain its high credit and standing, Paine's Celery Compound relies entirely upon what Canadians say about it. No matter where you live in the Dominion you will find some of your friends and neighbours who gladly report that "Paine's Celery Compound made them well." No far-off, unknown or suspicious foreign testimonials are submitted to our people, neither are manufactured letters ever used to fill advertising space.

Paine's Celery Compound has been honored, at times, with testimony from American people who have a national fame, such as Doctors Newton, Hubbard and Hanaford, of Boston; Hon. George F. Morse, member of the Governor's Council, of Massachusetts; Hon. John F. Francis, United States Ex-Minister to Austria; Hon. Daniel P. Toomey, of the Massachusetts Legislature; Marie Tempest, one of America's Operatic Stars, and gallant Ida Lewis, America's Grace Darling.

The marvellous cures wrought by Paine's Celery Compound, and the lives it has saved, speak more forcibly than panegyrics coming from the ablest orators.

This is indeed the medicine—the life-giver—for every suffering man, woman and child. The proof of its great virtues as a healer come from the best people; surely, it will meet your case as it did theirs.

The proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound employ a skilled physician—a graduate of one of our most noted Canadian Medical Colleges—to prescribe for and advise all sufferers. No charge is made for this medical advice and prescribing; and our consulting physician is perfectly free to act in his professional capacity. The grand object is to relieve human suffering and save life. All correspondence is strictly confidential to the "Consulting Physicians Department," Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal, P.Q.

The man who called sarsaparilla a fraud, had good reason; for he got hold of a worthless mixture at "reduced rates." He changed his opinion, however, when he began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It pays to be careful, when buying medicines.

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair had been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually topped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterward, using in all about a quater of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seem to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

HUSTLING HAVELOCK.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Dr. Jeffs has had a gang of men at work excavating the ground and preparing for the foundation of his new block of stores. The street is littered with piles of brick and other material for the building, which is to be pushed forward with all possible speed.

The foundations for numerous new buildings are being laid in various parts of of the village. Mr. Duffield, of Norwood, is starting a new building on the site of the late Harper fire, in the west part of the village, which will be a desirable business stand.

Reeve Joyce has erected an extensive new square picket fence in front of his fine residence. Contractor Knox has made a good job of the carpenter work.

The condition of the drain opposite Reeve Joyce's property and along the street, is exciting considerable comment. The stagnant water, covered with a thick green scum, has become so serious a menace to the health of the residents that the Board of Health is taking action. Dr. Fowler, the medical health officer, has notified the council of the nuisance, and that body is taking steps to remedy the matter before the hot weather sets in. The council is proceeding carefully in the matter, as it appears some important question exists as to the legal course to pursue in order to effectually drain off the water, so that the respective private interests involved and the C. P. R.'s duty in the matter may be thoroughly understood before undertaking the job.

Mr. Gould is getting his new premises, the store formerly occupied by Mr. Fuller, into "apple-pie" order. System is everything with Mr. Gould, and no trouble is spared in having a place for everything and everything in its proper place. Mr. Gould has now a large and judiciously selected stock of general groceries, dry goods and other merchandise, and he promises to give the very best goods and the very best service for the very least money.

The following interesting account of the marriage of our much respected citizen, Dr. Fowler, appears in the last issue of the Perth Expositor:—

"On Wednesday morning, April 25th, St. James' Church was filled with a large and fashionable congregation to witness the marriage of one of the fair maids of Perth, Miss Edith Hogg, daughter of Mr. D. Hogg, to Dr. Fowler, of Havelock. The ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. W. J. Muckleston, M.A., and a full choir was in attendance, the bride having been a member of the choir. The bride, who was given away by her father, was dressed in heavy white brocade satin, with veil and orange blossoms with lovely flowers. The bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Mamie Hogg, who was dressed in light green silk and carried a very handsome bouquet. Miss Louise Hogg, a younger sister of the bride, was maid of honour, dressed in pink silk with lace. The groom was assisted by Dr. T. W. Carlow, of Campbellford. The chancel of the church was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion. Amongst the guests were Mrs. W.D. Hogg, of Ottawa. After the wedding breakfast, which was supplied by Mrs. Laurie, the happy couple took their departure for the west amidst the congratulations of many friends and showers of rice. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents, including some from the children, amongst whom she was a great favourite."

Swift & Co's icing station here has had an unusually early start this summer. The icing of the beef cars commenced nearly a month earlier than last summer and cars are coming forward with daily regularity. Local Superintendent Bryans is on the lookout night and day, with his staff of men, for incoming orders, and his weekly statement indicates considerable increase of advanced work.

AN ESSEX FARMER.

A Total Wreck with Kidney Disease—All the Symptions of Bright's Disease Present—Dodd's Kidney Pills make him Perfectly Well again

LEAMINGTON, April 23—Sherman Buchanan, a farmer living near here, recently passed through a terrible ordeal. He was attacked by kidney disease, which made him a perfect wreck. He suffered agonizing pains and his digestive organs were seriously impaired. All the symptions of Bright's disease were present. After several doctors had treated him ineffectually, Mr. Buchanan used several boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. Dodd's was the first kidney in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, 50c. or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

THE DOUBLE BREASTED FROCK is the most fastidious garment man has put on in a generation. It adds to the stature of the man and conceals defects of figure. It is short waisted, snug fitting, long tailed and beautifully moulded to the figure. The Skirts are hollow at the top and form a beautiful curve, which is the most distinctive thing about the new styles.

Then there is the THREE BUTTON CUTAWAY Coat which is a high favourite. It is popularly described as the "Pigeon Wing" on account of its sloping tails. The sleeves are of moderate size and are closed with a vent for three buttons. If properly made it will cling rather closely to the hips.

The new CUTAWAY SACK COAT for business wear is one of the most popular of the season. It has caught the fancy of the young men. All the pockets should have flaps. The collar rolls low and is not faced with Silk.

Any of these garments made up to order to please the most fastidious dresser and with faultless devotion to the fas[illegible] plates

A Government BOMBSHELL THROWN INTO THE LIFE INSURANCE CAMP!

The following statement comes from the government Blue Book. It covers a period of sixteen years, and is sworn to as correct by representatives of each Company:

Statement of Premiums received and Cash Profits paid back to Policy Holders from 1877 to 1892, both years inclusive:—

COMPANY.	Premiums Received.	Dividends Paid to Policy Holders.	Ratio of Dividends to Premiums, %
CANADA LIFE	$16,368,307	$2,946,433	18.18
Confederation Life	6,165,432	637,925	10.35
North American	2,327,082	32,857	1.41
Ontario Mutual	3,878,086	433,294	11.17
Sun Life	5,527,720	355,280	6.43

Never in the history of Life Insurance has the struggle for business been keener. Never has the conflict been hotter. Never have the Companies felt as they feel now, the necessity for throwing all the energy at their command into the field. The most intelligent and best men have to be employed. All kinds of plans of insurance are submitted. Each Company determined in securing the supremacy in the good will of the public, in establishing their name, the utterance of which, shall convey to the minds of the people the essential characteristics of

UNDOUBTED SECURITY,
RIGID ECONOMY,
GOOD INVESTMENTS,
LARGEST PROFITS

WHY?

Because millons of dollars are being paid annually for Life Insurance, and the Companies that can show these features have attained a position which will guarantee their future success, for money will flow freely into the best investments.

The Canada Life Policy Holders can look at the above statement with a smile of satisfaction, yet sympathise with their friends who are not so favourably situated.

They can throw their Life Policies down in the face of opponents and successfully challenge the production of more profitable policies, they can stand the onslaught of Agents who will almost cover them with literature and estimates of Tontine, Semi-Tontine, Return Premiums, Reserved Dividends, Annuity and Endownment plans of insurance, and with a quiet assurance feel that

As The Canada Life is Making the Most Profits, She Can Pay the Largest Profits.

READER. If you want Life Insurance choose the Canada Life and join the throng of contented policy holders who are insured with the Company carrying about 45 per cent. of the total insurance in force of the above named Companies

Knocked His Son Down With a Club.

Frank Anthony, the Italian fruit vendor who is a well known gentleman about the streets, was fined $10 and costs by the magistrate this morning on a charge of felling his son to the earth with a club. The son is the youth who recently left town and went over to Lindsay with over $150 belonging to his father. The boy was arrested there, but the father merely brought him back home and did not push the case. Last night he proceeded to inflict the well deserved chastisement, but unfortunately was so severe as to warrant the interference of the police. This morning when he was fined he could not understand how it was that just because he chose to knock his son down with a club the police had any right to interfere, and stated that there was never any fuss raised when his father had adopted this mode of chastisement. Although the boy was undoubtedly richly deserving of punishment the magistrate explained to Anthony that in case of absolute cruelty the law had the power to step in.

Cardwell House, Omemee.

Mr. W. Cardwell, formerly of Peterborough, who took possession of his new hotel in Omemee about a year ago, is now running with a full head of steam. The Cardwell House is located in the centre of village, on the corner of George and King streets, directly opposite the post office. It is a large and substantially built brick structure, conveniently laid out for hotel purposes. The rooms have high ceilings and are bright and airy; possessing furnishings of modern design, and equipped with the usual comforts for the travelling public. The office and bar fittings were put in by Mr. J. R. Donell, of Peterborough, and are complete in every respect. Commodious sample rooms are laid out for commercial men, with whom the Cardwell House has become a fast favourite. Adjoining the sample rooms is a neat and tidy barber shop and tobacco store in charge of Mr. Cardwell's son, Robert Cardwell, where a thriving business is done. A new furnace for heating the whole house has also been put in position. New stables and sheds have been constructed in the rear, and a commodious hostelry and yard accommodation is at the disposal of farmers and travellers. The driving distance from Peterborough to Omemee is about 14 miles, and a summer trip along this leading thoroughfare, with the comforts and accommodations of the Cardwell House awaiting you, will prove a delightful and invigorating ride.

A Great Laughmaker.

The Montreal Daily Herald of Tuesday speaks in the following manner of the presentation of "Dr. Bill" there the previous evening:—"The Academy of Music held a very large audience last night, when "Dr. Bill" was seen for the first time in Montreal. "Dr. Bill" is styled "a great laugh maker;" so it is. Like all farce comedies, it is absolutely without plot, and the situations are as absurd as they are ridiculous and humourous. It is one of those plays that depends entirely upon the producing company for success; there is no doubt about that. The company, which has been selected for the present tour, is an all round capable one. At its head, are two very clever people, Miss Celle Ellis and Mr. Clarence Heritage. Miss Ellis appeared as Mrs. Horton, ex-queen of the ballet, with songs and recitations. To say that she is a success in the part is to put it mildly: she knows how to act and she displays it in her every movement. Miss Ellis sang as well as ever, and added to the hit she made last summer in the "Little Widow." Mr. Heritage is a good, conscientious actor. He works hard and his manner is at all times pleasing. Miss Minna Emmett is very entertaining, particularly as the maid. The ladies are in fact all clever. Mr. Hurleigh was capital as Geo. Webster, "the cause of all the trouble." If you want a cure for the blues, go and see "Dr. Bill." The play will be presented in Bradburn's opera house on Saturday evening next. 1d

RELIGIOUS CELEBRATION.

HIS LORDSHIP, BISHOP O'CONNOR'S FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

Imposing Religious Ceremony at St. Peter's Cathedral—Pontifical High Mass Celebrated—A Loyal Address From Loyal Priests—Presentation of a Portrait.

On May 3rd, 1889, Rev. R. A. O'Connor became bishop of the diocese of Peterborough, His Grace Archbishop Cleary performing the consecration ceremony at St. Peter's cathedral. To-day the fifth anniversary of this solemn occasion was duly celebrated at the same place in the presence of a large congregation. The following clergy of the diocese were present to personally tender their congratulations to His Lordship and to assist in the pontifical high mass which was celebrated at 9 o'clock:—

Rev. Father Quirk, Hastings; Rev. Father Lynch, Port Hope; Rev. Father Nolan, Warkworth; Rev. Father McGuire, Norwood; Rev. Father Kelly, Douro; Rev. Father Kelly, North Bay; Rev. Father Connoly, Downeyville; Rev. Father McCell, Ennismore; Rev. Father Murray, Cobourg.

His lordship celebrated the pontificial high mass, being assisted by Rev. Father Brown, V.G., as High Priest, and Ven. Father Casey and Rev. Father Connolly, as deacons. Rev. Father Murray was deacon of the mass and Rev. Father McColl subdeacon.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the clergy of the diocese accompanied the presentation to the bishop of a fine portrait, in oil, of himself, with the following address:—

Address of the Clergy of the Diocese of Peterborough, to His Lordship the Most Rev. R. A. O'Connor, D.D., of Peterborough.

May it please your Lordship, We, the priests of the Diocese of Peterborough, have assembled around your throne on this day, the fifth anniversary of your episcopal consecration, to present our congratulations on the completion of the first lustrum of a most successful administration and to wish you many happy returns of the day. During the five years you have ruled over the church in this Diocese, under your firm and gentle sway our holy religion has expanded and we have seen new parishes organized and furnished with resident pastors, where a few years ago the Catholic people were few in number and without proper attendance. In the person of its chief pastor, this young diocese has undergone many changes. Necessarily many works had been undertaken for the advancement of religion. The short period of each successive administration gave time merely for the foundation of these works and thus the whole burden of bringing them to completion devolved upon your lordship.

Mean while, the incessant calls made on your lordship for diocesan work, the necessity of providing the new missions founded by you, the loss by death of some of your priests, the heavy demands made on you to establish parishes in the northern portion of the diocese must have given many hours of care and anxiety.

Notwithstanding your limited resources you found means of establishing new and permanent institutions for advancement of Catholic education, for the relief of the suffering, for the multiform charities dispensed in the name of Jesus Christ To your Lordship's zeal and ability the diocese owes the Community of the Sisters of St. Joseph, the well equipped and commodious St. Joseph's Hospital and the home for the aged, infirm and the orphan.

The Catholic Church demanding within the last few years much of your valuable attention, you have nevertheless found time not only to administer the sacrament of Confirmation in all old established parishes, but your apostolic zeal did not allow you to forget the scattered portions of your flock in the vast northern part of your diocese. It was with sincere admiration we read the account of your long and arduous journeyings among the nomadic tribes of the Sioux and Chippewa Indians in the Lakes Superior and Nepigon regions.

On this occasion we, your clergy, may be allowed to touch on our relations with the head of the diocese, and we can say with truth these relations between priests and bishops have always been of the most cordial and harmonious nature.

In every new diocese much more is to be done than in the older sees. We have always striven to do our utmost to meet our Bishop's wishes and fulfil the well recognised duty of helpful coadjutors. This duty has become a labour of love under your Lordship's guidance, for we have found in you the realization of the sauviter in modo, and you have ever made us feel in our relations with you that you were truly the "Elder Brother."

As in the past so will it be with your priests in the future, to obey cheerfully, to help generously and in every way within our power to lighten that burden which at times presses heavily on every Bishop in the church of God.

We beg your Lordship's acceptance of this portrait of yourself in oil as a souvenir of the day.

We congratulate you and wish you many years of peace and happiness in the discharge of the duties of your high office.

Signed on behalf of the clergy of the Diocese of Peterborough,

V. G. LAURENT,
J. BROWN, V. G.,
D. J. CASEY, Archdeacon.

His lordship, who was much touched by the expressions of devotion on the part of his clergy, replied in grateful terms, warmly thanking the donors for their much-appreciated gift, and especially for the loyal devotion to himself, the church and its interests, the evidence of which he had so often enjoyed, being strengthened by the graceful sentiments of the address.

His lordship entertained the visiting clergymen at a banquet at the episcopal palace at the conclusion of the religious ceremonies.

CONVENTION IN SESSION.

The Emerald Beneficial Society Gets Down to Work.

The eighteenth annual convention of the Emerald Beneficial Association of the province convened this afternoon in the rooms of the local branch of the society. Among the delegates who answered the roll call were:—D. A. Carey, Grand President; W. Lane, Grand Secretary; and J.J. Nightingale, Grand Organizer, all of Toronto; J. J. Hagarty, Stratford; T. J. Gould, London; C. H. Leaney, Almonte; E. F. X. O'Meara, Ottawa; D. Shea, Toronto; C. Gorrie, Ingersoll; J. Fahey, A. McGuire, A. McDonald, Toronto; P. Mahoney, West Toronto Junction; Dr. McGrath, W. J. Devlin, Peterborough; M. C. Curran, Hamilton.

Letters of congratulation on the good work the society was doing were read from Archbishop Walsh and Vicar-General McCann of Toronto. Committees were then struck to take in hand the routine work of the convention. In all probability an evening session will be held.

RAILWAY NOTES.

What is Going on in Local Railway Circles.

President Depew, of the New York Central railroad, says there has been no reduction in rates on the New York Central, as reported. Rates on the trunk lines are well maintained, except by lake and rail which is only fairly well maintained.

Three hundred men have been discharged by the C. P. R. The Grand Trunk is also reducing its force of employees.

The Ohio Central railway lines have given notice of a cut of 33½ per cent of the wages of their employees during the coal strike. The object is to offset the loss occasioned by the strike.

The semi-annual meeting of the Grand Trunk railway shareholders held in London yesterday was somewhat stormy. The report of the directors was adopted.

PERSONAL.

Miss Day is the guest of Mrs. Jos. Maude, Lakefield.

Mr. Thomas Quincey, of Chicago, an old Peterborough boy, well and favourably known here, will spend a few days in the town.

—This evening a special train will leave the G.T.R. station with members of the order and the team of Peterborough Lodge No. 111 I.O.O.F. for Millbrook, where they will initiate and confer the degrees on quite a number of candidates. A special rate has been arranged. Train leaves at 7.30.

—Campbellford's citizens kicked up their heels last night and well nigh turned that respectable village upside down. The band and over 300 of the residents with horns, tin pans, etc., turned out and chivareed a councillor who had lately entered into the bonds of wedlock for the second time.

—Attention is called to the advertisement of C. B. Routley's auction sale in another column. Mr. Routley intends placing two bargain stocks of fancy goods and his own big staple stock on the market. The first sale will be held on Wednesday afternoon and another will be inaugurated on Saturday night next.

—Mr. Warren Trickey has purchased and will conduct the livery business lately owned by Mr. J. W. Bennett. The stables are on Water street, late the stables of the old Stewart House. Mr. Trickey will be found always on hand to supply the needs of his customers with good horses and elegant and comfortable carriages.

—The members of the council and the the Board of Trade held a conference last evening to make arrangements for the convention to be held here to-morrow in the interests of the Trent Valley Canal. The following committee were appointed to draft resolutions embodying the views of the meeting to lay before the convention: Messrs. Cahill, E. H. D. Hall, W. H. Robertson, D. W. Dumble, G. M. Roger, Robert Fair, J. E. Belcher and R. M. Dennistoun.

MET DEATH ON THE OTONABEE.

Mr. John Archer Hurried into a Watery Grave Yesterday Afternoon.

By the upsetting of a canoe in the river yesterday afternoon Mrs. Archer, widow of the late John Archer, was deprived of her only son, who found a watery grave in that portion of the Otonabee known as "Yankee Bonnet," being about three miles from the town.

"Jack," as he was familiarly known among his associates, and Mr. John Burgess, a student at the Canadian General Electric Company's works, started out in a canoe in the morning to go down the river on a fishing trip, intending to remain away probably a couple of days. The two drifted on down the Otonabee, stopping here and there along the shore in the pursuit of their sport. Mr. Archer was very tall, and, being uncomfortable in a kneeling posture on account of his length of limb, he sat up on the deck of the canoe. Being an expert waterman, he must have realised the peril in which he placed his companion and himself by assuming this position, but being so thoroughly posted in matters aquatic, familiarity had in his case very evidently bred contempt of danger.

At about four o'clock in the afternoon the canoe was on the far side of the river at "Yankee Bonnett" where the current is very swift and in whirling eddies, which are difficult to navigate unless the task be undertaken with a full sense of the danger incurred. The two canoeists did not attempt to "quarter" but ran their bark for a point directly opposite to where they had been fishing. The centre of the river had been barely reached when like a flash the canoe turned bottom up, precipitating its two occupants into the water. On rising to the surface again both clung to the capsized craft, but as it could not support the weight of two young men, Archer boldly struck out for the shore. He had proceeded but a short distance, however, before he shouted for assistance and appeared to be labouring in difficulty. Burgess endeavoured to reach him, but before he could render any help the unfortunate lad sank to rise no more.

Burgess brought the news to town, and it spread through the town most rapidly, being the subject of conversation in almost every place of business on George street inside half an hour. Grappling irons were almost immediately resorted to, but the met with no success last night, although continued until a late hour. This morning Mr. Burgess, Mr. Jack Smith, Mr. Walter English and a couple of river drivers are dragging the river in the hope of being able to secure the remains before decomposition sets in.

The deceased has not spent much of his time in Peterborough, having resided of late years with his grandfather in Highworth, Wiltshire, England. He was an undergraduate of Oxford University and had only recently returned to his mother's home to take up his residence. The family had just decided to move out to Stony Lake for the summer in order that the homestead might be enlarged and refitted to accommodate the reunited family. Naturally the sad death of the son and brother will cause a cessation of any further movement in this direction. Mrs. Archer and her daughter have the sympathy of the entire community in their heartrending bereavement. Mr. Geo. Rubidge is an uncle of the deceased, being a brother of Mrs. Archer.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE JOTTINGS.

Notes of What is Going on Among the Pupils and Staff—New Apparatus.

Miss Mary Fife who has been in attendance at the Collegiate Institute during the present year, left for Toronto this morning to write on the 1st year's examination in Arts at Toronto University, which examinations begin to-day.

In the list of graduates in Arts at Queen's University, appeared the name of Miss E. A. Marty, sister of Miss S. Marty, of the Institute staff.

A Newstyle Duplicating apparatus has been added to the equipment of the Institute. This will prove of great service both to the pupils and staff, in preparing the numerous examination papers which will be given before the July examination.

The football team were not at all pleased with the clerk of the weather on Saturday in as much as he prevented them from taking their contemplated trip to Keene.

Mr. M. O'Brien was unable to teach this morning owing to sickness.

In a recent examination in English Philology, Form IV, the following pupils in order of merit obtained first class honors, that is 66 per cent. and over:—L. McKee, J. Sullivan, W. Spence, L. O'Brien, E. Porter, B. Duff.

Result of examination in Geography Form II. A. 1st honors F. Manson and A. Anderson, (equal), L. King, G. Rogers, S. Smithson, M. McFarlane, M. Erskine, G. Silver, W. Leeson, J. Campbell.

2nd class honors (50 per cent. or less than 66 per cent.) N. Brown, E. Dawson and L. Primeau.

Geography, Form II. B.—1st honors, W. Creba; 2nd honors, R. Davidson and L. Armstrong.

THE DOCTOR AND "HARVARD."

"Our spring is proving to be a very remarkable one in many ways," said a Montreal physician the other day. "We have experienced many extreme changes in weather, and our people have suffered accordingly. Sudden changes in temperature have caused many to take colds, and to-day there are scores of young and old suffering from coughs, sore throat, hoarseness and severe bronchial affections."

"What do you think of Harvard Bronchial Syrup as a remedy for the troubles you have mentioned?" This question was put with the view of getting a direct and honest answer.

"I have extensively prescribed Harvard Bronchial Syrup and have used it myself," said the doctor; "and from experience, I can honestly say it has no equal. It is especially valuable for children, and in cases of croup it is invaluable."

Poison in Tea.

In England tea has been discovered contaminated with lead, undoubtedly from being wrapped in packages containing lead. This is a matter which is being enquired into, inasmuch as lead is a dangerous poison and its presence in so many packages of tea may well cause grave public alarm. Mason & Co., grocers, have no confidence in package teas, as their English blends surpass all teas placed on the market.

THE FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

Of the Consecration of His Lordship Bishop O'Connor—Celebrated Last Night at the Convent—A Delightful Programme Presented — Addresses by Prominent Citizens.

Last night at the Convent the fifth anniversary of the consecration of the Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Connor was celebrated in a most successful and pleasing manner. The music hall was very tastefully decorated in festal style. Across the ceiling ran streamers of bunting, the papal colors being conspicuous, and across the central windows of the west end a scroll was extended bearing in applied letters the legend "Joy Reigns Supreme," and devotional banners were disposed at several points. But the brightest feature of the adornment was the white clad children, to the number of about 200, who occupied the graded seats and formed a very pretty picture.

Promptly at 8 o'clock His Lordship entered the hall, attended by Ven. Archdeacon Casey, and Rev. Fathers O'Connel, Collins, McColl, Ennismore, and Kelly, North Bay, and took his seat upon an improvised episcopal throne. There were present besides several prominent citizens and a large gathering of the cathedral congregation. As the episcopal party were taking their seats an overture—"Calif de Bagdad"—was performed in excellent style and with faultless time and was a fitting prelude to the excellent musical and intellectual treat that followed, consisting of a solo and chorus, "Greeting to our Honoured Guest," the solo being taken by Misses M. Dineen and L. Jackson, the duet by Misses B. Primeau and A. Simons, the school taking the chorus in a most spirited manner. A dialogue, "What the little ones can do," was a charmingly conceived and expressed tribute of devotion and respect, leading up to the presentation of baskets of flowers by several of the characters. His Lordship was pretty effectively walled in with bloom. Then followed a well-performed instrumental duet, succeeded by the "Fairy Dell" drill, or scarf drill, performed with great grace and exactitude by several uniformed young ladies, captained efficiently by Miss Mary Overend. The concluding evolutions of the drill, which took the form of the initial letters of the bishop's name—"R. A. O'C," was very prettily done. The "Homage to our Bishop" was a most elaborate tribute of respect, five girls with banners, representing "Joy and "Greeting" and "Love," "Gratitude" and "Memory," being a conspicuous element of the pleasing presentation. Master Alf. Cox performed a mandolin solo in a very creditable manner. The programme concluded with a grand chorus, "A Prayer for our Prelate," sung by the whole school with stirring effect.

The instrumental music during the evening was furnished by the gold medallists: Misses Maud Morrow, Maud Kelly, Maggie Butler, Maggie Doherty and Maggie McCabe, while Misses B. Primeau and Daisy Dolan played the accompaniments of the drill.

REMARKS.

His Lordship thanked the sisters and children most cordially for the flattering compliments they had so prettily and gracefully extended him during the evening. They had pictured truly what the life of a pastor should be, and he hoped he should life up to their standard and that he might realize all the joy and happiness they had so prettily wished him. He thanked the children for the excellent manner in which each had performed her part, and it was a tribute to the excellent training they had received, in which principles of virtue were combined with intellectual acquirements. He also thanked the citizens for their kind attendance. The longer he lived in Peterborough the better he liked it.

Mr. Cluxton, after expressing his pleasure at being present, said he did not by speaking wish to emphasize the difference between it and the excellent elocution the children had displayed. He was glad to be present and join in the greetings to His Lordship, and in reference to his official duties, recalled remembrances reaching back to the days of his boyhood—Ireland, and a visit thirty years later, showing that the work and activities of the Church went on without pause. Mr. Cluxton very warmly complimented the music and pointed out the superior character of the training received by the pupils and the high class of music performed. The school, especially in a musical sense, was a decided benefit to the town.

Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., was called upon for a few remarks, and said it afforded him great pleasure to be present on this interesting occasion, as anyone with a capacity of enjoyment and a recognition of merit must feel pleasure in such associations. He had only words of praise for the really excellent programme presented by the pupils, under the skillful guidance of the sisters—another proof of the talent of the pupils and the excellence of the instruction they enjoyed. This pleasure was, however, only incidental to the chief pleasure of the occasion—to do honor to the worthy Bishop of Peterborough, and to join with others in congratulations upon the occasion of the fifth anniversary of his episcopal consecration. He had had the honour of knowing personally all three of the bishops of Peterborough, and without any disparagement to his predecessors he was justified in liking the present Bishop best. Reference was made to the material progress of the church in the diocese largely due to the labours of the bishop; and the loyalty and esteem of the clergy, and the devotion of his flock were testimonies of a speaking kind, to the zeal and piety of his Lordship. Not only was he honoured as a prelate, but as a citizen he enjoyed to a large degree the respect of the people generally. The material, moral and religious improvement in the diocese had, the speaker said, been largely due to the efforts of the honoured guest of the occasion, and he concluded by offering his cordial congratulations to His Lordship and his best wishes for such distinguished usefulness as had marked the first five years of his episcopate.

Mr. J. W. Fitzgerald said it gave him great pleasure to be present on His Lordship's fifth anniversary and he hoped that for many years to come he would be spared to guard and guide his loving people. He re-echoed the kind words of the preceding speakers and spoke in terms of the highest admiration of the teaching and training power of the good sisters of the Convent de Notre Dame. He warmly complimented the young lady pupils upon their musical proficiency and noted with pleasure the introduction into the programme of so much Irish melody and song, which vividly reminded him of the dear old land at home. He also paid a warm tribute to the fancy drill performers, who had performed the various evolutions with almost geometrical exactitude and in this respect might challenge the best drilled local volunteers. It conclusion he congratulated the sisters, the pupils and their parents and believed that no congratulation could be more acceptible to His Lordship than the beautiful spectacle and beautiful music which had been presented to a most appreciative audience.

Ven. Archdeacon Casey had little to add to the complimentary and congratulatory sentiments that had been so variously, but at the same time, harmoniously expressed. He referred particularly to the pleasing character of the sentiments so beautifully expressed by the children and concluded by giving his best wishes to His Lordship for a happy and prosperous future.

The evening concluded with "God Save the Queen," and a very delightful evening it was in all respects.

BOOTS AND SHOES
TO TAKE THE PLACE OF
A Queen's Birthday Demonstration!

The boy said: "This Shoe business is altogether too brisk," when his mother chastised him with a slipper. That's what other shoe dealers think of us, for we not only command the largest and finest shoe trade in Peterborough, but our popularity extends for a hundred miles around.

The loyal people of Peterborough needn't feel disappointed if the boys didn't get up a big demonstration for the Queen's Birthday. We have put on foot A THUNDERING RACKET IN BOOTS AND SHOES, and propose to keep it going until after the 24th, without asking the council or the merchants to guarantee us against loss.

We're always busy. No dull times with us. But, for the present, we have turned on enough extra power on our Electric Battery of Low Prices to "raise a Thundering Racket" in Boots and Shoes, and to keep it booming for over a month.

Last week we bought for 55c. on the dollar the large Wholesale Stock of a City Manufacturer who had stuck on the rock of hard times and was shivering in his boots for ready cash. This stock, we are determined, shall not remain long on our hands. GO, IT MUST! and that the public may see that there's nothing in the way of its going off fast enough, "we touch the button" and give you a few random shocks from OUR MAGNET OF OUTRIVALLED PRICES:—

"Not In It!"

Don't count us in any combination to raise the price of Groceries for Spong is NOT IN IT.

All stories to that effect are utterly and wickedly false, because Spong is NOT IN IT.

SPONG buys and sells for Cash, and intends to keep on doing so, and Spong can afford to be—NOT IN IT.

We give and take no credit and can sell just so much cheaper than stores that have to give and have to take credit; therefore Spong is positively NOT IN IT.

All attempts to rope SPONG into a combination to raise the price of Groceries will fail. SPONG goes on his own peculiar way same as ever, and will continue as the "Original Cheap Cash Store," and "Heavy Weight Grocer,"—and don't you forget it.

The Old-fashioned Style of pill gives you a feeling of horror when you see it and when you feel it. Like the "blunderbuss" of a former decade it is big and clumsy, but not effective. In this century of enlightenment you have Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which cure all liver troubles in the most effective way. They're not easily seen for they're small as grains of mustard seed, but the effect is lasting and the cure complete. For Indigestion, Constipation, Bilious Attacks, Sick and Bilious Headache, nothing has been found to equal these pills of Dr. Pierce's invention. They give such complete relief that their makers promise that they'll give you satisfaction or your money will be returned.

A STUDY.

It was my first table d'hote dinner at the Hotel de Nice. As it was only nearing the end of October, visitors to the south were as yet few and far between and of a distinctly uninteresting order. While my eyes were straying over the elderly commonplace Darbys and Joans gathered round the festive board I began to regret my choice of a domicile and involuntarily formed plans for beating a speedy retreat on the morrow. I was what is known as a crusty bachelor and, worse, of uncertain age. The former fact troubled matchmaking mothers more than myself, as my comfortable independence rendered me comparatively content, and I did not yearn for the joys (?) of a fireside of my own and some one else to spend my money.

My greatest and most absorbing interest was centered in humanity. I was an ardent psychological student and in consequence liked to surround myself with youthful society and watch the buds unfold, as it were.

As I disconsolately finished my bottle of Beaune—I was feeling very dull—a rustle of feminine garments attracted my attention, and as I slightly turned my head a stately lady, gowned in black, accompanied by a singularly pretty daughter, passed the end of the table and were accommodated with seats exactly opposite to me.

The experience of years at once told me that the younger lady would form a most interesting psychological study, and I immediately resigned all thought of giving up my room on the morrow and busied myself with attending to the small wants of my charming vis-a-vis. She could not have been more than 19 years old, and her face was as sweet and innocent looking as a child's, though her principal beauty lay in her eyes, which were of a deep, intense blue and very large and full, with a dreamy, unfathomable expression.

Later in the evening I smoked a cigar with the manager, and in the course of conversation learned that the lady in black was a Mrs. Hillyard, widow of a county magnate, and that she was wintering abroad for the benefit of her daughter, a highly nervous and delicate girl.

In the course of a few days I was able to render Mrs. Hillyard some slight service, and the acquaintance thus begun soon developed into a sincere friendship. She was a very chatty, well informed woman, and I passed many pleasant hours in her society while silently pursuing my investigation of her daughter. The latter required a lot of knowing, and it took quite a month of constant intercourse with her before I felt that we understood each other. I discovered her to be an unusually pure minded and high souled girl of a very quiet and reticent disposition. Her mother frankly confessed that to her she was a complete enigma.

"She has never been different, Mr. Blaine," she said sadly. "It seems impossible to interest her in anything. From her earliest years she has been the same and never took to romping or toys like other children. If I were superstitious—which, thank heaven, I'm not—I should believe that poor Evelyn was under some malign influence. When she was at boarding school, her fellow pupils used to say that far seeing look she has in her mournful eyes betokened an early death or a tragedy. Of course that is all nonsense. Still I would give a good deal to see her different."

I suggested that there may have been an unfortunate attachment to account for Miss Hillyard's despondency, but this her mother vehemently negatived.

"She has never shown the slightest partiality for any one," she resumed. "I only wish she would, for it might be the dawn of a new existence for her. She has had many admirers and several offers of marriage, but she has refused them all with cold disdain. She likes reading, though not novels, as you may suppose, but what I call creepy literature, and if she has a real liking for anything it is music. I have seen her spellbound at a Paderewski recital or listening to an oratorio."

"Alas, we have no Paderewskis here to wake the sleeping soul," I observed, glancing around at the stiffly furnished apartment and at its inmates, some of whom, enconced in armchairs, were sleeping, not wisely, but too well, as various stentorian snores testified, while others were absorbed in their game of chess or backgammon—clearly not an assemblage to interest a young girl. In point of fact, Miss Hillyard always made a point of retiring to her room immediately after dinner.

A day or two later I was smoking and lounging in the reading room when I heard some one performing magnificently on the grand pianoforte in the drawing room. I don't set up to be a musician, or even to understand the art, but it would have been an insensate soul indeed which could remain unmoved at that glorious harmony of sound. I threw away my cigar and sallied forth to see who the unknown genius could be, when just as I reached the hall I met Miss Hillyard at the foot of the staircase. The girl was completely transformed. Her eyes glittered with some strange emotion and a mist of unshed tears, her face was flushed crimson and her lips trembled. She passed me without recognition, and I could see that her hands were clasped convulsively. She stole into the drawing room so softly that the player was unconscious of her presence, and I seeing how deeply she was moved, forebode to intrude and took a seat in the vestibule instead.

When the music ceased, I heard the sound of voices. The kindred souls had discovered each other. I do not know how long they remained together, as I went for my usual constitutional, and when I returned the gong had already sounded for table d'hote. If it had not been for my afternoon experience, I should have marveled at the change in my young friend. I had never seen her look more lovely. She was gowned in cream and wore a great bunch of red roses at her waist—the first touch of coquetry I had ever observed in her. I also noticed that the stranger had been placed on the same side as myself, a little higher up, and he and Evelyn were constantly looking at each other in the mirrors which ran the length of the room. As her eyes met his a faint blush would steal over her face, and she would look down confusedly.

After this I was not surprised to find that she no longer absented herself in the evenings. Mr. Gerard, the newcomer, proved unremitting in his attentions, and music now formed the principal attraction of the drawing room. He was certainly rather good looking, of the bold brigand type which some women find so irresistible, and it was easy to see that he soon obtained complete mastery over Evelyn, and that his will was her will. Personally I never liked him, although he strove to ingratiate himself with every one.

To me there was something mysterious about him, and I warned Mrs. Hillyard not to let her daughter become too intimate. I am afraid she rather resented my interference, thinking herself capable of managing her own affairs, and so she drifted on to the rocks like many a good woman has done before her. She protested that the love of music was the sole bond between them, and so I let her have her own way.

One afternoon I was standing in the conservatory, which opened out of the drawing room and was concealed by draperies, when I heard the sound of voices, which I immediately recognized as belonging to Gerard and Miss Hillyard. Before I had time to move a fragment of their conversation reached me, which made me feel extremely uneasy. Gerard's tones sounded pleading, yet imperative, and I could just see through a division in the drapery that her hand was closely clasped in his, and her head rested on his breast.

"You want money, and you must have it," I heard him say.

"I want money, and I must have it," she repeated after him. Then their voices dropped to a whisper, but I had heard sufficient to give me food for reflection. Here was a girl environed with luxury, with a parent of undisputed wealth who never refused her anything, making confessions of poverty to a man to whom a few weeks before she had been an absolute stranger. I decided to say nothing to her mother, but to await further developments quietly. But a new sensation was on the tapis which for the time turned my thoughts in another direction.

For some time past a series of cleverly planned robberies had taken place in the hotel. Watches, jewelry and cash had disappeared from the visitors' rooms in the most mysterious manner. Among the greatest victims was Mrs. Hillyard, who missed a splendid parure of diamonds. The manager, who was a thoroughly honest, straightforward fellow, was greatly upset, the more so as Mrs. Hillyard had threatened to bring an action against the proprietors for the value of her property. As I had plenty of time on my hands, I promised to assist him in trying to discover the thief.

As a rule I never entered my room after dinner till I finally retired for the night, but on this particular evening I discovered that my cigar case was empty and went up stairs to replenish it. The door was slightly ajar, and what was my amazement on walking in to see Evelyn Hillyard with my cashbook open before her, and the contents in her hands. I was too startled to say a word and stood rooted to the spot just inside the doorway, through which she must pass. In silence I watched her drop the goldpieces into her pocket—there were but five of them, as I had previously settled my bill—then she closed the lid, locked it with a key which she carried and walked out of the room. Her eyes had the same peculiar expression that I noticed in them the day I met her on the stairs when Gerard was playing, and now, as then, she seemed quite unconscious of my presence.

This was a psychological study indeed! I felt it was well worth the £5 I had lost and more too. I was greatly perplexed as to the best course to pursue to take in this most difficult position. The poor child was undoubtedly acting under the influence of the scoundrel Gerard. To expose her was out of the question. It would deal a deathblow to her mother and herself. I determined to tackle Gerard, make him acknowledge his villainy and return all the stolen articles, which were undoubtedly in his possession. But in this I reckoned without my host, for the following morning the gentleman was non est. On making inquiries, I was informed that Mr. Gerard had received an urgent telegram, summoning him to the deathbed of an uncle.

Poor Evelyn was very despondent all day and her animation a thing of the past. I intruded my society upon her very persistently in the hope of gleaning further information. I even asked her point blank where Gerard had gone, but she confessed herself to be in complete ignorance, and I am sure she spoke truly. He would soon return, she said, and he had promised to write. She also spoke incidentally of the wholesale thefts and regretted the loss of her mother's jewels. I pitied her from the bottom of my heart for being such an expert criminal and withal such an innocent one. I then and there made up my mind to track the real criminal, but as it happened I was saved the trouble.

After dinner I persuaded Evelyn to put on her hat and take a turn with me in the garden. It was a lovely moonlight night, clear as day, and with the soft, balmy air redolent as roses. I was discussing the approaching Battle of Flowers with my companion, when she suddenly stood still, while a look of intense horror appeared upon her face, and her eyes grew wild and unnatural. I could see nothing to account for her sudden terror and was about to question her when she gave a low wail of agony and fell unconscious at my feet.

It was a week before I saw her again, and then it was to say goodby. She was altered beyond recognition and was only a wraith of her former self.

"You have been very kind to me, Mr. Blaine," she said simply, "and I feel that I owe you some explanation. You have perhaps guessed that Mr. Gerard was a dear friend of mine"—here she caught her breath and resumed with difficulty—"the night I was with you in the garden I saw a ghostly vision. Mr. Gerard stood before me, and as I looked he raised his hand and drew a knife across his throat: then I remembered no more." She shuddered violently as she spoke and sank exhausted into a chair.

"My dear child, why distress yourself with idle fancies?" I began, but she held up her finger to enjoin silence, and pushing a paper toward me said, "Read that."

My eyes followed the paragraph, which ran as follows:

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY AT LIVERPOOL.

Last evening, between 8 and 9, a terrible tragedy was enacted in this city. The police, having obtained a clew as to the whereabouts of the accomplished burglar, George Daly, alias Cecil Gerard, arrested the unfortunate man as he was about sailing on a large liner bound for New York. The criminal made a desperate resistance, and eluding the officer's grasp suddenly drew a sportsman's knife from his pocket, and before he could be prevented gashed his throat across from ear to ear. The ghastly occurrence was witnessed by a number of passengers, some of whom fainted, and the deepest gloom prevailed on board the Vulcan when she finally steamed away. A large quantity of valuables were discovered in the suicide's portmanteau, including a parure of diamonds, several rings, watches and other costly articles.

I passed the paper back in silence. It was dated the 7th inst. The terrible deed was committed on the very day and hour that was witnessed by Miss Hillyard some hundreds of miles away.

Poor Evelyn! She and her mother left the same day for England, and I have never met them since. The unhappy girl was as utterly unconscious then as she is now of the part she herself played in the miserable drama. In a letter recently received from Mrs. Hillyard she states that her daughter has taken the veil, and the great iron gates of the convent of the Sacred Heart have closed upon her forever.—Mrs. B. Battern in London Cream.

NO UNCERTAIN SOUND.

For the Benefit of Mothers.

Loving and anxious mothers should be guided by the opinions of first-class physicians who have given testimony in favour of Lactated Food.

One physician says: "I have thoroughly tried the other infant foods on the market, and speak advisedly when I say there is no other food that so thoroughly agrees and nourishes as Lactated Food."

Another physician says: "I have decided in favour of Lactated Food, and have discarded all others. I not only prescribe it in my practice and recommend it in my writings, but use it in my own family."

Still another physician writes as follows: "I have used Lactated food for some time; I take pleasure in bearing testimony to its many excellent qualities. I have found it especially useful in cases of impaired digestion in infants and old people."

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $30, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $30, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

A Mother's Wail.

They were in the street-car, and it was not long before all the passengers were listening to the tale of woe breathed into her friend's sympathetic ear by the woman in a fur-trimmed ulster.

"Everybody tells you: 'Wait till she walks and talks, and then she'll be a comfort to you,'" she was saying, "but for my part I'd almost rather she'd remain a baby. I never have any comfort any more. Sundays, when Ed is home, I do get a chance to draw a straight breath, but all the rest of the week she drives me nearly distracted. He finds that about the second hour of her company on Sunday lacks the charm that the first had, and then I say: 'Well, what do you think of me? I have it this way all week.'

"She gets on his knee and wants to ride 'a cock-horse to Banbury Cross,' and he keeps that up until both legs are so tired that he cannot ride her any more. Then she says: 'Papa, git down.' She wants him to lie on the carpet. If he says 'No, papa's busy,' she comes to me, takes me by the hand and leads me to him to intercede with him. He gets down on the floor and she sits down on his chest and bounces up and down there till his ribs crack.

"Then she wants to see the 'pickshers.' You never know how many pictures there are in a magazine till you have a young one about two years old. It is 'Wass sat?' all the time.

"Then she is always into something. You find the poker in bed and your spool of thread under the dressing case. She gets the scissors and when you notice that she is very quiet, you find her in the parlor snipping the lace curtains.

"She has to have her walk out every day when it is at all pleasant and just as she gets to the front door, she says: 'Mamma, ca'y.'

"She's so heavy I can't carry her, and she won't ride in her carriage. If I make her walk she throws herself down on the ground and screams, and I simply can't make up my mind to take her across my lap and spank her in public. So I bought her a little red wagon to push so that she would walk along by herself. And that's as much bother as a whole circus caravan. She runs it off into the gutter or down somebody's areaway and falls down after it herself, and how she has missed cracking her skull I don't know.

"When she isn't falling down with it or upsetting it and calling, 'Mamma, fick a waggie,' she is mixing it up with the feet of somebody, getting it tangled up in some woman's skirts and shouting, 'Go' way, lady!' or nearly upsetting some man in a hurry to catch a car.

"Ed never gets a chance to read the Sunday papers and my only opportunity to read is after she goes to bed at night. I try to teach her to say her prayers.

"'Now I lay me'——

"'Now I vay me'——

"'Down to sleep'

"'Down a shreep.' Wass Margie doin'?"

"'Margie's saying her prayers like a good little girl. I pray the Lord'——

"'Margie got her tockie off?'

"'Yes, Margie's g... stockings off. I pray the Lord'——

"'Dolly got her 'tockie off, too?'

"'Yes, yes. I pray the Lord'——

"'P'ay a Lor'. Dolly goin' shreep, too?'

"'Yes, dear. Now if Margie isn't a good girl, mamma'll have to spank.'

"'Pank Margie good? 'Pank dolly good?'

"'I pray the Lord my soul to keep.'

"'Soul a keep.'

"'If I should die'——

"'Fi-she-di. Mamma, dollie got 'tockie'

"'Before I wake'——

"'Fo' wake. Mamma, dolly got a 'tock'

"'I pray the Lord'——

"'P'ay a Lord, soul a take. Mamma, dolly got 'tockie off?'

"'Yes, dear. Now kiss mamma nighty night and go to sleep like a good little girl.'

"Then I've got to tell her a story and sing 'The Bowery' and 'Oh Where, Oh Where Is My Little Dog Gone?' and I must hold her hand. Pretty soon she drops asleep and the long day is over and I have a chance to see if I have forgotten what a printed page looks like. Mind you, I'm not through with her yet, for I've got to keep watch over her all night, for no living human being can pin the covers so securely about her that she won't kick them off."

And the other woman sighed sympathetically.

"The Cat Came Back."

The question which puzzle us this week is "How did the cat get home?" A cat, we are assured, was recently carried from a town on the north-east coast of Fife to a country house near Perth. It went in a basket by train to Leuchars, where it changed for Dundee, and at Dundee changed for Perth. Next day, about 7 in the morning, this cat was observed to run down the avenue of its new home with "a purposeful air." On the third day it appeared at its old home. Now (it is asked) how did that cat achieve its journey?

The Armenians' Revenge.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 30.—The Mufti of Yuzgat was found hanged recently, and pinned to his sleeve was a note saying that this was the first instalment of the Armenians, debt to Turkish officials. Yuzgat has been one of the centres of the persecution practiced by the Mohammedans upon the Armenians.

South Bruce Liberals.

WALKERTON, Ont., April 30.—A convention of the Liberal party of South Bruce was held at Formosa on Saturday, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the ensuing election. Mr. O'Connor, M.P.P., declined the nomination. Adjourned until May 10 to select a candidate.

IT PAYS TO AVDERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

TO CARRY FREIGHT.

The Proposed Fast Steamship Service Will Not Carry Passengers Only.

LONDON, April 30.—Mr. J. Huddart, managing director of the proposed Anglo-Canadian fast Atlantic steamship company, has received a cable message from the executive body of the Patrons of Industry, which embraces a protest against any subsidy being granted by the Government of Canada to the projected enterprise, on the ground that a passenger service would not benefit Canada as a whole, and that in that respect the country is already amply furnished.

Mr. Huddart, speaking of the message, said he hoped this and other popular misapprehensions with regard to the proposed fast line would be entirely removed by the explanations that would undoubtedly receive publicity at the approaching conference of Colonial and Imperial representatives at Ottawa.

The impression that the vessels of the proposed line would carry nothing but passengers was erroneous. Besides a capacity for 2,000 tons of coal the steamships would also carry 3,000 tons of freight in addition to possessing accommodation for the storage of 4,000 quarters of chilled beef, and ample room for all kinds of dairy produce and other exports.

Mr. Huddart declares that the vessels as projected will be the best cargo carrying steamships ever constructed, by reason of their extra depth, to which there will be no limit as is the case with the lines running between England and New York. The passenger accommodation will be equally capacious, and every available modern luxury and convenience will be applied. The plans show accommodation for 350 saloon passengers, 200 second-class and 1,000 steerage.

IN SIGHT OF THE CAPITAL.

Coxey's Army of the Commonweal in the District of Columbia.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Jacob Coxey's ragged and footsore army of the commonweal marched into the District of Columbia yesterday without molestation from the authorities and are encamped on federal territory within a few miles of the capital. Citizen Coxey, sleeps at the National hotel, where he joined his wife and child. The rank and file of the "army" lie on the damp in Brightwood driving park, where thousands of people gathered to inspect the queer contingent. At noon the army reached Silver Springs where "the unknown" with his contingent of deserters had established his camp. They numbered 326 including Jones' contingent of Philadelphia.

Coxey, when questioned as to his next movements, said: "We shall lose no time at this camp. To-morrow morning we shall march down 21st street to the statue of Washington and along Pennsylvania avenue, past the White House and the treasury, reaching the steps of the Capitol at noon. There we shall hold a meeting and impress upon Congress the advisability of agreeing to the measures of the commonweal, the good roads and the non-interest bearing bond bills."

"What if they stop you?" was asked.

"They can't stop us. The constitution does not permit them. There'll be no interference. We shall not transgress any law that is constitutional. There'll be no disorder in our parade or meeting. We have a perfect right to gather on the steps of the Capitol and we'll do so."

HENRY SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Another Paris Anarchist to Pay the Penalty of His Crime.

PARIS, April 30.—The trial of the anarchist, Emile Henry, was concluded on Saturday. The verdict was that the prisoner was guilty on all counts. Henry, who had been led from the court room, was brought back. His manner was unconstrained, and he smiled as he faced the court officers.

In response to the question whether he had anything to say he remarked nonchalantly: "I accept the verdict, whatever it may be." The judges, who had gone out, consulted but a few minutes before returning to pronounce sentence. After hearing the presiding judge declare that he must suffer the death penalty Henry turned from the dock without giving a sign of nervousness, and walked with a sprightly step from the room.

BUFFALO LAWYER ASSASSINATED.

Montgomery Gibbs Shot to Death by an Unknown Hand.

BUFFALO, April 30.—Montgomery Gibbs, a lawyer of this city, and at one time editor of the Evening Republic, was shot and killed on Delaware avenue Saturday evening by an unknown man.

Montgomery Gibbs was seen by a friend walking alone, about a mile south of where he was shot. It was evident that he had no warning and the shots were fired at close range from behind a tree. One bullet passed through his arm, the other entered his brain and the powder marks left on his temple. He had no known enemy. Two boys who were walking up the avenue half a block away heard the first shot and turned in time to see the flash of a second one, then a third shot furnished light in which they claim to have seen two men jump from behind a tree and disappear into a yard—and this is all the police have yet learned tending to throw light on this mysterious murder.

My Toothache!

Is an exclamation heard every hour in the day. Toothache is the most common ailment of young or old, and in the aggregate inflicts more suffering than perhaps any other single complaint. A one minute cure is just what every person should possess. FEASTING AND SONG.

COURT ST. PETER'S C. O. F., ENTERTAIN ROYALLY.

The Officials Give a Complimentary Banquet in Honour of the Lodge's Membership Having Reached the Century Mark.

Fully four score guests assembled last night in the City hotel by invitation of the officials of Court St. Peter, Catholic Order of Foresters, to partake of a collation which was given in celebration of the fact that the court has now reached the centenary mark, having an enrolled membership of over 100.

The dining room of the City hotel was profusely decorated with bunting, while the Union Jack and Irish ensign were draped in folds together in most effective designs from the four corners of the room. Two long parallel tables which were spread and which seated about one hundred guests were crowded to their utmost limit to accommodate all who came to assist in honouring the lodge which in the past few years has made such vast strides in advance in the way of increasing its membership roll. The chair was taken by Dr. Brennan and the seat of honour at his right was occupied by Mr. J. R. Stratton, M. P. P., while at his left sat Mr. H. C. Winch. The vice chair was occupied by Chief Ranger, J. P. Shevlin. The supper was one which reflected great credit on mine host of the City Hotel, and was partaken of with a gusto which was ample proof of the estimation in which the good things were held.

After the guests had partaken of the repast, the dishes were cleared away and part of the programme was opened with that good old loyal one of "The Queen," which meet with a hearty response in the singing of the National Anthem. Before entering further into the toast list, the chairman took occasion to make a few remarks regarding the establishment and growth of the Catholic Order of Foresters. It was, he stated, about 10 years since a Catholic Order on the assessment plan was started in Peterborough—namely the C. M.B.A. It however did not provide for a sick benefit, so the E.B.A. was organized. Both flourished and are flourishing in the town to-day, but it was thought that something was still lacking—namely, an order which would combine the good qualities of the two aforenamed and at the same time give the benefit of ample insurance to its members. Deliberation resulted in the formation of the Court of St. Peter of the C.O.F., which within the three years of its formation had grown so rapidly that already over 100 members were enrolled and the officials were sanguine of doubling the membership within a short period of time. Brother J. J. Lynch was the first chief ranger installed, and he had been succeeded by Brother J. P. Shevlin, who was just about to give way to Brother Bogue. Letters of regret at being unable to be present were read from Messrs. R.W. Bell, D. S. Casey, R. M. Dennistoun and Mayor Kendry.

The toast of the "Ontario Legislature" was received with a great deal of applause, but not as much as greeted the riding's representative, Mr. J. R. Stratton when he rose to respond. He stated that it afforded him no small degree of pleasure to be with the members of St. Peter's Court on an occasion when they were honouring such an important event as he understood they were gathered together to celebrate. It was seldom, indeed, that in one day so much pleasure had been meted out to him as had occurred this evening. In the first place, he had had the honour of assisting in the celebration of the anniversary of his Lordship Bishop O'Conner's elevation to the bishopric and had immediately on leaving the scene of the occasion come to join in the festivities which were now in progress. It gave him a great deal of pleasure indeed to dine with so many of the gentlemen who had helped to make him a member of the Legislature (cheers). As a humble member of that Legislature he was glad to see the toast received with such hearty enthusiasm. He understood perfectly that it was the Legislature and not the individual who was being toasted. The Ontario Legislature, he claimed, was more in touch with the people than any other parliament in this country, and he thought that man for man the members of the Legislative Assembly with the members of the House of Commons, and the latter with any other representative body in the world. He was glad that such an organization as the Foresters existed, as it insured exemption from want to the widows and orphans of the members. Few could estimate the assistance which was rendered annually by these organizations to those in want and distress.

COULD COMPARE FAVOURABLY

The name of Mr. H. C. Winch was also coupled with the toast, but that gentleman did not make any very extended remarks, and after complimenting the Order on the success which was evidently attending it, and thanking the officers for their hospitality he resumed his seat.

Brother O'Brien's contribution to the evening's entertainment of a comic song, was received with great applause.

The toast of "The Town Council" was coupled with the names of Councillors Cahill and Dawson.

Mr. Cahill could not say too much in favour of the societies of the nature of the one with whom he that evening had the pleasure of dining He stated that as long as good men were kept in the town council and the next best sent to the legislature, it didn't much matter who was sent to the Dominion House.

Mr. Dawson spoke of the fact of his having been intimately connected with a great many societies. He had paid a great deal of money out in his day in the way of assessments and dues, but had not received any back and hoped that he would never have to either.

"Sister Societies" was responded to by a number of guests. Mr. F. J. Jameson, member of the Executive Committee of the Canadian Order of Foresters, took the floor first. As one who had been since its inception in the town, he felt proud of the progress which the different branches of Forestry had made. He was pleased with the spirit that had prompted the banquet to-night, that of brotherly fellowship and good will to the sister branches, and as the principles were the same in all its branches he was pleased to notice the developement of the Catholic Order, and heartily wished the members God speed in the good work which they had undertaken.

Mr. Nesbitt also responded to the toast and referred in his remarks to the great good which has been accomplished by Foresters in general.

Mr. Watson mentioned the fact that although he had been 40 years a Forester he had only drawn $3 in benefits in that time. Though he wasn't very big, every inch of him was a Forester.

Mr. Alexander spoke of the good work Court Peterborough, C. O. F., was doing and Court St. Peter would soon come up to it in numbers, although a much younger society.

Mr. Howard, of St. Mary's Court, No. 356, of Hastings, made a few remarks on Forestry and hoped that some day in the near future the court which he represented would have the pleasure of welcoming repeesentatives from Court St. Peter to an entertainment of a similar character in Hastings.

Mr. D. A. Carey, Grand President of the Emerald Beneficial Society, was also called upon for a few remarks and delivered a most eloquent oration. Although not a Forester in the way in which that word was used by those gathered together, yet he claimed that he was, in the general sense of the term—in the endeavour to make the world better for others—than he had found it. He referred in terms of gratification and pleasure to the unusual spectacle which was presented by the sight of so many Foresters, and creed, dining together in perfect harmony and good-fellowship. He wished that it was the same all the world over and thought that the members of parliament would do well to carry some of this same sense of good-fellowship into the house with them.

REGARDLESS OF DENOMINATION

Mr. Dolan, of the Catholic Literary Association, spoke of the advancemnt which the society that he represented had made within the last three years. He mentioned the pleasant rooms which his organization possessed and hoped that the membership would become even larger by contributions in that way from the other Catholic societies, with the workings of which the Literary Society did not in the least conflict.

Mr. Devlin, of the C. M. B. A., devoted the larger part of his address to the expression of the pleasure which it gave him to see the representatives of so many different societies and religious creeds dining together in such whole-souled fellowship.

Mr. L. M. Hay's song with its whooping chorus was an immense success and was heartily enjoyed.

"Mercantile and Mechanical Interests." This toast brought Mr. Gough, Mr. Clement Gordon, Mr. Con. Young and Mr. Bogue to their feet. Mr. Gough, on behalf of the mercantile interests, spoke of Peterborough's fine business street and hoped that instead of being the banner town, Peterborough would at no distant day become the banner city of Canada. Mr. Clement Gordon made a few remarks appropriate to the occasion and was followed by Mr. Con. Young, who spoke of the of the town which he represented as being second to none in the province. Mr. Bogue thought Peterborough's merchants were second to none and were able to hold their own anywhere, no matter where they might roam.

GREAT MANUFACTURING INTERESTS

"The Canadian Militia" was a toast to which was coupled with the name of Lieut. Hayes. He replied in his characteristically witty manner, and concluded by paying a royal tribute to Canada's citizen soldiery in general and the 57th Peterborough Rangers in particular.

Mr. Watson's rendition of that popular song, "Mary Green" was most excellent and deserved the continued applause which it drew forth.

The names of Dr. McGrath, Mr. L. M. Haye and Bailiff LePlante, were coupled with the toast of the "Legal Professions." The Doctor congratulated the Court on the unboundd success of its entertainment and as the hour was late resumed his seat after making a few more brief complimentary remarks. Mr. Hayes' response was also characterized by its brevity, as was that of Bailiff LePlante.

To Mr. W. A. Horkins was awarded the high honour of responding to the toast of "The Ladies." He claimed, however, not to be well enough posted on the subject to do it justice.

The last regular toast on the list was that of "The Press." Mr. Buchanan in replying credited the fourth estate with helping on the societies in their benevolent designs.

Mr. Alf. Terrill excused himself from making any lengthy remarks, but drew the attention of those present to the fact that Mr. D. A. Carey was a representative of the Toronto press, and was the possessor of a good voice. In response to a general invitation Mr. Carey rendered "The Irishman's Toast," in the chorus of which all joined.

The "Host and Hostess" was fitly honoured. Mr. Clancy briefly responded, after which Mr. Winch proposed the toast of "St. Peter's Court," which brought Dr. Brennan, Secretary J. P. Bryson and Chief Ranger J. P. Shevlin out on the floor. Their remarks were listened to with attention and were loudly applauded. Just previous to the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the Queen," Mr. Carey, seconded by Mr. Jameson, moved a vote of thanks to the chairman, which was most enthusiastically carried.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

A conference will be held in the Palace Restaurant club rooms Thursday evening between representatives of the different baseball aggregations in the town with the object of forming an intermediate and a junior league. It is hoped that two delegates from the following clubs will be present: Vatican, Park Nine, Auburn, Ashburnham, Edison Juniors and Park Nine.

Baseball practice will be held at Riverside Park to-night.

Rumour has it that the local club will lose its skilful pitcher, McCabe, this season, as it is said he will play ball with a Montreal aggregation of stars. What will be Peterborough's loss will be Montreal's gain.

The cricketers were out this afternoon for a practice. It is expected that quite a number will put in an appearance on the crease this evening, when wickets will be pitched.

Both teams of lacrosse showed up well on their respective grounds last night.

THE BUCHANAN CASE.

Equal to a Resurrection—Almost Helpless from Kidney Disease—A Burden to Himself and His Friends—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Chatham, April 30.—The story of Sherman Buchanan, living near Leamington, is worthy of notice. He says he was almost helpless, bloated and a wreck with kidney disease. His digestive organs were powerless and he was rapidly becoming a burden to himself and his friends. Naturally he lost all hopes of recovery, but a happy thought suggested Dodd's Kidney Pills, and these cured him. Dodd's was the first Kidney remedy in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

CUT TO THE BONE

Mantles and Capes.

Tell your friends, tell your neighbours, tell even your enemies—about our WONDERFUL SALE now going on.

Every new Mantle, every new Cape, every new Wrap—must go—hence and forthwith—and "stand not upon the order of going,"—but go at once.

To cut once—and cut deeply—is better than to hack away, little by little—so this blow is to the bone. Read how facts and figures go hand-in-hand:—

Our $15 00 Mantle.....	goes for	$11	65
Our 13 00 Mantles & Capes	"	9	50
Our 11 00 "	"	8	40
Our 8 75 "	"	6	25
Our 8 00 "	"	5	75
Our 6 75 "	"	5	25
Our 4 00 "	"	3	00

We sold yesterday a $12.50 Mantle, handsomely embroidered, full sleeves, for $4.00.

There's no likelihood that the pick of Paris and Berlin Mantles will ever again be so absurdly low. Not a coat in the lot but is to-day worth twice or may be thrice times the price.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

A BLOW AT THE

Dress Goods.

Dress Goods are the vertebræ of our dry goods stock. As the marrow to the vertebræ, so are our MATCHLESS VALUES. Bettering our best is our effort all the time.

1894 stands pre-eminent for sales and attractive bargains in Dress Goods. The splendid success of our sales justifies our policy of marvelously low prices during the pinching hard times, and our new scale of prices is drawing the crowds:—

20 pieces 45 inch Serge, all colours, worth 50c., for 40c.
10 pieces 40 inch Gray and Fawn Bedieges, worth 60c., for 35c.
6 pieces 46 inch Satin Cloth, imported to sell at 80c., now 60c.
10 pieces Coloured Cashmeres, worth 30c, for 25c.
6 pieces Coloured Diagonal Serge, worth 40c., sale price 25c.
12 pieces Coloured Serge, all wool at 25c
10 pieces Printed All Wool Delaines, 30 to 36 inches, worth from 40c. to 60c., for 25c.

This is a time for few words. We put all our eloquence into prices and qualities.

"It's Fair's Way."

Customers are heard to say:—"Fair's getting a great run on Carpets." Carpet cutting is certainly more rapid than we expected. This is just the way we want it. We deal in Rich Carpets and Rugs. The fourth floor is loaded with Floor Coverings. We are leaders in prices and new colourings. Prices out to the bone.

April and May are the months for carpet cleaning. Perhaps your carpet is worn out. Sweeping won't help it. A carpet bought now will save you 20 per cent. "It's Fair's Way."

MILLINERY STIR.

Just now there's more interest than usual going on in our Millinery Department. There is a marked increase in sales, and our new revised prices seems to "startle the oldest inhabitant." The special attractions in our Millinery Parlours are the new designs in Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets for Ladies, Children's Hats, &c. Novelties in beautiful soft roses with foliage in all colours, and other flowers, together with New Ribbons, Feathers and Trimmings.

But the popular prices all round is what is doing the effective selling of the season, and nobody accuses us of charging too much.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

TURNBULL'S

Gloves
.. AND ..
Hosiery.

The time of year is now upon us when we begin to think of new Gloves and Hosiery. We would like to call your attention to our magnificent stock fresh from the German factories. There are several points about our Gloves we want you to notice. First, by buying from a factory direct they are at bottom prices, and having them made to order we pay particular attention to the cut and have the fingers made to fit the hand, which you will have noticed is often not the case in ordinary goods; also our colours were selected to match the shades of dress goods being worn this season, and every pair is properly sized the same as Kid Gloves. A full range of Lisle Thread Taffata Gloves and Silk in black and colours. We have one job line we are clearing at 25c., worth from 30 to 50c.

In Hosiery there is a growing demand for coloured goods. We have imported and placed in stock a choice range of all the best shades made extra long, perfectly fast dyes. Also the new striped goods which are coming in again. In Black Cotton we commence them at 5c. a pair. They are shaped and seamless and indestructible fast dye. A job line of Black Cashmere in ribbed and plain at 21c. for Children's and 26c. for Ladies. These goods are less than cost of manufacture but we bought them at a sacrifice and are giving our customers the benefit.

Owing to the fact that we were likely to have a close season on account of the low prices and scarcity of money we bought lightly and consequently have no large lots of our own to sacrifice, and are open to secure bargains from wholesale houses who are overstocked and can therefore afford to offer new goods at much closer prices than usual.

See the special lines we will have ready for our bargain day Wednesday, May 2nd. Wool Delaines at 15, 20, 25 and 28.

Gingham, 1 yard wide, good patterns for Aprons, only 8½c.

Armure Dress Cloth, summer shades, at 27c., worth 60c.

Self Coloured Striped Dress Goods, only 27c., regular price 50c.

Black Henrietta, 45 inches wide, fine finish, good weight, at 44c. a yard, regular price 70c.

COMMITTEE OF SUPPLY

Items of Supplementary Estimates Pass Through the Legislature.

QUALIFICATION OF LICENSEES

Authoritative Precedent of the British Commons Places the Propriety of Hon. Mr. Bronson's Seat Beyond Question — The Election Act.

TORONTO, May 2.—A motion by Hon. Mr. Harcourt in the House yesterday, that the full sessional indemnity be paid to Hon. Mr. Fraser and Messrs. Guthrie, G. B. Smith and Rayside, who were absent a portion of the session through illness, was concurred in.

An amendment by Mr. Meredith was made to the bill respecting the city of London.

On the motion for the third reading of the bill to consolidate and amend the drainage laws, an amendment by Mr. Whitney was declared lost on division.

Supplementary Estimates.

The House then went into committee of supply on the supplementary estimates.

The items of $1,000 for experimental work relating to fruit growing, and $150 additional grant to the Sheep Breeders' Association, brought forth some discussion.

Mr. Clancy said he looked upon the speech of the Minister of Agriculture at Whitby as a bid for the votes of his constituents. The hon. gentleman had taken credit upon himself for the grant to be given in aid of fruit growing, and he inferred that further aid was to be asked.

Hon. Mr. Dryden said he had merely explained the nature of the grants in the supplementary estimates for the encouragement of fruit growing and sheep breeding. It was proposed to establish an experimental station in each of the counties of Frontenac, Simcoe, Huron, Wentworth and Essex to be in charge of specialists selected by the Fruit Growers' Association.

Mr. Whitney thought the Minister of Agriculture should have taken the House into his confidence with regard to the proposed development of fruit growing, and not have delayed the announcement till the last days of the session.

Mr. Hiscott advocated the establishment of a station for the purpose of dealing with all the diseases to which fruit was subject.

Mr. Meredith advocated the establishment of experimental stations in different sections of the province for other purposes as well as encouraging fruit growing.

The item passed.

The item of $4,068 for maintenance and repairs was passed.

The Casselman Bridge.

On the vote of $2,000 for the reconstruction of the bridge over the Nation river, near Casselman, Mr. Meredith protested against the exceptional treatment accorded this part of the province, and argued that it was establishing a bad precedent.

Mr. Evanturel supported the grant.

Sir Oliver Mowat said the people in the locality were very poor, and the Government only came to the rescue when they found the residents could not build the bridge themselves.

Mr. Clancy and Dr. Barr opposed the grant.

The committee rose and reported progress, and the House rose for recess.

Afternoon Sitting.

After luncheon an amendment by Mr. Waters to the Municipal Amendment Act was defeated on a division of 46 to 22.

The House then resumed the concurrence of the estimates in committee.

Hon. Mr. Hardy moved to strike out the item of $2,000 for the reconstruction of a bridge at Casselman. He said it was not an item that the Government would face against the will of the House, or that they would ask to be sanctioned unless there was a reasonable amount of unanimity in the House in favor of it. The making of this grant was a new principle, something different to the usual practice, and although a strong case had been made out in its favor, they would not make it a political question. The item was struck out.

To Meet Certain Claims.

On the item of $1,000 to meet claims in respect to lands said to be damaged by provincial work on Mary's lake, Mr. Meredith said he was informed the claims of these settlers had been allowed to go unpaid for ten years. Instead of making an examination in order to see whether or not these people had claims, and the amounts to which they were entitled, a sum was annually put in the estimates as a sort of guess work, which might or might not be applied in paying the large sums alleged to be due for the purpose of influencing voters.

Mr. Marter followed in the same strain.

World's Fair Expenses.

On the item of $3,500 balance of accounts due for World's Fair expenses, Mr. Meredith asked for information respecting the amounts.

Mr. Awrey replied that the amount was for the salaries and expenses of the manager of the fruit exhibit and other officials who remained behind packing the exhibits after the fair had closed. The other items of expenditure appeared in detail in the public accounts. He extolled the province for the awards taken at the fair.

Mr. Clancy hoped the hon. gentleman would not try to claim the credit on behalf of the Government for Ontario's success, when it was really due to the energy and enterprise of the people.

Mr. Meredith said he had been informed the Ontario Commissioner had sent every one of his constituents to the World's Fair in detachments in some capacity or other.

Mr. Awrey denied the statement. He had not had any more applications for positions from his constituents than from any other part of the province. People had come to him in relays, and he could not satisfy them all.

The item passed.

Evening Sitting.

After recess Hon. Mr. Harcourt's bill entitled "An Act respecting Elections in the Outer Districts of the Province," which was to repeal sections 35 and 36 of the Ontario Election Act, shortening the time between nomination day and polling day in the districts of Algoma and Nipissing, was read a first time.

Mr. White rose to state that an anonymous circular had been sent to Catholic priests in western contitences, and that the franking privilege had been used for this purpose. The circular purported to come from the Legislative Assembly, was franked with the initials "J. L., M.P.P.," and referred to the vote of a certain member in the recent school ballot question. He said he had spoken to the hon. member whose initials were similar to those franked, and that he had denied any knowledge of the transaction.

Mr. Loughrin indignantly denied any knowledge whatever of the franking of the circulars, and regretted that Mr. White had entertained for a moment any suspicion that he was connected with it.

Mr. Meredith said somebody had been guilty of forging the hon. gentleman's initials. If the franking privilege was to be abused in this way it had better be abolished.

The Estimates.

The House went into committee on the supplementary estimates.

The item of $15,000 to purchase two diamond drills for mining exploration, with equipment and extra boring tools, expenses of working and transporting same, cost of assaying outfit, and assayer's service, and incidental expenses, was passed.

The item of $1,000, a grant to the School of Mines and Agriculture at Kingston, was passed.

On the vote of $7,500 for the Western Dairy School, Hon. Mr. Dryden announced that it was contemplated to establish a school at Strathroy.

A supplementary estimate granting $1,500 for the equipment of a dairy building in connection with the School of Mines at Kingston was presented to the House, considered in committee, and after considerable discussion as to the object for which the money was given, was reported.

A bill granting aid to certain railways was read a second time.

Election of Timber Licensees.

Sir Oliver Mowat moved the second reading of the bill respecting the election of licensees of timber limits to the Legislative Assembly. He alluded to the fact that similar procedure was followed when Baron Rothschild contracted for the purchase of large sums of Government annalties, whilst sitting as a member of the Imperial House. He advanced an argument to show that the interest of any member of the Legislature in the cutting of timber could not be considered an interest in the public service of the crown. In view of any possible doubt that might exist, however, it was advisable to establish this beyond all question.

Mr. Whitney contended that it was wrong that a gentleman should sit in the Cabinet as a representative of the lumber industry and take part in framing a policy affecting the revenues of timber limits in which he himself was interested.

Mr. Meredith said he should divide the House upon the bill, as it was most undesirable that by legislation such as this the Legislature should sanction a departure from the well established principles of the independence of Parliament.

Mr. Hardy replied that if the contentions of Mr. Meredith and his supporters were correct, no wholesale merchant could sit in the Dominion House, and the same argument would apply to every lawyer or doctor sitting in the House where legislation affecting the interests of his profession came up for discussion. If Mr. Bronson's position was untenable what could be said about the position of Hon. Frank Smith or Sir John Carling with respect to the Dominion Cabinet?

Mr. Clancy argued that from his position as a timber licensee, Mr. Bronson was a debtor to the crown. As a member of the Cabinet he helped to fix the timber dues. He must necessarily be in possession of dangerous information as to the period at which timber sales would take place, the restrictions to be adopted, and so on.

Hon. Mr. Hardy said Mr. Bronson was not in possession of any such information, and had not asked for any. If he did he (Mr. Hardy) would not feel compelled to tell him. Besides, Mr. Bronson could not know what went on in the Cabinet with regard to timber matters, seeing that he resided at Ottawa.

Mr. Clancy replied that the Commissioner of Crown Lands had given away his own case. Mr. Bronson should not be in the Cabinet if there were matters about which his colleagues would hesitate to tell him. A member of a Government should be in complete accord with his colleagues or resign.

Dr. Meacham moved in amendment to give the bill the six months' hoist.

After some further remarks by Sir Oliver Mowat and Mr. Meredith the House divided and the amendment was lost by 41 to 31.

The bill passed a second reading on the same division.

Killed by a Locomotive.

PITTSBURG, May 2.—A locomotive on the Pittsburg, McKeesport & Youghiogheny Railroad ran into a party of fifteen young men at Hogshead at midnight, killing John Davis and fatally injuring Michael O'Toole and Thomas Halloran. The young men had been drinking and were crossing the track.

Irish Farmer Shot Dead.

BELFAST, May 2.—A farmer named Gardiner was shot dead while seated at a window of the kitchen of his farmhouse at Ballyhavistock, County Antrim. The murder is believed to be of Agrarian origin. One of Gardiner's neighbors has been arrested on suspicion.

To the Assistance of Kelly.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 2.—General Master Workman Sovereign of the K. of L. was asked to-day why he was here. He replied: "I came to take a hand in this fight. We will get transportation for the Kelly army if we have to tie up ever railroad in Iowa."

TREMBLED AND SHOOK

St. Albans' Catastrophe Resembled a Volcanic Upheaval.

AWFUL SCENE OF DESOLATION

Where the St. Anne River Was Formerly a Mile Wide it is Now But a Narrow Stream—The Rockbed of the Cataract Has Disappeared.

MONTREAL, May 2.—Reports from St. Albans, Que., give further details of the terrible landslide at that place. Samuel Gauthier, farmer of St. Albans, aged 54 years; his wife, aged 35; their son, aged 8, and Gauthier's brother, are buried under a hundred feet of earth by the terrible landslide of Friday last. Some say that Madame Gauthier was seen going down in the Ste. Anne river while trying to save herself by running away, but the verity of the earth was too great; she was carried along by it, and while crying out for help she was drawn into the wild maelstrom and drowned.

The principal scene of the catastrophe is eighteen miles from the nearest telegraph station, and for this reason news of the terrible calamity was not given sooner to the outside world.

For miles there is not anything but desolation. Where the Ste. Anne river was once nearly a mile wide it is now only a narrow stream, raging and surging in a vain attempt to break its new bounds; woods, houses, cattle, all are gone, and nothing left but barren ground for six miles back. Here and there the debris of the ill-fated farmhouses, granaries and outhouses are seen in little heaps tangled up with uprooted trees and carcasses of dead cattle, but most of it has been swept into the river and carried long since into the St. Lawrence. The shores of the river are of a peculiar formation and rise a hundred and fifty feet above the level of the water, except for a mile or so where the slide occurred.

It was five o'clock in the evening when the banks caved in, and with the hundreds of tons of sand on top slid in the river. The noise was terrific, but it was followed by a sudden calm, for the roar of the falls had been smothered. The water rose and rose till for miles it covered everything. It was fully a hundred feet deep when the earth began to move; first slowly, then faster and finally so fast that those who were far back from the river and tried to run from it were thrown down. It is a wonder that no human lives were lost.

Thousands of people daily crowd the banks and point out to one another where the farms of their friends stood. Yesterday another fatal accident nearly occurred. One of the sightseers, Gendais Belard, ventured too far on the newly formed shore, and was swallowed up by the clay. He was rescued with great difficulty. There is not the slightest doubt but the poor Gauthier family are dead, and it is not impossible the bodies may never be recovered.

The value of the six cultivated farms actually destroyed does not average more than $2,000 each, and a large track of excellent farm land besides has been actually wiped off the face of the earth. The damage is principally shown in the matter of the loss of the pulp mill of Mr. Gorrie of Portneuf. Fully $400,000 worth of property must have been destroyed. Ste. Anne's river is unrecognizable. From a deep clear stream it has turned into a dirty creek of immense velocity, carrying every miscellaneous lot of trees, house timbers and dead cattle to the St. Lawrence.

Mr. Gorie, proprietor of the destroyed pulp mills at St. Albans, in an interview said that the newspaper reports, so far from being exaggerated, fall short of the stupendous catastrophe. The overwhelming suddenness of the calamity, the great extent of area affected and the presence of the confused debris of huge banks of blue clay from forty to forty-five feet thick, incline Mr. Gorie to the opinion that this was no ordinary landslide but a volcanic upheaval followed by a subsidence. The solid rockbed of the cataract has entirely disappeared, whether subsided into the bosom of the earth, or covered up, is impossible to say, so effectually has the ravine been levelled, but the former supposition is probable, from the fact that all the premonitory symptoms were those of volcanic upheaval. The first hint of the impending doom was given about ten minutes before it occurred in the shape of a terrific roar underground, continuing for over a minute. This was followed by violent tremblings of the earth, and at their termination the ground seemed to disrupt and hurl itself into the yawning abyss above the raging waters. There can be no doubt, he said, that the catastrophe was caused by nothing else but an earthquake.

ONLY FEEBLY CONTAGIOUS.

Canada's Cattle Affected With the Corn Stalk Disease.

LONDON, May 2.—Mr. H. Gardner, president of the Board of Agriculture, in answer to a question put by Mr. Maguire in the House of Commons, said that the proposed specific examination by expert veterinary surgeons of the lungs of Canadian cattle slaughtered at the port of debarkation should begin on the 16th inst. The examination would be conducted with the minutest care so that ample justice would be done all parties interested.

The correspondence exchanged between the Board of Agriculture and the Colonial Office concerning the admission of Canadian cattle into Great Britain has been made public by the Board of Agriculture.

The Colonial Secretary in his last communication dated April 26, quotes M. Nocards, a French expert in cattle disease, as saying that what is known in the western part of the United States, as corn stalk disease, which is only feebly contagious, has often been mistaken for pleuro-pneumonia. M. Nocard, in a report to Sir Charles Tupper, the Canadian High Commissioner, in September last, declared that the condition of the lungs of Canadian cattle, which had been submitted to him for examination, was identical with the condition found in the corn-stalk disease. The Colonial Secretary says that he cannot admit that Canadian cattle are infected with any other disease than that attributed to hardship and exposure on the journey from their pastures to Europe.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 2. 1894.

"EVERY word," says The Evening Telegram, "that Hon. A. S. Hardy uttered as to the atrocious frauds in connection with the prepartion of the voters' lists and the polling of votes in Toronto is true. The Opposition has very little to do when it prolongs the session by an effort to protect the plugger and the impersonator against the consequences of a registration law for manhood franchise voters. It is sheer affection for any member for Toronto to pretend that he never heard of personation. Personation has been reduced to a science in this town. No one would charge any legislator with a personal share in the infamy, but no representative for Toronto need go outside the circle of his own acquaintance to find men who know all about personation. There is no hardship at all in obliging manhood franchise voters to register. Other citizens have to pay rent in order to get on the lists. The Opposition is badly advised when it weeps over the honest workingman who will be inconvenienced by precautions against fraud. Fraud has become an almost decisive element in Toronto elections, and the Ontario Government cannot be too highly praised for passing a registration law as a step towards purity at the polls.

CHANDOS.

CHANDOS, April 30th, 1894.

Chandos council met at Post's school house on April 28th. 1894. Members all present. Two petitions were presented, one from S. Carroll and one from R. Steen, praying that certain roads be opened. Neither of them were allowed. The lands of Mrs. Henry Huble and Geo. Robinson were constituted a road beat, with Geo. Robinson as pathmaster. The township was divided into three polling sub-divisions, according to plan shown by the clerk. The polling places are No. 1 school house, No. 2 school house and No. 6 school house. No. 6 school section was allowed twenty-eight dollars to defray the expenses they had incurred sending delegates to the county council to support petition for separation from Burleigh, etc. A motion was passed allowing R. Huble $15 for road allowance across lot 20 con. 11. The west boundary line of school section No. 7 was defined and established. The clerk was instructed to have the minutes of the meetings published. An order was drawn on the treasurer in favour of the clerk as part payment of salary. J. A. McColl and Chas. Prouty were appointed to meet the representatives of the Burleigh council to complete a settlement between the two municipalities. The council then adjourned to meet at Hale's schoolhouse on Saturday, May 19th, 1894.

"But evil is wrought by want of thought,
As well as want of heart."

By want of thought mothers allow daughters to become frail and puny. Overstudy in girls induces uterine disorders and weaknesses, and blights their future happiness as wives and mothers. Joined to proper hygienic care, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a priceless remedy in such ailments, its value becoming even more apparent every year. Using it, the wan, debilitated school girl gains colour, flesh and spirits, losing those deathly headaches, tormenting backaches, languor, dejection and other symptoms of functional irregularities and nervous debility. It never harms the most delicate girl.

World's Dispensary Medical Association:

GENTLEMEN.—I cannot sufficiently express to you my gratitute for the benefit your medicine has conferred upon my daughter. Of late she has suffered no pain whatever. It is simply marvelous. You have just reason to call it your "Favorite Prescription," and to stake your reputation as a physician on it. A favourite prescription it is, indeed, to you and to thousands in this land, and I believe will be to suffering women the world over. Yours gratefully,

AN EXPLANATION.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Will you kindly allow me sufficient space in your valuable paper to contradict a statement which appears in issue of April 26th, over the signature of P. W. Reynolds, chairman of the Property Committee of the High and Public School, Norwood, board conveying an impression far from the truth. Mr. Reynolds was quite well aware of all the work that had been done in connection with the changing of the furnaces in the High School before the school started last January and had he raised any objection I would have made any changes that might have been necessary in order to satisfy him as chairman of said committee. When I received the contract from Mr. Reynolds and Mr. Raddon there was nothing said about the length of pipes, whether 24 or 30 inches long, only to be made of English iron. The job was to be done in a first-class manner, and Mr. Reynolds dare not say different and tell the truth, which would be expected of a man in his position. I only have a few days to get the work done and had not sufficient English iron to complete the job, and used, to finish Canada, plate of best quality, all bright iron, and charged the same price. It will be seen that it is the same as charged in Peterborough by three leading firms. As I have said, Mr. Radden was connected with Mr. Reynolds in getting the work done and can certify as to the correctness of their statements, if necessary—a gentleman who will tell the truth at all times and under any circumstances. I will refer to the report as given in your last week's paper:

(1.) The committee refused to accept the pipes. (They never did.) I offered, if necessary, to take the pipes down and replace them with English iron, but they never asked me to do so.

(2.) The committee tendered me $47.83 about the first of March. There is not one word of truth in that statement. It was on or about April 5th that three members of the school board came to my shop and said they had the amount, as stated. I never saw it. I refused to accept the amount, as stated, and had good reasons for doing so. They afterwards offered me more and necessity compelled me to accept, and being advised by my friends to do so, which is often a man's lot, especially when he desires to pay his just debts.

He states he had the opinion of several tinsmiths and, with one exception, their price was much lower than mine. If such was the case they must of been apprentices and had no knowledge of the amount of work done. My account was taken to Peterborough and examined and certified to as being correct in so far as it related to their line of goods, and you will please insert their certificates; also by Mr. Micks and Mr. Louis Spry, two of as competent men as Peterborough has in business; they also informed me my charge was reasonable. If Mr. Reynolds had acted differently in this particular case I believe this account would have been settled long ago, as three members of property committee signed an order on treasurer to pay it. Now, as this account has been settled, I hope that all concerned will engage in something more elevating than has taken up so much time during the past few months. I only hope that the school board will get their work done as well in future, and if they do, at their annual meeting there will be few complaints.

Hoping I have made this case plain to the unprejudiced mind, and thanking you, Mr. Editor, for allowing so much space in your valuable paper, I remain,

Yours truly,
R. J. STUART.

Norwood, April 28th, 1894.

Following are the certificates referred to:

Peterborough, April 7th, 1894.

I hereby certify that the items re pipes, elbows, thimbles, etc., used in the tinsmith line in Mr. Stewart's bill re school in Norwood, are regular prices in the town of Peterborough.

GEO. HUTCHISON.

Peterborough, April 7th, 1894.

We have examined Mr. Stewart's account, and find it right. Our prices are higher in town.

BREEZE & JONES.

Peterborough, April 7th, 1894.

I have examined Stewart's account re Norwood School Board, and have found all items correct and reasonable—just the same as I would charge—if not less.

A DOCTOR'S EXPERIENCE.

A Well Known Physician Speaks of the Great Success Attending the Use of One of the Most Noted Modern Medicines.

Dr. A. W. Wright, of Thayer, Ia., in conversation recently with a reporter of the Register, spoke in the most emphatic terms of the benefits derived from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. "They are, said the doctor, "of the greatest benefit in nervous diseases of all sorts, which afflict both sexes. Two cases, especially are worthy of notice. In one case a young man, the son of a physician, was afflicted with neurasthenia. His father could not cure him or even give him relief and the young man lost hope of ever getting better. He was weak, haggard, and in fact a burden to himself. He was finally induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and a change in his condition was soon noticed. The improvement was gradual, but he regained his health and strength, and is now a strong, robust young man. The other case was that of a young girl of 13, who was suffering from chorea, or as it is more commonly called, St. Vitus dance. For five years she had been treated in vain, and when I was called in she was a complete wreck, a mere skeleton weighing only 65 pounds. She could'nt feed herself, could not sit in a chair alone and was quite helpless. I tried a number of the usually prescribed remedies, but with no improvement, and then I administered Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Soon there was a marked improvement. She regained her health, and is now completely cured and weighs 115 pounds. The case was in its worst stage and had been pronounced incurable by other physicians." "I have," continued the doctor, "used Pink Pills in many other cases, and have always attained successful results, but the two cases mentioned are the most extraordinary. Wonderful is a strong word, but it expresses the results exactly. They seem to go right to the root of the trouble and in nervous diseases they are a grand remedy and I have no hesitation in prescribing them."

These pills are sold by all dealers, or may be had by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., of Schnectady, N.Y. The public is earnestly cautioned to avoid imitations and substitutes.

Thought it was Cancer.

James McMillan, Esq., Helena Avenue, Bracondale, Toronto, Canada, writes: "I have been suffering from dyspepsia for over 20 years, and have tried every supposed cure, which in some cases gave me temporary relief, but the trouble came back again with renewed force, until I almost despaired of being cured, thinking that instead of dyspepsia it must be cancer of the stomach I had. For the last three years I have been in agony from pain in the stomach, besides other symtoms innumerable, until I could not even move about from pain and weakness. At last I saw your K. D. C. advertised and procured a free sample which I found doing me good. I have used five packages and am free at present from pain or ache, although it is six months since I have been cured, I believe permanently."

TRUANCY.

The following correspondence explains itself :

Geo. I. Roszel, Chief of Police, Truant Officer :

DEAR SIR,—In accordance with a wish of the Board of Education, as expressed in a resolution at their last meeting, your are requested to furnish me with a list of the names of the truants whom you were instructed to look after in your official capacity as Truant Officer during the year 1893. A prompt reply will oblige

Yours truly,
J. W. GARVIN.

J. W. Garvin, Esq., Inspector Public Schools, Town :

DEAR SIR,—In answer to yours of this date asking for a list of names of the truants upon whom I served notices during the year 1893, I beg to say that neither the law nor the report for the Department of Education requires me to furnish a list of the names. I might add that complaints received by me as truant officer are treated as confidential as are complaints received by me as Chief of Police, and the names are not made known unless an action in the police court becomes necessary.

I remain,
Your obedient servant,
GEO. I. ROSZEL,
Truant Officer.

Permit me to say that in my opinion the figures sent to the Department by the Truant officer were below rather than above the actual number. He reported only those whose parents had been notified in writing that they were violating the law. Many others were looked after whose parents were not so notified. In April (last month) the teachers without any instructions from me other than were given over a year ago, reported over one hundred pupils, the majority of whom were suspected by their teachers of truancy under the old meaning of the term.

THE KINDERGARTEN.

Up to the end of December, 1893, 260 children had attended our kindergarten. Two had attended 9 terms each ; one, 8 terms ; five, 7 terms, eight, 6 terms each ; twenty-three, 4 terms each ; fifty, 3 terms each ; sixty-eight 2 terms each ; and the remaining eighty-four, each one term or a fraction thereof.

After carefully considering the subsequent success of kindergarten pupils, I have reached the following conclusions :—

(a) That pupils who attend the kindergarten but one term or a portion of a term receive little or no educative benefit.

(b) That those who attend two terms before leaving receive an appreciable benefit.

(c) That children who have attended one year have a considerable advantage over their fellows in subsequent class rooms.

(d) That those who have attended one and a half or two years have a decided advantage in subsequent mental contests. If two pupils of equal capabilities were placed, the one in the primary class, and the other in the Kindergarten for two years prior to entering the same grade, the kindergartener would in all probability distance the other in the intellectual race before they were 12 years of age. Our class lists furnish ample proof of this.

(e) That the Kindergarten is admirably adapted for developing the various mental, physical and moral powers of the child. Under the skilful guidance of the teacher, he is ever an active constructive agent, accurately acquiring a grasp of the fundamental ideas, pertaining to form, number, size, weight, direction, position, colour, etc., and the power to speak fluently their representative terms.

(f) That it would be greatly in the interests of education in Peterborough or any other town or city if a Kindergarten without fees could be established in each school for all resident pupils between the ages of 5 and 7 years.

RECORD OF PUPILS' ATTENDANCE IN GRADES

In the Central School there are two pupils who are each in their present grades for the sixth term ; 7 pupils for the fifth term ; 52 for the 4th ; 72 for the 3rd ; 218 for the 2nd, and 271 for the first term.

In the Park street school 3 pupils are each in their present grades for the 4th term ; 18 for the 3rd term ; 57 for the 2nd, and 166 for the first term.

Of the Barnardo Avenue School pupils 6 are in their present grades for the 4th term each 20 for the 3rd ; 37 for the 2nd, and 86 for the first.

In the Rubidge street school 4 pupils are registered in their present grades for the 6th term each ; 6 for the 5 h ; 20 for the 4th ; 69 for the 3rd ; 85 for the 2nd, and 200 for the first term each.

For the four schools the totals are as follows : 6 pupils for the sixth term each ; 13 for the fifth ; 61 for the fourth ; 170 for the third ; 397 for the second, and 739 for the first time each.

Were it not for the 100 pupils who have been in their present grades (four or more terms), the above figures would indicate quite a healthy condition. This is as I anticipated, for, at the last two promotion examinations, particular attention was given by the staff and myself to advancing, if possible under the circumstances, all pupils who had been in a grade three or more terms. Of the 100 referred to, 61 are in the Central and 39 in the Rubidge street school. The figures for each division and any suggestions I may have to make will be given and made before the Committee of the Whole.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. W. GARVIN.

The Board sat for an hour and a half in committee considering the Inspector's report and his explanations.

The Inspector gave all the data from which he reached his conclusions regarding the Kindergarten and the figures pertaining to the attendance of each pupil in the various grades.

A considerable discussion took place and several members expressed themselves as highly pleased with the report.

AN ESSEX FARMER.

A Total Wreck with Kidney Disease—All the Symptions of Bright's Disease Present—Dodd's Kidney Pills make him Perfectly Well again

LEAMINGTON, April 23—Sherman Buchanan, a farmer living near here, recently passed through a terrible ordeal. He was attacked by kidney disease, which made him a perfect wreck. He suffered agonizing pains and his digestive organs were seriously impaired. All the symptions of Bright's disease were present. After several doctors had treated him ineffectually, Mr. Buchanan used several boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. Dodd's was the first kidney in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes ; price, 50c. or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

A Bishop's Act of Bravery.

There appears in the Guardian a letter from a member of the Salisbury Horse describing an act of personal bravery on the part of the Bishop of Mashonaland. The correspondent writes: "At our first battle at the Shangani one of our native picquet was so badly wounded that he appeared unable to rise farther than on his knees. It was not until after a pause in the attack and a lull in the firing that we discovered the poor fellow's plight. On two sides and in the rear of him were thick bushes, which we knew to be full of the enemy. In vain we called to him to do his best to reach the laager, when, in a twinkling as it were, we saw the Bishop making for him. To everyone's surprise, not a shot was fired from the enemy while the Bishop picked him up and conveyed him safely to the laager."

A Thrifty Nobleman.

This is from London Truth : On the estates of a great Tory nobleman (who has all his life been one of the magnates of that party) upwards of 30,000 pheasants, 7,000 partridges, 5,000 hares, and a large number of rabbits have been killed during the season which has just closed, and every head of game (except the small quantity which was required for the house) was despatched to a dealer in the neighboring town, where there is a very large market. When "territorial princes" sell every creature that is killed who can wonder that the Game Laws are never mentioned in rural districts except to be execrated?

Native Hazelnuts.

Native hazelnuts are too small to have any market value, and until they are increased in size by seeding cultivation, we must look to the English filbert if we would engage in profitable work. A. S. Fuller, who owns a small farm near New York, details his disastrous experience in the New York Tribune in the matter of cultivating in quantity the English filbert. His trees grew finely for a few years, but, before they bore many nuts, were killed by blight. This has been the experience of others.

Loti at Mount Sinai.

Mdme. Adam has had a letter from M. Pierre Loti, bearing the post-mark of Mount Sinai, wherein the traveler promises to write the story of his pilgrimage in the pages of the Nouvelle Revue.

The man who called sarsaparilla a fraud, had good reason ; for he got hold of a worthless mixture at "reduced rates." He changed his opinion, however, when he began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It pays to be careful, when buying medicines.

I have been greatly troubled with headache and bad blood for ten or twelve years I started to take Burdock Blood Bitters in July, 1892, and now, (January, 1893), I am perfectly cured.

HUGH DEAIN, Norwood, Ont.

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair had been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually "topped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterward, using in all about a quater of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seem to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

Fashions for Men.

IN COATS.

There is more length to the new Coats for 1894 than has been used in Men's Dress since the 60's.

THE DOUBLE BREASTED FROCK is the most fastidious garment man has put on in a generation. It adds to the stature of the man and conceals defects of figure. It is short waisted, snug fitting, long tailed and beautifully moulded to the figure. The Skirts are hollow at the top and form a beautiful curve, which is the most distinctive thing about the new styles.

Then there is the THREE BUTTON CUTAWAY Coat which is a high favourite. It is popularly described as the "Pigeon Wing" on account of its sloping tails. The sleeves are of moderate size and are closed with a vent for three buttons. If properly made it will cling rather closely to the hips.

The new CUTAWAY SACK COAT for business wear is one of the most popular of the season. It has caught the fancy of the young men. All the pockets should have flaps. The collar rolls low and is not faced with Silk.

Any of these garments made up to order to please the most fastidious dresser and with faultless devotion to the fashion plates

A Government BOMBSHELL THROWN INTO THE LIFE INSURANCE CAMP!

The following statement comes from the government Blue Book. It covers a period of sixteen years, and is sworn to as correct by representatives of each Company :

Statement of Premiums received and Cash Profits paid back to Policy Holders from 1877 to 1892, both years inclusive :—

COMPANY.	Premiums Received.	Dividends Paid to Policy Holders.	Ratio of Dividends to Premiums, %
CANADA LIFE	$16,368,307	$2,946,433	18.18
Confederation Life	6,165,432	637,925	10.35
North American	2,327,062	32,857	1.41
Ontario Mutual	3,878,066	433,294	11.17
Sun Life	5,527,720	355,290	6.43

Never in the history of Life Insurance has the struggle for business been keener. Never has the conflict been hotter. Never have the Companies felt as they feel now, the necessity for throwing all the energy at their command into the field. The most intelligent and best men have to be employed. All kinds of plans of insurance are submitted. Each Company determined in securing the supremacy in the good will of the public, in establishing their name, the utterance of which, shall convey to the minds of the people the essential characteristics of

UNDOUBTED SECURITY,
RIGID ECONOMY,
GOOD INVESTMENTS,
LARGEST PROFITS

WHY?

Because millons of dollars are being paid annually for Life Insurance, and the Companies that can show these features have attained a position which will guarantee their future success, for money will flow freely into the best investments.

The Canada Life Policy Holders can look at the above statement with a smile of satisfaction, yet sympathise with their friends who are not so favourably situated.

They can throw their Life Policies down in the face of opponents and successfully challenge the production of more profitable policies, they can stand the onslaught of Agents who will almost cover them with literature and estimates of Tontine, Semi-Tontine, Return Premiums, Reserved Dividends, Annuity and Endownment plans of insurance, and with a quiet assurance feel that

As The Canada Life is Making the Most Profits, She Can Pay the Largest Profits.

READER. If you want Life Insurance choose the Canada Life and join the throng of contented policy holders who are insured with the Company carrying about 45 per cent. of the total insurance in force of the above named Companies

OUR CITIZEN SOLDIERY.

What the Volunteers are Doing—Orders for the Week and Other Matters of Interest.

The 57th Battalion have entered two teams in the Canadian Military Rifle League for 1894. It is the first application which has yet been sent into the League.

HEADQUARTERS,
Peterborough, May 1st, 1894.

Orders by Lt.-Col. Rogers, commanding 57th Battalion, Peterborough Rangers.

1. Officer of the week, Captain Brennan, "B" Company; next for duty, Captain Miller, "E" Company.
2. Battalion will parade on Tuesday evenings until further orders.
3. The attention of the non-commissioned officers is called to order No. 3 of April 24th, "That all non-commissioned officers and men wishing to qualify will parade until further orders on Thursday evenings.
4. On Monday and Friday evenings a recruit class will be formed and all men joining the respective companies must pass this class before joining their own companies.
5. On Wednesday nights the Sergt.-Major will form a class for physical drill.
6. The commanding officer has been pleased to make the following promotion: To be drum-major, Pte. Joseph Kidd.
7. Sergt. J. Connal has been transferred from the pioneer corps to be Sergt. of the ambulance corps. (By order)

E. F. MASON, Captain,
Adjutant 57th.

At the conclusion of the evening drill last night the officers held an informal meeting, at which it was decided to authorize two of the members of the Battalion to proceed to Orillia and other points with the object of seeing what arrangements could be made for the summer trip. The idea of going to Niagara has been abandoned, as is thought that after the first half day the men would find nothing to do in that place in the way of amusing themselves and it is not thought the village would provide any entertainment for the visitors.

While the drill was in progress Private Campbell dropped down in a faint. The ambulance corps quickly materialized and gave evidence of its usefulness and Pte. Campbell was soon able to take his place again.

PERSONAL.

Mr. W. S. Barker, Campbellford, is in town.

Mr. H. C. McMullen, of Picton, is in town on business.

Mr. B. Robinson, Lindsay, will be in town for a few days.

Mr. R. D. Thexton, Lindsay, was in town yesterday on business.

Mr. Frank Madill, of Beaverton, will spend a few days here.

Chief Justice Armour was in town all day yesterday. He is having a portion of his farm across the river surveyed into lots.

Mr. W. A. Schofield, M.A., brother of Mr. Geo. Schofield, town, have been appointed instructor in Anglo Saxon for the summer term at Harvard University.

On Monday last Mr. John J. Lundy spent the day with Messrs. Thomas and George Robinson, of the township of Ops, who have occupied the farm they now live on for the past 29 years as tenants of Mr. Lundy and his late father. This is something unusual and speaks well for landlord and tenant, who appear to have got along well together, and they have now arranged for a further term of seven years. Mr. Lundy also has a tenant who has been 25 years on the farm he now occupies. An open account for that time was amicably settled, and the lease renewed for another term of years.

ODDFELLOWSHIP PLANTED AT MILLBROOK.

The "Goat" Acclimatized in the Beautiful Southern Village.

Last night was a big society occasion in Millbrook. There was a strong invasion of Oddfellows to assist in the establishment of a new lodge of that order. About 70 members of the society went down from Peterborough by special train, including the degree team of Peterborough lodge, 111, and several members of Otonabee lodge. There were about a dozen brethren present from, each, Port Hope, Cavanville and Pontypool. The lodge was duly initiated with a charter membership of fifteen, of whom ten were initiated by the Peterborough team and the others admitted by card. In the absence of the grand master, Bro. Blakeby, of Galt, assisted by Bro. Burnett, D.D.G.M., Havelock, performed the institution ceremonies. A cordial vote of thanks was tendered to the Peterborough team for the splendid manner in which they put on the floor work and also to the visiting brethren. The evening concluded with a banquet at the Dominion House.

It is reported that, on the way down, the "goat," resenting his removal from his snug quarters in town to rural regions, became rampaginous and broke several car windows in his efforts to escape, but he was finally quieted by feeding him several copies of the constitution and by-laws of the Order.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

The Peterborough and Shamrock lacrosse clubs turn out for practice this evening.

The Shamrocks play their first match of the season with the Millbrook lacrosse club at Riverside Park Saturday, May 12th. Mr. Calcutt promises to have the fences and grand stand in good repair by that time.

BICYCLE CLUB RUN.

The bicycle club will have their weekly run to-morrow (Thursday) evening, leaving the Court House Park a 7 o'clock for Lakefield. All members will please turn out. The officers wish it to be understood that no scorching will be allowed on club run nights, the pace being made to suit the slowest riders. Fifteen minutes will be allowed at Lakefield for a rest before returning home. Should the roads not be in good condition, tha run will only be to the Red Mills. A full attendance is requested.

PRESENTATIONS TO MR. HAYDEN.

Peterborough's New Station Master Being Loaded with Honours.

The members of Court Myrtle, No. 3, Woodmen of the World, Woodstock, held a farewell smoking concert in honour of the departure of Mr. Wm. Hayden on Saturday night.

In the course of the evening Mr. Hayden was presented with a magnificent Past Master's jewel, accompanied by the usual regretful speeches of farewell.

On Monday evening Mr. Hayden was presented with an address and a handsome clock by the members of New St. Paul's congregation.

RAILWAY NOTES.

What is Going on in Local Railway Circles.

Six colonists, with their household furniture, from this vicinity, took the C.P.R. for the North-West yesterday.

The G.T.R. opens its gravel pit five miles west of the town on Monday next.

Although the spring rates are now in force, freight traffic is slow in picking up and local sidings are not at all crowded yet.

The president of the Great Northern Railway has made concessions of nearly everything asked by the men and the strike will be declared off.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs Taylor & Macdonald's or at the Peterborough Bookstore.

Dr. Grant's "Hairene" will positively make your hair grow. All druggists keep it.

BURIED THIS AFTERNOON.

The Body of Mr. John Archer Having Been Recovered, the Funeral Took Place To-Day.

The body of Mr. John Archer, who was drowned in the Otonabee Monday afternoon, was recovered last evening by Messrs. D. Geerin and J. Baguard, after working with grappling irons the entire day and a portion of the previous evening. The difficulty in recovering the remains existed in the fact that below "Yankee Bonnet" the weeds grow up thickly and the water is as deep as in any part of the river. The body was found in a depth of 16 feet of water near the Kincaid farm, some little distance below the spot where the unfortunate young man was last seen. It was removed to the undertaking establishment of Mr. A. Comstock, but taken to the residence of Mrs. Archer, on Rubidge street, later in the evening.

As in the case of all persons who have met death by drowning, the hands were found tightly clutched, but the face wore an expression of calm placidity.

The funeral took place this afternoon at four o'clock from the residence of the mother of the deceased, Rev. J. C. Davidson, rector of St. John's church, conducting the services.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. D. Collins, Thomas Hay, G. A. Smith, F. Taylor, J. Billet and H. Rackham. The interment took place at Little Lake cemetery.

MR. RICHARD COOK'S FUNERAL.

The Remains Laid Away With Orange Honours—True Blues and Prentice Boys Participate.

The funeral of the late Mr. Richard Cook, George street, took place yesterday afternoon, the following gentlemen officiating as pall bearers: Messrs. Jones, Raper, Henry, Begley, McGregor and Mackie.

As Mr. Cook was an enthusiastic Orangeman, a large number turned out in honour of his memory. In the procession which was formed the True Blues, Prentice Boys and members of L. O. L. No. 49 preceded the hearse and conducted a service at the grave at the conclusion of the regular Episcopal functions, at which Rev. E. W. Pickford officiated.

Deputations from the Orange lodges of Nassau and Smithtown also marched with the funeral cortege.

DOURO.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

At a meeting held on Monday evening, April 30th, for the purpose of organizing a football club and for the election of officers for the same. The following appointments were made:

Poison in Tea.

In England tea has been discovered contaminated with lead, undoubtedly from being wrapped in packages containing lead. This is a matter which is being enquired into, inasmuch as lead is a dangerous poison and its presence in so many packages of tea may well cause grave public alarm. Mason & Co., grocers, have no confidence in package teas, as their English blends surpass all teas placed on the market.

MILLS BROS.

E. B. A. WELCOMED TO TOWN.

REV. FATHER SCOLLARD GREETS THE STRANGERS KINDLY.

The Grand President's Annual Address—Discussion on the Constitution—No Changes Made as Yet.

After the formal opening of the E. B. A. Convention yesterday afternoon an address of welcome was made by Rev. Father Scollard. The Grand President, Mr. D. A. Carey, of Toronto, then read his annual address as follows:—

PETERBOROUGH, May 1st, 1894.

To the officers and members of the Grand Branch of the Emerald Beneficial Association of Canada:

GENTLEMEN AND BROTHERS,—It is with some degree of pardonable pride that I arise to again address you at the opening of this, the 18th annual Convention of our noble Order and the year of its silver jubilee. One year ago, with mingled feelings of awe and delight, I assumed the onerous, important and responsible duties connected with the administration of the affairs of your honourable body. It is in compliance with the law of nature that the younger should crowd the older off the stage of action, they themselves playing their part, only in time to be likewise crowded off and give way to their successors. Assuming this I begin to feel that I am arriving at that age when it behooves me to be at home at nights and putting my house in order, so that when the grim messenger, death, calls for me I will not find the lessons that I have so often taught others in my life as an Emerald on the subject of mortality, to have been lost to myself, hence I desire to be free and let others succeed. With a few exceptions, my duties have been most pleasant and agreeable, and the happy hours I have spent in the meeting rooms of our Order can never be forgotten.

Just twenty-five years ago the good Father Finan instituted the Emerald Beneficial Association on the great rock of Catholicity, surrounded by the fundamental principles of Faith, Hope and Charity, and from that time until the present our members have never failed to do that which her founder intended they should do to place her in the forefront of Catholic beneficiary societies. It is needless for me to dwell upon the accomplished by our association since its inception, or to speak of the necessity of Catholic societies. In the past many of us have felt the want of such an organization, and now that such an one exists, it is the duty of each and every member to promote its welfare. I, therefore, urge upon you, as loyal members of the E. B.A., to work with renewed energy in the cause of Emeraldism, so that all who have not taken advantage of the many benefits offered by our brotherhood, may do so and become sharers in the boundless good attained by membership in such a cause. The present gathering of representatives promises to be one of the most important in the history of our order in this country. Many important matters of interest to the order and its future welfare will be brought before you. Weigh well and carefully every act while legislating for those you represent and let your minds dwell only on the trust committed to your charge, and your votes be cast for measures that will redound to the interest of the order and the good of our Catholic fellow subjects.

The assistance given our association by the faithful and devoted priesthood of Holy Church is incalculable.

THE LITERARY FEATURE.

Before closing I cannot allow the opportunity to pass without calling your attention to one of the most important and excellent features attached to our society and and that has been too long neglected.

The literary feature of our organization, its grave importance and lasting benefits, is not understood nor appreciated by our Catholic people.

The establishment and maintenance of good circulating libraries of sound reading matter, the institution of reading and amusement rooms are important factors in all that tends to in life. Aside from these important features all of which are a part of the organized laws of the Emerald Beneficial Association, we have the literary exercises consisting of debates, essays, declamations, orations, vocal and instrumental music, etc. Among the many advantages of these exercises, particularly of debates, are, first, the practical training which produces not only readiness of words and fluency of speech but also readiness of thought.

SUCCESS AND PROSPERITY

To rise before a body of people and speak intelligently and pleasantly, is an accomplishment indeed. This, however, pales before the power to think whilst speaking. The forcible and convincing speaker is he who can summon his ideas rapidly, and arrange one argument while he delivers another. This power of quick thought is the soul of business success, and to its acquirement in debates may be traced the foundation of numerous professional and commercial fortunes and eminence of these possessors. Our young men require the training calculated to fit them for the active duties of life. A second advantage is the method of classification and arrangement of one's thoughts. Desultory ideas, like desultory reading, are of little value, for "order is heaven's first law," and system is the key that unlocks the gates of success and prosperity.

Another advantage, and an important one, too, is the acquirement of self-possession in presence of an audience or an antagonist. How important this quality is to all the affairs of life, for composure enables a man to calculate the weight of his argument, the opportunities for reply, and to exercise care with selection of words in which to express his thoughts.

These literary exercises, and libraries of the Emerald Union, enable the poorest to drink deep at the fountain of knowledge and to make for themselves name fame and fortune. The theme is endless and your patience exhausted. I will close my remarks on this great subject with the following lines from Tennyson:—

IN OUR FAVOURED LAND

"Turn, Fortune! turn thy wheel with smile or frown;
With that wild wheel we go not up or down.
Our hoard is little, but our hearts are great.
Smile and we smile—the lords of many lands;
Frown and we smile—the lords of our own hands;
For man is man, and master of his fate."

In conclusion, permit me to return my sincere thanks for the honours conferred on me by you all one and all, and in a special manner to our secretary, with whom I have been associated in the work of promoting the welfare of our members and their families during my term of office.

In leaving the future of the E. B. A. in your hands, I ask for my successor the same good encouragement that you have extended to me.

May the E. B. A. of Canada in the future as in the past always be found under the banner of Catholicity in consort with Holy Mother Church promoting the interest and welfare of her children.

Believe me this is the wish of

Yours,
D. A. CAREY,
President.

The sentiments which were embodied in the address appeared to meet with the unanimous applause of those present, and on motion, it was resolved to have the address printed as a part of the annual report.

The remainder of the afternoon and a greater part of the evening was spent in discussing various suggested changes in the constitution. The most important change and the one which provoked the most discussion was the proposed centralizing of the sick fund in the Grand Lodge. The discussion was finally closed by a suggestion of Mr. Carey's to the effect that the question be referred to a special committee to report upon at the next annual convention.

THE LADIES' IN IT.

This morning's session of the E. B. A. convention was almost entirely taken up with a further discussion on the revising of the constitution. The action of the Grand President in instituting two ladies' circles in connection with the order, was approved. The monthly dues were altered to a graded scale, and after considerable discussion it was decided to combine the offices of secretary-treasurer and organizer in order that the salary paid would be sufficient to enable a man to devote his whole time to the interests of the order.

The association is celebrating its jubilee, as the order has now been established twenty-five years, being inaugurated in Reading in 1869.

The members attended mass in a body at 8 o'clock this morning. Ven. Archdeacon Casey officiated. The same observance will take place to-morrow morning.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

(From a Correspondent.)

According to all accounts spearing and jack light fishing is of common occurrence in and about the Emily creek as well as Pigeon Lake.

Rano's Creek, which is situated in the southern portion of Ashburnham, and empties into the Otonabee, is a rendezvous for the turtle tribe which are particularly fond of mud. The other day a young man captured a monster while engaged in gathering debris which had gathered in the creek during the high water season. Across the back it measured within a fraction of two feet.

The steamer Golden City, which navigates the back lakes, was successfully started at Lakefield the other day. The steamer will commence running regularly at once. The machinery has been overhauled and everything placed in A1 shape. Capt. Reynolds is in command.

Quite a number of young men availed themselves of the fine weather which prevailed Sunday last and took a bath (without trunks) in the Little Lake, in close proximity to the new steamer City of Peterborough. This sort of amusement is prohibited, particularly in the day time. The vast crowd that assembled in and about the steamer could not help witnessing the same in disgust. The boys had better provide bathing suits for themselves, or make themselves scarce in the vicinity, as the police have the case in hand and intend making a "test case" as to whether or no offenders of the law will be allowed to participate in daylight amusement of this sort.

The steamer "Daisy" with scow attached is busily engaged in towing cattle of all sorts to "Big Sugar Island," which is situated one mile from the mainland, being directly in the mouth of the Keene river, and contains over 100 acres, which makes a most capital pasture.

The steamer Daisy will haul wood for the Peterborough Steamboat and Navigation Co. to the terminus of the Peterborough and Ashburnham Street Railway Company's Railway, and will be solely used by the steamer City of Peterborough on the opening of the season from this point.

A party of young notables in the fishing line, drove to the locks last evening on a fishing expedition, namely: Messrs. Saml. Smith, R. Blair and Jack Mulligan. Mr. Jameson, of the Little Windsor Hotel, also accompanied the party and succeeded in securing a barrelful of suckers, which were carted home in due order by the Emily Jane, better known as "Denney's Darling," "Daly's Trotter," etc.

The upper deck of the City of Peterborough is being covered with an extra heavy quality of white duck, the floor receiving a second coat of paint as the layers of duck go on. Fully seventeen hundred yards are being laid. When laid it will receive two coats of drab paint. An extra gang of men have been added to-day, and the wielders of the hammer and saw are at it. The work is progressing most favourably.

Don't forget Mrs. General Tom Thumb, at Opera House to-morrow afternoon and night.

BELLEVILLE CHEESE BOARD.

Election of Officers and Other Business—A High Price for Cheese.

The Belleville Cheese Board met at 1.30 on Tuesday for organization, President Hume in the chair. There was a large attendance. The president made a few remarks and called on the sec.-treas. for his annual report, but as the accounts had not been audited, the report was held over till next meeting. The election of officers was next proceeded with. President, John Tanner, Harold; 1st Vice Pres., J. M. Hurley, Thurlow; 2nd Vice Pres., John Stokes, Hungerford; Sec.-Treas., B. C. McCarger, re-elected; Auditors, R. J. Graham and J. R. Brower.

Moved by J. M. Hurley, seconded by Mr. Duncan, that all who wish to become members should now hand in their names and pay their subscription in two weeks, and that no factory be allowed to board cheese until they become a member, and also that no one be allowed to vote on the board until they have become members.—Carried.

The following cheese was boarded: 685 w, and 190 c, total 875 boxes.

Sales.—Hodgson Bros., 190c. and 180w. at 10 7-16c.; J. T. Warrington, 505 at 10¾c.

The above are the highest opening prices ever paid on the board.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

A Queen's Birthday Demonstration!

The boy said: "This Shoe business is altogether too brisk," when his mother chastised him with a slipper. That's what other shoe dealers think of us, for we not only command the largest and finest shoe trade in Peterborough, but our popularity extends for a hundred miles around.

The loyal people of Peterborough needn't feel disappointed if the boys didn't get up a big demonstration for the Queen's Birthday. We have put on foot A THUNDERING RACKET IN BOOTS AND SHOES, and propose to keep it going until after the 24th, without asking the council or the merchants to guarantee us against loss.

We're always busy. No dull times with us. But, for the present, we have turned on enough extra power on our Electric Battery of Low Prices to "raise a Thundering Racket" in Boots and Shoes, and to keep it booming for over a month.

Last week we bought for 55c. on the dollar the large Wholesale Stock of a City Manufacturer who had stuck on the rock of hard times and was shivering in his boots for ready cash. This stock, we are determined, shall not remain long on our hands. GO, IT MUST! and that the public may see that there's nothing in the way of its going off fast enough, "we touch the button" and give you a few random shocks from OUR MAGNET OF OUTRIVALLED PRICES:—

It Won't Work, Boys! Spong is Here to Stay!

He's got a good thing, and he knows how to keep it. Try some other dodge, boys! Sending blind round-about offers to buy me off, concocting cooked letters with tempting baits to get me sell out my business, and circulating cock-and-bull stories that I have sold out, won't work. Not by a jugful! Can't catch a prize business like mine in that way.

I have the liveliest Grocery business in Peterborough, and intend to stay right with it. Our customers are buying us out as fast as we can replace the stock with new goods every week. You will find us on deck at the same spot, doing the same rattling business as we have always been doing, and at the same Cheap Cash Prices, with a ten per cent. reduction on every bill. Now's your time to buy—Snaps going all the time.

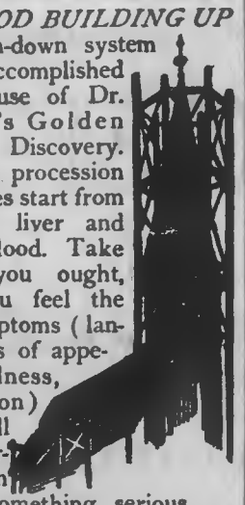
A GOOD BUILDING UP



of a run-down system can be accomplished by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. A long procession of diseases start from a torpid liver and impure blood. Take it, as you ought, when you feel the first symptoms (languor, loss of appetite, dullness, depression) and you'll save yourself from having something serious.

As an appetizing, restorative tonic, to repel disease and build up the needed flesh and strength, there's nothing to equal it. It rouses every organ into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, braces up the whole system, and restores health and vigor.

For every disease caused by a disordered liver or impure blood, it is the only guaranteed remedy.

If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.

COXEY'S GRAND FIASCO

The Demonstration of the Commonweal Collapses in a Fizzle.

BROWNE LEADS A NICE CHASE

He Makes a Dash for the Capitol With the Limbs of the Law at His Heels—Jones is Dramatic—The Arrested Leaders Released to Their Friends.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—"General" Coxey, in accordance with his expressed determination, attempted to speak to the crowd from the steps of the Capitol, but was promptly placed under arrest.

Meanwhile in another part of the grounds another scene was being enacted. Just as the head of the party turned around the south front of the Capitol grounds, Major Moore, who headed the procession, fearing that the Coxeyites would attempt to enter the grounds at that point turned his horse and rode back to where Marshal Brown was. Browne halted the men and called Jesse Coxey up and turned the command of the army over to him, leaving his horse in the charge of his attendant. He told young Coxey to keep the commonwealers where they stood and to wait until he came back. Browne clambered over the coping, and, breaking into a run, dashed along in the direction of the Capitol. The enormous crowd, composed entirely of the rougher class of Washington, followed him, dashing over the bushes and destroying all the shrubbery in their path. For a few minutes the police could do nothing at all with the crowd, but rode aimlessly about, clubbing anyone who happened to be in the way.

Browne dashed on until within a hundred feet of the Capitol, when he was arrested by Officer Stramlin. The officer says Browne assaulted him, but Browne himself was clubbed and pretty roughly handled by four officers, who grabbed him about the same time. Browne was led down First street with an officer holding each arm and mounted police riding along. As they turned down towards the Fifth Precinct station, other officers came up with Christopher Columbus Jones, the leader of the Philadelphia contingent, in custody. He had also been arrested for disorderly conduct. Just before they entered the police station Officer Stramlin passed his hand around Browne's hips and pulled a small revolver out of his trousers pocket.

When arraigned Browne gave his name as Carl Browne, date of his birth, July 4, 1849, at Springfield, Ills., and occupation as that of a journeyman artist. He had $735 in cash, several medals and a gold watch. Browne was not charged with the assault. The pistol he claims to have taken from one of his followers as he had strictly enjoined them not to carry weapons of any kind, knowing the strictness of the laws of the District against carrying concealed weapons. It was a miserable little affair, unloaded and broken. It was perfectly useless and no charge was preferred against him on this ground.

He was placed in the cell and had nothing to say except: "I am going to let the American people speak for me." He requested that some one be sent to tell Jesse Coxey to get the army back to camp as quickly and as quietly as possible.

When Jones was arraigned he gave his name slowly and distinctly, "Christopher Columbus Jones," his age as 59, and his occupation as that of a pump builder. He had only 79 cents, a paper of pins and a knife. When asked to talk he said: "The press done the whole of it." He then said the Lord's prayer to himself and laid down on his bench in the cell, refusing to say anything else.

And thus the much advertised demonstration on behalf of the "Commonweal of Christ" in favor of good roads and the repudiation of national obligations to pay interest on bonds ended in a fizzle quite as ridiculous as the principles enunciated by the leaders of the movement. All told about 600 men out of the originally promised 300,000 marched up the Capitol hill and marched down again. The local contingent dispersed after the Capitol fiasco was over, and the original 300 marched down into the newly-selected camp ground near an open sewer canal, condemned as an unhealthy resting place by the health officers, where they have been placed on exhibition by their leader, who has taken out a license to charge gate money for admission to the camp and the privilege of hearing him lecture. Coxey himself, who studiously courted martyrdom, was turned loose after he had supposed he had secured his purpose of being arrested.

THE DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Duty on Coal and Kerosene Oils Lowered —Other Changes.

OTTAWA, May 2.—Replying to Dr. Landerkin in the House yesterday as to whether the Government had taken any action in regard to promoting the interests of the cattle shippers from the port of Montreal, Sir Hibbert Tupper said the gentlemen interested in the cattle trade, representing the shippers, had waited upon him and had made certain statements as to the charges by ship owners in Montreal and Boston, and they had promised to supply him with the exact rates that had been charged, but he had heard nothing further from them.

The House went into committee on Ways and Means.

The item of searine was changed, making the duty 2 cents per pound, instead of 20 per cent. ad valorem.

Hon. Mr. Foster proposed to increase the duty from 1¼ cents per pound on tomatoes and other vegetables, including corn and baked beans in cans and other packages, not elsewhere specified, as at first proposed, to 1½ cents per pound. The item passed.

Hon. Mr. Foster moved that fruits in air-tight cans or other packages should be taxed at 2 cents per pound. Mr. Charlton and Dr. Sproule advocated increased protection on these articles. The item passed.

The duty was raised from 2 cents to 3 cents on demijohns, jugs, churns or crocks upon each gallon of holding capacity.

Plaster of paris was changed from 15 per cent. ad valorem to 40 cents per barrel.

Slate pencils were changed to 25 per cent. All other slates were made 30 per cent.

Hon. Mr. Foster proposed that the duty on coal and kerosene oils, distilled, purified and refined, naphtha and petroleum, should be 7 1-5 cents.

Mr. Davies said that this gave a protection of 200 per cent. to the Canadian manufacturer. He said that the Canadian oil selling at 15 cents per gallon was useless, and that the only Canadian oil fit for use was "water white." This oil sold for only one cent less that the American oil, which paid a 200 per cent. duty before it could get to the consumers.

Hon. Mr. Foster said the Liberals when in power had placed a high duty on coal oil. He quoted figures showing that during the past two years the price of coal oil to the Canadian consumer had been lowered as much as from 30 to 60 per cent. This was because of the improved methods of distribution. The duty had not been lowered, and yet the oil had gone down in price. This proved that the protection extended to the oil manufacturers was not abused. It had been stated that because of the duty American oil cost 25 cents in Canada. If it was true that such a price was paid, it was not because of the duty. He then said that, taking the price in the United States, freight and duty, it would only cost laid down at any point in Canada about 12 cents. If 25 cents was paid, it was because of the cost of distribution, and perhaps because the retailer took advantage of those who wanted American oil at any cost rather than use the oil of home manufacture. He showed that a gigantic oil trust was in operation in the United States, and that if Canada's duty was reduced this trust would get control of Canada's industry, and then they would put the price up as they liked.

Mr. Gilmour—Does my hon. friend know that already the Standard Oil Company has control of the Canadian industry.

Mr. Lister—There is absolutely no truth in that statement.

Mr. Foster concluded by asking the chairman to allow him to change the duty from 7 1-5 to six cents per gallon.

After recess Mr. Casey renewed the debate on coal oil.

Mr. McNeil thanked the Government for reducing the duty on coal oil.

Mr. Gibson said that in the town of St. Catharines it cost $1 for five gallons of American oil, while it cost but 25 cents for five gallons of the same oil at Buffalo, just across the border.

Mr. Mourcreiff regretted that the Government had reduced the duty on coal oil. He knew what he was talking about, and denied that their was any oil combine in Canada, as had been stated by Mr. Casey.

Mr. Bryson favored a further reduction in the duty.

The item passed as amended.

The Finance Minister moved that the duty on crude petroleum, fuel and gas oil, when used by manufacturers, other than refiners of oil, be three cents per gallon, thus knocking off another three eighths of a cent.

Mr. Cockburn protested that this duty of 200 per cent. was a pretty steep tax upon raw material. He had swallowed the six cents a gallon on refined oil, but this three cents a gallon on crude petroleum was two much for him. It was a fact that the forty-eight gas companies in Canada had a capital of nine and a quarter millions, or three times more than the capital invested in Petrolea. Some seventy million feet of gas was consumed in Toronto, so that it became a tax on the small manufacturers and artisans.

The item passed as amended.

Lady Aberdeen Resigns.

LONDON, May 2.—At a meeting of the Women's Liberal Federation a letter was read from the Countess of Aberdeen regretting that she was compelled to resign the presidency of the Federation owing to the Earl's appointment as Viceroy in Canada and the consequent prolonged absence of herself from England.

North Toronto Conservatives.

TORONTO, May 2.—The Liberal-Conservatives of the constituency of North Toronto held a convention last night to nominate a candidate for the coming campaign. Twenty-four names were before the convention, but that of G. F. Marter, the present member for West Algoma, was accepted. Mr. Marter has accepted the nomination.

BIG FIRE IN MONTREAL.

Electric Light Plant Destroyed—Narrow Escape From a Serious Fatality.

MONTREAL, May 2.—Last evening fire started in the power house of the Royal Electric Light Company, and before the firemen arrived the building was in flames. A very valuable plant was stored in the power house, and the engineer did not have time to close off the engines before making his escape. The result was that the engines continued to run, and, while the fire was at its height, the big driving wheel was exploded and went through the roof of the building. Fortunately no one was hurt. The loss is estimated at from $60,000 to $75,000. The company's premises occupy a whole block on William, Prince and Queen streets.

The origin of the fire is not known, but it is supposed to have been caused by the blowing out of a fuse plug, connecting with a generator which set fire to the surrounding material. When the fire broke out there was a large staff at work in the building, and so sudden was the outbreak that a panic ensued and a rush was made for the fire escape. Several women fainted in the melee and two of the workingmen were slightly hurt by falling from a fire escape. When the fire was at its height, the immense flywheel exploded and portions of it were blown in all directions. One piece, weighing nearly a ton, went through the roof and landed in the street, which was crowded with people. It was only by a miracle that many people were not killed. The force of the explosion was terrific and all the windows in the neighborhood were shattered. One piece of the metal went through the window of Mr. McDonald's grocery store on the adjoining corner and Mr. McDonald had a narrow escape.

The incandescent station, the pattern house and a number of outbuildings were destroyed, but that portion of the building containing the general offices and the large dynamo was saved. The manager of the company cannot give an exact estimate of the loss, but it will probably amount to nearly $100,000, as a good portion of the company's expensive plant is destroyed. The loss will be almost fully covered by insurance. An immense crowd of spectators witnessed the fire, and amongst those at the scene were the Governor-General and Lady Aberdeen.

Greenville Grocery Burned.

DUNDAS, Ont., May 2.—John Morden's grocery store, Greensville, was burned to the ground. Stock and household goods are a complete loss. Cause of fire unknown.

Great Northern Strike Over.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 2.—The strike on the Great Northern railway, which involved its 5,000 employes on its 3,700 miles of line, and which has suspended traffic, both freight and passenger, for two weeks, is over. This was accomplished by adjudication of the claims of the employes and the road, rather than by arbitration, the court being a joint committee of the representatives of the leading business houses.

Responding to Mr. Blake's Appeal.

WORCESTER, Mass., May 2.—Rev. Dr. Thomas J. Conaty, state treasurer of the Massachusetts Irish National Federation, sent a check for $5,000 to Dr. T. A. Emment, of New York, as Massachusetts' first contribution to the Irish parliamentary fund in response to Hon. Edward Blake's appeal for aid.

Cape Colony Not to Be Represented.

CAPETOWN, May 2.—The Government of Canada having replied that it is impossible to postpone the colonial conference, called to meet at Ottawa in September next, the Government of Cape Colony has intimated that it will be unable to send a representative.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, May 2, 1894.

There was a fair amount of business done in the local security market.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—The market continues dull. Oats easier, with sales of four loads at 40 to 41½c. Wheat unchanged; white quoted at 62c, red at 61c and goose at 58c. Peas are nominal at 64 to 64½c, and barley at 42c.

Bradstreet reports a decrease in wheat, both coasts, of 2,137,000 bushels for the week. In Europe and afloat to Europe there was an increase of 1,000,000 bushels, and in Australia a decrease of 510,000 bushels.

Wheat was a good firm market in Chicago at the opening and for the first three hours of the session, but fizzled out during the last hour. Large deliveries were looked for on May contracts, but to the surprise of everybody they were of moderate proportions, the wheat being taken by Armour. May closed with a loss of ½c and July ¼c lower. Corn closed weak and ¼ to ½c lower. Oats closed about steady.

Grand Trunk railway returns of traffic for week ending April 28, 1894: Passenger train earnings, '94, $105,909; '93, $122,390. Freight train earnings, '94, 218,248; '93, $229,742. Total train earnings, 1894, $324,157; '93, 352,132. Decrease, 1894, $27,975.

BAD BLOOD

MR. FRED. CARTER.

DEAR SIRS.—I was covered with pimples and small boils and after obtaining no relief from a doctor tried different remedies without success until one Sunday I was given ¼ of a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, by the use of which the sores were sent flying in about one week's time. I made up my mind never to be without B.B.B. in the house, and I can highly recommend it to all.

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $80, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $30, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

G.T.R. SHAREHOLDERS.

They Hold a Stormy Meeting and Discuss the Falling Off in Receipts.

LONDON, May 1.—The half-yearly meeting of the Grand Trunk shareholders was held yesterday. The chairman, Sir Henry Tyler, and the directors, on entering the room, were received with audible remarks of disapproval. Unmistakable hisses were mingled with the applause with which their supporters greeted them. Sir Henry, on rising to move the adoption of the report, was received with applause which was swamped under a chorus of groans and hisses. He blamed the general depression experienced in both continents for the condition of affairs which the report revealed and as being the cause of the falling off in traffic receipts. He said that money would be required for the construction of the new Union station at Toronto.

Mr. Household, a former auditor, moved a resolution to the effect that a commission consisting of three shareholders and three directors be appointed to investigate the accounts and report therefrom upon the condition and prospects of the branches now attached to the Grand Trunk system. Mr. Household in his speech bitterly assailed the management, and declared that Sir Henry Tyler had wilfully hoodwinked the shareholders. He characterized the directors as a lot of dummies. Mr. Robertson referred to Lord Claude Hamilton, one of the directors, as holding a similar position in nine different companies which might account for his apathy so far as the Grand Trunk was concerned. This soft impeachment Lord Hamilton denied.

A shareholder asked Sir Henry Tyler whether the Grand Trunk maintained friendly relations with the Canadian Pacific Railway. Sir Henry replied that the management of the two railways were on the best of terms. Messrs. Van Horne, general manager of the C. P. R., and Seargeant of the G. T. R., were always in close communication.

Lawlessness in Ireland.

DUBLIN, May 1.—Two farm houses at Clonderalaw, county Clare, from which the tenants had been evicted, were fired into by unknown persons Friday night. The houses were in possession of caretakers. On the same night the wife of a caretaker named Quirk, living on a farm near Kilarney, was fired at but not wounded.

Fire in Aurora.

AURORA, May 1.—A fire occurred in the cellar of the northerly part of Clift's block on Yonge street. Fire, water and smoke damaged the building, which is first-class, and owned by W. C. Clift of Toronto; also the stocks of John Noble, dealer in groceries, crockery and glassware, and of P. T. Bond, merchant tailor. The loss is $3,500 and insurance $2,600.

Railroad Dismissals.

MONTREAL, May 1.—Three hundred men have been discharged from the Canadian Pacific work shops here. There have also been dismissals in offices and other departments. The Grand Trunk authorities state that within the last three weeks a thousand men employed in the repair department have been dismissed.

380,000 Miles in Sixteen Years.

The London Chronicle's Paris correspondent telegraphs that Prince Constantine Wiasemsky, the distinguished traveler, is making a lengthened stay in that capital. The account which he gave of his travels in Asia and Africa before a recent meeting of the Geographical Society will be followed by a lecture on the same subject in Madame Adam's private theatre on the 1st of May. Prince Wiasemsky claims to have covered a distance of 380,000 miles during the past sixteen years. He is a tremendous horseman, and pursues his hobby with a passion which has never diminished since he first began traveling. His next achievement will be a journey across Africa from the extreme north to the extreme south. The Prince, who is forty years of age, is full of vigorous activity, and capable of enduring great fatigue.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, May 1, 1894.

The local security market is steady and firm.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Receipts of grain were small. Oats dull, three loads selling at 41c. One load of straight white wheat sold at 64c. Peas are nominal at 64c to 67½c, and barley at 42c.

English advices say native wheats have been higher, but foreign wheats have been week. Arrivals from Argentine are increasing. California wheat has sold at 25s 9d per quarter, and No. 2 red winter at 25s. Corn and barley have been lower and oats steady. American reds declined 6d, and flour is 3d lower. Barley is neglected.

The Chicago wheat market was narrow but firm. Corn was weak in the early trading but gained some strength from wheat near the close. Oats closed strong.

In New York railway stocks were firm at the opening, but subsequently Burlington and Quincy fell 1½ to 77½ owing to a rapid bear trade. In the general market the day's best prices were pretty well maintained at the close. The Burlington and Quincy statement for May, already two days overdue, was withheld again, which aroused misgivings curiously enough, on both sides of the market.

CANADA'S MOODY AND SANKEY.

Messrs. Crossley and Hunter and Their Labors in Christ's Vineyard.

"And I if I be lifted up will draw all men to me," said Jesus of Nazareth, and the two Canadian evangelists, whose recent work has added 300 and odd to the membership of Wesley Church, Toronto, from beginning to end of their meetings do nothing else but exhibit Jesus to their hearers. They are regularly ordained and accredited clergymen of the Methodist Church in Canada. Called to this special work of evangelism, they not only went themselves, but they were sent by their brethren to this mission of saving men. For years they were pastors in important charges and were working with other pastors in revival services, their own experiences in the regular work making them valuable assistants to the pastors. Mr. Crossley was born in Canada in 1850. He was converted in early life. At 19 he graduated from the Normal School at Toronto. Thence he went to the Victoria University. He was ordained and his pastoral work, in which he was very successful, began. Ingersoll, St. Catharines, Hamilton and Brantford, will attest the thoroughness of his work. But a new door was opened, and since then he has devoted himself to evangelistic work in company with Mr. Hunter.

Mr. Hunter was born in Durham county, Ont., in 1856, was converted at the age of 15, and was a candidate for the ministry at 19. After completing his studies at Victoria University he was ordained in 1881, and spent two years in Manitoba as a missionary. On returning to Ontario, ten years ago, he united with Mr. Crossley in the revival work. For ten years these brethren have been true yoke-fellows in the Gospel. In Canada, where much of their labor has been performed, they are universally popular. In Detroit and other American western cities, and at a number of places on the Pacific coast, their work has been most abundantly blessed of God. In November last they led a successful revival service in the James Methodist Episcopal church, one of the largest of the denomination in Brooklyn. The church was greatly quickened, and hundreds professed faith in Christ and were added to the church. They have received calls from many other eastern churches for similar work. They are specially fitted for working together. The masterful preaching and sweet singing of Mr. Crossley, and the irresistible appeals of Mr. Hunter, serve to make them indeed "workmen who need not to be ashamed." They have been called the "Moody and Sankey of Canada."

REV. H. T. CROSSLEY AND J. E. HUNTER, EVANGELISTS.

In witness of the efficacy of their singing and preaching it is only necessary to say that the late Sir John Macdonald testified to the thoroughness and excellence and power of their work at a great meeting held by these brethren in Ottawa a year or so before his death. From every part of Ontario, from all the larger cities, and scores of the minor towns comes a record of many who have been brought into the fold. The same is true of many American cities.

Both evangelists have done something in the field of Christian authorship, and are planning for larger efforts in this direction. Their entire influence is most wholesome and spiritually inspiring. Many stars, surely, will be in the crown of their rejoicing, for "they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they that turn many to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever."

My Toothache!

Is an exclamation heard every hour in the day. Toothache is the most common ailment of young or old, and in the aggregate inflicts more suffering than perhaps any other single complaint. A one minute cure is just what every person should possess. Nerviline—nerve pain cure—acts almost instantly in relieving the agony, and a sample bottle affords a quantity sufficient for 100 applications. 10 cents fills the bill. Poison's Nerviline is the only positive remedy for toothache and all nerve pains. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

ONTARIO'S GOVERNOR.

A NATIVE OF THE HISTORIC CITY OF KINGSTON, ONTARIO.

A Brief Sketch of the Life of Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick—The Incidents of His Early Life and of His Professional and Political Career.

The Limestone City—Kingston—has been a fruitful field for producing men of mark in Canadian affairs. The veteran Premier of the Provincial Government, Sir Oliver Mowat, first saw the light there. So did Sir Richard Cartwright. Sir John Macdonald, if not born in that vicinity, grew from boyhood into professional and political prominence while living in Kingston. Sir Alexander Campbell, like the subject of this sketch, whom he preceded as occupant of Government House, tho' not a native of Kingston, as Mr. Kirkpatrick is, was from earliest life identified with it. Many other Canadians distinguished in business, professional and artistic pursuits, are associated with this historic town at the head of the mighty St. Lawrence, which was once the capital of Canada.

The Honorable George Airey Kirkpatrick, LL. D., Q.C., is the fourth son of the late Thos. Kirkpatrick, Q.C., formerly of Coalmine, county Dublin, Ireland. He was born in Kingston, Sept. 13, 1841. His early studies were prosecuted in the grammar school of his native place and of Brockville, where he boarded with the principal, the late Mr. Windeatt. He also attended the high school at St. John's, Que. For his college training he crossed the ocean to study at the far-famed university of Trinity College, Dublin. Always an apt and diligent student, he devoted himself with great assiduity to his studies, feeling that the honor of his country, among his classmates at least, was in a certain sense in his keeping. After a brilliant university career he graduated with honors, winning his B.A. and LL.B. degrees and becoming moderator and silver medalist in law, literature and political economy.

Returning to Canada in 1861, at the time of the Trent affair, when this country was excited with the prospective invasion of Fenians, he joined the volunteers as a private in the militia. He rose through all the ranks of the service to the command of the 47th Frontenac battalion, retiring in 1890, retaining his rank as lieutenant-colonel. For many years he was president of the Dominion Rifle Association, and in 1876 was chosen to command the Wimbledon team.

Upon his return to Canada he took up the study of law and was duly called to the bar. In 1865 he began the practice of his profession as junior partner in his father's office. In professional life Mr. Kirkpatrick was known as a well-read, clear-sighted lawyer.

The honor of Queen's Counsel was conferred on him in 1880, and in 1884 his alma mater conferred upon him the degree of LL.D. Outside of his profession, Mr. Kirkpatrick had many widespread and important business connections. One of the early promoters of the Kingston and Pembroke railway, he is entitled to credit as one of the far-seeing, enterprising men who pushed that project to success. Another important enterprise with which he was prominently connected was the Canadian Locomotive Works, Kingston. These had been carried on for some years with varying success until Mr. Kirkpatrick, with three others, Messrs. A. Gunn, ex-M.P., John Carruthers and W. J. Harty, M.P.P., took hold of the concern, reorganizing the company and inaugurated a new regime.

An important point to be noted in Mr. Kirkpatrick's career as a capitalist and man of business was his election in 1887 as a director of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. He has always taken great interest in every work for the improvement of the condition of the people. He gave much attention to educational matters and was chairman of the Collegiate Institute Board of Trustees as also of the Kingston General Hospital Board. The seat for the constituency of Frontenac becoming vacant by his father's death in 1870, he accepted the candidature offered him by a deputation of influential men of the county who waited upon him to allow himself to be nominated. He was opposed by Mr. J. S. Cartwright, now Registrar, Queen's Bench Division, High Court of Justice, Osgoode Hall.

The first active political work he had done was in 1863, when he was agent for Sir Richard Cartwright. In 1867 he held forth on the hustings to the electors of his native place and made his maiden speech. As a member of the Commons he sat continuously for more than twenty-one years for the same constituency.

With his usual thoroughness, Mr. Kirkpatrick devoted himself at first to a careful study of parliamentary history and procedure. On these subjects he became one of the best authorities in the House, and when his friends were in opposition, during the administration of the late Hon. Alex. Mackenzie, his knowledge proved exceedingly useful to them. His attention was early drawn to the injustice suffered by sailors on the lakes through legal disabilities which often stood in the way of their enforcing the payment of wages. He was able after years of agitation to see incorporated in Mr. Edward Blake's Act, constituting the Admiralty courts, the principle of making sailors' wages a lien upon the vessel.

Mr. Kirkpatrick was chosen Speaker of the Commons in February, 1883, a position whose exacting responsibilities he was able to discharge with the highest credit. He was sworn in a member of the Privy Council in May, 1891. In 1892 he was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario.

Mr. Kirkpatrick is a member of the Church of England. He was married on Oct. 25, 1865, to Frances Jane, daughter of the late Hon. John Macaulay. This lady died Jan. 20, 1877. On the 26th of Sept., 1883, at the British embassy, Paris, he was married a second time, to Isabel Louisa, youngest daughter of Sir David L. Macpherson. Government House is now in mourning through the death in Italy recently of Lady Macpherson.

Without disparaging in the least those who have been former occupants of Government House it is the bare truth to say that the Lieut.-Gov. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick have been the most popular representatives of royalty this Province has been favored with. Ontario was singularly fortunate in having for gubernatorial head at such a time as that of the Columbian Exposition so worthy and accomplished a couple. While visitors to the White City last summer they captivated all with whom they came in contact, the Governor by his urbanity and Mrs. Kirkpatrick with her charming manner and winsome ways. Various parts of the Province have been visited by them, generally in company with the Minister of Agriculture, Hon. John Dryden. They have been everywhere enthusiastically received and heartily welcomed.

Now in the very prime of life, Mr. Kirkpatrick with his honorable record, has the prospect of yet rendering many public services and of winning signal honors. Taking into consideration his years and opportunities, there are few men who have won distinction in so many fields of activity.

Greece's Terrible Earthquake.

ATHENS, April 30.—The list of dead by earthquakes now numbers 300 persons, who lost their lives in the earthquakes. The destruction of life and property has been far greater than in Saute last year. The exceptional coolness of the weather has done much to increase the miseries of the people. Slight shocks of earthquake still continue in this city and vicinity and the feeling of terror among the people is increasing. Despatches from other parts of Greece show that damage and loss of life have been very much greater than told by the meagre advices first received. Two women were killed by falling buildings during the shock at Drachmani, near Livodia. The ground is sinking at Atalanti, where fully four-fifths of the houses are in ruins. Of those that remain standing, not one is habitable. The people are terror stricken and in great distress through exposure and the want of food and clothing.

A Bad Pay.

"Did you call on Mr. Putemoff?" asked the merchant of the man who had been out collecting.

"Yes, sir."

"Did he pay anything?"

"Not a thing. I couldn't even get him to pay attention."—Washington Star.

WHERE'S MOTHER?

Bright curly heads pop in all day
To ask, "Is mother here?"
Then give an eager glance around
And swiftly disappear.

She ought to wear a silver bell,
Whose note, so sweet and clear,
Should tinkle out a cheery sound,
Repeating, "Mother's near."

And then if any little one
Had something glad to tell,
Or scratches, bumps or tears or fears
Or secret woes befell,

No need to fly from room to room,
But simply listen well,
And, like the happy little lambs,
Just follow "Mother's bell."

THE BUCHANAN CASE.

Equal to a Resurrection—Almost Helpless from Kidney Disease—A Burden to Himself and His Friends—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Chatham, April 30.—The story of Sherman Buchanan, living near Leamington, is worthy of notice. He says he was almost helpless, bloated and a wreck with kidney disease. His digestive organs were powerless and he was rapidly becoming a burden to himself and his friends. Naturally he lost all hopes of recovery, but a happy thought suggested Dodd's Kidney Pills, and these cured him. Dodd's was the first Kidney remedy in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

Y. P. S. C. E. NOTES.

[Under the above heading we propose to insert all items of interest to Endeavorers, and trust each society will see to it that we are kept informed of work done or work contemplated. Let some one member be appointed to help us, and you will find these Notes of interest. Please send in at least two copies of your report, addressed to "C. E. Editor," Box 385, Peterborough.]

ST. PAUL'S SOCIETY

held their regular monthly consecration meeting on Monday evening. The meeting was largely attended and all present received a spiritual blessing. Mr. A. J. Johnston gave an address on the active members' pledge, which is not talked of enough in our meetings, and some of the points brought out by Mr. Johnston shows us plainly that all active members should study the pledge and be prepared at all times to show all who profess to be followers of Jesus Christ that they need have no misgivings about signing it. Mr. Johnston said that in many cases associate members were afraid to sign the pledge, but still they professed to be followers of Jesus Christ. Why should they be afraid to sign the pledge when they receive the sacrament? All who are members of the church are professing Christians and there is nothing in the pledge but will tend to raise their standard as Christians. He took up the pledge clause by clause, but we will just briefly state a couple of points that will probably awaken a new interest in this matter.

1st clause.—Trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ for strength. Why should we fail? Let up point out to those who raise any objections to the pledge this one important clause.

2nd clause.—I will strive to do whatever He would have me do. When considering this clause we should ask ourselves what Christ would do if He were in our place. And again: We should always do those things that would be most pleasing to Him, and not let ourselves down easy by just straying inside a certain line and not do those things He might object to. A very important point brought out was to draw up a negative pledge; that is, instead of the words, "I will," replace with "I will not." Fill out a pledge in this manner and ask the party objecting to sign the active members' pledge to sign this negative pledge. Probably this will awaken new ideas in their mind, for He said "He that is not with Me is against me." The names of the newly elected officers and committees will be published next week. A meeting of the executive will be held next Monday evening at 7.45.

The Charlotte street League and business meeting was opened in regular form, Monday evening, after which a very pleasant programme was rendered by some of the members of the league.

The instrumental duet on guitar and mouth organ, which was given by Messrs. Davidson and Hall, was deservedly encored, and their second rendition was received with hearty applause.

The duet by Miss Stevens and Mr. Squires was very nicely rendered.

The recitation by Mr. I. Richardson, was, no doubt, considered the most interesting part of the programme. The poem which he recited so effectively was composed by himself, and shows plainly that the author has a talent that if fully brought out, would be of much benefit to his fellowmen. We hope to have the pleasure of hearing Mr. Richardson again soon, in our literary meetings.

Mr. W. J. Squires then gave a solo which was very appropriate to the occasion.

The meeting was then closed by pronouncing the benediction.

The League College Prayer meeting which is to be held on Friday evening next will be held at the residence of Mrs. Saunders, No. 40 Lake street.

Next Monday evening we will have our missionary service, and would urge all who can to be present, as we expect to have foreign as well as home talent speak on "The lives of great Missionaries," the subject to be then taken up.

DEAR FRIENDS.—From time to time I have been desirous of bringing the work of the junior Christian Endeavour to your notice through the medium of our C. E. column, but have not accomplished this hitherto, however, we trust that we may occasionally in the future do this. Indeed we hope that many items of interest to the juniors and the junior workers may find a place in this corner, and we are quite sure there is much being done in the different junior societies in the county that if known would prove very helpful to others; so I urge you to send in an account of your work, and I am sure our editor will kindly give it a place or select from it for publication such matter as will be of general interest.

I thought this week I would give a short history of the junior movement in this county. The first society in the county was organized at Cold Springs on Feb. 1st, '92. This society is in a very vigourous condition and still leads in many respects. St. Paul's, Presbyterian, Peterborough, was next organized on the 17th of the same month. At the first annual convention these two were the only ones reported. At the next annual convention, April '93, four more societies were reported. This year seven more were added, but one, "Woodbine," Ashburnham, has been obliged to suspend its meetings on account of having no place to hold them in, so that as far as we know there were twelve societies in the county when our annual report was presented last March.

The total number of members reported up to March 1st, 1894, were 275 active, and 81 trial. Out of these, 52 had joined the church and 13 had graduated into the Y. P. S. C. E.

At each of our annual convention, Junior work has received much attention, and last year we were greatly helped by a visit from Mr. C. J. Atkison, Provincial Superintendent of Junior Work. Those present at the morning session of the the convention this year know how exceedingly interesting the Junior reports were, in most instances being read by the juniors themselves; indeed, many of these reports would bear repetition in this department for the benefit of those who did not before hear them.

Now, what are you doing to help this work along in your own church? There is no reason why we should not at least double the number of junior societies during the year. Peterborough county at St. Catharines convention stood third in this respect in the province, only being preceded by York and Wentworth. Now that the larger cities are to be counted out, we should keep the first place. But this is not a very high motive from which to work, and I think we understand that, but we would plead on behalf of the children themselves who love work for Jesus' sake, perhaps far more sincerely than many of our older Endeavourers. Organize now so that the children can plant their flower gardens and get their work well in hand before the vacation comes. If I can help you in any, by sending you literature, corresponding, or a personal visit, I am ready to do so to the extent of my ability. Where the work is in wise hands, and can be fully and carefully looked after, it is sure to be successful.

I am, yours truly,
M. QUINN,
Co. Supt. Junior Work.

Peterborough, May 1st, 1894.

The following is the list of societies as far as reported, with the names of their superintendents and secretaries:—Cold Springs, Peterborough P.O., Miss Bennett, superintendent, Nettie Stewart, secretary; St. Paul's, Peterborough, Mr. W. F. Nelson, superintendent, Marion Hall, secretary; St. Andrew's, Peterborough, Jennie Mercer, superintendent, Katie Wade, secretary; Lakefield Methodist, Rev. S. T. Bartlett, superintendent (pro tem), Lillie Montgomery, secretary; Lakefield Presbyterian, Mrs. T. H. Sherin, superintendent, Reginald Hendren, secretary; Norwood Methodist, Linda Carter, superintendent, Ward Patterson, secretary; Norwood Presbyterian, Mrs. A. E. Davidson, superintendent, Douglas Pettigrew, secretary; Keene Methodist, Emma C. McCamus, superintendent, Willie Campbell, secretary; Springville Union, L. Wilson, superintendent, Herb. McCannon, secretary.

There will be a meeting held on Friday evening, May 4th, in the Y.M.C.A. parlour of the Peterborough Junior Local Union. It is hoped every junior superintendent and assistant superintendent will be present, as business of importance will be discussed.

AN OLD CUSTOMER'S THANKS
—TO—
H. LeBRUN & CO.

Upon receiving one of their nice Memorandum Books.

—:o:—

I on the market square did walk
To see the sights and hear the talk,
A young man tapped me on the back
Saying this will suit you, Sir.

The free gift from his hand I took
Within it I did carefully look,
A pretty Memorandum Book
From H. LeBrun & Co., Sir.

The present I did not refuse
It's pages I will often use,
When I find topics for the muse
LeBrun's book will contain them.

Its cover red conspicious shows
Where we can purchase good cheap clothes,
In every house where that book goes
Is full of praise and wonder.

The back; a nice time table bore
Months, weeks and days for ninety-four,
The street and number of the store
By honest, stylish clothiers.

Its leaves are ruled two ways in blue
To mark each day's transactions true,
And keep our memories fresh for two
Cheap and reliable clothiers.

'Tis prized by farmer's wives like gold
She marks her eggs and butter sold,
By her the husband plain is told
From you to buy his clothing.

It sets the young boys on tip toe
They dream about LeBrun & Co.,
And cry with their papa to go
For cheap suits you are offering.

It suits the times, it takes the eye
On prices marked we may rely,
Points to the place where all can buy
Cheap suits—or made to order.

It is near twenty years and two
Since I bought the first suit from you,
Through all those years I found you true
In word, in deed and clothing.

Your goods, your name stand high to-day
No empty puff nor false display,
Your customers trust what you do say
When buying from you their clothing.

Though small in size its power is great
Low prices strong desires create,
Each seems afraid of being too late
For cheap suits you were offering.

I hope its fruits you will behold
Increasing sales one hundred fold
Till not one suit remains unsold
Of your large stock of clothing.

CUT TO THE BONE

Mantles and Capes.

Tell your friends, tell your neighbours, tell even your enemies—about our WONDERFUL SALE now going on.

Every new Mantle, every new Cape, every new Wrap—must go—hence and forthwith—and "stand not upon the order of going,"—but go at once.

To cut once—and cut deeply—is better than to hack away, little by little—so this blow is to the bone. Read how facts and figures go hand-in-hand:—

Our $15 00 Mantle.....	goes for	$11	65
Our 13 00 Mantles & Capes	"	9	50
Our 11 00	"	8	40
Our 8 75	"	6	25
Our 8 00	"	5	75
Our 6 75	"	5	25
Our 4 00	"	3	00

We sold yesterday a $13.50 Mantle, handsomely embroidered, full sleeves, for $4.00.

There's no likelihood that the pick of Paris and Berlin Mantles will ever again be so absurdly low. Not a coat in the lot but is to-day worth twice or may be thrice times the price.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

A BLOW AT THE

Dress Goods.

Dress Goods are the vertebræ of our dry goods stock. As the marrow to the vertebræ, so are our MATCHLESS VALUES. Bettering our best is our effort all the time.

1894 stands pre-eminent for sales and attractive bargains in Dress Goods. The splendid success of our sales justifies our policy of marvelously low prices during the pinching hard times, and our new scale of prices is drawing the crowds:—

20 pieces 45 inch Serge, all colours, worth 50c., for 40c.
10 pieces 40 inch Gray and Fawn Debieges, worth 60c., for 35c.
6 pieces 46 inch Satin Cloth, imported to sell at 80c., now 60c.
10 pieces Coloured Cashmeres, worth 50c., for 35c.
6 pieces Coloured Diagonal Serge, worth 40c., sale price 25c.
12 pieces Coloured Serge, all wool at 25c
10 pieces Printed All Wool Delaines, 30 to 35 inches, worth from 40c. to 60c., for 25c.

This is a time for few words. We put all our eloquence into prices and qualities.
"It's Fair's Way."

Customers are heard to say:—"Fair's getting a great run on Carpets." Carpet cutting is certainly more rapid than we expected. This is just the way we want it. We deal in Rich Carpets and Rugs. The fourth floor is loaded with Floor Coverings. We are leaders in prices and new colourings. Prices out to the bone.

April and May are the months for carpet cleaning. Perhaps your carpet is worn out. Sweeping won't help it. A carpet bought now will save you 20 per cent. "It's Fair's Way."

MILLINERY STIR.

Just now there's more interest than usual going on in our Millinery Department. There is a marked increase in sales, and our new revised prices seems to "startle the oldest inhabitant." The special attractions in our Millinery Parlours are the new designs in Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets for Ladies, Children's Hats, &c. Novelties in beautiful soft roses with foliage in all colours, and other flowers, together with New Ribbons, Feathers and Trimmings.

But the popular prices all round is what is doing the effective selling of the season, and nobody accuses us of charging too much.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

Gloves
. . AND . .
Hosiery.

The time of year is now upon us when we begin to think of new Gloves and Hosiery. We would like to call your attention to our magnificent stock fresh from the German factories. There are several points about our Gloves we want you to notice. First, by buying from a factory direct they are at bottom prices, and having them made to order we pay particular attention to the cut and have the fingers made to fit the hand, which you will have noticed is often not the case in ordinary goods; also our colours were selected to match the shades of dress goods being worn this season, and every pair is properly sized the same as Kid Gloves. A full range of Lisle Thread Taffata Gloves and Silk in black and colours. We have one job line we are clearing at 25c., worth from 30 to 50c.

In Hosiery there is a growing demand for coloured goods. We have imported and placed in stock a choice range of all the best shades made extra long, perfectly fast dyes. Also the new striped goods which are coming in again. In Black Cotton we commence them at 5c. a pair. They are shaped and seamless and indestructible fast dye. A job line of Black Cashmere in ribbed and plain at 21c. for Children's and 26c. for Ladies. These goods are less than cost of manufacture but we bought them at a sacrifice and are giving our customers the benefit.

Owing to the fact that we were likely to have a close season on account of the low prices and scarcity of money we bought lightly and consequently have no large lots of our own to sacrifice, and are open to secure bargains from wholesale houses who are overstocked and can therefore afford to offer new goods at much closer prices than usual.

See the special lines we will have ready for our bargain day Wednesday, May 2nd. Wool Delaines at 15, 20, 25 and 28.

Gingham, 1 yard wide, good patterns for Aprons, only 8½c.

Armure Dress Cloth, summer shades, at 27c., worth 60c.

Self Coloured Striped Dress Goods, only 27c., regular price 50c.

Black Henrietta, 45 inches wide, fine finish, good weight, at 44c. a yard, regular price 70c.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE

An All-Night Discussion of the Registration Bill.

HON. MR. ROSS' AMENDMENTS

The Opposition Blocks the Progress of Legislation by Repeated and Scarcely Plausible Objections—An Amendment to the Mining Bill.

TORONTO, May 3.—Hon. Mr. Harcourt's bill, shortening the period between nominations and elections in the district of Algoma, east and west, Muskoka, Nipissing and Parry Sound, was read a second time in the House yesterday.

Mining Royalties.

Hon. Mr. Hardy's bill relating to mines and mining was referred back to Committee of the Whole House to amend. Mr. Hardy moved that the first and second clauses, abolishing royalties for a period of five years, be struck out, and a clause substituted in place of these providing that ores which are now liable to a royalty of three per cent., should be subject to a charge of two per cent. when taken from lands sold between 1st May, 1891, and 1st January, 1900, and providing also that the charge of two per cent. shall be calculated upon the value of the ores at the pit's mouth, less the actual cost of labor and explosives for mining and raising ores to the surface.

Mr. Meredith remarked that, in the proposed amendment there was a deliberate reversal of the policy which the Commissioner of Crown Lands had deliberately settled and submitted for the consideration of the House, and he thought he was therefore justified in saying that the alteration was made because of the impending election, and not because the Government had seen any reason to change their mind in regard to this question. It seemed to him that what the Government proposed to do was a mistake. They ought either to stand by the royalties at present imposed, or carry out what was contemplated in the clauses that were being dropped. He did not think there was any probability of the land falling into the hands of speculators if that were done, because there was a provision that if a certain amount of expenditure was not made upon each location sold, the lands should again revert to the province.

Mr. Conmee would prefer the amendment to the law as it now stood, because it made a fixed charge. He would, however, like the charge to apply to the net profits, instead of the market value.

The bill was amended as proposed.

Clauses granting a bonus of $125,000 to be passed within five years, for ores mined and smelted, and providing for the purchase of two diamond drills for $15,000 were added to the bill.

The bill was then reported.

Afternoon Sitting.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt's bill granting aid to certain railways was read a third time.

The House went into concurrence on the supplementary estimates.

Concurrence was carried and a supply bill introduced.

The Registration Bill.

The House again went into committee on the bill for the registration of manhood suffrage voters.

Hon. Mr. Ross explained the nature of further amendments that were contemplated. One provided that in cities where the Registration Board consisted of more than three members they should nominate three members to constitute a court of appeal, and where there was a board of only three members, the whole board should form such a court. Evidence on an appeal against refusal to register was to be taken on oath. Other amendments covered the case of absentees through illness, and provided for the registration, in their absence, of lumbermen, fishermen, commercial travelers and railway men.

Mr. Meredith thought the bill still contained a cardinal defect, which would make it his duty to persistently oppose the measure. Notwithstanding the fact that so many men had already gone to the trouble of having their names inscribed on the lists, they would be compelled to register, in order to exercise the franchise, while the rest of the community, who did not exercise the franchise by reason of the manhood qualification, would not be called upon to register. He objected to limiting the class of persons who could be registered when absent from the city. He asked what objection there would be to accepting the fact of a man's name already appearing on the list as prima facie evidence of his right to vote.

Hon. Mr. Ross argued that the bill mitigated very many of the evils that were now complained of and went a great way in the direction of making a fresh and fair registration. If young men would not take the trouble to register, they ought not to have the right to vote. He accused the Opposition of obstructing the measure.

Mr. Balfour considered the bill was fair and that the proposed amendment was reasonable.

Mr. Whitney said the Opposition were being compelled to make an agreement in order that the workingman might be allowed to vote.

Hon. Mr. Hardy cited a number of cases to show the evils resulting from the present system of placing names on the list.

Mr. E. F. Clarke claimed that the bill would practically wipe out between 10,000 and 12,000 manhood franchise voters in Toronto whose names had already been fairly and properly placed on the list.

Sir Oliver Mowat said it was not denied outside the House that great evils were associated with the present system. So numerous were the appeals from both parties laid before the judge that it was an impossibility to decide each case on its merits. It was not possible, therefore, to avoid inaccuracies. The bill would not give an advantage to either side. If the four days in which registration was to be carried out was found not sufficient, there was a provision for an extension of the time.

Mr. Meredith said the Government did a most dishonest thing, politically speaking, by robbing the majority of electors of Toronto of one of their representatives, and they continued the system of minority representation until forced to abandon it by the protests of their supporters throughout the province.

Sir Oliver Mowat replied that he did not known whether the Conservatives were in a majority in Toronto or not, but if they were, would not the minority suffer in the same proportion. As to the charge of appointing a minority representative for Toronto, was that an unheard of thing?

Mr. Meredith—Yes.

Sir Oliver Mowat—Then I say no.

Mr. Meredith—As applied under the circumstances, it was.

Sir Oliver Mowat said the experiment had been tried in England, where there were a large number of constituencies, and was it to be said that the men who there advocated it were dishonest? If minority representation was the only dishonest act the leader of the Opposition could urge against the Government, then the Administration must be perfectly pure.

Mr. Grundy's Dismissal.

Before the House rose Dr. Willoughby asked the Attorney-General if he knew that Mr. Grundy, deputy registrar of Peterborough, had been dismissed. He had refused to give evidence in the Public Accounts Committee until he received a promise of protection, and he (Dr. Willoughby) had reason to believe he had been dismissed by an appointee of the Government.

The Attorney-General replied that he had not heard of it.

Dr. Willoughby said it was in the papers and he had reason to believe it was true.

Hon. Mr. Hardy asked the hon. gentleman if he could state that he had been dismissed on account of the evidence he gave.

Dr. Willoughby did not reply to this question, and after some further parleying the House rose.

An All-Night Session.

At the evening sitting the debate on the registration bill was resumed, a spirited discussion being kept up far into the morning.

Mr. Meredith suggested, as a compromise, that the first section be amended by dispensing with personal attendance from any man necessarily temporarily absent from the city and county in which the city was situated.

Hon. Mr. Hardy declined to accept any suggestions tending to make "plugging" possible.

Mr. White spoke against the bill.

Hon. Mr. Ross said hon. gentlemen must remember that the redistribution bill had not yet been passed, and they therefore ought to take a survey of where they stood. That the Government would not admit they were incapable of carrying on the Government was quite certain. That the Government were not capable of controlling the House could not be admitted for a moment.

Mr. Meredith dared the Government to go in the face of public opinion, and to refuse to pass the registration bill to which they were pledged.

Hon. Mr. Ross—We will pass both bills.

Mr. Meredith—The hon. gentleman sees now the mistake he made. We have endeavored to get it reasonably amended, but hon. gentlemen have rejected our proposition and upon them rests the responsibility.

Hon. Mr. Ross moved the adoption of clause three.

Mr. Meredith moved in amendment, that the committee rise.

The amendment was defeated by 37 to 19.

KELLY'S INDUSTRIAL ARMY.

G. M. W. Sovereign's Threat Does Not Frighten Rock Island Officials.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 3.—General Superintendent Dunlap and other Rock Island officials, who are here, express themselves as not at all alarmed at General Master Workman Sovereign's threat to tie up their road in case of a continued refusal to make special rates for Kelly's army. "Sovereign cannot tie up anything," said Mr. Dunlap. "The K. of L. and American Union are not strong enough to cause us very serious trouble."

Considerable excitement was caused by the arrival of a telegram from General Superintendent Goodrich, of the Keokuk and Western railroad, addressed to Chairman Lowrey, saying: "The special rate made to Kelly's army over this road is hereby withdrawn." This telegram increased the resentment towards the railroads. The withdrawal of the special rate by the Keokuk and Western leaves only one available route out of Iowa open to the army and that is over the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad. The officers of the commissary department have only about half the necessary provisions on hand. "Colonel" Baker was sent to town to hustle for food and the trades assembly committee soon had wagons out collecting. An abundance of bread was finally provided for the morning meal, but the rations served were short on other supplies.

Well-to-Do Farmer Killed.

PERTH, Ont., May 3.—James White, a prosperous farmer living four miles from this place, while returning from the fair with the neighbor, the team took fright and ran away. Mr. White was thrown from the wagon and the wheel passed over him. He was taken up unconscious and brought back to town and he died a few hours after. He was much respected in this section.

Another Blaze in Huntsville.

HUNTSVILLE, May 3.—Fire destroyed Hughes' blacksmith shop and damaged McLean's hotel and Brown's bakery. For a time those were endangered, but a bucket brigade, working like Trojans, saved them. Hughes' loss, $700; insurance, $400. The village has bought a hand fire engine and 500 feet of hose.

Libel Actions Against St. Johns Telegram.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., May 3.—Mr. Robinson, editor of the News, took a libel action for $5,000 against the Telegram yesterday for accusing him of being one of the promoters of the Harbor Grace Orange riots some years ago. This makes four actions now pending against the Telegram.

RIOTS IN CLEVELAND

Labor Troubles Culminate in a Reign of Disorder.

WORKMEN ARE INTIMIDATED

And Forced to Join the Ranks of the Mob—The Upson Nut Works the Scene of a Lively Time—Citizens Alarmed and Fear Outrages.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 3.—Labor troubles in Cleveland came to a crisis yesterday when 4,000 men armed with clubs and stones marched through the low lying manufacturing district in the heart of the city known as "The Flats," closing down each factory as they came to it. There were few English-speaking people in the crowd. In fact it was a rabble made up chiefly of foreigners. Considerable property was destroyed and the destruction would have been much greater, but for the efficient work of the police.

The mob rushed on to the Standard paint works, distant about two blocks. On the way every man who was in sight was dragged into the ranks. There was short parleying and the frightened employes quickly joined the ranks of the mob. The rioters went wild as they approached the Upson nut works. There was a train load of coal standing along the side of the works. A small boy clambered upon a car, and seizing a lump of coal hurled it through the window. In a moment the cars were black with men and the air was filled with flying missiles. The windows were broken and the men in the shops were struck down before they could retreat. A number of them had their heads cut and bodies bruised. The mob rushed for the building. The gates were closed and the men rushed against them, forcing them from their hinges, and took possession of the building. The men fled in terror from the shops.

A band of two hundred Italians, armed with clubs, iron and wire rods, marched to Gat's quarry, and the men there dropped their tools and joined the marching throng. At Neff's quarry the operation was repeated and at Reader's quarry there was little opposition. The rioters then forced their way into several boarding-houses and compelled men to join them.

The Mayor held a consultation with the officers of the Fifth regiment, and as a result six companies of that regiment, together with the Cleveland Grays and the city guards were ordered to assemble at their armories subject to call for service by the Mayor.

Seven of the rioters, all with broken heads, were arrested. The people of the city are filled with fear that the mob will resort to the torch or dynamite, and attempt to destroy factories and private residences.

FATAL CATASTROPHE IN NEW YORK.

Benzine Causes an Explosion in Which Two Are Killed and Several Burned.

NEW YORK, May 3.—An explosion that shook some of the big buildings, blew out the whole store front of a building on 61 East Twelfth street, and set the building on fire, occurred yesterday afternoon. The wrecked building was the cleaning and scouring concern of C. Jolly & Son. Benzine used in their business caused the explosion. In the fire that ensued two persons perished and four were burned, one badly. The building was damaged to the extent of $10,000. The factory is a five-storey building. The explosion occurred at an hour when both these streets were crowded with shoppers. There was no warning of it however.

A sudden deafening crash, with the sensation to those near by as if they were lifted off their feet, and the street was covered with broken glass, crushed to atoms, and raining in a perfect shower on the pavement. Fire showed through the wrecked storefront and the next instant burst from every empty window space. The shrieks of men and women, frightened and hurt, filled the air. A dozen crawled upon the fire escapes, fleeing for their lives. A man with clothes ablaze ran out of the half demolished building and staggered blindly toward Fourth avenue. Behind him another crept out of the cellar and still another. Policemen running up from the avenue met them and smothered the fire in their clothes.

When the smoke cleared away enough to permit the firemen to look down into the basement, a body was discovered. It was identified as that of Leopold Geneau, a washer employed in the basement. He lay within three feet of the benzine tank that had exploded. The firemen went down again and found the body of Louise Fleurmann. Whether the dead were killed by the shock of the explosion or afterwards burned was not clear.

Fierce Fight With Yaquis.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 3.—A troop of Mexican soldiers sent against the Yaquis of South Sonora were led into ambush in a long, deep, narrow defile. When half way through the Yaquis appeared on the cliffs, 1,500 feet above, and rolled down masses of rock and great boulders and poured volley after volley of shots. Horses and riders were crushed into shapeless heaps. Two hundred of the soldiers were killed and 300 retreated. A young doctor going to the wounded was captured by the savage Yaquis, his feet flayed, and then forced to walk.

To Provide for Their Idle Men.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Mr. Bell (Pop. Col.) has introduced in the House a joint resolution to provide for the appointment of a committee to devise means for the employment of the idle men of the country, restrict immigration, start up the mines, increase the currency and prohibit the issue of interest-bearing bonds without authority of Congress. The committee is to consist of three senators and five representatives.

Tanneries to Close Down.

PITTSBURG, May 3.—Eleven tanning establishments in Alleghany City are preparing to shut down and 600 employes will be added to the army of the local unemployed. This action is in pursuance of a plan recently developed by the members of the tanners trust, the object being to enable the companies to work off surplus stock while at the same time stimulating the demand for their product.

OMEMEE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The weather is all that could be desired for farmers' seeding, and never was there a more hopeful spirit amongst them.

The 24th May celebration is still booming. Arrangements are being made to have the Lindsay and Peterborough baseball clubs meet here.

Much sympathy is felt here for Prof. Seward in his affliction, and hopes for his recovery.

Mr. Mackay, student of Knox College, preached a powerful sermon to young people last Sunday.

Mr. Dennistoun, lawyer, of Peterborough, and Mr. W. A. Stratton, lawyer of same place, were in town all day Monday, engaged on the Henderson vs. Redmond trial over the lost money, Mr. Stratton for the plaintiff and Mr. Dennistoun for the prisoner. Both those gentlemen showed great ability in their respective efforts but Mr. Dennistoun, for the prisoner, showed no greater effort than his client did after the trial to escape from Constables Mitchell and Glass, after being committed to stand his trial at Lindsay. At last accounts the prisoner was seen swimming across the river, and both the constables were too corpulent to follow pursuit for fear of drowning.

John Kincaid was in town buying potatoes for shipment. His office and place of shipment are at the C.P.R. station, Peterborough, where he will pay the very highest price for all kinds of marketable potatoes.

KEENE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The Queen's birthday is to be celebrated in our village by the Epworth League of Christian Endeavor in connection with the Methodist church of this place in the town hall by an "Apron Fair." The admission fee into the fair is to be only five cents. A very interesting and appropriate programme is prepared for the occasion. Arrangements have been made to have a liberal supply of cakes, pies and other delicacies for which a reasonable fee will be charged. In behalf of the Endeavorers we invite the public to extend their patronage. Come one, come all, and encourage the Endeavorers in their good work.

It is mildly suggested to one or two of our villagers who have nothing to attend to but their own business, to devote their precious moments to something of more advantage than spying and gossiping about their neighbours. Take advice and bridle your tongues.

Mrs. T. Bradburn is at present a guest at Dr. Harrison's.

The majority of the farmers have completed the spring sowing and report the soil in first-class condition.

Several tramps passed through our village during the past week and report times very dull for their trade.

Ash peddlers were on our streets very regular during the past week.

Mr. Purdy, our public school teacher, deserves great credit for the able manner in which he has his scholars drilled.

A Total Wreck with Kidney Disease—All the Symptions of Bright's Disease Present—Dodd's Kidney Pills make him Perfectly Well again

LEAMINGTON, April 23—Sherman Buchanan, a farmer living near here, recently passed through a terrible ordeal. He was attacked by kidney disease, which made him a perfect wreck. He suffered agonising pains and his digestive organs were seriously impaired. All the symptions of Bright's disease were present. After several doctors had treated him ineffectually, Mr. Buchanan used several boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. Dodd's was the first kidney in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, 50c, or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

THE DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Second Reading of Mr. Charlton's Lord's Day Observance Bill.

OTTAWA, May 2.—Hon. Mr. Daly has introduced a bill in the Commons to repeal the Homestead Exemption Act in the territories. The object of it is to leave the whole matter of homestead exemptions in the hands of the Territorial Assembly. The bill was read a first time.

Hon. Mr. Patterson, in reply to Mr. Mulock, said that provision having been made during the last session of Parliament for the salary and allowance of a quartermaster general, Lieut. Col. Percy H. F. Lake had been appointed to the position by an order-in-council dated the 15th of August, 1893. Col. Lake had entered the army from the military college, Sandhurst, and was also a graduate of the staff college. The salary was $3,200 per annum.

Mr. Charlton moved the second reading of his bill, entitled, "An Act to secure the better observance of the Lord's Day." He said when he had first introduced the bill into the House years ago, he had approached Sir John Macdonald and asked him to give the bill his consideration. He asked him to allow it to be discussed upon its merits in the House, and the old chieftain had done so. He trusted that the same measure of fairness would be accorded the bill this session. The bill provides that printers shall not work on Sunday; canals shall not be open for traffic: no trains shall run except they be through passenger trains, or trains of live stock or perishable goods and excursions shall be prohibited. He said that the Sunday newspaper was the anti-Christ of America and an engine of the devil.

Mr. Craig seconded the motion for the second reading.

Mr. Christie spoke in support of Mr. Charlton's bill. The bill, if passed, would be a great blessing to the great mass of employes of the large corporations who now work on Sunday.

Mr. Mills did not know on what ground the Commons had a right to legislate on this question, because the publication of a newspaper was a local matter and would naturally come within the jurisdiction of the local Legislature. He thought the bill ought to be read a second time, and then the provisions of the bill confined to matters within the jurisdiction of this House. The closing of public works and offices of Canada on Sunday, of course, would fall under control of the Parliament of Canada. As a matter of law, the jurisdiction to legislate on Sabbath observance was with the Legislatures and not this Parliament.

Mr. McMullen deprecated the running of railway excursions on the Lord's day, and he blamed this fact for the demoralization which existed in the United States. He had seen more people at Old Orchard beach drunk on Sundays than on any other day of the week and this was in the state of Maine, where prohibition was in vogue. The people who were drunk came in by the Sunday excursions. On Monday mornings empty bottles and flasks could be gathered up at "Old Orchard" by the cartload.

The bill was read a second time.

Mr. Weldon moved the second reading of his bill to disfranchise electors who are found to have taken bribes. The object of the bill was not to punish anyone, but he wanted the House to say that the man who took a bribe should have no controlling power in the state.

The bill was read a second time and referred to a select committee.

Mr. Martin moved the second reading of his bill to extend the ballot to the Northwest Territories.

Sir John Thompson asked the mover to consider the particulars of the bill. There was no objection to the principle. The fact that a Government bill on this subject had been promised in the speech last session. It had been introduced and read a second time, but in consequence of the pressure of business it had been left over. Mr. Martin, if he looked carefully at the particulars of his bill, would find that the bill simply repealed certain sections of the statutes.

Mr. Martin said his object was to place the Territories in the same position as the rest of Canada.

The bill was read a second time.

Mr. Edgar's bill to reduce from 12 to 7 the number of grand jurors necessary to find a true bill in the province of Ontario, was read a second time.

ENNISMORE.

The Late Mrs. Daniel Donoghue.

The death of Mrs. Margaret Donoghue, widow of the late Daniel Donoghue, removes one of the oldest residents of this township. Mrs. Donoghue, who died on Wednesday, after an illness of about one week, was born in the county Kerry, Ireland, and came to this country nearly 70 years ago, when the now beautiful thrifty farms of Ennismore were a howling wilderness. Her father was one of the first settlers of the township. Her husband died about ten years ago. There was a family of ten children, six of whom are living, three in the United States and three, Robert, John and Mrs. Carthy, reside in Ennismore.

"But evil is wrought by want of thought,
As well as want of heart."

By want of thought mothers allow daughters to become frail and puny. Overstudy in girls induces uterine disorders and weaknesses, and blights their future happiness as wives and mothers. Joined to proper hygienic care, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a priceless remedy in such ailments, its value becoming even more apparent every year. Using it, the wan, debilitated school girl gains colour, flesh and spirits, losing those deathly headaches, tormenting backaches, languor, dejection and other symptoms of functional irregularities and nervous debility. It never harms the most delicate girl.

ROBERTSDALE, HUNTINGDON CO., PA. World's Dispensary Medical Association: GENTLEMEN.—I cannot sufficiently express to you my gratitute for the benefit your medicine has conferred upon my daughter. Of late she has suffered no pain whatever. It is simply marvelous. You have just reason to call it your "Favorite Prescription," and to stake your reputation as a physician on it. A favourite prescription it is, indeed, to you and to thousands in this land, and I believe will be to suffering women the world over. Yours gratefully,

Comfort In .. Corsets.

The physical discomfort endured by ladies who have to wear an ill-fitting pair of Corsets is a punishment that need not be borne any longer.

FIRST.—Avoid all dealers who carry old stock so long that they are forced to reduce the price of their "torture packs" to the bare cost of the material in order to get rid of them; or who send out girls totally ignorant of the harm they do by taking measures regardless of the form or figure.

SECOND.—Consult MRS. ENSIGN at her private parlours on Simcoe St., who will personally fit you with a pair of Corsets conducive to health and comfort, and will give you just exactly the support and beauty of figure you so much need and admire.

MONTREAL.

SILAS WAS TOO MANY

Three Yankee Sharpers Run Foul of a Montreal Detective.

PLANNED TO ROB THREE BANKS

They Pass Themselves Off for Opulent Americans and Place Sums of Money With Their Intended Victims —Released After Two Days in Custody.

MONTREAL, May 3.—A scheme to rob three Montreal banks has just been unearthed by Detective Silas Carpenter. Ten days ago there arrived in Montreal three Americans. One of them, named Anderson, took a room on Cathcart street; another, named Richardson, roomed on Brunswick street; where the third stranger roomed is not known. Both Richardson and Anderson were well dressed and seemed to have more money than they knew what to do with.

After being in town two days Richardson deposited in the Molsons Bank $500 under the name of Hilton F. Richards. Under the name of Copland he also deposited in the Merchants Bank $500. Money was also deposited in the City and District Saving Bank. The pair now had money in the banks, and in order to work the scheme they had in view it was necessary to get introduced to the managers of the banks by well-known business men and also to produce an impression on the minds of the banks that they were men of vast wealth.

As soon as these sharpers became known to the bankers, forged drafts, made out by themselves, would be placed by them to their accounts in the banks. With the draft the cheque they presented might be for thousands of dollars. Before cashing such a large cheque, of course the teller would go and see the bank manager, he, naturally, would remember the name of the man who had been to see him, and who was going to buy out, say a $120,000 business, and of course all would be well.

Detective Carpenter arrested Richardson as being a suspicious character and searched his room, where four bank books made out in different names were found. The managers of all the banks were notified of the scheme that was to be played upon them. After being kept in custody for two days, Richardson was liberated as he had not, owing, it is thought, to his arrest, had time to work the draft dodge. As soon as he was released he drew his money out of the banks and left town with Anderson and the unknown man.

ROSEBERY AT MANCHESTER.

Independent Labor Organization an Obstacle to Home Rule.

LONDON, May 3.—Lord Rosebery addressed a large Liberal meeting in Manchester last evening. He spoke at great length concerning home rule. As agrarian crime in Ireland had almost died ont, he said, and there was no longer any fear of the Catholics combining against the Protestants, the conviction in favor of home rule must soon be carried to the heart of the English people.

The question ought to be and must be settled as a measure of common sense. If the people of England are to have a united empire and wished to move toward the ideal of a federation of the English speaking races, they must grant home rule.

One obstacle in the home rule cause, Lord Rosebery said, was the undertaking to found an independent labor organization which was inspired by a sort of political anarchism. The originators of this undertaking were ready to strike any party. If they would confine their efforts to pushing the claims of labor, everybody would approve their work, but not if they played the part of political freebooters. Should the leaders of the movement in question strike at the Liberal party the immediate result would be the return of the Conservatives to power and prevent needed reforms in Ireland and Great Britain.

SPRINGVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. R. D. Dundas, one of our most enterprising horsemen, attended the spring stallion show recently held in Toronto, and took with him his young Canadian breed Clydesdale stallion McLaws, sired by imp. General Wolf (5600) for which he obtained first prize among a very numerous and strong class in competition. This same horse carried off a prize last year at the same exhibition. Mr. Dundas was a successful importer for some years, but has now turned his attention to raising himself pure bred Clydesdale stock, in which his efforts have been, so far, crowned with success, as such a mark places him at the top of the list of breeders of Canadian Clydesdale horses in the province. Since arriving home Mr. Dundas has been offered a handsome sum by an association in Dumfries, Paris, Ont., to allow his fine young stallion to travel in that district for this season, but he has decided not to allow him to go as he thinks it only fair that he should remain in this vicinity to improve the already good stock of this locality. Mr. Dundas as a young man is to be congratulated on his achieving such success as a stockman, and will no doubt figure as one of the first breeders of the province.

Threatening Situation in Bluefields.

BLUEFIELDS, M.R., May 3.—Nicaraguan troops continue to pour into this place. The last batch, 130 strong, instead of going out on the bluffs, where the other soldiers are encamped, came direct to the town and were carefully quartered by Lycayo, the Nicaraguan commissioner. This was seemingly done with the consent of the captain of the British ship Magicienne, as he offered no objections. However, there has been no trouble yet, as the United States cruiser San Francisco has arrived from port Limon, where she had gone to coal, Captain Watson and the British commander immediately held a long consultation, supposedly on the invasion of the town proper by the Nicaraguan troops, but what conclusion was arrived at is not known.

Fatal Result of Jealousy.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 3.—Miss Viva Castle, the only daughter of Congressman J. N. Castle of Stillwater, and a niece of J. R. Fellows of New York, was fatally shot in a restaurant by a colored woman crazed with jealousy. Miss Castle was caught in a rain storm and sought shelter in the Postal Cafe. The wife of the restaurant keeper thought she had come to meet her husband by appointment, and placing a revolver to the young lady's head fired a bullet into her brain. The wound is thought to be fatal. Miss Castle is a beautiful girl of 19 and well known in the best circles here.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, May 3, 1894.

Local security market is active and easier.

At the London wool sales 6,900 bales, comprising a large selection, were offered. Cross-breeds were actively competed for by the home trade.

Trading in the industrial stocks was once more the matter of chief interest in the New York market. The railroad stocks, although comparatively neglected, showed activity in several different points.

Wall street reports stocks were fairly active and irregular. Chicago Gas is a strong feature. Louisville and Nashville's net earnings for March decreased $12,115, and the stock sold down at 1 per cent.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—The market continues dull. Oats unchanged, with sales of two loads at 40 and 41c. Wheat unchanged; white quoted at 62c, red at 61c, and goose at 58c. Peas are nominal at 64 to 64½c, and barley at 42c.

Chicago wheat market opened weak. They were forced below "puts" within the first fifteen minutes, but rebounded with a decided vim. From that time until very near the close, when another dip occurred, there was a good tone to the market. Corn and oats were very strong at closing.

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair had been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually "topped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterward, using in all about a quater of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

Fashions for Men.

IN COATS.

There is more length to the new Coats for 1894 than has been used in Men's Dress since the 60's.

THE DOUBLE BREASTED FROCK is the most fastidious garment man has put on in a generation. It adds to the stature of the man and conceals defects of figure. It is short waisted, snug fitting, long tailed and beautifully moulded to the figure. The Skirts are hollow at the top and form a beautiful curve, which is the most distinctive thing about the new styles.

Then there is the THREE BUTTON CUTAWAY Coat which is a high favourite. It is popularly described as the "Pigeon Wing" on account of its sloping tails. The sleeves are of moderate size and are closed with a vent for three buttons. If properly made it will cling rather closely to the hips.

The new CUTAWAY SACK COAT for business wear is one of the most popular of the season. It has caught the fancy of the young men. All the pockets should have flaps. The collar rolls low and is not faced with Silk.

Any of these garments made up to order to please the most fastidious dresser and with faultless devotion to the fashion plates

A Government BOMBSHELL

THROWN INTO THE

LIFE INSURANCE CAMP!

The following statement comes from the government Blue Book. It covers a period of sixteen years, and is sworn to as correct by representatives of each Company:

Statement of Premiums received and Cash Profits paid back to Policy Holders from 1877 to 1892, both years inclusive:—

COMPANY.	Premiums Received.	Dividends Paid to Policy Holders.	Ratio of Dividends to Premiums, %
CANADA LIFE	$16,368,307	$2,946,433	18.18
Confederation Life	6,165,432	637,925	10.35
North American	2,327,082	32,857	1.41
Ontario Mutual	3,878,086	433,284	11.17
Sun Life	5,527,720	355,280	6.43

Never in the history of Life Insurance has the struggle for business been keener. Never has the conflict been hotter. Never have the Companies felt as they feel now, the necessity for throwing all the energy at their command into the field. The most intelligent and best men have to be employed. All kinds of plans of insurance are submitted. Each Company determined in securing the supremacy in the good will of the public, in establishing their name, the utterance of which, shall convey to the minds of the people the essential characteristics of

UNDOUBTED SECURITY,
RIGID ECONOMY,
GOOD INVESTMENTS,
LARGEST PROFITS

WHY?

Because millons of dollars are being paid annually for Life Insurance, and the Companies that can show these features have attained a position which will guarantee their future success, for money will flow freely into the best investments.

The Canada Life Policy Holders can look at the above statement with a smile of satisfaction, yet sympathise with their friends who are not so favourably situated.

They can throw their Life Policies down in the face of opponents and successfully challenge the production of more profitable policies, they can stand the onslaught of Agents who will almost cover them with literature and estimates of Tontine, Semi-Tontine, Return Premiums, Reserved Dividends, Annuity and Endownment plans of insurance, and with a quiet assurance feel that

As The Canada Life is Making the Most Profits, She Can Pay the Largest Profits.

READER. If you want Life Insurance choose the Canada Life and join the throng of contented policy holders who are insured with the Company carrying about 45 per cent. of the total insurance in force of the above named Companies

Algoma and North-West Missions.

The sum of $31.78 contributed in Peterborough in aid of Algoma and Northwest Evangelical and Colportage Mission, is gratefully acknowledged by Mr. Geo. Buskin, missionary, being $6.38 in advance of last year, which, considering the depression in business, makes the contribution more gratifying, and evidences the good will of pastors and people towards the work of evangelization and extension of Christian knowledge.

Public Installation

The members of City lodge No. 404, I.O. G.T., will meet in regular session in their lodge rooms, Unity Hall, over Matthews' store, George street, this evening. At nine o'clock, after the business meeting, the officers for the ensuing term will be publicly installed by Bro. D. Rumming, L.D. As there has been no public installation held in town for several years and as the ceremony is a very pretty one, all who wish to witness it should make it a point to be there.

Auction Sale of Lots.

Six lots lying immediately north of the Park street Baptist church, and near the Edison Works are to be offered for sale by public auction on the ground on Saturday evening next at 6 p.m. The sale is made at this hour to give working people a chance. Each lot has a frontage on Stewart street of 33½ feet and runs back to Park street, so that they can have an entrance at the rear. The terms are easy and the lots will be sold for what they will fetch, as it is a peremptory sale. 4d101

—The body of Alex. Comego, an Alnwick Indian, has been found floating on the Trent River at the foot of Cassiday Bay.

—Mr. Charles Clathe, trusses and orthopedia appliances, will make a professional visit to Peterborough on Saturday, May 5th.

—The trout streams have been relieved of scores of the finny tribe this week, Tuesday having been the first day of the open season.

—Mr. Warrington ships this week 1,600 boxes of cheese, lapping over into this season's make, from Morrisburg.—Belleville Intelligencer.

—There was no parade for "physical drill" at the armory last evening, the men failing to understand the tenor of the orders in this respect.

—The installation of officers in Canton No. 10, I. O. O. F., did not take place last night owing to the absence of Major Moore, the installing officer, from town.

—On an average there is in Campbellford a dog for every sixteen of its population, which means that about one family out of every three is the owner of a cur.—Herald.

—Mr. J. A. Robinson, of the Ottawa fish hatchery, recently brought 500,000 white fish fry to Belleville and deposited them in the bay. The fish were in good condition.

—On account of the service in St. John's to-night, it being Ascension Day, the meeting of the boys' branch of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's will take place to-morrow night.

—Mr. Marcus Lent, district councillor of the Northumberland and Peterborough district of Royal Templars is expected to visit the council in Campbellford about the 15th inst.

—The postal inspectors are said to be still in this vicinity. Residents of Peterborough have so far escaped any trouble of this kind needing the interference of the authorities.

—The two companies of school boys mustered for street parade last night and presented quite a fine appearance as they marched through the streets under Sergt.-Major Rundle.

—Those not knowing the nature of the deliberations which were in progress in the council chamber yesterday, but who were acquainted with the personnel of the different delegations present, were of the opinion that a Conservative convention was in session.

—There has not been 400 dog tags issued yet this season, as comparing with 700, which were issued last year. The officials are puzzled to know whether an epidemic has thinned the ranks of dogdom during the past winter or whether 300 of the citizens are seeking to evade the tax.

—A youth named Hartley, residing on Louis street, while hanging on a wagon passing along Charlotte street last night, dropped off suddenly and was run over by a vehicle which was coming along in the rear. It is thought no serious injury will result, although the lad was badly shaken up at the time.

—At at a meeting of the Y.M.C.A. last night the question of holding the young men's meeting in Central Park on Sunday afternoons instead of in the rooms was discussed, and it was agreed that the park meetings would again be inaugurated as soon as the weather became a little warmer. Regarding the appointment of a new secretary, Mr. Williams Bennett states that the Association is now corresponding with a young man, who if he can be persuaded to accept the position, will prove a most satisfactory worker.

The More They Get the More They Want.

The wall papers kept in stock at the Peterborough Bookstore are so pretty and cheap that a customer who buys paper intending to cover only one room, is so delighted that he returns and procures papers for three or four other rooms. "Dr. Bill."

The Academy of Music held a very large audience last night when "Dr. Bill" was seen for the first time in Montreal. "Dr. Bill" is styled on the programme "a great laugh maker;" so it is. Like all farce comedies, it is absolutely without plot, and the situations are as absurd as they are ridiculous and humourous. It is one of those plays that depends entirely upon the producing company for success; there is no doubt about that. The company, which has been selected for the present tour, is an all-round capable one. At its head are two very clever people—Miss Celie Ellis and Mr. Clarence Heritage. Miss Ellis appeared as Mrs. Horton, ex-queen of the ballet, with songs and recitations. To say that she is a success in the part is to put it mildly; she knows how to act and she displays it in her every movement. Miss Ellis sang as well as ever, and added to the hit she made last summer in the "Little Widow." Mr. Heritage is a good, conscientious actor. He works hard and his manner is at all times pleasing. Miss Minna Emmett is very entertaing, particularly as the maid. The ladies are in fact all clever. Mr. Hurleigh was capital as Geo. Webster, "the cause of all the trouble." If you want a cure for the blues go and see "Dr. Bill." At Opera House Saturday May 5th.

PERSONAL.

Mr. T. D. Craig, Port Hope, is in town.

Mr. John D. Flavelle, of Lindsay, was on the street to-day.

Mr. F. B. S. Barlee, of Lakefield, was here on business yesterday.

Mr. T. G. Green and wife, of Lakefield, are spending a day or two in town.

Messrs. John Petrie and W. Kennedy, of Bobcaygeon, are registered at the Snowden.

Mr. James McGill, travelling auditor for the Rathbun Company, Deseronto, is in town on business to-day.

Mr. T. E. Boddy, C. P. R. uptown ticket agent, is still in Toronto, where he was called a few days ago by the serious illness of his nephew.

Mr. T. H. Robinson, of Kingston, is wheeling back to that city from Fenelon Falls, where he has been visiting friends and passed through to-day.

Sergt.-Major Peters has returned from Toronto with his wife and family, with whom he will take apartments in the Croft House until he can procure a residence in which he can place his household furniture.

Mr. W. M. Grant, instructor in cheesemaking for the district, begins his duties on Monday next, when he begins operations by putting in a couple of days at Otonabee Union factory. Mr. Grant's services will be secured by all the more progressive factorymen in the district.

Mr. J.A. Wilkinson, of Toronto, wheeled into town this morning from the Queen City, after riding nearly all night. Mr. Wilkinson is canvassing for that popular wheeling journal, "Cycling," and will remain in town a few days in the interest of that paper.

Mr. W. A. Horkins, who has accepted the city agency of the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company in Toronto, left for his new home last night. Mr. Geo. J. Horkins, who is well and favourably known as one of the liveliest of hustling insurance agents, succeeds his brother as manager of the Peterborough agency of this company.

Mr. William Hayden, G.T.R. station agent, returned from Woodstock this morning. Mrs. Hayden accompanied him as far as Toronto, but was unfortunately taken ill at that point and was forced to remain over with friends for a few days. Her daughter remained with her, while Master Fred accompanied his father to Peterborough.

Mr. Bannell Sawyer, at one time principal of the Peterborough Business College, has been granted the degree of B. C. L. (Baccalaureatus in Jure Civile) by the University of McGill College. Mr. Sawyer took an average of 72 per cent. on the work of the law course extending over three years and took 85 per cent. in the Law of Servitudes in real estate.

A TRIO OF RUNAWAYS.

Luckily No One Was Hurt—Some Damaged Vehicles Resulted.

This morning as Mr. R. W. Eason, of Otonabee, with his wife and daughter were driving into Peterborough, the sudden appearance of a young man on a bicycle caused the team to swerve suddenly and overturn the democrat in which Mr. Eason and his family were seated. All three were thrown out violently. One horse freed itself from the rig and ran to Ludgate's Hill, where it was captured; the other turned around and ran back along the road half a mile, dragging the overturned democrat after it. The rig and horse parted company at this point and the animal ran on towards home fully three miles before it was caught.

The democrat, as may be supposed, is badly damaged, but fortunately the occupants escaped uninjured, with the exception of a severe shaking up.

Although there is no question but that the cyclists have the right of way, as much as carriages, on the highways, yet it seems only reasonable that in common courtesy the wheelmen should dismount in cases where the horses show symptoms of fright.

A farmers team ran away down Water street this morning but was stopped at the Customs House before any damage was done.

The team on the Point St. Charles Ice Company's wagon ran away this morning in the yard in the rear of the City Hotel. No damage resulted other than the breakage of the wagon tongue. The runaway was roused by the "letting off" of a fire cracker by a youngster.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

The following newly elected officers of Court Langton, C. O. F., have been formally installed by Bro. A. Clegg, senior Past Chief Ranger, assisted by Past Chief Ranger Alexander:—

A W Patterson	Past Chief Ranger
H Evans	Chief Ranger
W H Isaacs	Vice-Chief Ranger
E B Robertson	Recording Secretary
W C Morris	Financial Secretary
R F. Hall	Treasurer
Wm Stevens	Chaplain
Jas Craig	Senior Woodward
A J Mathers	Junior Woodward
R Peoples	Senior Beadle
Jas Butcher	Junior Beadle
Dr T N Greer	Physician

Representative to High Court—R E Layfield.

At the conclusion of the installation ceremonies refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening ensued.

RAILWAY NOTES.

What is Going on in Local Railway Circles.

It is rumoured that an early G.T.R. train going through Peterborough at 5 a.m. will soon be in evidence.

Mr. Hayden has again assumed charge at the G.T.R. station.

The Pennsylvania railroad has declared a semi-annual dividend of 2½ per cent.

Conductor Buller began his 20th year of railroading out from Port Hope on May the 1st. A quarter of a century of continuous faithful service in one line of duty is something to look back on. Since his connection with the road he has seen the old Midland railway completed, sold to the Grand Trunk railway, made a part of that big system and railroading almost revolutionized. We trust he will have many years of fortunate and pleasant work still before him.—Port Hope Guide.

The G.T.R. timetable of trains running east from Toronto changes on May 6th.

It's Not So

Notwithstanding reports to the contrary, still it is not true that Short Stop cures a cold too quickly. The fact is, Short Stop cures nautrally and without nauseating the stomach, by acting promptly on the bronchial tubes and lungs. For sale by Jas. Lynch, druggist, 168 Hunter street.

Poison in Tea.

In England tea has been discovered contaminated with lead, undoubtedly from being wrapped in packages containing lead. This is a matter which is being enquired into, inasmuch as lead is a dangerous poison and its presence in so many packages of tea may well cause grave public alarm. Mason & Co., grocers, have no confidence in package teas, as their English blends surpass all teas placed on the market.

A FIREMENS' DEMONSTRATION

Local Fire Laddies Propose to Celebrate Dominion Day—A Programme of Sports.

An account of the proposed firemens' demonstration on Dominion in town was unfortunately crowded out of yesterday's EXAMINER. The idea appears to be to invite the fire brigades from the towns and villages in the vicinity to come to Peterborough on that day and participate in a tournament. A first-class programme of sports was to have been provided, and the following committee named to draft a programme and attend to the details of the scheme: Messrs. J. H. Yelland, Thos. Rutherford, S. Clegg, J. D. Craig, W. Brine, W. Evans and J. Hayes.

Unfortunately the firemen have struck a bad day for their proposed celebration, as the 57th Battalion and band will both be out of town on the first of July. The officers of the 57th state that if they had known of the intention of the fire brigade that they would have made a great effort to have come to some understanding with them whereby the Battalion could have been in town on that day. As it is the volunteers have fully made up their mind that the annual trip is to come off as usual on the 1st of July, and the officers think it would not be well to disappoint the men.

Besides taking the full strength of the Battalion from town there is yet another way in which the absence of the boys will militate against the success of a home demonstration. For instance, if the 57th goes to Orillia there will necessarily be a big day there, with excursions running into town from all around on the First. Peterborough, therefore, will hardly be able to make a strong pull for visitors in that direction.

The Peterborough Fire Brigade is deservedly popular with the townspeople and any demonstration which they put on could hardly help being successful, yet it is unfortunate that this day of all others should be chosen for celebration, as the class of young men who belong to the volunteers are just the ones who would do their best to boom the demonstration.

A conference on the matter, it is understood, will take place between the committee from the Fire Brigade and the officers of the 57th, and it is to be hoped that some arrangement, to meet the firemen's wishes, will be made. We owe the safety of our homes and properties to our gallant firefighters, and, therefore, all things should, if possible, give way to contributing to the success of their home demonstration. Hardly any other organization has such a direct claim to public support and sympathy as the firemen.

DIED.

DONOGHUE.—At Ennismore, on the 2nd of May, 1894, Margaret Donoghue, relict of the late Daniel Donoghue, aged 84 years.

GAINEY—At Ashburnham, on Wednesday, 2nd May, 1894, Mary Cavanagh, wife of Mr. John Gainey, aged 52 years.

Funeral on Friday morning at 9 o'clock from the family residence, Driscoll Terrace.

SAWYER—Flora May Huycke Sawyer, youngest daughter of Bannell Sawyer and Flora May Huycke, passed peacefully, sweetly, into the larger life, with its secrets beautiful, on the evening of Friday, April 27th, 1894, aged 5 years, 5 months and 21 days. Her oft-repeated motto was "Let your garments be always white," and her testimony while joyful with health was "Mamma, I think of Jesus nearly all the time." Truly she was a very thought of God; she daily walked with him. "And she was not, for God took her."

SEWARD.—At the Nicholl's Hospital on Thursday, May 3rd, 1894, Lewis Seward, a native of Exeter, England, late organist of St. John's and organist of the George Street Methodist Church, aged 58 years.

Funeral from the George Street Methodist Church on Friday afternoon May 4th, at 3 30 p.m. The body will be placed in the church at 3 o'clock and any person wishing to view the remains may do so until half past three when the funeral service will begin, and after its conclusion at 4 o'clock the funeral will proceed to the place of interment, the Little Lake Cemetery.

CANADIAN PHOTOGRAPHS.

Particular attention is directed to the "Advertisement of Canada," a portfolio of original photographic views of this Canada of ours, found elsewhere in this issue. These views come in 26 weekly parts. By reference to the advertisement it will be noticed that any person sending one coupon which will be published in THE EXAMINER, and ten cents, will receive one of the parts. Read the advertisement carefully.

NOT a doubt but a Dominion election is about to be "sprung"—first we have the Minister of Railways and Canals writing that he has placed a sum in the estimates for the prosecution of the work on the Trent Valley Canal, and then plans for a $12,000 armoury in Peterborough are drawn up.

DURING the session of the Trent Valley Canal Convention, yesterday, Mr. D. R. Murphy, of Trenton, pressed home on the members the statement "that the farmers along the line of the canal would many of them give their land free of charge for the construction of the canal." Mr. Murphy has lived among and dealt with farmers all his life and yet has the nerve to stand up in a convention composed of intelligent men and make a statement of this kind. The average Canadian farmer is in advance of many of the urban residents in matters pertaining to the purchase and sale of land and there isn't a doubt that in case the canal was constructed that the price of every farm along the line would jump to treble its worth, while other lands within a stone's throw but which were out of the direct line of the course would not be affected in value by the building of it in the least. The farmer knows when a good sale is on as well as his city brother every time and there is not the slightest chance of him giving away land for the privilege of having a canal run through his farm. Mr. Murphy underrates the business capacity of the farmer.

The 18th of May is the date fixed for the cricket match between Campbellford and Belleville to be played in the former place and the Cobourg eleven will try their hand with Campbellford on the 9th of July instead of the 15th June as at first agreed upon.

The lacrosse club are making arrangements to send a junior team to Kingston on the 24th. The senior team will endeavour to arrange a home match with an outside team.—Belleville Intelligencer. If this is the case, what lacrosse teams will will there be in Campbellford on the Queen's Birthday besides the Shamrocks?

Mr. E. J. Hartley returned to town this afternoon from a trout fishing expedition with 37 "speckled beauties." The three largest weighed respectively 1¼ lbs., 1 lb. 2 oz., and 1 lb. 1 oz. The others averaged about eight inches in length. "Edge" says that trout in general are larger this year than last.

This is cricketers evening in the P.A.A.A. grounds, and it is expected that the members of the club and those intending to join will materialize for practice. Mr. Charlie Halliday has secured a guarantee of $35, with a few hours work, to meet the expense of hiring a professional coach. About $75 is the amount required but he will doubtless have little difficulty in securing a guarantee for this amount. The amount which is realized by the Minstrel entertainment is to be devoted almost entirely to the paying of the club's expenses when away playing matches and for the entertainment of visiting clubs.

The Bicycle Club are endeavouring to get up an excursion to run to Montreal on the 1st of July. The rates have been cut to $5 for the round trip, and special cars will take the Peterborough delegation there. The championship bicycle meet is being held in Montreal on the First and succeeding days, and an effort will be made by the local bicyclists to have the wheelmen hold their annual meet in Peterborough next year. A big effort will be made to take down a representative delegation from the district.

At a meeting of the Campbellford Cricket Club held the other evening, Mr. George J. Horkins, and Mr. G. M. Ferris were each presented with a valuable pair, of white kid batting pads of the very latest design, by Mr. C. L. Owen, Warden of the county. Mr. Horkins received his pads as winning the highest average as a bowler last season, and Mr. Ferris acquired his as being the best batter. Mr. Horkins average was 4⅓ runs per wicket. Mr. T. S. Tait and Mr. Walter Nancarrow were respectively 2nd and 3rd in their bowling averages. Capt. Bonnycastle and G. J. Horkins were 2nd and 3rd in batting averages.

Manager Patterson of the Port Hope lacrosse team, in talking over the telephone with Mr. G. J. Horkins this afternoon, stated positively that the Port Hopes would not enter the tournament at Campbellford on the 24th. He authorized Mr. Horkins to make a match with the Peterboroug to be held at any place on any date, but objected to playing two matches, one of them presumably with the Peterboro's, on the same day. The match when it does come off, will be characterized by some of the swiftest and most brilliant play and greatest efforts that either team can put forth. The match would draw a tremendous crowd were it played in Peterborough, and doubtless Port Hope would send up a trainload of those interested.

A disaffected member of the Peterboroughs has been in Port Hope recently running down the local team to the manager of the Port Hopes. The lacrossists of the town down the line, however, may rest assurred that the Peterboroughs are out on the field this year in better shape than ever—in fact in such good shape that the disaffected player referred to was found too slow for the first team. He cannot play with the Peterboroughs this year.

A visit to the P.A.A.A. grounds reveals the fact that it will be some time before cricket can be played there with any degree of comfort. The grass on the crease is long and the ground is very rough.

OBITUARY.

The Late Lewis Seward.

Last night, in a private ward of the Nicholls' Hospital, Mr. Lewis Seward's life of pain merged into eternal rest. At 12.30 o'clock his spirit passed away. His last illness dates from last December, but it was only about three weeks since he was compelled to take to his bed. He suffered great pain in his last illness, as he had for the previous twenty years of his life. The deceased gentleman—and this term is literally correct, for Mr. Seward was one of nature's noblemen—was a native of the city of Exeter, Devonshire, England, where he was born on October 15th, 1836. He studied music at Exeter Cathedral, and to good effect. He was not only a brilliant and capable organist but in every respect a most thorough musician. His highly tuned musical nature was improved by study, and his ability and originality, though possessed to a high degree, were never conspicuously paraded, for he had all the genuine modesty of merit. As an organist he was a most resourceful artist. His performance was brilliant and original—his power of impoviasation being remarkable. He composed a great deal of the music used by his choirs, and no one but his intimate friends who found out by direct questioning, were made aware of the name of the author of some new and beautiful hymn or chant that delighted the congregation. On the death of his parents in Exeter, Mr. Seward came to America where he secured ready employment in the Southern States, subsequently going to California. In New Orleans and San Francisco especially his abilities were recognized—by salaries of $1,800 and $2,000 per year respectively. Later he returned to England in the pursuit of health and in the interest of certain musical inventions. Not being successful in either case, he returned to America—the Western States, where he spent some time. In 1882 he became organist of St. George's church, St. Catharines, a position he occupied for two years. While here he was married to Miss Hattie Kimpton, who with four children, the result of the union, survive him. Shortly after his marriage Mr. Seward removed to Brockville and became organist of St. Paul's Presbyterian church. Here the eldest child was born. In Brockville, as in other places he resided, Mr. Seward won great popularity as a musician and the highest respect as a courteous, Christian gentleman. In 1886 he came to Peterborough as organist and choirmaster of St. John's church. He occupied the position for four years and then became organist and choirmaster of the George street Methodist church, the fourth year of his highly successful incumbency of the position closing the present week. For about twenty years Mr. Seward was a terrible sufferer from a neuralgic affection, being in almost perpetual pain—intensified at times by spasmodic attacks that almost prostrated him. Under all his suffering he was patient and uncomplaining. He was genial and had always a blithe salutation and a courteous greeting for his friends. He was an omniverous reader and a most intelligent conversationalist. He was liberal in his ideas and most charitable in his estimate of men and their actions, especially musicians. He was never known to make a disparaging remark respecting a musical rival. He had some peculitaries of manner, but this only masked a kindliness of heart and generous traits that made him universally respected. He leaves behind him a wife and four children, the eldest eight years of age, who are entirely dependent upon the exertions of the mother, Mr. Seward's health preventing him securing the life insurance which he repeatedly endeavoured to obtain. The funeral from the George Street Methodist Church on Friday (to-morrow) afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

The Late Mrs. Gainey.

Mrs. Gainey, wife of Mr. John Gainey, Ashburnham, died at an early hour this morning at the family residence, Driscoll Terrace. The deceased was a native of County Kerry, Ireland, and came to Peterborough to reside in 1840. Mrs. Gainey, whose maiden name was Mary Cavanagh, has one brother living in Little Falls, New York, and, besides her husband, leaves a daughter and five sons to mourn her untimely death.

THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY TO BE CELEBRATED.

The School Children Come to the Rescue and a Demonstration Will Take Place After All.

Without soliciting the town council for a grant the public schools of the town have decided to undertake a grand 24th of May celebration. Inspector Garvin takes charge of the general management, but trustees, teachers and pupils, together with Sergt.-Major Rundle will ably assist him. The Sergt.-Major has for some time been drilling a public school cadet corps consisting of six companies. This corps will march on the 24th and give various evolutions and other exercises. A corps of 150 girls, dressed in fitting costume, will give a series of delightful exercises with bar-bells, hoops and Indian clubs.

Besides the above attractions there will be an excellent programme of races for boys and girls, and other sports. An exciting baseball or football match is being arranged for.

As the county public school pupils will be allowed to compete it is expected that a large number of rural scholars and their parents will attend.

A band to discourse sweet music will be engaged for the occasion.

The admission fee will not be more than 10c for children and 15c for adults.

The celebration, which will be held in the Agricultural grounds, town, promises to be one of the most enjoyable ever given in Peterborough. As the net proceeds will be expended in beautifying or otherwise improving the public schools, we bespeak for it the heartiest support of our citizens.

BOOTS AND SHOES

TO TAKE THE PLACE OF

A Queen's Birthday Demonstration!

The boy said: "This Shoe business is altogether too brisk," when his mother chastised him with a slipper. That's what other shoe dealers think of us, for we not only command the largest and finest shoe trade in Peterborough, but our popularity extends for a hundred miles around.

The loyal people of Peterborough needn't feel disappointed if the boys didn't get up a big demonstration for the Queen's Birthday. We have put on foot A THUNDERING RACKET IN BOOTS AND SHOES, and propose to keep it going until after the 24th, without asking the council or the merchants to guarantee us against loss.

We're always busy. No dull times with us. But, for the present, we have turned on enough extra power on our Electric Battery of Low Prices to "raise a Thundering Racket" in Boots and Shoes, and to keep it booming for over a month.

Last week we bought for 55c. on the dollar the large Wholesale Stock of a City Manufacturer who had stuck on the rock of hard times and was shivering in his boots for ready cash. This stock, we are determined, shall not remain long on our hands. GO, IT MUST! and that the public may see that there's nothing in the way of its going off fast enough, "we touch the button" and give you a few random shocks from OUR MAGNET OF OUTRIVALLED PRICES:—

NORWOOD NEWS NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent

Council meeting next Monday evening. The assessment roll will be presented and the rate for the year struck.

Mr. Wallace Hampton, who has been very ill for some time is again able to be out.

Mr. J. Hendren is exceedingly ill at his residence on the Belmont road.

At the time of writing Mr. Jas. Kellett is not expected to live.

Rev. W. H. Stevens was renewing old acquaintances here last week.

The early closing by-law took effect on Tuesday evening. Until the end of September nearly all the stores will be closed at 7 p.m. except on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Mr. W. Carmichael, London, is spending a few days visiting his home here.

Mr. J. Davidson, M.A., and wife were in Peterborough this week to attend the funeral of Mr. Cook, father of Mrs. Davidson, who died there very suddenly Sunday last.

The regular quarterly meeting services will be held in the Methodist church on Sunday morning, May 13th.

The bell tower in the Methodist church is being fitted up for the reception of the 1,442 pound bell which has been ordered from the McShane bell foundry, Baltimore, U.S. The bell was shipped over a week ago and is expected to arrive here this week. After it has been placed in position a social will be held on the lawn if the weather is favourable, or, if not, in the school room of the church. The proceeds will be in aid of the bell fund.

The books (1,109 volumes), chairs, tables, etc., belonging to the Mechanics' Institute having being seized for rent, they will be sold by public auction on Saturday next at three p.m.

Wednesday morning of last week the people of Norwood were shocked to hear the news of the sudden death of Rev. J. Carmichael, M.A., the esteemed pastor of the Presbyterian church. Deceased had been in poor health for some time and had intended going to Clifton Springs for the benefit of his health, but was advised to remain at home and take rest. Of late he seemed much better, but shortly after retiring on Tuesday evening he was seized with hemhorrage of the lungs, and passed away before his physician could be summoned. A memorial service was held in the Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon. The High School and nearly all places of business were closed for the afternoon, and a very large number were present. On Friday morning the remains were taken via C. P. R. and G. T. R. to Markham where they were laid to rest in the Presbyterian cemetery. Norwood Lodge, I. O. O. F., and a very large number of the friends of the departed accompanied the remains to the station. We take the following account of Mr. Carmichael's life from the Register of last week :—

"The late Rev. James Carmichael, M.A., pastor of St. John Presbyterian church, Norwood, was born in Tollcross, near Glasgow, Scotland. He was the son of the late William and Cecilia Grant Robertson Carmichael. The former was a decendant of the late Earl of Hyndford and the latter was a granddaughter of the youngest son of the House of Seaforth, who took part in the rebellion of '45. Mr. Carmichael came with his parents to Canada in 1842. After a stay of two years in Montreal, Que., they removed to Perth, Ont. Here he attended the public school and was for a short time an apprentice in the office of the Perth Courier. Then he attended the Grammar School, taught by the late Mr. McIntyre. His parents returned to Montreal in 1853; he accompanied them and was employed in his father's car shops there for a short time. Thereafter he secured a position as reporter on the staff of the Montreal Daily Transcript, and subsequently upon other dailies. He entered the Arts course of Queen's University, Kingston, in the fall of 1858, taking first-class honours in mathematics the following spring. Returning to Montreal, he became editor of the Daily Review, published by the late Mr. Kennedy. After a regular course in McGill University, he was graduated B. A. in 1867. Awakened previously by the preaching of Rev. Mr. Hammond, the evangelist, he resolved to become a preacher of the Gospel, and entered the theological department of Queen's College in 1867. After spending two sessions in Queen's, he took his third session in Morrin, under the late Dr. Cook. He was ordained and inducted into the pastorate of St. Andrew's Markham, November 10th, 1870, where he laboured with great success for twelve years; here he was chairman of the High School Board for nine years. He entered on the pastorate here on October 19th, 1882. In politics Mr. Carmichael was an Independent Reformer. He was married Oct. 25th, 1871, to Sarah, eldest daughter of the late Arch. Barker, of Markham, Ont., who with three sons survive him.

LAKEFIELD.

From our own Correspondent.

The first drive of logs passed down the river last Saturday.

Sylvester Davis left for his future home in the North-West on Monday.

Reeve Casement paid Toronto a visit on Monday.

Mr. F. Barlee was up in Bobcaygeon on Monday looking for plank for the corporation.

W. M. Graham is up in Brantford this week making the quarterly audit for the High Court C.O.F.

Mr. F. Barlee has been appointed a notary public by the Ontario Government.

A farmer near Lakefield found a nest of full fledged young gray birds in one of his fields last week.

A son of Clark Stone, Haultain, took down his rifle last Thursday evening to shoot a fox. While drawing out a cartridge it exploded and a piece of the shell penetrated his left eye destroying the sight. He was brought down to Lakefield and medical attention secured to dress the eye, but he will not recover the sight.

Assessor Doidge returned his roll to the clerk on Monday. From it we cull the following statistics of the village :

Total assessment	$299,815 00
Population	1,270
Children between 5 and 21	409
Dogs	71
Horses	80
Cattle	98

On Monday night an insane man called Albert Taggart, of Peterborough, arrived in the village, and spent the night walking round the block containing the English church and Leahy's Hotel in his bare feet. In the morning Leahy, who knew him, took him to his hotel until his friends could be notified, but in the afternoon he became violent, and started to throw everything out doors. Then he started north, but Constable Doidge overtook him near the station, when with assistance he got him on the train and took him to town, where he entered a charge before Police Magistrate Dumble, who sent him to gaol.

Mr. T. E. Bell, formerly of Smith, now of Lakefield, has succeeded in bringing water from Mr. Fellow's spring, 146 to his kitchen and, with a few feet of hose, he will be able to water his lawn, etc. The water is pronounced first class.

The man who called sarsaparilla a fraud, had good reason; for he got hold of a worthless mixture at "reduced rates." He changed his opinion, however, when he began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It pays to be careful, when buying medicines.

CANADA

A PORTFOLIO OF ORIGINAL PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEWS OF OUR COUNTRY.

·PUBLISHED BY· ART PUBLISHING Co
15 Adelaide Street East,
TORONTO

26 Weekly Parts—10 Cents Each

THE object of this series of Canadian fine art pictures is to provide the people of this great Dominion with a scenic and descriptive reproduction of the superb national and artistic beauties of their own country, and the evidences of its material progress. To show Canadians by the easy process of the sight some of Canada's historical shrines. something of her national wealth and development, her glorious lake and river scenery, her entrancing landscapes and world-renowned natural wonders—to depict in panoramic photographic pictures the urban and rural life of the Canadian people, their industrial hives, their great public enterprises and their national landmarks—the series will cover the whole vast domain of British America, from the Arctic Ocean to the forty-ninth parallel, and from the fog banks of Labrador to the pure breezes of the Pacific Ocean. It is a country from which European kingdoms could be carved; including lakes, in whose waters, where primeval forests are reflected, old world principalities could sink from sight; with mountains, upon whose massive breast the Alps could be lightly carried; with a Niagara and a St. Lawrence; with pastoral scenes of upland and meadowland; prairie stretches, rugged mineral treasures and timber areas. It is a country of magnificent natural beauties and varied interest; one to be proud of, and one that we should study more and learn more about.

This is the purpose of this scenic and descriptive series of pictures. It is to place within the reach of our own people the means of acquainting themselves with all that is notable in the national features of their own country. Our Dominion is so large and its distances so magnificent that some such means of studying it is necessary. Its beauties and wonders are scattered over such a wide area that neither by travel nor travellers' tales is it likely that the great majority of our people will ever know them.

The scope in Canada, it is clear, is a wide one, and the field rich in materials. The project is undertaken in the belief that the people of Canada will welcome an effort to place before them the natural scenery, material progress and national features of their country, and that they will extend to it their hearty support. The work will be carried out in the best manner known to the photographic, engraving and printing arts. Every locality and section of the Dominion will be fully and splendidly represented, that the possessor of the completed work may truly feel that he has within its compass as thorough and complete an acquaintance with Canada as if he had spent years in travel ing over it. The pictures will be accompanied by accurate descriptions of the subjects presented, and the object is not less to instruct the mind than to please the eye. This, then, is the purpose of "Canada," and if its accomplishment be carried out with the fidelity and completeness with which we hope to endow it, it will be a work of permanent merit and of great national as well as artistic value.

We have secured the right for this valuable Canadian series, and will furnish our readers with parts weekly at TEN CENTS, FREE OF POSTAGE. TEN CENTS PER WEEK AND ONE COUPON from this paper will be all it will cost you to secure this valuable work of art, covering the whole vast Dominion of British America, and when completed will ensure the possessor a complete acquaintance with our country.

Part I will be announced for two weeks in order to give everyone a chance to subscribe; remaining parts will be issued weekly.

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $30, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

EVANS POISONING CASE.

The Grand Jury Finds a True Bill Against the Prisoners.

TORONTO, May 3.—The grand jury has brought in a true bill against Lottie Evans, George Osman and Charles Pegg, charging them with "administering poison with intent to murder" and "conspiracy with intent to murder." This is the celebrated "Sharon poisoning case" that has excited so much interest. The charge is that they tried to poison Walter Evans, the husband of Lottie.

Each pleaded "not guilty" to the charge. The case is in progress.

Great interest in this trial is afloat and an immense crush of people will doubtless perplex the court constables. The crown has thirty witnesses and the prisoners have fifteen.

Effects of the Coal Strike.

NIAGARA, Ont., May 3.—The great coal miners' strike is already beginning to be felt here. The electric light service on the street has had to be stopped, and if coal cannot be procured very soon the incandescent house service will have to be shut off also.

TORONTO, May 3.—Manufacturers here are beginning to feel the effects of the miners' strike, and it it thought that before many days are over a number of mills will have to close down or import Cape Breton coal at a considerably extra cost. Coal dealers are also sufferers, the majority of them being unable to fill their orders.

North Wentworth Liberals.

DUNDAS, May 3.—At the convention of Liberals for the north riding of Wentworth, held here yesterday, Messrs. A. F. Pirie, John J. Flatt and John Weir were nominated. Mr. Weir withdrew, and on a ballot Mr. Flatt was accepted as the nominee of the convention.

Barnardo Boy Sentenced.

CAYUGA, May 3.—At the assizes yesterday, Charles Goldsmith, a Barnardo boy, who pleaded guilty to attempted murder and rape, was sentenced to twenty-one years in penitentiary for the former and seven years for the latter offence, sentences to run concurrently.

Irish Cable Successfully Laid.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 3.—The steamer Farraday has arrived here from Ballinskelligs bay, Ireland, with this end of the Mackay-Bennett cable, which she has successfully laid across the Atlantic.

Off for Spitzbergen.

TROMSOE, Norway, May 3.—The Walter Wellman polar expedition sailed from this port for the island of Spitzbergen, which the leader expects to reach in three weeks.

St. John Strikers Give In.

ST. JOHN, N.B., May 3.—The mill men on strike have decided to return to work at their old wages, $1.75 per day.

Mutilating the Murdered.

VANCOUVER, May 3.—Advices from Zeol Korea, under date of April 15, say: The remains of Kin Oh Tium were hung, drawn and quartered at Yokwachin, and his head, feet and hands were exposed to public view separately, the remaining portion of the corpse lying on the ground beneath the gibbet. Many Koreans are incensed at the action of the Government.

Murder on the City of Pekin.

VICTORIA, B.C., May 3.—On the voyage of the City of Pekin to Yokohama, a Chinese steerage passenger got into the saloon, and upon being ordered out by a boy stabbed him and Chief Engineer McClure, and then nearly beheaded Lee Shing, a Chinese passenger, who expired instantly. The Chinaman was put in irons.

Fight With Vienna Mobs.

VIENNA, May 3.—A mob of 300 striking miners attacked the working colliers in the Theresia mine at Olmutz Moravia. The gendarmes with drawn swords repulsed them after a sharp fight and arrested the ringleaders.

A Bomb at Prague.

PRAGUE, May 3.—A bomb was found on a window-sill of the palace of Prince Hohenlohe. The bomb was fitted with an igniting device which reached to the ground, and which would, if touched by anyone passing by, have caused the bomb to explode. The bomb had evidently been on the window-sill all night. The police are investigating.

Cruel Man.

"Charlie," said the young wife tenderly, as she kissed him good by, preparatory to his going downtown, "the cook is taking a holiday to-day, and the dinner you will get when you come home will be entirely of my own cooking. It will be my first, Charlie dear, and won't it be lovely?"

She twittered softly at the thought, and Charles turned his face away so she could not see the lines upon it, for he loved this wife of his, and would not for worlds do or say aught to wound her feelings.

"Delightful," he responded, stroking her sunlit hair; "and I'll bring those good friends of ours, the pastor and the physician, along to be with us."

"Oh, Charlie," she exclaimed, "don't bring them; bring some of the young fellows,"

"I'd rather have them," he said.

"Now, dear," she pouted, "why not do as I want you to do? Why do you want them?"

Charles hesitated a moment and then took her hands in his own caressingly.

"Because, sweetheart," he explained, "this is your first effort, and I'd feel so much easier in my mind if they were both here."

"A wolf in sheep's clothing"—the substitute offered by the "cutter" as being just as good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If you don't want to be bitten, insist upon having Ayer's Sarsaparilla, even if it is a little dearer. Depend on it, it will be cheaper for you in the end.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

Indications Favorable to Cattlemen.

The supply of cattle is limited and only the present dullness and depression in business causes the diminished consumption of beef. This state of affairs can hardly extend beyond 1895. The calves dropped next year will not reach maturity until 1897 or 1898, and the prospects for those years are as good as for any future time. By selecting a good bull and carefully mating him with the best cows and heifers, the faithful cattleman may expect good results from this year's breeding. Good blood identified by a good pedigree must be sought in every instance. Choice sires and dams rightly fed and handled insure produce which will yield profitable returns. On the ranches or cheap pasture lands a good sire crossed on average females will usually give favorable returns, if all other necessary conditions are carefully complied with.

An Amusing Bit of Eulogy.

A Welsh paper, the Seren Cymru, has been composing an eulogy upon Mr. Gladstone which is noteworthy as an instance of what Mill might have called "unnecessary truth." After stating that "the range of his reading was wider than Spurgeon's" (which no one will be inclined to dispute), the "Cymric enthusiast proceeds to the following remarkable piece of frankness; "As an orator he has been to England what drunkenness was to Athens." Does the writer mean, asks the Pall Mall Gazette, that the ex-Premier has been intoxicating everyone else, as well as himself, with the exuberance of his own verbosity? Or should we, for "drunkenness," read "Demosthenes?" Printers have ere now tripped up writers and plunged them against their will into truth.

They Want Earlier Train Service.

COLLINGWOOD, April 19.—The Collingwood Board of Trade has decided, in connection with the Boards of Trade of Orillia, Penetang, Stayner, Thornbury, Meaford and Gravenhurst, to memorialize the managers of the Grand Trunk railway and ask for such changes in their time table as will at least give these towns a train one hour earlier in the forenoon. Passengers arriving on the first train in Meaford or Gravenhurst barely get time to dine before the train leaves for Toronto or intermediate stations, or they are obliged to stay over until next morning.

To Prevent Fire Popping.

Many persons employ open wood fires, for the pleasure they afford, and for the ventilation of the rooms. Some kinds of wood pop the burning coals on the carpets and produce much annoyance. To prevent this popping, turn the convex (or bark) side of the stick to the open room, and much of it will be prevented. Try the experiment on such wood as you happen to have.

Jewels of an Empress.

The Empress Elizabeth of Austria possesses a collection of jewels probably surpassed alone by that of the Empress of Russia. Besides the family gems, which are passed on from one Empress to the next, and are preserved in the Imperial treasury, the Empress possesses a collection of jewels, which have been presented to her by the Emperor and by foreign princes, valued at four or five million marks. The collection was catalogued and value estimated twenty six years ago, an operation which took six days to accomplish. The most beautiful of the ornaments is a necklace of three rows of pearls, which the Empress received from the Emperor after the birth of the Crown Prince Rudolf. These were at that time estimated at seventy-five thousand gulden. Now they are worth three hundred thousand gulden, as the pearl fisheries in Ceylon and Panama bar are steadily declining. The Empress Elizabeth no longer possesses all the jewels she had in 1866. Many of them have been presented to her daughters and friends.

The Dower Chest.

In Holland the dower chest once formed a part of every bride's equipment. Less portable, but more sightly than the "Saratoga" trunk, it fulfilled its purpose with grace and dignity, passing down as an heirloom from generation to generation. The modern chest is an easy thing to secure, but these the up-to-date girl holds in disdain; her chest must be really antique, of carved oak of English or Flemish make, or elaborately inlaid with marqueterie of colored woods and dated or initialed with figures and characters eloquent of other times and manners. There are very few of the genuine old-fashioned "dower chests" to be seen on this side of the Atlantic. One of them in this city is a very massive affair, weighing several hundred pounds.—Buffalo Commercial.

Manicuring.

No woman who confines her manicuring to a hasty use of a nail-brush and an occasional filing will ever have pretty nails. But she who takes a half hour once a week and ten minutes a day to the operation may have beautiful ones. First, the hands must be soaked in warm water, and when the skin about the nails is soft and pliable it should be pushed back and the little rough ends of cuticle smoothly cut off. The nails should be cleaned with soft orange-wood sticks, then they should be cut, shaped and filed smooth. A vigorous polishing simply with the chamois polisher and without any powders or unguents will leave them in a delightful condition.

My Toothache!

Is an exclamation heard every hour in the day. Toothache is the most common ailment of young or old, and in the aggregate inflicts more suffering than perhaps any other single complaint. A one minute cure is just what every person should possess. Nerviline—nerve pain cure—acts almost instantly in relieving the agony, and a sample bottle affords a quantity sufficient for 100 applications. 10 cents fills the bill. Poison's Nerviline is the only positive remedy for toothache and all nerve pains. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

I can highly praise Burdock Blood Bitters because it had a fair trial in my case with wonderful success. My symptoms were dropsy, backache and sleeplessness, and all these disappeared after using two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters. I cannot praise its healing powers too highly.

A DELEGATION TO OTTAWA.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL ENTHUSIASTS MEET.

The Decision of Wednesday's Convention was that a Strong Delegation be Sent to the Dominion Government to Urge on the Members the Necessity of Continuing the Work on the Canal.

In response to an invitaaion issued by Mayor Kendry and the council, nearly a score of delegates, representing the municipalities contiguous to the proposed line of the Trent Valley Canal, assembled yesterday afternoon in the council chamber to discuss the further prosecution of the work.

Those present in the council chamber were Messrs. R. Mulholland, J. H. Burnham, A.P. Poussette, Q.C., Robert Fair, H. Phelan, A. L. Davis, Councillors Dawson and Roger, R. B. Rogers, W. H. Robertson, Peterborough; Geo. Thompson, Mayor of Orillia; J. McFarlane, (Reeve), and Councillor Golden, Fenelon Falls; Councillor Smith, Ashburnham; E. Hawthorne, Reeve of Dummer; Capt. Bottum, (Warden of Victoria), Bobcaygeon; J. B. Horrel, (Mayor), and Councillor H. E. Macartney of Midland; Mr. Anderson, Reeve of Otonabee; Mr. Lancaster, Deputy-Reeve, Otonabee; Dr. Jacques, (Mayor), and Messrs. D. K. Murphy and G. W. Ostrom, Trenton; W. H. Casement, (Reeve), and Messrs. Lillicrap, R. C. Strickland, Capt. Reynolds and Dr. Frazer, Lakefield.

In the absence of the mayor, Councillor Cahill was requested to preside, and, as was proven before the business had reached an at all advanced stage, no wiser choice could possibly have been made. Every delegate who was present was drawn into the discussion by him.

Mr. Dennistoun was the first speaker to take the floor. He advanced the idea that, as the construction of the canal had never been made a political question, this was the reason why the scheme had languished. Until the idea was taken up and made a party question those interested could never hope to see anything accomplished. Not merely the local representatives in the Dominion House should be interested, but those representing the farmers of the North-West Territories (who could ship their grain much cheaper via the canal), and the buyers in the East, who would be interested in obtaining cheaper freight rates. He introduced the following resolution, which, after being seconded by Mr. R.C. Strickland, of Lakefield, was carried:

Whereas experience demonstrates that the Erie Canal is a powerful and controlling agency in bringing to New York city more of the western grain than all railways combined and is a powerful influence in keeping down freights, thus enriching the western producer; and whereas the waters of the Trent valley already by nature form a complete waterway for two-thirds of the route between Georgian Bay and the Bay of Quinte, with floating facilities equal to the Hudson River, and the remaining portion of the proposed canal having shores suitable for steam navigation, the whole forming a route with vast facilities for cheap carriage, therefore it is resolved that the construction of the Trent Valley Canal is expedient, and is demanded by the exigencies of trade and in the interests of the country.

In seconding the resolution Mr. Strickland stated that he was sorry to see so little interest taken in the scheme and when the occasion warranted the attendance of hundreds. The only reason why the Government did not advance the work was that the members thought the people had given up the idea. Feelers had been sent out and the government had decided that the people who would be affected by the canal were not unanimous in asking for the prosecution of the work. He thought that if the Government were besieged by a strong deputation and the fact that the people were awakened to the necessity for a canal was brought home to them, doubtless the wish would be gratified, as naturally the Government knew the strong support which it always had and naturally always would receive from this section of the country.

The following letter from the Minister of Railways and Canals, to Mr. James Stevenson, M.P., was read several times during the meeting in order to let every delegate know that Hon. Mr. Haggart was watching their interests:—

OTTAWA, May 1st, 1894.

MY DEAR STEVENSON,—I have to day received your letter enclosing copy of a resolution of the town council of the town of Peterborough, in regard to the Trent Valley Canal, which was adopted at a meeting of the council here on the 9th ultimo.

You are aware that I am deeply interested in the scheme, and it is my intention to ask my colleagues to approve of a certain amount being placed in the estimates for the purpose of doing something towards placing a section of the work under construction during the coming year. When the estimates come down I shall be able to tell you whether I have been successful or not.

Faithfully yours,
JOHN HAGGART.

JAS. STEVENSON, M.P.P.,
House of Commons, Ottawa.

Mr. Daniel Murphy, of Trenton, stated that when any scheme was on hand in the way of working up any idea for the forwarding of the canal that Trenton could be depended upon. He was disappointed that the government did not view the necessity of the cause in the same light as the people. He couldn't understand how any government could neglect the wants and desires of such an influental portion of the country. He didn't think it advisable to make a political scheme out of the question. He furthermore advised as the no action be taken until the delegates assembled in Ottawa, as he supposed that a delegation would of course be sent down. No help could be expected from the east. He did'nt know about the west but he had tried before to get help from them and failed.

CONVENTION WAS SO SMALL

Mr. R. Mulholland thought assistance would come from the west as the premier of the N.W.T. was an old Peterborough boy with the interests of his home at heart yet. The last delegation which went to Ottawa about this business was well received and received a pledge from Sir John A. Macdonald of assistance. Unfortunately the country hadn't a Sir John A. at Ottawa now. He then moved the following resolution which was adopted:—

Whereas the trade of the west continues to develop year by year, surpassing all expectations, and is yet only a fraction of what the capabilities of the country promise, and whereas that trade now taxes all conveying facilities and further facilities are called for, as well to accommodate the trade as to keep down rates and direct that trade to Canadian routes, be it therefore resolved that the Dominion Government be urged to carry out the recommendations of the Royal Commission by the Dominion Parliament appointed and proceed with the construction of the canal.

Mr. J. H. Burnham; Mayor Jaques, of Trenton; Warden Shaw, of the county; Captain Bottum, warden of Victoria county; and Major Thompson, of Orillia, all spoke in favour of sending a deputation to Ottawa.

Mr. McFarlane, of Fenelon Falls, mentioned the fact that what work had been done was all going into disrepair on account of not being properly kept up. The Ontario and Dominion Government authorities clashed in attempting to regulate the waters. If either Government could take hold and run it alone it would be much better.

The reeve of Methuen spoke a few words and made way for Mr. Ostrom, ex-M.P.P., of Trenton. He also blamed the inactivity of those interested for the neglect by the Government of its pledges given by Sir John A. Macdonald. There was no fear of the work being discontinued, he stated, as it was of too great a magnitude to be allowed to stand still.

Mr. Dan. Murphy rose again to make the statement that a large proportion of the land for the canal would be given to help the scheme along.

Mr. G. M. Roger thought that if the Government were given to understand that unless it took hold and did something that a government would be put in that would help on the canal, it might have a good effect.

The following resolution, moved by Mr. Ostrom and Captain Bottum, was passed:

That in the opinion of this meeting a request should be made of all the municipalities within and contiguous to the line of the canal to send a large deputation to wait upon the Dominion Government at an early date and urge immediate steps to be taken to carry forward the construction of the canal as promised.

Mr. A. P. Poussette thought any delegation which went to Ottawa should impress upon the government that the work contemplated was of national and not merely local importance. He would like to see a large deputation from every point along the line of the proposed canal go down.

Among other speakers who were anxious to see a delegation go to Ottawa were Mr. Golden, of Fenelon Falls; the reeve of Dummer; Mr. McCarty, of Midland; and Mr. H. T. Strickland.

Mr. J. B. Horrell, mayor of Midland, would like to have the delegation which went to Ottawa charge the government with given by the Macdonald Administration and ask the members plainly for a direct statement as to whether the canal was to be abandoned or not.

GOING BACK ON THE PLEDGES

Mr. Robert Fair, president of the local Board of Trade, and Mr. Robert Frazer, of Lakefield, both thought it was a case of "ask and ye shall receive."

Mr. Lillicrap, of Lakefield, was sure it would be very difficult to persuade his council to send a deputation to Ottawa, as although they got plenty of promises last time, they went to Ottawa on this same business, yet they came away disappointed. The council in Lakefield thought it all merely a political scheme and wouldn't think it worth while to send another deputation. Mr. James Stevenson had promised before his election to get the canal for the people, but though he had talked about it enough before election, he had not mentioned it since. He had said in his (Mr. Lillicrap's) hearing that if the Government wouldn't take up the scheme he in the House, but nothing more had been heard of this heroic resolve. He would say no more on the matter, as the subject of his remarks was not present.

WOULD RESIGN HIS SEAT.

Among other speakers which followed were Messrs. H. Phelan, A. L. Davis, John Smith, of Ashburnham, and Councillor Dawson.

Messrs. G. M. Roger and Dr. Jacques were successful in passing the following motion:

That the municipalities interested in the Trent Valley Canal scheme be advised to memorialize the Government, through their representatives, as to the duty of the Government and the views of the people in regard to the matter.

Messrs D. R. Murphy and H. Phelan moved the appended resolution, which was passed:—

That the Mayor of Peterborough be respectfully requested to name an early date for the attendance of a deputation to Ottawa re Trent Valley Canal and advise the heads of the municipalities interested.

A cordial vote of thanks was then tendered Councillor Cahill for the very able manner in which he had presided over the meeting, after which the delegates accepted an invitation to ride over the electric car system. The Canadian General Electric Company's works were visited, where Manager Stevens courteously took the visitors in hand.

THE BUCHANAN CASE.

Equal to a Resurrection Almost Helpless from Kidney Disease—A Burden to Himself and His Friends—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Chatham, April 30.—The story of Sherman Buchanan, living near Leamington, is worthy of notice. He says he was almost helpless, bloated and a wreck with kidney disease. His digestive organs were powerless and he was rapidly becoming a burden to himself and his friends. Naturally he lost all hopes of recovery, but a happy thought suggested Dodd's Kidney Pills, and these cured him. Dodd's was the first Kidney remedy in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

STILL IN SESSION.

The R.B.A. Elects and Installs its Grand Lodge Officials—D. A. Carey Again Elected Grand President.

The Grand Lodge of the Emerald Beneficial Society still continues in session, but will probably conclude its work this evening. Yesterday afternoon the following officers were elected:—

Grand Chaplain—Monsignor Rooney, Toronto.
Grand President—Mr. D. A. Carey, Toronto.
Grand Vice-President—Mr. T. F. Gould, London.
Secretary-Treasurer and Organizer—Mr. W. Lane, Toronto.
Marshall—Mr. J. Fahey, Toronto.
Guard—Mr. N. J. Curran, Hamilton.
Medical Adviser—Dr. W. McKeown, Toronto.

DEPUTY ORGANIZERS.

Mr. J. F. X. O'Meara, Ottawa District.
Mr. C. E. Leany, Almonte District.
Mr. W. J. Devlin, Peterborough District.
Mr. J. J. Nightingale, Toronto District.
Mr. N. J. Curran, Hamilton District.
Mr. T. F. Gould, London District.
Mr. J. J. Haggerty, Stratford District.

Executive Committee—Messrs. D. Shea, Angus McDonald, W. Mahoney, Dr. McGrath, Arthur McGinn.

The officers were duly installed at the evening session by Dr. McGrath.

The next convention will be held at West Toronto Junction on the first Tuesday in May, 1895.

During this session of the Grand Lodge many minor changes have been made in the constitution. At last evening's session there was a large turn-out of the members of the local lodge. The auditors' report, which was most satisfactory, was received and adopted, as were the reports of the Secretary and Treasurer, which were also of a highly pleasing nature, showing the advance of the interests of the order all along the line.

Votes of thanks were passed for courtlses extended, to Rev. Father Soollard, His Grace the Archbishop, Bishop O'Connor, Vicar-General McCann, and the hierarchy in general, the local press and the local branch of the order.

The question of changing the name of the order was left over to be discussed at the next meeting of the grand lodge, and it is hoped all the brethren will come to a decision regarding this matter before that time, so that their delegates may be fully instructed what stand to take in the matter.

AN OLD CUSTOMER'S THANKS
—TO—
H. LEBRUN & CO.

Upon receiving one of their nice Memorandum Books.

—:o:—

I on the market square did walk
To see the sights and hear the talk,
A young man tapped me on the back
Saying this will suit you, Sir.

The free gift from his hand I took
Within it I did carefully look,
A pretty Memorandum Book
From H. LeBrun & Co., Sir.

The present I did not refuse
It's pages I will often use,
When I find topics for the muse
LeBrun's book will contain them.

Its cover red conspicious shows
Where we can purchase good cheap clothes,
In every house where that book goes
Is full of praise and wonder.

The back; a nice time table bore
Months, weeks and days for ninety-four,
The street and number of the store
By honest, stylish clothiers.

Its leaves are ruled two ways in blue
To mark each day's transactions true,
And keep our memories fresh for two
Cheap and reliable clothiers.

'Tis prized by farmer's wives like gold
She marks her eggs and butter sold,
By her the husband plain is told
From you to buy his clothing.

It sets the young boys on tip toe
They dream about LeBrun & Co.,
And cry with their papa to go
For cheap suits you are offering.

It suits the times, it takes the eye
On prices marked we may rely,
Points to the place where all can buy
Cheap suits—or made to order.

It is near twenty years and two
Since I bought the first suit from you,
Through all those years I found you true
In word, in deed and clothing.

Your goods, your name stand high to-day
No empty puff nor false display,
Your customers trust what you do say
When buying from you their clothing.

Though small in size its power is great
Low prices strong desires create,
Each seems afraid of being too late
For cheap suits you were offering.

I hope its fruits you will behold
Increasing sales one hundred fold
Till not one suit remains unsold
Of your large stock of clothing.

Sheriff's Sale of Land.

COUNTY OF PETERBOROUGH TO WIT.

BY VIRTUE OF SEVERAL WRITS OF Fieri Facias issued out of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice for Ontario, and to me directed and delivered at the suits of William Cluxton and others, plaintiffs, and against the lands and tenements of Frederick Ernest Burnham, defendant, I have seized and taken in execution and will offer for sale at my office, in the Court House, in the town of Peterborough, on Friday, the 18th day of May, 1894,

at 11 o'clock a.m., all the estate, right, title and interest of the said Frederick Ernest Burnham of, in and to all and singular those certain tracts of lands and premises hereinafter described, viz:—

1. Park Lot No. 4, in Township Lot 13, Con. 13, Township of Monaghan, (except the south 33 feet thereof now forming part of King street west), now in the Town of Peterborough.

2. Park Lot 5, in Township Lot 13, Con. 13, Monaghan, (except the small part thereof now forming part of Charlotte street as extended west), now forming part of the Town of Peterborough.

3. Lots Numbers 1 and 2 south of Simcoe street and west of George street, in the Town of Peterborough, containing one-half acre each more or less.

4. 84 feet more or less frontage on Water street, being part of Town Lot Number One, south of London street and east of Water street, described as follows:—commencing at a point on the east side of Water street 63 feet south of the north-west corner of said lot, thence south along Water street to a point 45 feet north of the south-west corner of said lot, thence easterly in a line parallel with the north limit of said lot, thence northerly along the east limit of said lot to a point 63 feet south from the north-east corner of said lot, and thence westerly in a line parallel with the north boundary of said lot to the place of beginning.

5. Lot 5 (less that part thereof sold to the Midland Railway of Canada), Lot 6 and the south half of Lot 7 south of Antrim street and west of George street in the Town of Peterborough.

6. Lot No. 22 as shown on Registered Plan No. 49 for the Town of Peterborough, situate on the West side of Park street, at its junction with Brock street together with a right of road 10 feet wide along the south side thereof.

CUT TO THE BONE
Mantles and Capes.

Tell your friends, tell your neighbours, tell even your enemies—about our WONDERFUL SALE now going on.
Every new Mantle, every new Cape, every new Wrap—must go—hence and forthwith—and "stand not upon the order of going,"—but go at once.
To cut once—and cut deeply—is better than to hack away, little by little—so this blow is to the bone. Read how facts and figures go hand-in-hand:—

Our $15 00 Mantle.....	goes for	$11	65
Our 12 00 Mantles & Capes	"	9	50
Our 11 00	" "	8	40
Our 8 75	" "	6	25
Our 8 00	" "	5	75
Our 6 75	" "	5	25
Our 4 00	" "	3	00

We sold yesterday a $12.50 Mantle, handsomely embroidered, full sleeves, for $4.00.
There's no likelihood that the pick of Paris and Berlin Mantles will ever again be so absurdly low. Not a coat in the lot but is to-day worth twice or may be thrice times the price.
But, "It's Fair's Way."

A BLOW AT THE
Dress Goods.

Dress Goods are the vertebræ of our dry goods stock. As the marrow to the vertebræ, so are our MATCHLESS VALUES. Bettering our best is our effort all the time.
1894 stands pre-eminent for sales and attractive bargains in Dress Goods. The splendid success of our sales justifies our policy of marvelously low prices during the pinching hard times, and our new scale of prices is drawing the crowds:—

20 pieces 45 inch Serge, all colours, worth 50c., for 40c.
10 pieces 40 inch Gray and Fawn Bedieges, worth 60c., for 35c.
6 pieces 46 inch Satin Cloth, imported to sell at 80c., now 60c.
10 pieces Coloured Cashmeres, worth 50c, for 35c.
6 pieces Coloured Diagonal Serge, worth 40c, sale price 25c.
12 pieces Coloured Serge, all wool at 25c
10 pieces Printed All Wool Delaines, 30 to 35 inches, worth from 40c. to 60c., for 25c.

This is a time for few words. We put all our eloquence into prices and qualities.
"It's Fair's Way."

Customers are heard to say:—"Fair's getting a great run on Carpets." Carpet cutting is certainly more rapid than we expected. This is just the way we want it. We deal in Rich Carpets and Rugs. The fourth floor is loaded with Floor Coverings. We are leaders in prices and new colourings. Prices cut to the bone.
April and May are the months for carpet cleaning. Perhaps your carpet is worn out. Sweeping won't help it. A carpet bought now will save you 20 per cent. "It's Fair's Way."

MILLINERY STIR.

Just now there's more interest than usual going on in our Millinery Department. There is a marked increase in sales, and our new revised prices seems to "startle the oldest in habitant." The special attractions in our Millinery Parlours are the new designs in Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets for Ladies, Children's Hats, &c. Novelties in beautiful soft roses with foliage in all colours, and other flowers, together with New Ribbons, Feathers and Trimmings.
But the popular prices all round is what is doing the effective selling of the season, and nobody accuses us of charging too much.
But, "It's Fair's Way."

NO HOUSE BUYS BETTER.
NO HOUSE SELLS LOWER.
The rush is now on. Join the crowd.

TURNBULL'S
Gloves
. . AND . .
Hosiery.

The time of year is now upon us when we begin to think of new Gloves and Hosiery. We would like to call your attention to our magnificent stock fresh from the German factories. There are several points about our Gloves we want you to notice. First, by buying from a factory direct they are at bottom prices, and having them made to order we pay particular attention to the cut and have the fingers made to fit the hand, which you will have noticed is often not the case in ordinary goods; also our colours were selected to match the shades of dress goods being worn this season, and every pair is properly sized the same as Kid Gloves. A full range of Lisle Thread Taffata Gloves and Silk in black and colours. We have one job line we are clearing at 25c., worth from 30 to 50c.
In Hosiery there is a growing demand for coloured goods. We have imported and placed in stock a choice range of all the best shades made extra long, perfectly fast dyes. Also the new striped goods which are coming in again. In Black Cotton we commence them at 5c. a pair. They are shaped and seamless and indestructible fast dye. A job line of Black Cashmere in ribbed and plain at 21c. for Children's and 25c. for Ladies. These goods are less than cost of manufacture but we bought them at a sacrifice and are giving our customers the benefit.
Owing to the fact that we were likely to have a close season on account of the low prices and scarcity of money we bought lightly and consequently have no large lots of our own to sacrifice, and are open to secure bargains from wholesale houses who are overstocked and can therefore afford to offer new goods at much closer prices than usual.
See the special lines we will have ready for our bargain day Wednesday, May 2nd. Wool Delaines at 15, 20, 25 and 28.
Gingham, 1 yard wide, good patterns for Aprons, only 8½c.
Armure Dress Cloth, summer shades, at 27c., worth 60c.
Self Coloured Striped Dress Goods, only 27c., regular price 50c.
Black Henrietta, 45 inches wide, fine finish, good weight, at 44c. a yard, regular price 70c.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE

Discussion of the Registration Bill Occupies the Whole Sitting.

PROTECTION FOR ABSENTEES

Provision Made for the Registration of Voters Who Would Not Be Able to Appear Within the Stated Time—The Redistribution Bill.

TORONTO, May 4,—Previous to the Legislature rising yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, after passing the whole night in consideration of the registration bill, Mr. Meredith moved several amendments to the bill, which were left for the consideration of the Government during the time occupied by recess.
The morning session commenced at 11 o'clock. The third reading of the bill to amend the Street Railway Act was moved.
The bill was allowed to stand.

The Registration Bill.

The House went again into committee on the registration bill.
Hon. Mr. Hardy explained the nature of the amendments the Government were prepared to make. It was thought there should be a chairman selected in advance of the meeting of the Boards of Registration, as there was considerable initiatory work to do. The Government suggested that they appoint a chairman pro tem, leaving the board to select a permanent chairman. It was intended to make provision so that owners and tenants who lost their right to vote should be able to register on the manhood suffrage lists. The Government were also willing to add a provision permitting the registration of any person outside of the classes of persons already set forth, who was unavoidably absent from the county or city in the prosecution of his bona fide necessary business for more than 30 days prior to the sitting of registration boards, and at the time of application, and who would not return in the four days fixed for making registration, to register, on satisfactory proof, by two witnesses, one of whom shall be a grown-up member of his family, or by a business partner, or partners, or some person living in the district by whom he is well known. With respect to setting apart a certain time for workmen to register, that might be arranged for.
Mr. Meredith considered the Government had not met the propositions suggested by the Conservative side to the extent they should have. He pressed it upon the Government that persons who were upon the voters' lists for municipal and parliamentary elections, and who had since lost their right to vote entirely, should be stricken off. With respect to absentees the hon. gentleman proposed to surround the clause with a good many conditions. He did not think the limit of 30 days was sufficient, and he thought the provisions requiring two witnesses to vouch for the applicant was altogether too drastic. A most important amendment, which he would like to see adopted, was in regard to the provision by which the Government took to itself the power to apportion the eight registrars as they pleased among the four divisions into which the city was to be divided. The provision as it stood might, in the hands of a corrupt Government, enable them to select subservient officials, who in a close constituency might use their power in the Government's interest. He urged the amendment of the provision by making actual bona fide residence in the electoral district at the time of election, or the issue of the writ, and three months' previous continual residence within the city, sufficient qualification. Another point was in regard to permitting the names of persons on the voters' lists, and supplementary voters' lists prepared by the city clerk and assessment commissioner, to be entered on the lists under the registration bill, unless there was good reason to believe the names were improperly there, when the persons in question should personally appear and establish the right for their names to appear on the list.
Sir Oliver Mowat, replying, said that with reference to the power of appointment by the Government of registrars amongst the various divisions that this principle was recognized under the laws at present, which required that the returning officers should be registrars or sheriffs, who are the appointees of the Government. He was afraid that if the residential qualifications were lessened it would lead to "colonizing," which the Government were very anxious to avoid. In reference to the proposition that the fact of a man's name being on the lists prepared as prima facie evidence of his right to a vote unless this right appears to be dubious, Sir Oliver pointed out that it involved enormous labor and the method proposed in the bill was much simpler.
Hon. Mr. Hardy referred to the fact that other voters who were on the assessment roll had to reside in a city for nine months, as an argument that to require a 30 days' residence in an electoral district was not a very great hardship.
Hon. Mr. Ross moved to add a provision to clause three of the bill, to the effect that in any case where the voters' lists under the Supplementary Voters' Lists Act of 1893 has not been certified to by the clerk of the peace, and the list prepared under the Voters' List Act of 1889 is the last filed with the clerk, then, only those persons possessing the combined municipal and legislative qualifications shall be entitled to vote, and those under the manhood suffrage division of the Act certified under the Voters' List Act of 1889 shall not vote, but the manhood suffrage list shall be framed under the registration bill.
This provision is to apply only to the cities of Toronto and St. Catharines, where the revision of this year's lists have not been completed.
Discussion of this motion continued until the House rose for luncheon.

Afternoon Sitting.

After luncheon, Mr. Hardy moved the third reading of the bill relating to mines and mining.
Mr. Whitney moved an amendment to the bill. Mr. Hardy moved an amendment to the amendment, which carried on a division of 37 to 14.
The third reading was carried.
The bill respecting the election of licensees of timber limits to the Legislative Assembly was read a third time.

Again the Registration Bill.

The House went into committee on the registration bill.
Sir Oliver Mowat said in connection with the revision of the municipal lists, said he would do all he could to facilitate the speedy revision by the county judge.
Mr. Meredith wanted the appointment of registrars for the four divisions into which the city is to be divided, put in the hands of the Board of Registrar, and not to retain the power in their own hands. Otherwise, he said, there was danger of the power being corruptly used to influence the elections.
Sir Oliver Mowat asked that the question be allowed to stand, and in the meantime he would think over it.

Evening Sitting.

After recess the House resumed discussion of the registration bill.
Hon. Mr. Ross moved to act as subsection 2 of section 6, that no registrar or registrar's clerk appointed under the bill should be eligible for election to the Legislative Assembly, when he had been engaged in the preparation of the lists for such election.
Mr. Meredith asked that these officials also be debarred from voting at any election where the voters' lists used were those they had been engaged in preparing.
Hon. Mr. Ross accepted the suggestion, and the motion as amended passed.
Clause seventeen was amended by providing that the ex-officio registrars shall be assigned to the different districts by the board of registration instead of by the Government.
Another amendment was made increasing the number of registration sub-divisions in each electoral district from four to six, thus making twenty-four in all in Toronto.
The clause was amended so as to enable the registrar to decide on the spot on the affidavit of the applicant, his answers to questions, and any evidence then produced for him.
The clause providing that applicants for registration might be photographed by or at the request of an agent was struck out.
A section was added to the bill making its provisions applicable only to the cities of Toronto and St. Thomas at the next elections.
It was also provided in another clause that the voters' lists containing the names of owners and tenants must be revised before June 5 next in Toronto and St. Thomas by the county judge.
The bill as amended was then reported.

Redistribution Bill.

Hon. Mr. Gibson moved the second reading of the redistribution bill.
Mr. Meredith said there would be some criticism of the bill from the Opposition side. He himself intended to attack the bill on account of the provisions with respect to Ottawa. It was therefore undesirable that the bill should now receive more than the second reading.
The bill was then read a second time.
The House adjourned at 11.45.

Injured by a Runaway Car.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 4.—A Polander employed in the Henry colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., allowed a loaded car to run away. A number of miners and laborers who were passing through the gangway at the time were struck by the car and three were fatally injured. A Polander named Walaski had his whole side crushed in; Anthony Duffy had four ribs broken, and Cornelius Conahan, shoulder blade broken and internally injured.

Want the Tariff Bill Rushed.

NEW YORK, May 4.—A monster meeting was held in Cooper Union to press against the delay in passing the tariff bill. The concensus of opinion was that the Democrat senators mainly were responsible. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Reform Club, but behind it giving it their hearty support stood the bankers, brokers, merchants and business men. Irrespective of party politics the foremost of the lawyers, statesmen and business men of the city were present.

They Have a Secret Designation.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 4.—The Supreme Council of the A. P. A. began its annual session here with 800 delegates present, representing every state and territory in the Union, Canada, England and Australia. In the English-speaking countries outside of the United States, the order is known as the Protestant Protective Association or by other names. A prominent member of the order states that its real name is not known to the public nor to more than 100 of the 1,500,000 members.

Silver Senators and Bi-Metalism.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 4.—Senator Wolcott of Colorado, speaking of the absence of the names of western silver senators from the cable message sent to the London bi-metallic conference, said this did not indicate their disapproval of the scheme. On the contrary they were glad of it, but the names attached to the message were only those of men recognized in England as the advocates of gold monometallism in this country.

Relieving the Stricken Grecians.

ATHENS, May 4.—A Russian warship has left large quantities of bread at several ports recently damaged by the earthquakes and has landed timber to be used in building huts for families which have been made homeless. A strong shock which was felt throughout Greece last night completed the demolition of many houses already half wrecked, but, as far as is known, did not cause any deaths.

Japs in British Columbia.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 4.—In consequence of the large number of Japanese laborers arriving here of late, and the limited demand for their labor, many are out of employment. A meeting of Japanese was held last night, at which the Japanese consul presided. It was decided to inform the Japanese government of the condition of the labor market in order that it may restrict further emigration.

MAGGIE REID TESTIFIES

Her Sensational Story of the Alleged Poisoning at Sharon.

SOME DAMAGING ADMISSIONS

Two Counts in the Indictment Against the Three Prisoners. Both of Which Are to Be Tried at Once—Attempted Murder and Conspiracy.

TORONTO, May 4.—The trial of the Sharon poisoning case was began yesterday at the assizes. The indictment contains two charges against the three prisoners, Lottie Evans, Charles Pegg and George Osmond, the first being that of attempting to murder Walter Evans and the other of conspiring together to administer poison. A jury was secured without trouble, only four being challenged.
The first witness in the case and the most important one was the domestic, Margaret Reid, who took the stand in the afternoon and told her story. Her evidence was much to the same effect as that given by her at the preliminary trial. She had heard Mrs. Evans send Osmond to Bradford and when he returned he handed her a bottle containing "something that looked like salts." Osmond bought the oysters given to Evans for his dinner on January 2, and she had heard Pegg say some time previously that "the only way now would be to try it in oysters."
Mrs. Evans dished up the oysters for herself and Evans. The latter ate some, and, remarking that they were bitter, left the room. Mrs. Evans afterwards went out, and shortly after called on her (witness) and Osmond to come with her and see what was the matter with "Walt." They found him with his jaws set and "jerking and twitching and appeared to have the cramps." They put him to bed and sent for a doctor. The two plates of oysters were thrown out. Mrs. Evans had cautioned her not to put them with the swill, and went herself and placed dirt and snow over them.
She then related that the woman sent Osmond to Bradford again, after the oyster supper, and she (witness) heard Osmond say that he told the druggist at Bradford that "he wanted it to poison foxes." She saw Osmond hand Mrs. Evans a small bottle "with the same kind of stuff as was in the bottle before; it sparkled like salt." After Osmond's second visit to Bradford Mrs. Evans took some powders the doctor had left and put them in her room. Then she put a powder on a table and told Maggie that if Mr. Evans' sister or anyone asked for a powder for him he should be given the one she (his wife) pointed out. He was given that powder and became worse; his relatives and the doctor were sent for; the same symptoms were present in Mr. Evans as when he ate the oysters. She had heard the doctor mention poison and had told this to Mrs. Evans. She said, 'My God, they're not mentioning poison, are they?' She told her if Evans would die before Saturday they would not know he was poisoned.
Witness then proceeded to relate that Mrs. Evans had bribed her not to tell what she knew, and that she had promised not to unless she had to. She told of intimate relations between Mrs. Evans and Pegg and had heard the former express a desire to get rid of her husband. Intense interest is taken in the girl's story. The prisoners listened all through the recital with undisturbed interest, and showed no perturbation whatever, although such damaging evidence was being given against them.

United States Smallpox.

LONDON, May 4.—The announcement that smallpox is epidemic in New York, Chicago and other cities of the United States, coupled with the confirmatory statement that the Dominion Government had imposed quarantine regulations on the frontier, has already had a visible effect in restricting travel in the direction of America. Six tourists booked in one leading office for Canada via New York cancelled their passages and the prospects are that their example will be followed.

Tourists Still Imprisoned.

GRATZ, May 4.—The tourists who were imprisoned by the floods in a cave at Lublock, Syria, have not been released. Tourists from all parts of Austria are gathering at the cave and are trying to hasten the work of rescue. The efforts to force a small entrance to the cave have failed, as floating wood has collected as fast as men have removed the old wreckage.

Carpet Workers on Strike.

LOWELL, Mass., May 4.—All the ingrain workers of the Lowell Carpet Company have gone out because the company would not grant their request to run the mill more than thirty hours per week nor advance wages 10 per cent. The number of hands involved is nearly 500. The 10 per cent. advance asked is 7 per cent. less than the recent cut down.

Brampton Gas House Burned.

BRAMPTON, Ont., May 4.—Last night the Brampton gas house was discovered to be on fire. The fireman, fearing an explosion, lost some time before they began to turn on water. The whole premises were saturated with coal oil and burned fiercely for two hours and is practically a total wreck. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Railroad Strike in Ireland.

DUBLIN, May 4.—The employes of the Great Northern railroad of Ireland have given twenty-four hours' notice of a general strike. Their dispute with the directors concerns hours and wages, and all efforts to settle it by conference have failed.

Mining Troubles in Duluth.

DULUTH, Minn., May 4.—The militia which arrived at Virginia found everything quiet. Early in the day several hundred of the unruly miners had gathered and taken oath they would kill the first man who went to work. No further trouble is feared.

Frontenac Patrons.

KINGSTON, Ont., May 4.—The Patrons of Industry of Frontenac county have nominated J. L. Haycock, of Cataraqui, as their candidate for the Local House.

THE TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

THE new Trent Valley Canal propoganda is attracting some little attention. The Review in referring to the matter says, "never mind small-minded and bigotted Reform newspapers which seek to stand in the way and belittle this effort." No paper of that class belittles the effort. There is not a Reform paper in this district that is not in sympathy with further construction on the Trent Valley Canal, a great and desirable work, but which has heretofore has been too much of a political plaything. The Dominion Government after about $300,000 had been spent on works, of only local benefit, without more extended work, took refuge from the public reproach for their inaction in a commission and appointed commissioners to investigate the subject. The report of the commission was favourable and the Government stand especially pledged to a continuation of the work. If the Government will not carry out its pledge upon principle, it is not likely, in the face of Finance Minister Foster's declaration that expenditure on capital account must cease, that it will be moved by deputations The only way to rouse the Government is for the electors to show that its broken promises are resented by the electors. So long as the constituencies along the route of the Trent Valley Canal send a solid delegation to support the Government the latter will snap their fingers at all other delegations which are not eligible to share in the nose-counting on a division in the House. Besides, a deputation can only, at the best, extract another promise, whose par value will only last till after the next Dominion elections and then another season of inaction, another propaganda and more delegations and more expense to the municipalities. The proper and, undoubtedly, most effective way to bring the Government to their senses is through the ballot at the polls. The Government will doubtless take refuge in a falling revenue and say that the finances of the country will not permit of the expenditure. If the hundreds of thousands, that have been corruptly squandered on the Curran Bridge over and above what was necessary, had been devoted to further work on the Trent Valley Canal, a considerable stretch of new work would have been completed. Our local contemporary thinks the present is an opportune time to press the matter, in view of the friendly feeling towards the canal professed by Hon. John Haggart. If it were the Tay canal now, there might be something in this point; or, if Mr. Haggart could be induced to buy a mill on the route of the Trent Valley Canal, there would be a much better chance for an appropriation.

THE CURRAN BRIDGE AFFAIR.

The Ottawa Evening Journal is an honest paper, but it talks a little like a mere organ, commenting on events with its eyes shut to the sins of the party when it says "the story of the Curran bridge looks like the worst set-back to the idea of doing public work by day labour instead of by contract that has been known on this continent." It will be remembered that about the worst fraud in connection with the building of the Wellington bridge was that by which a Government contractor who had received the contract for supplying the day labour, charged unskilled labour to the Government as skilled labour. The fact of the matter is the spoils system was at the bottom of the extravagance and fraud involved in this work. The contract for the day labour was given to Mr. St. Louis, the contractor, because he was a Conservative politician and was a friend and relative of one of the ministers. The superintendent of the canal, who is condemned by the report for inexperience, was appointed to his position simply because he was the son of a prominent Conservative politician, and was recommended to the position by Conservatives for purely political reasons. Surely, remarks the Montreal Witness, the Journal does not hold that the contract system as managed by the present government at Ottawa has been free from extravagance and corruption and fraud. There is no possible system by which public works can be carried out economically and purely by a corrupt and extravagant administration. Any and every system under such an administration works badly. The day labour system has been found economical and effective by the London County Council, which has employed it during the last few years in carrying through some of the greatest works that have been undertaken by it. Lord Roseberry, in commenting upon the success of the system before the council recently, declared that it had been equally successful where employed by the Imperial Government, and that an extension of it was under contemplation.

THE Canadian Presbyterian ask why Mr. John Charlton, M.P., could not be made Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly. The Presbyterian praises his work in Parliament and adds: "He always fought bravely and well. He supports every good cause liberally. He made a strong but unsuccessful effort a few years ago to unite some of our Divinity Halls, and when he failed, instead of sulking, as a good many men would have done, he subscribed a thousand dollars for the endowment of one of them. That was a noble thing to do while smarting under defeat. It seems the essence of absurdity to say while the most useless stick of a theological professor, or a pastor who has shown little capacity for anything but keeping congregations small, or an ecclesiastical pugilist who has never been out of a fight of some kind, may be elected Moderator in any Presbyterian church in the world, an elder, however, capable, influential and consecrated, is not eligible. There will be change some day soon, and the teaching elders would do a graceful thing by making the change without any pressure. The most orthodox Presbyterian church in the world, the Southern Presbyterian, has made it already.'

BY vigorous pounding the Liberals have forced Mr. Foster to reduce the duty on coal oil from 7½c. per imperial gallon to 6c It is only a bagatelle, but it is one more indication that the Government is on the run.

RIVER STE. ANNE DISASTER.

Inhabitants Fear a Recurrence of the Recent Terrible Cataclysm.

QUEBEC, May 4.—Judging from all the reports of the disaster at St. Albans so far to hand, it is pretty evident that the cataclysm was entirely due to the undermining of the ground by water above the falls where the earth was thrown into the river and completely shut off the water, which was damned back till a depth of seventy-five feet was reached. Then the river changed its course and washed away the earth for a mile and a half long and about a mile wide and to a depth of 100 feet. There were seven houses carried away and four lives lost, besides a great number of domestic animals. The river has been effectually blocked and obliged to make a detour of at least three-quarters of a mile from its former course, and does not regain its ancient bed for two miles down the old stream.

There is said to be great danger of another terrible disaster at any moment. Yesterday, to the general surprise, the water in the St. Anne river was found to have fallen several feet, but when the true cause of this sudden diminution of its volume was ascertained, alarm once more took the place of joy among the local population. It was discovered that the river had again become blocked and that a gigantic dam had formed above the Church of St. Alban, backing the water and giving rise to a regular lake of several miles in length and breadth with a depth of nearly 150 feet. When this dam gives way, as it is feared it may at any moment, the consequences will be terrible, if not worse than on Friday last. The inhabitants, however, have taken their precautions and have removed from the neighborhood.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, May 4, 1894.

Bank clearings at Toronto for the week were more favorable. The total is $5,570,570, as compared with $4,977,344 last week and $6,187,358 the corresponding week of last year.

Bradstreet's reports bank clearings for the week as follows: Friday, $142,766; Saturday, $240,241; Monday, $242,500; Tuesday, $201,821; Wednesday, $190,665; Thursday, $209,934. Total, $1,237,930.

At the London wool sales yesterday 5,800 bales of fair quality were offered. The offerings contained fewer cross breds, but whatever of this grade was offered sold freely, chiefly to the home trade.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—The market continues dull. Oats unchanged, with one load selling at 41c. Wheat unchanged, one load of white selling at 62c, red quoted at 61c and goose at 58c. Peas are nominal at 64 to 64½c, and barley at 42c.

In Chicago more time was devoted to the discussion of damage to wheat from insects than to the transaction of business. The market was firm. There was a good cash demand, some wheat being taken for export.

Except in the case of American Sugar the tendency of prices at the New York Stock Exchange was downward. An active demand for refined sugar and favorable Washington rumors combined with bull manipulations led to the rise. The other industrials were firm. The railway list was weak throughout. The market was adversely influenced by the shipment of $1,500,000 gold, and a belief that about $4,000,000 additional will be exported tomorrow.

The man who called sarsaparilla a fraud, had good reason; for he got hold of a worthless mixture at "reduced rates." He changed his opinion, however, when he began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It pays to be careful, when buying medicines.

MARCELLA.

A Review of Mrs. Humphrey Ward's Latest Book.

Not since the days of Dickens and Thackeray and George Eliot, have any author's books been so eagerly anticipated, as those of Mrs. Humphrey Ward. When "Robert Elsmere" was published she was almost unknown to fame, but Mr. Gladstone's celebrated review in the Nineteenth Century, at once brought the authoress and her book to the notice of the reading public. The clergy, almost with one accord, took to preaching against it, with the very natural result that every one wanted to read it. The critics were also aggrieved. It was, said they, not art, theological controversy, had no business to constitute the great bulk of a three volume novel. Still the public read it, and found in it echoes of its own secret questionings, commiserated Robert Elsmere, admired Mr. Grey and fell in love with Catharine.

Next came "David Grieve." The critics were not quite satisfied, but they were flattered by the deference shewn to their criticisms. "David Grieve," from the point of view of art at least, was far superior to "Robert Elsmere."

There was some theology in it, and one rather cruel assault upon a famous canon of the English church, barely disguised under an assumed name. But there were no sermons on David Grieve. None the less 130,000 copies of this work were sold, and the author's reputation was greatly magnified.

And now we have "Marcella." The book is being devoured on this side of the Atlantic. With what profound interest must it not be read on the other? For it is pre-eminently an English story. Theology has been laid aside, and socialism and politics give to the book their overwhelming interest. Marcella is a young girl of twenty, or twenty-one years. She has a strain of foreign blood in her (so had David Grieve), and has had a somewhat unusual bringing up. Separated from her parents she contracts a warm friendship with some hot-blooded young socialists, men and women, members of the Venturist Society. She espouses their ideas with zeal. She is clever, and widely, though not deeply, read. At this juncture her father comes into some property in an agricultural district, and Marcella goes home. From the problems of town socialism she turns to those of the country, and is appalled to find the latter, in some respects, more difficult than the former. Her father's cottages are hovels, the water supply is bad, wages are at starvation point. The contrast, between the poverty of the agricultural labourer, and the magnificence of Lord Maxwell's establishment, supplies fuel to the flame of her righteous indignation at all social anomolies. Nevertheless she becomes engaged to Aldous Raeburn, the eldest son of Lord Maxwell, and heir to £30,000 per annum. She is neither in love, nor false to her principles, but her imagination is fired with the glorious opportunities, her prospective position as Lady Maxwell offers for the furthering of her objects.

Meantima she is working not very wisely amongst the poor. One Hurd, a worthless fellow, is induced to promise to leave off poaching and Aldous Raeburn finds him employment. None the less does Hurd continue his night work with ferrets, snares and guns, and at last shoots one of Lord Maxwell's keepers in the melee, ensuing upon detection.

Marcella overflows with pity for the widow, rages against the iniquitous game laws, and takes an altogether one-sided view of the catastrophe. In this part of the book, she strikes us as a very clever, very zealous, and extremely foolish girl. And now the villian appears in the shape of Wharton, radical member, for West Brookshire, and friend of the people. In reality he is a libertine, a gambler, and a demagogue. He skillfully plays upon Marcella's feelings, his cheap but effective oratory leads her captive. The engagement with Raeburn is broken off, but fortunately Wharton fails to win his prize, and ultimately sells the cause of the people for hard cash, and goes over to the Tories.

Meanwhile Marcella goes through a period of severe discipline. She adopts the profession of a nurse, and devotes herself to the suffering poor, with more wisdom, and less partiality than heretofore. She emerges from the fiery furnace of trial, pure gold. At this juncture Aldous Raeburn again meets her, the engagement is renewed—Marcella always clever, now at the end of her stormy apprentiship to life—is wise and good.

Such is the story in meagre outline. In commenting upon it, it is obvious to remark that just as "Robert Elsmere" met a period of great interest in theology, so "Marcella" comes when every one is talking of socialism. But just as Robert Elsmere only touched the surface of theology, so, despite its apparent depth, Marcella merely skims the surface of sociology.

Let the reader after he has finished the book ask himself, What are the social problems dealt with? What are the solutions offered? What did Hallin (the genuine socialist) want? What, finally, are Marcella's own views? and we think he will find it hard satisfactorily to answer any one of these questions. What one does see is the shallowness of some of the popular social panaceas and the dangers of social revolution. The importance of the questions at issue, the way in which thousands of minds are anticipating great changes, the need of reform in many respects, all this we learn from the book, and perhaps it would be unreasonable to ask for more in a novel.

But there is one other thing. In all her works Mrs. Humphrey Ward moves on a high spiritual plane. The storm of orthodox protest that raged around "Robert Elsmere" must not blind our eyes to this, the chief characteristic of her works. The feature is, we think, most conspicuous in "David Grieve," which is really the history of a soul wherein we find the hero writing in his diary such sublime thoughts as these: "That the spiritual principle in nature and man exists and governs; that mind cannot be explained out of anything but itself; that the phenomena and history of conscience are the highest revelation of God; that we are called to co-operation in a divine work, these things are deeper and deeper realities to me." And again, "It is daylight plain to me that in the simplest act of loving self surrender there is the germ of all faith, the essence of all lasting religion. Quicken human service, purify and strengthen human love, and have no fear but that the conscience will find its God. Submit thyself and press forward. Thou knowest well what it means to be better, more pure, more loving, more self-denying. And as they struggle to be all these, God cometh to thee and abides. But the greatest of these is love." And at last "it seemed to him that he had been taught of God through natural affection, through repentance, through sorrow. Never had the Divine voice been clearer to him, or the Divine Fatherhood more real. Freely he had received—but only that he might freely give. On this Christmas night he renewed every past vow of the soul and in so doing rose once more into that state and temper which is man's pledge and earnest of immortality—since already here and now, it is the eternal life begun."

The motive of "Marcella" renders this spiritual undercurrent less perceptible than in "David Grieve," but it is none the less there. That the things which are not seen are eternal, that self-sacrificing love is the gathering of the kingdom of heaven, as well as the key to the solution of social problems, is no small part of the teaching of "Marcella."

May, 3rd, 1894. S.

Napanee, March 26th 1894.

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto.

DEAR SIRS,—My hair had been falling for sometime, and I tried a bottle of your "Hairene," and was surprised and pleased to find, that less than half of one bottle stopped the hair from falling and completely removed the dandruff.

Yours truly, J. M. WALLACE.

DR. RICHARDSON HEARD FROM.

A Ludicrous Mis-statement Corrected.

The following from the Montreal Witness is published by request:—

SIR,—Under the date of Feb. 28th, 1894, an article appeared in the Crompton county Chronicle, Quebec, ascribed to the Rev. R. F. Dixon, of Hamilton, Ont., entitled "True Temperance." But for gross misstatements regarding Dr. W. B. Richardson, I should have deemed it unworthy of notice. In support of the assumption that "Medical men of the highest standing, medical associations in different parts of the world and recent medical writers, are advocating the moderate use of stimulents," he remarks, "it is a well known fact that the late Dr. Richardson, the celebrated teetotal advocate of my boyhood, whose name is or used to be a household word among the brethren, radically changed his opinion before his death, and reintroduced into his family the moderate use of stimulants."

Feeling sure what the answer woul be I forwarded a copy of the Rev. R. F. Dixon's article to Dr. Richardson's address in London, England, asking him to contradict it and have received the following reply:—

Manchester Square, W.,
April 2nd, 1894.

DEAR MADAM,—The Rev. R. F. Dixon is as incorrect in his statement that I am dead as he is in respect to any change in my temperance principles. I am glad to tell you that I am alive, in good health, and as actively engaged in practice as ever. Indeed, from having accepted two years ago the chief physicianship of the London Temperance Hospital, I am unusually occupied at this time, being deeply interested in the work that is going on in that institution.

I have never swerved from total abstinence in the least since my first adoption of it and into my house alcoholic liquors never find their way. I am glad to be able to correct a statement which seems to have gone the round of the world. It is a mere sensational paragraph and can only have been invented and propogated for the purpose of injuring our great cause at any cost of pain and trouble to my friends and your most faithful

BENJAMIN W. RICHARDSON.

I shall feel obliged if you will kindly give this article a place in your daily and weekly editions of the Witness.

But evil is wrought by want of thought,
As well as want of heart."

By want of thought mothers allow daughters to become frail and puny. Overstudy in girls induces uterine disorders and weaknesses, and blights their future happiness as wives and mothers. Joined to proper hygienic care, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a priceless remedy in such ailments, its value becoming even more apparent every year. Using it, the wan, debilitated school girl gains colour, flesh and spirits, losing those deathly headaches, tormenting backaches, languor, dejection and other symptoms of functional irregularities and nervous debility. It never harms the most delicate girl.

World's Dispensary Medical Association:
GENTLEMEN.—I cannot sufficiently express to you my gratitute for the benefit your medicine has conferred upon my daughter. Of late she has suffered no pain whatever. It is simply marvelous. You have just reason to call it your "Favorite Prescription," and to stake your reputation as a physician on it. A favourite prescription it is, indeed, to you and to thousands in this land, and I believe will be to suffering women the world over. Yours gratefully,

THOMAS THIRLWELL.

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair had been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually "topped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterward, using in all about a quater of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seem. to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

AN OLD CUSTOMER'S THANKS
—TO—
H. LeBRUN & CO.

Upon receiving one of their nice Memorandum Books.

I on the market square did walk
To see the sights and hear the talk,
A young man tapped me on the back
Saying this will suit you, Sir.

The free gift from his hand I took
Within it I did carefully look,
A pretty Memorandum Book
From H. LeBrun & Co., Sir.

The present I did not refuse
It's pages I will often use,
When I find topics for the muse
LeBrun's book will contain them.

Its cover red conspicious shows
Where we can purchase good cheap clothes,
In every house where that book goes
Is full of praise and wonder.

The back; a nice time table bore
Months, weeks and days for ninety-four,
The street and number of the store
By honest, stylish clothiers.

Its leaves are ruled two ways in blue
To mark each day's transactions true,
And keep our memories fresh for two
Cheap and reliable clothiers.

'Tis prized by farmer's wives like gold
She marks her eggs and butter sold,
By her the husband plain is told
From you to buy his clothing.

It sets the young boys on tip toe
They dream about LeBrun & Co.,
And cry with their papa to go
For cheap suits you are offering.

It suits the times, it takes the eye
On prices marked we may rely,
Points to the place where all can buy
Cheap suits—or made to order.

It is near twenty years and two
Since I bought the first suit from you,
Through all those years I found you true
In word, in deed and clothing.

Your goods, your name stand high to-day
No empty puff nor false display,
Your customers trust what you do say
When buying from you their clothing.

Though small in size its power is great
Low prices strong desires create,
Each seems afraid of being too late
For cheap suits you were offering.

I hope its fruits you will behold
Increasing sales one hundred fold
Till not one suit remains unsold
Of your large stock of clothing.

Fashions for Men.

IN COATS.

There is more length to the new Coats for 1894 than has been used in Men's Dress since the 60's.

THE DOUBLE BREASTED FROCK is the most fastiduous garment man has put on in a generation. It adds to the stature of the man and conceals defects of figure. It is short waisted, snug fitting, long tailed and beautifully moulded to the figure. The Skirts are hollow at the top and form a beautiful curve, which is the most distinctive thing about the new styles.

Then there is the THREE BUTTON CUTAWAY Coat which is a high favourite. It is popularly described as the "Pigeon Wing" on account of its sloping tails. The sleeves are of moderate size and are closed with a vent for three buttons. If properly made it will cling rather closely to the hips.

The new CUTAWAY SACK COAT for business wear is one of the most popular of the season. It has caught the fancy of the young men. All the pockets should have flaps. The collar rolls low and is not faced with Silk.

Any of these garments made up to order to please the most fastidious dresser and with faultless devotion to the fashion plates

THROWN INTO THE
LIFE INSURANCE CAMP!

The following statement comes from the government Blue Book. It covers a period of sixteen years, and is sworn to as correct by representatives of each Company:

Statement of Premiums received and Cash Profits paid back to Policy Holders from 1877 to 1892, both years inclusive:—

COMPANY.	Premiums Received.	Dividends Paid to Policy Holders.	Ratio of Dividends to Premiums, %
CANADA LIFE	$16,368,207	$2,946,433	18.18
Confederation Life	6,165,432	637,925	10.35
North American	2,327,082	32,857	1.41
Ontario Mutual	3,878,086	433,284	11.17
Sun Life	5,527,720	355,280	6.43

Never in the history of Life Insurance has the struggle for business been keener. Never has the conflict been hotter. Never have the Companies felt as they feel now, the necessity for throwing all the energy at their command into the field. The most intelligent and best men have to be employed. All kinds of plans of insurance are submitted. Each Company determined in securing the supremacy in the good will of the public, in establishing their name, the utterance of which, shall convey to the minds of the people the essential characteristics of

UNDOUBTED SECURITY,
RIGID ECONOMY,
GOOD INVESTMENTS,
LARGEST PROFITS

WHY?

Because millons of dollars are being paid annually for Life Insurance, and the Companies that can show these features have attained a position which will guarantee their future success, for money will flow freely into the best investments.

The Canada Life Policy Holders can look at the above statement with a smile of satisfaction, yet sympathise with their friends who are not so favourably situated.

They can throw their Life Policies down in the face of opponents and successfully challenge the production of more profitable policies, they can stand the onslaught of Agents who will almost cover them with literature and estimates of Tontine, Semi-Tontine, Return Premiums, Reserved Dividends, Annuity and Endownment plans of insurance, and with a quiet assurance feel that

As The Canada Life is Making the Most Profits, She Can Pay the Largest Profits.

READER. If you want Life Insurance choose the Canada Life and join the throng of contented policy holders who are insured with the Company carrying about 45 per cent. of the total insurance in force of the above named Companies

The terms are easy and the lots will be sold for what they will fetch, as it is a peremptory sale. 4d101

A Warm April.

The mean temperature at Toronto during April was 44°.39, 3°.5 higher than the average of 54 years, or 5°.18 higher than April, 1893. In reference to this Prof. Blake, assistant astronomer at the Meteorological office, writes: "From the 6th to the middle of the 11th was decidedly cool, but after the 11th weather became warm and pleasant, the average of the month reaching a point which places it as one of the warmest Aprils on the records. Four times only during the past half century was it exceeded: In 1844, 48°.1; 1870, 44°.6; 1878, 48°.7, and 1886, 44°.9."

A Remarkably Fine Portrait.

Mr. D. A. Shaw, artist, has completed a portrait in oil of the late John R. Cobb, town clerk. Taken in any way it a capital likeness, but considering the circumstances, it is really a remarkable production. It was not even painted from memory, for Mr. Shaw never saw the subject of his excellent portrait. There was no photograph of Mr. Cobb in existence except his figure which showed like a mere dot in a garden picture and was not distinct enough to give even an outline of the face; after trial it was discarded and the only guide Mr. Shaw had was the descriptions of the parents of Mr. Cobb and his intimate friends. Though the task was a tedious one, it is exceedingly creditable to his skill that he has evolved a portrait of Mr. Cobb which is a perfect likeness. Apart from the likeness—and apart from the circumstances—the picture is a fine one. The tints [illegible] being excellent. The artist is to be congratulated on the result of his work, which deserves the greatest credit for the really fine work of art he has produced. He is a native of Peterborough, and the [illegible] artistic talent and the [illegible] receiving [illegible] including Lord Dufferin. As the knowledge of his rare skill, both as a portrait and general painter becomes known in town, he will receive many commissions from citizens who wish to entrust their orders to a first-class artist.

Specialties in clog and step dancing, banjo and guitar playing and other interesting features. Bills will be out in a day or two and plan of the house ready. Don't forget the date, Tuesday, May 15th. 1d

It Will Pay You.

If you want furniture, it will pay you to visit A. Clegg's. Do not imagine that he keeps only expensive goods. You will find in his warerooms the largest assortment of medium and cheap furniture between Toronto and Montreal. Bedroom suites, hardwood, $11 and up; chairs, 6 for $2 and up; good hardwood sideboards, oak finish, bevelled mirrors, $9 and up. Extension tables, the best value ever offered, $6.50 and up. Parlour suites, odd chairs, couches, hall racks, mattresses, bed springs, pillows, window shades, cornice poles, etc., etc. Remember the place, A. CLEGG'S, 427 George street

The Lilliputian.

The Mrs. Tom Thumb Company gave a matinee and reception at the opera house yesterday afternoon which was greatly enjoyed by the crowds of little ones who were in attendance. The little lady, Countess Magri, seemed not to have grown a day older since she was known to the world as Mrs. Tom Thumb and toured the continent with her tiny better half. In the evening another performance was given which was well patronized, the vocal and whistling selections by the Lilliputians being greatly enjoyed, as was also the pantomic display.

Kindly and Skilful Attendance.

The following letter has been addressed to Mr. Hall, chairman of the Nicholls Hospital Trust Board by Rev. Mr. Davidson in grateful acknowledgment of the kindness which Matildra Rowett received at the hands of the attendants:

R. Hall, Esq.:

DEAR SIR,—I consider it my privilege to voice the thankful feelings of many of our people towards yourself for all your kindness to Matilda Rowett, whom I laid to rest yesterday. Mrs. Beck feels particularly grateful.

No one could have passed an illness amidst happier circumstances or more tender care than did this poor child, which was largely owing to yourself and members of the hospital staff. I beg to add my own warm appreciation.

Believe me,

Faithfully yours,

J. C. DAVIDSON.

Excessive Cattle Freights.

Mr. T. A. Hay, secretary of the Board of Trade has received a circular inclosing a petition to be presented to the House of Commons praying for such legislation as will neutralize the combine in the cattle carrying business and bring about a reduction of the now excessive freight rates on Canadian cattle shipped to the old country, which operates prejudicially to the interests of cattle shippers first and breeders second. Any cattle shippers or dealers desirous of signing the petition to bring about so desirable a reform, should call promptly at the office of Mr. Hay, over the Bank of Commerce building, entrance next door north of the G. N. W. Telegraph office, George street, and affix their signatures to the petition.

Royal Templars Open Meeting.

After concluding their business session at nine o'clock last night the members of Otonabee Council, Royal Templars, Ashburnham, threw open their doors to the public and an open meeting in the form of a most entertaining concert was held. The numbers which were rendered were excellent and fully sustained the high reputation the lodge already has for providing an interesting programme. The following contributed recitations and vocal music to the evening's entertainment:—

A Dampening Incident.

In a back yard of an up-town residence, waving in the breeze and drying in the sunshine, upon a clothes line, hangs a suit of clothes and "thereby hangs a tale." The owner, an enthusiastic yachtsman, instead of going home to tea last night, went down to the canoe factory to witness the launching of a new steam yacht. After the "thing of beauty" had slidden "gracefully into her native element," and was towed around to the wharf, the owner of the evaporating suit of clothes was delivering a peripatitic disquisition on naval architecture generally, and pointing out the beauties and defects of the new craft. So absorbed was he in his theme that he did not notice in the course of his walk the hawser that held the steamer to the wharf. While discoursing wisely he went deeper into the subject than he intended by tripping over the hawser and taking a header to the bottom of the river—he came to launch and was launched. This is the history of the suit of clothes absorbing sunshine and [illegible] ing river moisture in an up-town back yard.

—The Finance Committee meets to-night.

—The Millbrook spring fair will be held Monday.

—The work of repairing the sidewalks still goes on.

—The grass in the parks is brightening up rapidly.

—The fire engine received a furbishing up this morning.

—One tramp applied for sleeping quarters at the police station last night.

—The carpet that has borne you all winter must now come up and take a beating.

—The Snowden House is preparing for summer and this morning had all its window awnings placed in position.

—Mr. Frank Fairen is having a couple of handsomely carved swing doors put on the front entrance to the Pullman House.

—William McNevan, a young farmer living near Keene, had his leg badly fractured in a runaway accident last night.

—The Mrs. Tom Thumb Company which registered at the Oriental during its stay in town left on the 7 a.m. train this morning.

—A patent medicine man held forth on the market square last night by holding an open air concert. He attracted quite a large crowd.

—A vag. who was before the magistrate this morning, in reply to a query stated that he could get out of town in five minutes; ten were given him.

—Sergt.-Major Peters had the non-coms out for drill again last night. Great progress is being made by the men in noting the new features in the exercises.

—There are now seven charges—Norwood, Springville, Bethany, Millbrook, Havelock, Omemee and Lakefield—vacant in the Presbytery of Peterborough.

—Frogs legs are in great demand in the town. Some of the youngsters engaged in the capture of the amphibians make as much as three dollars in a single day.

—The "whiskey detectives" at Kingston were photographed by an amateur "shooter," notwithstanding their utmost efforts to escape from the "button-presser."

—A party composed of a number of the employees of one of Peterborough's enterprising dry goods firms, drove to Chemong last night and spent a most enjoyable evening.

—A carload of fine porkers was shipped to the Peterborough packing house last Monday morning by the Messrs. Matthews. The animals were purchased adjacent to Lindsay.

—The public schools of the town are not observing Arbor Day in any way. Inspector Garvin holds that it is too late in the season to plant trees, etc. No holiday has been granted.

—You don't have to take a gallon of Short Stop before you cure your cold. "Part of a bottle knocked my cold out," says a grateful customer. Get it at Jas. Lynch's drug store, 168 Hunter street.

—On Saturday evening a special magic lantern Scriptural service will be held in the Lindsay barracks by Brother Scobbell, of Bowmanville. Capt. Cameron, of Peterborough, will also be present and assist at the services.

—In mentioning the lecture of Mr. K. Mark on Sebastapol at the Y.M.C.A. this evening in yesterday's issue, omission was made of the fact that Mr. Mark will speak from personal experience. The chair will be taken by Mr. R. Max Dennistoun.

—The Peterborough Oddfellows left their goat behind them on Tuesday night and he roamed the streets yesterday. John Crocker says he don't mind a goat in its place for a lodge initiation, but don't want him in the bar room.—Millbrook Reporter.

—"Better late than never" Lindsay is joining in the march of progress and its telephone system is inaugurating at this early date the expedient of having its subscribers call each other up by number instead of by name as heretofore.

—The teachers and pupils of the Ashburnham public school are celebrating Arbor Day by holding a picnic this afternoon in the woods south of the village. The entertainment consists of running races, jumping, etc. Refreshments are provided by the pupils.

—A young lady student suddenly fainted away while attending class in the Collegiate Institute this morning. It is thought that excessive study was the cause. Dr. Burnham was summoned, and in a few minutes the young lady had quite recovered and was able to walk to her home.

—A funny story comes in from Manvers about a prospective bridegroom who in the excitement of preparing for his wedding, omitted securing the marriage license. The wedding party—minister and all had to wait until the poor bridegroom drove to Pontypool and obtained the document.

—Few persons know what is meant by a "size" in the matter of coats, shoes, etc. A size in a coat is an inch; a size in underwear is two inches; a size in a sock is one inch; in a shirt one-half an inch; in shoes one sixth of an inch; trousers one inch, gloves one quarter of an inch, and hats one-eighth of an inch.

—The W.C.T.U. have secured the prizes to be given for the highest number of marks obtained on scientific temperance at the entrance examinations. The prizes are on exhibition in the windows of the following stores:—Peterborough Book Store, McClelland's and H. Thompson & Co's. They will remain in the windows two weeks.

—According to the census there is, in Ontario, one clergyman to each 700 of our population; one physician to each 900 and a lawyer to each 1,100. This indicates that the professions are fairly well filled. And yet every town, not excepting this good town of Peterborough, goes on adding to the number of those who are jostling each other at the doors of the professions.

It's Not So

Notwithstanding reports to the contrary, still it is not true that Short Stop cures a cold too quickly. The fact is, Short Stop cures nautrally and without nauseating the stomach, by acting promptly on the bronchial tubes and lungs. For sale by Jas. Lynch, druggist, 168 Hunter street.

Poison in Tea.

In England tea has been discovered contaminated with lead, undoubtedly from being wrapped in packages containing lead. This is a matter which is being enquire into, inasmuch as lead is a dangerous poison and its presence in so many packages of tea may well cause grave public alarm. Mason & Co., grocers, have no confidence in package teas, as their English blends surpass all teas placed on the market.

Schofield has the best croup mixtures on the market. Ask him for reference.

RAILWAY RUMBLINGS.

Newsy Notes from the Whirling Wheels

The Chemong branch of the G. T. R. will be opened much earlier this year on account of the advanced state of the season and the warmness of the atmosphere. It is thought that the first train may probably run down to the park on the Queen's Birthday.

The charter for the construction of the Lindsay, Bobcaygeon and Pontypool railroad has just been renewed.

It is stated in Montreal that the G.T.R. has decided to make a reduction of 10 per cent. in its staff. This means nearly 1000 men will be thrown out of employment.

Messrs. E. R. Huyck and W. S. Busby have completed their subscription for the prizes for the C.P.R. picnic and state that the business men responded nobly. They are satisfied that the list will well please the picnic committee and in all probability the picnic this year will be held at Tweed.—Tweed News.

A gang of 50 or 60 Italian natvies from Buffalo arrived last night and were shipped out to the G.T.R. gravel pit. The ballast excavated will be used for "filling in" at the ends of the 1,230 foot bridge, which was erected in that vicinity last fall across the gulley.

Mr. Hayden's carload of furniture arrived last night from the west and was unloaded to-day.

The Alberta, of the C.P.R., begins her regular weekly trips from Owen Sound on Saturday. The Athabasca starts on Wednesday.

Asst. Supt. Webster, of the G. T. R., is expected in town Monday.

The G. T. R. have issued an order to the effect that all porters or baggagemen employed upon the road hereafter shall wear a band upon their hats denoting the position they fill. They should also put a tag upon some of their understrappers so that they would not be mistaken for Sir Henry Tyler or Mr. Sargent.—Hastings Star. This doesn't apply to the Peterborough employees of the company, as their courtesey is proverbial.

It is expected that the trainmen of the Grand Junction will select Colborne for their annual picnic.

Miss Melville has a nice stock of children's bonnets and tam-o-shanters in silk and lawn. Prices to suit all. 424 George street. Stamping done.

Store Awnings, Window Awnings,

Hotel awnings, office awnings, verandah awnings, steamboat awnings, factory awnings, and summer awnings of all kinds and patterns in white or coloured duck manufactured and fitted in proper manner to any desired frames on the most reasonable terms by ALFRED KINGSCOTTE, the Tent, Sail and Awning Maker, Water street, opposite the market.

Housekeepers, Attention!

We have added to our extensive lines of hardware a complete line of tinware, which we will sell at bottom prices. For the outer decoration of your homes we would ask you to call and see our fine line of lawn goods—mowers, hose, shears, syringes, etc. See our cheap American mowers. For prices they beat anything we ever had. No one with a grass plot need deny themselves. THE PETERBOROUGH HARDWARE CO.

The wall papers kept in stock at the Peterborough Bookstore are so pretty and cheap that a customer who buys paper intending to cover only one room, is so delighted that he returns and procures papers for three or four other rooms. This is only natural, for our papers are so beautiful and so low in price that persons find it very hard to resist the temptation of buying. A. H. STRATTON & Co.

MILLS BROS.

ORGANIZATION MEETING.

A meeting of the friends and supporters of Mr. Stratton and the Mowat Administration, will be held in the committee rooms over Brisbin's flour and feed store, Hunter street, next Monday night, May 7th, to organise the town for the coming general election campaign. Mr. Stratton hopes to see as many of his friends as possible at this preliminary meeting. One of the chief essentials of success is prompt and thorough organization, and it is hoped there will be a grand rally of workers present on Monday night.

THE REVIEW AND THE LOCAL LICENSES.

Our evening contemporary, the Review, with that wisdom that so distinguishes its comments on political subjects, and in its sudden zeal for the temperance cause, endeavours to load itself up with the idea that the local "Grit" politicians have been endeavouring to obstruct the carrying out of the by-law of the town council limiting the number of tavern and shop licenses to be granted. The Review is well qualified to speak on this subject, by reason of its support of temperance principles and temperance candidates in the past, which has been very much of the negative quality—and which is of such an elastic character that it invariably subordinates temperence to the interests of its party. In reference to its comments on the issuing of licenses on the first of May, one would think that it was published in the vicinity of the North Pole. It should know what takes place under its very nose. The town bylaw referred to limits the number of shop licenses to four and, subject to the conditions of the by-law, the commissioners have reduced the shop licenses to that number. Immediately opposite the Review opposite it can be seen that Brown Bros. are preparing to remove the grocery department of their business to the shop recently occupied by McKee & Davidson, the liquor department remaining in the present stand; that Mr. Alex. Elliott is separating his business by removing his liquor department to a shop on Simcoe street; that Henry & Co. have made absolute separation between their grocery and liquor departments, and that Mr. Cameron's license is to issue subject to his compliance with the requirements of the by-law in regard to separation. If our contemporary were not wilfully ignorant and corruptly desirous of creating a false impression for purely political purposes, it would easily see that the matters it seeks to make such a cry about were being properly attended to, and that the commissioners were acting in accordance with the provisions of the bylaw. Anyone who knows anything about the License Law knows that it provides that when a license is withheld from existing premises, the holder is entitled to three months' extension to give a fair opportunity for the disposal of the stock, and the commissioners in extending the license have acted in accordance with the provisions of the License Law. What the temperance party is really interested in is a reduction of licenses to the number mentioned in the bylaw, and when the limits of the three months' extension is reached, we have every confidence in the commissioners that they will see that the number mentioned in the bylaw will be as required. If our contemporary were not as blind as the proverbial bat, it would see that there is no other way, of dealing with the matter, open to the commissioners unless it would like to see the licensees cut off at a moment's notice and turned on the streets with their stocks on their hands and with no means of realizing upon them. So far as Mr. Hall's resignation is concerned it is purely a professional matter with himself. Unworthy motives for accepting the appointment were imputed to him and he resigned, and it is to be regretted that he did so, though his reasons for resigning do him honour, for he would have made an excellent commissioner and was considered a worthy successor to Mr. Robert Walton, who had removed from the district. Mr. Winch may well say "save me from my friends," in view of the position his organ places him in on the temperance question by its recent article upon the license matter. If Mr. Winch is to be brought to the point of espousing the temperance cause in his campaign, he would, doubtless, prefer to have the unusual situation thrust upon him by degrees, and not be compelled to swallow all at once the big dose, his newspaper supporter has "set up" for him. Our contemporary has never given Mr. Stratton credit for any good act or any good intention, and it is perhaps too much to ask it to begin now. Mr. Stratton has managed to live through past onslaughts and will, doubtless, continue to survive them.

The Toronto Empire and the Toronto Evening News make themselves the laughing stock of the people of Peterborough, in the attempt they make to work up indignation over the dismissal of Mr. Grundy from the position of deputy-registrar. Almost every person in Peterborough, familiar with the circumstances, and, regardless of politics, feels that Mr. Grundy's actions subsequent to his giving evidence before the Public Accounts Committe, made him a ripe subject for removal, and the only fault found with the registrar's action is that he did not sooner dispense with his garrulous deputy's services. The Empire's ravings on the subject only excite ridicule in Peterborough, and the Empire will secure a very small vote here for the canonization of the late deputy registrar, as a martyr. If the Empire desires the disinterested opinion of two prominent gentlemen as to Mr. Morrow's action in dispensing with his deputy's services, it might receive great enlightenment by publishing the candid opinions of Mr. John Burnham, M.P., and Mr. James Stevenson, M.P., which can, doubtless, be easily obtained.

Experience Has Proved It.

A triumph in medicine was attained when experience proved that Scott's Emulsion would not only stop the progress of Pulmonary Consumption, but by its continued use health and vigor could be fully restored.

PERSONAL.

Mr. G. M. Douglas, of Lakefield, was in town yesterday.

Miss Ida Fair, of Millbrook, is visiting in Peterborough.

Mr. C. L. Cody, Lindsay, is registered at the Grand Central.

Mr. A. H. Richardson, Madoc, is here on business for a few days.

Mr. J. R. Mikel, travelling for Corby's I.X.L. whiskey, is in town for a couple of days.

Mr. Geo. Matthews, of Peterborough, spent a few days with his parents, in Lindsay this week.—Watchman.

Rev. Dr. Sexton, who has been in Peterborough for the past two weeks, left to-day for Napanee, where he will preach on Sunday next and lecture on Monday evening. Next week, we understand, the doctor goes to Philadelphia and New York.

"Doc" Morris, of Oshawa, who was a well-known resident of Peterborough, twenty years ago, is in town on a business trip. He is still engaged in selling his his popular medicine and "every man should have a bottle."

Mr. C. E. Van Dyke, fruit and commission merchant, left this morning for the home of his parents in Grimsby, having received information of the serious illness of his mother. Mr. Van Dyke hopes to be able to return again in time to take up his business and to open the fruit season again as brisk as ever.

THE MINERS' STRIKE.

Possibility That a Settlement Will Shortly Be Reached.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 4.—There are indications of a change in the miners' strike situation. President J. McBride, of the Miners' National Organization arrived in Pittsburg. On the same train with him were J. C. Morton and Mr. Chapman, two of the largest coal operators in Ohio. President McBride went directly to the Home hotel where he met Secretary-Treasurer McBride, District President D. Nugent, Organizer Miller and District Secretary Warren.

Messrs. Morton and Chapman went to the office of Francis Robbins, where they met several other expensive coal operators, and they went into a conference, lasting three hours. President McBride said he did not know whether a conference with the operators would succeed or not. The Ohio operators came to Pittsburg for the purpose of conferring with the operators here, and, if possible, bring about a meeting with the miners' officials.

The coal miners now believe the strike will be settled in a very short time.

Giving Up Its Dead.

Troy, N. Y., May 4.—Six bodies, including that of a child supposed to be the victim of infanticide, have been taken from the river in this vicinity within a week. The body of a man, supposed to be Thomas Cosey of Cohoes, who was drowned last winter while at work in Crescent aqueduct, was taken from the Mohawk river between Cohoes and Crescent. The body of Charles F. Brewster, the captain of a canal boat, was found in the Hudson river at Troy. Brewster had been missing since last week. There was no evidence of foul play.

American Sugar Schedule.

Washington, May 4.—It is announced that the sugar schedule has been agreed upon as 40 per cent. ad valorem on all sugars both raw and refined, with one-eighth of a cent in addition on refined sugars. A discriminating duty of one-tenth of a cent on refined sugar is allowed against sugars of this kind from countries that pay an export bounty. It is also agreed the bounty should continue to be paid this year, the date at which the sugar schedule is to take effect being changed from July 10 to January 1, 1895.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

JUST RECEIVED.—A big raft of American Novelties in smart and popular selling styles of STRAW HATS for Men, Youth's, Boys and Children.

DON'T SAVE THE DIME AND THROW AWAY THE DOLLAR. We are below all others in the prices of Hats and we are anxious you should know it. We don't try to make much money in Hats, but we lead in this line, all the same, as a matter of course—just as a horse comes before a cart.

IN CHILDREN'S HATS we offer a great choice in many shapely novelties, starting as low as 10c. and ending at 75c. We're doing the work we like best of all—saving you money.

Sock It To 'em.

Clean, neat Socks look well under a new Hat. We have a big choice for you at our Hosiery counter, and can sell you full fashioned CASHMERE HOSE 6 pairs for a dollar—famous socks. These goods are our own direct importations, or we never could sell them at this figure. They are double heeled and toed, and will fit any man faultlessly who happens to be well "heeled" enough to have a twenty-cent piece in his trouserloons pockets. Only five pairs at a time to a customer, and no repeaters (unless Jimmy Tully happens to be round.)

In our famous Furnishings Department, of course we know you will appreciate our nobby Neckwear, Shirts and Underwear. We're disposed to feel half ashamed of the prices, but you'll be proud of the garments.

A Young Men's Saturday.

ALL DAY SATURDAY and SATURDAY NIGHT up to 11 o'clock, we will give young men a TWENTY PER CENT. REDUCTION off all our $5, $6, $7, $8, $9, and $10 Suits. The reason we can make this offer is that the depression in the money market has tied up several manufacturers of Clothing, and we could not help taking advantage of acceptionally low offers for YOUNG MEN'S SUITS. Gentlemen, this is your chance. It will pay you to pick your own pocket to get your pick of these Suits.

It Won't Work, Boys! Spong is Here to Stay!

He's got a good thing, and he knows how to keep it. Try some other dodge, boys! Sending blind round-about offers to buy me off, concocting cooked letters with tempting baits to get me sell out my business, and circulating cock-and-bull stories that I have sold out, won't work. Not by a jugful! Can't catch a prize busir ess like mine in that way.

I have the liveliest Grocery business in Peterborough, and intend to stay right with it. Our customers are buying us out as fast as we can replace the stock with new goods every week. You will find us on deck at the same spot, doing the same rattling business as we have always been doing, and at the same Cheap Cash Prices, with a ten per cent. reduction on every bill. Now's your time to buy—Snaps going all the time.

THEY CAN'T ESCAPE

The liver when active is the watch-dog of the system—the destroyer of germs and impurities. The truth is: ninety-nine out of every hundred diseases begin with a sluggish liver. A slight cold or chill may amount to something serious. If you correct the liver you'll cure the cold. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets rouse the liver to vigorous action. After dinner, if you're bilious, take one of these tiny, sugar-coated Pellets. Take them when you have wind or pain in stomach, giddiness, fullness, loss of appetite, or when you suffer from costiveness, indigestion, sick or bilious headaches.

The makers take the risk of their benefiting you. If they're not satisfactory, your money is refunded.

Can you ask more?

What you are sure of, if you use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, is either a perfect and permanent cure for your Catarrh, no matter how bad your case may be, or $500 in cash. The proprietors of the medicine promise to pay you the money, if they can't cure you.

BRITISH CABLE NEWS

Lord Salisbury's Speech on the House of Lords Question.

SPEAKER PEEL TO RESIGN

Continued Decrease in Immigration to Canada—Bi-Metallic Conference—Canada Copyright Question—Gladstone's Tribute to Sir Andrew Clarke.

LONDON, May 4.—Lord Salisbury spoke in Trowbridge last evening on the Government's attitude to the House of Lords and Irish home rule. As far as he could see, Lord Salisbury said, the country regarded the House of Lords as a very good institution for checking the errors of the House of Commons. The upper house did not exist for the purpose of opposing the national will, but to ascertain that will and to insist upon an appeal to the people whenever a temporary and unreal advantage had been seized by the lower house with a view to altering the constitution. On the main issue of home rule the Government had shirken repeatedly. They apparently shrank from asking the electors to pass on their declared policy. Lord Rosebery had given recently as a reason for granting home rule that it would reconcile the Irish in America. "Are we really to give up our Ulster brethren to slavery in order to please the triangle in Chicago or the Tammany bosses in New York?" continued Lord Salisbury. "Are we to sink as low as that? To my mind this is a reason rather for resisting home rule than for granting it."

"These men to whom Lord Rosebery appeals, whose friendship he is so anxious to secure are the most bitter, unscrupulous and permanent enemies of everything British that can be found in America. There is no slander strange to their tongues or pens when they refer to British things and institutions. We have many friends in America. I am proud to believe that our friends are the large majority and I hope that the friendship will always continue. If the majority of Americans would venture to speak their minds they would, I believe, describe the Irish minority, with whom they have to struggle, in language more vigorous than I would presume to use. If any class in America is to be conciliated I would rather conciliate the class that loves us, not the class that pursues us with undying hatred.

"If the object of the Liberals be to give practical independence to Ireland, the result would be that the Irish in America would be dominant in Ireland too. You would then have within four hours of your coasts the most bitter enemies of England. They would command all your trade routes and menace all your ports. You would have for your nearest neighbor an island under the domination of men who have shown their hatred of England by terms and actions which do not permit us to doubt for a moment either their sincerity or permanence. Are you going to hand your brethren in Ulster over to such tyranny, which they do not cease to dread, which they are pledged to resist by every means in their power?"

The Bi-metalic Conference.

LONDON, May 4.—At the bi-metalic conference Sir David Barbour, late finance minister fram India, read a paper on the "Finances of India," in which he said the expenditures of a country always tend to exceed the revenues. The effect of the divergence of gold and silver upon the finances of India had been a crisis involving a waste of money and mischievous fluctuations of policy, and there was a prospect of a further severe decline, when the government of India would be unable to meet their obligation. The result of attempting to introduce a gold standard in India had been to disturb the trade of India with silver standard countries, increase India's sterling debt, increase the expenditures, increase the taxation and to cause the almost total abandonment of public works. It was too soon, he said, to say whether the attempt would be successful, but it was plain that it must require time and further heavy sacrifices.

Emigration to Canada.

LONDON, May 4.—Emigration to River St. Lawrence ports from England continues to decline. The total number of emigrants from Liverpool by the first four Allan and Dominion steamships this year was 770, as against 3,100 by the first four ships last season. Emigration through agencies like the Self-help Society, Dr. Barnardo schools and charity organizations, alone seems active. These, as a rule, are sending to Canada excellent settlers. Other emigration work generally seems lifeless, although the Canadian Government and Canadian Pacific Railway Company continue an active propaganda.

Canada and the Berne Convention.

LONDON, May 4.—A letter appeared in the Times, signed by Mr. Dalbe, secretary of the Copyright Association, which charges the Canadian Government with seeking to undermine the copyright law in the interests of the Dominion. If the Imperial Government, it says, yields to the demand of Canada to repeal the British Copyright Acts, so far as they relate to Canada, and denounce Canada's connection with the Berne convention, then the whole principle of our copyright legislation will be reversed and our relations with the States included in the Berne convention will be upset or else materially changed.

Memorial to Sir Andrew Clarke.

LONDON, May 4.—The Duke of Cambridge presided over a meeting which was held in Princess hall for the purpose of perfecting arrangements for the erection of a memorial to the late Sir Andrew Clarke. Mr. Gladstone offered a motion providing for the erection of a memorial and said he was glad to testify to the high and noble character of Sir Andrew Clarke, who had in recent years watched over him with almost paternal affection. Mr. Gladstone looked well, but leaned heavily on his cane in entering the hall and remained seated while he spoke.

Speaker Peel to Be Elevated.

LONDON, May 4.—It is stated on good authority that the Right Hon. Arthur Wellesley Peel will retire from the speakership of the House of Commons within a short time. The reason given is that Mr. Peel is to be elevated to the peerage. Upon equally good authority that the Speaker intends to retire is emphatically denied.

Blackened John Burns' Eye.

LONDON, May 4.—John Burns, M.P., was severely injured about the face by being struck with a cricket ball while watching a game at Battersea. His eye was blackened and his face was badly bruised and cut.

AN ESSEX FARMER.

A Total Wreck with Kidney Disease—All the Symptions of Bright's Disease Present—Dodd's Kidney Pills make him Perfectly Well again

LEAMINGTON, April 23—Sherman Buchanan, a farmer living near here, recently passed through a terrible ordeal. He was attacked by kidney disease, which made him a perfect wreck. He suffered agonizing pains and his digestive organs were seriously impaired. All the symptions of Bright's disease were present. After several doctors had treated him ineffectually, Mr. Buchanan used several boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. Dodd's was the first kidney in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, 50c. or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

"Backache means the kidneys are in trouble. Dodd's Kidney Pills give prompt relief."

"75 per cent. of disease is first caused by disordered kidneys.

"Might as well try to have a healthy city without sewerage, as good health when the kidneys are clogged, they are the scavengers of the system.

"Delay is dangerous. Neglected kidney troubles result in Bad Blood, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and the most dangerous of all, Brights Disease, Diabetes and Dropsy."

"The above diseases cannot exist where Dodd's Kidney Pills are used."

Sold by all dealers or sent by mail on receipt of price 50 cents, per box or six for $2.50. Dr. L. A. Smith & Co. Toronto. Write for book called Kidney Talk.

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $80, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $30, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

A WOMAN'S HEART.

God took a little drop of dew,
Fresh from the heaven's far-off blue,
And a white violet, so pure and bright,
Shedding its fragrance in the morn's soft light,
And a forget-me-not; laid all together out of sight
Within the chalice of a lily white;
With humbleness and grace He covered it;
Made purity and sadness near to sit;
And added pride to this, and fears a few,
One wish, but half a hope, and bright tears too;
Courage, and sweetness in misfortune's smart,
And out of this He moulded woman's heart.

SAM TOMS' RESCUE.

She doubtless [illegible] woman's reason for marrying him. [illegible] kind of a reason may not satisfy other people, but it is invariably sufficient for a feminine reasoner.

Sam Toms was what was called "wuthless" by his Texan neighbors. Old Bill Bunn, his father-in law, himself not a very energetic and useful citizen, used to sit on the steps at the crossroads store and publicly bewail his sad lot in having Sam for a member of his family. Bill had a dramatic style of delivery that was very fetching and invariably impressed strangers as being very much in earnest. He would sit down on the steps, silently chewing an enormous mouthful of tobacco and apparently listening to the conversation of his co-loafers. If Sam's name was mentioned he would give vent to four or five little falsetto squeaks, which found egress through his nose; then he would draw in a long breath, puff out his fat cheeks, purse his mouth, and give a heavy, whistling sigh; this would be followed by a large quantity of tobacco juice, carefully aimed at some object in the vicinity. These preliminaries accomplished, Bill would rise to his feet, thrust one fat, dirty hand into his shirt front, wave the other in a sweeping gesture as he lowered his eyes and rolled his head sadly from side to side, and deliver himself after the following fashion:

"Ah—hum! That Sam Toms is th' laziest, mos' shif'less, o'nery, trifl'n' cuss I ever seed—an' yere I've done got 'im f'r a son-'n-lawr. Hm-hm-hm!" Another whistling sigh would close this prerogation, and old Bill would resume his seat, still shaking his head sorrowfully.

And Bill was more than half right. Nominally Sam was a cowboy, but most of the time he would tell you he was "jes' layin' off a spell, t' rest up like."

He had always been just so—distinguished for laziness in an easy going community—and nobody expected him ever to be otherwise, and it puzzled people immensely when energetic, capable Mattie Bunn accepted him for "reg'lar comp'ny," to say nothing of the sensation created by their wedding.

Mat, as has been suggested, probably had some reason for marrying Sam, but it is quite certain that she never told any one what that reason was. Sam was tall and big and handsome in his careless, slouchy way; he had always managed, no one knew how, to wear good clothes, too. These facts and his perrenial good nature and friendly ways were the only points in his favor. Against him were the points so forcibly taken by his father-in-law, and also that he got drunk whenever he could possibly do so, and was morally so weak that anyone could easily lead him astray.

How Mat and Sam got along no one but Mat knew. Once in a great while Sam would do some work and earn a few dollars. If he got home with it without stopping at the saloon, well and good. But oftener than not he would "drap in jes' t' take a nip 'r two," and that would settle it. At such times he would stay and buy drinks for everybody present while his money lasted. Then he would come home in a maudlin tearful state of intoxication, and invent some tale to account for his condition and the disappearance of his money, winding up with the promise never to let it happen again.

And Mat would pretend that she believed him, and would stroke his curly head until he fell asleep. Then she would look at the handsome scamp for a few minutes with love unutterable in her eyes—the tired eyes back of which were a world of unshed tears. But she never complained—not the first word; the firm set mouth and weary look might indicate ever so much, but her lips never expressed it. And Sam gradually grew more and more useless and shiftless, trusting to his wife's ready wit and fertility of resource to carry them both over the bad places.

There were lots of bad places, too. Twice Sam ran into debt several dollars at a saloon and Mat found some means to pay the debts—only herself knew how. But the second time she informed the saloon man that he must trust Sam no more. And, besides these things, to live—how did they do it? Nobody could guess. Perhaps even Mat herself could not have told, yet live they did—or rather existed—and for the most part kept out of debt.

Sam sometimes worked, but never for very long. He always found some excuse for leaving a place within a few days. He could almost always find another job easily enough, for he was an excellent "hand" when he chose to be, but he did not hasten about finding a new job when he had given one up; not until they were reduced to the very last straits could Mat get him to hunting work again.

One day Sam left home for a ranch about thirty-five miles distant, where he had heard they wanted help. Two days passed—three—four—five—and no word came from him. Mat was not a little worried, although Sam had often been away for two weeks at a time without sending word to her. But this time it was different; there was no excuse for his not sending a message, as the stage came by the ranch he had gone to three times a week. If he had found work there, as he expected, he could easily have notified her. So, late in the afternoon of the fifth day, she threw her shawl over her head and went down to her father's to find if they had heard anything of Sam.

The old fellow was standing in the doorway talking to a couple of strangers.

"No," he was saying, "they hain't b'en no person 'long yer las' few days but what b'longs yere. Mebbe, though, he mout 'a' be'n seed over yere t' Bacon's. Ben thar? No? Waal, my boy's comin' in f'm thar party soon, an' he c'n tell ye. Come in an feed; Jack'll be yere right soon."

Mat stayed to help her mother with the supper, and during the course of the meal learned that the two strangers were officers trailing a horse thief who had stolen a valuable horse at a ranch forty miles east and sold it at Pickett station, and who was believed to have come this way.

As she listened to the conversation a sudden nameless fear came upon her, making her feel ill and faint. As soon as supper was over she took her shawl and hurried home.

Somehow she was not surprised to find the door open. She entered hastily. Sam was in bed, asleep and breathing stentoriously. He had evidently been drinking, as his clothes were scattered about the floor, and Mat, looking out the back door, could see his pony standing patiently where Sam had left him, waiting for some one to come and feed him.

Mat leaned over the sleeping man and kissed him gently, her eyes full of love. Then she turned to pick up his clothes and put them away. The trousers were heavy and something jingled in one of the pockets. Instinctively Mat thrust her hand into it and drew it forth, clasping several gold pieces. As she did so her eyes opened wide, and she stood as if stunned for a time, her heart chilled with the same strange fear that had stricken her awhile ago and impelled her to hurry home.

She rushed to the bed and shook Sam roughly. "Sam! Sam! wake up!" she almost screamed.

The man turned over and looked at her stupidly. "H'lo, M'Mat! Yere, be ye! Gimme kiss," he said in a dull tone.

"Not twell ye tells me whar ye done got these yere things!" Mat's voice sounded broken and shrill.

Sam sat up and rubbed his head, looking at her in drunken wonder. "W-w y, them—them thar, honey?"

She shook him fiercely and said in a lower tone—a tone of earnest force:

"Tell me, Sam Toms, whar ye done got these yere coins! Quick now!"

Her tone partially sobered the man, whose eyes opened wider as he asked querulously:

"What 'n h—l ye so all fired fussy 'bout? I hain't done nothin'," and he laughed in a half drunken, half nervous way.

"Sam, whar did ye git 'em?"

He sat dumbly staring at her.

"Sam"—her voice was full of horror—"did you steal that thar hoss?"

No answer; but Mat saw by his eyes she had guessed the truth. Slowly the coins fell from her hand to the floor; slowly her head bent forward until her face touched the pillow. For minutes she did not move—not m[illegible] who had been staring at her wonderingly, reached out his big hand and laid it caressingly on her head. Then she sprang to her feet, her hot eyes glaring and her form trembling with anger and horror. She did not speak, but fixed her gaze on his face for a few seconds. He did not meet her look, and presently she turned and ran out of the door.

Sam, almost sober now, called after her, but she didn't answer. He got out of bed slowly, and started to dress himself. He had almost finished when Mat, accompanied by her father and the two strangers, returned.

"Thar he is—an' thar's th' money," she said, and passed on out through the back door without looking at Sam.

* * * * *

There was a jail at the crossroads; it was a primitive affair, but solid and substantial. It was a dug out in the side hill, and had a heavy oak door and great steel hinges and lock. It was plenty strong enough to hold a dozen men, all anxious to escape—and Sam Toms did not try to escape. He only sat still in the low, damp, darksome room and tried to understand how it all happened.

It must be a drunken dream—but, no, he was almost sober and knew where he was and how and why he was there. But he could not understand. Had Mat—was it really Mat who had given him up? There must be some mistake.

The big, strong man finally began to realize it all. He lay down on the bunk and cried himself to sleep like a child.

It must have been about 1 o'clock in the morning when some one entered the house of Bill Bunn, constable. This some one entered by the back door, went stealthily into the room where Bill and his wife slept, rummaged about a few minutes, and then emerged from the house. It was a woman, and she had something in her hand.

Sam Toms was awakened a little after this by a rattling, jarring sound. He sprang up just as the big oaken doors swung back and revealed the figures of a woman and two saddle-horses.

"I come f'r ye, Sam," said the woman, with a sob. "I done bring both ponies an' on' clo'es. Let's go, Sam; we c'n git 'crost th' rivah befo' mawnin'. Come!"

He clasped her in his arms, and they clung to each other a little while. Then Mat said, more steadily:

"Come, Sam. Le's go ovah t' Mexico—an' mebbe we c'n try an' do better ovah thar."

And they rode forth in the bright, free moonlight down towards the Rio Grande—into a new and better life.—R. L. Ketchum, in Argonaut.

My Toothache!

Is an exclamation heard every hour in the day. Toothache is the most common ailment of young or old, and in the aggregate inflicts more suffering than perhaps any other single complaint. A one minute cure is just what every person should possess. Nerviline—nerve pain cure—acts almost instantly in relieving the agony, and a sample bottle affords a quantity sufficient for 100 applications. 10 cents fills the bill. Poison's Nerviline is the only positive remedy for toothache and all nerve pains. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

THE FINAL SESSION.

The E. B. A. Convention Finishes its Deliberations and Adjourns.

The Grand Lodge of the Emerald Beneficial Association concluded its annual meeting yesterday afternoon and the majority of the delegates left for their homes during the course of the evening, though a few prolonged their stay until to-day. At the last session it was decided instead of holding the next convention at Toronto Junction in May to hold it in Toronto on August 6th, 1895.

A notice of motion was also filed to the effect that at the next meeting a resolution would be introduced to the effect that the amount of the insurance available for members be increased to the sum of $1000, from the sums of $100, $150 and $500 as at present, also that the name of the Association be changed to that of the "United Catholic Benevolent Association."

The finance committee reported the rate struck for the year to cover disbursements, and the convention was brought to a close by a short address by Grand President D. A. Carey. He strongly urged the organizers and individual members to put their shoulder to the wheel and keep the status of the association up to the standard which it should enjoy as being one of the strongest Catholic organizations in existence.

THE BUCHANAN CASE.

Equal to a Resurrection Almost Helpless from Kidney Disease—A Burden to Himself and His Friends—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Chatham, April 30.—The story of Sherman Buchanan, living near Leamington, is worthy of notice. He says he was almost helpless, bloated and a wreck with kidney disease. His digestive organs were powerless and he was rapidly becoming a burden to himself and his friends. Naturally he lost all hopes of recovery, but a happy thought suggested Dodd's Kidney Pills, and these cured him. Dodd's was the first Kidney remedy in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

IT IS A VALUABLE ADJUNCT.

The Kindergarten Shown to be of Great Advantage.

Below is given some of the data on which Inspector Garvin based the conclusions he reached in reference to the Kindergarten in his report to the Board of Education Tuesday evening:—

(a) At the last promotion examinations the highest division in the Central that had kindergarten pupils was the Junior III class. L— M— and H— M— had both attended the kindergarten for one year. They were the only two kindergarteners in the class. Twelve pupils in the division won promotion, of whom L— M— ranked first, the only one who took an honour standing, and H— M— 5th. L— M— had just passed her 10th birthday and H— M— was 10½ years of age. Of the other ten promoted the youngest was 11 years and 4 months old.

Of the Senior II Book pupils, M—R— 9 years 10 months old, and A—G—, 9 years 3 months old, had both attended the kindergarten for one and one-half years. Fifted pupils were promoted. Of these M—R—ranked first and A—G—8th. A—G— was the youngest child in the room by 4 months, and M—R—was the 3rd youngest. B—B—, 9 years 7 months old, who ranked 3rd in the promotion list, was the 2nd youngest pupil, but he had been taught from an early age by his mother so well, that on coming to school he was placed at once in the Part II, First Book. The others were considerably older than these three.

In the Junior II Class there were two pupils who had attended the kindergarten for a year. They ranked 4th and 5th in the promotion list. But L— C— was only 8 years and 2 months old, and A— M— 9 years and 3 months, while O— B—, E— S— and W— H—, the three who surpassed them, were respectively 10 years and 4 months, 10 years and 5 months and 13 years of age.

Of the Sen. Part II book pupils, M— M—, M— R—, V— F— and M— T— had been in attendance at the kindergarten a year or a year and a half. With the exception of the last mentioned, who failed, these pupils stood well up in the list of successful candidates. M— M— stood 7th on the list but she was two and a-half years younger than anyone of the 6 who took higher rank. But of the junior class in the same division only 4 out of 12 candidates were successful, 3 of whom were kindergarteners. Only 4 of the 12 had had a kindergarten course.

In the other junior part II class, I—H—a kindergarten pupil, ranked 5th in a class of 18 successful candidates. He was one of the youngest in the class.

In the junior part I class, 6 out of the 8 honour pupils had taken a course in the kindergarten.

In the North and West schools the record of the kindergarten graduates was just about as successful as that of their fellows in the Central.

(b) The kindergarten graduates manifest a greater love of school and a more enthusiastic desire for knowledge.

(c) From the 1st day in the kindergarten the little ones are learning, through pleasurable interest, to control the body and to concentrate the mind. Imagination and constructive ability are rapidly developed as are the other powers of mind and body.

(d) The two-year course is scientifically and systematically graded and is unquestionably the best ever devised by man for the proper early development of the various soul powers.

A PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT.

Public Installation of Officers at City Lodge, I. O. G. T.—Reports Presented.

Unity Hall, the lodge rooms of City Lodge, I. O. G. T., was well filled last night with the Good Templars and their friends who had attended to witness the installation ceremonies of the order. The reports of the retiring officers showed the lodge to be in a very healthy and prosperous condition. Although only organized a little more than a year, the lodge now has a membership of about eighty, and its financial standing is considered very satisfactory.

The installation ceremonies were listened to throughout with much attention, each one present seeming to realize their importance. As the installing officer, Bro. D. Rumming, ascended the throne and took his place beside the Chief Templar, an impressive stillness fell over the entire audiance. After the calling of the officers-elect, who formed a semi-circle around the altar, and as he proceeded to read: "You will each place your right hand over your heart and assent to the following obligations," you could have heard a pin drop in any portion of the hall. Then followed the long and solemn installation ceremony combined with instructions to the new officers, who seemed to recognize the position in which they stood. The following are the officers and their respective offices:—

Bro. Jas. Stubbs	C.T
Sis. Emmerson	V.T
Bro. Hetherington	P.C.T
Sis. Mrs. Stubbs	S.J.T
Bro. G. K. Munro	R.S

Bro. Early	Chap
Bro. Geo. Frost	F.S
Bro. W. G. Barrie	Treas
Bro. Wm. Milne	Mar
Sis. Kindred	D. Mar
Sis. Ellis	Guard
Bro. Simpson	Sentinel

Bro. Carter, Chief Templar, of Guelph lodge, who is visiting in town, was present and gave a short address, congratulating the lodge on its prosperity and rapidly increasing membership.

After making further arrangements for the entertainment to be held next Thursday evening which promises to be a grand success, the lodge adjourned about ten o'clock—Com.

Arrangements are being made for a game at Lindsay on the 24th, with the Peterborough nine—Watchman.

It looks as though the Peterborough and Lindsay teams would be forced out of the league this year.

Mr. F. W. Shipley, of the Collegiate Institute staff, Lindsay, wheeled to Toronto the other evening in seven and a half hours, being detained on the way for over an hour owing to something going wrong with "der marsheen." The return trip was made in five and three-quarters of an hour. It is to be hoped Mr. Shipley will make an effort to establish a record between Lindsay and Peterborough in order that a little friendly competition may be engendered regarding the lowering of the time between the two towns.

The players will assemble at the post office at 12.30 noon, and march in a body to the train.

Arrangements have been made for a football match between teams from the Separate and Public schools on May 24th. The members of the teams will be 16 years of age and under.

The Gun Club members turned out at Riverside Park last night for their weekly shoot. In a fifteen bird shoot the following scores were made:—

R Tivey	13	B James	13
S Ray	11	H Neil	8
T Rutherford	12	F Ferguson	10

In a ten bird contest with gun below the elbow and birds flown at unknown angles, the scores were as follows:—

S Ray	5	H Neil	8
R Tivey	6	F Ferguson	6
T Rutherford	7

The Athletic lacrosse club of Madoc has organized with the following officers:—Hon. president, Thomas Cross; president, W. Cross; vice-president, J. R. Orr; secretary-treasurer, W. S. Harper; Captain, Ed. Cross; executive committee, R. Colling, J. Kirk, H. H. Ballard, Wm. Gray, K. Stewart.

Saturday, June 2, is named as the date when John S. Johnson will attempt to make a bicycle record of a mile in two minutes or less on the Waltham, Mass., track for a prize of $1,000. The condition of the attempt on Johnson's part are that if he rides faster than the best public performance in the world of 2.06 3-5 and 2.07 1-5, made by Zimmerman and Johnson at Columbus and Springfield, O., he will receive a $300 prize, and for every second lower $100 is to be added to the prize until two minutes or lower shall be reached.

A wager offered by a local sport the other day to the effect that ex-Deputy Registrar Grundy had interviewed Mr. A. F. Wood, M.P.P., at the station on his way through to Toronto on April 23rd, was promptly covered by another member of the sporting fraternity. The latter had cause to regret his haste, however, as, of course, the wager was won by the former, Mr. Wood having acknowledged meeting Mr. Grundy by appointment at the depot.

The Belleville lacrosse players are evidently trying some "monkey-business" as in the Intelligencer a few days since it was stated that the senior team would play a home match on the 24th. The reporter of the Intelligencer is the secretary of the lacrosse club and Mr. C. J. Horkins is in receipt of a letter from him stating that the team will be in Campbellford on the Queen's Birthday. It is hard to say what the club hope to gain by pursuing such a course of action, through the medium of its secretary, but it is safe to say that the Bellevilles will file an appearance and have a try for these silver medals. Although the Millbrook Reporter states that the Shamrocks of Peterborough go to Millbrook for the 24th, such will not be the case, as that team will also go to Campbellford. As the Madocs have organized, they also will show up at Campbellford and will stand a good chance of scooping in the coveted medals.

Fully a score of bicyclists assembled at Court House Park last night and in a body wheeled out to Lakefield and return. Only about 15 minutes were spent at the turning point. Mr. Gus Hay met with a couple of spills on the way by which his wheel was badly damaged and Gus himself laid off for repairs. He is unable to leave his room to-day. The other riders all claim that the ride was a most enjoyable one, and are looking forward with keen anticipation to the next club outing.

Owing to the Palace Restaurant clubrooms being previously engaged, the baseballists who were desirous of arranging for the formation of a league last night had to postpone their meeting until next week.

Both baseballists and lacrossists report splendid practices last night.

AQUATIC.

A little steam launch, which was built by the Wm. English Canoe Company for Mr. T. Neelands, of Port Hope, was launched last night by Best & Metherall, who placed the machinery in the craft. Hardly had the launch been successfully accomplished before Mr. Odette, of the Wm. English canoe factory, steamed up in his smart little yacht and challenged the new arrival to a race. Off they went down the lake and back. The new boat got a lead at the start and maintained it down the lake, but on the way back Mr. Odette let his yacht out and pulled away from the former. Mr. Neelands will have reason to be proud of his craft, as she is one of the trimmest which has been shipped from Peterborough.

Arrangements are now being made for a race between the steam launches owned by Messrs. Odette, Beech, Andrew Johnston, Peter Hamilton and the new boat, which will remain here until Monday, when she will be taken down to Rice Lake and shipped to her owner by rail. The race will take place Saturday evening and the owners of the respective steam launches are all confident in the superlative speed of their boats. The contest will prove an interesting one and will doubtless be witnessed by not a few spectators.

CONSTABLE MORTALLY WOUNDED.

Shot in Revenge By a Man Whom He Had Caused to Be Fined.

COMBER, Ont., May 4.—Constable Wm. Lindsay was shot through the abdomen last evening by James Truskey. Some time ago Lindsay arrested Truskey for cruelty to animals and he was heavily fined. According to Lindsay's statement, a few days after Truskey had threatened revenge on him, but made no attempt to molest the constable till last evening.

Lindsay was just entering the Pizer hotel, when Truskey came out and without any warning opened fire. The murderer fired three shots and then ran. The injured man, who is mortally wounded, was carried to Dr. Abbot's office. He has made a statement. The murderer is still at large and telegrams have been sent to the border towns. Lindsay has a wife and large family of small children. Truskey has a wife and small family also.

The Contagious Hospital.

OTTAWA, May 4.—Some ten or twelve medical men of the city have signed a document, which has been forwarded to the Provincial Board of Health in Toronto, endorsing in the main the report of Dr. Bryce, re Porter's Island. The signers of the document think the report a very valuable one, as it covers the whole ground completely. They think Porter's Island an unsuitable place for a contagious hospital, because of the dampness and danger from the spring freshets.

Burned to the Water's Edge.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont., May 4.—News reached here of the destruction of the steamer Truant by fire. Report says she was burned to the water's edge. She ran ashore on Burnt Island, Georgian bay, and in an endeavor to take her off she caught fire and though everything was done to save her all was in vain. She was owned by Herbert Cleland, of this town.

Three Weeks Notice to Clear The Shop to Let the Contractor at Work.

OUR PLAN TO DODGE A DAMAGE TO OUR STOCK.

We have had notice from the landlord to vacate our store in three weeks to allow the workmen getting to work on alterations to our premises. We cannot get another store to move the stock into, and we want to dodge the chance of damage to the goods by fairly giving away our Clothing and Suit Goods. You know what alterations do for Dry Goods and Clothing Stock while the work is going on. Everything cut down to Cost Prices. Clothing never came so near being given away before—never will again. This Sale will be a record breaker.

SELLING RIGHT AND LEFT TO HUSTLE OUT THE GOODS.

CUT TO THE BONE
Mantles and Capes.

Tell your friends, tell your neighbours, tell even your enemies—about our WONDERFUL SALE now going on.
Every new Mantle, every new Cape, every new Wrap—must go—hence and forth with—and "stand not upon the order of going."—but go at once.
To cut once—and cut deeply—is better than to hack away, little by little—so this blow is to the bone. Read how facts and figures go hand-in-hand:—

Our $15 00 Mantle.....	goes for	$11	65
Our 12 00 Mantles & Capes	"	9	50
Our 11 00 "	"	8	40
Our 8 75 "	"	6	25
Our 8 00 "	"	5	75
Our 6 75 "	"	5	25
Our 4 00 "	"	3	00

We sold yesterday a $12.50 Mantle, handsomely embroidered, full sleeves, for $4.00.
There's no likelihood that the pick of Paris and Berlin Mantles will ever again be so absurdly low. Not a coat in the lot but is to-day worth twice or may be thrice times the price.
But, "It's Fair's Way."

A BLOW AT THE
Dress Goods.

Dress Goods are the vertebræ of our dry goods stock. As the marrow to the vertebræ, so are our MATCHLESS VALUES. Bettering our best is our effort all the time.
1894 stands pre-eminent for sales and attractive bargains in Dress Goods. The splendid success of our sales justifies our policy of marvelously low prices during the plodding hard times, and our new scale of prices is drawing the crowds:—

20 pieces 45 inch Serge, all colours, worth 50c., for 40c.
10 pieces 40 inch Gray and Fawn Debieges, worth 60c., for 35c.
6 pieces 46 inch Satin Cloth, imported to sell at 80c., now 60c.
10 pieces Coloured Cashmeres, worth 50c, for 35c.
6 pieces Coloured Diagonal Serge, worth 40c., sale price 25c.
12 pieces Coloured Serge, all wool at 25c
10 pieces Printed All Wool Delaines, 30 to 36 inches, worth from 40c. to 60c., for 25c.

This is a time for few words. We put all our eloquence into prices and qualities.
"It's Fair's Way."

Customers are heard to say:—"Fair's getting a great run on Carpets." Carpet cutting is certainly more rapid than we expected. This is just the way we want it. We deal in Rich Carpets and Rugs. The fourth floor is loaded with Floor Coverings. We are leaders in prices and new colourings. Prices cut to the bone.
April and May are the months for carpet cleaning. Perhaps your carpet is worn out. Sweeping won't help it. A carpet bought now will save you 20 per cent. "It's Fair's Way."

MILLINERY STIR.

Just now there's more interest than usual going on in our Millinery Department. There is a marked increase in sales, and our new revised prices seems to "startle the oldest inhabitant." The special attractions in our Millinery Parlours are the new designs in Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets for Ladies, Children's Hats, &c. Novelties in beautiful soft roses with foliage in all colours, and other flowers, together with New Ribbons, Feathers and Trimmings.
But the popular prices all round is what is doing the effective selling of the season, and nobody accuses us of charging too much.
But, "It's Fair's Way."

REDISTRIBUTION BILL

Third Reading Carried After an All-Day Discussion.

SOME OPPOSITION OBJECTIONS

Met Squarely by the Government on All Points—Mr. Meredith Uses Some Strong Language—The Registration Bill—Prorogation.

TORONTO, May 5.—Hon. Mr. Harcourt's bill respecting elections in outer districts received its third reading in the Legislature yesterday.

The Redistribution Bill.

Hon. Mr. Gibson moved the House into committee on the bill respecting the representation of certain cities in the Legislative Assembly.

Mr. E. F. Clarke reminded the House that the voters of Toronto, according to the last revised assessment, numbered 48,000, while the strength of the voters in constituencies represented by eight members of the Government, was only 53,000. Despite this fact, the 48,000 voters were only to be given four members, whilst the 53,000 were to have a representation of ten members. This was most unfair, keeping in mind the system of representation by population. The Government had claimed a great deal of credit for the manner in which they had divided that city. The redistribution of seats, they argued, was so fair, that it was impossible for any one, in justice, to say anything against it. He ventured to say it would be impossible to devise any scheme that would be more advantageous to the administration.

Mr. Clarke went on to say that the divisions east and west had been created by drawing a line at right angles from the bay to the extreme north of the city; whilst, instead of dividing the two central districts in the same way, they were made to run from east to west. The people of Toronto would resent this treatment by the Government. He ventured to say that notwithstanding the redistribution of seats, when the Legislature again met it would contain four solid supporters of Mr. Meredith elected by Toronto.

Not Much to Complain Of.

Hon. Mr. Gibson replied that if the hon. member calculated upon returning four opponents of the Government for Toronto at the next election he had not very much to complain of. In regard to the criticisms of the bill, he thought he was safe in saying the general concensus of opinion was that the bill was a fair one. The division of South Toronto was thought to be a proper one, because it was in such a position that in the nature of things it could not grow, whilst the population in the other districts would continue to increase.

Mr. Meredith's Rough Language.

Mr. Meredith said the hon. gentleman and the Government stood, with regard to this bill, very much in the position of the thief who is in the hands of the constable, and after handing over the stolen goods, says: "See what a nice moral man I am." Hon. gentlemen opposite, like the thief, have had possession of one of the seats of Toronto tor eight years. The law—in the form of the people—had their hands upon hon. gentlemen, and now they are surrendering that part of the spoils, not from any consciousness of right, but because they are forced to do it. The Provincial Secretary says, because my hon. friend from Toronto expects the whole four seats will be carried by the Conservatives, therefore it proves too much. The hon. gentleman's logic is faulty there. "It is just as if a thief were to come into my house and make all the preparations with a view to robbing me, and because he is prevented by my vigilance from doing it, he says: 'See what a just and fair man I am. I have not stolen a thing.'"

Hon. Mr. Gibson—These are very happy illustrations.

Mr. Meredith—That is just the position of the hon. gentleman.

Sir Oliver Mowat said that as Mr. Meredith grew in years he did not grow any more gentle in spirit. Every session the hon. gentleman was in the habit of using stronger language and saying more offensive things. He now said the Government were burglars and thieves. The hon. gentman was in the habit of imputing bad motives and got into such a state, he really believed what he said. The hon. gentleman talked about the division of constituencies. He forgets that his friends in the Dominion had carried on jerrymandering to such an extent that even their own friends all over the country were appalled. Then, as to the representation of Toronto. How many members had the Dominion given to Toronto?

Mr. Clarke—They are different constituencies.

Sir Oliver Mowat — But substantially the same. If four members were good for Dominion purposes, they were good for provincial purposes.

Mr. Meredith—What is the hon. gentleman's reason for not doing it in Ottawa?

Sir Oliver Mowat—I want to know the reason his own friend have not done it. He supposed there were difficulties in the way of making a division there. It had been said the Government were forced to abandon minority representation. It was tried as an experiment, but the Government never suggested it was to continue unless it could be extended to the other portions of the country as well. There had, however, been no feeling shown in favor of that system. With respect to cumulative voting, there had not yet been a general demand for it, so that the Government was not justified in adopting it, although they were asked by Toronto labor organizations to do so. As to the argument of unfair distribution, the Government never gained by it, and did that not show the argument was not sound?

Mr. Whitney—it only indicates the way of the transgressor is hard.

Sir Oliver Mowat—My hon. friend and his party have found the way of the transgressor is hard. They have been kept out of office for twenty years.

Toronto Island.

Dr. Eyerson protested against placing the Island in East Toronto.

The provision to that effect was passed.

Respecting Kingston.

Mr. Harty moved to add a clause to the bill: The electoral district of Kingston shall consist of the city of Kingston and the village of Portsmouth, and the township of Kingston, heretofore forming part of the electoral district of Kingston, is taken therefrom and shall hereafter form part of the electoral district of the county of Frontenac. Mr. Harty said that so far as he personally was concerned the change would be no benefit to him, because the township of Kingston gave him a majority of 138 at the last election.

After some discussion the motion was allowed to stand.

Section 7, a proposal relating to Hamilton, was added to the bill, and the House rose for recess.

Afternoon Sitting.

After luncheon Mr. Balfour's bill to amend the Street Railway Act was withdrawn. It will be taken up next session.

A number of verbal changes were made to the registration bill, after which it was reported.

The redistribution bill was again taken up.

Mr. Meredith objected to the proposed change at Kingston.

Sir Oliver Mowat replied that as far as could be learned there was no objection to the change. The township of Addington had passed a resolution favoring it, and a similar resolution had been adopted by the city council of Kingston.

The motion was agreed to.

Before the House rose for recess Sir Oliver Mowat introduced a bill relating to the clerk of the peace of Carleton county.

Evening Sitting.

The redistribution bill was again taken up after recess, and a number of amendments concurred in.

On the third reading being moved, Mr. Monk moved that the bill be referred back in order to make provision for the division of the city of Ottawa into two electoral districts, and striking out that portion of the bill taking a portion of the township of Nepean from the county of Carleton and adding it to the city of Ottawa.

The amendment was lost on a division of 29 to 12. The third reading then carried.

Registration Bill.

The House went into committee on the registration bill, which was reported.

On motion for the third reading, Mr. Meredith moved the following amendment: That all the words after "that" be struck out and the following substituted therefor: "The said bill imposes on the manhood suffrage electors who are not also municipal electors the necessity for personal attendance for the purpose of being registered as voters, but does not impose that condition on other electors, and thereby establishes an unjust and invidious distinction between different classes of persons entitled to the franchise and violates sound principles of legislation, which demand that the laws should be framed as to bear equally on all classes of the people; and this House, in assenting to the third reading of the said bill, does not commit itself to the principle of applying the system of registration to a portion only of the electorate, or to the principle of entrusting the preparation of the voters' lists to boards composed in part of officials holding their offices at the pleasure of the Government of the day."

Mr. Wood (Brant) moved in amendment to the amendment that the bill provided better safeguards and more complete facilities for obtaining pure voters' lists than prevailed under the old system.

Mr. Meredith claimed the amendment to the amendment out of order.

Mr. Speaker ruled that the point of order was not well taken.

After some discussion Mr. Woods' amendment was withdrawn, and Mr. Meredith's amendment was defeated by 29 to 13.

An amendment by Mr. Clarke (Toronto) was lost on the same division, and the bill was read a third time.

Mr. Grundy's Dismissal.

Mr. Meredith brought up the case of the dismissal of Mr. Grundy, deputy registrar of Peterborough, and hoped the Government would give assurance that an unjust dismissal would not be permitted.

Sir Oliver Mowat said that if Mr. Grundy were dismissed for the evidence he gave before the Public Accounts Committee it was a wrong thing and the Government should exercise whatever power it possessed to prevent this injury being done. It was said, however, that the reason of his dismissal was on account of a letter he had written to the press after giving evidence. He had not seen the letter himself, but he would fully investigate the causes which had led to it. Mr. Grundy was entitled to all the consideration the Government could give him.

The House adjourned.

Prorogation takes place this afternoon.

TRUSKEY ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

The Murderer of the Comber Constable Shoots Himself When Arrested.

COMBER Ont., May 5.—Lindsay, the constable shot by Truskey, died yesterday morning. He suffered intense agony an hour or two before death, but the closing moments of his life were peaceful.

Truskey, the murderer of Constable Lindsay, shot himself while being pursued by the officers of the law. He had been located in his own woods, and stood behind a brush heap and with a revolver in his hands defied the officers. The officers ordered him to throw up his hands, but he refused. Thereupon the officers fired several shots and advanced. Seeing that he was overpowered, Truskey pointed his revolver at his left breast and fired.

A rig was despatched for a doctor, who started immediately for the scene. It is thought he is mortally wounded. Crown Attorney Clark, of Windsor, has arrived and will watch the case for the crown at the inquest now going on.

The recent discovery of Dr. Eseljay is the best remedy for biliousness and all stomach and liver troubles. While regulating the digestive system Eseljay's Liver Lozenges act as a tonic and do not weaken like pills. They are the best family medicine on the market. 25 cents at all druggists.

ABRUPTLY ADJOURNED

A Juror in the Sharon Case Succumbs During the Proceedings.

STARTLING EVIDENCE ADDUCED

Testimony as to the Purchase of Poison by the Prisoner Osman—The Incident in Connection With the "Currant Preserves"—Pegg a Rimer.

TORONTO, May 5.—At the trial of the Sharon poisoning case yesterday, Dr. Campbell, of Bradford, brother of the Bradford druggist, took the stand and testified to George Osman purchasing strychnine from him on January 4, which he said was to poison foxes. He saw Osman's signature in the "poison book" on the date of December 26, and made the remark that he was getting enough of it. Osman said he had broken the bottle and lost his first purchase.

Mrs. Eliza Wilson, of Newmarket, wife of the storekeeper, testified to selling oysters on or somewhere about January 2 to a man who took them away in a glass sealer. She could not positively identify Osman as the man.

Dr. Howe testified that on January 2 he was telegraphed to go to Sharon. When he arrived he found Walter Evans in bed, attended by his wife, John Kavanagh, John Westley and Maggie Reid. He was suffering from spasms. His arms and legs were twitching; his jaws were set tight and had to be pried open. The doctor prescribed opium to put him asleep and when he visited his patient next day he found him better, but somewhat stupified. He gave Mrs. Evans some powders for him. The third day Evans was well. On the fourth day he was again telegraphed for. He found Evans suffering as before, but his condition was worse. He was "raving and unconscious." The doctor and John Kavanagh worked with him half a day. He was certain there were symptoms of stryohnine, but admitted on cross-examination that decayed vegetable matter would produce the same symptoms. Mrs. Evans, he said, was very attentive to her husband during his illness.

John Kavanagh, postmaster at Sharon, testified to going to Evans' house on Jan. 2. He described the symptoms similar to the descriptions of other witnesses. He knew Mrs. Evans well, but knew nothing wrong of her.

Mr. McCarty and Mrs. Bremmer gave similar evidence, both being at the house when Evans was taken ill.

Mrs. Margaret Evans, Walter Evans' sister-in-law, stated that she went with the doctor on Wednesday morning to see her brother. He and his wife put the illness down to the oysters. Afterward she went to get a warm drink for her brother and she saw Pegg and the prisoner in deep conversation behind the bar. On Thursday she again called on her brother. On that day Osman, who had gone away on the previous day, returned. Her brother was doing very well. On Friday she called again. In the afternoon she went for Mrs. Evans' mother. When she returned her brother was sitting up having tea. After tea Lottie asked her if she would give Walter his powder, as he had refused to take it from her. She did so, in her mother's presence. Ten minutes after her brother was taken ill again. She asked his wife if she had given her brother the medicine, and she said she could not open his jaws.

Walter Evans' brother Frank was next called and went over the story of the former's illness. He heard Pegg asking Maggie Reid to go away so that he (Pegg) could go up and see Walter, but Mrs. Margaret said it was not necessary for him to go up.

W. L. Campbell, the Bradford druggist, testified to Osman buying the stryohnine from him on Dec. 26 and from his brother on Jan. 4, stating he wanted to poison foxes.

W. J. Wilson, of Toronto, said he had been at the Sharon hotel on one occasion and had seen Maggie Reid bring some preserves from the kitchen. Mrs. Evans took the preserves upstairs and afterwards brought them down again. Some time after the girl Reid took a spoon and began to taste them, whereupon Mrs. Evans exclaimed: "Maggie, you darn fool, do you want to croak, too?" Mrs. Evans threw the preserves in the stove, saying at the same time, "The doctor spilled some powders in them, you know."

A trapper named Kirby was called on, and said it was no unusual thing to use strychnine to kill foxes.

William West, of Sharon, testified to meeting Pegg on an occasion when Walter Evans was away. Witness had been drinking, but Pegg "was fuller than he was." Pegg had remarked to him that it was a pity Evans did not stay away. That night he saw Pegg kiss Mrs. Evans.

William Marles, of Holt, also saw Pegg kiss Mrs. Evans.

At the evening session of the court Herbert Bosworth testified to seeing Marles and Pegg in the Sharon hotel on January 18. He did not see the latter kiss Mrs. Evans, but heard something that sounded like it.

Judah Leppar, a farmer, swore to seeing Pegg and Mrs. Evans behind the bar during Walter Evans' sickness. The same evening he saw Mrs. Evans and Pegg together in a shall outbuilding behind the hotel.

At this stage in the proceedings the court was obliged to suspend business, one of the jurors, Mr. Chapman, taking sick. He received medical attention, but was not well enough to continue in attendance, and the court adjourned.

Mr. Chapman's Illness.

Last night Juror Chapman, who had been taken to a hotel, became much worse, and was removed to the general hospital. This illness will have an important bearing on the case, as unless he recovers sufficiently to resume his duties the case will have to be discharged from the Assizes, another jury summoned and the proceedings gone over again.

THE BRIDGE SCANDAL.

THE Wellington street and Grand Trunk Dominion bridges over the Lachine Canal are not of the kind that will carry the Dominion Government safely over. These bridges have been built at a scandalous and wicked waste of public money. Corruption and extravagance, that bid fair to beat the government record, have characterized every step. While Mr. Marter is complaining of the extravagance of the maintenance of Ontario public institutions, in the way of using too many eggs, he would do well to contrast the Ontario Government methods with Dominion Government methods. Under the former the Parliament Buildings were built without a single dollar being improperly spent, while the commissioners selected by the Dominion Government itself, to investigate the bridge scandal declared that the cost was something like double the amount necessary. The scandal is so outrageous that the Montreal Star, an organ that has stood by the Government in a good many shady situations, can't stand the bridge scandal. The Star is quoted to show what a friendly journal thinks of the business. What an enemy might say can be imagined, and the whole truth will come out, (the half truths brought out by a partizan commission are bad enough) when the matter is fully and fairly investigated in Parliament. The Star says :—

The official account of the manner in which the Wellington street and Grand Trunk bridges over the Lachine canal were built, published last night in our columns, presents an almost incredible picture of the marvellous way in which public servants deal with public trusts. The citizen who does not patiently read every sentence of it defrauds himself of information that he should have at any cost for the guidance of his judgment as a responsible voter in the country. What justice is there in asking farmers and mechanics to toil and moil in field and workshop, and then take from them the cream of their earnings in the form of Federal taxation to be wasted like this? It is a mockery to say we must tax this, that and the other commodity for revenue, when such leaks are wide open.

No synopsis of the report can convey the full enormity of the thing. It must be read as whole. But a culled sentence or two may serve as an appetizer. Take first the commissioners' estimate of the excessive cost of the substructure, put badly in tabular form:

We consider that any reliable contractor could have executed the same amount of work at the same season and in the same time as was done in the substructure for $160,000.

That, allowing for a fair profit on the labour contract and for men working for a government with officials managing the work harmoniously, properly, the same work should have been done for $200,000 under such conditions as existed during last winter, which would include the hire or cost of necessary plant and temporary works.

THE TOTAL AMOUNTS RENDERED FOR THE BRIDGES

Amount to	$490,725
Deduct superstructure	60,400
Cost of substructure	430,325
Deduct what work should have cost	200,000
	230,325
Deduct plant and material on hand, engineering staff, travelling expenses, etc	34,629
Excessive cost of works	$195,696

Some partially explanatory paragraphs follow. The first two are:

The Wellington bridge substructure should have cost $144,000. The pay lists for labour alone, without taking into account materials and supplies, plant and false works, amount to $131,643.

The Grand Trunk bridge substructure should have cost $56,000. The pay lists for labour alone, without taking into account materials and supplies, plant and false works, amount to $139 622.

Then, later, after considering all the excuses given, is this:

Taking into account the entire number of causes mentioned, there still remains a large balance, for which we can offer no explanation, if the pay-lists for labour or the time-keeping are not fictitious.

Talking about the labour contract, it was awarded by tender. Four tenders were received; and of them the Commissioners remark as follows:

There is considerable doubt whether these tenders were bona fide. The competition may not have been genuine, and in reality there may have been only one tender.

Here is a "cameo" on the pay list question:

One cheque was paid, the man did not receive the cheque nor money; his mark was witnessed although he was able to write his name.

The general conclusions reached by the Commission are already well known; and the whole affair will probably come before Parliament at the present session. Then, if Parliament has in it the power of wise leadership, it can never hope for a better opportunity for its display. The country must be freed from these too frequently recurring open sores, and it is pre-eminently the function of Parliament—both in its capacity as the assembled wisdom of the people and in that of the guardian of the public revenues—to furnish a cure. Then, in this specific case, no guilty man should be allowed to escape.

For a real thorough-paced scandal we're afraid the Ontario Government is "not in it." Mr. Marter's egg scandal, Dr. Ryerson's nepotism, The Empire's calf-cough scandal add little deputy scandal are all very well in their way, but they sink into insignificance in the lurid light of the Dominion Government bridge scandal.

A WOMAN'S RESCUE.

An Interesting Story from Paris Station—A Sufferer for Six Years Finds Relief After Many Remedies Had Failed.

Mrs. E. H. Skinner is a well known and esteemed resident of Paris Station, Ont. To a representative of the Review Mrs. Skinner recently told a very interesting story of recovery to health afeer long years of illness. "I had been ill," she said, "for about six years. My blood had become thin and watery, bringing about a weakness amounting almost to a collapse. There were numerous distressing symptoms, such as dizziness, severe headache, and palpitation of the heart, and you can scarcely form an idea of what I suffered during that time. During the six years I was ill I was treated by four doctors in Brantford and one in Paris, but they seemed not able to do anything for me. When the physicians failed I tried many remedies, but with no better results. All this cost a great deal of money, and I derived no benefit, I was completely discouraged. I found myself growing weaker and hardly able to go about. And yet one never wholly despairs, for seeing Dr. Williams' Pink Pills so strongly recommended, I determined to try them, and I have reason to be thankful that I did so. I had not been taking Pink Pills long when for the first time in six years, I found myself improving. Gradually the troubles that had made my life miserable disappeared, and I am again a healthy woman, and have no hesitation in saying that I believe I owe not only my recovery but my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills." As there are thousands of women throughout the country similarly troubled, Mrs. Skinner's story of renewed health will point to them the remedy which will prove equally efficacious in their cases. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are very valuable to women. They build up the blood, restore the nerves, and eradicate those troubles which make the lives of so many women, old and young, a burden. Dizziness, palpitation of the heart, nervous headache and nervous prostration speedily yield to this wonderful medicine.

These pills are sold only in boxes, (trade mark and wrapper printed in red ink,) at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schnectady, N.Y.

"God gave us meat, but the devil sent us cooks," is a trite saying. From bad cooking, fast eating and overeating, comes a whole train of diseases—indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, catarrh of the stomach, headache, dizziness, and the like. God also gave us a brainy man, who compounded the "Golden Medical Discovery," a corrective of all the ills resulting from overeating and bad blood. Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, has furnished in the "Discovery," a great desideratum in America, where everybody are in such a hurry to make money, they have no time to eat, and scarcely any time to live. It invigorates the liver, cleanses the blood and tones up the system.

A DEAR DAUGHTER SAVED.

Paine's Celery Compound Makes Her Active and Strong.

ALLOPATHIC AND HOMEOPATHIC TREATMENT PROVED ALMOST USELESS.

Fathers! Mothers! Make Your Children Healthy.

MISS STINCHCOMBE.

A loving and thoughtful mother gratefully testifies that her dear child was saved, and made well and strong through the use of Paine's Celery Compound, that marvellous medicine that always cures after physicians give up, and pronounce their patients incurable. Mrs. A. R. Stinchcombe, 19 William street, London, Ont., writes as follows:

"I think it a duty to write you for the benefit of all who have delicate children, and to make known what Paine's Celery Compound has done for my child. She has been delicate all her life. I have tried many medicines, and have had her under allopathic and homeopathic treatment, with but little benefit. Almost in despair, and as a last resort, I tried Paine's Celery Compound, and after using three bottles she is now perfectly well and strong. I have also used your medicine myself for complications arising from overwork, loss of rest, and am greatly benefitted thereby. I would strongly urge all who are any way afflicted to do as I have done, "try Paine's Celery Compound, and be convinced of its wonderful curing power."

It makes the heart sad and sorrowful to see the young suffer when they should be bright, strong and active, full of lively hope and pleasure and enjoying the glorious springtime of life.

There are thousands of boys and girls in our fair Canada who are in such a condition that they cannot mingle happily with their school-fellows and playmates. They are pale, weak, nervous, listless and fretful; their blood is impure and stagnant, and they go about half dead from day to day. Such boys and girls require a nerve food and builder—a medicine that will act on the entire nervous system.

Experience and grand results have clearly demonstrated that Paine's Celery Compound is just what the young require for the strengthaning and building up of the body, for the making of pure and healthy blood and for the harmonious working of all the digestive organs.

Do not trifle with the common advertised nostrums of the day; they aggravate suffering, and often cause serious complications.

Paine's Celery compound has the endorsement of the oldest physicians (many of whom prescribe it daily) in our land. You are not asked to use Paine's Celery Compound because it is recommended by those who prepare it; you have the testimony of your friends and neighbours to rely on; the best Canadian people have loudly spoken in its favour. Clergymen, lawyers, bankers, members of parliament, business men, farmers—all have written in its favour, and hundreds have confessed that it saved them from the grave.

Fathers! Mothers! Surely this is the medicine for your dear ones. Now is the time to strengthen and tone up the weak children. Procure Paine's Celery Compound; do not be induced by anyone to accept something else; there is only one medicine that can rescue and save the frail and perishing.

Dastardly Work of Firebugs.

HAMILTON, May 5.—Yesterday the barn and contents on the farm of Solomon Gage, about three miles east of the city, were totally destroyed by fire. Five horses, agricultural implements, grain, hay and fowl were destroyed. The loss will exceed $2,500, and there is no insurance. The fire was undoubtedly the work of firebugs, and the rig which they drove was traced to the city limits where the clue was lost.

The Imprisoned Tourists.

GRATZ, May 5.—The efforts to save the tourists imprisoned in the Lugloch cave was continued all day. One diver worked in the torrent at the cave's mouth for three hours, during which he was twice dragged out unconscious. When he abandoned the task he said it was absolutely impossible to dislodge the wreckage. He was confident he heard knocking inside the cave.

Missing From London.

LONDON, Ont., May 5.—Joseph Boyd, brother to ex-Ald. John Boyd, left his home here on Wednesday afternoon and has not been seen since. The police were notified, but as yet have found no trace of the missing man. When seventeen years old he received a serious injury on the head, and while he completely recovered physically, he has been of weak mind ever since.

Killed by Falling From a Land Roller.

STRATFORD, May 5.—While driving a land roller yesterday David Armstrong, of North Easthope, was by some mishap thrown off and instantly killed, his neck being broken by the fall. He was a son of Adam Armstrong and about sixteen years of age.

The man who called sarsaparilla a fraud, had good reason; for he got hold of a worthless mixture at "reduced rates." He changed his opinion, however, when he began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It pays to be careful, when buying medicines.

MY BEST SELLER AT PRESENT.

"I usually handle four or five of the best known cough remedies, and, of course, have a preparation of my own; but this year I find Havard Bronchial Syrup is the popular leader. Once it is tried, I find the the people ask for it again, and this is the best recommendation a cough remedy can have. Havard is my best seller just now."

These remarks come from a prominent city druggist, and are worthy of the consideration of all who require a prompt and honest remedy for curing sore throat, hoarseness, coughs and lung troubles. Harvard Bronchial Syrup has been well and severely tested in Canada, and now stands at the head of all preparationg for the cure of all difficulties resulting from sudden colds.

Will Ask for a Subsidy.

SHELBURNE, N.S., May 4.—The Municipal Council of Shelburne municipality has unanimously passed a memorial to the Dominion Government asking that a subsidy be granted the Coast Railway Company from Yarmouth to Lockport. Mr. Robertson, M.P.P., president of the company, appeared before the council and stated the position of affairs.

Mr. Meredith's Opponent.

LONDON, Ont., May 4.—The Liberal convention held last night nominated W. R. Hobbs, of Hobbs Hardware Co., to contest the city against W. R. Meredith, M.P.P., at the coming Provincial elections.

K. D. C. Pills should be taken with K. D. C. when a laxative is required.

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair had been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually "topped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterward, using in all about a quater of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seem to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, May 5, 1894.

The earnings of Canadian Pacific for the week ended April 30 were $372,000, a decrease of $85,000.

The clearings of Montreal banks this week were $9,286,959, as against $9,674,559 the corresponding week of last year.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Receipts of grain small. Oats unchanged, with sales of 200 bushels at 40 to 41c. Wheat unchanged, white quoted at 62c, red at 61c and goose at 58c. Peas are nominal at 64 to 64½c, and barley at 42c.

Chicago wheat market was firm on reports of heavy shipments at the seaboard. The close showed a gain of 1 cent. Corn also was firm, closing ½ cent up. Oats were strong, the close showing a net gain of ½ to ¼ cent for cash.

Speculation at New York Stock Exchange was confined almost exclusively to the industrials. The strength and activity of the stocks was due to announcements from Washington that the senate had agreed to push the tariff bill. The amount of gold to be shipped from this port and Boston amounts to $2,950,000 of which $2,100,000 was drawn from the sub-treasury. The total gold exports this week foot up $5,450,000.

Bank clearing totals at 83 cities for the week ended May 3, 1891, show totals United States $955,219,455; decrease, as compared last week, 30.9, exclusive of New York the decrease for the week is 20.0. For the Dominion of Canada: Winnipeg, Winnipeg, $632,077, not included in totals. Totals, $16,772,977; decrease, 4.9.

NOT TO LOSE HARCOURT

The Statement That Sir William Will Retire is Unauthorized.

HIS WORK ON THE BUDGET

Connected With His Responsibility as Leader of the Commons Was a Severe Tax on His Strength —Will See the Budget Through.

LONDON, May 5.—The Sun asserts that Sir William Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, will not be a candidate for return to Parliament at the next election.

Lewis Harcourt said to-day that the statement of his father's intention to retire from office was entirely unauthorized.

A Crowning Achievement.

The Daily News this morning says: "There is nothing novel in these rumors. They have no reference to the present or immediate future. It is no secret that the labor of preparing the budget, whilst he was leading the House, severely taxed the strength of the Chancellor of the Exchequer. He intends to see the budget through, and that is a long job. No statesman could desire a greater achievement as the crowning work of his political career, but the Liberals do not intend to lose him."

Thought it was Cancer.

James McMillan, Esq., Helena Avenue, Bracondale, Toronto, Canada, writes: "I have been suffering from dyspepsia for over 20 years, and have tried every supposed cure, which in some cases gave me temporary relief, but the trouble came back again with renewed force, until I almost despaired of being cured, thinking that instead of dyspepsia it must be cancer of the stomach I had. For the last three years I have been in agony from pain in the stomach, besides other symtoms innumerable, until I could not even move about from pain and weakness. At last I saw your K. D. C. advertised and procured a free sample which I found doing me good. I have used five packages and am free at present from pain or ache, although it is six months since I have been cured, I believe permanently."

Do not neglect coughs, colds, asthma, and bronchitis, but cure them by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

No lead poison, or anything injurious, contained in Dr. Grant's "Hairene." Ask your druggist for it.

IN COATS.

There is more length to the new Coats for 1894 than has been used in Men's Dress since the 60's.

THE DOUBLE BREASTED FROCK is the most fastiduous garment man has put on in a generation. It adds to the stature of the man and conceals defects of figure. It is short waisted, snug fitting, long tailed and beautifully moulded to the figure. The Skirts are hollow at the top and form a beautiful curve, which is the most distinctive thing about the new styles.

Then there is the THREE BUTTON CUTAWAY Coat which is a high favourite. It is popularly described as the "Pigeon Wing" on account of its sloping tails. The sleeves are of moderate size and are closed with a vent for three buttons. If properly made it will cling rather closely to the hips.

The new CUTAWAY SACK COAT for business wear is one of the most popular of the season. It has caught the fancy of the young men. All the pockets should have flaps. The collar rolls low and is not faced with Silk.

Any of these garments made up to order to please the most fastidious dresser and with faultless devotion to the fashion plates

A Government BOMBSHELL THROWN INTO THE LIFE INSURANCE CAMP!

The following statement comes from the government Blue Book. It covers a period of sixteen years, and is sworn to as correct by representatives of each Company:

Statement of Premiums received and Cash Profits paid back to Policy Holders from 1877 to 1892, both years inclusive:—

COMPANY.	Premiums Received.	Dividends Paid to Policy Holders.	Ratio of Dividends to Premiums, %
CANADA LIFE	$16,368,307	$2,946,433	18.13
Confederation Life	6,165,432	637,926	10.35
North American	2,327,062	32,857	1.41
Ontario Mutual	3,878,086	433,284	11.17
Sun Life	5,527,720	355,280	6.43

Never in the history of Life Insurance has the struggle for business been keener. Never has the conflict been hotter. Never have the Companies felt as they feel now, the necessity for throwing all the energy at their command into the field. The most intelligent and best men have to be employed. All kinds of plans of insurance are submitted. Each Company determined in securing the supremacy in the good will of the public, in establishing their name, the utterance of which, shall convey to the minds of the people the essential characteristics of

UNDOUBTED SECURITY,
RIGID ECONOMY,
GOOD INVESTMENTS,
LARGEST PROFITS

WHY?

Because millons of dollars are being paid annually for Life Insurance, and the Companies that can show these features have attained a position which will guarantee their future success, for money will flow freely into the best investments.

The Canada Life Policy Holders can look at the above statement with a smile of satisfaction, yet sympathise with their friends who are not so favourably situated.

They can throw their Life Policies down in the face of opponents and successfully challenge the production of more profitable policies, they can stand the onslaught of Agents who will almost cover them with literature and estimates of Tontine, Semi-Tontine, Return Premiums, Reserved Dividends, Annuity and Endownment plans of insurance, and with a quiet assurance feel that

As The Canada Life is Making the Most Profits, She Can Pay the Largest Profits.

READER. If you want Life Insurance choose the Canada Life and join the throng of contented policy holders who are insured with the Company carrying about 45 per cent. of the total insurance in force of the above named Companies

A Remarkable Egg.

Mr. Richard Waram, South Peterborough, possesses an ambitious game hen He has left at the EXAMINER office an egg dropped by this remarkable fowl which weighs within a slight fraction of four ounces. The longer and shorter circumferences are respectively 8 inches and 6¼ inches. Not only is she a game but which is the same thing, a "Grit" hen, and true to her political faith, she comes to the rescue of the Mowat government in its time of peril. She has taken to laying massive eggs, twice the size of ordinary hen fruit. If the asylums and public institutions were supplied with eggs of this description there would be fewer used and Mr. Marter will be deprived of the tremendous argument he is using to show the extravagance of the unspeakable "Grits."

A Strong Entertainment Combination.

An excellent and versatile musical organization the Eden-Fontana combination will appear at the Opera House on Friday May 11th, under the auspices of the Fire Brigade Band. The company consists of Grace Eden "the Georgia Wonder," the most remarkable phenomenon ever witnessed, a giant's strength in a woman's frail frame. She performs prodigies of strength and weighs only 96 lbs; Mr. Chas. Kelly, basso soloist and guitarist and mandolinist; Prof. Fontana, the hypnotist and mind reader, and Madam Fontana, also a mind reader. Of the varied and enticing entertainment presented by this company the provincial press speaks in the highest terms:—Woodstock Sentinel Review—"The Eden-Fontana Combination gave one of the best entertainments ever given in Woodstock. Everybody delighted. Should they ever return they will be greeted with a bumper house." Orangeville Banner—"The concert was clean, pure and delightful, and the Chosen Friends are to be congratulated on providing such an enjoyable evening." Clifford Express—"They are an excellent company and deserve crowded houses wherever they go. The press cannot speak too highly of them."

Mr. John Robertson, of Bobcaygeon, was at Jacob's Island on Thursday arranging for the annual picnic of Victoria Farmer's Institute on the above date. A large crowd is expected and a fine programme of sports will be run off. The sister associations and the farmers generally are cordially invited to join in a pleasant outing.

Poison in Tea.

In England tea has been discovered contaminated with lead, undoubtedly from being wrapped in packages containing lead. This is a matter which is being enquire into, inasmuch as lead is a dangerous poison and its presence in so many packages of tea may well cause grave public alarm. Mason & Co., grocers, have no confidence in package teas, as their English blends surpass all teas placed on the market.

A Most Miraculous Escape.

Mr. George Cunningham, a painter in the employ of Contractor Watson, fell from a second story window of Ormond & Walsh's drug store at noon to-day, but miraculously escaped injury, with the exception of some cuts on his face. He was standing on a box placed on a ledge and was engaged in painting the window frame, when the box tilted and he was displaced from his lofty perch and fell a distance of about 18 or 20 feet to the sidewalk. Naturally the breath was knocked out of him for a few minutes, but in a comparatively short space of time he was able to pick himself up and walk off home. Doctors Pigeon and King were summoned but could not ascertain that any injuries of an internal nature had resulted.

Laid at Rest.

The funeral of the late Lewis Seward took place yesterday afternoon. The ceremony at the church, though it was at a busy hour of the day, attracted a large attendance. The church, especially the organ and organ loft, was deeply draped in black. The casket was literally buried in flowers, wreaths, etc., including a beautiful floral harp, the gift of the choir by whom their late leader was deeply beloved; hundreds who took a last look at the peaceful face of the dead had their vision obscured by blinding tears, as they turned away. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. R. Young, assisted by Rev. E. F. Torrance. As the casket moved from the church, the mournful measures of the Dead March in Saul came from the organ. A long cortege followed the remains to their last resting place, the Little Lake Cemetery.

Peterborough Council No. 97, R. T. of T.

On Thursday and Friday evenings of this week special meetings of the select degree of Peterborough Council, R.T. of T., were held in their handsomely furnished rooms on Water street for the purpose of raising members to that degree. Ten members, embracing some of our most influential citizens were received at these meetings. A fortnight ago others were admitted to this degree and still there is a number more to follow. These accesions will greatly strengthen this society and place it in a commanding position to do its work in this community. The Royal Templars of Temperance, while recognized as one of the most progressive and aggressive of the temperance organizations, seeks to secure to its members the benefits of assessment insurance at the lowest possible cost by restricting its benefits to those who will take and keep a pledge of total abstinence, thereby eliminating that doubtful class of risks—the moderate drinkers. Dr. Fife, with intense devotion to the work, fills the chair of the Select Councillor and Mr. S. R. Armstrong, town clerk, that of Past Councillor.

—The I. O. O. F. lodge rooms are fast approaching completion, but it will keep the contractors hustling to have everything shipshape by the evening of the 8th, when the opening reception takes place. When finished the local Oddfellows can boat of apartments than which no finer exist in the province.

—Peterborough town council at its last meeting voted a sum to provide the mayor with a gavel to assist in keeping order. At the last meeting of the Lindsay council Mayor Walters was assisted by two constables. If a gaval will accomplish the same work by all means let us have one and that speedily.—Lindsay Post.

—The telephone linemen are still busy putting in the metallic circuit. When the work is completed the interruptions caused by the passing of the street cars will cease. The new 60 foot poles along Charlotte and Simcoe streets are now all placed in position and are of sufficient height to carry the wire along above the tree tops.

—The Empire publishes to-day what it terms a complete list of the candidates who have been nominated for the approaching provincial elections. The list is about as accurate as The Empire's facts usually are. The name of Mr. Thos. Blezard, M.P.P., who was re-nominated in December last, is omitted from the list.

—Lindsay lodge of Oddfellows, No. 100, will celebrate the 75th anniversary of Oddfellowship in America by attending divine service in a body next Sunday at the Baptist church. A large delegation from the local lodges will go to the Scrugog town to-night and will remain over until Monday in order to participate in the ceremonies.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

(From a Correspondent.)

Mr. Jackson is sadly disappointed in not being in time to catch the steamer for Harwood the other day, and vows that he will be in readiness next trip. He says he will change his feet, generally using, as he says, the left foot; next time will be the right.

The steamer Daisy arrived in port with a barge (60 cord in all) of long wood, and is being unloaded at the P. S. & N. Co.'y's wharf, town.

Mr. Thos. Coward, of Hiawatha, Rice Lake, returned home after an extended visit to friends and relatives in the Old World, and is looking excellent. He is renewing old acquaintances in his usual good-natured manner.

The English Canoe Co. are at present doing a flourishing business in their line, shipments being at present for the coming week as follows: Lowell, Mass.; Washington, D. C.; Newton, N. J.; Gravenhurst, Toronto, Montreal, Hespler, consignments going forward to England, British Columbia, and Detroit, Mich., this week; racing canoes being built for the champion of Detroit river and prominent Montreal racing men. The trials of the steam launches built by this firm this spring have demonstrated in view of the public so interested, that they are among the fastest in existence.

Capt. Ada, of Kingston, formerly of the Ontario and Richelieu Navigation Coy's line of steamers and well-known throughout this province for the last 27 years, arrived in town yesterday morning and has accepted the captainship of the new steamer, City of Peterborough. The captain was driven in and about town, Ashburnham, locks and Yankee Bonnet, accompanied by Capt. Clare Calcutt, and expressed himself as being greatly pleased as to the appearance of the beautiful waters of the Otonabee. He says it is one of the most beautiful, and, at the same time, picturesque rivers of its length that he has ever traversed. He thinks the coming season will be a most successful one, as all, rich and poor, can avail themselves of a day's outing, or an hour or two.

In all probability the P. S. & N. Co. will purchase the steamer Sunbeam of Lakefield and place her on the Otonabee in connection with their fleet.

The river will be dotted with steam launches this season. Quite a number are at present being built at the different factories in town and, at the same time, will be operated by our own citizens.

Mr. Dick Lund, of the steamer City of Peterborough, met with rather a painful accident yesterday afternoon, while engaged in placing the connecting rod of the guard valves, by having three fingers of she left hand severely crushed. However he took things cooly and attended to his duties in his usual manner till the gong rang up the hour. He will not in all likelihood be laid up as he has a great head and a great nerve. "Dick" is considered an A 1 man all around, being quite a genius.

The steamer Daisy is having a horizontal return flue boiler, carrying 130 pounds of steam, placed in her to-day. The Daisy will consequently be one of the swiftest boats in and about the Otonabee, and will make it is anticipated, 14 or 15 knots per hour.

Capt. Clare Calcutt will be first mate on the new steamer. He is an old head, and knows the lake and the Otonabee and her tributaries in the dark, and is exceedingly popular with all who may come in contact with him, particularly the ladies.

Capt. Ada returned last evening to Kingston via C.P.R., and will return Monday.

The Canadian Canoe Co are busily engaged and are working night and day, in fact they find things so booming that they cannot comply with the demands of the people. They are about to construct a couple of steam launches for export at once. They will excel anything heretofore turned out by the works.

The new steamer City of Peterborough is almost dressed in the latest modern spring fashion, her dress goods in the way of canvas being of several different hues, but when she is "decked" with her final coat, 'twill be out of sight.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The young men's meeting at 3 o'clock will be addressed by Mr. T. H. Martin, subject, "A time for your life."

Sunday afternoon at 4.15 the young men's meeting will be addressed by Mr. R. A. Ward.

Mr. Stanley, of the Canadian General Electric Works, will address the Gospel and song service to-morrow evening at 8.30. Mr. Stanley has been a prominent Association worker in American cities and occupies a high position in the Young People's Baptist Union.

About Ended.

The annual stock-taking sale at China Hall is about ended, as it closes on the 20th inst. While it lasts you can buy anything in the immense stock at cost price, and in the case of slightly damaged or mismatched goods, for half price. We have some splendid bargins left, call and inspect.—MACFARLANE WILSON.

The More They Get the More They Want.

The wall papers kept in stock at the Peterborough Bookstore are so pretty and cheap that a customer who buys paper intending to cover only one room, is so delighted that he returns and procures papers for three or four other rooms. This is only natural, for our papers are so beautiful and so low in price that persons find it very hard to resist the temptation of buying. A. H. STRATTON & Co.

Housekeepers, Attention!

We have added to our extensive lines of hardware a complete line of tinware, which we will sell at bottom prices. For the outer decoration of your homes we would ask you to call and see our fine line of lawn goods—mowers, hose, shears, syringes, etc. See our cheap American mowers. For prices they beat anything we ever had. No one with a grass plot need deny themselves. THE PETERBOROUGH HARDWARE Co.

ORGANIZATION MEETING.

A meeting of the friends and supporters of Mr. Stratton and the Mowat Administration, will be held in the committee rooms over Brisbin's flour and feed store, Hunter street, next Monday night, May 7th, to organize the town for the coming general election campaign. Mr. Stratton hopes to see as many of his friends as possible at this preliminary meeting. One of the chief essentials of success is prompt and thorough organization, and it is hoped there will be a grand rally of workers present on Monday night.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

The Port Hope Lacrosse Club is strengthened this year by the signing of Mr. George Tite, formerly of the British Columbia team which toured Canada last season, and Mr. Frank Doherty, of last year's Stratford team.

The Bobcaygeon bicycle clue has decided upon wearing a brown uniform, and the club colours will be red, yellow and black. Spins are to be taken on Tuesdays and Fridays. On Wednesday Mr. Robinson, traveller for Sunlight Soap, a wheelsman of twelve years' experience, was in town. He does a large portion of his travelling by wheel, and makes fifty miles a day without fatigue. On Wednesday, for instance, he left Lindsay and ran to Fenelon Falls, called upon his customers there and reached here shortly after eleven. After taking his orders, he left here about half past two for Peterborough, and calculated to do the run in two hours, leaving plenty of time to canvas the town.—Independent.

Mr. Ed. Roy, of the Royal Electric Works, Montreal, is in town for a few days visiting his father, Mr. R. M. Roy, tie inspector. "Ed" is a bicycling enthusiast of the first water and ranks in the first class of Canadian amateur long distance riders. He has never been beaten in the 12-mile stretch between Trenton and Belleville, though not a few cracks have tried to down him on this his favourite distance. Mr. Roy will carry the message in the relay ride from Lachine to Montreal, a distance of nine miles, and the last stage on the route.

The members of the Collegiate Institute footdall eleven who went to Keene this afternoon drove to that village, instead of going by train as at first intended.

Lacrossists were out in force last night and particularly good practices were held in consequence. The players, however, are of the opinion that more interest would be taken in the practices if sides were chosen every evening and in order to give this scheme a trial on Monday evening next the Peterboroughs will adopt the system. All players are therefore requested to be on the grounds as early as possible so that a good game may result. All the members of the team seem fully up to the mark and if appearances are not deceptive Peterborough's name as a lacrosse town has not yet reached its zenith.

The cricket crease looks decidedly better to-day, after having the long last year's grass taken off with the lawn mower. The ground is certainly rough in spots, however, but a few barrels of water and a good rolling will remedy this. The officers should not neglect to call the players out for practice as soon as practicable. The first match comes off three weeks from to-day and the wickets have not been pitched yet. Peterborough cricketers do not appear to be as keenly alive to the necessity of holding up their end as the lacrossists, who have been practicing for weeks.

BASS FISHING.

The Bobcaygeon Independent says:—A reply has been received from Chas. Fairbairn, Esq., M.P., in reply to the petition forwarded to the Minister, asking that the old date be restored for the closed season for bass. The Minister states that the consensus of opinion is that bass begin to nest in the early part of May, and lay their eggs during that month and in June. The Minister will, perhaps, see the force of the point when brought to his attention, that the date for closing is not on the nesting or actual deposit of the spawn, but the arrival of the fish to the shores, immediately previous to spawning. When the fish come to the shores they are with spawn, though it may be two weeks before they actually deposit, but during that time they bite with great voracity and are caught with the greatest ease. This year the fish were on the shores by the 14th of April. On that date they were biting freely, a number were caught and all contained spawn. From that date to the present the fish have been literally slaughtered. It is no exaggeration to say that tons of bass have been shipped to Toronto by Mr. F. W. Read alone, nor is it out of bounds to say that one-third of the weight has been spawn. To have opened the season from the 15th of April was simply a crying shame. Whether the fish have finished guarding their young broods by the 15th of June is another question, though those who make a business of fishing are of opinion that they have, and it must be admitted that it is better to have regulations which those concerned will submit to than those which are persistently violated. The 15th of April to the 15th of June, was well observed and protected the fish. Certainly to slaughter the fish when they come to the shore to spawn is a shame. That they arrive on the shore about the 15th of April is a fact beyond dispute, and on that date the close season for the Trent waters should commence.

Don't forget Dr. Bill Comedy Company at Opera House to-night.

RAILWAY RUMBLINGS.

Newsy Notes from the Whirling Wheels

In a recent run between Jacksonville, Fla., and Jersey City, a train on the Florida Central and Peninsular R.R. made the 1,000 in 24 hours and 27 minutes. The actual running time was only 22 hours and 30 minutes. This beats all previous records by nearly six hours.

Mr. Hayden has just placed a large Mexican cactus on the G.T.R. lawn, which makes quite an improvement. The grass has been neatly clipped, but the flower beds will not be planted just yet.

General Superintendent Stephenson, of the G.T.R., and a number of other prominent officials are out on a tour of inspection along the line and are expected in Peterborough some time next week.

A change in the G. T. R. timetable goes into effect Monday. As far as Peterborough is concerned the only change will be that the evening train from Belleville in charge of Conductor Morris will arrive at 8.20 p.m. instead of 7.40 as formerly. This train will thus make a close connection with the westbound G.T.R. express leaving Belleville and passengers will not be compelled to wait over night in that city as in the past before being able to get out to points on the Grand Junction division.

Mr. R. M. Roy, G. T. R. tie inspector, leaves in a couple of days for Grand Manitoulin Island to inspect a shipment of 150,000 ties which are to be used on this division of the Grand Trunk.

WHERE IS THE CAMP TO BE THIS YEAR?

The Volunteers Are Wondering Among Themselves If They Will Have a Voice.

The rank and file of the citizen soldiery are almost unanimous in voicing their decided disinclination to go Orillia for their outing on the first of July—all want to go up into Western Ontario.

The officers are averse to taking the men to Niagara-on-the-Lake, as they say that after being there half a day everything worth seeing would have been seen and there would be nothing to amuse the boys for the rest of the time. Officers making such a statement as this can surely never have visited the old town, and before jumping to any such conclusion, care should be taken to ascertain the experience of those troops which have already camped out there.

Niagara-on-the-Lake never had such a slur cast upon its fair reputation as a bright and lively watering place before. On the contrary, it is generally acknowledged to be one of Canada's favoured spots in this respect and the season would be just at its height by Dominion Day.

There may possibly be something in the argument that on account of neither of the railroads being able to give special trains on the first of July, that the trip would prove a tedious one, on account of the distance. This difficulty, however, could be circumvented by taking the men to Toronto by rail and then crossing to Niagara by boat, sending the supplies, etc., on ahead a day or so beforehand. Such a trip would not involve any tediousness.

The choice of a suitable place for the outing will reasonably influence many men in joining, as there are some individuals who are unreasonable enough to wish to see their money spent in a way which is pleasing to themselves, and think that the officers might consult the pleasure of the men in matters of this kind.

A suggestion was made on the street to-day by one who is greatly interested in the welfare of the volunteers, and who is paving the way for the smoothing out of the difficulty regarding the selecting of a camp ground. His idea was that a ballot be cast some evening by the men on their return from parade, and that the rank and file be given a voice in this manner concerning their camp. There seems to be no objection to this scheme on the face of it, and it is given for what it is worth.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE JOTTINGS.

Items of Interest Concerning the Students—Do They Practice Vivisection?

The football team of the P.C.I. left by carriage to-day for Keene, where a friendly match will be played with the Keenites. As the boys have been practising steadily for the past two weeks we expect them to come home victorious.

The number of pupils on the roll during April was 190. The average attendance 185. This regularity is very satisfactory to the teachers and is creditable both to the pupils and their parents.

Mr. Drope, Commercial Master of the Collegiate Institute, has kindly consented to referee the football match between the Separate and Public schools, which is to be one of the features of the grand celebration to be held on May 24th, under Inspector Garvin's management.

May is one of the most anxious months in the year for most of the pupils, as their applications for permission to write at the Departmental examinations have to be handed in by May 24th. A good deal of self examination is made by the pupil before depositing the $5 which has to accompany the application. The results of the written examinations are somewhat uncertain, but nine times out of ten the pupils who have worked steadily throughout the year are rewarded by finding their names in the list of successful candidates.

Judging from the various specimens which have of late shuffled off this mortal coil in the laboratory, under the skilful manipulation of the science master, biology may be classified under four heads: pigeonology, rabbitology, calfology and kittenology. Some of the tagless curs which make the night hideous by their barking should be swooped down upon by his band of scouts.

A NEW HAT

To be RIGHT IN THE SWIM and have your social importance and manly beauty enhanced a hundred fold, GOUGH BROS. must be your Hatters.

We carry a big load of Fashionable Hats in all the correct styles of English and American SILK, STIFF and SOFT HATS, to satisfy all tastes.

JUST RECEIVED.—A big raft of American Novelties in smart and popular selling styles of STRAW HATS for Men, Youth's, Boys and Children.

DON'T SAVE THE DIME AND THROW AWAY THE DOLLAR. We are below all others in the prices of Hats and we are anxious you should know it. We don't try to make much money in Hats, but we lead in this line, all the same, as a matter of course—just as a horse comes before a cart.

IN CHILDREN'S HATS we offer a great choice in many shapely novelties, starting as low as 10c. and ending at 75c. We're doing the work we like best of all—saving you money.

Sock It To 'em.

Clean, neat Socks look well under a new Hat. We have a big choice for you at our Hosiery counter, and can sell you full fashioned CASHMERE HOSE 5 pairs for a dollar—famous socks. These goods are our own direct importations, or we never could sell them at this figure. They are double heeled and toed, and will fit any man faultlessly who happens to be well "heeled" enough to have a twenty-cent piece in his trouserloons pockets. Only five pairs at a time to a customer, and no repeaters (unless Jimmy Tully happens to be round.)

In our famous Furnishings Department, of course we know you will appreciate our nobby Neckwear, Shirts and Underwear. We're disposed to feel half ashamed of the prices, but you'll be proud of the garments.

A Young Men's Saturday.

ALL DAY SATURDAY and SATURDAY NIGHT up to 11 o'clock, we will give young men a TWENTY PER CENT. REDUCTION off all our $5, $6, $7, $8, $9, and $10 Suits. The reason we can make this offer is that the depression in the money market has tied up several manufacturers of Clothing, and we could not help taking advantage of acceptionally low offers for YOUNG MEN'S SUITS. Gentlemen, this is your chance. It will pay you to pick your own pocket to get your pick of these Suits.

BROKEN DOWN

—by disease is the natural result if you allow your liver to become inactive, your blood impure, and your system run down.

The germs of Consumption, Grip, or Malaria, wait for this time of weakness—this is their opportunity.

If you rouse the liver to activity, so it will throw off these germs, purify the blood so there will be no weak spots; build up healthy weight where there is a falling off, you will rest secure from disease, for you'll be germ-proof.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does this as nothing else can. That's the reason it can be guaranteed. In convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other wasting diseases, it's an appetizing, restorative tonic to build up needed flesh and strength.

For all diseases of the liver or blood if "Discovery" fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

DR. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy will cure the worst Chronic Catarrh in the Head —perfectly and permanently. Fifty cents, by all dealers.

SCOTTDALE LABOR RIOTS.

Officials of a Coke Company Brutally Beaten by a Mob.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., May 5.—A riot occurred at the painter works of the McClure Coke Company, two miles from this place, yesterday, in which one stoker was probably fatally and two were seriously wounded. Sanford White, assistant superintendent, and Ewing Boddy, bookkeeper, were brutally beaten. The superintendent boss and workers were acting as deputies and were all armed with Winchester rifles. The men have not been interfering with those at work, but the women were determined to drive the workers out. As they approached, it is said, Sanford White fired a shot at them, and as soon as the men heard the report they swooped down upon the works like wild men. White opened fire on them with his Winchester and before they reached him three had fallen in their tracks. The angered strikers did not stop. They reached White and Ewing Boddy and before assistance arrived both were horribly beaten.

Superintendent White's condition is serious. A burly Hungarian was about to strike him with an axe as he lay unconscious on the ground, when James Tarr appeared and knocked the Hungarian down with a club. The Hungarians, men and women, were armed with clubs, hatchets, staves and picks, and a more blood-thirsty, desperate mob never raided in the coke regions.

A deputy engaged in the fight says that no less than fifteen fell in front of Winchesters, and that every time Sanford White fired a Hungarian went down. This same deputy says that Ewing Boddy refused to fire on the crowd when ordered to do so, and the deputies and strikers were in close quarters, that the Winchesters could not be used to advantage and the shooting was principally done with revolvers. At the time of the riot ten men were working in the mine and twenty in the yards. The determination of those at work to remain at their posts and the premature shooting by White were the causes of the trouble.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., May 5.—The situation is very alarming in this section of the coke region. Mobs are assembling in the Vanderbilt region and at the Moyer plant, preparing for an attack. The formidable display of deputies in those sections frightened the strikers and they concluded to wait a more favorable opportunity. Last night they sounded the toscin for the reassembling of the mob and the strikers are gathering at the points agreed on. The painter riot has stirred up the foreign element. The Huns and Slavs are maddened at the slaughter of their countrymen and have become bloodthirsty.

Kelly's Army Breaking Up.

DES MOINES, May 5.—The Governor has given up hope of getting transportation for the Kelly army out of this city. The men refuse to walk any further and it is thought the army will disband here. Labor officials are much concerned at the outlook. Gen. Kelly was obliged to go down in his pocket after army money before his men could breakfast. The shortage of food and unsuccessful attempts at securing transportation have led to numerous desertions and more are expected.

Attempt to Murder Chicago's Mayor.

CHICAGO, May 5.—A man named Oscar Brecken called upon Mayor Hopkins in the city hall it is believed for the purpose of killing him. But for the prompt action of Policeman Stafford he might have succeeded. Brecken was afterward recognized as the man who had threatened the late Mayor Harrison some time before his death. He was hurried into the insane court and Judge Donnelly sent him to the insane asylum at Jefferson.

AN ESSEX FARMER.

A Total Wreck with Kidney Disease—All the Symptions of Bright's Disease Present—Dodd's Kidney Pills make him Perfectly Well again

LEAMINGTON, April 23—Sherman Buchanan, a farmer living near here, recently passed through a terrible ordeal. He was attacked by kidney disease, which made him a perfect wreck. He suffered agonizing pains and his digestive organs were seriously impaired. All the symptions of Bright's disease were present. After several doctors had treated him ineffectually, Mr. Buchanan used several boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. Dodd's was the first kidney in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, 50c. or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Review of Trade.

NEW YORK, May 5.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The past week has seen events which would suffice to cause or to explain much disaster; strikes of nearly all bituminous coal miners and coke workers, with numerous riots, strikes of many thousand men in other employments, stoppage of many manufacturing works in consequence, arrest of traffic on several great railroads by the lawless proceedings and the tramping of discontented men, in all numbering several thousand, toward the national capitol in the hope of controlling legislation. The lowest price ever known for wheat, and almost the lowest prices ever known for commodities as a whole, exports of $5,400,000 gold instead of abnormally cheapened products, and the fall of the treasury gold reserve below the $100,000,000 limit, are significant of widespread difficulty. It is important that prices of iron and steel products promptly advance, in answer to the stoppage of some works through strikes, since it indicates that the recent improvement in the apparent demand was of a substantial character.

Italian Anarchists Sentenced.

LONDON, May 5.—In the central criminal court, Old Bailey, Joseph Farrara, the Italian anarchist who pleaded guilty yesterday, was sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment at hard labor. Francis Polti, his companion, was found guilty and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. After his sentence was pronounced Farrara shouted "Vive l'Anarchie." He was at once seized by the court officers and removed. He struggled hard to free himself and endeavored to make a speech, but was prevented. Polti cried out, "Shame," and added, "to-day you make the laws, but to-morrow we will make them."

Returning to Canada.

MONTREAL, May 5.—The number of families registered in the different customs offices of the Provinces as returning from the United States to Canada during the past year figure up a grand total of 8,400 and placing the average number of persons in each family at five, it shows a grand total of 42,000 people who have returned to Canada from the States.

Lohman Pleads Guilty.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Ex-Cashier W. D. Lohman of the Brooklyn Excise Department, who is alleged to have stolen $19,400 excise funds and fled to Canada, and who was subsequently arrested in Toronto, has pleaded guilty to two charges of grand larceny and will be sentenced in the court of general sessions on Monday.

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $30, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $30, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

THE DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Committee of Ways and Means Discusses Tariff Changes.

OTTAWA, May 5.—The House was again in Committee of Ways and Means on the tariff yesterday.

Hon. Mr. Foster moved the adoption of the following resolution:

"Wrought scrap iron and scrap steel, being waste or refuse wrought iron or steel, fit only to be remanufactured, the same having been in actual use, not to include cuttings or clippings which can be used as iron or steel without remanufacture, and steel bloom ends and crops, ends of steel rails, $3 per ton, and on and after the first day of January, 1895, $4 per ton."

Mr. Laurier asked for an explanation as to why the duty on scrap iron and steel had been increased from $2 per ton.

Hon. Mr. Foster said it was thought necessary to raise the scrap duties so that there might be an inducement to make puddle bar and pig iron, and to get a better quality of iron too in the subsidiary industries.

Hon. Mr. Laurier said the Government had only succeeded in raising the prices of iron to consumers.

Hon. Mr. Foster denied this.

Mr. Macdonnell (Algoma) favored the increase in the duty.

Mr. Casey said this duty would virtually prohibit scrap iron from being brought into Canada.

Sir Hibbert Tupper read a statement showing the increase of the iron industry in the eastern provinces and Quebec since the bounties had been given. Since the erection of the last iron furnaces at Ferrona, in Nova Scotia, there had been a drop on pig iron from $22 per ton to $15 per ton.

Mr. McMillan advised the Government to abolish the duty on iron and to continue the bounty.

Mr. Davies could not understand why it was that the duties should be maintained when the National Policy had done its work so well as to enable the Canadian producer to place iron as cheap or cheaper than could be done in England.

Mr. Maclean favored the increase in the duty.

The item passed.

Hon. Mr. Foster asked that the duty on ferro-manganese should be changed from 2 per cent. ad valorem to 5 per cent. The item passed as amended.

The tariff item of bar iron under four inches, and flats not thinner than 17 gauge, $10 per ton, was changed to read "16 gauge." The gauge of steel was changed in the same way. An amendment added to Swedish rolled iron rods, under half inch diameter and not less than ¼ cent per pound value, the word, "and Swedish rolled iron nail rods less than a half inch in diameter, for the manufacture of horseshoe nails." Duty, 15 per cent.

The item of corset and corset fittings went through unchanged. The lead duty went through at 30 per cent. Generators, dynamos and sockets were added to the item of telephone and telegraph instruments, etc., dutiable at 25 per cent. Coffins were reduced from 35 per cent. to 25 per cent.

Mr. McMullen wanted to know whether the department charged customs on coffins occupied by corpses coming from the United States.

Hon. Mr. Wallace replied that it did not. It had only been tried once and did not work.

Criticism of the sugar duties was confined to Messrs. Charlton and McMullen and the burden of their objections was that notwithstanding the further decrease of 16 cents per hundred weight in refined, and the admission of West India sugars free up to 16 Dutch standard, the refiners would continue to make vast fortunes. The only change made was the inclusion of molasses, n.o.p.," in the items of syrup, etc., dutiable at half a cent a pound.

Capital Notes.

Hon. Robert Reid, Minister of Defence for Australia, met the Ottawa Board of Trade in the city hall last evening and gave a most interesting and practical address on the subject of closer relations between this country and his own. The council chamber was filled. Lord and Lady Aberdeen were present. Hon. Mackenzie Bowell occupied the chair.

The argument in prohibition case before the Supreme Court closed yesterday, and judgment was reserved. Messrs. Nesbitt and Saunders argued on behalf of the brewers and distillers, that the Scott Act as it existed was a bar to any further acts by a local legislature. That such an act when passed must be declared ultra vires, as soon as a conflict was established the act of the local legislature as conflicting with the Act of the Dominion Government must give way. Solicitor-General Curran closed the argument.

THE BUCHANAN CASE.

Equal to a Resurrection—Almost Helpless from Kidney Disease—A Burden to Himself and His Friends—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Chatham, April 30.—The story of Sherman Buchanan, living near Leamington, is worthy of notice. He says he was almost helpless, bloated and a wreck with kidney disease. His digestive organs were powerless and he was rapidly becoming a burden to himself and his friends. Naturally he lost all hopes of recovery, but a happy thought suggested Dodd's Kidney Pills, and these cured him. Dodd's was the first Kidney remedy in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

THE BRITISH ARMY.

Its Recruiting and Desertions and Its Total Available Force.

Some very interesting statistics are presented in the recent official returns of the condition of the British Army. It appears that its aggregate strength on the first day of the present year was above 219,000, being the largest ever known under the present establishment, and, in fact, exceeding by about 3,000 the authorized maximum. It is naturally impossible, with the constant recruiting and discharging, to keep the force always at the exact point set by law, but the purpose doubtless is to keep the average for the year close to the maximum, and, indeed, it was 216,400.

Of the 219,000 men thus spoken of, about 105,500 were serving in Great Britain and Ireland; 31,500 in the colonies; 77,000 in India, and 5,000 in Egypt. The recruiting for last year added 35,000 men to offset the deaths, discharges, desertions, and so on. London led off, as usual, with 5,355 recruits, and then followed Manchester with nearly 1,000, Glasgow with 923, Birmingham with 850, and Dublin with 717. In the British system of recruiting, as in ours, certain physical standars are set, but "special" enlistments are also allowed. Thus last year no fewer than 3,108 men were enlisted who were under five feet four inches in height, 4,078 who were under 33 inches chest measurement, and 1,667 who were under the minimum standard of weight. Still, there were fewer of such "special" enlistments than during the year before, which shows that recruiting was favorable. And for the first time in very many years the infantry of the line was recruited beyond its authorized strength.

The desertions for the year were a little more than 4,800, and the previous year they had been 4,962. These figures appear to us very small, compared with those of our own army on an establishment of about 25,000 men. However, the percentage of desertions to the number of recruits enlisted was in the British army 13.7 last year, against 11.9 the year before. It is rather difficult to trace the exact reason for such variations.

An important institution in the British army which has no analogy in our own, although a bill in congress seeks to create one, is the reserve. There were 17,828 men transferred from the army to the army reserve in 1891, and 17,751 in 1892, with but a few hundred less last year. The total number on Jan. 1 last seems to have been 80,330. The militia enrolled at the inspection dates last year numbered nearly 124,700, while the yeomanry were nearly 10,400 strong. The volunteers on Nov. 1 last numbered nearly 227,000, and the militia reserve 31,000. The army reserve has been continually increasing for the past twenty years, but from special causes there may be a slackening in this increase next year. However, a permanent first-class reserve of between 70,000 and 80,000 can be counted on. Out of the militia many men joined the regular army, navy and marines. The yeomanry cavalry has been decreasing for some years, but the volunteer force continues to show an upward tendency.

According to the London Standard, at no previous time has there been so large a force of enrolled men available for service in case of need. First comes the regular army, with nearly 220,000 of all ranks. These could be immediately supplemented by 80,000 army reserve men and 30,000 militia reserve, making in all 330,000 men available for service abroad. Almost, exactly the same number would then remain enrolled for home defense, namely, 228,000 volunteers, 94,000 militia, and 10,000 yeomanry, making 332,000. Thus the aggregate for foreign and home service, in case of emergency, would be 662,000 men. —New York Sun.

A Dog With a Wooden Leg.

Did you ever hear of a dog having a wooden leg? I know a man near where I live who has a small dog, one of whose front legs was crushed some time ago by a wagon wheel. Being something of a surgeon his master carefully amputated the crushed leg, and when the wound was healed provided the dog with a light and strong wooden leg. In the course of time the dog, which is a very intelligent little animal, became aware that he could rest his weight upon this wooden leg and use it for all ordinary purposes. In walking or trotting the dog always used his artificial limb, but if he has occasion to do any fast running or leaping he will gracefully hold up the wooden leg and depend solely upon the other three for the service required.—Globe-Democrat.

"My Toothache!"

Is an exclamation heard every hour in the day. Toothache is the most common ailment of young or old, and in the aggregate inflicts more suffering than perhaps any other single complaint. A one minute cure is just what every person should possess. Nerviline—nerve pain cure—acts almost instantly in relieving the agony, and a sample bottle affords a quantity sufficient for 100 applications. 10 cents fills the bill. Polson's Nerviline is the only positive remedy for toothache and all nerve pains. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

DOMINION DAY CELEBRATION.

The Firemen's Committee Will Make Things Hum—Co-operation With the Board of Trade.

The firemen met last night to make further arrangements regarding the Dominion Day celebration which they propose holding. It was acknowledged by all present that the success of the demonstration would be greatly enhanced if the 57th Peterborough Rangers could be induced to postpone their outing until a later date, say the Civic Holiday which would enable the band to stay in town on the first, as well as the volunteers.

It was finally resolved, as suggested by the EXAMINER, to confer with the officers of the Battalion Tuesday evening and endeavour to dissuade them from carrying out their original intention of leaving town with the 57th on July First.

The following committee was then named to assist in perfecting the details: Alex. Elliott, Esq., chairman, and Messrs. H. LeBrun, Thos. Kelly, R. B. McKee, R. S. Davidson, J. McKee, E. Brown, J. Fairweather, R. Kingan, Robt. Hall, R. Gough, Thos. Dolan, Adam Hall, R. Neill, W. G. Ferguson, J. C. Craig, D. Hooper, J. Watt, Macfarlane Wilson, F. Matthews, G. Carton, J. R. Stratton, H. C. Winch, W. H. Robertson, F. Dobbin, Geo. Sproule, W. Sallsbury, A. Gibson, A. E. Micks, S. Ray, J. J. Howden, J. Mervin, W. Morris, John Nugent, W. H. Wrighton, A. Clegg, D. Belleghem, M. McFadden, H. Newton, H. Long, J. Long, B. Shortly, W. A. Sanderson, P. Connal, M. Ostrom, Geo. Rubidge, E. Clegg, J. D. Tully, J. Ames, A. Mercer and R. Stenson. The Board of Trade committee, which is to act in conjunction with the citizens' committee, is composed of Messrs. Robt. Fair, T. A. Hay and A. L. Davis.

The co-operation of the committee appointed by the Board of Trade will also be asked, and there seems hardly a doubt that such men as have been nominated on these committees can fall in carrying through any project of this nature if they set their shoulder to the wheel. There is plenty of time ahead and, providing the battalion consents to remain in town for the day, there is no reason why Peterborough should not celebrate in a way which would give it a name for holding successful demonstrations.

The All-Important Question

FOOD FOR THE BABY.

The "LACTATED" Strongly Recommended.

The all-important question with careful and loving mothers is that of food for their babies. They look for a food that is easily prepared, easy obtainable, nourishing, strengthening, palatable and pure.

Lactated Food possesses every virtue and quality that the mother and physician so eagerly look for. Children fed on Lactated Food always grow hardy and strong. The efficacy of this nutritive quality of this perfect substitute for pure human milk has long been acknowledged by the medical profession. Lactated Food is so made that age, climate, or variations of climate do not affect it. Thousands of happy babies have been brought up on it. No other food have saved so many babies' lives. Give it a trial, mother, if your baby is not thriving.

"A wolf in sheep's clothing"—the substitute offered by the "cutter" as being just as good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If you don't want to be bitten, insist upon having Ayer's Sarsaparilla, even if it is a little dearer. Depend on it, it will be cheaper for you in the end.

What everyone says must be true, and everyone who has used Wide Awake Soap says it is the best they have ever used. Try it.

Buy your Clothing from the manufacturer. GRAFTON & Co.

There is always a best, even among a score of good things, and every pipe smoker who has tried the Mastiff brand acknowledges it to be the sweetest, coolest smoking tobacco made. It does not bite the tongue, and is positively free from any foreign mixture.

ARBOR DAY IN ASHBURNHAM.

Appropriately Celebrated by Teachers and Children—Tree Planting and Sports and Games.

The threatening clouds on Friday morning, May 4, caused no little anxiety to those connected with Ashburnham public school, as Arbor Day had been looked forward to with pleasant anticipation for some time. However, the weather proved ideally perfect after all, and the forenoon was spent in planting trees, cleaning up the yard, decorating the rooms with pictures and flowers, etc.

In the afternoon all re-assembled at 1.30 and proceeded to Mr. T. G. Hazlitt's grove, (the use of which had been kindly granted for the occasion), where a very enjoyable time was spent. Swinging, baseball, football and races added very much to the enjoyment. A very interesting programme of races was carried out under the direction of the teachers, ably assisted by Rev. Mr. Symonds and Rev. Mr. Hedley. The following is a list of the events, and of the winners who wore their well earned badges very proudly.

Girls under 8—Greta Symonds, Violet Chambers, Rosaie Bennett.

Boys under 8—Sydney Martyn, Samuel Long, Ernest Reid.

Girls, 8 to 10—Bella Martyn, Jennie Craig, Eva Dawson.

Boys 8 to 10—Rossie Craig, Wallace Wood, Bertie Hamilton.

Girls, 10 to 12—Jennie Castle, Ida Faint, Connie Spears.

Boys, 10 to 12—Frank Wood Sidney Tivey, Harry Martyn.

Girls, 12 to 14—Mabel Scott, Lizzie Scott, Annie Downer.

Boys, 12 to 14—John Erskine, Victor Hamilton, Edward McAlpine.

Girls, 14 and over—Lillie Dormer, Emma Payne, Maggie Wilson.

Boys' Obstacle race (open to all)—Edward McAlpine, Terrot Glover, John Erskine. In this race the contestants had to run a considerable distance, cross a narrow creek, climb a fence, run some distance, make a turn around a tree and return. It was well contested and created no small amount of amusement.

Three-legged race (girls)—Carrie Noyes and Ida Faint, May Dobbin and Maggie Smith, Bella Martyn and Annie Downer.

Three-legged race (boys)—Charlie Anderson and Edward McAlpine, John Erskine and Victor Hamilton, Terrot Glover and Albert Fitch.

Egg and spoon race (the competitors carried an egg in a spoon) (girls)—1, Mabel Scott; 2, Maggie Smith; 3, Ettie Revoy; booby prize, May Courtney. In this and the next race special prizes were given by Miss Burt.

Egg and spoon race (boys)—1, Albert Fitch; 2, Robert Long; 3, Terrot Glover; booby prize, George Burnham.

Boot race (girls)—Connie Spears, Ida Faint, Daisy Distin.

Boot race (boys)—John Erskine, Victor Hamilton, Charlie Anderson.

When the races were concluded, attention was turned to the good things provided to satisfy the wants of the inner man. After ample justice had been done to them, baseball, football and other games were indulged in for an hour or two, after which the happy gathering of teachers, pupils and friends broke up, regretting only that Arbor Day afternoon pic-nics "come but once a year." THE T. V. CANAL AND KINDRED MATTERS.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I was much pleased at the meeting on Wednesday re the Trent Valley Canal, to see so large and influential a gathering for the purpose of advancing the views of the different representatives interested in this great national enterprise and most natural waterway to the east. Now, sir, I will make a few remarks and suggestions. Being a Canadian by birth I would naturally wish to see my own country take first place amongst the nations of the earth, and when the next World's Fair is spoken of, our Queen city will be the chosen place.

Being connected with the lumbering business and railway and canal works of Canada and United States, I am conversant with the routes, and now that our Canadian ship canal will be open for traffic about July or August, the key to the west will be handed over to the Dominion Government to operate it as they see fit. Now, sir, I have spent many 4th of Julys in the United States and seen and heard some of our own Canadians read the declaration of independence and denounce Canada and the Mother Country, stating that they had to leave Canada because they could not make a living here, and were, therefore, forced to go abroad. Now England lost the U. S. of America through tyranny, and we, as Canadians, must unite to win her back, and instead of annexation to Washington it will be Washington to Canada, and our House of Commons must look after all the interests of the American people, as a whole, independent of party, creed or sectional interests. The people across the line are getting very uneasy, itchy-footed and, with their desecration of the Sabbath and their loose divorce laws, the curse of God is coming down on the entire nation. It is really too bad, in a land of plenty, to see human creatures out of work and walking the streets starving to death.

If the Trent Valley Canal is completed, as I hope it will soon be, we will possess the shortest and best route from the heart of the continent to the tide water. It will be one of the greatest means for opening up and developing a magnificent section of country whose wealth in minerals and other products is untold.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, I am, yours, very truly,

W. J. KEARNS.

The Care of the Skin.

In an article on the cultivation of beauty a physician writes: "The best methods of keeping the skin in a healthy and clear condition is frequent bathing in cold water and avoidance of the use of complexion powder containing arsenic or lead, proper diet, correct habits, plenty of sleep and open-air exercise; and if we might add one article of medicine as being specially valuable for this purpose it would be Esselay's Liver Lozenges."

The Wabash Railway Trains

running every day in the year between Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are the finest known to the railway service; they are complete and solid vestibuled from end to end, the entire train being a moving palace of connected apartments, all furnished with the most luxurious elegance and perfection of commodation known to the car builders' art. They include free reclining, palace, sleeping and dining cars of the latest and best patterns. Call on or write any railway agent for tickets and all information, or address J. A. RICHARDSON, Canadian passenger agent, north-east corner King and Yonge streets, Toronto.

What Causes Pimples?

Clogging of the pores or mouths of the sebaceous glands with sebum or oily matter.

The plug of sebum in the centre of the pimple is called a blackhead, grub, or comedone.

Nature will not allow the clogging of the pores to continue long, hence,

Inflammation, pain, swelling and redness, after pus or matter forms, breaks or is opened, the plug comes out and the pore is once more free.

There are thousands of these pores in the face alone, any one of which is liable to become clogged by neglect or disease.

What Cures Pimples?

The only reliable preventive and cure, when not due to a constitutional humor, is Cuticura Soap.

It contains a mild proportion of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, which enables it to dissolve the sebaceous or oily matter as it forms at the mouths of the pores.

It stimulates the sluggish glands and takes to healthy activity, reduces inflammation, soothes and heals irritated and roughened surfaces and restores the skin to its original purity.

This is the secret of its wonderful success.

For bad complexions, red, rough hands and shapeless nails, dry, thin and falling hair, scaly and irritated scalps and simple baby blemishes it is wonderful.

It is preserving, purifying and beautifying to a degree hitherto unknown among remedies for the skin and complexion.

Sale greater than the combined sales of all other skin and complexion soaps.

Sold throughout the world.

Women full of pains, aches and weaknesses find comfort, strength and renewed vitality in Cuticura Plaster, the first and only pain-killing, nerve-strengthening plaster when all else fails.

AN OLD CUSTOMER'S THANKS

—TO—

H. LeBRUN & CO.

Upon receiving one of their nice Memorandum Books.

—:o:—

I on the market square did walk
To see the sights and hear the talk,
A young man tapped me on the back
Saying this will suit you, Sir.

The free gift from his hand I took
Within it I did carefully look,
A pretty Memorandum Book
From H. LeBrun & Co., Sir.

The present I did not refuse
It's pages I will often use,
When I find topics for the muse
LeBrun's book will contain them.

Its cover red conspicious shows
Where we can purchase good cheap clothes,
In every house where that book goes
Is full of praise and wonder.

The back; a nice time table bore
Months, weeks and days for ninety-four,
The street and number of the store
By honest, stylish clothiers.

Its leaves are ruled two ways in blue
To mark each day's transactions true,
And keep our memories fresh for two
Cheap and reliable clothiers.

'Tis prized by farmer's wives like gold
She marks her eggs and butter sold,
By her the husband plain is told
From you to buy his clothing.

It sets the young boys on tip toe
They dream about LeBrun & Co.,
And cry with their papa to go
For cheap suits you are offering.

It suits the times, it takes the eye
On prices marked we may rely,
Points to the place where all can buy
Cheap suits—or made to order.

It is near twenty years and two
Since I bought the first suit from you,
Through all those years I found you true
In word, in deed and clothing.

Your goods, your name stand high to-day
No empty puff nor false display,
Your customers trust what you do say
When buying from you their clothing.

Though small in size its power is great
Low prices strong desires create,
Each seems afraid of being too late
For cheap suits you were offering.

I hope its fruits you will behold
Increasing sales one hundred fold
Till not one suit remains unsold
Of your large stock of clothing.

CUT TO THE BONE

Mantles and Capes.

Tell your friends, tell your neighbours, tell even your enemies—about our WONDERFUL SALE now going on.

Every new Mantle, every new Cape, every new Wrap—must go—hence and forthwith—and "stand not upon the order of going,"—but go at once.

To cut once—and cut deeply—is better than to hack away, little by little—so this blow is to the bone. Read how facts and figures go hand-in-hand:—

Our $15 00 Mantle.....	goes for	$11 65
Our 13 00 Mantles & Capes	"	9 50
Our 11 00 " "	"	8 48
Our 8 75 " "	"	6 25
Our 8 00 " "	"	5 75
Our 6 75 " "	"	5 25
Our 4 00 " "	"	3 00

We sold yesterday a $12.50 Mantle, handsomely embroidered, full sleeves, for $4.00.

There's no likelihood that the pick of Paris and Berlin Mantles will ever again be so absurdly low. Not a coat in the lot but is to-day worth twice or may be thrice times the price.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

A BLOW AT THE

Dress Goods.

Dress Goods are the vertebræ of our dry goods stock. As the marrow to the vertebræ, so are our MATCHLESS VALUES. Bettering our best is our effort all the time.

1894 stands pre-eminent for sales and attractive bargains in Dress Goods. The splendid success of our sales justifies our policy of marvelously low prices during the pinching hard times, and our new scale of prices is drawing the crowds:—

20 pieces 45 inch Serge, all colours, worth 50c., for 40c.
10 pieces 40 inch Gray and Fawn Delteges, worth 60c., for 35c.
6 pieces 46 inch Satin Cloth, imported to sell at 80c., now 50c.
10 pieces Coloured Cashmeres, worth 50c, for 35c.
6 pieces Coloured Diagonal Serge, worth 40c., sale price 25c.
12 pieces Coloured Serge, all wool at 25c
10 pieces Printed All Wool Delaines, 30 to 35 inches, worth from 40c. to 60c., for 25c.

This is a time for few words. We put all our eloquence into prices and qualities. "It's Fair's Way."

Customers are heard to say:—"Fair's getting a great run on Carpets." Carpet cutting is certainly more rapid than we expected. This is just the way we want it. We deal in Rich Carpets and Rugs. The fourth floor is loaded with Floor Coverings. We are leaders in prices and new colourings. Prices cut to the bone.

April and May are the months for carpet cleaning. Perhaps your carpet is worn out. Sweeping won't help it. A carpet bought now will save you 20 per cent. "It's Fair's Way."

MILLINERY STIR.

Just now there's more interest than usual going on in our Millinery Department. There is a marked increase in sales, and our new revised prices seems to "startle the oldest inhabitant." The special attractions in our Millinery Parlours are the new designs in Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets for Ladies, Children's Hats, &c. Novelties in beautiful soft roses with foliage in all colours, and other flowers, together with New Ribbons, Feathers and Trimmings.

But the popular prices all round is what is doing the effective selling of the season, and nobody accuses us of charging too much.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

NO HOUSE BUYS BETTER.
NO HOUSE SELLS LOWER.

The rush is now on. Join the crowd.

ASSEMBLY PROROGUED

The Proceedings Attended With No Ostentation or Eclat.

LONGEST IN FIFTEEN YEARS

The Seventh Parliament of Ontario Sits for an Unusual Length of Time—The Lieut.-Governor's Prorogation Speech — One Bill Disallowed.

TORONTO, May 7.—At the prorogation of the Legislature on Saturday the proceedings were attended by none of the usual pomp and display. The attendance was large and although many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the House, it could not be considered a fashionable gathering.

Speech From the Throne.

Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick, who appeared in his official uniform, though not escorted by a company of infantry, as is usually the case, arrived promptly at three o'clock and delivered the following speech:

Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly,—I desire to express my appreciation of the earnestness and diligence with which you have applied yourselves to the work of the unusually long session now being brought to a close. The measures which you have passed are very important and useful, and will greatly assist in the administration of public affairs.

The important Act respecting councils of conciliation and arbitration for settling industrial disputes will, I am glad to believe, tend to prevent those conflicts between capital and labor which often result in the serious disturbance of business and loss to all parties concerned. It is gratifying to know that, owing to your wise and liberal provision for the proper representation of the province at the World's Columbian Exposition, its progress and resources were exhibited to great advantage, securing for the province in many departments a position of enviable prominence. We may confidently hope that material results of a very substantial character will accrue to the province.

The various provisions of the Acts respecting the registration of manhood suffrage voters in cities and for the prompt punishment of persons guilty of personation at elections for Legislative Assembly will, I trust, be found effective in preventing and purifying the voters' lists, simplifying the enrolment of all duly qualified electors and facilitating the suppression of corrupt practices.

The readjustment of the representation of the cities of Toronto, Ottawa, Hamilton, and Kingston in the Legislative Assembly will, I trust, prove satisfactory.

I notice with pleasure that you have established a provincial park at Rondeau, in the western part of the province. I do not doubt that the future will furnish abundant evidence in the establishment of this and other parks you have evinced forethought and prudence.

The Act respecting mines and mining lands and the Acts for improving the administration of justice in the districts of Nipissing and Rainy River, for facilitating local administration of justice, and for enabling boards of trade in cities to appoint general arbitrators, will commend themselves to the public as measures of practical utility.

The Acts consolidating and amending the drainage laws, mortgages and sales of personal property, the Act amending the Division Courts Act, the municipal and assessment laws, are further measures of public importance.

I thank you for the liberal appropriations which you have made for the public service. The supplies which you have granted will be expended with care, and in the public interest.

The bills of the session, 106 in all, received the assent of the Lieutenant-Governor, with the exception of the Act to amend the Street Railway Act, with respect to which it was announced:

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor doth withhold her Majesty's assent to this bill on advice of his council, it being understood that the Legislative Assembly also desires such withholding of assent thereto, by reason of the bill having been ascertained, since the passing thereof, to cover, by its terms, cases not contemplated on the passing of the bill.

The session which concluded was the fourth and last session of the seventh parliament, and was the longest in fifteen years.

Suing General Master Sovereign.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 7.—A. W. Wright, of Toronto, formerly a member of the Executive Board of the Knights of Labor, has brought suit against General Master Workman Sovereign and the Executive Board to recover $837, an alleged balance of salary and expenses due him.

To Marry Millions.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., May 7.—The announcement of the engagement of Hope Goddard, the heiress to the Goddard millions, and C. O. Iselin, the New York millionaire and well-known yachting man, was made on Saturday.

A Mammoth Silver Nugget.

ASPEN, Col., May 7.—A remarkable nugget has been taken out of the Smuggler mine here. It weighs 3,500 pounds and contains silver to the value of $25,000. It is the largest silver nugget ever known and is almost pure.

Town Destroyed by Fire.

CARSON, Nev., May 7.—The town of Tahoe City, consisting of fifty dwellings, has been destroyed by fire.

CROWN'S CASE CLOSED

Opening of the Defence in the Trial of the Sharon Poisoning Case.

TESTIMONY OF MEDICAL MEN

Contradictory Evidence as to the Symptoms Displayed by the Alleged Intended Victim — Maggie Reid's Evidence Contradicted.

TORONTO, May 7.—Emanuel Chapman, the juror in the Sharon case whose illness on Friday night compelled the sudden cessation of court proceedings, recovered sufficiently on Saturday to attend and the case proceeded. There was a marked difference in the demeanor of the three prisoners standing their trial on a terrible charge. On the whole Osman and Pegg preserved their hitherto calm exterior, but Mrs. Evans, the wife of he who it is charged was her intended victim, was unusually pale and haggard, showing beyond doubt that the effects of the trial are beginning to tell on her.

The first witness called was Joseph Hayes, who testified to carrying a letter from Mrs. Evans to Pegg. He swore that Pegg and Maggie Reid were on good terms and that he had seen them kissing on several occasions. This disputed the evidence given by the girl Reid.

Walter Rogers testified to hearing a conversation between Osman and Pegg in reference to the supposed intended elopement of Mrs. Evans and the latter.

Thomas Lawson said he helped to carry Mrs. Evans' trunk to the barn, and that Maggie Reid was present. This was another contradiction of Maggie Reid's evidence.

Alexander Travis swore Osman told him that Mrs. Evans intended to leave her husband, and asked if she might leave her trunk at his (Travis) house.

Mrs. Elizabeth Pegg, aunt of the prisoner, testified to finding a letter in her nephew's pocket from Mrs. Evans. The letter was read and showed that an understanding existed between Mrs. Evans and Pegg and referred chiefly to what purported to be a pre-arranged plan for the suspension of the marital relations between Mrs. Evans and her husband, in the culmination of which Pegg was to bear an important part.

Witnesses were called to identify the handwriting of the letter, but the defence admitted that evidence.

Judah Leppar, the farmer, was recalled and held to his story of seeing Pegg and Mrs. Evans in an outhouse.

The phial containing the powder was produced by Detective Hodgins. Then proceeded a long cross-examination of the doctors in the case, from which nothing was adduced more than has already been given to the public.

Dr. Ellis swore that he had analyzed the contents of the phial and pronounced it strychnine.

This closed the case for the crown and Mr. Murdoch commenced the case for the defence.

Dr. Howe's evidence was then read to the court.

Dr. Fierheller of Markham said he had been in practice for ten years. From the symptoms he thought the illness might be caused either by tetanus exposure and debauch or to a certain extent by strychnine poisoning. He cited a case of inflammatory rheumatism, the symptoms of which corresponded with those of Walter Evans. He thought that the cases were similar and would ascribe Evans' illness to the same cause. In cross-examination the doctor did not change his opinion.

Dr. Robinson, of Markham, thought that from the symptoms described by Dr. Howe that Evans suffered from lockjaw. Had it been a case of poison by strychnine Evans would not have been alive by the time Dr. Howe arrived.

W. H. Kavanagh said that the night Leppar claimed to have seen the two together in an outhouse it was so dark that he could not tell his friends at a distance of nine or ten feet.

Walter Evans, Lottie Evans' husband, was called to the stand, but the judge considered that the time at their disposal was too limited to render further pursuance of the case that evening advisable, and adjourned the court till to-day.

Opening of the Antwerp Exhibition.

ANTWERP, May 7.—The World's Exhibition was formally opened here by the King and Queen of the Belgians. The weather was delightful and the display of troops and gorgeous official costumes magnificent. The burgomaster and members of the city council of Brussels were not present, as owing to the rivalry existing between the capital city and Antwerp these officials had not been invited. Count Depret, president of the executive council of the exposition, delivered an address welcoming the King and Queen. King Leopold replied briefly, complimenting the authorities on the completeness of their work. Forty thousand people were present at the opening.

King Humbert's Disease.

ROME, May 7.—Cancer of the larynx, almost identical with the disease with which the late Emperor Frederick of Germany was afflicted, has established its hold upon King Humbert of Italy. This has been known for some time among the intimate confidants of the King, but it is only recently that the secret has been divulged.

To Complete the Panama Canal.

PARIS, May 7.—The Matin says the sums restored by Dr. Cornelius Herz and M. M. Eiffel and Remach to the liquidator of the Panama Canal Company will be the nucleus of the fresh combination of capital to complete the canal.

Died From the Fright.

PARIS, May 7.—A bomb was exploded in Lourches with the intention of wrecking the house of Devern, a civil engineer for a mining company. Nobody was injured, but a women died of fright half an hour later.

BRITISH CABLE GOSSIP

How Mr. Gladstone Appeared at the Sir Andrew Clark Memorial.

HIS ENEMIES BECOME FRIENDS

The Old Statesman Was Cessed to be a Partisan Figure in English Politics — Sir William Harcourt Denies the Reported Retirement.

LONDON, May 7.—At a recent meeting at which Lord Salisbury, Mr. Balfour, Mr. Goschen and other Conservative leaders discussed the line of tactics to be followed by the Opposition, it was decided not to oppose the second reading of the registration bill, but rather to watch the bill closely in its subsequent stages.

The Grand Old Man.

Those who feared that his retirement from public life would bring upon Mr. Gladstone just those evils which he designed to avoid, are beginning to find their judgment justified. The Grand Old Man has aged many years in the past three months. The picture he made at the Dr. Andrew Clark memorial meeting on Thursday was a pitiful one. He was a feeble, bent octogenarian, who leaned upon a stout stick even when addressing the audience from his chair. His words were brave, polished, well-chosen and appropriate. Not a shadow has yet crossed his shining intellect, but both flesh and spirit are breaking. He is not ill. No specific malady is undermining his marvellous vitality, but a great change, which his grieving friends cannot fail to recognize, is making rapid progress. He has lost interest in life. That is ominous. For sixty years he found rest in other forms of activity, and peace in new struggles. Work has been his only recreation. Fresh responsibilites never failed to renew his vigor. His friends are beginning to understand now what Sir Andrew Clark saw clearly, that for such a man to fold his hands meant despair and death. Every effort will be made now to provide the warrior-statesman with tasks and ambitions sufficiently important to keep alive that energy which craves and feeds upon what in most men would destroy it. If his enthusiasm can be revived he may remain many days a figure of what the nation will be most proud. If not, then nothing can long delay the end. The most remarkable effect of Mr. Gladstone's retirement has been clearly emphasized in connection with his first public appearance on Thursday. His enemies have already become his friends. He has completely ceased to be a partisan figure in English politics. The Daily News said truly yesterday: "In a few short weeks he has outlived hatred, malice and all uncharitableness. His fame stands as high to-day as if it had been purified by a half century of the tomb. Most great men have to wait for such a vindication for the passing away of an entire generation. Their appeal is to posterity. In Mr. Gladstone's case the scales have fallen from the eyes of his opponents almost at the very moment of his withdrawal srom the position which made him the most commanding figure in the world."

The Queen's Health.

The Court Circular credits the Queen with enjoying excellent health at Windsor, but reliable information obtained through other channels say otherwise. Though her Majesty is suffering from no distinct malady, she is far from well, and it is to be doubted that she will be able to be present at the opening of the Manchester canal. The Paris story that she is going to St. Petersburg to attend the marriage of the Czarwitch to the Princess Alice of Hesse is regarded as an absurdity. It is settled, however, that the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Coburg and the Duke and Duchess of Connaught will go. A story has been in circulation in court circles that Princess Alice, the future bride of the Czarwitch, was the first love of the late Duke of Clarence, who proposed to her and was rejected on the ground that she did not love him.

Bi-Metallism Progressing.

Leading financial journals admit that bi-metallism is progressing in London and gaining a strong hold in the provinces, this week's conference having stimulated the cause amazingly. The Statist, in an article on the subject, states that the conclusion that the return of the Conservatives to power will result in another international bi-metallic conference. As a reason for its belief the paper states that Lord Salisbury, Mr. Balfour and Mr. Chaplin are militant bi metallistic while Mr. Goschen would not oppose an attempt to arrive an international agreement.

English Agitation for Eight Hours.

LONDON, May 7.—English workingmen as usual made their eight-hour demonstration this year on the first Sunday after May day. All the meetings passed the resolution in favor of the eight-hour day. They also resolved that the workingmen could free themselves economically and socially only after getting control of the political machinery now in the hands of the capitalistic class. John Burns and Keir Hardie, labor members of Parliament, spoke at length each congratulating his audience upon the progress of the eight-hour movement in the last year.

The Fight in the Midlands.

It is reported that Lord Rosebery's visit to Birmingham on May 23 will begin a new movement of the Liberal party. A Midland Liberal Federation will be formed it is understood, under the special supervision of Sir William Harcourt, Earl Spencer and Henry Fowler. The aim of the new federation will be to fight Joseph Chamberlain in the Midlands, the centre of the Liberal Unionist power.

Sir William's Retirement.

The Daily Telegraph announces, upon the authority of Sir William Harcourt himself, that the rumor that Sir William is about to resign is entirely unfounded and that he has not the least intention of abandoning his seat.

ORGANIZATION MEETING.

A meeting of the friends and supporters of Mr. Stratton and the Mowat Administration, will be held in the committee rooms over Lech & Sons, fur store, 413½ George street, to-night, May 7th, to organize the town for the coming general election campaign. Mr. Stratton hopes to see as many of his friends as possible at this preliminary meeting. One of the chief essentials of success is prompt and thorough organization, and it is hoped there will be a grand rally of workers present on Monday night.

THE interests of the cattle trade, which involves those of the farmers, are more important than fast Atlantic lines. A low freight for stock is more important than that some man should get a letter a few hours earlier or that a tourist should so land at an earlier hour. The Allan, Dominion and Beaver steamship lines have addressed a joint letter to the delegates of the Patrons of Industry, who recently interviewed them on the subject of a fast freight service across the Atlantic, in which the Patrons are asked to further define their requirements and especially what they consider reasonable reductions in rates. The letter concludes: We may, however, say in general terms that for one-third or one-fourth of the sum offered as a bonus for a fast mail service, sailing weekly, there could be obtained a service of six or seven vessels a week sailing to four or five produce-buying destinations, and carrying to market Canadian traffic at freight rates 15 or 20 per cent. lower than those current out of New York.

THE Public Accounts Committee at Ottawa, having secured the right to examine witnesses under oath are investigating some of the fishy looking items that are found in the blue books. On Tuesday Mr. Pope, private secretary to Sir C. H. Tupper, was examined as to $2,300 which he received for "expenses attending the Behring Sea arbitration." These "expenses," he informed the committee, were made up in great part of a charge of $10 a day from the time he left Ottawa till he returned to that city and included the days he was at sea, though his fare, including meals and living allowance, had been paid extra. In addition to the $2,300 "expenses," Mr. Pope was in receipt of a salary of $2,400 a year, for which no deductions were made for the time he was absent from Ottawa.

Mr. LISTER has been putting Mr. D. O'Connor, barrister, of Ottawa, through the sweat box before the public accounts committee to ascertain how he figured up his legal services to the Government for 1893 to $20,000. Within the last ten years Mr. O'Connor has drawn $122,449, as fees for law services at the capital and yet the Government has a fully equipped law department from Minister of Justice down to a full staff of clerks and messengers.

SIR CHAS. H. TUPPER in reply to Mr. Lister stated that there is yet to come down a sum of $40,000 or $50,000 for Behring Sea expenses, bringing the total up to about $80,000. This is a nice sum to pay for giving the United States Government the right to drive Canadian seal hunters off the high seas within sixty miles of the seal fisheries.

THE UNITED STATES WHEAT CROP.

Indications That the Crop Will be an Enormous One - Statement That the Price Will Not Rise.

Washington, D. C., May 3.—(Special.)—The people of Ontario who are interested in the outlook for the wheat crop in the United States will be interested in a statement made by a gentleman whose business it is to gather information for one of the largest buyers of wheat in this country. He said that returns had been received at his office from the entire wheat-producing country of the west, and that the season had now so far advanced that it is most unlikely that any climatic conditions could seriously affect the wheat crop. So he said, speaking with a good deal of seriousness of manner, that he feared there was little comfort for the farmers, because the indications now are that the wheat crop would be enormous, perhaps phenomenal, while on the other hand there seemed to be but little ground for hope that the price of wheat would increase. To use his own words:—"Unless some sudden emergency arises somewhere else in the world, causing a shortage in the crops, and an unusual American demand, this great crop of wheat is likely still further to depress the price. To be sure, we are exporting flour. It is even going to South America, because American flour is of such quality that Chilian mills cannot compete with it. We shall maintain our pre-eminence as flour-makers, because the American flour mill plants are as near perfect as it is possible for machinery to be, and the product of them, so far as the best qualities are concerned, cannot be equalled anywhere in the world."

Yet this man pointed out that such is the business stagnation, so far-reaching is the tendency to economize, and so low are the prices for wheat that to-day the very best, the superlative quality of flour, is put upon the market for about $3 a barrel. Notwithstanding that low price it has been found that thousands of American families are buying flour of a little cheaper grade.

A FINE INSTITUTION.

A pamphlet recently issued describes the work being done in the Ontario Institution for the Education and Training of the Blind. The provincial benevolent institutions are of a high order, and this branch of their work at Brantford deserves the warmest approval. Under Principal Dymond not only is the management careful and exemplary, but the progress of the pupils is steady and remarkable. The institute possesses one hundred acres of land, with broad walks, securing to the pupils abundant opportunity for exercise combined with safety. The main building is three hundred feet in length, and its class-rooms and dormitories are well-warmed, ventilated and equipped. On an upper floor is a large music hall or chapel. Seventeen teachers and instructors are employed, besides a matron, two nurses and domestic servants, farm hands and mechanical assistants. The young children have the benefit of a kindergarten class. The older pupils are taught arithmetic, grammar, English literature and history. For learning to read embossed type is traced by the fingers; writing is aided by a grooved card guiding the hand; geography is studied by dissected maps; natural history and physiology by handling models or stuffed specimens of birds, animals or fishes. Music study is also encouraged; piano tuning is one of the courses of instruction. The gymnasium is fitted with the most approved apparatus. Willow work is done by the male pupils; sewing, knitting and fancy work by the female pupils. If the Ontario Government had nothing else for which to deserve the gratitude and applause of the people its admirable public institutions would be sufficient to win high favour.

MUNICIPAL FRANCHISES.

Mr. Balfour's bill in the local legislature limiting the municipal franchises of street railway companies had a history somewhat similar to Mr. O'Connor's bill to exempt gas and electric light street plant from taxation. It aimed to protect municipalities rather than companies, and the fighting was, as a consequence, more under cover. After many changes and references back in a long endeavour to secure the removal of opposition the bill was finally withdrawn. The granting of franchises for a longer period than twenty years is unjust to those who will be managing municipal affairs in the future. It may impose unnecessary or absurd burdens on them. There were grounds for the legal contention that Toronto was obliged to submit to a horse car service for all time, and if such had been the judicial decision the city would have afforded an object lesson on the franchise question as long as the people recognized the right of their ancestors to legislate for them. However good our intentions may be, we cannot legislate for the next generation as satisfactorily as they will be able to legislate for themselves, and if our legislators are biased by the influences often prevalent when franchises are granted the next generation, whose rights have been disposed of, are apt to fare still worse. The principle of Mr. Balfour's bill should be incorporated into law, but such a provision is useless if it is to be set aside every time a municipal council of brief authority and a street railway company desire such a favour

LAKEVALE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Messrs. Jas. Fowler, J. D. Tully, D. Tully, Stinson and George Rutherford, of the Lakevale Presbyterian church, and Isaiah Best, Joseph Rutherford and Jas. McLean, of the Presbyterian church, Mount Pleasant, as elders and officers of the Omemee charge, together with the officials and elders of the Omemee church, held a meeting, says the Omemee Mirror, on Tuesday last to consult with the Rev. A. MacWilliams, the moderator of the Peterborough Presbytery, in having the Rev. W. McKay remain with them during the summer months. The moderator seeing how unanimous the meeting was for having Mr. McKay remain with them gave the officers some encouragement and said he would bring it up before the Presbytery and would use his influence in having him remain with them.

Waiter! Beefsteak, Ham and Eggs, for One.

"God gave us meat, but the devil sent us cooks," is a trite saying. From bad cooking, fast eating and overeating, comes a whole train of diseases—indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, catarrh of the stomach, headache, dizziness, and the like. God also gave us a brainy man, who compounded the "Golden Medical Discovery," a corrective of all the ills resulting from overeating and bad blood. Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, has furnished in the "Discovery," a great desideratum in America, where everybody are in such a hurry to make money, they have no time to eat, and scarcely any time to live. It invigorates the liver, cleanses the blood and tones up the system.

Worthless Pianos and Organs
Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $80, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.
We can furnish an Organ for $30, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

A WORD TO THE MILITIA.

Discipline, Before Everything, Should be Rigidly Observed.

MONTREAL, May 7.—Major General Herbert, speaking on Saturday night on the occasion of the presentation of a cup, presented by Sir Donald Smith to the Victoria Rifles for general efficiency, spoke in strong terms of the custom of many volunteers to challenge the orders of their commanding officers, and said that it was necessary for the efficiency of the militia that the custom should cease. A body of volunteers, he said, however highly stalled in military exercises, is worthless and unworthy to be called a military organization if it is not imbued with a spirit of discipline.

"It is hardly possible to establish a comparative test of discipline, but every man, when he puts on Her Majesty's uniform, should be given a clear conception of what is meant by discipline and should endeavor to attain the ideal of discipline in the highest degree. By discipline is meant that power of self control by which a man places his will and the exercise of his mental, as well as his physical faculties, under the direction of the person appointed to command him."

After referring to the noble example of discipline shown in the case of the British man-of-war Victoria, the Major-General said: "Every man can, if he will, put a check upon the impulse, natural perhaps, to assert his own opinion against that of his superiors, to criticize and to discuss when he should simply obey. He can compel himself to keep silent when his inclination is to talk. He can resist the temptation to acquire the transient notoriety afforded by having his name in print. He can abjure as unworthy of a man the anonymous correspondence. He can do this even in those cases 'Where each soldier knows someone has blundered,' and he will be doing his duty as nobly in the sphere allotted to him as those who rode into the valley of death at Balaclava."

General Herbert's speech is causing a great deal of talk in volunteer circles, as it is regarded as a reply to those who have been criticizing his recent actions.

OTTAWA GOSSIP.

Annual Press Dinner — Commutation Urged for Two Italian Murderers.

OTTAWA, May 7.—The annual dinner of the parliamentary press gallery came off Saturday evening at the Russell. It was one of the most successful yet held by the gallery. There were about sixty pressmen and guests, including Mr. Laurier and a number of members of Parliament, who sat down to dinner.

The Italian government, through their Consul at Halifax, Mr. Fisher, has communicated with the Department of Justice asking for a posponement of the execution of the two Italians, Antonio Luciano and Antonio Degidio, which was fixed for May 10. They are accused of murdering Giovano Peterella, a scissors grinder, near Grenfel, Man., on June 10, 1893. The matter of commutation was already under consideration, and this communication from the Italian government will be considered by the Cabinet. Mr. Fisher is in communication with accused's counsel, and thinks he can adduce new evidence. The trial was a very complete one and lasted thirteen days.

Mr. F. B. Hayes, treasurer of the Blake committee, acknowledges the following for the Irish home rule fund: From Hon. J. Costigan (being collection made and forwarded by H. S. Bishop, P. Durien, O. M. I., New Westminster, B.C.), $46.20; from Hon. J. Costigan (proceeds home rule collection under auspices A. O. H. of Fredericton, New Brunswick), $83.

Hon. Mr. Reid, Minister of Defence, Victoria, Australia, left for the west last evening. He dined at Government house.

The effect of the slight reduction of oil duties is already being reported by consumers. Dealers in some places have reduced their price for American oil by 1½c per gallon.

WHITEWAYITES DISQUALIFIED.

Two Members of the Late Government Unseated by the Court.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., May 7.—Ex-Receiver-General Fox and his colleague, Murphy, Whiteway representatives for St. Johns East, were unseated and disqualified by Chief Justice Carter for corrupt practices at the late general election, on the following grounds: Authorizing immediately before election expenditures of large sums of money among voters in outlaying settlements surrounding St. Johns, and construction of roads, wharves, etc. The judge held the expenditure was illegal, they having no power to allocate moneys entrusted by special government department for disbursement.

The expenditures were further corrupt inasmuch as given at the time and under circumstances to show bribery of the electorate the purpose intended and because, when made, grants for the district were overdrawn. It was also proven that Fox and Murphy paid for carriage of voters to polls and thus gave public work.

They escaped conviction on charge of treating, and also escaped conviction of charge of expenditure of public money on the streets of St. Johns, the judge holding that connection between Government and candidates was not sufficiently established, and he was compelled to give the accused the benefit of the doubt.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS.

The Unfailing Success of Dodd's Kidney Pills Induces Fraudulent Imitators to Attempt to Pass Worthless Remedies on the Public.

TORONTO, May 7.—This appears to be an age of fakes and frauds. It seems impossible for any new idea or valuable invention to be made known without a host of imitators trying to foist their worthless goods on an unsuspecting public in the hope of making an unmerited profit out of their worthless ideas. The unequalled success of Dodd's Kidney Pills in curing all forms of kidney disease, has led to the introduction of many cheap and base imitations that are worse than valueless. Dodd's was the first kidney remedy ever offered in pill form. For their own safety, purchasers should buy none but Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes: price, fifty cents per box or six boxes for $2.50. To be had of all dealers.

BRITISH SUPPLIES FROM CHICAGO.

A Canadian Farmer Contradicts Secretary Bannerman's Denial.

CHICAGO, May 7.—A few weeks ago it was stated that the British had ordered 500 tons of compressed fodder, a horse food of comparatively recent invention to be delivered at the dock yards at Portsmouth as a sample consignment. In the House of Commons, Secretary of War Bannerman, in reply to a question from Col. Lockwood, denied that the War Department had ordered that or any other quantity of substance from Chicago for army purposes.

A Canadian farmer, at present in this city, and who is interested in the production in question, says: "I do not know where the information was secured, as we are seeking neither publicity nor advertising. The original information, however, was substantially correct. Mr. Bannerman's denial is a trifle disingenious, probably because English Government officials are always unwilling to admit their dependence on the United States for anything of the kind. The order was received from Ashdown & Co., contractors for Government supplies at Portsmouth, and was ordered delivered at the Government supply depot at that place. Secretary Bannerman may have replied for himself instead of for the contractors giving the original order, but the letter can be produced to demonstrate the accuracy of the despatch. The order was received in Canada and forwarded to this city, because a plant has been erected in an adjoining state for the manufacture of the product."

FEAR AN INDIAN WAR.

Ominous Uneasiness Prevails Among the Natives of India.

LONDON, May 7.—During the past month frequent mention has been made in telegrams from India of the discovery of explicable signs in the native shrines. It has been explained that the signs relate to plots for a general uprising of the natives. Private letters from India say that there is a strong current of uneasiness among the natives, and some writers predict an outbreak similar to the Sepoy mutiny in 1857, the anniversary of which will occur on Thursday next.

The Spectator prints a sensational article on the subject in which the paper sounds an alarm. It warns the public that within the next few days all questions that are now interesting the country may be swallowed by the news that for the second time in half a century England has India to reconquer.

Some of the letters from India, the Spectator says, attribute the trouble to the suspicions of natives, who have been aroused by the rulings of the opium commission, while others say that if there should be an outbreak it would be found to have its origin in the recent cadastral surveys conducted by the Government, the land owners supposing the surveys to have been made with a view of imposing additional taxational or seizing the lands. The movement extends over the provinces of Napaul and Bahar and the provinces to the eastward. The Spectator is the only London paper that makes any mention of the matter.

Col. Breckenridge's Contrition.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 4.—At the solicitation of a prominent Presbyterian gentleman, Col. Breckenridge has confessed his sins before the officers and pastors of Mt. Horeb Presbyterian Church of this city, which was founded by his father, Rev. J. Breckenridge. He kept back nothing from the representatives of the church and asked their forgiveness of his sins. The officers will consider the matter before any action will be taken. It had been reported that Col. Breckenridge had been expelled from the church which report was not true.

Miners Remaining Firm.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 7.—There will be a national convention of miners in Cleveland on May 14, the day before the joint convention of miners and operators, as called by the Pittsburg conference. President McBride has issued a circular in which he says: "Our ranks are firm and have been materially increased by the miners of Coal Creek, Tenn.; many places in Kentucky, Missouri and West Virginia, also that the Iowa state convention held at Albio, May 2, declared for suspension." There are now 180,000 miners idle."

AN OLD CUSTOMER'S THANKS

—TO—

H. LEBRUN & CO.

Upon receiving one of their nice Memorandum Books.

—:o:—

I on the market square did walk
To see the sights and hear the talk,
A young man tapped me on the back
Saying this will suit you, Sir.

The free gift from his hand I took
Within it I did carefully look,
A pretty Memorandum Book
From H. LeBrun & Co., Sir.

The present I did not refuse
It's pages I will often use,
When I find topics for the muse
LeBrun's book will contain them.

Its cover red conspicious shows
Where we can purchase good cheap clothes,
In every house where that book goes
Is full of praise and wonder.

The back; a nice time table bore
Months, weeks and days for ninety-four,
The street and number of the store
By honest, stylish clothiers.

Its leaves are ruled two ways in blue
To mark each day's transactions true,
And keep our memories fresh for two
Cheap and reliable clothiers.

'Tis prized by farmer's wives like gold
She marks her eggs and butter sold,
By her the husband plain is told
From you to buy his clothing.

It sets the young boys on tip toe
They dream about LeBrun & Co.,
And cry with their papa to go
For cheap suits you are offering.

It suits the times, it takes the eye
On prices marked we may rely,
Points to the place where all can buy
Cheap suits—or made to order.

It is near twenty years and two
Since I bought the first suit from you,
Through all those years I found you true
In word, in deed and clothing.

Your goods, your name stand high to-day.
No empty puff nor false display,
Your customers trust what you do say
When buying from you their clothing.

Though small in size its power is great
Low prices strong desires create,
Each seems afraid of being too late
For cheap suits you were offering.

I hope its fruits you will behold
Increasing sales one hundred fold
Till not one suit remains unsold
Of your large stock of clothing.

IN COATS.

There is more length to the new Coats for 1894 than has been used in Men's Dress since the 60's.

THE DOUBLE BREASTED FROCK is the most fastiduous garment man has put on in a generation. It adds to the stature of the man and conceals defects of figure. It is short waisted, snug fitting, long tailed and beautifully moulded to the figure. The Skirts are hollow at the top and form a beautiful curve, which is the most distinctive thing about the new styles.

Then there is the THREE BUTTON CUTAWAY Coat which is a high favourite. It is popularly described as the "Pigeon Wing" on account of its sloping tails. The sleeves are of moderate size and are closed with a vent for three buttons. If properly made it will cling rather closely to the hips.

The new CUTAWAY SACK COAT for business wear is one of the most popular of the season. It has caught the fancy of the young men. All the pockets should have flaps. The collar rolls low and is not faced with Silk.

Any of these garments made up to order to please the most fastidious dresser and with faultless devotion to the fashion plates

A Government BOMBSHELL

THROWN INTO THE

LIFE INSURANCE CAMP!

The following statement comes from the government Blue Book. It covers a period of sixteen years, and is sworn to as correct by representatives of each Company:

Statement of Premiums received and Cash Profits paid back to Policy Holders from 1877 to 1892, both years inclusive:—

COMPANY.	Premiums Received.	Dividends Paid to Policy Holders.	Ratio of Dividends to Premiums, %
CANADA LIFE	$16,268,307	$2,946,433	18.18
Confederation Life	6,165,432	637,926	10.35
North American	2,327,062	32,857	1.41
Ontario Mutual	3,378,066	433,294	11.17
Sun Life	5,527,720	355,290	6.43

Never in the history of Life Insurance has the struggle for business been keener. Never has the conflict been hotter. Never have the Companies felt as they feel now, the necessity for throwing all the energy at their command into the field. The most intelligent and best men have to be employed. All kinds of plans of insurance are submitted. Each Company determined in securing the supremacy in the good will of the public, in establishing their name, the utterance of which, shall convey to the minds of the people the essential characteristics of

UNDOUBTED SECURITY,
RIGID ECONOMY,
GOOD INVESTMENTS,
LARGEST PROFITS

WHY?

Because millons of dollars are being paid annually for Life Insurance, and the Companies that can show these features have attained a position which will guarantee their future success, for money will flow freely into the best investments.

The Canada Life Policy Holders can look at the above statement with a smile of satisfaction, yet sympathise with their friends who are not so favourably situated.

They can throw their Life Policies down in the face of opponents and successfully challenge the production of more profitable policies, they can stand the onslaught of Agents who will almost cover them with literature and estimates of Tontine, Semi-Tontine, Return Premiums, Reserved Dividends, Annuity and Endownment plans of insurance, and with a quiet assurance feel that

As The Canada Life is Making the Most Profits, She Can Pay the Largest Profits.

READER. If you want Life Insurance choose the Canada Life and join the throng of contented policy holders who are insured with the Company carrying about 45 per cent. of the total insurance in force of the above named Companies

A New Centreville Practitioner.

As was mentioned in last week's paper, says the Omemee Mirror, the Bradd vs. Cochrane case was decided in favour of the plaintiff, thereby making it necessary for the defendant to discontinue practicing in this locality. Dr. Cochrane, acting on the above, has moved his office from Omemee to Centreville, where he intends practicing medicine in that place and surrounding country. The doctor had a very large practice while located in Omemee, being here for over eight years and was looked upon by our citizens as one of the most skilful physicians in this locality. He has always had a wide reputation as a leading physician wherever located, and we bespeak for him a large practice in the place where he has removed to.

Cricket Club Minstrels.

The cricket club minstrels had an unusually successful practice on Friday evening. The company is getting into excellent shape, and, judging by the interest taken in the work, they will present a splendid entertainment on the 15th of May. The next practice will take place to-night at Messrs. Jackson & Co's piano warerooms. Every member must (should) be in his place to-night.

A Norwood Citizen Passes Away.

THE EXAMINER learns with deep regret of the death, at Norwood, of Mr. William Finlay, eldest son of Mr. Reeve Finlay, and junior member of the firm of Finlay & Son, manufacturers. Up to this writing particulars of this sad event, in which Mr. Finlay will be deeply sympathized with, are not to hand, except that Mr. Finlay will be interred under Oddfellow auspices at two o'clock to-morrow.

A Benefit Concert.

The opera house has been secured for a benefit concert to Mrs. L. Seward, on Friday evening, May 18th. The following ladies and gentlemen have volunteered their services for the occasion: Miss Fawcett, Miss Jackson, sopranı; Miss Lola Ostrom, elocutionist; Mr. W. H. Manning, Mr. Croombs, Mr. R. A. Shaw, tenors; Mr. T. Dunn, baritone; Mr. J. H. Jones, violinist, and Mrs. T. Dunn and Mr. Fred Clarke, accompanists. Any other local musician who may wish to assist is requested to leave his or her name with Mr. R. A. Shaw, 168 Brock street, or at the EXAMINER office.

The Household.

The May number of the "Household" is a delightful contribution to domestic literature, and in beauty of appearance and contents well worthy of the month. One of the chief merits of the "Household" is its practical character. It deals with every phase of the home in its several departments of "Music," "Health Talk," "Children's Page," "Mother's Page," "Home Gardening," "Fashions" elaborately illustrated, "House Keeping Department" "Culinary Department," etc. It has also a large quantity of interesting general reading matter, admirably illustrated, highly entertaining and of a healthy moral tone. The "Household" is eminently fitted to be a welcome and useful visitor to every home. Send for a sample copy to "Household," 110 Boylston street, Boston.

An Almost Fatal Accident.

Two huge busloads of young people from town went up to Chemong Park on a picnicing excursion Saturday and on their return were partially instrumental in causing a most severe accident to befal Rev. Mr. Cleworth, of Bridgenorth. The latter gentleman was driving home from Peterborough and had reached a point about four miles from town when he encountered the first of the two bus loads. His horse, which was a restive creature, took fright and jumping suddenly into the ditch overturned the top buggy in which Mr. Cleworth was seated and started down the road on a runaway carrier. the driver of the second busload, however, jumped from his bus and successfully stopped the animal and released Mr. Cleworth from his perilious position. The old gentleman was unable to stand and suffered a great deal of pain so the bus was unloaded and he was driven home. Dr. Goldsmith, who was summoned, ascertained that three of the Minister's ribs were broken. Although the injuries are of a most serious nature Mr. Cleworth was reported this afternoon to be resting comfortably.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. S. Madill, of Lakefield, is in town to-day.

Mr. John Kerr, Q.C. of Cobourg, is registered at the Grand Central.

Miss Caverly, of Woodville, is in town on a visit, the guest of Mr. F. G. Faulkner, Murray street.

Miss Emily Crane, who has been visiting her brother since Christmas, returned to Vancouver, B.C., last Friday night.

The Welland Tribune of May 4th, says: Mrs. Lane left Wednesday morning for Peterborough, and will also visit friends in Fenlon Falls and Bobcaygeon.

Mr. Duncan Cameron, who removed to the Northwest some time ago, has returned to town and accepted the position as head cutter in T. Dolan & Co's tailoring establishment.

Mr. John McColl, barrister, Cobourg, was in town Saturday evening on his way to Ennismore, where he spent Sunday with his brother, Rev. Father McColl, the popular parish priest of that place.

Saturday's Illustrated Globe contains a picture of the University of Toronto banjo and guitar club of '93-'94, and a conspicuous figure in the group is Mr. Frank D. Roxburgh, a son of Mr. W. G. Roxburgh, Norwood.

At the annual meeting of the American Jersey Cattle Club, held in New York on Friday, Mr. Valancey E. Fuller, formerly of this city, was elected vice-president. This is the first time this honour has ever been conferred on a Canadian.—Toronto Mail.

Mr. J. W. Mulligan, who has received a position in St. Andrews Church Choir, Peterborough, has, says the Omemee Mirror, been with us during the past six months, and in that time has established a fine singing class. Mr. Mulligan is very busy at present preparing for the grand musical festival on the 24th, when a chorus of some 65 voices will take part, and which is in constant training under his management. He held the position as baritone soloist in the First Presbyterian Church in Rochester, N. Y., before coming to this place.....Ben. Armstrong, of Peterborough, was in town on Tuesday, supplying the wants of his customers.....Mr. Theo. McWilliams, son of J. B. McWilliams of Peterborough, was in our town for a short time yesterday.....Rev. A. McWilliams, of Peterborough, was in town Tuesday and was in attendance at the meeting in the Presbyterian Church. .....W. G. Howden, of Peterborough, was in town on a business trip Tuesday.—Omemee Mirror.

ASHBURNHAM BRIEFS.

Mrs. (Dr.) Spears is out again after being laid up for some weeks with a light attack of bilious fever.

All the cases of diphtheria and scarlet fever in the village are now considered out of danger, and the patients will soon be able to attend school again.

Messrs. Dawson & Hunter, the new butcher firm, opposite the flour mill, Elizabeth street, expect to be in full running order to-day.

It is expected that the roller mill will be ready for business soon. A number of workmen are engaged every day getting ready. This will be a great advantage to our village in giving employment to a large number of persons.

The departure of our old friend Dr. Rose, dentist, of Messrs. Rose & Morrison, is much regretted. He found it necessary to move to town in this case. The village is losing one of its very best citizens.

Our streets are being put in the best of order. New bridges, sidewalks repaired, rubbish raked up and burned, and all as clean as a new pin. The village is justly proud of its roads and sidewalks.

The Tourists' Awful Fate.

BERLIN, May 7.—A despatch from Vienna says that six of the Lugloch tourists have been taken out dead. The youngest of the party, a school boy, is reported to have been rescued alive.

The Gloucester Bye-Election.

ST. JOHN, N.B., May 7.—The election in Gloucester county for the House of Commons took place on Saturday. Blanchard (Gov.) elected Doucett (Ind.) by a vote of 1,768 to 1,448.

The Comber Tragedy.

COMBER, Ont., May 7.—The inquest on the remains of Lindsay, the murdered constable, was held by Coroners Abott and Ferguson on Saturday. At the post-mortem examination it was found that the ball had pierced the body in three places and lodged in the hip bone. Owing to the prisoner being unable to attend the inquest was adjourned till Saturday, May 12. Tuskey, who shot himself, is resting easy, has considerable strength left, and if inflammation does not set in there is a possibility of his recovery.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The Catholic Summer School of America will hold its third session at Plattsburg, N.Y., from July 14 to August 12. 1894.

Durability of Timber.

Some interesting experiments have been conducted within the last 12 years regarding the durability of Indian timber. The tests were made by the forest school of Dehra, and out of 40 different specimens of the trunks fixed in the ground as posts, only three have survived the attacks of rot and white anta. These were the Himalayan cypress, teak and anjan, which have been exposed for 10, 9 and 7 years respectively.—Exchange.

Poison in Tea.

In England tea has been discovered contaminated with lead, undoubtedly from being wrapped in packages containing lead. This is a matter which is being enquire into, inasmuch as lead is a dangerous poison and its presence in so many packages of tea may well cause grave public alarm. Mason & Co., grocers, have no confidence in package teas, as their English blends surpass all teas placed on the market.

MR. STRATTON'S COMMITTEE ROOMS.

A change of site in Mr. Stratton's committee rooms has been made. The rooms over Brisbin's flour and feed store being found too small for the purpose, the rooms were changed, therefore, to those of the old Olympic Club rooms, over Messrs. Lech & Sons' fur store, entrance 412½ George street. All interested are requested to note the change, and are also reminded of the organization meeting to be held in the rooms to-night.

THE LOCAL LICENSE MATTER.

Our evening contemporary devotes a column to another vindictive personal attack upon the member for West Peterborough, under cover of a reference to the local issue of licenses, and its statements advanced in support of its position upon this question are, as is usual with its political facts, wide of the mark, and of a kidney with the credit such temperance advocates give Hon. Mr. Mowat. For instance, when it says, "We also wished to show that Mr. Mowat was only playing fast and loose with the temperance people when he gave them his empty prohibition promise." This is only the individual opinion of the Review, which, in general, is not accepted with quite as much respect as a Privy Council deliverance, and furnishes evidence of the sincerity of our contemporary when it says, "We do not pretend to keep well posted, nor could it be expected we would be. With reference to the shop licenses," the Review says, "but why did he (Mr. Stratton) publish this part of the Commissioners' work when he published the reference to the granting of the other licenses?" Well, here is the dark secret of this crafty supression of facts. The simple reason was that when the EXAMINER went to press last Monday the commissioners had not concluded their sitting and when our reporter called at their office he naturally could not obtain information on matters that had not yet been considered, and if any portion of the proceedings was omitted it was the oversight of the reporter. In relation to the Review's reproof for not mentioning that suspicious circumstance the Review has just found out it might be asked why the Review did not publish such information itself—in regard to shop licenses. It has equal opportunity with the EXAMINER for getting information as to the doings of the commissioners, and if it confined itself to the publication of facts on the subject derived from such a source it would be a more trustworthy leader of public opinion. The Review, by the exercise of a little patience, will discover that its night-mare about the licenses is only a bad dream. It is suddenly very solicitious for the welfare of the temperance cause. If this interest were not due to sinister reasons and was exhibited in principle, our contemporary would call public attention to the manner in which Sir John Thompson and Mr. Foster are playing "fast and loose" with the prohibition movement. But these gentlemen, are of the Review's own political stripe and criticism of their crooked record would not make party capital.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

Lindsay and Peterborough feel sore over being "squeezed" out of the Midland league.—Cobourg Post.

The wine clerks have accepted the challenge of the printers and will play a baseball match on Wednesday afternoon next at 2.30.

Mr. Pat Mulhall, the Cobourg pitcher who signed with the Buffalo club of the Eastern league, has already been released. He will probably sign with the Cobourg club.

The manager of the baseball club is negotiating with Mr. Wood, the crack Montreal pitcher. Mr. Wood's services are worth $50 per month, and rumour says he will occupy the box for the champions this season.—Cobourg Post.

Dr. Doolittle, of Toronto, was in the city yesterday arranging for the accommodation of a party of two hundred Toronto and other western cyclists, who will wheel a century from Port Hope to Kingston on June 30th, on their way to the C.W.A. meet at Montreal. The centurions will dine at the Hotel Quinte, as it is expected it will be open by that time.—Belleville Intelligencer. Probably some of Peterborough's wheelmen may take in the century run, too.

The announcement of the Port Hope papers to the effect that Peterborough is barred out of the Midland League on account of its baseballists not being up to the mark falls very flat in view of the fact that when the Edison team went to Port Hope last year in won from that club by a score of 24 to 4, and it cost the Port Hopes just $200 to rake together a team good enough to come up and win from Peterborough, there being only three Port Hope players present, the balance being imported for the occasion.

"Capt. Burrell, of the lacrosse team, received a telephone message from Madoc this morning, stating that the team of that village would play here on the 24th. Madoc has a good team and a fine game may be expected. It has also been finally arranged that the juniors will go to Kingston on that day to play a similar team in that city. The practice last night was one of the best this year, several new men being out for the first time. All who intend playing this season should turn out every night from this ont, as the time is short and hard work is necessary to put the men in shape."—Belleville Intelligencer. It looks by this as though Madoc lacrossists as well as Bellevill's wielders of the crooked ash had started to "monkey." Both teams are expected in Campbellford on the 24th.

The representative baseball nines of the wine-clerk and printers of the town have arranged for a match to take place some time this week. Representatives from Cobourg, Oshawa, Bowmanville and Port Hope met in the latter town yesterday and organized the Midland baseball league. A correspondent, who evidently has it in for Peterborough, furnished the following report to both the Port Hope papers:—Last year Lindsay and Peterborough were in the league, but it was the general understanding that Peterborough would not be asked this year to be one of the clubs as their ball playing last year was not up to the standard of the other clubs, and they failed to pay their numerous forfeits to the Association. The application of Lindsay would have been received with pleasure but Peterboro was doomed, owing principally to the reception they gave visiting teams that play a superior ball.

A SPRINT FOR BOODLE.

An exciting foot race—100 yards—took place to-day between two employees of the Lock Works, the japanning department. After considerable scoring the pair got off together, but the sport ended and "whiskers" won in a canter over his younger antagonist surnamed "Taffy," and pocketed his $2 with an air of being desirous to repeat the dose. A large gathering greatly enjoyed the sport.

FOOTBALL.

The Collegiate Institute football team played an Association match with an eleven from the Allandale school at Keene on Saturday. The Collegiate was represented by the following team:—Goal, Drope; backs, Scott and Burnham; half backs, Kindred Lynn and Cowan; right wing, Carroll and McGill; left wing, Porter and McIlmoyle; centre, McWilliams; referee, Mr. Perry Goldsmith.

A most interesting match resulted. Although a number of close shots were made on the goals, neither side scored a game owing to the lack of combination play. The local team comprises some first-class individual players, but individualism is out of place in a football match. Without team work no good can hope to be accomplished, and the sooner the boys are made to realize this fact the better. They have a good groundwork to start upon and have some star players on the aggregation, and doubtless before the season is much more advanced Peterborough will have cause to be proud of her Collegiate Institute team, upon which devolves the duty of upholding the town's "rep" in the football arena. Carrol and McGill on the right wing play splendidly, as well as does "Vick" McWilliams in centre. Burnham and Scott, backs, took care of everything that came their way, as well as did Drope in goal.

JOHNSTON WAS VICTORIOUS.

On Saturday a race between two of the steam yachts took place on Little Lake. Mr. Binch, the owner of one of them, issued a challenge to Mr. Andrew Johnston to race him. Jounston accepted the challenge because Binch had passed several remarks about Johnston being scared to come out. The two steamers sailed down to the lake, and very soon they lined up, and when the signal was given both crafts started, but it was easily seeing which of the two would be victorious. Johnston pulled rightaway from Binch and after going over the stipulated course he sailed round Binch several times before he had reached the finish. Several canoeists who were on the lake sent up cheer after cheer when they saw that Johnston was the victor. A gentleman who ought to know says that of all the private launches on the river none of them are to be classed with Johnston's at all.

CANADA FOREVER.

Beautiful Views of Our Beautiful Dominion.

In the pages of the evening EXAMINER will be found a coupon referring to "Canada," a portfolio of original photographic views of our beloved country. This portfolio is published in weekly parts. Each part contains not less than 16 pages 10x14 inches in size of illustrations and descriptive matter. Twenty-six parts will comprise the series, making altogether upwards of four hundred superb photographic views, covering the whole vast domain of British America. The object of this splendid series of Canadian fine art pictures is to provide the people of Canada with a scenic and descriptive reproduction of the artistic beauties of Canada and the evidences of its resources and material progress—to show Canada's glorious lake, river and mountain scenery—to depict in panorama of photographic pictures the urban and rural life of the Canadian people—to place within the reach of our own people the means of acquainting themselves with all that is notable in the national features of our own country. Every home should have one of these portfolios; they will be a never-ending and perpetual delight to the family, to callers and friends, an ornament to the home, a mine of wealth of scenic beauty and illustration of the resources of Canada. How to get this portfolio. Cut out the coupon printed in each issue of this paper and send or bring it with ten cents to the EXAMINER office. Part I is now ready, and the remaining parts up to 26 will be issued weekly. Only 10 cents a week will give you at the end of the series a magnificent volume of nearly 400 pages. The pictures, 400 in number, are superb, half-tone photographs of mountains, rivers, lakes, forests, cities, towns and other picturesque features of the land we live in. Be sure to cut out the coupon and enclose ten cents with it and get series No. 1. Begin at the beginning and don't by delay regret that you are missing this great chance.

BIRTH.

BENTON.—In Grand Rapids, Mich., on May 1st, 1894, the wife of Mr. Thomas H. Benton (formerly of Peterborough), of a son.

WEBB.—On Saturday, May 5th, 1894, the wife of A. H. Webb, of a son.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

A NEW HAT.

To be RIGHT IN THE SWIM and have your social importance and manly beauty enhanced a hundred fold, GOUGH BROS. must be your Hatters.

We carry a big load of Fashionable Hats in all the correct styles of English and American SILK, STIFF and SOFT HATS, to satisfy all tastes.

JUST RECEIVED.—A big raft of American Novelties in smart and popular selling styles of STRAW HATS for Men, Youth's, Boys and Children.

DON'T SAVE THE DIME AND THROW AWAY THE DOLLAR. We are below all others in the prices of Hats and we are anxious you should know it. We don't try to make much money in Hats, but we lead in this line, all the same, as a matter of course—just as a horse comes before a cart.

IN CHILDREN'S HATS we offer a great choice in many shapely novelties, starting as low as 10c. and ending at 75c. We're doing the work we like best of all—saving you money.

Sock It To 'em.

Clean, neat Socks look well under a new Hat. We have a big choice for you at our Hosiery counter, and can sell you full fashioned CASHMERE HOSE 5 pairs for a dollar—famous socks. These goods are our own direct importations, or we never could sell them at this figure. They are double heeled and toed, and will fit any man faultlessly who happens to be well "heeled" enough to have a twenty-cent piece in his trouserloons pockets. Only five pairs at a time to a customer, and no repeaters (unless Jimmy Tully happens to be round.)

In our famous Furnishings Department, of course we know you will appreciate our nobby Neckwear, Shirts and Underwear. We're disposed to feel half ashamed of the prices, but you'll be proud of the garments.

A Young Men's Saturday.

ALL DAY SATURDAY and SATURDAY NIGHT up to 11 o'clock, we will give young men a TWENTY PER CENT. REDUCTION off all our $5, $6, $7, $8, $9, and $10 Suits. The reason we can make this offer is that the depression in the money market has tied up several manufacturers of Clothing, and we could not help taking advantage of acceptionally low offers for YOUNG MEN'S SUITS. Gentlemen, this is your chance. It will pay you to pick your own pocket to get your pick of these Suits.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGH'S."

YOUR MONEY IS RETURNED if you receive no benefit from Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This fair and business-like offer is held out to all women who suffer from the diseases and derangements peculiar to their sex. To weakly womanhood no prize could be more secure, nor the benefit more lasting, than that to be derived from the purchase of a bottle of this famous "Prescription." Its success in curing all the functional derangements, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses of women, warrants its makers in guaranteeing it. What this medicine has done for thousands of delicate women, it will do for you. At the two critical periods in woman's life, the change from girlhood to womanhood, and, later, the "change of life," it's an invaluable tonic and a soothing nervine, which can produce only good results. It cures nervous prostration, insomnia, or inability to sleep, and many nervous disorders due to derangement of the functions.

An invitation to consumption is what a bad case of Catarrh means. Don't take the risk! The makers of Doctor Sage's Catarrh Remedy agree to cure your Catarrh, or they'll pay you $500 in cash.

THE "BURDEN OF CREATION."

Something of Maude Banks, the Latest of Famous Women.

Maude Banks is the last name on the roll of famous women. Maude is a corruption of Matilda; it comes from the German and signifies a heroine. Miss Banks is living up to her name—she banks on it, so to speak.

A couple of weeks ago she appeared on the stage in the New York Madison Square Garden, and at the urgent request of the Professional Woman's League reread a paper about the "Twentieth Century Woman." She said some startling things.

What provoked the wildest enthusiasm was her assertion that "women have borne the burden of creation long enough."

MAUDE BANKS.

When Miss Banks was asked just what she meant to say, she replied:

"I said just what I meant. Women have borne the burden long enough. They have not been compensated, and they ought to quit and give men a chance to understand their position in the world and to appreciate their value."

"Then you don't believe in women having children, Miss Banks?"

"I believe in women being independent. She should have them if she likes. If she doesn't like to have them, she shouldn't have them. It takes a very fine woman to make a mother that a child will be proud of when he or she is a reasoning being. All women are not fine. All women are not fit to become mothers. If wives had the independence that belongs to them by divine right they would prove that they recognize their unfitness, and we would have fewer fools, idiots, imbeciles, invalids and human monsters in the world. Before a woman brings a child into being she should be sure that she has something to give it. Mere life is not enough. The world wants strength, brains, health and means of support. As things now exist, the future of the child receives no consideration. And, as a result, look at the masses—look at our criminal classes—look into the public institutions!

"And what does the woman who bears these burdens get? She gives her health, her beauty, her ambition, her life, for food, shelter and a few clothes. When she wants twenty-five cents she has to ask her husband for it, and he asks her if she can't do with ten cents. She travels second class in early married life and third class the rest of the journey. As soon as her children are old enough they take all they can lay their hands on and strike out for themselves. That is as it should be. I did it, and anybody who has ever amounted to anything did the same thing. Those who don't miss their opportunities. The wife gets nothing at their birth. And she gets left at their maturity. And that's what I mean by bearing the burdens too long.

"What would you suggest for the overburdened mothers, Miss Banks?"

"Independence first of all, and all the way through. Reverence second, and idolatory third. The woman who gives the world a child should be honored and idolized by the world the rest of her life. Mothers have endured neglect, abuse and suffering long enough. It is time a reformation was started for their benefit. They ought to have big salaries and the back pay that is due."

"If a man earns only a salary of $15 a week would you give his wife $7.50."

"No. I would deduct family expenses and then give her the larger part of the remainder. Men ask women to be their better half, to keep house and make a home for them, and they are expected to provide the means of support."

"Why have you never been married, Miss Banks?"

"Because I am happy, and I was not certain of remaining so if I lost my independence. Few wives are independent. I am absolutely so, and it is dearer to me than anything I know of in human possession."

"If you had a little daughter would you want her to be beautiful or brainy?"

"Brainy, if you mean by that strength of mind."

"Even if she had to be ugly?"

"I don't think that a woman who has force, character, or strength of mind can be or even is ugly. I think that the moment her intellect is evident she becomes beautiful."

Speaking of conventionalities, Miss Banks said:

"Society could not exist without the conventionalities. I am a working woman. There are no conventionalities in work; if there were there would be no success. When I go into society I am conventional. But I don't care for the life. I am a worker. I love my work. I am an actress and I work hard. Then I write a great deal; I write plays. These are some I am working at now"—displaying a roll of manuscript.

"Would you vote if you had suffrage?"

"Oh, I must vote. All workingwomen must vote. That is where woman's independence is to come from—equal rights."

It was about time for rehearsal. A small girl, aged eight, came into the wings; her name was Lucille. She wanted to play the part of a boy in "Margaret Fleming." She was a dainty, lovely scrap of womanhood, with pink cheeks and brown curls.

"But you will have to get your hair cut," Miss Banks said to her.

"Oh, no; I never could let my curls get cut off," replied the child.

"But you are to be a boy in the play."

"Yes, but boys have curls," answered the midget. And Miss Maude Banks, the youngest radical of the league, became thoughtful.

Pussy Plays the Piano.

The romantic suburb of Wissahickon boasts of a genuine musical prodigy. It is a Maltese cat which is owned by William Johnson, and of which the neighbors are justly proud. Since its early youth the cat has been fond of music, and could never be driven from the parlor when any one was playing on the piano. It first began to attract attention by beating perfect time with its paws. Then it learned gradually to play bass parts in simple tunes as an accompaniment to one of the children. Now pussy is able to play the old familiar tune America without missing a note.—Philadelphia Record.

An Interesting Letter.

A curiously addressed letter passed through the post-office at Madrid recently. The address was a perfect rebus. At the left-hand side was the figure of a lady. This made it clear to which sex the one to whom the letter was addressed belonged. Over the lady's head was a rising sun, which was interpreted as indicating that her name was Aurora.

For her surname there was a hill with a castle at its foot, or, in Spanish, "Montes y Castillo." For the town there was the plan of a city drawn, in which the Alhambra appeared. Of course that meant Granada, especially as a pomegranate was drawn beside the plan of the city. The address was completed by a number in one of the streets of the plan. The postal authorities took three days to study this curiosity, and then delivered it in triumph to "Senorita Aurora Montes y Castillo, Azacayas No. 20 Granada." So proud were the postal authorities of this feat that they had the envelope photographed and printed in the Madrid papers as proof of the acumen of the department. All the foreigners in Madrid were very much amused by the affair.

Insomnia is fearfully on the increase. The rush and excitement of modern life so tax the nervous system that multitudes of people are deprived of good and sufficient sleep, with ruinous consequences to the nerves. Remember, Ayer's Sarsaparilla makes the weak strong.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

Wonderful Cures

SAVAGE SINGPHOS NAILED HIM BY HANDS AND FEET TO THE CROSS.

Then He Fainted—An American Miner's Awful Wounds—His Crucifiers Lopped Off His Fingers and Some of His Toes, Leaving Unsightly Scars.

The body of a man who had been crucified, and who had survived the ordeal and lived for years afterwards, left Tacoma, Wash., the other day for interment at Salt Lake City. The remains were those of Dr. William Bredemeyer, who years ago was crucified by an uncivilized tribe in Burmah, India. The burial at Salt Lake City was by the side of his first wife, Annie May Savery Mearyone-Evans. His second wife, born Miss Penelope McVickar, accompanied the body, which was escorted to the train by members of sixteen fraternities, including 120 women, who were members of Rebecca lodges, and the Pocahontas, of the Order of Red Men and the Pythian Sisters.

Dr. Bredemeyer was a great fraternity man. He was a member of nearly every secret order in existence, and had he lived a week longer he would have perfected the organization in Tacoma of the Heptosophs. But paralysis carried him off, and with his right hand peacefully over his breast as he lay in his coffin, the jagged scar left by those who crucified him could plainly be seen. Hundreds saw the scar, and thought it a dreadful sight.

The right hand scar was not as long as the left hand one by an inch. Both were between the bones of the thumb and forefinger, in the thickest part of the palm. The left hand scar was two and a half inches long, and on both sides of the hands the scars stood out like miniature mountain ranges, compared with the size of the hands. The serrated topridges of the ugly marks were white and pronounced, like snow-capped peaks.

When Bredemeyer was crucified there was no antiseptic surgery to kill the putrefying microbes in the air while wounds were being treated, and thus avoid irritation and unsightly scars. For twenty-four hours after he was crucified he received no treatment of any kind. When his wounds were dressed he was unconscious, and for several days it was thought he would die.

Bredemeyer was a quiet, uncommunicative Prussian. Members of his family and his close friends knew of his crucifixion, but Tacoma people were in absolute ignorance of the facts until Bredemeyer's record of his own life was found among his papers after his death.

He was a graduate of the University of Bonn, and had previously qualified as a member of the Prussian Pioneer Engineer Corps. That was in 1862. The next year he entered the Dutch-India service as a mining engineer and expert, and advanced step by step in his chosen profession until in 1868, when the King of Upper Burmah made him Chief Engineer of the famous ruby mines in the northern part of that country.

Bredemeyer had headquarters at Medea, in the ruby mines district, where big sapphires are also found. The mines are jealously guarded, and all the precious stones belong to the King. From the ruby and the sapphire harvest the King realizes from $50,000 to $75,000 a year.

North of Medea in the lofty mountains there were some ruby mines which the King had not had prospected by such an eminent expert as Bredemeyer. In fact, no white man had ever ventured into the mountains of the north, where dwell the half-civilized Singphos, who, while recognizing the authority of the King, were unruly and barbaric.

Bredemeyer's advent was the signal for great excitement among the Singphos. They had never seen a white man, and notwithstanding Bredemeyer proclaimed his mission under authority of the King, the Singphos were not satisfied. Their cupidity got the better of their loyalty; they thought more of their rubies and sapphires than they did of the King's mandates. They decided to crucify the white man if he did not flee from the country.

A handful of soldiers were with Bredemeyer. In all the country, which then had 3,500,000 inhabitants, the King had but 19,000 soldiers. The Singphos were not afraid of them. Bredemeyer refused to leave the country until he had carried out the orders of the King. The Singphos declared war. The soldiers went into ambush, only to treacherously surrender the mining expert when the natives swooped down upon them.

While the soldiers were scurrying about for re-inforcements, the natives nailed Bredemeyer to a cross made of two pieces of the native oil wood. Crude pieces of iron with sharp edges and slightly sharp at the end were brought, and, using stones for sledges, the natives drove the irons through Bredemeyer's hands and feet.

The barbarians were beside themselves with feudish fury. In their haste they horribly mutilated the engineer's toes and fingers. Before the brutal work of nailing Bredemeyer to the cross was finished he became partially unconscious. The shock was almost fatal. The last thing he remembered was the swarming Singphos, with their flat faces, broad skulls, straight black hair and deep brown skins, gleaming like demons, uttering wild shouts and dancing and gesticulating at the foot of the cross. Some of them were entirely naked, having stripped off their apparel in the hysterical excitement of the capture and crucifixion of the hated victim.

As a rule the natives wear linen wrapped about their hips. These clothes are called ingies, and as Bredemeyer lapsed into unconsciousness he remembered that the ingies of the masters of the barbaric ceremony were besmeared with his own blood.

When Bredemeyer had been nailed to the cross, the natives prepared to raise it and fasten it into the ground. At that instant the soldiers happily returned with re-inforcements and routed the natives. Bredemeyer was carried back to Medea.

The crucifixion occurred on July 16, 1866, at about noon. At noon the next day his wounds were dressed. The rainy season had not set in and it was very warm, and under these unfavorable conditions it was feared gangrene would set in. The sufferer was cared for tenderly, under directions from the King, and being accustomed to undergo great hardships, he speedily recovered, but never again ventured into the land of the Singphos.

Fourteen months later, immediately after he married Miss Evans at Nagasaki, he was engaged by the Japanese Government as a mining expert, but a couple of years later on account of the ill-health of his wife he removed to California. From there he worked up into Utah, prospecting in the mines, locating undeveloped properties which it is estimated will make a millionaire of his eight-year old son, who was born to him by his second wife. From Utah Bredemeyer went to British Columbia, and thence back to Washington, three years ago, where he conducted an assayer's office.

When his body was removed to the morgue, attention was called to the frightful scars on his hands and feet. Three fingers of the left hand were gone, and his right foot showed signs of mutilation, while the left foot looked as if it had been frozen until the toes had dropped off. His fingers and the toes of the right foot had been lopped off by his crucifiers. The toes of the left foot were frozen off on a prospecting trip in Utah.

The day of his funeral, his casket was literally covered with fraternity badges, the gold bullion in which was valued at $500. He organized the Foresters and the Redmen on the Pacific coast, and was honored with the highest offices conferred by several of the secret orders in the Pacific Northwest.

THE BUCHANAN CASE.

Equal to a Resurrection—Almost Helpless from Kidney Disease—A Burden to Himself and His Friends—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Chatham, April 30.—The story of Sherman Buchanan, living near Leamington, is worthy of notice. He says he was almost helpless, bloated and a wreck with kidney disease. His digestive organs were powerless and he was rapidly becoming a burden to himself and his friends. Naturally he lost all hopes of recovery, but a happy thought suggested Dodd's Kidney Pills, and these cured him. Dodd's was the first Kidney remedy in pill form ever offered the public. Its wonderful success in curing all forms of kidney disease has led to the introduction of numerous cheap and worthless imitations. Purchasers, for their own safety, should insist on getting Dodd's Kidney Pills. Sold in large boxes; price, fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.56. To be had of all dealers.

THE BOW-WOWS BEFORE THE "BEAK."

Dog-tag Delinquents Dealt With—The Beginning of Brisk Business Cruisade.

This morning at the police court there were eight dog-tag cases on the docket. Up to the present there are issued tags for only 420 out of perhaps one thousand dogs in Peterborough. The police have inaugurated a brisk cruisade against the owners of canines who have no license to live in a law abiding town. The owners of the perhaps 500 dogs yet unregistered had better take warning for the police say they are determined that no dog shall escape which it is in their power to reach. This morning the eight charges were heard by the police magistrate. The summons were served on Saturday. Four of the parties hastened to the police court clerk's office and paid their dollar and got their tag. This promptitude did not save them however, for in all these cases the cost of the process of law necessary to bring the delinquents to a sense of duty was imposed—$1.35 cents in each case. Those who took no notice of the summons were more summarily dealt with. Two of the cases were enlarged and in two other cases a fine of $2 and $1 (the $2 fine being in the case of a bitch) and $2.35 costs were imposed. A man thus has to pay $4.25 when a tag costing only $2.00 or $1, as the case may be, would settle the bill. The police were quite impartial in the distribution of their favours this morning. The delinquent list includes all classes of citizens, the mechanic, the lone widow, the gentleman of leisure, the business men and the government official. Not only the dog by-law but the stray stock by-law is to be firmly enforced. Those who are not living up to the letter of these by-laws will find it to their interest to take a sharp curve so the police say.

CHURCH CHIMES.

The Park Street Mission Band will hold its annual entertainment this evening.

The billeting committee of the Bay of Quinte Conference Methodist Church, will meet this evening at eight o'clock, at the office of A. L. Davis, Esq.

At George Street Methodist Sunday school yesterday the orchestra played Chopin's well-known funeral march out of respect to the late Mr. Seward.

Mr. J. W. Pady began his work at the Park street Baptist Mission yesterday, conducting both morning and evening services. He was greeted with encouragingly large congregations.

At the evening service in St. John's conducted by Rev. Mr. Kenrick, touching and sympathetic reference was made to the death of, Mr. L. Seward, formerly, for four years, the much esteemed organist and choirmaster of the church.

Rev. Charles L. Cooking, a returned Missionary from Japan, will deliver a lecture on Japan, in the George Street Methodist Church on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. This lecture will be illustrated by over 100 lime light views and furnishes one of the most enjoyable entertainments. The price of admission is only ten cents and the church should be crowded.

Yesterday the congregations in St. Andrew's were affected by the rain, and so were not as large as usual. Two earnest and practical sermons were preached by Rev. A. MacWilliams from Hebrew xii, 1-2 and St. Mark II:5. The audiences were also delighted with the music by the choir. The solos were effectively taken by Mrs. Jones and Messrs. Mulligan and Gray.

The services in the George Street Church yesterday were the usual quarterly service. The Lovefeast in the morning was largely attended and one of great interest. The choir sang without the organ, and the instrument and choir gallery were heavily draped in black, out of respect for the late organist, Mr. L. Seward. The singing was very fine. The Communion was administered at the close of the evening service to a large number and the pastor gave the right hand of fellowship to thirty new members received during the quarter. Large congregations were present at both services.

At the morning service in the Murray street Baptist church yesterday Mrs. (Dr.) Scott, Miss M. Barker, and Messrs. Matthews and Kemp sang a quartette entitled "Come unto me and I will give you rest" most acceptibly. In the evening the ordinance of baptism was administered to eleven candidates. A quartette entitled "The blood of Jesus intercedes" was sang in good voice by Miss Barker, Dr. Scott, Mr. Kemp and Mr. Routley. The selection "Now I love Jesus and Jesus loves me" by the choir was greatly enjoyed. Rev. Mr. Trotter conducted both morning and evening services.

Rev. Geo. Edwards has received a unanimous call to the pastorate of the Carleton Place Methodist church. He has accepted the call, subject to the approval of the stationing committee. Rev. Mr. Edwards has been a hard working, earnest pastor for the three years he has filled the position in the Charlotte Methodist church. He is a very acceptable and eloquent preacher—his sermons being thoughtful practical, earnest and scholarly. He is a very faithful pastor, looking well after the personnel of his flock. His zealous efforts have been diligently and successfully directed to the building up of the church and all its interests.

A large gathering assembled yesterday morning at 9.30 in the Charlotte street Methodist church to take part in the quarterly services which will be the last during Rev. Mr. Edwards' pastorate here. Between forty and fifty new members were admitted to church fellowship, largely the result of the recent revival services. The pastor preached a practical and instructive sermon from the 14th chapter of St. John, from the words, "If ye love me keep my commandments." The Rev. B.B. Keefer assisted at the sacramental service and also preached an eloquent and practical sermon from the words uttered by Jacob, "All these things are against me." He gave some fine illustrations and at the close pointed his hearers to the great source of human help under every trial, namely, "trust in God and do the right."

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH NOTES.

The Finance Committee of St. Luke's Church will meet to-morrow evening in the school house.

There will be service at Auburn and at Hare's school house on Thursday evening next at 7:30 p. m.

A special appeal was addressed to the communicants of St. Luke's Church to attend the celebration of the Holy Communion on Sunday next. Whit Sunday is the third of the three great festivals of the Church, Christmas and Easter being the other too. Sunday next will also be the anniversary of the first communion of the confirmation class of last year. There will be two celebrations, one at 8 o'clock a. m., the other at 11 o'clock service.

THE INGERSOLL TRAGEDY.

Inquest Held on the Death of Young McDermott.

INGERSOLL, May 7.—On Saturday evening an inquest was held on the death of the young man McDermott, killed on Friday night, as it is supposed, by Harry Aldwood. The circumstances of the tragedy, as brought out in the evidence, are that a number of young men of this place, who are in the habit of indulging in what they consider some practical fun, arrange to gather together in a body at night and pelt pedestrians with stones, just for the fun "of seeing them run." On this occasion young Aldwood, who had been escorting a young lady home, was the victim of their pranks.

During the melee, by whom or from where, it has not been developed, McDermott, who was one of the storming party, was struck on the head, sustaining injuries from which he afterwards died. Aldwood was arrested, as the circumstances seemed to point to him as the probable cause of McDermott's death.

From the evidence so far elicited, it cannot be ascertained just from what source the blow was received. The inquest has been adjourned till to-morrow evening.

Six-Year-Old Boy Drowned.

DUNNVILLE, Ont., May 7.—Johnnie Dougher, aged 6, youngest son of William Dougher, of this place, was drowned in the canal on Saturday. His body was recovered after having been in the water about an hour. He went out to fish and fell from the lock gates.

Insane Man Suicides.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 7. — John J. McDonald, 24 years of age, an inmate of Mount Hope Insane Asylum, committed suicide on Saturday by jumping into the harbor. He escaped from his keeper, ran to the asylum pier and jumped off. He belonged to Picton county.

Killed a Desperate Character.

BERLIN, May 7.—Jacob Christ, a butcher, murdered a peasant named Osteroth by cutting his throat on the highway near Masterhausen, Coblenz district. His motive was robbery. While he was searching Osteroth's pockets for money he was seen by several railway flagmen and switchmen. They pursued him and one of them overtook him, but only to be stabbed to death. A mounted policeman who had learned of the crime rode Christ down and shot him through the head.

Destroyed by Lightning.

NORTHPORT, Ont., May 7.—During the heavy thunderstorm which prevailed here on Saturday evening the dining hall owned by J. C. Y. Cornwall was struck by lightning and burned to the ground, together with the contents, which included furniture of every description, besides several other things of much value. Mr. Cornwall is at present in Chicago and intended coming home in a short time to open up the park for summer business.

Colorado Sheep War.

GRAND JUNCTION, Col., May 7.—The Utah-Colorado sheep war is on in earnest and serious results may follow. J. F. Reed's herd of 800 sheep has been slaughtered by indignant Colorado cattlemen. Shots were exchanged and as Reed is missing it is feared he may have been killed.

Murder in a Drunken Carousal.

MONTREAL, May 7.—Patrick Foley, a laborer, is in the police cells on suspicion of having killed his wife in a drunken carousal that happened late on Saturday night. Foley and his wife lived on Dowd street, and during the night the neighbors were aroused by screams from the Foley house. The house was entered and Foley was found with his arms around his wife's neck. Both parties had evidently been drinking hard, and empty whiskey bottles were found strewn around. The woman's body bore marks of violence. Foley was arrested and is held for trial.

Missing from Montreal.

MONTREAL, May 7.—Mr. Wm. McKay, of her Majesty's Customs, late member of professional staff of Roman Catholic schools here, has been missing from his home, No. 72 Fortier street, since the 21st of April. The affair is a complete mystery and no clue whatever has yet been discovered. He is 56 years of age, but looks younger. Height, 5 feet 7½ inches; walks straight and erect; eyes blue, features regular; full beard and moustache of brownish hue, slightly streaked with grey. Information should be sent to John Mackay, No. 72 Fortier street, Montreal.

Another Shock in Greece.

ATHENS, May 7.—A severe earthquake was felt yesterday in Thebes, Livadia. A violent trembling was felt in Northern Euboea. The King and his party landed in the morning at Shylida, on the Gulf of Zituna, and drove to Lamia, where the Te Deum service was given on a platform erected in the square.

Three Weeks Notice to Clear The Shop to Let the Contractor at Work.

OUR PLAN TO DODGE A DAMAGE TO OUR STOCK.

We have had notice from the landlord to vacate our store in three weeks to allow the workmen getting to work on alterations to our premises. We cannot get another store to move the stock into, and we want to dodge the chance of damage to the goods by fairly giving away our Clothing and Suit Goods. You know what alterations do for Dry Goods and Clothing Stock while the work is going on. Everything out down to Cost Prices. Clothing never came so near being given away before—never will again. This Sale will be a record breaker.

SELLING RIGHT AND LEFT TO HUSTLE OUT THE GOODS.

For $3.75 you take your choice of 180 Heavy Tweed and Serge Suits.

For $7.50 you take choice of 315 choice Suits, in all the different cloths. This price includes all Suits in the house up to Ten Dollars.

For $9.00 your choice of 200 Suits—the cream of our stock. These Suits are good enough for the most dressy men and are well made and trimmed.

Those Boys' Suits that were $2.50 and $3.00 will be cleared out at $2.00.

Boys' Suits that were $3.50, $4.00, $4.50 and $5.00 during this Sale go for $3.00.

The entire stock of Youths' and Young Men's Suits will be placed on our counters at three prices, namely—$3.50, $5.00 and $7.50.

White Laundered Shirts, were 75c., for 50c.

CUT TO THE BONE

Mantles and Capes.

Tell your friends, tell your neighbours, tell even your enemies—about our WONDERFUL SALE now going on.

Every new Mantle, every new Cape, every new Wrap—must go—hence and forthwith—and "stand not upon the order of going,"—but go at once.

To cut once—and cut deeply—is better than to hack away, little by little—so this blow is to the bone. Read how facts and figures go hand-in-hand:—

Our $15 00 Mantle.....	goes for	$11	25
Our 13 00 Mantles & Capes	"	9	50
Our 11 00	"	8	49
Our 9 75	"	6	25
Our 8 00	"	5	75
Our 6 75	"	5	25
Our 4 00	"	3	00

We sold yesterday a $12.50 Mantle, handsomely embroidered, full sleeves, for $4.00.

There's no likelihood that the pick of Paris and Berlin Mantles will ever again be so absurdly low. Not a coat in the lot but is to-day worth twice or may be thrice times the price.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

A BLOW AT THE

Dress Goods.

Dress Goods are the vertebræ of our dry goods stock. As the marrow to the vertebræ, so are our MATCHLESS VALUES. Bettering our best is our effort all the time.

1894 stands pre-eminent for sales and attractive bargains in Dress Goods. The splendid success of our sales justifies our policy of marvelously low prices during the pinching hard times, and our new scale of prices is drawing the crowds:—

20 pieces 45 inch Serge, all colours, worth 50c., for 40c.
10 pieces 40 inch Gray and Fawn Bedford, worth 50c., for 35c.
8 pieces 46 inch Satin Cloth, imported to sell at 80c., now 60c.
10 pieces Coloured Cashmeres, worth 50c, for 35c.
6 pieces Coloured Diagonal Serge, worth 40c., sale price 25c.
12 pieces Coloured Serge, all wool at 25c
10 pieces Printed All Wool Delaines, 30 to 36 inches, worth from 40c. to 60c., for 25c.

This is a time for few words. We put all our eloquence into prices and qualities.
"It's Fair's Way."

Customers are heard to say:—"Fair's getting a great run on Carpets." Carpet cutting is certainly more rapid than we expected. This is just the way we want it. We deal in Rich Carpets and Rugs. The fourth floor is loaded with Floor Coverings. We are leaders in prices and new colourings. Prices out to the bone.

April and May are the months for carpet cleaning. Perhaps your carpet is worn out. Sweeping won't help it. A carpet bought now will save you 20 per cent. "It's Fair's Way."

MILLINERY STIR.

Just now there's more interest than usual going on in our Millinery Department. There is a marked increase in sales, and our new revised prices seems to "startle the oldest in habitant." The special attractions in our Millinery Parlours are the new designs in Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets for Ladies, Children's Hats, &c. Novelties in beautiful soft roses with foliage in all colours, and other flowers, together with New Ribbons, Feathers and Trimmings.

But the popular prices all round is what is doing the effective selling of the season, and nobody accuses us of charging too much.

But, "It's Fair's Way."

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Mr. Flint Introduces His Resolution Respecting Prohibition.

TO CREATE A LABOR HOLIDAY

Sir John Thompson Introduces His Bill Providing That the First Monday in September Shall be Set Apart as Labor Day —Imported Teas.

OTTAWA, May 8.—Sir John Thompson introduced his bill yesterday providing that the first Monday in September of each year shall be designated Labor Day, and be observed as a statutory holiday. The bill was read a first time.

Several private bills were read a third time.

Hon. Mr. Daly, answering a question by Mr. Taylor, said that it was the intention of the Government to have some person appointed at Montreal to act as referee in case of dispute arising between buyers and sellers as to the weight of cheese having been sold either at the factory or elsewhere, subject to weight at Montreal.

Mr. Martin moved for an order of the House showing the names of all persons appointed to act as what are known as return men in connection with immigration work, the period during which each worked, the amount of money paid to each, the names of the settlers brought to Canada by each return man, and the places in which such settlers were located.

He said that he believed that farmers sent to England as return men did no good, and, as far as he knew, had never brought back a single settler. They went home for a holiday at the Government's expense.

Hon. Mr. Daly said that under present arrangements no return man could go home for a holiday. They were carefully selected and were doing good work. He had no objection to the granting of the return, which would be brought down as soon as possible.

Mr. Martin moved for an order of the House showing the number of settlers brought into the Yorkton and Saltcoats district from Dakota, and into the Calgary district from Chicago, and showing in each case the nationality of such settlers, the cost of obtaining them, and the number that still remain and the occupation those remaining are engaged in.

Hon. Mr. Daly said that he would be pleased to furnish information with reference to all persons who had taken up homesteads. If Mr. Martin had looked at page 7 of the report of the interior he would have found the information desired. He would have found that the cost to the Government had been exceedingly small. Most of these settlers had been heavily mortgaged in Dakota, and had not the necessary means to get into Canada. Money was advanced to them by the Canada Settlers Company, who considered they were taking good risks having thoroughly acquainted themselves with the people, the land and the details.

Mr. Martin said that he was well-informed as to the facts. He said that he would read a letter from one of the settlers who might be expected to know his own affairs better than the official who furnished the Government report. The letter contained a clause stating that the settlers could not pay either interest or principal on their mortgages.

Hon. Mr. Daly said that the letter proved nothing but that these settlers would like the Government to pay the mortgages upon which money had been advanced to them, that they might get out of the misery and distress in which they found themselves in the United States.

Mr. Mara asked that the return should also be made to include a statement including the States of Washington, Idaho and Oregon. He had spoken to many settlers from those districts and all had told him that they had done splendidly.

Mr. Martin said that he had no objection to the addition, and while he was on his feet he would say that he was free to admit that the settlers who had taken up land in the Calgary district had done well.

The motion passed.

Mr. Staire moved: "That in view of the increased importations of adulterated teas into Canada, owing to their importation into England and the United States being prohibited, the provisions of the Act respecting the adulteration of food, drugs, etc., are insufficient, and it is consequently necessary to provide for the immediate inspection of all teas proposed to be entered for consumption in Canada, and the destruction or exportation of all found to be adulterated."

Hon. Mr. Wallace said that the Government had been giving a great deal of attention to this matter, and he had kept a sharp lookout so as to prevent the importation of adulterated or deleterious teas. At Montreal and other large ports, grocery appraisers had been appointed who were expert judges of tea, and they were instructed to carefully examine all importations.

The motion carried.

Mr. Flint moved: "That it is expedient that as speedily as possible this Parliament should enact a law to prohibit the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in Canada except for medicinal, manufacturing and sacramental purposes."

Mr. Flint spoke until recess in support of the resolution.

After recess, Mr. Broome, in seconding the motion, said the time had come when the Government should take the matter of revenue into consideration, so that should the courts decide that the prohibitory power lies with the Dominion Government they would be ready to pass the law. He quoted the words of Sir Leonard Tilley, who, when Finance Minister, spoke in favor of prohibition, and concurred in Sir Leonard's view. One factor would be the lessening of expense in the maintenance of prisons in the country, which were filled from crimes committed owing to the abuse of liquor. Three-fourths of the people committed to the common jails of the country were there through drunkenness.

Mr. Craig supported the resolution. It was only fair that there should be some compensation to those interested in the liquor business. He did not think the temperance people could have any fear because of the passage of the French treaty, as that treaty could be terminated on twelve months' notice.

Dr. Christie and Mr. Emerson Coatsworth spoke in favor of prohibition, the latter holding that the resolution might be stronger. He thought Sir Oliver Mowat ought to have told the temperance delegation in Toronto that he would deal with them. They could not expect the Dominion Government to deal with this question until the Prohibition Commission had reported. It would be folly to do so.

Mr. Dupont in French opposed the resolution.

Mr. Maclean (East York) said the House should pay more attention to practical matters, such as the adulteration of food and sanitary reforms, and less to the liquor traffic. Bad food and bad sanitary arrangements were responsible for more misery than strong drink. People were drinking less to-day than of old. The day had come when people had no use for whiskey heads. Moral reform, in the way of temperance, in Canada, must come from force of example and moral suasion, and not from legislation. Saloon drinking ought to be abolished, and he would support it any day, but a prohibitory law would only be laughed at.

Sir Adolphe Caron moved the adjournment of the debate, as other members wished to speak on this important question.

Capital Gossip.

Sir Leonard Tilley is in the city, and there are any number of rumors that his visit concerns the lieutenant-governorship of his province.

Hon. Mr. Foster has given notice that the items of wood and pulp, placed on the free list in the recent revision, will be taken off and the old tariff of 25 per cent. ad valorem placed on it.

A meeting of the Agriculture and Colonization Committee was held to-day when Professor Robertson appeared before the committee and gave some valuable statistics in the dairy interests of the Dominion. Mr. Robertson intends leaving during the week for Manitoba, the Northwest and British Columbia to establish dairy stations and give lectures on dairying.

Messrs. Lister, Weldon and Dickey are shaping Mr. Weldon's bill to disfranchise voters who have taken bribes. The bill provides that all voters whom the judge reports to have taken bribes shall be incapable of voting at any election for a member of the House of Commons held during the seven years next after the report has been received by the Secretary of State.

Mr. Chesley, M.P., of St. John, is arranging another meeting between the New Brunswick members and the Government to further protest against the granting of the Atlantic fast line subsidy for the service between Halifax and British ports. The impression prevails in quarters interested that the resolution providing the $750,000 annual subsidy will not be passed this session.

WATCHING THE BARLEY ITEM.

Western Interests Conflict With Eastern With Regard to Canada's Product.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Representative Lockwood, Tracey and other New York members are watching closely the barley item of the tariff bill, and are relying mainly on Senator Murphy's familiarity with the brewing business to secure an arrangement of the barley schedule satisfactory to New York. Several conferences have been had with the senator, during which the barley tariff has been discussed.

The New York brewers draw their supplies of barley from the great crops of Canada, and with a nominal duty the eastern men have a prospect of commanding the brewery business of the country, but the western interests, particularly those centred at Milwaukee, St. Louis and Cincinnati, draw their supplies mainly from American farmers and can get along without the low duty barleys of Canada. With the Canadian crop kept out by a high duty, the westerners have a prospect of commanding the market. The western men were well satisfied with the high rate of 40 per cent. fixed in the senate bill, but now the eastern men are at work to bring the rate down, and they feel that they will succeed.

Burned the Negro Alive.

LITTLE ROCK, May 8.—Reliable information reaches here of the burning of a negro in Ouachita county, supposed to have smallpox. The telegram conveying the intelligence says: A negro at Miles Switch, in Ouachita county, was taken sick with some kind of a breaking out, which was thought to be smallpox, and a doctor was summoned. For some reason he did not attend. The negro was put in a cabin, to which some one set fire, and, being unable to escape, he perished in the flames. One report says he was shot and then burned, while another report says he was burned alive. One thing is certain, and that is that the house occupied by the negro was burned to the ground and he cannot now be found. The identity of the guilty parties is not known.

To Honor the Maid of Orleans.

ORLEANS, France, May 8.—A large number of American and English visitors have arrived here in order to take part in the Joan of Arc celebrations. Many wreaths were placed upon the statute erected in honor of the Maid of Orleans. To-day is the anniversary of the day upon which Joan of Arc succeeded, in 1429, in raising the siege of Orleans. The city had been besieged by the English under the Earls of Salisbury and Suffolk, since October 12, 1428.

A Jealous Roman's Deed.

ROME, May 8.—A young man named Venzi, belonging to one of the Misartis Roman families, called at the house of Signor Liberalis' daughter Glorinda, to whom he was betrothed. As the girl stepped forward to greet him on entering the reception room, Venzi drew a revolver and fired two shots at her, both of which took effect, and she fell dead at his feet. Venzi then put the pistol to his head and sent a bullet into his brain, dying instantly. It is supposed the deed was caused by jealousy.

MRS. EVANS TESTIFIES

The Accused Wife Takes the Stand in Her Own Behalf.

DENIES INTIMACY WITH PEGG

Although Admitting Writing to Him on Two Occasions—Her Story Corroborated by Pegg — Walter Evans Gives Evidence for the Defence.

TORONTO, May 8.—At the trial of the Sharon trio yesterday Walter Evans, the alleged intended victim of the prisoners, took the stand. His evidence mainly established the fact that he was a hard drinker. The most important part of his evidence was the contradiction of Maggie Reid's statement that she was present at the house on the day after Christmas. This Evans denied. He could not remember who brought in the oysters after he came home from hunting. His wife dished them out in two plates. "I ate some of the oysters," said the witness, "and then I asked my wife to eat some of mine. She tasted one and then spat it out. Then she told me not to eat mine and took them all away." He had eaten some of the oysters at noon and they had their effect on him while shooting. The oysters were of a pinkish color. He described his sickness on January 2 and said he had prepared his own oysters and used a different kind of vinegar from that used by his wife. Evans' evidence all through did not benefit the case for the defence.

Dr. Cameron, of Toronto, said that he had read Dr. Howe's evidence. He concluded from the symptoms shown by Evans there was no conclusive evidence of poisoning.

He could not say the symptoms were undeniably caused by strychnine. If a paroxysm from strychnine would last for an hour the patient would become asphyxiated. Evans' description of his attack on Friday and Saturday does not correspond with strychnine poisoning. They would be very consistent with hysteria, pure or alcoholic. The symptoms are all attributable to this cause.

In strychnine poisoning there would be no rigid muscles, it would be a complete collapse.

Oysters would become pink after decomposition, he thought, but he could not see how strychnine would have this effect. The taste of strychnine could not be hidden; it is unmistakably bitter, and causes a burning sensation in the throat.

On cross-examination he said he was more of an authority on surgery than on the points on which he had just been speaking. He would not say that the fact that Evans always recovered the next day after one of his attacks proved that it was hysteria. Fear is not associated with the symptoms of strychnine poisoning.

At the evening session of the court, Mrs. Evans, the accused woman, took the stand. She denied having acknowledged to Maggie Reed that she had been locked up in a room with Pegg, and also denied ever having been so locked up. Witness said her husband was in the habit of drinking a good deal. Her first introduction to Pegg was on one occasion when he and one John Morris came into the hotel for a drink. They had not a license then and she refused to give them a drink. Morris then introduced Pegg as being "all right" and would not tell. She denied having sent Osman to Bradford for oysters, or having sent him or anyone else there on any message. She then proceeded to relate her story of the oysters. She had noticed they were pink and had herself been taken with cramps after eating some of them. In regard to the powders left by the doctor, she said the reason why she instructed Maggie Reid particularly to give a certain powder was because the other powder was not to be given unless her husband was again attacked with spasms. The powder she told Maggie Reid to give was the right one. She denied having given Maggie Reid the watch, and said she had not known where it was until she was arrested and she saw it in court. She gave the girl a ring as a Christmas box. She had intended leaving her husband, but did not know anything about the trunk in the haymow. She admitted writing two letters to Pegg, but denied ever being on intimate terms with him or considering him as a lover. He came to her house on one occasion on her invitation. She talked to him in the bar-room. He told her he believed in her innocence and would see her through.

After Mrs. Evans had concluded her lengthy evidence, Charles Pegg, one of the prisoners, was called. His story coincided with that told by Mrs. Evans in the main particulars.

It was midnight when the court adjourned.

DOMINION ELECTIONS.

Indications That the Government Will Go to the Country in the Fall.

OTTAWA, May 8.—A report has been circulated among some politicians that the elections for the Dominion are to be held in the fall. What authority there may be for the rumor does not appear. The fact that the Government has awarded the contract for a supply of ballot boxes to J. P. Rose & Co., of Montreal, with instructions to have them ready within 90 days, gives some color to the rumor, and is given as an indication that it is the intention of the Government to go to the country shortly after that time.

It is also claimed that the rumor originated from a circular, which it is claimed has been sent out to prominent Conservatives throughout the country asking if their assistance can be depended upon at the next elections. This circular, it is said, is couched in such terms as to warrant the suspicion that the campaign is at hand.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE

Are a BLOOD BUILDER and NERVE TONIC. They supply in condensed form ALL the ELEMENTS needed to enrich the Blood and rebuild the NERVES, thus making them a certain and speedy cure for all diseases arising from impoverished blood, and shattered nerves, such as paralysis, spinal disease, rheumatism, sciatica, loss of memory, neuralgia, palpitation of the heart, scrofula, chlorosis or green sickness, that tired feeling that affects so many, etc. They have a specific action on the sexual system of both men and women, restoring lost vigor.

WEAK MEN

(young and old), suffering from mental worry, overwork, insomnia, excesses, or self-abuse, should take these PILLS. They will restore lost energies, both physical and mental.

SUFFERING WOMEN

afflicted with the weaknesses peculiar to their sex, such as suppression of the periods, bearing down pains, weak back, ulcerations, etc., will find these pills an unfailing cure.

PALE AND SALLOW GIRLS

should take these Pills. They enrich the blood, restore health's roses to the cheeks and correct all irregularities.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. These Pills are sold by all dealers only in boxes bearing our trade mark or will be sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of price—50 cents a box or 6 for $2.50.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

The Street and Bridge Committee presented a partial report of the work done to date. This included a new culvert on Dickson street; repairing the culvert on Stewart street; raising and grading street at the corner of Elizabeth and Concession St.; grading and gravelling Woodbine Ave. and considerable miscellaneous repairs done. The committee recommended that the tenders of George Mitchell, Wm. Northey and Wm. Maxwell, the two former at 30 cents per rod for building sidewalk and the latter at 35 cents be accepted. Several tenders for street watering were sent in, viz: G. A. Craig, $271; T. Mitchell, $260; W. Davidson, $250; B. Craig, $245; Alex. O'Brien, $227.50. The contract was awarded Mr. O'Brien, the watering of the streets to be done from the first of May till the first of October. The report was adopted.

FREE MEAT.

A resolution was adopted declaring that no butchers' licenses be issued, Mr. Smith advocating a tax of $10 or $15 and Mr. Morgan opposing a license.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

In response to a petition a resolution was passed making the pay for teams on street work $3 per day.

A bylaw was duly passed imposing a dog tax to be payable by the 20th of May in default of which severe penalties were provided.

A petition for street improvements was referred to the street and Bridge Committee.

MORE LIGHT.

A motion was passed placing an electric light on the bend of Driscoll terrace at the northwest corner of the P. A. A. A. grounds and shifting the present light on Stewart street to the west side.

The clerk was, on motion, instructed to have the proper notices regarding dog tags printed and posted.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL DELEGATES.

The reeve was, by resolution, authorized to name delegates to join the delegation to Ottawa re Trent Valley Canal; and the reeve named Messrs. Smith, Morgan and Rutherford such delegation.

The meeting of the court of revision was fixed for the 28th day of May.

Waiter! Beefsteak, Ham and Eggs, for One.

"God gave us meat, but the devil sent us cooks," is a trite saying. From bad cooking, fast eating and overeating, comes a whole train of diseases—indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, catarrh of the stomach, headache, dizziness, and the like. God also gave us a brainy man, who compounded the "Golden Medical Discovery," a corrective of all the ills resulting from overeating and bad blood. Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, has furnished in the "Discovery," a great desideratum in America, where everybody are in such a hurry to make money, they have no time to eat, and scarcely any time to live. It invigorates the liver, cleanses the blood and tones up the system.

Delicate diseases of either sex, however induced, speedily and permanently cured. Book of particulars 10 cents in stamps, mailed sealed in plain envelope. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

HERBERT AND THE ZOUAVES.

The General's Tasty Causes Comment in Volunteer Circles.

MONTREAL, May 8.—There is a good deal of comment expressed in local volunteer circles over certain remarks made by General Herbert on the occasion of the presentation of the Sir Donald Smith cups.

General Herbert, in addition to his formal speech, made some remarks in French to the 65th Battalion, in the course of which he took occasion to praise the pontifical zouaves. He reminded his hearers not to forget that they belonged to the same race as these brave countrymen who belonged to the regiment of the pontifical zouaves, the Canadians of the 19th century, which rendered itself illustrious in defending the church.

The general's remarks are evoking considerable criticism, many expressing the opinion that a British officer had no right, speaking in a public capacity, to express approval of the zouaves' course.

Narrow Escape of a Fishing Party.

RIDGETOWN, Ont., May 8.—Mr. William Perkins, of Elliott & Westland's bank, and Mr. Samuels, of the Molsons bank, had a close call for their lives on Saturday. They, in company with a number of others, went on a fishing excursion to the Esu. Messrs. Perkins and Samuels took a small duck boat and went out into the channel opposite the boat house. A strong sea was running, but by some means or other the boat sunk almost at once. They were encumbered with heavy clothing, and being thus handicapped could do very little to help themselves. They shouted lustily for help, but their comrades were inside the boat house with the doors closed and could not hear them. By the greatest of good luck, Mr. Wm. Weldon, who was half a mile distant, happened to see them and at once put off to their assistance, reaching them after fifteen minutes hard rowing. Their escape was a narrow one as they were thoroughly chilled with the icy water. Three or four minutes longer would have finished them.

A Waterdown Man's Death.

HAMILTON, May 8.—Henry McCready, aged about 64 years, while driving to his home near Waterdown on Saturday night during the storm, got off the road with his horse and wagon, and while trying to get on the right road again was thrown from his wagon and rendered unconscious. His horse continued on its way. When some young men saw it making its way to McCready's house alone they stopped it and made search for McCready. In the meantime Mr. William Wilson drove along the road in his rig and, owing to the darkness, failed to see McCready's body on the road and was made aware of his awful predicament by the jolting of his carriage driving over the body. McCready was still alive, and was taken to Dr. Courtenay's by Mr. Wilson, but he was past human aid and died a few hours after the accident. Deceased had been married twice and leaves a widow and eleven children.

SHE IS BRIGHT AND HAPPY.

Getting Fat and Plump.

"Your Lactated Food is the Best in the World."

A Winnipeg mother, in a letter to the manufacturers of Lactated Food, says: "When my baby was three months old, I found that I was unable to nurse it properly, and was obliged to use some form of prepared food, I bought a certain food that I had heard of, but found, after a few days trial, that it did not agree with my baby. I gave up the use of this food, and went to another store where your Lactated Food was strongly recommended. I purchased a small tin in order to try it. To my joy, baby relished it, and slept better than formerly. Now I buy Lactated Food in the large size, and must say it is a wonderful diet for babies; my child is always bright and happy, and is getting fat and plump. Your Lactated Food is the best in the world, and I strongly recommend it to all mothers."

As an aid to internal remedies for skin diseases, Dr. Low's Sulphur Soap proves very valuable.

Worthless Pianos and Organs

Are made in large quantities, because foolish people buy where prices are lowest, without giving a thought to quality. Any one who thinks, will not buy a "Piano at $170, or an Organ at $30, guaranteed for nineteen years," because it is cheap. Any one who thus thinks will avoid learning by experience that it would have been cheaper to pay, say $300, for his piano.

We can furnish an Organ for $30, but we will not. We live here and have to "face the music" this year and other years to come.

SUFFERING ENDED!

Paine's Celery Compound Banishes Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

A Permanent Cure After Years of Agony.

No Failure When Nature's Remedy is Used.

Mr. George Geary, of Rodney, Ont., writes as follows:—

"For a number of years I was greatly troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, and tried many doctors, but got little or no relief until I purchased a bottle of your Paine's Celery Compound from our druggist, Mr. Harvey. The medicine gave prompt and, and what has proved to be permanent relief; and I believe it to be unequalled for these afflictions, also as a nerve tonic. Deriving so much benefit from its use, I am pleased to recommend it to my friends, or to persons who suffer in the way I did, as a most reliable remedy for these ailments."

Paine's Celery Compound sweeps away disease with a power unknown to other medicines. It is the life-renewer that every suffering man, woman and child should use, when pain and agony make life miserable and unbearable.

This wonderful medicine is the noblest gift that medical science has ever given to the world. It is fast superseding all other medicines for the cure of rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, indigestion, nervousness and general debility. It is recommended and prescribed by physicians all over the country, as the best and safest agent for the cure of all the above-mentioned troubles and diseases. For true merit, worth and honest results, Paine's Celery Compound stands on the highest pinnacle of fame.

Let us say to those who are not laid up with sickness or disease—those who are merely ailing—that one bottle of Paine's Celery Compound will surely prevent sickness and serious trouble. When you feel tired, weary, worn out and overdone, a few doses of nature's life-giver will give you newed strength, vigor and activity.

Hon. J. M. Gibson Nominated.

HAMILTON, May 8.—The Reformers of West Hamilton met in convention last night for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Legislature. RESCUED THE TOURISTS

The Imprisoned Exploring Party Released from the Cave.

EXHAUSTED, BUT ALL ALIVE

The Rescue Celebrated as a Joyous Event in Vienna—The Emperor of Austria Telegraphs His Congratulations to the Rescued and Rescuers.

GRATZ, May 8.—A diver yesterday succeeded in reaching the party of tourists who have been imprisoned in the stalactite cave at Souraich since Saturday, April 27th, owing to the sudden rise in the water which blockaded the passage into the cave with timber and boulders. The diver found all seven of the tourists alive. It was at first believed eight persons were imprisoned.

The cave explorers presented a ghastly spectacle as they were brought into the daylight, so weak from exhaustion that they were barely alive. The church bells of the village of the Luglook ran out joyous peals and the diver to whose efforts the rescue was due was carried on the shoulders of the villagers. Mrs. Fashings, one of the party, gave premature birth to a child while in the cave. Mrs. Sewer was driven mad from despair and fright.

Six of the seven persons who were at the cave have so far recovered that they are able to walk. They had a small supply of bread and cheese when they were found and they also had a few candles left. The prisoners heard the attempts to rescue them, but the slow progress the rescuers were making had made it seem certain they would die before they could be reached, and their anxiety and terror were intense. They were cheered by the noise of the explosion of the dynamite blasts, but the shocks were so violent that they were in constant fear of being killed by falling rocks.

VIENNA, May 8.—The rescue of the Lugloch tourists has thrown Gratz into a ferment of excitement. Residents unacquainted embraced one another and wept in the streets. There was hardly less excitement in Vienna. Everybody was asking for or giving information of the rescue. The Emperor immediately telegraphed congratulations to the rescued and rescuers. Among the latter are Engineer Fischer and Captain Steindl, one of the long distance riders in the race between Vienna and Berlin. Fischer was severely benumbed by his immersion. A box of provisions floated into the cave and reached the imprisoned tourists on May 2. They ate some candles also. All are likely to speedily recover.

The Kaiser at a Fire.

BERLIN, May 8.—The little village of Gatow, near Spaddau, was entirely destroyed by fire yesterday. The fire department of Spaddau and a number of engines of the Berlin fire brigade were sent to the scene, but were too late to be of any service. The Emperor, at the head of the Spaddau engineers, was early on the ground and worked hard to save the burning buildings.

P. T. Barnum's Estate.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 8.—The P. T. Barnum estate is to undergo another partial distribution, only enough being kept intact to pay Mrs. Barnum's annuity of $40,000 and several smaller amounts. This is one condition upon which Clinton Barnum Seeley has withdrawn his contest against the executor's report. The estate is now valued at about $2,300,000.

Kim Ok Kum's Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 8.—From advices received by the China steamer it is learned that Japan is greatly excited on account of the murder of Kim Ok Kum at Shanghai, and the orgies held by the victim's enemies when the news of his murder was received. It is charged that the Corean king not only knew of the murderous plot, but gave his sanction to it.

France and Newfoundland.

LONDON, May 8.—In the House of Commons Mr. Sidney Buxton, Under Colonial Secretary, announced that negotiations with France, in regard to a treaty regulating the fisheries along the shores of Newfoundland, still remained suspended. The inhabitants of Newfoundland, he said, were generally on friendly terms with the French.

Wholesale Kidnapping in Montana.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 8.—The police believe an organized band of kidnappers are at work in this city. In addition to the mysterious disappearance of W. H. Harrison, a travelling man, and two little daughters, the disappearance of three other small children is now reported.

Lynched for Arson.

JACKSON, Miss., May 8.—News has been received here of the lynching of Amos Hicks, colored, near Rocky Springs. Hicks was suspected of burning the stables of a white farmer.

Insomnia is fearfully on the increase. The rush and excitement of modern life so tax the nervous system that multitudes of people are deprived of good and sufficient sleep, with ruinous consequences to the nerves. Remember, Ayer's Sarsaparilla makes the weak strong.

I can highly praise Burdock Blood Bitters because it had a fair trial in my case with wonderful success. My symptoms were dropsy, backache and sleeplessness, and all these disappeared after using two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters. I cannot praise its healing powers too highly.

Its cover red conspicious shows
Where we can purchase good cheap clothes,
In every house where that book goes
Is full of praise and wonder.

The back; a nice time table bore
Months, weeks and days for ninety-four,
The street and number of the store
By honest, stylish clothiers.

Its leaves are ruled two ways in blue
To mark each day's transactions true,
And keep our memories fresh for two
Cheap and reliable clothiers.

'Tis prized by farmer's wives like gold
She marks her eggs and butter sold,
By her the husband plain is told
From you to buy his clothing.

It sets the young boys on tip toe
They dream about LeBrun & Co.,
And cry with their papa to go
For cheap suits you are offering.

It suits the times, it takes the eye
On prices marked we may rely,
Points to the place where all can buy
Cheap suits—or made to order.

It is near twenty years and two
Since I bought the first suit from you,
Through all those years I found you true
In word, in deed and clothing.

Your goods, your name stand high to-day
No empty puff nor false display,
Your customers trust what you do say
When buying from you their clothing.

Though small in size its power is great
Low prices strong desires create,
Each seems afraid of being too late
For cheap suits you were offering.

I hope its fruits you will behold
Increasing sales one hundred fold
Till not one suit remains unsold
Of your large stock of clothing.

IN COATS.

There is more length to the new Coats for 1894 than has been used in Men's Dress since the 60's.

THE DOUBLE BREASTED FROCK is the most fastidious garment man has put on in a generation. It adds to the stature of the man and conceals defects of figure. It is short waisted, snug fitting, long tailed and beautifully moulded to the figure. The Skirts are hollow at the top and form a beautiful curve, which is the most distinctive thing about the new styles.

Then there is the THREE BUTTON CUTAWAY Coat which is a high favourite. It is popularly described as the "Pigeon Wing" on account of its sloping tails. The sleeves are of moderate size and are closed with a vent for three buttons. If properly made it will cling rather closely to the hips.

The new CUTAWAY SACK COAT for business wear is one of the most popular of the season. It has caught the fancy of the young men. All the pockets should have flaps. The collar rolls low and is not faced with Silk.

Any of these garments made up to order to please the most fastidious dresser and with faultless devotion to the fashion plates

A Government BOMBSHELL

THROWN INTO THE

LIFE INSURANCE CAMP!

The following statement comes from the government Blue Book. It covers a period of sixteen years, and is sworn to as correct by representatives of each Company:

Statement of Premiums received and Cash Profits paid back to Policy Holders from 1877 to 1892, both years inclusive:—

COMPANY.	Premiums Received.	Dividends Paid to Policy Holders.	Ratio of Dividends to Premiums. %
CANADA LIFE	$18,203,207	$2,946,423	18.18
Confederation Life	6,165,482	637,995	10.35
North American	2,327,082	32,857	1.41
Ontario Mutual	3,878,096	433,284	11.17
Sun Life	5,527,720	355,290	6.43

Never in the history of Life Insurance has the struggle for business been keener. Never has the conflict been hotter. Never have the Companies felt as they feel now, the necessity for throwing all the energy at their command into the field. The most intelligent and best men have to be employed. All kinds of plans of insurance are submitted. Each Company determined in securing the supremacy in the good will of the public, in establishing their name, the utterance of which, shall convey to the minds of the people the essential characteristics of

UNDOUBTED SECURITY,
RIGID ECONOMY,
GOOD INVESTMENTS,
LARGEST PROFITS

WHY?

Because millons of dollars are being paid annually for Life Insurance, and the Companies that can show these features have attained a position which will guarantee their future success, for money will flow freely into the best investments.

The Canada Life Policy Holders can look at the above statement with a smile of satisfaction, yet sympathise with their friends who are not so favourably situated.

They can throw their Life Policies down in the face of opponents and successfully challenge the production of more profitable policies, they can stand the onslaught of Agents who will almost cover them with literature and estimates of Tontine, Semi-Tontine, Return Premiums, Reserved Dividends, Annuity and Endownment plans of insurance, and with a quiet assurance feel that

As The Canada Life is Making the Most Profits, She Can Pay the Largest Profits.

READER. If you want Life Insurance choose the Canada Life and join the throng of contented policy holders who are insured with the Company carrying about 45 per cent. of the total insurance in force of the above named Companies

Young Women's Christian Association.

Bible class this evening, beginning at eight o'clock; teacher, Miss Code. Cordial invitations are extended to all young women.

Regular meeting of the board of managers was held yesterday afternoon with eight members present. Reports of the months work showed that the attendance and interest had been unusually good. New ones are becoming interested Some time was spent in discussing the prudence of a "Boarding Home." Some steps were taken to see what could be done. Doubtless the work of the association would prove more real good and help to young women if this could be brought about. It was also decided that the hour of meeting be changed from 3 o'clock to 3.30.

The Benefit Concert.

The attention of the public is again called to the benefit concert of Mrs. Seward, widow of the late L. Seward. The array of talent that will contribute the programme ensures the musical enjoyment of the occasion. Besides the object is a most worthy one. For the past eight years Mr. and Mrs. Seward have done very much in the promotion of musical interests. Their services were always willingly given and their work in this connection should be practically recognized. Mr. Seward, owing to his infirmity, was unable to leave to his family the benefits of life assurance, while his income beyond the means of living, was devoted to the means to relieve the ceaseless pain from which he suffered. It is to be hoped that all those who enjoy good music and feel the pleasure of doing a kindly and deserving act will attend this concert. Admission to all parts of the house 25 cents.

The Eden-Fontana Company.

Remember this great entertainment, under the auspices of the Fire Brigade band, in the opera house on next Friday night. In addition to the other unrivalled attractions, Mr. Charles Kelly, "Canada's Pride," basso-cantante, guitarist and mandolinist, will furnish several of his grand selections. Those who have heard him in Peterborough know what a great treat to expect from his singing and playing, which have been accorded the highest praise wherever he has appeared. Grace Eden, the Georgia wonder, is indeed a wonder, and her mysterious feats of strength, outrivalling St. Cyr and Sandow, are well worth seeing. Prof. Fontana and Madam Fontana, in their hypnotic and mind reading specialties, give balance and variety to the entertainment. It should not be missed. Here is an opportunity for the public to spend a most enjoyable evening and, at the same time, to honour and help the band boys, who are deserving of every assistance and encouragement. Opera house, Friday night. Tickets 25 and 35 cents.

CUT THIS OUT and send it to us, enclosing a three cent stamp and the names of ten ladies, and we will send each one a sample of one of the best monthly papers published, and we will send it to you FREE for six months. Mention EXAMINER, and address MEDICAL ADVISER, Bowmanville, Ont.

NEWS NUGGETS

—Band practice to-night.

—Battalion parade to-night.

—Additional local matter on eighth page.

—The buglers of the 57th practiced last evening.

—Its a little too cool yet to patronize the summer car in the evenings.

—For biliousness or liver trouble, Madill's Stomach and Liver Pills are a sure cure.

—The police are out again to-day with another big batch of summons for owners of tagless canines.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similar pests, sure as death. What? Post's Corrosive Sublimate, for sale at Lynch's drug store, 168 Hunter street.

—The Minstrels held a good practice in Jackson's Music Hall last night. The next practice is on Wednesday evening. The Lime Juice Club promises to be a feature of the entertainment.

—The officers of Court St. Peter, 225, Catholic order of Foresters, the list of which has been published in EXAMINER, were duly installed last night by Bro. J. J. Lynch, D. H. C. R. A committee was appointed to arrange for the annual excursion of the Court on the 21st of June.

—Norris' famous equine and canine paradox company of 100 highly educated ponies and dogs will exhibit in the opera house to-morrow night (Thursday afternoon, matinee) and Thursday night. Look out for the grand street parade to-morrow at noon. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents. Matinee prices 15 and 25 cents.

—"Slavery Days" attracted quite a large crowd at the Opera House last night. The dancing was the best by long odds that has ever been seen here and the cake walk was a feature which evoked a great deal of applause. Almost every member of the Company is a dancer of unusual merit and almost every member is also a singer. One quartette in is particularly worthy of mention. Slavery Days again occupies the boards to-night and it is safe to predict that a bumper house will be the reward of the meritorious performance given last night.

In New Attire.

The Brockville Times furnishes another proof of its prosperity and the enterprise of its proprietor in the form of a very tasteful new dress. The time is a first-rate live local daily newspaper and (with a mental reservation in regard to its highly objectionable politics) the EXAMINER wishes Confrere Colcock abundant and continuous prosperity.

That New Gaval.

The mayor wielded his new gaval last night in a manner which showed that the tool had no soft snap when it got the appointment of order keeper in the council chamber. A few of the members got a touch over the knuckles with it in a manner far from playful and its advent probably herlds the era of a new regime in the debates of the town fathers.

Cricket Club Minstrels.

The rehearsals of the amateur minstrels are progressing very satisfactorily and there is every indication that the boys will put up a splendid entertainment on Tuesday evening, May 15th. A dress rehearsal will take place to-morrow night and it is imperative that every member of the company who expects to assist in the programme make it a point to be present. The reserved seat plan will open at Sailsburys to-morrow at 10 o'clock. Everybody should attend the concert next Tuesday night, May 15th. Wickets pitched—that is "play" called—the curtain rises at 8 o'clock.

A New Chemong Park Steamer.

A new steamer is under construction to ply between the Grand Trunk wharf at the Chemong Valley terminus and the park wharf. The new craft, the hull of which is being built by the Canadian Canoe Co., will be 30 feet keel with 5½ feet beam with oak ribs and cedar planking The craft will be fitted with fancy awnings and curtains. The passenger capacity of the new steamer will be about twenty-five persons and the speed ten miles an hour. Messrs. Moffat & Kinch are supplying the engine, boiler, screw and other necessary iron work. The new ferry steamer is expected to be ready the beginning of June.

Resolution of Condolence.

Loyal Orange Lodge No. 49 passed the following resolution of condolence at a recent meeting out of sympathy for the widow of the late Richard Cook, who was an esteemed member of the Order:—

Mrs. Cook:

DEAR MADAM,—The members of Loyal Orange lodge No. 49 desire to express their heartfelt sympathy for you in the bereavement which God in his infinite wisdom has called upon you to bear. You are called upon to mourn the loss of a loving husband and your children of an affectionate father. May God in His infinite grace sustain, comfort and strengthen you in the hour of affliction, and may you leave it all to Him who is too wise to be unkind.

Signed on behalf of the lodge.

J. HAMILTON, Master,
A. ARMSTRONG, Secretary.

Added Injury to Insult.

The Street Railway Company had another case on this morning at the police court. A conductor had been refused his fare by a passenger who added insult to injury by jumping off and drawing the conductor off after him. This morning in the police court, however, the said passenger was not in quite as gay and festive a mood. The police magistrate after stating that the street railway officials exerted themselves to the utmost to accommodate the public, delivered himself of the opinion that the law would protect these same officials from insults and assaults. In the present instance, as Mr. Poussette, counsel for the company, did not press the case the delinquent was let off with a fine of a dollar and costs, amounting to $5.65. The magistrate in assessing the costs remarked that he proposed making such an example of the next case of this kind which came up, as would serve as a warning to deter others from ever attempting anything of the kind.

THE CAMPAIGN COMMENCED.

A ROUSING LIBERAL RALLY LAST NIGHT.

The Largest and Best Organization Meeting Ever Held Here—Enthusiastic Gathering of Mr. Stratton's Supporters—Energetic Organization Effected.

Last night the largest, most enthusiastic and most harmoniously, earnest organization meetings ever held in town was held in the Liberal Committee rooms over Messrs. Lech & Sons fur store, 413 George street. The commodious committee rooms were well filled, enthusiastic and encouraging addresses were given by several prominent workers, and throughout the whole of the deliberations of the large gathering the utmost harmony and enthusiasm prevailed. Organization was effected in due course, Mr. Peter Hamilton being made chairman of the general town committee and Mr. R. R. Hall, secretary. The several ward committees were organized with the following gentlemen as president and secretary respectively:—

Ward No. 4.—Mr. J.J. Hartley, chairman, and Mr. S. Clegg, secretary.
Ward No. 3.—Mr. William Yelland, chairman, and Mr. R. McGregor, secretary.
Ward No. 2.—Mr. A. McFarlane, chairman, and Mr. R. S. Davidson, secretary.
Ward No. 1.—Mr. Wm. Rudkins, chairman, and Mr. Wm. White, secretary.

The spirit of earnest enthusiasm that animated the meeting, struck the key note of the campaign, of whose favourable issue there can exist no doubt, Mr. Stratton has reason to feel deeply gratified at the hearty and vigorous manner in which his friends are rallying to his support; and, in view of the way in which the campaign is opened, the capable and honest administration of Sir Oliver Mowat will secure another hearty endorsation at the hands of the electors of West Peterborough. The ball is started rolling under the most happy auspices.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Wm. Horsey, of Bowmanville, is in town for a few days.

Mr. P. J. Carey, Cobourg, was in town yesterday on business.

Mr. Joseph Anderson, of Hastings, spent yesterday in town on business.

Mr. A. V. R. Young is visiting in town for a few days the guest of Mrs. Charles Ranney, Gilmour street.

Rev. Walter M. Loucks of Christ Church, Ottawa, formerly assistant Curate of St. John's, is in town renewing acquaintances.

Messrs. T. Howard and J. Carey, of Hastings, were in town in yesterday and attended last night's regular meeting of St. Peter's Court of Foresters.

Mr. C. A. Winter, of Waterloo, superintendent of agencies of the Dominion Life Assurance Association, Waterloo, is in town in the interest of that Company. Mr. Winter is also an enthusiastic musician. He is originator and secretary of the annual asociation of choirs for Western Ontario, whose object is an annual reunion of the choirs of all denominations, and the giving of a grand concert and the holding of a monster picnic. A chorus of 2000 voices and instrumental accompaniment of 100 pieces is the calibre of the Association. This year the concert will be given in either London or Sarnia.

CANADA FOREVER.

Beautiful Views of Our Beautiful Dominion.

In the pages of the evening EXAMINER will be found a coupon referring to "Canada," a portfolio of original photographic views of our beloved country. This portfolio is published in weekly parts. Each part contains not less than 16 pages 10x14 inches in size of illustrations and descriptive matter. Twenty-six parts will comprise the series, making altogether upwards of four hundred superb photographic views, covering the whole vast domain of British America. The object of this splendid series of Canadian fine art pictures is to provide the people of Canada with a scenic and descriptive reproduction of the artistic beauties of Canada and the evidences of its resources and material progress—to show Canada's glorious lake, river and mountain scenery—to depict in panorama of photographic pictures the urban and rural life of the Canadian people—to place within the reach of our own people the means of acquainting themselves with all that is notable in the national features of our own country. Every home should have one of these portfolios; they will be a never-ending and perpetual delight to the family, to callers and friends, an ornament to the home, a mine of wealth of scenic beauty and illustration of the resources of Canada. How to get this portfolio. Cut out the coupon printed in each issue of this paper and send or bring it with ten cents to the EXAMINER office. Part I is now ready, and the remaining parts up to 26 will be issued weekly. Only 10 cents a week will give you at the end of the series a magnificent volume of nearly 400 pages. The pictures, 400 in number, are superb, half-tone photographs of mountains, rivers, lakes, forests, cities, towns and other picturesque features of the land we live in. Be sure to cut out the coupon and enclose ten cents with it and get series No. 1. Begin at the beginning and don't by delay regret that you are missing this great chance.

THE MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.

AN UNUSUALLY PROSPEROUS YEAR.

The Twenty-sixth Annual Meeting—Dr. Burnham Again Elected President—The Directors—The Reports of the Several Committees—The Reading Room to be Open on Public Holidays—A Balance of $288 on Hand.

The annual meeting of the Mechanics' Institute was held in the reading room last night. There was a good attendance of members present. The Institute is progressing very favourably. During the past year a large number of new books have been added to the library and a very neat room has been fitted up for the use of the lady members, yet considering all this extra expenditure the financial statement shows a very creditable balance of over $300. The Directors hope that the citizens will give this very useful institution their hearty support and become members.

Dr. Geo. Burnham, President, took the chair and called the meeting to order.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

Dr. Geo. Burnham, president, presented his report as follows :

Twenty-sixth annual report of the Peterborough Mechanics' Institute :

Another year has closed and your directors have again the pleasure of being able to present a satisfactory report of the work of the Institute.

Owing to the prevailing financial stringency, there has been a slight decrease in the membership from the preceding year, but in every other point the progress made has been greater than at that or any previous year.

The drawing classes under the tuition of Mr. R. L. Hamilton have done remarkably well. Some of the drawings made by the class of 1892-93 were exhibited at the World's Fair and received the only award given to Mechanics' Institutes in Canada. Sixteen of that class were successful in obtaining certificates from the Ontario Government. The classes held last winter were regular in their attendance and diligent in their studies, and we expect that the greater number of those trying the examinations will succeed in passing.

A new feature has been introduced by supplying a reading room for the lady members of the Institute. A large room has been handsomely fitted up at considerable expense and the table well supplied with the leading periodicals of the day. The general reading room, too, has not been allowed to suffer on that account as all the old favourite magazines and papers may still be found there.

Over 500 volumes of the newest and best books have been added to the library which now contains over 7,000 volumes. These, as will be seen by the accompanying report, have been kept in active circulation during the year. The financial affairs of the Institute are carefully and faithfully attended to and good value received for every dollar expended.

Your directors feel that they have spared no pains to make the institution a success and they trust that the citizens generally will show their appreciation of their endeavors by becoming members. The Financial and Library reports are appended herewith. All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. BURNHAM, M. D.,
President.

Peterborough, May 7th, 1894.

The report was adopted.

THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE.

The following is the report of the Library Committee to the President :

Your Library Committee beg to report that 505 volumes have been added to the library since last report at a cost of $640.44 and classified as under :

A, Biography, vols. 19, value $38.13 ; B, Essays and Lectures, vols. 13, value $19 ; C, Fiction, vols. 163, value $171.36 ; D, History, vols. 19, value $35.05 ; E, Reference works, vols. 29, value $52.40 ; F, Natural History, vols. 8, value $18 40 ; G, Standard works, vols. 31, value $61.03 ; H and I, Sundries, vols. 70, value $84.95 ; K, Poetry, vols. 8, value $5.20 Periodicals, vols. 6, value $13. M religious works, vols. 20, value $40.30 ; N. Science and Art, vols. 62, value $37.47 ; O Voyages and travels, vols. 37, value $64.15.

Included in the above are the following vols. presented to the Institute : Daily Review for 1892, Hansard for 1893, by John Burnham, Esq., M.P., year book for 1892, by Dr. G. Burnham, and 5 vols. by the Dominion and Ontario Governments.

The reference library has been increased by 29 vols. among which are Dixon and Grier's Vade Mecum, Gould's Medical Dictionary and the Medical Annuals for 1892-3-4.

The number of members on May 1st was 317.

The number of volumes issued during the year was 10,858, classified as under : Biography, 180 ; essays, 147 ; fiction, 5,349 ; history, 741 ; general literature, 2,010 ; miscellaneous, 1,298 ; poetry and drama, 91 ; periodicals, 213 ; religious works, 108 ; science and art, 378 ; voyages and travels, 345.

This total shows an increase of 1,499 volumes as compared with last year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

F. J. LEWIS,
Chairman.

The report was adopted.

THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was then taken up. Messrs. Mulholland and Ray were appointed to act as scrutineers. A ballot was taken and the following were declared elected ;

President.—Dr. Geo. Burnham (by acclamation.)

Directors.—Dr. Brennan, John Corkery, Jas. English, C. Fessenden, T. A. Hay, J. S. Knapman, F. J. Lewis, Thos. Richardson, R. Robertson.

VOTE OF THANKS.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the auditors, Messrs. Roper and Stevenson and to the scrutineers, Messrs. Ray and Mulholland for their very efficient services.

MORE NEWSPAPERS.

A motion was passed requesting the directors to procure daily newspapers from Montreal, Ottawa and Winnipeg, and also asking them to look into the matter of procuring several of the leading English dailies and magazines.

VERY EFFICIENT.

Mr. R. Mulholland moved that a vote of thanks be tendered to the retiring directors for their very efficient services during the past year.

Inspector Garvin, in seconding the motion, stated that he had had considerable to do with Mechanics' Institutes in other places, but none of them were so ably managed as the Peterborough Institute.

The motion was passed.

OPEN ON HOLIDAYS.

Several of the members were desirous that the reading rooms should be left open on public holidays and it was decided to try the experiment.

The meeting then adjourned.

Bargain, Suits to fit Boys, 4 to 10 years, 75c 98c, $1.25, $1.50, $1.98. See them at GRAFTON & Co.

For dyspepsia or indigestion try Madill's Dyspepsia Powders. Many have been cured by them.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Green and the Diamond—Tilgin A. Tapes—The Bicycle and Football.

LACROSSE.

Some of the medals which are to be awarded at the Campbellford demonstration on the 24th are on view in Mr. S. Ray's cigar store. Among them stand forth conspicuous the 13 gold pendants which go to the successful team in the lacrosse tournament. They are well worth winning, being guaranteed of solid gold, while the workmanship on the trophies is of the finest. Three gold and three silver medals for the bicyclists are also of handsome design and will, together with the lacrosse medals, doubtless attract a great number of contestants in the different events at Campbellford on the Queen's Birthday.

Regarding an item published in the EXAMINER a few days ago in which it was stated that the Belleville lacrossists would be in Campbellford on the 24th, the Belleville Intelligencer says :

"Allow us to state first that the secretary of the Belleville Lacrosse Club never wrote a letter to Mr. G. J. Hopkins, and if he has such a letter in his possession it is not addressed to him. Secondly, the secretary did not state in any letter that the team would be in Campbellford, but wrote Mr. F. J. Smith of that town as to what clubs had entered."

The letter in question from the secretary asks plainly for the acceptance of the club's entry and it asks for something else too. How would you like to see the letter published in full, friend Hull ?

BASEBALL.

The baseball match between the wine clerks and printers nine will begin at 2.30 to-morrow afternoon in Riverside Park, and is expected to be about the most interesting game of the season.

QUOITS.

The Quoit club hasn't turned out for practice yet this year. The teachers in the schools are too busily engaged just now in preparing their scholars for the examinations to take much interest in sport. The other players however propose to start in almost immediately.

ACQUATIC.

Mr. Binch is not quite satisfied with the result of the race between his steam launch and that belonging to Mr. Johnson which occurred Saturday evening, as his gearing was not in good trim. Another meeting between the two boats is looked for.

It is probable that a race between the several steam launches will take place from the locks to Jubilee Point on May 24th.

CRICKET.

The cricketers are expected to turn out this afternoon for practice at 4 o'clock. The wickets will be pitched for the first time, and two or three good hours will be put in. As this is the first practice it is desirous that all who can possibly show up on the grounds put in an appearance so that an idea may be formed of what material the club has to work upon.

The total of the guarantee list is slowly swelling although it has not been pushed as hard as it might be. The list will have to be completed almost immediately as the secretary can take no action regarding the securing of a professional until he is assured that there will be no difficulty experienced in paying the salary.

THE WHEEL.

The fastest known time that has been made between Lakefield and Peterborough on a wheel is stated to have been made by Mr. Will Greatrex, formerly of this town, who covered the distance on an "ordinary" wheel in 32 minutes. Capt. Hopkins went out the other evening to have a try at the record and made the stretch in 42 minutes. He is positive that 35 minutes is the least that the distance can be covered in and doesn't think that a high wheel could be ridden at any high rate of speed as the road is pretty bad and even a "safety" at times is pretty hard to keep straight.

Mr. George J. Hopkins and Mr. Gus Hay will participate in the great relay ride on June 15th having been detailed to cover the distance together between Grafton and Colborne. It is safe to predict that a like distance will not be covered in less time by the message, as the two Peterborough representatives are two of the fastest men in the Midland section.

POOL.

In the Stubbs-Clouthier pool match for the championship of Canada, last night in Montreal, Stubbs won by 50 points.

STRUCK THE PRIEST'S ARM.

Sacrilegious Act of an Alleged Ex-Priest in a Hamilton Cathedral.

HAMILTON, Ont., May 8.—There was a big sensation during children's mass at St. Mary's Cathedral on Sunday. Rev. Mgr. McEvay extended the invitation to all who wished to partake of communion to come to the front. Among others who went up was James Corkery, who claims to be an ex-priest and has been lecturing in Hamilton for some time past on the false doctrines of the Roman Catholic faith. When Corkery was handed the consecrated wafer by Father McEvay he struck the priest's arm so vigorously that the contents of his hand was strewn about the floor. Corkery at the same time repeated these words: "I protest; shame upon you! This is no more the body of Christ than it is the man in the moon."

The communicants and other worshippers in the church were so astounded at Corkery's act that they did not recover from the shock of surprise until two or three of the ushers, acting on Mgr. McEvay's instruction, had conducted Corkery from the church.

A warrant was sworn out against Corkery and he was arrested. He will be prosecuted for offering violence to a clergyman while in the discharge of his duties, and is liable to imprisonment for two years if found guilty.

THE COMBER TRAGEDY.

Truski, Who Attempted Suicide, Making a Rapid Recovery.

WINDSOR, May 8.—Joseph Truski, the murderer of Constable Lindsay at Comber, has so far recovered from the effects of the bullet he fired into his own breast while surrounded by the officers in the woods that he smoked several cigars and expressed himself as feeling pretty good. His rapid recovery brings with it extra care for the officers who are guarding him. From some peculiar actions by his wife and a conversation overheard between her and her husband, Constable Laport became suspicious that an attempt might be made to escape. Yesterday Crown Attorney Clarke received a telephone message from Laport and had Detective McKee go out to look over the ground. When he arrived he had the guard doubled and expects that Truski will soon be in a condition to be removed to Sandwich jail. The inquest on the shooting of Lindsay will be resumed to-day and Truski will be present.

A NEW HAT.

To be RIGHT IN THE SWIM and have your social importance and manly beauty enhanced a hundred fold, GOUGH BROS. must be your Hatters.

We carry a big load of Fashionable Hats in all the correct styles of English and American SILK, STIFF and SOFT HATS, to satisfy all tastes.

JUST RECEIVED.—A big raft of American Novelties in smart and popular selling styles of STRAW HATS for Men, Youth's, Boys and Children.

DON'T SAVE THE DIME AND THROW AWAY THE DOLLAR. We are below all others in the prices of Hats and we are anxious you should know it. We don't try to make much money in Hats, but we lead in this line, all the same, as a matter of course—just as a horse comes before a cart.

IN CHILDREN'S HATS we offer a great choice in many shapely novelties, starting as low as 10c. and ending at 75c. We're doing the work we like best of all—saving you money.

Sock It To 'em.

Clean, neat Socks look well under a new Hat. We have a big choice for you at our Hosiery counter, and can sell you full fashioned CASHMERE HOSE 5 pairs for a dollar—famous socks. These goods are our own direct importations, or we never could sell them at this figure. They are double heeled and toed, and will fit any man faultlessly who happens to be well "heeled" enough to have a twenty-cent piece in his trouserloons pockets. Only five pairs at a time to a customer, and no repeaters (unless Jimmy Tully happens to be round.)

In our famous Furnishings Department, of course we know you will appreciate our nobby Neckwear, Shirts and Underwear. We're disposed to feel half ashamed of the prices, but you'll be proud of the garments.

A Young Men's Saturday.

ALL DAY SATURDAY and SATURDAY NIGHT up to 11 o'clock, we will give young men a TWENTY PER CENT. REDUCTION off all our $5, $6, $7, $8, $9, and $10 Suits. The reason we can make this offer is that the depression in the money market has tied up several manufacturers of Clothing, and we could not help taking advantage of acceptionally low offers for YOUNG MEN'S SUITS. Gentlemen, this is your chance. It will pay you to pick your own pocket to get your pick of these Suits.

ALL OVER THE GLOBE—Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are known. Pills of American manufacture easily lead. Why? Because they're smaller; the vegetable extracts are concentrated. There are many liver pills, yet there must be a reason why Dr. Pierce's Pellets give the best satisfaction. Probably because they're sugar-coated, small as grains of mustard seed, therefore, easily swallowed. Most of all—they act in a natural way, and are effective in result. Then, too, after they're taken they can't be felt—so different from the old-fashioned pills, with their griping and violence.

For indigestion, pain in stomach, costiveness and habitual constipation, as well as sick and bilious headaches, these "Pellets" bring such a lasting cure, that they can be guaranteed. Your money is returned, if they do not give satisfaction.

To every sufferer from Catarrh, no matter how bad the case or of how long standing, the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy say this: "If we can't cure it, perfectly and permanently, we'll pay you $500 in cash." Sold by all druggists.

EGYPT'S NEW MINISTRY.

The Story of Nubar Pacha's Long Official Career.

The cabinet crisis in Egypt has resulted in the resignation of Riaz Pacha and the accession to power of Nubar Pacha. In summoning the latter to his presence he sent to Lord Cromer in accordance with a pledge given to the British government last year, that the Khedive would in future consult with the Queen's government before making any ministerial changes.

THE KHEDIVE OF EGYPT.

The new Prime Minister, Nubar Pacha, is sixty nine years of age and has had a wide experience of public affairs. He was secretary to Mohemet Ali and to Ibrahim Pacha and under Ismail was Minister of Public Works in 1864 and Minister of Foreign Affairs in 1867. It was while he was Foreign Minister that Ismail obtained from the Sultan the title of Khedive with its regular descent from father to son in consideration of a substantial increase in the tribute paid yearly to Constantinople. The principal work of his career was the establishment of mixed tribunals. In 1867 he addressed a memorandum to the Khedive on the subject of the perils of the judicial administration in Egypt. Two years later he presided over a commission attended by delegates from Great Britain, France, Austria, Prussia, Russia and Italy, which accepted his reforms in principle, leaving him to work out the details—a task which mainly occupied twenty years of his busy life.

Nubar held various offices under Ismail and his successor, Tewfik, but since his sudden dismissal in 1888 has been little before the eye of the public. He speaks and writes fluently the various European languages and might readily pass for one of the English gentlemen with whom by preference he associates, were it not for the swarthy complexion which proclaims the Oriental. Though conciliatory in his manner, Nubar Pacha is something more than a courtier. He is indeed firm and proud to a fault and possesses the faculty of saying what he means in a way which successive Khedives have not always found agreeable.

The object which he has always set before him has been to render his country self-respecting—free at once from Khedivial despotism and from foreign privilege. He has, therefore, a task of considerable difficulty before him, placed as he is between an imperious young sovereign and the uncompromising agent of a foreign Power.

Next to the President himself the most notable members of the new Ministry as foreshadowed above are Boutros Pacha, Minister for Foreign Affairs, and Mazloum Pacha, Minister of Finance. Boutros is a Copt, and as the Copts in Egypt are the best accountants and seem to have a genius for arithmetic he was apparently in the place for which nature destined him in the last Cabinet as Minister of Finance. What manner of Foreign Minister he will make remains to be seen, but he has been a good public servant, having been for many years in the Ministry of Justice, and may fairly be said to have earned promotion. He is a man of small stature, with a round, clean shaven face, whose features rarely light up and who often seems half asleep.

RIAZ PACHA

(The Egyptian Premier who has resigned),

Mazloum Pasha was Minister of Justice in the late Cabinet. He is comparatively quite a young man, speaking French perfectly and an excellent representative of the new school of educated Egyptians who owe their training to France, and especially to Paris. He is tall and thin and of courteous and refined manners. The late Khedive appointed him Governor-General of the Isthmus of Suez, and Abbas on his accession nominated him Grand Master of Ceremonies. He is one of the most rising men in Egypt, and his French training will certainly not prejudice him unduly in favor of the English. It is said that of all the Ministers constituting the late Cabinet Mazloum alone enjoyed the confidence of the Khedive, and that Abbas would have made him Prime Minister some time ago instead of Rias had it not been that Mazloum himself, knowing that Lord Cromer would not sanction his nomination, had so directed all his efforts to maintaining the Ministry in power.

Lord Cromer's task, difficult as it has been in the past, is not likely to grow lighter as time goes on. Whatever the final outcome of the situation may be the British government may at least console themselves with the reflection that they could not have a more able representative. Lord Cromer knows more about Egyptian politics and the Egyptian character than any other official living. He was formerly a European Commissioner of the Public Debt, and subsequently, on the establishment of the Dual Control, practically ruled the country in co-operation with his French colleague, M. de Blignieres.

The Deadly Compositor.

Subbe Scriber (rushing into the sanctum)—You made a beastly mistake in your paper yesterday.
